AFFIDAVIT OF ADAM ZALEV
(sworn August 18, 2026)

I, Adam Zalev, of the City of Nashville, in the state of Tennessee, MAKE OATH AND SAY:

1. I am the Founding Member and Managing Director of Reflect Advisors LLC ("Reflect") and currently serve as the Chief Restructuring Officer ("CRO") of the Debtors¹. I was appointed as CRO on July 22, 2026.

2. This affidavit supplements the affidavit I swore on August 19, 2026 (the "Initial Affidavit") and is sworn in support of an application by the Canadian Debtor, in its capacity as the Foreign Representative (as defined below), for the following orders:

(a) an order (the "Initial Recognition Order"), among other things:

- (i) recognizing the Canadian Debtor as the Foreign Representative in respect of the Chapter 11 Cases; and
- (ii) recognizing the Chapter 11 Case of the Canadian Debtor as a "foreign main proceeding" in respect of the Canadian Debtor; and

(b) an order (the "Supplemental Order"), among other things:

- (i) recognizing certain orders (the "First Day Orders") issued by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Cases;

¹ The "Debtors" include BFG Supply Co., LLC ("BFG Supply"); Bamboo Purchaser, Inc.; BFG Purchaser Parent, Inc.; BFG Supply Holdings, Inc.; BFG Holdings I, Inc.; BFG Supply Canada Holdings, Inc.; BFG Kalamazoo, LLC; BFG Logistics, LLC; L&L Nursery Supply, Inc.; Gard'N-Wise Distributors, Inc.; International Greenhouse Contractors, LLC; Greenhouse Solutions, LLC; Greenhouse Contracting Services, LLC; Green-Tek, LLC; GROSouth, Inc.; BFG VG Supply Acquisition, LLC; and De Cloet Greenhouse Mfg. Ltd. (the "Canadian Debtor").

- (ii) granting a stay of proceedings in respect of the Canadian Debtor and its directors and officers;
- (iii) appointing AlixPartners Restructuring, Inc. ("AlixPartners") as information officer in respect of this proceeding (in such capacity, the "Information Officer");
- (iv) granting a Court-ordered charge (the "Administration Charge") over the assets and property of the Canadian Debtor (the "Property") in Canada in favour of Canadian counsel to the Canadian Debtor, the Information Officer and counsel to the Information Officer;
- (v) granting a Court-ordered charge (the "D&O Charge") over the Property in Canada to secure the indemnity obligations of the Canadian Debtor to its directors and officers in respect of obligations and liabilities that such directors and officers (including de facto directors and officers) may incur during these proceedings in their capacity as directors and officers; and
- (vi) granting a Court-ordered charge (the "DIP Lender's Charge") over the Property in Canada to secure the obligations of the Canadian Debtor under the DIP Facility (as defined below).

I. OVERVIEW

3. On August 18, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtors filed voluntary petitions for relief (the "Petitions") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Bankruptcy Court") pursuant to chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "U.S. Bankruptcy Code"). The cases commenced by the Debtors in the U.S. Bankruptcy Court are referred to herein as the “Chapter 11 Cases” and, together with the Canadian proceeding, are referred to as the “Restructuring Proceedings.” A certified copy of the Chapter 11 petition for the Canadian Debtor is attached hereto as Exhibit “A”.

4. Concurrently with the Petition, the Debtors filed certain motions (the “First Day Motions”) requesting authority from the U.S. Bankruptcy Court to continue to operate the Debtors’ businesses in compliance with the U.S. Bankruptcy Code and to begin the planned restructuring process described in my Initial Affidavit. I understand that copies of the First Day Motions relevant to this recognition Proceeding (the “Canadian Recognition Proceeding”) and certain supporting declarations are being provided to this Court in a separate affidavit.

5. On August 19, 2026, the Canadian Debtor, in its capacity as the proposed foreign representative of the Debtors (the “Foreign Representative”), brought an application before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Court”) for an order (the “Interim Stay Order”) pursuant to Section 106 of the Courts of Justice Act, R.S.O. 1990, c C.43 and Part IV of the Companies’ Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C., 1985, c. C 36, as amended (the “CCAA”), among other things, granting a stay of proceedings in respect of the Canadian Debtor and its directors and officers.

6. The Court granted the Interim Stay Order on August 19, 2026, giving effect in Canada to the automatic stay of proceedings arising under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

7. On August 20, 2026, following a hearing in respect of the First Day Motions, the U.S. Bankruptcy Court granted the First Day Orders on an interim basis, including the Foreign Representative Order (as defined below) authorizing the Canadian Debtor to act as the Foreign Representative in respect of the Chapter 11 Cases.

8. As previewed in the Application Record dated August 19, 2026, the Foreign Representative now seeks the Initial Recognition Order and the Supplemental Order.

9. Background information with respect to the Debtors, including the Canadian Debtor, their business and the reasons for the initiation of the Restructuring Proceedings, are set out in the Initial Affidavit and the declaration that I swore in support of the Chapter 11 Cases (the “First Day Declaration”), a copy of which (without exhibits) was attached to the Initial Affidavit as Exhibit “B”. Accordingly, such information is not repeated herein.

10. Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meanings given to them in the Initial Affidavit or the First Day Declaration, as applicable. All monetary references in this affidavit are in United States dollars, unless otherwise stated.

II. RELIEF SOUGHT

A. Initial Recognition Order/ Recognition of Foreign Main Proceeding

11. The Restructuring Proceedings have been commenced to provide stability and an opportunity to the Debtors to maximize the value of their assets and business through three complementary and concurrent workstreams (collectively, the “Sales Processes”), consisting of: (i) a marketing and sales process to identify a going concern transaction for some or all of the Debtors’ business; (ii) an orderly monetization and liquidation of the Debtors’ personal property; and (iii) a real estate disposition program with respect to the Debtors’ owned real property and non-residential real property leases, including real property owned by the Canadian Debtor.

12. Pursuant to the proposed Initial Recognition Order, the Canadian Debtor, as the Foreign Representative, seeks recognition of the Canadian Debtor’s Chapter 11 Case as a “foreign main proceeding” under Part IV of the CCAA. The Debtors operate as a single commercial enterprise and, other than the Canadian Debtor, are each incorporated or formed under United States law and have all, or substantially all, of their assets located in the United States.

13. Notwithstanding the fact that the Canadian Debtor's registered office is the Canadian Facility, the centre of main interests for the Canadian Debtor is in the United States. As set out more fully beginning at paragraph 65 of the Initial Affidavit, the Canadian Debtor is an integrated part of the Debtors' enterprise, including that it is centrally managed from an overall strategic and financial perspective by a management team and CRO located in the United States. The Canadian Debtor relies upon other Debtors for the provision of certain intercompany services necessary to conduct its business, including, among other things, shared financial planning, strategic decision-making and marketing for the Canadian Debtor's products and services through sales representatives of the United States Debtors. Strategic decisions concerning the Canadian Debtor's business and restructuring efforts are being directed through the Chapter 11 Cases and under the supervision of the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. Further, the Canadian Debtor is a co-borrower under, and/or guarantor of, the Debtors' outstanding secured indebtedness advanced by United States-based lenders with related loan documentation that is governed by United States law.

14. I believe that a recognition order finding that the Canadian Debtor's centre of main interests is in the United States will support the Debtors' goals in the Chapter 11 Cases. I believe that the position of the Canadian Debtor's creditors will not be materially prejudiced by the recognition of the Canadian Debtor's Chapter 11 Case, by the imposition of the stay of proceedings, or by permitting the Canadian Debtor to continue operations while the Debtors explore a potential sale of the Debtors' business, including a potential going concern sale of the Canadian Debtor's business as part of an enterprise-wide restructuring.

B. Supplemental Order

a. Stay of Proceedings in Canada

15. By operation of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors (including the Canadian Debtor) obtained the benefit of an automatic stay of proceedings upon the filing of the Petitions. In issuing the Interim Stay Order, this Court granted an interim stay of proceedings in favour of the Canadian Debtor in respect of its business and property in Canada, as well as a stay of proceedings in favour of the directors and officers of the Canadian Debtor in Canada.

16. Under the proposed Supplemental Order, the Foreign Representative is seeking to extend the stay of proceedings granted pursuant to the Interim Stay Order. It is critical to the preservation of the value of the Canadian Debtor's business and the Debtors' overall efforts to implement a multi-track sale process and identify a potential going-concern sale that the Canadian Debtor and its directors and officers be protected by a stay of proceedings and from enforcement rights in Canada pursuant to a Canadian court order.

b. Appointment of Information Officer

17. The Foreign Representative seeks the appointment of AlixPartners as the Information Officer in this recognition proceeding pursuant to the proposed Supplemental Order. As part of the restructuring process, AlixPartners, if appointed as Information Officer, will report to the Court from time to time on the status of the Chapter 11 Cases and this proceeding and to assist in providing information to, and responding to inquiries from, interested parties in Canada.

18. I am advised by Murtaza Tallat of AlixPartners that (i) AlixPartners is a licensed insolvency trustee, well-known for its expertise in CCAA matters, including that its principals have acted as an information officer in several previous ancillary proceedings under Part IV of the CCAA), (ii)

AlixPartners has consented to act as Information Officer in this proceeding, and (iii) AlixPartners is not conflicted from acting as Information Officer.

19. The proposed Initial Recognition Order provides that, once appointed, the Information Officer will assist the Foreign Representative in publishing a notice in a national newspaper. In addition, notice of the Chapter 11 Cases will be given through notices mandated by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court. Both the claims and noticing agent in the Chapter 11 Cases and the proposed Information Officer will maintain websites providing detailed information regarding the Chapter 11 Cases and these proceedings, respectively. The appointment of an Information Officer will facilitate communication and information sharing with Canadian stakeholders throughout these Restructuring Proceedings. I understand that publication notice in insolvency proceedings is routinely addressed by the Court officer and the proposed Information Officer is well positioned to assist the Foreign Representative with this requirement.

c. Administration Charge

20. The Foreign Representative requests that the Court grant the proposed Information Officer, its legal counsel and Canadian legal counsel to the Canadian Debtor (including in its capacity as Foreign Representative) an Administration Charge to secure their fees and disbursements in the maximum amount of $450,000 on the Property in Canada. The Debtors have paid retainers to the proposed Information Officer and its counsel in the amount of C$100,000 and C$150,000, respectively. The Administration Charge is proposed to rank in priority to all other encumbrances in respect of the Canadian Debtor other than certain pre-existing registrations for a limited amount of cash collateral and leased equipment.

21. The quantum of the Administration Charge was calculated based on the substantial work required to prepare for and conduct the beginning of these Restructuring Proceedings and is consistent with the budget provided for under the DIP Facility. I believe the amount of the Administration Charge to be reasonable in the circumstances, having regard to the size and complexity of this proceeding and the roles that will be required of Canadian legal counsel to the Canadian Debtor, the proposed Information Officer, and its legal counsel.

22. Approval of the Administration Charge by this Court is appropriate because the professionals will be providing services in respect of these proceedings before the Canadian Court.

d. D&O Charge

23. The Foreign Representative also requests that the Court grant the Directors and Officers a D&O Charge on the Property in Canada in the maximum amount of C$210,000. The D&O Charge would secure the indemnity provided to the Directors and Officers in the proposed Supplemental Order in respect of liabilities they may incur during this Canadian Recognition Proceeding in their capacities as such, which includes any obligations and liabilities for wages or vacation pay due to the Canadian Employees and certain taxes that may give rise to director liability, except to the extent that, with respect to any director or officer, the obligation or liability was incurred as a result of the director or officer's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.

24. While I understand that the Directors and Officers are potential beneficiaries of director and officer liability insurance maintained by BFG Supply Investment Holdings, LP for itself and its subsidiaries (the "D&O Insurance") with an aggregate coverage limit of up to $10 million, it is subject to several exclusions and limitations which may result in there being no coverage or insufficient coverage for potential liabilities. The proposed D&O Charge would only be relied upon to the extent of any deficiencies of the D&O Insurance in covering any exposure or liabilities of the directors and officers of the Canadian Debtor that are incurred in the Restructuring Proceedings.

25. The D&O Charge would be subordinate to only the proposed Administration Charge and the limited cash collateral and leased equipment prior registrations described above.

26. The amount of the proposed D&O Charge has been estimated, in consultation with the proposed Information Officer, with reference to the Canadian Debtor's payroll, vacation pay, and federal and provincial tax liability exposure. The sole director of the Canadian Debtor is Patrick Bartels, who is also the sole director or member at each of the Debtors. The Canadian Debtor does not have any officers, but the proposed order provides that any party who may be deemed to be a director or officer will also have the benefit of the charge. Mr. Bartels has advised that he is unwilling to continue to serve in his director capacities if he is not granted the benefit of the D&O Charge.

27. In light of the potential liabilities that may arise during these Restructuring Proceedings, the potential insufficiency of the D&O Insurance, and the need for the continued service of the Canadian Debtor's director, I have been advised and believe the amount of the D&O Charge to be reasonable and the D&O Charge to be necessary in the circumstances.

e. DIP Lender's Charge

28. The Foreign Representative also requests the DIP Lender's Charge in favour of the DIP Lenders (as defined in the Interim DIP Order, defined below). The DIP Lender's Charge, if granted, will provide security over the Canadian Debtor's assets in respect of the obligations under the DIP Facility up to the maximum principal amount of $22 million plus other amounts provided for in the DIP Credit Agreement (as defined in the Interim DIP Order)) on an interim basis, and up to $55 million upon entry of the Final DIP Order. It is a requirement under the DIP

Credit Agreement that the Debtors obtain an order granting the DIP Lender's Charge within 10 business days of the Petition Date. Given the timeline of these Restructuring Proceedings and the Debtors' urgent need to access cash, the DIP Lenders did not require the DIP Lender's Charge as a condition to the first advance under the DIP Facility. However, a breach of the obligation to obtain the DIP Lender's Charge within 10 business days of the Petition Date will severely impair the Debtors' ability to operate going forward.

29. The DIP Lender's Charge would be subordinate to the Administration Charge, the D&O Charge, the limited cash collateral and leased equipment prior registrations described above and the liens of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent solely with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral (each as defined in the Interim DIP Order). The DIP Lenders' Charge will otherwise follow the priorities set out in the Interim DIP Order. For clarity, the Supplemental Order does not propose to alter or impair the agreements between the DIP Secured Parties, Prepetition ABL Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties (each as defined in the Interim DIP Order) in respect of allocation or priority. Instead, as described below, the Prepetition Secured Parties' agreements are preserved and any disputes regarding allocation can be brought before the U.S. Bankruptcy Court at the appropriate time.

30. Details of the DIP Facility are provided in paragraphs 35-41 below.

f. Recognition of Certain First Day Orders

31. Pursuant to the proposed Supplemental Order, the Foreign Representative seeks recognition in Canada of certain of the First Day Orders, each of which are discussed below. I understand that the motion material filed in support of the First Day Orders will be provided to the Court in a separate affidavit, but the following provides a summary of the impact of each order on the Canadian Debtor.

i. Foreign Representative Order

32. A certified copy of the Order (I) Authorizing De Cloet Greenhouse Mfg. Ltd. to Act as Foreign Representative in Canadian Proceeding and (II) Granting Related Relief (the “Foreign Representative Order”) is attached hereto as Exhibit “B”. A certified copy of the order has been ordered and will be provided to the Court upon receipt.

33. The Foreign Representative Order authorizes the Canadian Debtor to act as the Foreign Representative on behalf of the Debtors’ estates pursuant to the U.S. Bankruptcy Code in connection with this Canadian Recognition Proceeding. It also requests the aid and assistance of this Court to recognize the Chapter 11 Cases as a “foreign main proceeding” and the Canadian Debtor as a “foreign representative” pursuant to the CCAA and to recognize and give full force and effect in all provinces and territories in Canada to the Foreign Representative Order and to other orders issued by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court in the Chapter 11 Cases.

ii. Interim DIP Order²

34. A copy of the Interim Order Under Bankruptcy Code Sections 105, 361, 362, 363, 364, 503, 506, 507, and 552, and Bankruptcy Rules 2002, 4001, 6003, 6004, and 9014 (I) Authorizing Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Use Cash Collateral, (II) Granting (A) Liens and Providing Superpriority Administrative Expense Status and (B) Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors, (III) Modifying Automatic Stay, (IV) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (V) Granting Related Relief (the “Interim DIP Order”) is attached hereto as Exhibit “C”.

35. The Interim DIP Order, among other things, authorizes the Debtors to: (i) obtain postpetition financing pursuant to a superpriority senior secured, asset-based debtor-in-possession revolving credit facility (the “DIP Facility”) in accordance with the DIP Credit

Agreement; and (ii) access cash collateral of the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties (the “Cash Collateral”).

36. In the United States, the DIP Facility is secured by the DIP Liens, which are: (i) senior to the Prepetition Liens with respect to the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral; and (ii) junior to the liens of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral.

37. The Interim DIP Order requires the Debtors to use any cash, collections and proceeds of DIP Collateral (other than Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral), on a dollar-for-dollar basis, to reduce the amounts outstanding under the Prepetition Revolving Loans (referred to in the Initial Affidavit as the “Revolving Credit Facility”), which will result in a corresponding increase to availability under the DIP Facility. If the Interim DIP Order is recognized in Canada, any cash, collections and proceeds of DIP Collateral of the Canadian Debtor (other than Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral) will also be used on a dollar-for-dollar basis to reduce the amounts outstanding under the Prepetition Revolving Loans. As described above, the DIP Facility provides a total interim availability of $22 million, approximately $8 million of which will be new money financing. Upon entry of the Final DIP Order, the size of the DIP Facility will be increased to $55 million.

38. Consistent with the Interim DIP Order, funds in the Canadian accounts will be applied to the Revolving Credit Facility. However, based on discussions with the DIP Lender, I understand that a minimum of approximately C$500,000 is expected to remain in the Canadian accounts throughout these Restructuring Proceedings to address the Canadian Debtor’s operational needs. From time to time, I expect the Canadian Debtor will draw on the DIP Facility as it requires access to capital for ongoing projects.

39. The Canadian Debtor's obligations under the Prepetition Revolving Loans, under which it is both a borrower and a guarantor, are secured against substantially all of the Canadian Debtor's property and assets, excluding the lands on which the Canadian Facility is located and the buildings on such lands, by a first-ranking security interest.

40. As described in the First Day Declaration, the Debtors require access to liquidity to fund operations during the Restructuring Proceedings, including implementing the Sales Processes. Absent access to the DIP Facility and the Cash Collateral, the Debtors would not have sufficient liquidity to satisfy, among other things: (i) their working capital and business operating needs; (ii) the administrative costs of the Restructuring Proceedings; and (iii) the funding requirements necessary to pursue the Sales Processes and preserve value for the benefit of all stakeholders.

41. The Canadian Debtor is a borrower under the DIP Facility and may draw upon the DIP Facility to fund its operations if necessary. Further, the Canadian Debtor participates in the Debtors' integrated business and requires continued access to certain shared services, which will be funded through the liquidity provided under the DIP Facility. Recognition of the Interim DIP Order in Canada will support the ongoing operations of the Canadian Debtor and assist in preserving value while the Debtors pursue their restructuring and sale process.

iii. Interim Liquidation Procedures Order

42. A copy of the Interim Order (A) Authorizing the Debtors to Assume the Consulting Agreement; (B) Authorizing and Approving the Sales of Assets Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims and Encumbrances; and (C) Granting Related Relief (the "Interim Liquidation Procedures Order") is attached hereto as Exhibit "D".

43. The Interim Liquidation Procedures Order, among other things: (i) authorizes the Debtors to assume the Consulting Agreement dated as of July 28, 2026 between SB360 Capital Partners, LLC and Tiger Capital Group (together, the “Consultant”) and BFG Supply, on behalf of the Debtors (the “Consulting Agreement”); and (ii) authorizes the Sales, with such Sales to be free and clear of all Encumbrances (each as defined below).

44. In accordance with the Consulting Agreement, the Debtors, with the assistance of the Consultants, are authorized to conduct: (i) the sale of on-hand and in transit inventory at the Facilities (as defined in the Consulting Agreement); (ii) the sale of machinery, equipment and fixtures at the Facilities; and (iii) the collection or sale of accounts receivable (the “Receivables” and items (i) through (iii), collectively, the “Assets”). Sales conducted pursuant to the Interim Liquidation Procedures Order (the “Sales”) will be free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances and interests, including the DIP Lender’s Charge and the Prepetition Liens (collectively, the “Encumbrances”), with such Encumbrances attaching to the net proceeds according to the priorities set forth in the Interim DIP Order. Each of the Sales will be on an “as is, where is” basis.

45. The services to be provided under the Consulting Agreement (the “Asset Sale Services”) commenced on August 3, 2026, prior to the Petition Date.

46. The Asset Sale Services include, among other things: (i) providing a team to assist with the advertising and marketing of the Assets; (ii) overseeing the liquidation of the Assets; (iii) assisting with the logistical planning for the transportation of Assets that are subject to a Sale; (iv) collecting proceeds from the Sales; and (v) assisting with the resolution and collection of Receivables. The Debtors are responsible for the reasonable and documented expenses incurred in connection with the implementation of the Consulting Agreement.

47. The Consulting Agreement is expected to result in the sale of some of the Assets at competitive prices through the channels used in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business. Given the need for liquidity, certain of the Assets are expected to be marketed at a discount to other wholesale customers. The Debtors are permitted to abandon any unsold Assets which they determine are not worth the costs of storage.

48. The conduct of the Sales is a condition to the DIP Credit Agreement and has been consented to by the lenders under the Prepetition Credit Facilities.

49. In addition to the sale of the Assets in accordance with the Consulting Agreement, the Debtors intend to continue marketing the Debtors' business, with the assistance of their investment banker, SSG Capital Advisors, LLC, in furtherance of identifying a going concern transaction for all or a part of the Debtors' business to maximize value for the Debtors' stakeholders. In the event that a going concern transaction is identified, the Debtors are permitted to cease the Sales in order to facilitate such transaction.

50. Given the nature of the Canadian Debtor's business, the ongoing efforts to identify a going concern transaction, and the Interim Stay Order, the Sales have not yet begun in Canada and are not anticipated to commence until after a determination has been made in connection with a going concern transaction. However, the Foreign Representative is seeking recognition of the Interim Liquidation Procedures Order in the event that the Debtors determine that certain assets of the Canadian Debtor should be sold outside the ordinary course of business.

iv. Joint Administration Order

51. A copy of the Order (I) Directing Joint Administration of Chapter 11 Cases and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Joint Administration Order") is attached hereto as Exhibit "E".

52. The Joint Administration Order directs the joint administration of all of the Chapter 11 Cases for procedural purposes only and authorizes the use of a consolidated docket and simplified case caption in connection with the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases. Given the integrated nature of the operations of the Debtors, including the Canadian Debtor, joint administration of the Chapter 11 Cases provides significant administrative convenience without affecting the substantive rights of any party in interest, and reduces fees and costs by avoiding duplicative filings, notices and objections.

v. Interim Critical Vendors Order

53. A copy of the Interim Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Pay Prepetition Claims of Certain Critical Vendors and (II) Granting Related Relief (the “Interim Critical Vendors Order”) is attached hereto as Exhibit “F”.

54. The Interim Critical Vendors Order, among other things, (i) authorizes, but does not direct, the Debtors to pay prepetition amounts owing to vendors of goods and/or services that are critical to the Debtors’ business (the “Critical Vendors”) for prepetition goods or services (the “Critical Vendor Claims”) in an aggregate amount not to exceed $2 million; and (ii) in exchange for the payment, in full or in part, of the Critical Vendor Claims, requires the Critical Vendors to provide customary trade terms for the postpetition procurement of goods ordered by, or services provided to, the Debtors.

55. The Debtors, including the Canadian Debtor, rely on certain suppliers, vendors, service providers, and similar entities to provide goods and services critical to their business, including machinery and equipment, information technology, billing and invoicing, customs and shipping and transportation services. The Canadian Debtor, as a member of the Debtors’ integrated enterprise, is dependent on the Debtors’ ability to continue receiving certain of these critical goods and services from third-party suppliers, vendors and service providers. Any disruption to the provision of the critical goods or services that the Critical Vendors provide would have a detrimental effect on the Debtors' ability to conduct the Sales Processes with a view to maximizing value for the benefit of stakeholders.

56. The Canadian Debtor is working with its vendors and has not yet determined whether any creditor will be a Critical Vendor. The Canadian Debtor anticipates working closely with the Information Officer and CRO to review any Critical Vendor designations.

vi. Interim Utilities Order

57. A copy of the Interim Order (I) Approving Debtors' Proposed Form of Adequate Assurance of Payment, (II) Establishing Procedures for Resolving Objections by Utility Companies, (III) Prohibiting Utility Companies from Altering, Refusing or Discontinuing Service, and (IV) Granting Related Relief (the "Interim Utilities Order") is attached hereto as Exhibit "G".

58. Under the U.S. Bankruptcy Code, utility providers are entitled to request adequate assurance of future payment for services. The Interim Utilities Order, among other things, (i) approves the Debtors' proposed form of adequate assurance of postpetition payment to their utility providers (the "Utility Companies"), (ii) approves the Debtors' proposed procedures for resolving additional adequate assurance requests; and (iii) prohibits the Utility Companies from altering, refusing, or discontinuing services to, or discriminating against, the Debtors on the basis of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases or any perceived inadequacy of the Debtors' proposed adequate assurance.

59. The Debtors receive electric, gas, telecommunications, internet, garbage, and other similar utility services from the Utility Companies (the "Utility Services"), which services the Debtors will continue to require while conducting an orderly liquidation of the Debtors' assets and concurrently pursuing a multi-phase marketing process for a going concern sale. To provide adequate assurance of payment for postpetition Utility Services, the Debtors have established a segregated account and propose to deposit $53,104.00, which equals the costs of approximately two weeks of Utility Services, while also implementing procedures to address any requests for additional adequate assurance from Utility Companies.

60. Because the Canadian Debtor is a debtor in the Chapter 11 Cases, its Utility Companies are entitled to the benefit of adequate assurance. The Canadian Debtor's Utility Companies include phone, trash and hydro providers, as identified on the schedule to the Interim Utilities Order.

vii. Interim Taxes Order

61. A copy of the Interim Order (I) Authorizing the Payment of Certain Taxes and Fees and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Interim Taxes Order") is attached hereto as Exhibit "H".

62. The Interim Taxes Order, among other things, authorizes, but does not direct, the Debtors, including the Canadian Debtor, to pay and remit all prepetition and postpetition obligations on account of Taxes and Fees and Assessments (each as defined below), including where: (a) Taxes and Fees accrue or are incurred postpetition; (b) Taxes and Fees have accrued or were incurred prepetition but were not paid prepetition, or were paid in an amount less than actually owed; (c) payments were made prepetition by the Debtors but were lost or otherwise not received in full by any of the Authorities (as defined in the Interim Taxes Order); and (d) Taxes and Fees were incurred for prepetition periods and became due and payable after the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, including as a result of Audits (as defined in the Interim Taxes Order), provided that payments on account of prepetition obligations shall not exceed $500,000 during the interim period.

63. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors collect and pay income tax, franchise taxes, real estate and personal property tax, sales and use taxes, value added tax, and certain other business license fees and other similar assessments, including but not limited to hazmat taxes and commercial activity taxes (collectively, the “Taxes and Fees”). Additionally, the Debtors may become subject to routine audit investigations in respect of prior years, which may result in additional prepetition Taxes and Fees being assessed against the Debtors (such additional Taxes and Fees, the “Assessments”).

64. The Taxes and Fees payable by the Canadian Debtor generally consist of: (i) GST/HST, which the Canadian Debtor has historically paid through monthly remittances in arrears; (ii) property taxes, relating to the real property owned by the Canadian Debtor in Ontario; and (iii) certain business licensing, registration and similar governmental fees incurred in the ordinary course of business. The Canadian Debtor is current on its GST/HST remittances through July, 2026 and anticipates making a payment of approximately C$85,000 in monthly installments on account of GST/HST remittances owing to CRA for monthly installments which will come due during the interim period.

viii. Interim Insurance Order

65. A copy of the Interim Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Maintain Insurance and Surety Coverage and Letter of Credit Entered Into Prepetition and Satisfy Prepetition Obligations Related Thereto, (B) Renew, Amend, Supplement, Extend, or Purchase Insurance Policies, Surety Bonds, and Letters of Credit, and (C) Continue to Pay Broker Fees, and (II) Granting Related Relief (the “Interim Insurance Order”) is attached hereto as Exhibit “I”.

66. The Interim Insurance Order, among other things, authorizes, but does not direct, the Debtors to (i) maintain coverage under the insurance policies, the surety bonds, and the letters of credit entered into prepetition and pay related prepetition obligations in the ordinary course of business, (ii) renew, amend, supplement, extend, or purchase insurance, surety coverage, and letters of credit in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practice, and (iii) continue to pay certain broker fees.

67. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors maintain approximately seventeen (17) insurance policies (collectively, the “Insurance Policies”), administered by various third-party insurance carriers. The Canadian Debtor is a beneficiary of certain of the Insurance Policies, including certain policies maintained through Canadian insurance carriers. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors are not aware of any premiums owing under the Insurance Policies. The Debtors’ ability to maintain the Insurance Policies, to renew, supplement, and modify the same as needed, and to enter into new insurance policies as needed in the ordinary course of business, is essential to preserving the value of the Debtors’ estates and to comply with statutory obligations in certain of the jurisdictions in which the Debtors operate.

68. The Debtors obtain their Insurance Policies through Lockton (the “Broker”). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not believe that they owe any amounts to the Broker on account of brokerage fees. The continuation of the Broker’s services is necessary to assure the Debtors’ ability to secure Insurance Policies on advantageous terms at competitive rates, facilitate the proper maintenance of the Insurance Policies postpetition, administer insurance-related claims on a postpetition basis, and ensure adequate protection of the Debtors’ property postpetition.

69. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors are also required to maintain one surety bond to conduct the Debtors’ business in Pickaway County, Ohio, and one letter of credit, in connection with customs obligations which directly relate to the Canadian Debtor’s operations. The Debtors must be able to maintain the surety bond and letter of credit to continue their business operations during these Restructuring Proceedings, including the Canadian Debtor's business operations. Failure to maintain the surety bond or letter of credit could impair the Debtors' ability to continue those operations in the ordinary course.

70. The Interim Insurance Order therefore permits the Debtors, including the Canadian Debtor, to maintain these arrangements, pay prepetition amounts related thereto up to $200,000 and renew, amend, supplement, extend, or purchase insurance policies as needed.

ix. Interim Wages Order

71. A copy of the Interim Order (A) Authorizing, But Not Directing, the Debtors to (I) Pay Prepetition Wages, Compensation, Employee Benefits, and Other Employee Obligations, (II) Continue Certain Employee Benefit Programs In the Ordinary Course, (B) Authorizing All Banks to Honor Prepetition Checks For Payment of Prepetition Employee Obligations, and (C) Granting Related Relief (the "Interim Wages Order") is attached hereto as Exhibit "J".

72. The Interim Wages Order authorizes the Debtors to, among other things, (a) pay prepetition wages, compensation, employee benefits and other employee and independent contractor obligations up to the amount of $1,064,951.62, (b) continue certain employee benefit programs in the ordinary course.

73. As set out in my Initial Affidavit, the Canadian Debtor employs approximately 30 employees in Canada (the "Canadian Employees"), each of whom are employed on a full-time basis. The Canadian Employees are paid weekly, one week in arrears. In Canada, each payroll is approximately C$42,000, including employer tax contributions. Certain of the Canadian Employees are eligible to receive commissions and, when payable, the weekly payroll obligations are approximately C$62,000, including employer tax contributions. The Canadian Debtor also engages independent contractors on an as needed, project-specific basis, to assist with the installation of greenhouse and related systems.

74. In respect of the Canadian Employees, the Interim Wages Order provides for payment of, among other amounts, wages, commissions, withholdings, health insurance benefits and RRSP contributions.

x. Interim Cash Management Order

75. A copy of the Interim Order (I) Authorizing Continued (A) Use of Existing Cash Management System, Bank Accounts, and Business Forms and Payment of Related Prepetition Obligations and (B) Performance of Intercompany Transactions in the Ordinary Course of Business, (II) Granting Limited Waiver of Section 345(b) Deposit and Investment Requirements, and (III) Granting Related Relief (the “Interim Cash Management Order”) is attached hereto as Exhibit “K”.

76. The Interim Cash Management Order authorizes the Debtors to, among other things, (i) continue using their existing cash management system, bank accounts, and business forms, (ii) pay certain prepetition obligations related thereto, (iii) continue to perform intercompany transactions in the ordinary course of business, and (iv) obtain a limited waiver of the deposit and investment requirements set out in section 345(b) of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code.

77. As described in the Initial Affidavit and the First Day Declaration, the Debtors operate a cash management system to collect, transfer and disburse funds generated by their operations (the “Cash Management System”). The Canadian Debtor maintains two bank accounts with Royal Bank of Canada as part of the Cash Management System. The Canadian Debtor is dependent on the continued operation of the Cash Management System. Continued access to the Cash Management System is imperative to meet immediate obligations and preserve the value of the Canadian business. Any disruption to the Cash Management System could have an immediate and significant value-destructive effect on the Canadian Debtor to the detriment of all stakeholders.

xi. Interim Customer Programs Order

78. A copy of the Interim Order (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Honor, Maintain, and Administer Customer Programs and Related Prepetition Business Practices, and (II) Granting Related Relief (the “Interim Customer Programs Order”) is attached hereto as Exhibit “L”.

79. The Interim Customer Programs Order authorizes the Debtors to, among other things, (i) honour and fulfil customer obligations arising under their customer programs and related business practices, (ii) continue to maintain and administer their customer programs (the “Customer Programs”), and (iii) continue, renew, replace, modify, or terminate such Customer Programs in the ordinary course of business.

80. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide certain pricing, incentives, discounts and other accommodations to their customers through various Customer Programs, including a rebate program, return and shortage policy, defective allowance policy, customer deposit program and co-op advertising program. The Debtors rely on the Customer Programs to maintain customer relationships, preserve goodwill and support the ongoing marketing and sale process.

81. In the ordinary course, the Canadian Debtor accepts deposits from customers in connection with orders relating to the design and manufacture of high-quality greenhouses (the “Customer Deposits”), with such deposits applied to the purchase price of such ordered products. Recognition of the Interim Customer Programs Order will authorize the Canadian Debtor to continue honouring the prepetition Customer Deposits in its discretion and continue to collect Customer Deposits postpetition. The Customer Programs Order also allows the Debtors to cease to accept or honour Customer Deposits in the Debtors' business judgement.

82. While recognition of the Interim Customer Programs Order will permit the Canadian Debtor to continue receiving Customer Deposits, given the bespoke nature of the Canadian Debtor's products and services, every contract differs. The Canadian Debtor will confer with the Information Officer and the CRO before entering into contracts to determine (i) whether a Customer Deposit is required and (ii) the appropriate treatment of the Customer Deposit (including depositing amounts with the Information Officer or accepting deposits by credit card to allow the customer chargeback protections). The Canadian Debtor will advise all new customers of the Restructuring Proceedings and that Customer Deposits will not be held in trust unless specific arrangements are made.

III. NEXT STEPS IN CHAPTER 11 CASES

83. I understand that the Debtors are scheduled to appear before the U.S. Bankruptcy Court on September 16, 2026, at which appearance the Debtors intend to, among other things: (i) seek entry of the interim First Day Orders on a final basis; and (ii) seek additional relief, including relief authorizing the Debtors and their advisors to commence a sale and marketing process to identify a going concern transaction for all or part of the Debtors' business.

IV. CONCLUSION

84. I believe the relief set out herein and in the proposed Initial Recognition Order and Supplemental Order is necessary for the protection of the Canadian Debtor and to preserve the value of the Canadian business for the benefit of a broad range of stakeholders. The requested relief will provide the Debtors with the opportunity to pursue the Sales Processes with a view to maximizing value for the benefit of the Debtors' stakeholders.

The Prepetition Term Loan Obligations are secured by (i) first priority security interests in and liens on the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, and (ii) second priority security interests in and liens on the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement (the immediately forgoing liens and security interests, the “Prepetition Term Loan Liens” and, together with the Prepetition ABL Liens, the “Prepetition Liens”).

(iii) Intercreditor Agreement. That certain Intercreditor Agreement, dated as of November 5, 2021, entered into by and among the Prepetition ABL Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, and acknowledged and agreed to by Holdings, the Borrower, and the other Loan Parties party thereto (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, replaced, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Intercreditor Agreement”) governs the respective priority rights of the Prepetition Secured Creditors’ interests in and liens on the Prepetition Collateral as it concerns the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral and the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, as applicable.

(iv) Prepetition Obligations. Subject to paragraph 44 herein, each of the Debtors acknowledges that the Prepetition Secured Obligations owing to the Prepetition Secured Creditors, (a) constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the Debtors and their applicable affiliates, enforceable against them in accordance with their terms, and (b) no portion of the Prepetition Secured Obligations owing to the Prepetition Secured Creditors is subject to avoidance, recharacterization, reduction, set-off, offset, counterclaim, cross-claim, recoupment, defenses, disallowance, disgorgement, impairment, recovery, subordination (equitable or otherwise), or any other challenges pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law or regulation by any person or entity, including in any Successor Cases.

(v) Prepetition Liens. Subject to paragraph 44 herein, the Debtors acknowledge that, as of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors (a) constitute legal, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected security interests in and liens on the Prepetition Collateral, and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value, (b) are not subject to defense, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, avoidance, or recovery pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law or regulation by any person or entity, and (c) are senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral; provided that the Prepetition Term Loan Liens may be subject to certain liens senior (solely to the extent any such liens were valid, non-avoidable, and senior in priority to the Prepetition Term Loan Liens as of the Petition Date and properly perfected prior to the Petition Date or perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Term Loan Documents (the “Prepetition Term Loan Permitted Liens”); provided further that the Prepetition ABL Liens may be subject to certain liens senior (solely to the extent any such liens were valid, non-avoidable, and senior in priority to the Prepetition ABL Liens as of the Petition Date and properly perfected prior to the Petition Date or perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition ABL Documents (the “Prepetition ABL Permitted Liens” and, together with the Prepetition Term Loan Permitted Liens, the “Prepetition Permitted Liens”).

(vi) No Challenges / Claims. Subject to an investigation by a Committee, if one is appointed, permitted pursuant to paragraph 32 and 44 herein, the Debtors’ estates have no valid Claims (as such term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code), objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action against any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors, and employees with respect to the Prepetition Credit Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Prepetition Liens, or otherwise, whether arising at law or at equity, including, without limitation, any challenge, recharacterization, subordination, avoidance, recovery, disallowance, disgorgement, reduction, or other claims arising under or pursuant to sections 105, 502, 510, 541, 542 through 553, inclusive, or 558 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents. The Prepetition Secured Obligations constitute allowed, secured claims within the meaning of sections 502 and 506 of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to paragraph 44 herein, the Debtors have waived, discharged, and released any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the priority of the Debtors’ obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the Prepetition Liens.

(vii) Cash Collateral. Except as otherwise provided in the Prepetition Credit Documents, all of the Debtors’ cash, including, without limitation, the cash in their deposit accounts, wherever located, whether as original collateral or proceeds of other Prepetition Collateral, constitutes Cash Collateral within the meaning of section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and is Prepetition Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, subject to the Lien Priority Annex.

(viii) No Control. None of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent or the other Prepetition Secured Creditors, controls the Debtors or their operations, has authority to determine the manner in which any of the Debtors' operations are conducted or is a control person or "insider" (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors or any of their affiliates by virtue of any of the actions taken through the date of this Interim Order with respect to, in connection with, related to, or arising from this Interim Order, the DIP Facility, the DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, and/or the Prepetition Credit Documents.⁴

(ix) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of this Interim Order and subject to the rights of all parties-in-interest hereunder (including with respect to a Challenge (as defined herein)), other than the Debtors, as set forth in paragraph 44 herein, each of the Debtors, on their own behalf and on behalf of each of their past, present, and future predecessors, successors, heirs, subsidiaries, and assigns, and solely to the extent permitted under applicable law, hereby forever, unconditionally, permanently, and irrevocably releases, discharges, and acquits each of the following solely in their capacity as such: DIP Agent, the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the other Prepetition ABL Secured Parties, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the other Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, and each of their respective successors, assigns, affiliates, parents, subsidiaries, partners, controlling persons, representatives, agents, attorneys, advisors, financial advisors, consultants, professionals, officers, directors, members, managers, shareholders, and employees, past, present and future, advisors, sub-fund advisors, and collateral managers, and each of their respective heirs, predecessors, successors, and assigns, in each case solely in their capacity as such (collectively, the “Released Parties”) of and from any and all claims, controversies, disputes, liabilities, obligations, demands, damages, expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees), actions, suits, controversies, proceedings, losses, damages, injuries, debts, liens, actions, judgments, and causes of action of any and every nature whatsoever, whether arising in law or otherwise, and whether known or unknown, matured or contingent, asserted, unasserted, suspected, unsuspected, accrued, unaccrued, pending, or threatened, arising under, in connection with, or relating to the DIP Obligations or DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations or the Prepetition Credit Documents, including, without limitation: (a) any so-called “lender liability” or equitable subordination claims or defenses; (b) Claims and causes of action arising under the Bankruptcy Code; and (c) any and all offsets, defenses, claims, counterclaims, set off rights, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action of any kind or nature whatsoever, whether arising at law or in equity, including any recharacterization, recoupment, subordination, avoidance, or other claim or cause of action arising under or pursuant to section 105 or chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any other similar provisions of applicable state, federal, or foreign law, including, without limitation, any right to assert any disgorgement or recovery, in each case, with respect to the extent, amount, validity, enforceability, priority, security, and perfection of any of the DIP Obligations, the DIP Loan Documents, the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Documents, or the Prepetition Liens, and further waive and release any defense, right of counterclaim, right of setoff, or deduction to the payment of the DIP Obligations and the

Prepetition Secured Obligations that the Debtors now have or may claim to have against the Released Parties, arising under, in connection with, based upon, or released to any and all acts, omissions, conduct undertaken, or events occurring prior to entry of this Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph F(ix) shall relieve the DIP Agent, the other DIP Lenders, or the Debtors of their obligations hereunder or under the DIP Obligations.

G. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Request for Postpetition Financing. The Debtors seek authority on an interim basis to: (a) enter into, and access and use the liquidity provided under, the DIP Facility on the terms described herein and in the DIP Loan Documents; and (b) use Cash Collateral on the terms described herein to administer the Chapter 11 Cases and fund operations. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors shall apply the proceeds of the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents, the Lien Priority Annex and paragraph 17 of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, upon entry of the Final Order, the exchange and conversion on a cashless basis of the remaining outstanding Prepetition ABL Obligations into DIP Obligations.

(ii) Priming of Certain Prepetition Liens; Consent to Use of Cash Collateral.

For the avoidance of doubt, with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, the DIP Liens shall not prime, and shall instead be subject and subordinate to the Prepetition Term Loan Liens solely with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral; provided, however, that the Prepetition Term Loan Liens shall in all cases be subject and subordinate to the Carve Out, subject to paragraph 31(j). The Prepetition ABL Secured Parties have consented to the use of the Cash Collateral and to the subordination of the Prepetition ABL Liens to the DIP Liens and the Carve Out on the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order.

(iii) Immediate Need for Postpetition Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

The Debtors' immediate need to use Cash Collateral and to obtain credit pursuant to the DIP Facility as provided for herein is necessary and critical in order to enable the Debtors to continue operations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to maintain business relationships with their vendors, suppliers, and customers, to pay their employees, to protect the value of their assets, and to otherwise finance their operations requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral. Without the ability to access the DIP Facility or use Cash Collateral, the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, their equity holders, and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of all or substantially all of the Debtors' assets, would suffer immediate and irreparable harm. The Debtors do not have sufficient available sources of working capital and financing to operate their businesses or maintain their properties in the ordinary course of business without the DIP Facility and authorized use of Cash Collateral.

(iv) DIP Roll-Up Loan. Upon (i) entry of this Interim Order, without any further action by the Debtors or any other party, but subject to paragraph 44 herein, all cash, collections and proceeds of DIP Collateral (other than Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral) shall be used, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, to reduce the Prepetition Revolving Loans and result in a corresponding increase to availability under the DIP Facility (the "Creeping Roll-Up"), and (ii) entry of the Final Order granting such relief, but subject to paragraph 44 herein, all remaining outstanding Prepetition Revolving Loans shall automatically be deemed exchanged and converted on a cashless basis into and constitute DIP Obligations (the "Full Roll-Up" and, together with the Creeping Roll-Up, the "DIP Roll-Up Obligations"). All accrued and unpaid interest, expenses, fees, and other sums payable in respect of the outstanding Prepetition ABL Obligations through the entry of the Final Order including any amounts not previously paid pursuant to this Interim Order shall be paid in cash by the Loan Parties to the Administrative Agent on the date of entry of the Final Order. The Prepetition ABL Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtors thereunder, without the inclusion of (a) the Creeping Roll-Up, upon entry of this Interim Order, and (b) the Full Roll-Up, upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief. The DIP Roll-Up Obligations shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, and solely on account of, the agreement of the Prepetition ABL Lenders to fund amounts under the DIP Facility and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition ABL Obligations. All accrued interest, expenses, fees and other sums constituting Prepetition ABL Obligations owing to the Prepetition ABL Lenders shall be paid in cash on the Closing Date, and all Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations (each as defined in the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement) shall be deemed DIP Obligations upon entry of this Interim Order.

(v) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. Given their current financial condition, financing arrangements, and capital structure, the Debtors are unable to obtain financing from sources other than the DIP Credit Parties on terms more favorable than the DIP Facility. The Debtors are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtors are unable to obtain adequate credit: (a) having priority over that of administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 507(a), and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) secured by a lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or (c) secured solely by a junior lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is subject to a lien. Financing on a postpetition basis is not otherwise available under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2), and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting the DIP Agent, for the benefit of the DIP Credit Parties, in each case, subject to the terms of this Interim Order: (x) perfected security interests in and liens on (each as provided herein) all of the Debtors' existing and after-acquired assets with the priorities and to the extent set forth herein; (y) superpriority claims and priming liens to the extent set forth herein; and (z) the other protections set forth in this Interim Order, and without incurring the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims and Adequate Protection Liens (each as defined herein) described herein.

(vi) Adequacy of the Approved Budget. As set forth in the DIP Loan Documents, the Debtors have prepared and delivered to the DIP Credit Parties, a budget, a summary copy of which is attached as Exhibit 3 hereto (as the same may be modified from time to time consistent with the terms of the DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order, and once approved by DIP Agent, the "Approved Budget"). As a condition to entry into the DIP Credit Agreement, the extensions of credit under the DIP Facility, and the authorization to use Cash Collateral, the DIP Credit Parties require, and the Debtors have agreed, that proceeds of the DIP Facility and the Cash Collateral shall be used in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order and in accordance with the Approved Budget (subject to Permitted Variances (as defined herein)).

(vii) Certain Conditions to DIP Facility. The DIP Lenders' willingness to make the DIP Loans is conditioned upon, among other things: (a) the Debtors obtaining Court approval to enter into the DIP Loan Documents and to incur all of the respective obligations thereunder, and to confer upon the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties all applicable rights, powers, and remedies thereunder in each case as modified by this Interim Order; (b) the provision and scope of adequate protection, as set forth herein, of the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties' interests in the Prepetition Collateral pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (c) the DIP Credit Parties being granted, as security for the prompt payment of the DIP Facility and all other obligations of the Debtors under the DIP Loan Documents, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, senior, first priority perfected security interests in and liens upon the DIP Collateral to the extent set forth herein.

H. Prepetition ABL Lenders' Adequate Protection. Until such time as the Prepetition ABL Obligations are Paid in Full,⁵ the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties are entitled to receive adequate protection pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code and as set forth in paragraph 12 of this Interim Order resulting from, among other things: (i) provisions of this Interim Order granting the DIP Liens; (ii) the use of the Cash Collateral; (iii) the use, sale,

⁵ "Paid in Full" or "Payment in Full" means the indefeasible repayment in full in cash of all obligations (including principal, accrued and unpaid interest and fees, reimbursable expenses and indemnities, other than contingent indemnification obligations for which no claim has been asserted and threatened, and all other amounts due and owing by the Debtors) under the applicable credit facility and this Interim Order, the cash collateralization or repayment in full in cash of all treasury and cash management obligations, hedging obligations, and bank product obligations, and the cancellation, replacement, backing, or cash collateralization of letters of credit, in each case, in accordance with the terms of the applicable facility and that each of the Prepetition ABL Agent, Prepetition ABL Lenders, Prepetition Term Loan Agent, Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, DIP Agent and DIP Lenders, as the case may be, shall have received a release from each Debtor and any Committee of and from all demands, actions, causes of action, suits, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, promises, sums of money, accounts, bills, reckonings, damages and any and all other claims, counterclaims, defenses, rights of set-off, demands and liabilities (including, without limitation any obligations or liabilities of any kind related to the Carve Out upon payment in full of the Prepetition ABL Obligations, the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations or DIP Obligations) in form and substance acceptable to the Prepetition ABL Agent, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, or the DIP Agent, as applicable or in the case of the Committee, instead of such release, (A) if the Challenge Deadline (as defined in this Interim Order) has not elapsed, a written notice or other confirmation that no Challenge or any other claims of any kind (including with respect to the Carve Out upon payment in full of the Prepetition ABL Obligations, Prepetition Term Loan Obligations or DIP Obligations) will be asserted or (B) if the Challenge Deadline has elapsed, then no Challenge or any other claim has been asserted or any Challenge or other claim asserted has been dismissed pursuant to a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction and a written notice or other confirmation that no claim of any kind with respect to the Carve Out will be asserted against the Prepetition ABL Agent, any Prepetition ABL Secured Party, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, any Prepetition Term Loan Secured Party, the DIP Agent or any DIP Lender.

lease, or depreciation or other Diminution in Value of the Prepetition Collateral; and/or (iv) the imposition of the automatic stay under the Bankruptcy Code, subject in each case to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex. The terms of the adequate protection being provided reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute a reasonable compromise for the use of the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral, including Cash Collateral.

I. Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties' Adequate Protection. Until such time as the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations are Paid in Full, the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties are entitled to receive adequate protection pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code and as set forth in paragraph 12 of this Interim Order resulting from, among other things: the (i) provisions of this Interim Order granting the DIP Liens; (ii) use, sale, lease, or depreciation or other Diminution in Value of the Prepetition Collateral; and/or (iii) the imposition of the automatic stay under the Bankruptcy Code, subject in each case to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex. The terms of the adequate protection being provided reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute a reasonable compromise for the use of the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral as provided herein.

J. Sections 506(c) and 552(b). The Debtors have agreed as a condition to obtaining financing under the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral that as a material inducement to the DIP Credit Parties' agreement to provide the DIP Facility and the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties' consent to the use of Cash Collateral, and in exchange for: (a) the DIP Credit Parties' willingness to provide the DIP Facility to the extent set forth herein; (b) the DIP Credit Parties' and the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties' agreement to subordinate the DIP Liens and the

Prepetition ABL Liens, respectively, to the Carve Out; and (c) the consensual use of Cash Collateral consistent with the Approved Budget (subject to Permitted Variances), the terms of the DIP Loan Documents, and the terms of this Interim Order, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order, each of the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition ABL Secured Parties shall receive a waiver of any equities of the case exceptions or claims under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and a waiver of unjust enrichment and similar equitable relief as set forth below; and the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition ABL Secured Parties shall receive a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

K. Good Faith of the DIP Credit Parties.

(i) Willingness to Provide Financing. Each of the DIP Lenders has indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors subject to: (a) on an interim basis, the entry by this Court of this Interim Order, and on a final basis, the entry by this Court of a Final Order; (b) approval by this Court of the terms and conditions of the DIP Facility and the DIP Loan Documents; and (c) entry of findings by this Court that such financing is essential to the Debtors' estates, that each of the DIP Credit Parties is extending credit to the Debtors pursuant to the DIP Loan Documents in good faith, and that each of the DIP Credit Parties' claims, superpriority claims, security interests, liens, rights, and other protections granted pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents will have the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(ii) Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e). The terms and conditions of this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, the extension of credit and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder: (a) are fair, reasonable, and the best available to the Debtors under the circumstances; (b) reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent and sound business judgment; and (c) are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration. The DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral were negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtors and the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties. The use of Cash Collateral and credit to be extended under the DIP Loan Documents shall be deemed to have been so allowed, advanced, made, used, and extended in good faith, and for valid business purposes and uses, within the meaning of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and each of the DIP Credit Parties is therefore entitled to the protection and benefits of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and this Interim Order in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed, or modified, on appeal or otherwise. The DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition ABL Secured Parties have acted in good faith in connection with this Interim Order and their reliance on this Interim Order is in good faith.

L. Prepetition Permitted Liens. Nothing herein shall constitute a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Prepetition Permitted Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtors, the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or the Committee (if any), to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, perfection, or extent of any alleged Prepetition Permitted Lien and/or security interests. Subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief, the right of a seller of goods to reclaim such goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not a Prepetition Permitted Lien and is expressly subject to the Prepetition Liens and the DIP Liens.

M. Good Cause. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Interim Order. The relief requested in the Motion is necessary, essential, and appropriate and is in the best interest of and will benefit the Debtors, their creditors, and their estates, as its implementation will, among other things, provide the Debtors with the necessary liquidity to: (a) minimize disruption to the Debtors' businesses and on-going operations; (b) preserve and maximize the value of the Debtors' estates for the benefit of all the Debtors' creditors; and (c) avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors, their creditors, their businesses, their employees, and their assets. The terms of the DIP Facility are fair and reasonable, reflect each Debtor's exercise of its business judgment, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration. The DIP Facility is the product of reasonable, arm's-length, good faith negotiations between the Debtors and the DIP Credit Parties.

N. Immediate Entry. Good and sufficient cause exists for immediate entry of this Interim Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(2).

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the Motion, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. Motion Granted; Interim Financing Approved. The Motion is granted on an interim basis, the Interim Financing is authorized on an interim basis, and the use of Cash Collateral on an interim basis is authorized, solely to the extent of the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order.

2. Objections Overruled. All objections, reservations of rights, or other statements with respect to the Interim Financing and/or entry of this Interim Order to the extent not withdrawn or resolved are hereby overruled on the merits.

DIP Facility Authorization

3. Authorization of the DIP Financing and DIP Loan Documents. The Debtors are expressly and immediately authorized and empowered to: (a) execute and deliver the DIP Loan

Documents; (b) incur and to perform the DIP Obligations (including the Creeping Roll-Up)⁶ in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents (including the Approved Budget); and (c) deliver all instruments, agreements, certificates, letters, and documents that may be necessary, desirable, or required for performance by the Debtors under the DIP Facility and the creation and perfection of the DIP Liens described in and provided for by this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents. The Debtors are hereby authorized to pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses and other amounts described in the DIP Loan Documents as such become due on the terms set forth in the DIP Loan Documents and without need to obtain further Court approval, including, without limitation, commitment fees, exit fees, collateral management fees, any additional fees and other amounts set forth in the DIP Loan Documents, and the reasonable and documented fees and disbursements of the DIP Credit Parties' attorneys, advisers, accountants, and other consultants, all to the extent required by the DIP Loan Documents, with invoices to be provided in accordance with paragraph 25 below. Upon execution and delivery, the DIP Loan Documents shall represent valid and binding, and joint and several, obligations of the Debtors, enforceable against each of the Debtors and their estates in accordance with the terms of the DIP Loan Documents. The Debtors are also hereby authorized, by this Interim Order, to make the Adequate Protection Payments. Without any further action by the Debtors or any other party, but subject to any Challenge (as defined herein) and an appropriate remedy fashioned by this Court in the event of a successful Challenge, the Debtors shall be authorized and deemed to have repaid and refinanced (i) the Prepetition ABL Obligations with proceeds of the Creeping Roll-Up, as applicable and (ii) upon entry of the Final Order, all additional outstanding Prepetition ABL Obligations with the Full Roll-Up.

⁶ The Full Roll-Up remains subject to entry of the Final Order.

4. Authorization to Borrow. Until a Termination Declaration Date (as defined herein), and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Loan Documents, the DIP Facility, and this Interim Order, and in order to prevent immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates, the Debtors are hereby authorized, prior to the entry of the Final Order, to request extensions of credit under the DIP Facility up to an aggregate principal amount of $22 million at any one time outstanding. No other corporate action is required for the Debtors to execute and deliver the DIP Loan Documents, perform their obligations thereunder, or request any extension of credit under the DIP Facility as set forth herein.

5. DIP Obligations. The DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order shall constitute and evidence the validity and binding effect of the DIP Obligations, which DIP Obligations shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates and any successors thereto, including, without limitation, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, or any case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases (collectively, "Successor Cases"). Upon entry of this Interim Order, the DIP Obligations shall include all loans (for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Roll-Up Loan shall be included upon entry of the Final Order), and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the Debtors to any of the DIP Credit Parties under the DIP Loan Documents or this Interim Order, including, without limitation, all principal, accrued interest, costs, fees, expenses, and other amounts owed pursuant to the DIP Loan Documents, and shall be joint and several obligations of the Debtors in all respects; provided that the DIP Roll-Up Loan shall be subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder. No obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security under the DIP Credit Agreement, the other DIP Loan Documents or this Interim Order shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, or recoverable under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code), or be subject to any defense, reduction, setoff, recoupment, or counterclaim.

6. Postpetition Liens and Collateral.

(a) Effective immediately upon the entry of this Interim Order, pursuant to sections 364(c)(3) and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Agent (for the benefit of itself and the other DIP Lenders under and as described in the DIP Loan Documents) is hereby granted, continuing valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and automatically and properly perfected postpetition security interests in and liens, (collectively, the “DIP Liens”) on all tangible and intangible prepetition and postpetition assets and real property of the DIP Loan Parties, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, and the proceeds, products, rents, and profits thereof including, without limitation, the following (the “DIP Collateral”):

- (i) all Accounts;⁷
- (ii) all Goods, including Equipment, Inventory and Fixtures;

- (v) all Securities Collateral;
- (vi) all Investment Property;
- (vii) all Intellectual Property Assets;
- (viii) all Commercial Tort Claims;

⁷ All defined terms in the description of DIP Collateral shall have the meaning ascribed thereto in the DIP Loan Documents. All terms not specifically defined in the DIP Loan Documents shall have the meanings ascribed to such terms in Article 8 or 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code, as applicable.

(ix) all General Intangibles (including, without limitation, all Payment Intangibles);

(x) all Deposit Accounts, money, cash, and cash equivalents;

(xi) all Supporting Obligations;

(xii) all money, cash or cash equivalents;

(xv) the Prepetition Collateral;

(xvi) all claims and causes of action and the proceeds thereof to avoid a transfer of property (or an interest in property) pursuant to Section 549 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(xvii) subject to and effective upon the entry of the Final Order granting such relief, all other claims and causes of action, and any proceeds thereof, to avoid a transfer of property (or an interest in property) or an obligation incurred by the DIP Loan Parties pursuant to any applicable section of the Bankruptcy Code, including, without limitation, chapter 5 and section 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, the “Avoidance Actions” and any proceeds therefrom “Avoidance Proceeds”);

(xviii) subject to and effective upon the entry of the Final Order granting such relief, the DIP Loan Parties’ rights under Sections 506(c) and 552 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(xix) to the extent not otherwise described above, all receivables and all present and future claims, rights, interests, assets and properties recovered by or on behalf of the DIP Loan Parties;

(xx) all books, records, and information relating to any of the foregoing and/or to the operation of the DIP Loan Parties' business, and all rights of access to such books, records, and information, and all property in which such books, records and information are stored, recorded and maintained; and

(xxi) to the extent not otherwise included or specifically excluded, all other personal property of the DIP Loan Parties, whether tangible or intangible and all Proceeds and products of each of the foregoing and all accessions to, substitutions and replacements for, and rents, profits and products of each of the foregoing, and any and all proceeds of any insurance, indemnity, warranty or guaranty payable to the DIP Loan Parties from time to time with respect to any of the foregoing.

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Interim Order or the DIP Loan Documents to the contrary, in no event shall DIP Collateral include: (a) any leasehold interest in non-residential real property that prohibits or restricts the granting of liens thereon (except as permitted pursuant to applicable non-bankruptcy law), but shall include the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of such leases; and (b) any security deposits held by a landlord under any non-residential real property lease or the Debtors' interest in any pre-paid rent under any such lease (but shall include the Debtors' reversionary interests therein), in each case, unless such lien is expressly permitted under such lease.

7. DIP Lien Priority in DIP Collateral.

(a) DIP Liens. Pursuant to Section 364(d), the DIP Liens on the DIP Collateral securing the DIP Obligations shall be first and senior in priority to all other interests and liens of every kind, nature, and description, whether created consensually, by an order of this Court or otherwise, including, without limitation, liens or security interests granted in favor of third parties in conjunction with sections 363, 364, or any other section of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable law; provided, however, that the DIP Liens on the DIP Collateral shall be subordinate to the Prepetition Permitted Liens and subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex.

(b) Other than as set forth herein, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Carve Out, the Adequate Protection Liens, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims (each of which shall be subject to the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex): (i) shall not be made subject to or pari passu with (A) any lien, security interest, or claim heretofore or hereinafter granted in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any claim for reclamation or return (whether asserted pursuant to section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise), and shall be valid and enforceable against the Debtors, their estates, any trustee, or any other estate representative appointed or elected in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, (B) any lien that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and (C) any intercompany or affiliate lien or claim; and (ii) shall not be subject to challenge under sections 510, 549, 550, or 551 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that the DIP Roll-Up Loan shall be subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder.

8. DIP Superpriority Claims.

(a) DIP Superpriority Claim. Subject to the Carve Out on account of all DIP Obligations now existing or hereafter arising pursuant to this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, or otherwise, the DIP Agent (for the benefit of itself and the other DIP Lenders) is hereby granted to the maximum extent permitted pursuant to sections 364(c)(1), 503, and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim in each of the Chapter 11 Cases and any Successor Cases (collectively, the “DIP Superpriority Claim”) for all DIP Obligations; provided that the DIP Roll-Up Loan shall be subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder. Subject to paragraph 8(b) of this Interim Order, the Carve Out, the Lien Priority Annex, and Prepetition Permitted Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claim shall have, to the fullest extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code, priority over any and all other obligations, liabilities, and indebtedness of each Debtor, whether now in existence or hereafter incurred by such Debtor including without limitation administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (upon entry of the Final Order), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 726, and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(b) Priority of DIP Superpriority Claim. The DIP Superpriority Claim, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof, including subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief, Avoidance Proceeds.

9. No Obligation to Extend Credit. Except as may be required to fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account (as defined herein) or as otherwise required under this Interim Order, no DIP Credit Party shall have any obligation to make any loan or advance under the DIP Loan Documents unless all of the conditions precedent to the making of such extension of credit under the applicable DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order have been satisfied in full or waived in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents.

10. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. The DIP Loans shall be made available to the Debtors: (a) on the Closing Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) to pay the fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby; and (b) on and/or after the Closing Date (i) to repay the Prepetition ABL Obligations pursuant to the Creeping Roll-Up and, subject to entry of the Final order, the Full Roll-Up, (ii) for the Debtors' working capital requirements in accordance with the provisions governing the Approved Budget (including the Permitted Variances) set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement, (iii) to fund the costs, fees, and expenses in connection with administration of the Chapter 11 Cases in accordance with the provisions governing the Approved Budget (including the Permitted Variances) set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement, (iv) payment of all reasonable and documented out of pocket costs, fees, and expenses required by the DIP Loan Documents, (v) payment of Court approved prepetition liabilities of the DIP Loan Parties in accordance with the provisions governing the Approved Budget (including the Permitted Variances) set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement, (vi) to fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account and obligations benefitting from the Carve Out, and (vii) to fund such other costs and expenses of the Debtors and their estates as the DIP Agent may approve in writing, in its sole discretion, as to both the amount thereof and the permitted uses thereof, in each case of (a) and (b) above, in accordance with the terms of the DIP Loan Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, until such time as the DIP Obligations and the Prepetition ABL Obligations have been Paid in Full, except as may be otherwise agreed by the DIP Agent, any fees or disbursements of any Case Professional (which shall not include, for the avoidance of doubt, those payments authorized or required pursuant to paragraphs 12(b), 25 and 26 of this Interim Order) shall be paid solely from the Professional Fee Escrow Account (including, to the extent applicable, the Case Professional Carve Out Limit funded into the Professional Fee Escrow Account following delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice (as each term is defined herein)) and any retainer held by a Case Professional, as applicable.

Authorization to Use Cash Collateral

11. Authorization to Use Cash Collateral. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents, and in compliance with the Approved Budget (subject to Permitted Variances), the Debtors are authorized to use Cash Collateral only in accordance with the Approved Budget (subject to Permitted Variances) until such time that the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties terminate the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral as provided herein; provided that the Adequate Protection Payments, as applicable, and other forms of adequate protection set forth herein are paid and maintained; provided further that nothing herein shall impede the Debtors' ability and entitlement to fund the Carve Out as provided in paragraph 31 hereof; provided further that during the Remedies Notice Period (as defined herein), the Debtors may use Cash Collateral solely to fund the Carve Out in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Interim Order and the Approved Budget, and (i) pay payroll (provided that the Debtors shall be prohibited from paying any severance or bonuses), (ii) U.S. Trustee fees and fees payable to the Clerk of the Court, and (iii) subject to the consent of the DIP Agent in its reasonable discretion (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), other day-to-day operational expenses that are critical to the administration of the Debtors' estates during the Remedies Notice Period (not to exceed the Approved Budget under any circumstances absent the written consent of the DIP Agent and, solely if the proposed payment relates to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, the written consent of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent). All fees and costs incurred by the Debtors in connection with any Remedies Determination (including the fees and costs of its professionals) shall be funded solely by the Carve Out.

Adequate Protection Provisions

12. As adequate protection for the interest of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) on account of the granting of, among other things, the DIP Liens, the incurrence of the DIP Obligations, the subordination, as applicable, of the Prepetition Liens to the Carve Out, the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral, and any other diminution in value arising out of the imposition of the automatic stay or the Debtors' use, sale, lease, depreciation, or disposition of the Prepetition Collateral and Cash Collateral during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases (collectively, "Diminution in Value"), the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall receive adequate protection as follows:

(a) Adequate Protection Liens. To the extent of any Diminution in Value, each of the Prepetition ABL Agent and Prepetition Term Loan Agent (for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Creditors, as applicable) are hereby granted, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and perfected replacement and additional postpetition security interests in, and liens on the DIP Collateral (the "Adequate Protection Liens"), which shall each be (x) subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex and (y) subordinate to the Prepetition Permitted Liens, as applicable. The Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition ABL Agent (on behalf of the Prepetition ABL Lenders) shall secure the Prepetition ABL Obligations and the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent (on behalf of the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders) shall secure the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations.

(i) The Adequate Protection Liens shall be: (A) deemed to be valid, binding, non-avoidable, enforceable, and fully perfected as of the Petition Date; and (B) in all instances, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex. Other than as set forth herein, until all of the Prepetition Secured Obligations are Paid in Full, the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest by any court order heretofore or hereinafter granted in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases. The Adequate Protection Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee or other estate representative appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (or in any other Successor Cases), and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases. The Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to Bankruptcy Code sections 506(c) (upon entry of the Final Order), 510, 549, or 550. No lien or interest avoided and preserved for the benefit of any Debtor's estate pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 551 shall be made pari passu with or senior to the Adequate Protection Liens.

(ii) Priority of Adequate Protection Liens. The Adequate Protection Liens shall be payable from and have recourse to all DIP Collateral, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex.

(b) Adequate Protection Payments.

(i) Until the Prepetition ABL Obligations have been Paid in Full, all claims (including principal, interest at the default rate of interest specified in Section 2.12(c) of the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement, and letter of credit fees, costs and other charges) arising from or related to the Prepetition ABL Obligations shall continue to accrue and be paid in cash at the default rate of interest specified in Section 2.12(c) of the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement monthly in arrears on the first Business Day of each calendar month, commencing with the first such date to occur after entry of this Interim Order (the “ABL Lender Payments”).

(ii) Until the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations have been Paid in Full, all claims (including principal, interest at the default rate and letter of credit fees, costs and other charges) arising from or related to the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations shall continue to accrue interest at the applicable rate as provided for in the Prepetition Term Loan Documents through the Chapter 11 Cases.

(iii) The Prepetition ABL Agent (including any successor thereto) shall further be entitled to the payment of all reasonable and documented fees, costs, expenses and charges of the Prepetition ABL Agent, to the extent payable under the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement (the “ABL Fees and Expenses”) and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent (including any successor thereto) shall further be entitled to the payment of all reasonable and documented fees, costs, expenses and charges of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, to the extent payable under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement and solely from, and to the extent of, funds in the Term Loan Reserve (as defined herein), until Payment in Full of the DIP Obligations and Prepetition ABL Obligations and thereafter without limitation (the “Term Loan Fees and Expenses”, and together with ABL Fees and Expenses and the ABL Lender Payments collectively, the “Adequate Protection Payments”); provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Prepetition ABL Agent prior to and unpaid as of the Closing Date shall be paid indefeasibly upon the occurrence of the Closing Date without the Prepetition ABL Agent (or their counsel or other professionals) being required to deliver an invoice in summary form as set forth herein. For all ABL Fees and Expenses and Term Loan Fees and Expenses incurred after the Closing Date, counsel and/or professionals to the Prepetition Agents shall each deliver an invoice in summary form, which shall not be required to include time entry detail, but shall include a general description of the nature of the matters for which services were performed, and may be redacted for privileged information; provided, however, that the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee and any Committee reserve their rights to request additional detail regarding the services rendered and expenses incurred by such professionals to counsel to the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, and any Committee. If no written objection is received on the date that is ten (10) days after delivery of such invoice to counsel to the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, and any Committee, the Debtors shall promptly pay such fees and expenses in full. If an objection to the applicable Prepetition Agent's invoice is timely received, the Debtors shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice, and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. None of the Adequate Protection Payments shall be subject to further approval by this Court or the U.S. Trustee guidelines, and counsel and/or professionals to the Prepetition Agents shall not be required to file applications or motions with this Court for the payment of any of its fees or out-of-pocket expenses (other than with respect to disputed amounts). Payments of any amounts set forth in this paragraph are not subject to avoidance, subordination, or disgorgement. For the avoidance of doubt, the Adequate Protection Payments shall be subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder.

(c) Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims.

(i) Superpriority Claims of the Prepetition Agents. As further adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition Agents and the other Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Prepetition ABL Agent and Prepetition Term Loan Agent (for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Creditors, as applicable) is hereby granted an allowed administrative claim against the Debtors' estates to the maximum extent permitted under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code, with priority over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors and their estates of any kind or nature whatsoever, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, including, without limitation, administrative expense claims of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 726, 1113, and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code, as provided for by section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims"), to the extent that the Adequate Protection Liens do not adequately protect against any Diminution in Value of the Prepetition Agents' respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral.

(ii) Priority of Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. The Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof, including subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief, Avoidance Proceeds.

(d) Reservations of Rights. Subject only to the Carve Out, the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, and the Prepetition Permitted Liens, nothing contained herein shall impair or modify the Prepetition Secured Creditors' rights under section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the adequate protection provided to the Prepetition Secured Creditors in this Interim Order is insufficient to compensate for the Diminution in Value of the interest of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral during the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases. Nothing contained in this Interim

Order shall be construed as an admission as to the extent of any Diminution in Value, if any, in the interest of any Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral and nothing shall impair or modify the rights of any party to contest any assertion of Diminution in Value or contest any request for additional adequate protection.

Provisions Common to DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral Authorizations

13. Amendments. The DIP Loan Documents may from time to time be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified, in each case in accordance with the provisions of the DIP Loan Documents governing amendments thereto, by the parties thereto, each without further application to or order of this Court; provided, that any amendment to the DIP Credit Agreement: that (a) shortens or lengthens the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder; (b) increases or decreases the aggregate commitments thereunder; or (c) increases the rate of interest payable with respect thereto (each, a “Material DIP Amendment”), shall be (a) provided (which may be by electronic mail) to the U.S. Trustee, the Prepetition Agents and any Committee, which shall have five (5) days from the date of receipt of such notice within which to object, in writing to the Material DIP Amendment and (b) filed with the Court for approval, it being understood that, among other things, (i) waivers for the benefit of the Debtors and extensions of Chapter 11 Case Milestones and similar deadlines, (ii) waivers for the benefit of the Debtors regarding Approved Budget testing, or any modifications, amendments, or updates to the Approved Budget made in accordance with paragraph 14 of this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents, shall not be considered “material” for purposes hereof, and may become immediately effective. If the U.S. Trustee, Prepetition Agent(s) or any Committee timely objects to the Material DIP Amendment, the Material DIP Amendment shall only be permitted pursuant to an order of this Court. The foregoing shall be without prejudice to the Debtors’ right to seek approval from this Court of a Material DIP Amendment on an expedited basis.

14. Approved Budget, Testing, and Permitted Variances.

(a) Approved Budget. The Approved Budget and any modification to, or amendment or update of, the Approved Budget shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Agent in its sole discretion and modified or amended in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents. The Approved Budget shall be updated, modified or supplemented by the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and this Interim Order, but in any event the budget shall be updated from time to time upon the written request of the Administrative Agent and otherwise every two weeks; provided that, on or before the fourth Business Day of the first week (but in any event not later than Friday of such week) of each successive two-week period following the Closing Date (i.e., commencing with the week of August 30, 2026), the Borrowers shall submit an updated budget for the next successive thirteen-week period (it being understood that, unless otherwise agreed by the DIP Agent, each updated budget shall only add projections for periods not previously covered by any Approved Budget and shall not modify any prior periods). Each such updated, modified or supplemented budget shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Agent in its sole discretion, and no such updated, modified or supplemented budget shall be effective until so approved and once approved shall be deemed the Approved Budget; provided, however, that, in the event that the DIP Agent and the Debtors cannot agree as to a new Approved Budget, such disagreement shall give rise to an Event of Default under the DIP Credit Agreement once the period covered by the most recent Approved Budget has terminated.

(b) Permitted Variances. The Debtors shall comply with the Approved Budget subject to the permitted variances set out in the DIP Credit Agreement (as amended from time to time as provided herein, the “Permitted Variances”).

(c) Approved Budget Testing. Permitted Variances shall be reported by the Debtors on the Wednesday following the last Saturday of each completed week. For the avoidance of doubt, the testing of covenant compliance shall begin on the first full calendar week following the Petition Date. The Debtors shall prepare a variance report, and deliver such variance report to the DIP Agent, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and their advisors in accordance with the requirements set out in the DIP Credit Agreement.

15. Modification of Automatic Stay. The automatic stay imposed under section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby modified as necessary to effectuate all of the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, to permit: (a) the Debtors to grant the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims; (b) the Debtors to incur all liabilities and obligations to the DIP Agent as contemplated under the DIP Loan Documents; and (c) the Debtors to pay, and the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition Secured Creditors to retain and apply, all amounts referred to, required under, and in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents.

16. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) This Interim Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the priority, perfection, and validity of the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, and the other security interests granted herein, effective as of the Petition Date, without any further act and without regard to any other federal, state, or local requirements or law requiring notice, execution, filing, registration, recording, or possession of the DIP Collateral, or other act to validate or perfect such security interest or lien, including, without limitation: (i) entering into any control agreements with any financial institution(s) party to a control agreement or other depository account consisting of DIP Collateral; (ii) any requirement to register liens on any certificates of title; (iii) the filing of any financing statements; (iv) the filing of any intellectual property filings; (v) entering into any mortgages; (vi) noticing any liens; and/or (vii) the taking of any similar actions (each of the foregoing (i)-(vii) a “Perfection Act”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the DIP Agent or any Prepetition Agent, as applicable, shall, in its sole discretion, elect for any reason to file, record, or otherwise effectuate any Perfection Act, then such DIP Agent or Prepetition Agent, as applicable, is authorized to perform such act, and the Debtors are authorized to perform such act to the extent necessary or required by the DIP Loan Documents, which act or acts shall be deemed to have been accomplished as of the date and time of entry of this Interim Order notwithstanding the date and time actually accomplished, and, in such event, the subject filing or recording office is authorized to accept, file, or record any document in regard to such act in accordance with applicable law. The DIP Agent or either Prepetition Agent, as applicable, may choose to file, record, or present a certified copy of this Interim Order in the same manner as a Perfection Act, which shall be tantamount to a Perfection Act, and, in such event, the subject filing or recording office is authorized to accept, file, or record such certified copy of this Interim Order in accordance with applicable law. Should the DIP Agent or either Prepetition Agent, as applicable, so choose and attempt to file, record, or perform a Perfection Act, no defect or failure in connection with such attempt shall in any way limit, waive, or alter the validity, enforceability, attachment, priority, or perfection of the postpetition liens and security interests granted herein by virtue of the entry of this Interim Order.

(b) To the extent that any applicable non-bankruptcy law otherwise would restrict the granting, scope, enforceability, attachment, or perfection of any liens and security interests granted and created by this Interim Order (including the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens) or otherwise would impose filing or registration requirements with respect to such liens and security interests, such law is hereby pre-empted to the maximum extent permitted by the Bankruptcy Code, applicable federal or foreign law, and the judicial power and authority of this Court; provided, however, that nothing herein shall excuse the Debtors from payment of any local fees, if any, required in connection with such liens. By virtue of the terms of this Interim Order, to the extent that the DIP Agent or either Prepetition Agent, as applicable, has filed Uniform Commercial Code financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other security or perfection documents under the names of any of the Debtors, such filings shall be deemed to properly perfect its liens and security interests granted and confirmed by this Interim Order without further action by the DIP Agent or applicable Prepetition Agent.

17. (a) Application of Proceeds of DIP Collateral. Subject to the Carve Out, the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, and the Prepetition Permitted Liens, as applicable, the proceeds of DIP Collateral shall be applied in accordance with the terms of the DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Documents and this Interim Order. The Debtors shall not, directly or indirectly, voluntarily purchase, redeem, defease, or prepay any principal of, premium, if any, interest or other amount payable in respect of any indebtedness prior to its scheduled maturity, other than the DIP Obligations, the Adequate Protection Payments required under this Interim Order, and obligations authorized by an order of this Court (which may include, without limitation, obligations secured by Prepetition Permitted Liens). The Debtors shall apply the proceeds of the DIP Collateral, the proceeds of the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral, and any other cash and collections and receipts of cash from any source, including accounts, sale of property, loan advances, or refunds (but excluding amounts reserved for the Carve Out and proceeds of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, which shall be applied in accordance with paragraph 17(b) hereof) to the repayment and refinancing of the Prepetition ABL Obligations as set forth in this Interim Order, the Prepetition Credit Documents and the DIP Credit Agreement. The extension of the DIP Facility and the repayment and refinancing of the Prepetition ABL Obligations with the proceeds of the DIP Loans are part of an integrated transaction.

(b) Proceeds of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all proceeds of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral shall be deposited into a segregated account maintained by the Debtors (the “Term Loan Reserve”) and all Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall attach to funds in the Term Loan Reserve to the same extent and with the same priority as such Prepetition Liens attached to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral and the Debtors shall not use such cash collateral or make any distributions from the Term Loan Reserve without further order of the Court (the “Term Loan Reserve Release Order”) or the prior written consent of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and Prepetition ABL Agent. All estate retained Case Professionals shall use reasonable efforts to indicate in their respective monthly fee applications, interim fee applications and/or final fee applications whether and to what extent any fees or expenses were incurred in connection with preserving or disposing of the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral. For the avoidance of doubt, any reasonable fees and expenses of the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties and their counsel shall be paid solely from funds in the Term Loan Reserve until the DIP Obligations and Prepetition ABL Obligations are paid in full. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all parties’ rights, claims and defenses under this paragraph, including with respect to the gross cash proceeds received by the Debtors in connection with the sale or disposition of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral and the allocation of costs, fees, and expenses incurred in connection with such sale or disposition of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, are fully reserved and preserved.

18. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with enlarged powers, any responsible officer or any other estate representative subsequently appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code in violation of the DIP Loan Documents at any time prior to the repayment in full in cash of all DIP Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Credit Parties' obligations to extend credit under the DIP Facility, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debt shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied as set forth in paragraph 17 herein, subject to the Lien Priority Annex.

19. Maintenance of DIP Collateral and Prepetition Collateral. Until the Prepetition Secured Obligations and DIP Obligations are Paid in Full and the DIP Credit Parties' obligations to extend credit under the DIP Loan Documents are terminated, as provided therein, the Debtors shall insure the Prepetition Collateral and the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Loan Documents and the Prepetition Credit Documents including, without limitation: (i) the payment of all past due tax obligations and assessments, solely in accordance with the Approved Budget; (ii) the payment of taxes and assessments that come due following the Petition Date as they come due, solely in accordance with the Approved Budget; and (iii) the maintenance of insurance consistent with the Debtors' practices prior to the Petition Date and any insurance related relief granted by the Court.

20. Termination Declaration Date. On a Termination Declaration Date (as defined herein), consistent with Article VII of the DIP Credit Agreement: (a) all DIP Obligations shall be immediately due and payable; and (b) all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility will terminate (subject, in each case, to funding of the Carve Out as provided herein).

21. Events of Default. The occurrence of an “Event of Default” under the DIP Credit Agreement, including failure to comply with any Chapter 11 Case Milestones (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement and attached hereto as Exhibit 4) as and when required as set forth in section 5.15 of the DIP Credit Agreement and on Exhibit 4 (unless otherwise extended by the DIP Agent in its sole discretion), in each case, on terms and conditions and subject to documentation (including, in all cases, forms of all applicable motions and orders) in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the DIP Agent in all respects, shall constitute an event of default under this Interim Order after giving effect to any applicable cure period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement (each, an “Event of Default”).

22. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Subject to the terms of the DIP Loan Documents, immediately upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, notwithstanding the provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, without any application, motion, or notice to, hearing before, or order from this Court, but subject to the terms of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, the funding of the Carve Out, the Remedies Notice Period (as defined herein) and the notice and grace period provisions of the DIP Credit Agreement set forth in Article VII of the DIP Credit Agreement: (1) (i) the DIP Agent may declare in writing (the “DIP Termination Declaration”) (A) all DIP Obligations owing under the DIP Loan Documents to be immediately due and payable, (B) the termination, reduction, or restriction of any further commitment to extend applicable credit to the Debtors to the extent any such commitment remains under the DIP Facility, (C) termination of the DIP Facility and the DIP Loan Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders, but without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations, and/or (D) that any obligations to fund amounts in respect to the Carve Out shall be triggered, through the delivery of the Carve Out Trigger Notice (each as defined herein) to the Debtors; and (ii) the DIP Agent may declare a termination, reduction, or restriction on the ability of the Debtors to use Cash Collateral except solely to fund the ABL Carve Out Reserve and to seek a Remedies Determination (as defined herein) (the date on which a DIP Termination Declaration is delivered by the DIP Agent, the “Termination Declaration Date”).

(b) Any DIP Termination Declaration shall not be effective until notice has been provided by electronic mail (or other electronic means) to counsel to the Debtors, counsel to any Committee, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to each of the Prepetition Agents. The automatic stay in the Chapter 11 Cases otherwise applicable to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors is hereby modified so that five (5) Business Days after the Termination Declaration Date (as such period may be extended pursuant to the terms hereof, the “Remedies Notice Period”) and the funding of the Carve Out in accordance with paragraph 31(b) of this Interim Order, as applicable, and subject to the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex and the Prepetition Permitted Liens: (x) the DIP Agent shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order; and (y) the applicable Prepetition Agent shall be entitled to exercise its respective rights and remedies to the extent available in accordance with the applicable Prepetition Credit Documents and this Interim Order.

(c) During the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors and all other parties in interest shall be entitled to seek an emergency hearing with this Court (the “Remedies Determination”); provided that if the Debtors seek an emergency hearing during the

Remedies Notice Period, but such hearing is scheduled for a later date by this Court (without any request by the Debtors to this Court with respect to such later scheduling), the Remedies Notice Period shall be tolled and the automatic stay shall not be modified until such hearing occurs. The Court may fashion an appropriate remedy at a hearing on a Remedies Determination; provided that the rights of the Debtors, the DIP Credit Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors to contest such relief are expressly preserved. Except as set forth in this paragraph 22(c) or otherwise ordered by this Court, after the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors shall waive their right to seek relief, including, without limitation, under section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such relief would in any way impair or restrict the rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Creditors under this Interim Order. Furthermore, during the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors may use Cash Collateral solely to fund the Carve Out in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Interim Order and the Approved Budget, and (i) pay payroll (provided that the Debtors shall be prohibited from paying any severance or bonuses), (ii) U.S. Trustee fees and fees payable to the Clerk of Court, and (iii) subject to the consent of the DIP Agent in its reasonable discretion (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), other day-to-day operational expenses that are critical to the administration of the Debtors' estates during the Remedies Notice Period (not to exceed the Approved Budget under any circumstances absent the written consent of the DIP Agent and, solely if the proposed payment relates to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, the written consent of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent). All fees and costs incurred by the Debtors in connection with any Remedies Determination (including the fees and costs of its professionals) shall be funded solely by the Carve Out. Unless this Court orders otherwise prior to the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, the automatic stay, as to all of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall automatically be terminated at the end of the Remedies Notice Period (as it may be extended in accordance with this paragraph) without further notice or order. Upon expiration of the Remedies Notice Period (as it may be extended in accordance with this paragraph) and the funding of the Carve Out in accordance with paragraph 31(b) of this Interim Order, as applicable, and subject to the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex and the Prepetition Permitted Liens, the applicable DIP Agent and the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be permitted to exercise all remedies set forth herein, and in the DIP Loan Documents, and as otherwise available at law without further order of or application or motion to this Court consistent with this Interim Order and the applicable loan documents. The DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors may, subject to the Prepetition Credit Documents, the funding of the Carve Out, as applicable, the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, and the Prepetition Permitted Liens, after the Remedies Notice Period, enter onto the premises of any Debtor in accordance with paragraph 23(b) herein.

23. Leased Premises.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, for purposes of this Interim Order, DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall not encumber and DIP Collateral shall not include (i) leasehold interests of non-residential real property that prohibit or restrict the granting of such liens in the applicable lease except as permitted pursuant to applicable non-bankruptcy law (but shall include the proceeds of the sale or disposition of such leases) and (ii) any security deposits (in possession of the Debtors or the landlord) or the Debtors' interests, if any, in pre-paid rent, unless liens on such security deposits or pre-paid rent are expressly permitted pursuant to the underlying lease documents; provided that, the DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall extend to any such security deposits or pre-paid rent upon reversion thereof to the Debtors, if at all, as well as any proceeds or value of such leasehold interests whether by sale, financing, or other disposition or form of transfer, termination or transaction; provided, further, that any liens granted herein relating to the Debtors' insurance policies shall not interfere with any rights held by a landlord under such policies to any such insurance proceeds for damage to landlord's property.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, or the Prepetition Credit Documents, the DIP Agent's or the Prepetition Agents' exercise of their remedies pursuant to paragraph 22 and in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents and the Prepetition Credit Documents shall be subject to, as may be applicable: (a) any agreement in writing between the DIP Agent or Prepetition Agents and any applicable landlord; (b) pre-existing rights of the DIP Agent or Prepetition Agents, and any applicable landlord under applicable non-bankruptcy law; (c) written consent of the applicable landlord; or (d) further order of this Court following notice and a hearing.

24. Good Faith Under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; No Modification or Stay of this Interim Order. In accordance with sections 364(e) and 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Interim Order are hereafter reversed, modified, amended, or vacated by a subsequent order of this Court, or any other court, the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition Secured Creditors are entitled, upon entry of this Interim Order, to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment, or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances previously made or made hereunder, or lien, claim or priority authorized or created hereby. Any liens or claims granted to the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition Secured Creditors hereunder arising prior to the effective date of any such reversal, modification, amendment, or vacatur of this Interim Order shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, entitlement to all rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits granted herein.

25. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized to pay, without duplication of fees paid for the benefit of the DIP Credit Parties, all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses (and the DIP Agent is authorized to make advances or charges against the loan account to pay such agreed costs and expenses of the DIP Credit Parties in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents) of the DIP Credit Parties in connection with the DIP Facility (including, without limitation, costs and expenses incurred prior to the Petition Date), to the extent set forth in the DIP Loan Documents. The professionals for the DIP Agent, shall deliver an invoice in summary form (which shall not be required to include time entry detail and may be redacted for privileged information, but shall include (i) a general description of the nature of the matters for which services were performed and (ii) contain sufficiently detailed information to permit the Review Parties (as defined herein) to determine whether the fees and expenses sought to be paid are reasonable); provided, however, that the Debtors, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the U.S. Trustee and any Committee reserve their rights to request unredacted copies of such invoices and additional detail regarding the services rendered and expenses incurred by such professionals to counsel to the Debtors, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the U.S. Trustee, and any Committee (together, the “Review Parties”); provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the out-of-pocket expenses (including, without limitation, all attorneys’ and other professionals’ fees and expenses) incurred by the DIP Agent prior to and unpaid as of the Closing Date shall be paid indefeasibly upon the occurrence of the Closing Date without the DIP Agent being required to deliver an invoice in summary form as set forth herein. If no written objection is received by ten (10) calendar days after receipt of such invoice by the Review Parties, the Debtors shall promptly pay such fees and expenses in full. If an objection to a professional's invoice is timely received, the Debtors shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice, and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. The DIP Agent's professionals shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee guidelines or to file applications or motions with, or obtain approval of, this Court for the payment of any of their fees or out-of-pocket expenses (other than with respect to disputed amounts).

26. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agent, each other DIP Credit Party, and each Indemnatee (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), subject to and in accordance with each DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, Section 9.03(b) of the DIP Credit Agreement.

27. [Reserved.]

28. [Reserved.]

29. Proofs of Claim. Notwithstanding any order entered by this Court in relation to the establishment of a bar date in any of these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, neither the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition Agents, nor any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be required to file proofs of claim in these cases or any Successor Cases in order to assert claims for payment of any of the DIP Obligations or the Prepetition Secured Obligations, including, without limitation, any principal, unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other amounts due and payable under the Prepetition Credit Documents or this Interim Order. None of the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors will be required to file proofs of claim or requests for approval of administrative expenses in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, and the provisions of this Interim Order relating to the DIP Obligations, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, the Prepetition ABL Obligations, or the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations, and the Debtors' Stipulations shall constitute timely filed proofs of claim and/or administrative expense requests (as applicable) in each of the Chapter 11 Cases.

30. Rights of Access and Information. The Debtors shall use commercially reasonable efforts to afford the DIP Credit Parties all of the rights of access and information provided for under the DIP Loan Documents, including, but not limited to, the right to conduct field examinations and inventory appraisals during normal business hours and upon reasonable advance notice (at the expense of the Debtors) as frequently as determined by the DIP Agent in its reasonable discretion.

31. Carve Out.

(a) Priority of Carve Out. Each of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, the DIP Obligations, and the Prepetition Secured Obligations shall be subject and subordinate to payment of the Carve Out (as defined herein). The Carve Out shall be senior to all claims and liens over all assets of the Debtors, including any DIP Collateral, as set forth in the Lien Priority Annex.

(b) Definition of Carve Out. As used in this Interim Order, the Carve Out means the sum of (i) all unpaid professional fees and disbursements incurred by the Debtors and the Committee, if any, pursuant to Sections 327 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, including (A) Cole Schotz P.C., as Debtors' restructuring counsel, and (B) Reflect Advisors, in their professional capacity providing services and additional staff to the chief restructuring officer (the "Case Professionals") prior to the delivery of the Carve Out Trigger Notice to the extent allowed by the Court at any time, but in each case under clause (i) solely to the extent the same are incurred by each Case Professional in accordance with any Approved Budget; plus (ii) following the delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice, the unpaid professional fees and disbursements incurred by the Case Professionals in an amount collectively up to (x) $250,000 for Case Professionals retained by the Debtors (the "Debtors' Professional Carve Out Limit") and (y) $50,000 for Case Professionals retained by the Committee (the "Committee Professional Carve Out Limit") and, together with the Debtors' Professional Carve Out Limit, the "Case Professional Carve Out Limit"), plus (iii) the payment of fees pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a), including fees owed to the U.S. Trustee, and any fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court, which fees shall not be limited to amounts that may be set forth in the Approved Budget; plus (iv) all reasonable fees and expenses up to $50,000 incurred by a chapter 7 trustee under Section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Chapter 7 Trustee Carve Out Limit", and together with the Case Professional Carve Out Limit, the "Carve Out Limit") (items (i) through (iv), collectively, the "Carve Out"). Within three (3) Business Days of delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice, the outstanding amount of the Carve Out shall be funded by the Debtors into the Professional Fee Escrow Account; provided, that (i) the Debtors shall first utilize cash on hand to fund the Carve Out, and (ii) solely to the extent that the Debtors are unable to fully fund the Carve Out with cash on hand in the manner and in the amount set forth in this paragraph 31(b), then proceeds from the DIP Facility shall be used to fund any shortfall, which funding may be in the form of additional DIP Loans. For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Cole Schotz P.C.), the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the

Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, and lead counsel to any Committee, which notice may be delivered only following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default.

(c) Professional Fee Escrow Account. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Interim Order, until an Event of Default or the Termination Declaration Date has occurred, the Debtors shall be permitted to borrow under the DIP Facility on a weekly basis to fund a segregated non-interest bearing account (which may be the trust account of the Debtors' restructuring counsel) and hold in trust solely for the benefit of the Case Professionals (the "Professional Fee Escrow Account") in the amounts contemplated under clause (i) of the immediately preceding paragraph. The Debtors shall be permitted to pay, or cause to be paid from the Professional Fee Escrow Account, as and when the same may become due and payable, the allowed professional fees of Case Professionals regardless of whether an Event of Default or the Termination Declaration Date has occurred. Subject to paragraph 31(j) hereof, none of the provisions of this Interim Order or any DIP Loan Document shall prohibit or restrict the payment of the fees and expenses of any Case Professionals from any retainers held by such Case Professional. The amounts held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall not be subject to any lien, attachment, garnishment, or other claim of any creditor of the Debtors other than the Case Professionals for whose benefit such amounts are held in trust. Any amounts remaining in the Professional Fee Escrow Account after the payment in full of all allowed professional fees of Case Professionals pursuant to final fee applications and orders shall be returned to the Debtors, the amounts which shall be applied in accordance with paragraph 17 hereof and the Lien Priority Annex. The DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall attach, in accordance with the relative priorities set forth in the Lien Priority Annex, to any cash held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account following the payment of Case Professionals from the Carve Out.

(d) Payment of Allowed Professional Fees Prior to the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made prior to the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any allowed professional fees shall not reduce or be deemed to reduce the Carve Out; provided, however, that the obligation of the DIP Credit Parties to fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall be deemed satisfied so long as the DIP Credit Parties have complied with their obligations with respect to the Professional Fee Escrow Account as set forth in this paragraph 31.

(e) Payment of Carve Out On or After the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made on or after the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any allowed professional fees shall permanently reduce the Carve Out on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Any funding or payment of the Carve Out shall be added to, and made a part of the DIP Obligations secured by the DIP Collateral and shall be otherwise entitled to the protections granted under this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, the Bankruptcy Code, and applicable law; provided that any funding or payment that (i) constituted DIP Obligations shall not be further added to the DIP Obligations and (ii) was made with the proceeds of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral shall not constitute DIP Obligations.

(f) No Direct Obligation To Pay Allowed Professional Fees. None of the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be responsible for the payment or reimbursement of any fees or disbursements of any Case Professional or any fees or expenses of the U.S. Trustee or Clerk of this Court incurred in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in this Interim Order or otherwise shall be construed to obligate the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors, in any way, to pay compensation to, or to reimburse expenses of, any Case Professional or to guarantee that the Debtors have sufficient funds to pay such compensation or reimbursement. Until the DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations have been Paid in Full, allowed professional fees of Case Professionals shall be paid solely from the Professional Fee Escrow Account or any retainers held by Case Professionals.

(g) Subordination to Carve Out. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, the Debtors' obligations to the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the liens, security interests, and superpriority claims granted herein, under the DIP Loan Documents, and/or under the Prepetition Credit Documents, including, without limitation, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and the Prepetition Secured Obligations, shall be subject in all respects and subordinate to the Carve Out, including paragraph 31(j) hereof. For the avoidance of doubt, upon the funding of the Carve Out as set forth in this paragraph 31, the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have no further obligation to fund the Carve Out (including the Professional Fee Escrow Account), and their liens and claims shall not be subordinate to any obligations or amounts other than that which is held in the Carve Out, subject to paragraph 31(j) hereof.

(h) ABL Carve Out Reserve. In accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Agent shall be entitled to at all times maintain a reserve (the "ABL Carve Out Reserve") against the Borrowing Base (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) in an amount not to exceed, at any time of determination, the sum of the Carve Out Limit, provided that the DIP Agent may reserve for the fees and expenses of any Case Professionals to be included in the Professional Fee

Escrow Account to the extent they are not timely funded in accordance with paragraph 31(c) hereof.

(i) Reservation of Rights With Respect to Allowance of Fees. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any Case Professional or shall be construed as a waiver of any right of the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to any fee statement, interim application or monthly application issued or filed by the Case Professionals. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Loan Documents, (x) in no event shall any DIP Lender be required to fund any amounts in excess of its DIP Commitment and (y) the payment of any allowed professional fees pursuant to the Carve Out shall not (i) reduce any Debtor's obligations owed to the DIP Agent, any DIP Lender, the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition Agents, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors (whether under this Interim Order or otherwise) or (ii) modify, alter or otherwise affect any of the liens and security interests of such parties (whether granted under this Interim Order or otherwise) in the Prepetition Collateral or the DIP Collateral (or their claims against the Debtors).

(j) Reservation of Rights With Respect to Allocation of Proceeds Used to Fund Carve Out. The DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties reserve their respective rights as to the allocation of proceeds used to fund the Carve Out as among the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral, the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, and the DIP Collateral.

32. Limitation on Use of DIP Loans and DIP Collateral (Including Cash Collateral). For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding any other provision of this Interim Order or any other order entered by this Court to the contrary, no portion of the Carve Out, DIP Collateral, or

Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used directly or indirectly in connection with: (i) the investigation, initiation, or prosecution of any claims, causes of action, motions, adversary proceedings, or other litigation, (A) against any of the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, the Prepetition Secured Creditors (whether in such capacity or otherwise), or (B) challenging the amount, validity, perfection, priority, or enforceability of or asserting any defense, counterclaim or offset to, the obligations and the liens and security interests granted under the DIP Loan Documents or in connection with the Prepetition Loan Facilities, including, in each case without limitation, for lender liability or pursuant to Sections 105, 510, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550, or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise; (ii) attempts to modify any of the rights granted to the DIP Lenders or the DIP Agent with respect to the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Agents or the other Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to the Prepetition Loan Facilities; (iii) any objection to, motion to reconsider or appeal of any order with respect to the DIP Facility; (iv) attempts to prevent, hinder, or otherwise delay any of the DIP Lenders' or the DIP Agent's assertion, enforcement, or realization upon any DIP Collateral in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents and the Final Order once an Event of Default has occurred and any applicable Remedies Notice Period expired; provided, however, that the proceeds of the DIP Loans and DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used by the Committee (if any) to investigate prior to the Challenge Deadline (as defined herein), but not to prosecute, (A) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, and (B) potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action or defenses against any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, up to an aggregate cap of no more than $50,000.

33. No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Interim Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

34. Release. Subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder, effective upon entry of this Interim Order, each of the Released Parties is released by the Debtors as provided in paragraph F(ix) hereof.

35. Section 506(c) Claims. Subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, no costs or expenses of administration which have been or may be incurred in the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases at any time shall be charged against the DIP Credit Parties or the DIP Collateral (other than the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral pursuant to subsequent order of this Court) or the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties or the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral pursuant to sections 105 or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise and all rights to surcharge the DIP Credit Parties or the DIP Collateral (other than the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral pursuant to subsequent order of this Court) or the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties or the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral under sections 105 or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable principle of equity or law shall be and are hereby finally and irrevocably waived, and such waiver shall be binding upon the Debtors and all parties-in-interest in this or any Successor Cases.

36. No Marshaling / Applications of Proceeds. Subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, none of the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be subject to the equitable doctrine of “marshaling” or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral.

37. Section 552(b). The DIP Agent and the other DIP Credit Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, and subject to approval by this Court therein, the “equities of the case” exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to proceeds, products, offspring, or profits of any of the Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral.

38. Limits on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Interim Order, any of the DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Documents, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Agents, or the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Agents, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility or permitting the use of Cash Collateral, as applicable, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a “responsible person” or “owner or operator” with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Nothing in this Interim Order or the DIP Loan Documents, shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Agents, or the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

39. Joint and Several Liability. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be construed to constitute a substantive consolidation of any of the Debtors' estates, it being understood, however, that the Debtors shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations hereunder and in accordance with the terms of the DIP Facility and the DIP Loan Documents.

40. No Superior Rights of Reclamation. The extension of the DIP Facility and the repayment and refinancing of the Prepetition ABL Obligations with the proceeds of the DIP Loans are part of an integrated transaction. Based on the findings and rulings herein concerning the integrated nature of the DIP Facility and the Prepetition ABL Documents and the relation back of the DIP Liens, in no event shall any alleged right of reclamation or return (whether asserted under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise) be deemed to have any additional or greater rights and priority with respect to the Prepetition ABL Liens as such claim had on the Petition Date.

41. Debtors' Waivers/Covenants. At all times during the Chapter 11 Cases prior to the DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations being Paid in Full, and whether or not an Event of Default has occurred, it shall be an Event of Default for the Debtors to seek authority to take any of the following actions prior to the DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations being Paid in Full, other than as expressly provided for in this Interim Order or the DIP Loan Documents, or unless the DIP Agent or applicable Prepetition Agent otherwise consents in writing: (i) use Cash Collateral under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) obtain postpetition loans or other financial accommodations pursuant to Section 364(c) or 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, (iii) challenge the application of any payments authorized hereunder pursuant to Section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or assert that the value of the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral is less than the Prepetition ABL Obligations, or assert that the value of the applicable Prepetition

Term Loan Priority Collateral is less than the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations secured thereby, (iv) propose, support or have a plan of reorganization or liquidation that does not provide for all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations to be Paid in Full on the effective date of such plan, (v) seek relief under the Bankruptcy Code, including without limitation, under Section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent any such relief would in any way restrict or impair the rights and remedies of any DIP Credit Parties as provided in this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents or any DIP Credit Parties' exercise of such rights or remedies, (vi) challenge, contest or otherwise seek to impair or object to the validity, extent, enforceability or priority of the DIP Agent's postpetition liens and claims, or (vii) take any action prohibited pursuant to Section 5.11 or 7.01(l) of the DIP Credit Agreement. No consent to any of the foregoing shall be implied from any other action, inaction, or acquiescence by any of the DIP Credit Parties, and the written consent of the DIP Agent shall be required to relieve the Debtors of their obligations under this paragraph 41 and the consent of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent required to relieve the Debtor of their obligations under this paragraph 41 pertaining to any of the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, Prepetition Term Loan Liens or Prepetition Term Loan Obligations.

42. Rights Preserved. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the entry of this Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly: (a) the DIP Credit Parties' or the Prepetition Secured Creditors' right to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the Debtors (including, the right to seek additional or different adequate protection); (b) the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors to seek the payment by the Debtors of postpetition interest or fees pursuant to section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; or (c) any of the rights of the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) request modification of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) request dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee or examiner with expanded powers, (iii) seek an injunction, (iv) oppose any request for use of Cash Collateral, (v) object to any sale of assets, or (vi) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a chapter 11 plan or plans; provided, that the rights of the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to sections (i)–(iii) of this paragraph 42 shall be subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex. Other than as expressly set forth in this Interim Order, any other rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) of the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors are preserved.

43. No Waiver by Failure to Seek Relief. The failure of the DIP Credit Parties to seek relief or otherwise exercise rights and remedies under this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, or applicable law, as the case may be, shall not constitute a waiver of any of the rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise of the DIP Credit Parties.

44. Binding Effect of Interim Order. Immediately upon entry by this Court of this Interim Order, the stipulations (including the Debtors' Stipulations), terms and provisions of this Interim Order (including, without limitation, the Adequate Protection Liens, Adequate Protection Payments, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims) shall become valid and binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Debtors, the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition Secured Creditors, all other creditors of any of the Debtors, the Committee, if any, and all other parties-in-interest and their respective successors and assigns, including, without limitation, any trustee or other fiduciary hereafter appointed in any of the Chapter 11 Cases, any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any Chapter 11 Case or Successor Case, unless, and solely to the extent that:

(A) any person or any party-in-interest (including the Committee, if any) has sought and obtained standing and the requisite authority to commence a Challenge⁸ (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge is hereby irrevocably waived and relinquished) and has timely commenced a Challenge until the date that is seventy five (75) calendar days after the entry of this Interim Order, subject to the tolling provision below (the “Challenge Deadline”), as such applicable date may be extended in writing from time to time by the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditor in its sole discretion, or by this Court for good cause shown pursuant to an application filed by a party in interest prior to the expiration of the Challenge Deadline; provided that if the Chapter 11 Cases are converted to chapter 7 or a chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee is appointed or elected prior to the expiration of the Challenge Deadline, any such estate representative or trustee shall receive the full benefit of any remaining time before expiration of the Challenge Deadline, which, solely if not yet expired, shall be extended for a period of sixty (60) days; and (B) this Court enters judgment in favor of the plaintiff or movant in any such timely commenced Challenge proceeding and any such judgment has become a final judgment that is not subject to any further review or appeal. The Challenge Deadline set forth herein shall be tolled if a party-in-interest (including the Committee, if any) files a motion seeking standing to bring a Challenge (“Standing Motion”), which attaches one or more draft complaints that detail the alleged challenge(s) that the applicable party in interest seeks to file, until such time as the Court decides the Standing Motion and solely with respect to (i) the party-in-interest that files the Standing Motion and (ii) the contents of the complaint attached to the Standing Motion. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Interim Order, the Court retains the right to enter any appropriate remedy in connection with a successful Challenge.

45. Credit Bidding. Subject to paragraph 44 of this Interim Order and the rights of parties-in-interest under section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, in connection with any sale process authorized by the Court, upon entry of the Interim Order, the Prepetition Agents may seek to credit bid some or all of their claims for their respective priority collateral (each a “Credit Bid”). A Credit Bid may be applied only to reduce the cash consideration with respect to those assets in which the party submitting such Credit Bid holds a senior, perfected security interest. For the avoidance of doubt, unless and until the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations are Paid in Full, the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties may not Credit Bid for Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral and, unless and until the Prepetition ABL Obligations are Paid in Full, the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties may not Credit Bid for Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral.

46. Continuation of Jurisdiction and Binding Effect. Any order dismissing one or more of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise shall be deemed to provide (in accordance with sections 105 and 349 of the Bankruptcy Code) that: (i) the DIP Liens, Prepetition Liens, and Adequate Protection Liens shall continue in full force and effect, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, notwithstanding such dismissal until the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, and/or Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, as applicable, are Paid in Full; and (ii) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, to the extent permissible under applicable law, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the DIP Superpriority Claims, DIP Liens, Carve Out, Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens, and the Prepetition Liens. Notwithstanding anything contained herein with respect to the obligations or limitations when a Final Order is entered, the terms of the Final Order shall be what is binding on all parties.

47. No Modification of Interim Order. Until and unless the DIP Obligations have been Paid in Full (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Facility which survive such discharge by their terms) and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility have been terminated, it shall be an Event of Default for the Debtors to seek: (a) without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent (i) any reversal, modification, stay, vacatur, or amendment to this Interim Order or (ii) a priority claim for any administrative expense or unsecured claim against the Debtors (now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, any administrative expense of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 507(a), or 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, equal or superior to the DIP Superpriority Claims or the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, other than the Carve Out; (b) any order, other than this Interim Order or the Final Order, allowing use of Cash Collateral resulting from DIP Collateral; and (c) except as set forth in this Interim Order or the Final Order, any lien on any of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral with priority equal or superior to the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens or the Prepetition Liens.

48. DIP Obligations Paid in Full and Commitments Terminated. In connection with (i) the DIP Obligations being Paid in Full (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Facility which survive such discharge by their terms), and (ii) all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility being terminated, all obligations of the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties to pay or otherwise satisfy any obligations under this Interim Order (including, without limitation, with respect to the Carve Out), the DIP Loan Documents, and/or the Prepetition ABL Documents shall be terminated.

49. Interim Order Controls. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Loan Documents or this Interim Order, the provisions of this Interim Order shall govern and control.

Upon entry of the Final Order, the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, the claims, liens, security interests, and other protections granted to the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition Secured Creditors pursuant to this Interim Order and/or the DIP Loan Documents, notwithstanding the entry of any such order, shall continue in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or following dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, and shall maintain their priority as provided by this Interim Order, subject in all cases to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, until (x) all DIP Obligations have been Paid in Full and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility are terminated and (y) all Prepetition Secured Obligations have been Paid in Full.

E. Each such written Borrowing Request shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

- (a) the name of the applicable Borrower(s);
- (b) the Class of such Borrowing;
- (c) the aggregate amount of the requested Borrowing;
- (d) the date of such Borrowing, which shall be a Business Day;
- (e) the Agreed Currency for such Borrowing and whether such Borrowing is to be an ABR Borrowing or a SOFR Borrowing, in the case of a Borrowing by a Borrower, or a Term CORRA Borrowing, Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, in the case of a Borrowing by a Canadian Borrower;
- (f) in the case of a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, the initial Interest Period to be applicable thereto, which shall be a period contemplated by the definition of the term “Interest Period”; and
- (g) the wiring instructions, location and number of the applicable Borrower’s account or any other designated account(s) to which funds are to be disbursed (the “Funding Account”).

If no election as to the Type of Borrowing is specified, then the requested Borrowing shall be an ABR Borrowing or a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, as applicable. If no Interest Period is specified with respect to any requested Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, then the applicable Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month’s duration for the applicable CORRA Borrowing. Promptly following receipt of a Borrowing Request in accordance with this Section, the Administrative Agent shall advise each Lender of the details thereof and such Lender’s portion of each resulting Borrowing.

Section 2.04 Protective Advances; Swingline Loans.

- (a) Protective Advances.

(i) Subject to the limitations set forth below, the Administrative Agent is authorized by the Borrowers and the Lenders, from time to time in the Administrative Agent's sole discretion (but shall have absolutely no obligation to), to make Loans to the Borrowers, on behalf of all Lenders, which the Administrative Agent, in its Permitted Discretion, deems necessary or desirable (i) to preserve or protect the Collateral, or any portion thereof, (ii) to enhance the likelihood of, or maximize the amount of, repayment of the Loans and other Obligations, or (iii) to pay any other amount chargeable to or required to be paid by the Borrowers pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including payments of reimbursable expenses (including costs, fees, and expenses as described in Section 9.03) and other sums payable under the Loan Documents (any of such Loans are herein referred to as "Protective Advances"); provided that, the aggregate Dollar Equivalent of Protective Advances outstanding at any time shall not at any time exceed 10.0% of the Aggregate Revolving Commitment, unless the Required Lenders otherwise agree; provided further that, (x) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure outstanding at any time after giving effect to the Protective Advances being made shall not exceed the Aggregate Revolving Commitment and (y) the Canadian Revolving Exposure shall not exceed the Canadian Sublimit. Protective Advances may be made even if the conditions precedent set forth in Section 4.02 have not been satisfied. The Protective Advances shall be secured by the Liens in favor of the Administrative Agent in and to the Collateral and shall constitute Obligations hereunder and Secured Obligations. All Protective Advances shall be ABR Borrowings or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings. The making of a Protective Advance on any one occasion shall not obligate the Administrative Agent to make any Protective Advance on any other occasion. The Administrative Agent's authorization to make Protective Advances may be revoked at any time by the Required Lenders. Any such revocation must be in writing and shall become effective prospectively upon the Administrative Agent's receipt thereof. At any time the conditions precedent set forth in Section 4.02 have been satisfied (including with respect to Excess Availability), the Administrative Agent may request the Revolving Lenders to make Loans to repay a Protective Advance. At any other time the Administrative Agent may require the Lenders to fund their risk participations described in Section 2.04(a)(ii).

(ii) Upon the making of a Protective Advance by the Administrative Agent (whether before or after the occurrence of a Default), each Lender shall be deemed, without further action by any party hereto, to have unconditionally and irrevocably purchased from the Administrative Agent, without recourse or warranty, an undivided interest and participation in such Protective Advance in proportion to its Applicable Percentage. From and after the date, if any, on which any Lender is required to fund its participation in any Protective Advance purchased hereunder, the Administrative Agent shall promptly distribute to such Lender, such Lender's Applicable Percentage of all payments of principal and interest and all proceeds of Collateral received by the Administrative Agent in respect of such Protective Advance.

(b) Swingline Loans.

(i) The Administrative Agent, the Swingline Lender and the Revolving Lenders agree that in order to facilitate the administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, promptly after the Borrower Representative requests an ABR Borrowing or a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, the Swingline Lender may elect in its discretion to have the terms of this Section 2.04(b) apply to such Borrowing Request by advancing, on behalf of the Revolving Lenders and in the amount requested, same day funds to the applicable Borrower, on the date of the applicable Borrowing Request to the Funding Account or as otherwise directed by the Borrower Representative in the applicable Borrowing Request (each such Loan made solely by the Swingline Lender pursuant to this Section 2.04(b) is referred to in this Agreement as a "Swingline Loan"), with settlement among them as to the Swingline Loans to take place on a periodic basis as set forth in Section 2.04(b)(iii). Each Swingline Loan shall be subject to all the terms and conditions applicable to other ABR Loans and Canadian Prime Rate Loans funded by the Revolving Lenders, except that all payments thereon shall be payable to the Swingline Lender solely for its own account. The Swingline Lender shall not make any Swingline Loan if after giving effect to such Swingline Loan (i) the aggregate principal Dollar Equivalent of outstanding Swingline Loans exceeds the Swingline Sublimit, (ii) the Swingline Lender's Revolving Credit Exposure exceeds its Revolving Credit Commitment, (iii) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure exceeds the Aggregate Revolving Commitments, (iv) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure exceeds the Line Cap or (v) the Canadian Revolving Exposure exceeds the Canadian Sublimit. All Swingline Loans shall be ABR Borrowings or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings; provided that, Swingline Loans consisting of Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings may only be made to a Canadian Borrower.

(ii) Upon the making of a Swingline Loan (whether before or after the occurrence of a Default and regardless of whether a Settlement has been requested with respect to such Swingline Loan), each Revolving Lender shall be deemed, without further action by any party hereto, to have unconditionally and irrevocably purchased from the Swingline Lender, without recourse or warranty, an undivided interest and participation in such Swingline Loan in proportion to its Applicable Percentage of the Revolving Credit Commitment. The Swingline Lender may, at any time, require the Revolving Lenders to fund their participations. From and after the date, if any, on which any Revolving Lender is required to fund its participation in any Swingline Loan purchased hereunder, the Administrative Agent shall promptly distribute to such Lender, such Lender's Applicable Percentage of all payments of principal and interest and all proceeds of the Collateral received by the Administrative Agent in respect of such Swingline Loan.

(iii) The Administrative Agent, on behalf of the Swingline Lender, shall request settlement (a "Settlement") with the Revolving Lenders on a weekly basis or on a more frequent basis if the Administrative Agent elects, by notifying the Revolving Lenders of such requested Settlement by facsimile, telephone, or e-mail no later than 2:00 p.m. New York City time on the Business Day immediately prior to the date of such requested Settlement (the "Settlement Date"). Each Revolving Lender (other than the Swingline Lender, in the case of the Swingline Loans) shall transfer the amount of such Revolving Lender's Applicable Percentage of the outstanding principal amount of the applicable Loan with respect to which Settlement is requested to the Administrative Agent, to such account of the Administrative Agent as the Administrative Agent may designate, not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on such Settlement Date. Settlements may occur during the existence of a Default and whether or not the applicable conditions precedent set forth in Section 4.02 have then been satisfied. Such amounts transferred to the Administrative Agent shall be applied against the amounts of the Swingline Lender's Swingline Loans and, together with Swingline Lender's Applicable Percentage of such Swingline Loan, shall constitute Revolving Loans of such Revolving Lenders, respectively. If any such amount is not transferred to the Administrative Agent by any Revolving Lender on such Settlement Date, the Swingline Lender shall be entitled to recover from such Lender on demand such amount, together with interest thereon, as specified in Section 2.06.

Section 2.05 Letters of Credit.

(a) General. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no Letters of Credit shall be issued pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) Notice of Issuance, Amendment, Renewal, Extension; Certain Conditions. To request the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or the amendment, renewal or extension of an outstanding Letter of Credit), the Borrower Representative shall deliver to the applicable Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent, at least five (5) Business Days in advance of the requested date of issuance (or such shorter period as is acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank), a request to issue a Letter of Credit, which shall specify that it is being issued under this Agreement, in the form of Exhibit L attached hereto. To request an amendment, extension or renewal of a Letter of Credit, the Borrower Representative shall submit such a request to the applicable Issuing Bank (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) at least five (5) Business Days in advance of the requested date of amendment, extension or renewal (or such shorter period as is acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank), identifying the Letter of Credit to be amended, extended or renewed, and specifying the proposed date (which shall be a Business Day) and other details of the amendment, extension or renewal. Requests for issuance, amendment, extension or renewal must be accompanied by such other information as shall be necessary to issue, amend, extend or renew such Letter of Credit. If requested by the applicable Issuing Bank, the applicable Borrower shall submit a letter of credit application on such Issuing Bank's standard form in connection with any request for a Letter of Credit. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the terms and conditions of any form of letter of credit application or other agreement submitted by the applicable Borrower to, or entered into by the applicable Borrower with, the applicable Issuing Bank relating to any Letter of Credit, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall control. No Letter of Credit, letter of credit application or other document entered into by the applicable Borrower with the applicable Issuing Bank relating to any Letter of Credit shall (x) contain any representations or warranties, covenants or events of default not set forth in this Agreement (for the avoidance of doubt, including the exhibits hereto) (and to the extent inconsistent herewith, shall be rendered null and void) and (y) all representations and warranties, covenants and events of default contained therein shall contain standards, qualifications, thresholds and exceptions for materiality or otherwise consistent with this Agreement (and, to the extent inconsistent herewith, shall be deemed to incorporate such standards, qualifications, thresholds and exceptions contained herein without action by any other party). Unless otherwise agreed by the applicable Issuing Bank and the applicable Borrower, each Letter of Credit shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York. A Letter of Credit shall be issued, amended, extended or renewed only if (and on issuance, amendment, extension or renewal of each Letter of Credit the applicable Borrower shall be deemed to represent and warrant that), after giving effect to such issuance, amendment, extension, or renewal, (i) the LC Exposure shall, subject to Sections 2.08, not exceed the Letter of Credit Sublimit, (ii) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure shall not exceed the Aggregate Revolving Commitments, (iii) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure shall not exceed the Line Cap, (iv) the Revolving Credit Exposure of each Lender will not exceed such Lender's Revolving Credit Commitment and (v) the Canadian Revolving Exposure shall not exceed the Canadian Sublimit. No Issuing Bank shall be under any obligation to issue any Letter of Credit if:

(i) any order, judgment or decree of any Governmental Authority or arbitrator shall by its terms purport to enjoin or restrain such Issuing Bank from issuing such Letter of Credit, or any law applicable to such Issuing Bank or any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over such Issuing Bank shall prohibit, or request that such Issuing Bank refrain from, the issuance of letters of credit generally or such Letter of Credit in particular or shall impose upon such Issuing Bank with respect to such Letter of Credit any restriction, reserve or capital requirement (for which such Issuing Bank is not otherwise compensated hereunder) not in effect on the Closing Date, or shall impose upon such Issuing Bank any unreimbursed loss, cost or expense which was not applicable on the Closing Date and which such Issuing Bank in good faith deems material to it;

(ii) the issuance of such Letter of Credit would violate one or more policies of such Issuing Bank regarding completion of customary "know your customer" requirements on the beneficiary of such Letter of Credit and/or any Subsidiary of the Borrowers that is a co-applicant for such Letter of Credit;

(iii) except as otherwise agreed by the Administrative Agent and such Issuing Bank, such Letter of Credit is in an initial Stated Amount less than $10,000;

(iv) such Letter of Credit is to be denominated in a currency other than Dollars or Canadian Dollars;

(v) such Letter of Credit contains any provisions for automatic reinstatement of the Stated Amount after any drawing thereunder; and

(vi) any Revolving Lender is at such time a Defaulting Lender, unless such Issuing Bank has entered into arrangements, including reallocation of such Defaulting Lender's Applicable Percentage of the outstanding LC Exposure pursuant to Section 2.20(d)(i) or the delivery of cash collateral, satisfactory to such Issuing Bank (in its sole discretion) by the applicable Borrower to eliminate such Issuing Bank's actual or potential fronting exposure (after giving effect to Section 2.20(d)(i)) with respect to such Defaulting Lender arising from either the Letter of Credit then proposed to be issued or such Letter of Credit and all other LC Exposure as to which such Issuing Bank has actual or potential fronting exposure, as it may elect in its sole discretion.

No Issuing Bank shall be under any obligation to amend or extend any Letter of Credit if (A) such Issuing Bank would have no obligation at such time to issue the Letter of Credit in its amended form under the terms hereof or (B) the beneficiary of such Letter of Credit does not accept the proposed amendment thereto. Promptly after the delivery of any Letter of Credit or any amendment to a Letter of Credit to an advising bank with respect thereto or to the beneficiary thereof, the applicable Issuing Bank will also deliver to the applicable Borrower and the Administrative Agent a true and complete copy of such Letter of Credit or amendment.

(c) Expiration Date. Each Letter of Credit shall expire not later than the earlier of (i) the date one year after the date of the issuance of such Letter of Credit (or such longer period of time as may be agreed to by the applicable Issuing Bank) and (ii) the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Stated Revolving Credit Maturity Date; provided that any Letter of Credit may provide for the automatic extension thereof for any number of additional periods each of up to one year in duration (none of which, in any event, shall extend beyond the date referred to in clause (ii) of this paragraph (c) unless 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of the then available face amount thereof is cash collateralized or backstopped pursuant to arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Issuing Bank thereof).

(d) Participations. By the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or an amendment to a Letter of Credit increasing the amount thereof) and without any further action on the part of the applicable Issuing Bank or the Revolving Lenders, the applicable Issuing Bank hereby grants to each Revolving Lender, and each Revolving Lender hereby acquires from such Issuing Bank, a participation in such Letter of Credit equal to such Revolving Lender's Applicable Percentage of the aggregate amount available to be drawn under such Letter of Credit (calculated, in the case of Letters of Credit in an Agreed Currency, based on the Dollar Equivalent thereof). In consideration and in furtherance of the foregoing, each Revolving Lender hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the applicable Issuing Bank, such Lender's Applicable Percentage of each LC Disbursement made by such Issuing Bank and not reimbursed by the Borrowers on the date due as provided in paragraph (e) of this Section, or of any reimbursement payment required to be refunded to the Borrowers for any reason (calculated, in the case of Letters of Credit in an Agreed Currency, based on the Dollar Equivalent thereof). Each Revolving Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to acquire participations pursuant to this paragraph in respect of Letters of Credit is absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance whatsoever, including any amendment, renewal or extension of any Letter of Credit or the occurrence and continuance of a Default or Event of Default or reduction or termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments, and that each such payment shall be made without any offset, abatement, withholding or reduction whatsoever.

(e) Reimbursement. If the applicable Issuing Bank shall make any LC Disbursement in respect of a Letter of Credit, the Borrowers shall reimburse such LC Disbursement by paying to the Administrative Agent an amount equal to such LC Disbursement (in the currency of the Letter of Credit or, if the Issuing Bank shall so elect, in Dollars equal to the Dollar Equivalent of such LC Disbursement) not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Business Day immediately following the date the Borrower Representative receives notice under paragraph (g) of this Section of such LC Disbursement; provided that the Borrower Representative may, subject to the conditions to borrowing set forth herein, request in accordance with Section 2.03 that such payment be financed with an ABR Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing (in the case of any LC Disbursement denominated in Canadian Dollars) or Swingline Loan in an equivalent amount and, to the extent so financed, the Borrowers' obligation to make such payment shall be discharged and replaced by the resulting ABR Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, as applicable, or Swingline Loan. If the Borrowers fail to make such payment when due, the Administrative Agent shall notify each Revolving Lender of the applicable LC Disbursement, the payment then due from the Borrowers in respect thereof and such Revolving Lender's Applicable Percentage thereof. Promptly following receipt of such notice, each Revolving Lender shall pay to the Administrative Agent its Applicable Percentage of the payment then due from the Borrowers, in the same manner as provided in Section 2.06 with respect to Loans made by such Revolving Lender (and Section 2.06 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the payment obligations of the Revolving Lenders), and the Administrative Agent shall promptly pay to the applicable Issuing Bank the amounts so received by it from the Revolving Lenders. Promptly following receipt by the Administrative Agent of any payment from the Borrowers pursuant to this paragraph, the Administrative Agent shall distribute such payment to the applicable Issuing Bank or, to the extent that Revolving Lenders have made payments pursuant to this paragraph to reimburse such Issuing Bank, then to such Revolving Lenders and such Issuing Bank as their interests may appear. Any payment made by a Revolving Lender pursuant to this paragraph to reimburse the Issuing Bank for any LC Disbursement (other than the funding of ABR Loans, Canadian Prime Rate Loans or a Swingline Loan as contemplated above) shall not constitute a Loan and shall not relieve the Borrowers of their obligation to reimburse such LC Disbursement.

(f) Obligations Absolute. The Borrowers' joint and several obligation to reimburse LC Disbursements as provided in paragraph (e) of this Section 2.05 shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable, and shall be performed strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement under any and all circumstances whatsoever and irrespective of (i) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Letter of Credit or this Agreement, or any term or provision therein, (ii) any draft or other document presented under a Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent or invalid in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect, (iii) payment by the applicable Issuing Bank under a Letter of Credit against presentation of a draft or other document that does not comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit or (iv) any other event or circumstance whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, that might, but for the provisions of this Section, constitute a legal or equitable discharge of, or provide a right of setoff against, the Borrowers' obligations hereunder. Neither the Administrative Agent, the Revolving Lenders nor any Issuing Bank or any of their respective Related Parties, shall have any liability or responsibility by reason of or in connection with the issuance or transfer of any Letter of Credit or any payment or failure to make any payment thereunder (irrespective of any of the circumstances referred to in the preceding sentence), or any error, omission, interruption, loss or delay in transmission or delivery of any draft, notice or other communication under or relating to any Letter of Credit (including any document required to make a drawing thereunder), any error in interpretation of technical terms or any consequence arising from causes beyond the control of such Issuing Bank; provided that the foregoing shall not be construed to excuse such Issuing Bank from liability to the Borrowers to the extent of any direct damages (as opposed to consequential damages, claims in respect of which are hereby waived by the Borrowers to the extent permitted by applicable law) suffered by the Borrowers that are caused by such Issuing Bank's failure to exercise care when determining whether drafts and other documents presented under a Letter of Credit comply with the terms thereof. The parties hereto expressly agree that, in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on the part of applicable Issuing Bank (as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction), such Issuing Bank shall be deemed to have exercised care in each such determination. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, the parties agree that, with respect to documents presented which appear on their face to be in substantial compliance with the terms of a Letter of Credit, the applicable Issuing Bank may, in its sole discretion, either accept and make payment upon such documents without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary, or refuse to accept and make payment upon such documents if such documents are not in strict compliance with the terms of such Letter of Credit.

(g) Disbursement Procedures. The applicable Issuing Bank shall, promptly following its receipt thereof, examine all documents purporting to represent a demand for payment under a Letter of Credit. Such Issuing Bank shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent and the applicable Borrower by facsimile or email of such compliant demand for payment and whether such Issuing Bank has made or will make an LC Disbursement thereunder; provided that any failure to give or delay in giving such notice shall not relieve the Borrowers of their obligation to reimburse such Issuing Bank and the Revolving Lenders with respect to any such LC Disbursement.

(h) Interim Interest. If an Issuing Bank shall make any LC Disbursement, then, unless the Borrowers shall reimburse such LC Disbursement in full on the date such LC Disbursement is made, the unpaid amount thereof shall bear interest, for each day from and including the date such LC Disbursement is made to but excluding the date that the Borrowers reimburse such LC Disbursement, at the rate per annum then applicable to ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, as applicable, and such interest shall be payable on the date when such reimbursement is due; provided that if the Borrowers fail to reimburse such LC Disbursement when due pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Section 2.05, then Section 2.12(c) shall apply. Interest accrued pursuant to this paragraph shall be for the account of the applicable Issuing Bank, except that interest accrued on and after the date of payment by any Revolving Lender pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Section to reimburse such Issuing Bank shall be for the account of such Revolving Lender to the extent of such payment.

(i) Replacement of an Issuing Bank or Addition of New Issuing Banks. An Issuing Bank may be replaced with the consent of the Administrative Agent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) at any time by written agreement among the Borrower Representative, the Administrative Agent, the replaced Issuing Bank and the successor Issuing Bank. The Administrative Agent shall notify the Revolving Lenders of any such replacement of an Issuing Bank. At the time any such replacement shall become effective, the Borrowers shall pay all unpaid fees accrued for the account of the replaced Issuing Bank pursuant to Section 2.11(b). From and after the effective date of any such replacement, (i) the successor Issuing Bank shall have all the rights and obligations of the replaced Issuing Bank under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit to be issued thereafter and (ii) references herein to the term "Issuing Bank" shall be deemed to refer to such successor or to any previous Issuing Bank, or to such successor and all previous Issuing Banks, as the context shall require. After the replacement of an Issuing Bank hereunder, the replaced Issuing Bank shall remain a party hereto and shall continue to have all the rights and obligations of an Issuing Bank under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit issued by it prior to such replacement, but shall not be required to issue additional Letters of Credit. The Borrowers may, at any time and from time to time with the consent of the Administrative Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and such Revolving Lender, designate one or more additional Revolving Lenders to act as an Issuing Bank under the terms of this Agreement. Any Revolving Lender designated as an Issuing Bank pursuant to this paragraph (i) shall be deemed to be an "Issuing Bank" (in addition to being a Revolving Lender) in respect of Letters of Credit issued or to be issued by such Revolving Lender, and, with respect to such Letters of Credit, such term shall thereafter apply to the other Issuing Banks and such Revolving Lender.

(j) Cash Collateralization. If any Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, then on the Business Day that the Borrower Representative receives notice from the Administrative Agent demanding the deposit of cash collateral pursuant to this paragraph (j), upon such demand, the Borrowers shall deposit, in an interest-bearing account with the Administrative Agent, in the name of the Administrative Agent and for the benefit of the Revolving Lenders and the Issuing Banks (the “LC Collateral Account”), an amount in Cash equal to 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of the LC Exposure as of such date plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon; provided that the obligation to deposit such cash collateral shall become effective immediately, and such deposit shall become immediately due and payable, without demand or other notice of any kind, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default with respect to any Borrower described in Section 7.01(f) or (g). Such Borrower also shall deposit cash collateral in accordance with this paragraph as and to the extent required by Sections 2.09(b), 2.10(b)(i) or 2.20. Any such deposit under this clause (j) shall be held by the Administrative Agent as collateral for the payment and performance of the Secured Obligations in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph (j). The Administrative Agent shall have exclusive dominion and control, including the exclusive right of withdrawal, over such account and the Borrowers hereby grant the Administrative Agent a security interest in the LC Collateral Account and all money or other assets on deposit therein or credited thereto. Interest or profits, if any, on such investments shall accumulate in such account. Moneys in such account shall be applied by the Administrative Agent to reimburse the applicable Issuing Bank for LC Disbursements for which it has not been reimbursed and, to the extent not so applied, shall be held for the satisfaction of the reimbursement obligations of the Borrowers for the LC Exposure at such time. If the Borrowers are required to provide an amount of cash collateral hereunder as a result of the occurrence of an Event of Default, such amount (together with all interest and other earnings with respect thereto, to the extent not applied as aforesaid) shall be returned to the Borrowers promptly but in no event later than three Business Days, after such Event of Default has been cured (solely with respect to an Event of Default under Section 7.01(d) as a result of a breach of Section 6.15(a)) or waived by the Lenders. If the Borrowers are required to provide an amount of cash collateral under Section 2.20(d)(ii), such amount (to the extent not applied as aforesaid) shall be returned to the Borrowers as requested by the Borrowers so long as the LC Exposure of the applicable Defaulting Lender has been fully reallocated or eliminated.

Section 2.06 Funding of Borrowings.

(a) Each Lender shall make each Loan to be made by it hereunder on the proposed date thereof by wire transfer of immediately available funds by 2:00 p.m., New York City time to the account of the Administrative Agent most recently designated by it for such purpose by notice to the Lenders in an amount equal to such Lender’s respective Applicable Percentage; provided that Swingline Loans shall be made as provided in Section 2.04(b). The Administrative Agent may charge to the Borrower Representative usual and customary fees for the wire transfer of each Borrowing. Upon receipt of all requested funds, the Administrative Agent will make such Loans available to the Borrower Representative by promptly wiring the amounts so received, in like funds, to the Funding Account or as otherwise directed by the Borrower Representative in the applicable Borrowing Request; provided that ABR Loans and/or Canadian Prime Rate Loans made to finance the reimbursement of (i) an LC Disbursement as provided in Section 2.05(e) shall be remitted by the Administrative Agent to the applicable Issuing Bank and (ii) a Protective Advance shall be retained by the Administrative Agent.

(b) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the proposed date of any Borrowing that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender’s share of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such share available on such date in accordance with paragraph (a) of this Section and may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the applicable Borrower a corresponding amount. In such event, if a Lender has not in fact made its share of the applicable Borrowing available to the Administrative Agent, then the applicable Lender and the Borrowers each severally agree to pay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand (without duplication) such corresponding amount with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is made available to the applicable Borrower to, but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at (i) in the case of such Lender, the Overnight Rate or (ii) in the case of the Borrowers, the interest rate applicable to ABR Loans. If such Lender pays such amount to the Administrative Agent, then such amount shall constitute such Lender's Loan included in such Borrowing and the Borrowers' obligation to repay the Administrative Agent such corresponding amount pursuant to this Section 2.06(b) shall cease; provided, that any interest received from a Borrower by the Administrative Agent during the period beginning when Administrative Agent funded the Borrowing until such Lender pays such amount shall be solely for the account of the Administrative Agent. If a Borrower pays such amount to the Administrative Agent, the amount so paid shall constitute a repayment of such Borrowing by such amount. Nothing herein shall be deemed to relieve any Lender from its obligation to fulfill its Commitment or to prejudice any rights which the Administrative Agent or the Borrowers or any other Loan Party may have against any Lender as a result of any default by such Lender hereunder. It is understood that the Administrative Agent shall not have a duty to advance its personal funds pursuant to this Section.

Section 2.07 Type; Interest Elections.

(a) Each Borrowing initially shall be of the Type specified in the applicable Borrowing Request and, in the case of (i) a SOFR Borrowing, shall be subject to the then current One Month Term SOFR Index or (ii) a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, shall have an initial Interest Period as specified in such Borrowing Request. Thereafter, the Borrower Representative may elect to convert such Borrowing to a different Type or to continue such Borrowing and, in the case of a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, may elect Interest Periods therefor, all as provided in this Section. The Borrower Representative may elect different options with respect to different portions of the affected Borrowing, in which case each such portion shall be allocated ratably among the Lenders, based upon their Applicable Percentages and the Loans comprising each such portion shall be considered a separate Borrowing. This Section shall not apply to Swingline Borrowings or Protective Advances, which may not be converted or continued.

(b) To make an election pursuant to this Section, the Borrower Representative shall notify the Administrative Agent of such election either by delivering an irrevocable Interest Election Request in writing (by hand delivery, fax or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif")) signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower Representative by the time that a Borrowing Request would be required under Section 2.03 if the Borrower Representative was requesting a Borrowing of the Type resulting from such election to be made on the effective date of such election.

(c) Each written Interest Election Request shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

(i) the name of the applicable Borrower and the Borrowing to which such Interest Election Request applies and, if different options are being elected with respect to different portions thereof, the portions thereof to be allocated to each resulting Borrowing (in which case the information to be specified pursuant to clauses (iii) and (iv) below shall be specified for each resulting Borrowing);

(ii) the effective date of the election made pursuant to such Interest Election Request, which shall be a Business Day;

(iii) the Agreed Currency of such Borrowing and whether the resulting Borrowing is to be an ABR Borrowing or a SOFR Borrowing in the case of a Borrowing by a Borrower, or a Term CORRA Borrowing, a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing or a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, in the case of a Borrowing by a Canadian Borrower; and

(iv) if the resulting Borrowing is a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, the Interest Period to be applicable thereto after giving effect to such election, which shall be a period contemplated by the definition of the term “Interest Period”.

If any such Interest Election Request requests a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing but does not specify an Interest Period, then the Borrower Representative shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month’s duration.

(d) The Administrative Agent shall advise each applicable Lender of the details of an Interest Election Request and such Lender’s portion of such resulting Borrowing no less than one Business Day before the effective date of the election made pursuant to such Interest Election Request.

(e) If the Borrower Representative fails to deliver a timely Interest Election Request with respect to a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing prior to the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, then, unless such Borrowing is repaid as provided herein, at the end of such Interest Period such Borrowing shall be converted to a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing. Notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Administrative Agent, at the request of the Required Lenders, so notifies the Borrower Representative, then, so long as an Event of Default is continuing (i) no outstanding Borrowing may be converted to or continued as a SOFR Borrowing or CORRA Borrowing and (ii) unless repaid as provided herein, each SOFR Borrowing shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing, and each CORRA Borrowing shall be converted into a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, as applicable, at the end of the then-current SOFR Index Election period or Interest Period applicable thereto.

Section 2.08 Termination and Reduction of Commitments.

(a) The Revolving Credit Commitments shall terminate on the Revolving Credit Maturity Date.

(b) Upon delivering the written notice required by Section 2.08(d), the Borrowers may at any time terminate the Revolving Credit Commitments upon (i) the payment in full in Cash of all outstanding Revolving Loans, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon, (ii) the cancellation and return of all outstanding Letters of Credit (or alternatively, with respect to each such Letter of Credit, the furnishing to the Administrative Agent of a Cash deposit (or if reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and the applicable Issuing Bank, a backup standby letter of credit) equal to 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of the LC Exposure as of such date) and (iii) the payment in full of all accrued and unpaid fees and all reimbursable expenses and other non-Contingent Obligations with respect to the Revolving Facility then due, together with accrued and unpaid interest (if any) thereon.

(c) Upon delivering the notice required by Section 2.08(d), the Borrowers may from time to time reduce the Revolving Credit Commitments; provided that (i) each reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of the Dollar Equivalent of $100,000 and not less than the Dollar Equivalent of $1,000,000 and (ii) the Borrowers shall not reduce the Revolving Credit Commitments if, after giving effect to any concurrent prepayment of the Revolving Loans in accordance with Section 2.09 or Section 2.10, the Total Revolving Credit Exposure would exceed the Line Cap.

(d) The Borrower Representative shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any election to terminate or reduce the Commitments under paragraph (b) or (c) of this Section 2.08 on or before 11:00 a.m. New York City time at least three (3) Business Days prior to the effective date of such termination or reduction, specifying such election and the effective date thereof. Promptly following receipt of any such notice, the Administrative Agent shall advise the Revolving Lenders of the contents thereof. Each notice delivered by the Borrower Representative pursuant to this Section shall be irrevocable; provided that a notice of termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments delivered by the Borrower Representative may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other transactions, in which case such notice may be revoked by the Borrower Representative (by written notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied. Any termination or reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments pursuant to this Section 2.08 shall be permanent. Upon any reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments, the Revolving Credit Commitment of each Revolving Lender shall be reduced by such Revolving Lender's Applicable Percentage of such reduction amount.

Section 2.09 Repayment of Loans; Evidence of Debt.

(a) The Borrowers hereby unconditionally promise to pay (i) to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Revolving Lender the then unpaid principal amount of each Revolving Loan on the Revolving Credit Maturity Date and (ii) to the Administrative Agent the then unpaid amount of each Protective Advance on the earlier of the Revolving Credit Maturity Date and upon one Business Days' written demand therefor by the Administrative Agent. Each such payment shall be made by the Borrowers in the same currency as each outstanding Revolving Loan that is being repaid. On the Revolving Credit Maturity Date, the Borrowers shall or shall cause the beneficiary thereof to cancel and return all outstanding Letters of Credit (or alternatively, with respect to each such Letter of Credit, furnish to the Administrative Agent a Cash deposit (or if reasonably satisfactory to the relevant Issuing Bank, a backup standby letter of credit) equal to 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of the LC Exposure as of such date) and make payment in full in Cash of all accrued and unpaid fees and all reimbursable expenses and other Obligations with respect to the Revolving Facility then due, together with accrued and unpaid interest (if any) thereon.

(b) Each Lender shall maintain in accordance with its usual practice an account or accounts evidencing the indebtedness of the Borrowers to such Lender resulting from each Loan made by such Lender, including the amounts of principal and interest payable and paid to such Lender from time to time hereunder.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall maintain accounts in which it shall record (i) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, the Class and Type thereof, the SOFR Index Period and Interest Period (if any) applicable thereto, (ii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from the Borrowers to each Lender hereunder and (iii) the amount of any sum received by the Administrative Agent hereunder for the account of the Lenders and each Lender's share thereof.

(d) The entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to paragraph (c) or (d) of this Section 2.09 shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the obligations recorded therein (absent manifest error); provided that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any manifest error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligation of the Borrowers to repay the Loans in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, further, that in the event of any inconsistency between the accounts maintained by the Administrative Agent pursuant to paragraph (d) of this Section 2.09 and any Lender's records, the accounts of the Administrative Agent shall govern; provided, further, that in event of any inconsistency between the accounts maintained by the Administrative Agent pursuant to paragraph (d) of this Section 2.09 and the Register, the Register shall govern.

(e) Any Lender may request that Loans made by it be evidenced by a Promissory Note. In such event, the Borrowers shall prepare, execute and deliver to such Lender a Promissory Note payable to such Lender and its registered assigns. Thereafter, the Loans evidenced by such Promissory Note and interest thereon shall at all times (including after assignment pursuant to Section 9.05) be represented by one or more Promissory Notes in such form payable to the payee named therein and its registered assigns. In the event that one or more Promissory Notes shall be issued after the date hereof, it shall not be necessary to tender or present any such Promissory Note to the Administrative Agent for any payment hereunder including the applicable maturity date.

Section 2.10 Prepayment of Loans.

(a) Optional Prepayments.

(i) [Reserved].

(ii) Upon prior notice in accordance with paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.10, the Borrowers shall have the right at any time and from time to time to prepay any Borrowing of Revolving Loans in whole or in part without premium or penalty (but subject to Section 2.15). Prepayments made pursuant to this Section 2.10(a)(ii) shall be applied in accordance with Section 2.17(b).

(iii) The Borrower Representative shall notify the Administrative Agent (and, in the case of prepayment of a Swingline Loan, the Swingline Lender) in writing by providing a Prepayment Notice with respect to (A) of any prepayment under this Section 2.10(a) in the case of prepayment of a SOFR Borrowing, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, three U.S. Government Securities Business Days before the date of prepayment, (B) in the case of a CORRA Borrowing, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, three Business Days before the date of prepayment or (C) in the case of prepayment of an ABR Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, one Business Day before the date of prepayment. Each Prepayment Notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the prepayment date and the principal amount and currency of each Borrowing or portion thereof to be prepaid; provided that a Prepayment Notice delivered by the Borrower Representative may state that such Prepayment Notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other transactions, in which case such Prepayment Notice may be revoked by the Borrower Representative (by written notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied. Promptly following receipt of any such Prepayment Notice relating to a Borrowing, the Administrative Agent shall advise the relevant Lenders of the contents thereof. Each partial prepayment of any Borrowing shall be in an amount that would be permitted in the case of an advance of a Borrowing of the same Type as provided in Section 2.02(c). Each prepayment of a Revolving Borrowing shall be applied ratably to the Revolving Loans included in the prepaid Borrowing. Prepayments shall be accompanied by (i) accrued interest to the extent required by Section 2.12 and (ii) break funding payments pursuant to Section 2.15, as applicable.

(b) Mandatory Prepayments.

(i) If for any reason, at any time the Total Revolving Credit Exposure exceeds the Line Cap (an “Overadvance”) (other than as a result of a Protective Advance that the Administrative Agent has determined to make and/or to permit to remain outstanding), then the Borrowers shall promptly, but in any event, on the date of such Overadvance arises, prepay the Obligations in an aggregate amount equal to such excess by applying such prepayment first, to repay and permanently reduce Pre-Petition Revolving Loans in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, second, to repay Swingline Loans and (subject to the parenthetical above) Protective Advances that may be outstanding, third, to the outstanding principal amount of the Revolving Loans until the Total Revolving Credit Exposure no longer exceeds the Line Cap. No prepayment applied to the Revolving Loans or to cash collateralize LC Exposure under this Section 2.10(b)(i) shall result in a reduction in the Aggregate Revolving Commitment.

(ii) Prepayments shall be accompanied by accrued interest as required by Section 2.12. All prepayments of Borrowings under Section 2.10(b)(i) shall be subject to Section 2.15, but shall otherwise be without premium or penalty.

Section 2.11 Fees.

(a) The Borrowers agree to pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Revolving Lender (subject to Section 2.20) a commitment fee, which shall accrue at a rate equal to 0.75% per annum on the average daily amount of the Unused Revolving Credit Commitment of such Revolving Lender during the period from and including the Closing Date to the date on which such Lender's Revolving Credit Commitments terminate. Accrued commitment fees shall be payable in arrears on the first Business Day of each month and on the date on which the Revolving Credit Commitments terminate. All commitment fees shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day). For purposes of this Section 2.11(a), the Unused Revolving Credit Commitment of each Lender shall be calculated based on the Swingline Exposure of such Lender calculated assuming that all of the Lenders have funded their participations in all Swingline Loans outstanding at such time.

(b) The Borrowers agree to pay to the Administrative Agent, for its own account, the fees set forth in the Agent Fee Letter referred to in the definition of "Fee Letters", payable in the amounts and at the times specified therein or as so otherwise agreed upon by the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent, or such other fees as may otherwise be separately agreed upon by the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent in writing.

(c) All fees payable hereunder shall be paid in Dollars on the dates due, in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent (or to the applicable Issuing Bank, in the case of fees payable to it) for distribution, in the case of commitment fees and participation fees, to the Revolving Lenders. Fees paid shall not be refundable under any circumstances.

Section 2.12 Interest.

(a) The Loans comprising each ABR Borrowing (including Swingline Loans) and each Protective Advance shall bear interest at the Alternate Base Rate plus the Applicable Rate. The Loans comprising Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings shall bear interest at the Canadian Prime Rate plus the Applicable Rate.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Term SOFR Borrowing or Term CORRA Borrowings shall be made available pursuant this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing (after the expiration of any applicable grace period), at the option of the Administrative Agent or at the direction of the Required Lenders, all outstanding Obligations shall bear interest, to the fullest extent permitted by law, after as well as before judgment, at a rate per annum equal to (i) in the case of overdue principal or interest of any Loan, 2.0% plus the rate otherwise applicable to such Loan as provided in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 2.12, (ii) in the case of any other Obligations, 2.0% plus the rate applicable to ABR Loans as provided in paragraph (a) of this Section 2.12; provided that no amount shall accrue or be payable pursuant to this Section 2.12(c) to a Defaulting Lender so long as such Lender shall be a Defaulting Lender.

(d) Accrued interest on each Loan shall be payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date for such Loan and upon termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments; provided that (i) interest accrued pursuant to paragraph (c) of this Section 2.12 shall be payable on demand, (ii) in the event of any repayment or prepayment of any Loan (other than a prepayment of an ABR Loan or Canadian Prime Rate Loan prior to the termination of the relevant Commitments), accrued interest on the principal amount repaid or prepaid shall be payable on the date of such repayment or prepayment and (iii) in the event of any conversion of any SOFR Loan prior to the end of the current SOFR Index Period, or any conversion of any CORRA Loan prior to the end of the current Interest Period therefor, accrued interest on such Loan shall be payable on the effective date of such conversion.

(e) All interest hereunder shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days, except that interest computed by reference to (i) the Alternate Base Rate at times when the Alternate Base Rate is based on the Prime Rate and the Canadian Prime Rate shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year) and (ii) the Term CORRA Reference Rate, Adjusted Term CORRA and Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days, and in each case shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day). All interest hereunder on any Loan shall be computed on a daily basis based upon the outstanding principal amount of such Loan as of the applicable date of determination. The applicable Alternate Base Rate, Adjusted Term SOFR, Canadian Prime Rate, Adjusted Term CORRA or Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA shall be determined by the Administrative Agent, and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Interest shall accrue on each Loan for the day on which the Loan is made and shall not accrue on a Loan, or any portion thereof, for the day on which the Loan or such portion is paid; provided that any Loan that is repaid on the same day on which it is made shall bear interest for one day.

(f) For the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada) and disclosure thereunder, whenever any interest or any fee to be paid hereunder or in connection herewith is to be calculated on the basis of a 360-day or any other period of time that is less than a calendar year, the yearly rate of interest to which the rate used in such calculation is equivalent is the rate so used multiplied by the actual number of days in the calendar year in which the same is to be ascertained and divided by three hundred and sixty (360) or the number of days in such period, as applicable. The rates of interest under this Agreement are nominal rates, and not effective rates or yields. The principle of deemed reinvestment of interest does not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement. The parties acknowledge that there is a material difference between the stated nominal rates and effective yearly rates taking into account reinvestment, and that such parties are capable of making the calculations required to determine effective yearly rates.

(g) In connection with the use or administration of Term SOFR, Term CORRA or Daily Compounded CORRA, the Administrative Agent will have the right to make Conforming Changes from time to time and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, any amendments implementing such Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement or any other Loan Document. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify the Borrower Representative and the Lenders of the effectiveness of any Conforming Changes in connection with the use or administration of Term SOFR or CDOR.

Section 2.13 Alternate Rate of Interest.

(a) Subject to Section 2.13(b), if, on or prior to the first day of any SOFR Index Period for a SOFR Borrowing or of any Interest Period for a CORRA Borrowing:

(i) the Administrative Agent determines (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error) that reasonable and adequate means do not exist for ascertaining Adjusted Term SOFR, Term CORRA or Daily Compounded CORRA, as applicable, pursuant to the definition thereof; or

(ii) the Required Lenders determine that for any reason in connection with any request for a SOFR Loan, Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan or a conversion thereto or a continuation thereof that Adjusted Term SOFR, Term CORRA or Daily Compounded CORRA, as applicable, for any requested SOFR Index Period or Interest Period with respect to a proposed SOFR Loan, Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan, as applicable, does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of making and maintaining such Loan, and the Required Lenders have provided notice of such determination to the Administrative Agent;

then the Administrative Agent shall promptly give notice thereof to the Borrower Representative and the Lenders by facsimile or email as promptly as practicable thereafter. Upon notice thereof by the Administrative Agent to the Borrower Representative, any obligation of the Lenders to make SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans, as applicable, and any right of the Borrowers to continue SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans, as applicable, or to convert ABR Loans to SOFR Loans or to convert Canadian Prime Rate Loans to Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans, as applicable, shall be suspended (to the extent of the affected SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans, or affected SOFR Index Period or Interest Periods, as applicable) until the Administrative Agent (with respect to clause (a)(ii), at the instruction of the Required Lenders) revokes such notice. Upon receipt of such notice, (i) the Borrower Representative may revoke any pending request for a borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans (to the extent of the affected SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans or affected SOFR Index Period or Interest Periods, as applicable) or, failing that, the Borrower Representative will be deemed to have converted any such request into a request for a Borrowing of or conversion to ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, as applicable, in the amount specified therein and (ii) any outstanding affected SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans will be deemed to have been converted into ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, as applicable, at the end of the applicable SOFR Index Period or Interest Period. Upon any such conversion, the Borrower Representative shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so converted, together with any additional amounts required pursuant to Section 2.15. Subject to Section 2.13(b), if the Administrative Agent determines (which determination shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error) that Adjusted Term SOFR, Adjusted Term CORRA or Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA cannot be determined pursuant to the definition thereof on any given day, the interest rate on ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans shall be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to clause (b) of the definition of Alternate Base Rate or clause (ii) of the definition of Canadian Prime Rate, as applicable, until the Administrative Agent revokes such determination.

(b) Effect of Benchmark Transition Event.

(i) Benchmark Replacement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, upon the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event, the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative may amend this Agreement to replace the then-current Benchmark with a Benchmark Replacement. Any such amendment with respect to a Benchmark Transition Event will become effective at 5:00 p.m. on the fifth (5th) Business Day after the Administrative Agent has posted such proposed amendment to all affected Lenders and the Borrower Representative so long as the Administrative Agent has not received, by such time, written notice of objection to such amendment from Lenders comprising the Required Lenders. No replacement of a Benchmark with a Benchmark Replacement pursuant to this Section 2.13(b)(i) will occur prior to the applicable Benchmark Transition Start Date.

(ii) Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes. In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Administrative Agent will have the right to make Conforming Changes from time to time and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, any amendments implementing such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

(iii) Notices; Standards for Decisions and Determinations. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify the Borrower Representative and the Lenders of (i) the implementation of any Benchmark Replacement and (ii) the effectiveness of any Conforming Changes in connection with the use, administration, adoption or implementation of a Benchmark Replacement. The Administrative Agent will notify the Borrower of (x) the removal or reinstatement of any tenor of a Benchmark pursuant to Section 2.13(b)(iv) and (y) the commencement of any Benchmark Unavailability Period. Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Administrative Agent or, if applicable, any Lender (or group of Lenders) pursuant to this Section 2.13(b), including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection, will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error and may be made in its or their sole discretion and without consent from any other party hereto or any other Loan Document, except, in each case, as expressly required pursuant to this Section 2.13(b).

(iv) Unavailability of Tenor of Benchmark. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, at any time (including in connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement), (i) if the then-current Benchmark is a term rate (including the Term SOFR Reference Rate) and either (A) any tenor for such Benchmark is not displayed on a screen or other information service that publishes such rate from time to time as selected by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion or (B) the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of such Benchmark has provided a public statement or publication of information announcing that any tenor for such Benchmark is not or will not be representative, then the Administrative Agent may modify the definition of “SOFR Index Period” or “Interest Period” (or any similar or analogous definition) for any Benchmark settings at or after such time to remove such unavailable or non-representative tenor and (ii) if a tenor that was removed pursuant to clause (i) above either (A) is subsequently displayed on a screen or information service for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement) or (B) is not, or is no longer, subject to an announcement that it is not or will not be representative for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement), then the Administrative Agent may modify the definition of “SOFR Index Period” or “Interest Period” (or any similar or analogous definition) for all Benchmark settings at or after such time to reinstate such previously removed tenor.

(v) Benchmark Unavailability Period. Upon the Borrower Representative’s receipt of notice of the commencement of a Benchmark Unavailability Period, the Borrower Representative may revoke any pending request for a SOFR Borrowing or CORRA Borrowing, as applicable, of, conversion to or continuation of SOFR Loans or CORRA Loans, as applicable, to be made, converted or continued during any Benchmark Unavailability Period and, failing that, the Borrowers will be deemed to have converted any such request into a request for a Borrowing of or conversion to ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, respectively. During any Benchmark Unavailability Period or at any time that a tenor for the then-current Benchmark is not an Available Tenor, the component of Alternate Base Rate based upon the then-current Benchmark or such tenor for such Benchmark, as applicable, will not be used in any determination of Alternate Base Rate.

Section 2.14 Increased Costs.

(a) If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve (including pursuant to regulations issued from time to time by the Federal Reserve Board for determining the maximum reserve requirement (including any emergency, special, supplemental or other marginal reserve requirement) with respect to eurocurrency funding (currently referred to as “Eurocurrency liabilities” in Regulation D)), special deposit or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, any Lender or Issuing Bank; or

(ii) impose on any Lender or Issuing Bank any other condition affecting this Agreement or SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans made by such Lender or any Letter of Credit or participation therein;

and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any SOFR Loan, Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan (or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan) or to increase the cost to such Lender or Issuing Bank of participating in, issuing or maintaining any Letter of Credit or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise) in respect of any SOFR Loan, Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan in an amount deemed by such Lender or Issuing Bank to be material, then, within 30 days after the Borrower Representative’s receipt of the certificate contemplated by paragraph (c) of this Section 2.14, the Borrowers will pay to such Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered (including any Taxes other than (i) any Excluded Taxes and (ii) any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes indemnified under Section 2.16); provided that the Borrowers shall not be liable for such compensation if (x) the relevant Change in Law occurs on a date prior to the date such Lender becomes a party hereto, (y) the Lender invokes Section 2.19 or (z) such circumstances in the case of requests for reimbursement under clause (ii) above resulting from a market disruption are not generally affecting the banking market.

(b) If any Lender or Issuing Bank determines that any Change in Law regarding liquidity or capital requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender’s or Issuing Bank’s capital or on the capital of such Lender’s or Issuing Bank’s holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made by, or participations in Letters of Credit or Swingline Loans held by, such Lender, or the Letters of Credit issued by such Issuing Bank, to a level below that which such Lender or Issuing Bank or such Lender’s or such Issuing Bank’s holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (including any Change in Law due to Taxes other than (i) any Excluded Taxes and (ii) any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes indemnified under Section 2.16) (taking into consideration such Lender’s policies and the policies of such Lender’s holding company with respect to capital adequacy), then within 30 days of receipt by the Borrower Representative of the certificate contemplated by paragraph (c) of this Section 2.14 the Borrowers will pay to such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as applicable, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Issuing Bank or such Lender’s or such Issuing Bank’s holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) A certificate of a Lender or Issuing Bank setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or Issuing Bank or its holding company, as applicable, as specified in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this Section 2.14 and setting forth in reasonable detail the manner in which such amount or amounts was determined shall be delivered to the Borrower Representative and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within twenty (20) days after receipt thereof.

(d) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender or Issuing Bank to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's or Issuing Bank's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrowers shall not be required to compensate a Lender or an Issuing Bank pursuant to this Section for any increased costs or reductions incurred more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender or Issuing Bank notifies the Borrower Representative of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Lender's or Issuing Bank's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided, further, that if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

Section 2.15 Break Funding Payments. In the event of (a) the conversion or prepayment of any principal of the conversion or prepayment of any principal of any Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto (in each case whether voluntary, mandatory, automatic, by reason of acceleration or otherwise), (b) the failure to borrow, convert, continue or prepay any Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan on the date or in the amount specified in any notice delivered pursuant hereto or (c) the assignment of any Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan of any Lender other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, in each case, as a result of a request by the Borrower Representative pursuant to Section 2.18, then, in any such event, the Borrowers shall compensate each Lender for any loss, cost and expense attributable to such event (other than loss of profit), including any loss, cost or expense arising from liquidation or redeployment of funds or from any fees payable. A certificate of any Lender setting forth any amount or amounts that such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section and the basis therefor and setting forth in reasonable detail the manner in which such amount or amounts was determined shall be delivered to the Borrower Representative and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within twenty (20) days after receipt thereof.

Section 2.16 Taxes.

(a) Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Loan Party under any Loan Document shall be made free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for any Taxes, except as required by Requirements of Law. If any Requirements of Law (as determined in the good faith discretion of an applicable withholding agent) require the deduction or withholding of any Tax from any such payment by a Loan Party, then the applicable withholding agent shall be entitled to make such deduction or withholding and shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with the Requirements of Law; provided that if an applicable withholding agent shall be required to deduct or withhold any Indemnified Taxes from such payments, then (i) the sum payable by the applicable Loan Party shall be increased as necessary so that after making all such required deductions or withholdings (including deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section) the Administrative Agent (acting for its own account), any Lender or any Issuing Bank (as applicable) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholding been made, (ii) such withholding agent shall make such deductions or withholdings and (iii) such withholding agent shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Requirements of Law. If at any time a Loan Party is required by Requirements of Law to make any deduction or withholding from any sum payable hereunder, such Loan Party shall promptly notify the relevant Lender or Issuing Bank or the Administrative Agent upon becoming aware of the same. In addition, each Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, shall promptly notify a Loan Party upon becoming aware of any circumstances as a result of which a Loan Party is or would be required to make any deduction or withholding from any sum payable hereunder. It is understood that the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent can act as withholding agent hereunder.

(b) In addition (and without duplication of other amounts payable by the Loan Parties under this Section), the Loan Parties shall pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Requirements of Law.

(c) Each Loan Party shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Lender and each Issuing Bank within thirty (30) days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes paid by the Administrative Agent or such Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) and any penalties and interest (other than any penalties or interest attributable to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or such Issuing Bank (in each case, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable judgment; provided, the Administrative Agent's, a Lender's or an Issuing Bank's failure to furnish notice of a claim within six months from the date on which the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank has received notice from the relevant Governmental Authority that amounts were being asserted against the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable, shall be deemed to be gross negligence)), and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority; provided that if the Loan Party reasonably believes that such Taxes were not correctly or legally asserted, the Administrative Agent, Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable, will use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Loan Party to obtain a refund of such Taxes (which shall be repaid to the Loan Party in accordance with Section 2.16(g)) so long as such efforts would not, in the sole determination of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank, result in any additional costs or expenses not reimbursed by the Loan Party or be otherwise materially disadvantageous to it. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Loan Party by a Lender, an Issuing Bank (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender or an Issuing Bank and certifying that such Lender or Issuing Bank is generally charging the relevant amounts to similarly situated borrowers, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Each Lender shall severally indemnify, within thirty (30) days after demand therefor, (i) the Administrative Agent for any Indemnified Taxes attributable to such Lender (but only to the extent that any Loan Party has not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting the obligation of the Loan Parties to do so), (ii) the Administrative Agent and any Loan Party for any Taxes attributable to such Lender's failure to comply with the provisions of Section 9.05(c) relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) the Administrative Agent and any Loan Party for any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Lender, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent or such Loan Party in connection with any Loan Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent or such Loan Party shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent and the Loan Parties to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under any Loan Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent or such Loan Party to the Lender from any other source against any amount due to the Administrative Agent or such Loan Party under this paragraph (d).

(e) As soon as practicable after any payment of Indemnified Taxes by a Loan Party to a Governmental Authority, such Loan Party shall deliver to the Administrative Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(f) Status of Lenders.

(i) Any Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payments made under any Loan Document shall deliver to the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent, on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement and at the time or times reasonably requested in writing by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable laws or by the taxing authorities of any jurisdiction and such other documentation reasonably requested in writing by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate of withholding. In addition, any Lender, if reasonably requested by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by applicable law or by the taxing authority of any jurisdiction or reasonably requested in writing by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the completion, execution and submission of such documentation (other than such documentation set forth in clauses (A), (B) and (D) of Section 2.16(f)(ii) below) shall not be required if in the Lender's reasonable judgment such completion, execution or submission would subject such Lender to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Lender (it being understood that providing any information currently required by any U.S. federal income tax withholding form shall not be considered prejudicial to the position of a Lender).

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

(A) any Lender that is a "U.S. person" as defined under Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code shall deliver to the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of IRS Form W-9 (or successor form) certifying that such Lender is not subject to U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) any Foreign Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower Representative or Administrative Agent), whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Loan Document, executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "interest" article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any Loan Document, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "business profits" or "other income" article of such tax treaty;

(2) executed copies of IRS Form W-8ECI;

(3) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate to the effect that such Foreign Lender is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a "10 percent shareholder" of a Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or a “controlled foreign corporation” described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code (a “U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate”) substantially in the form of Exhibit I-1 and (y) executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E; or

(4) to the extent a Foreign Lender is not the beneficial owner, executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY, accompanied by IRS Form W-8ECI, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit I-2 or Exhibit I-3, IRS Form W-9, or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that if the Foreign Lender is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Foreign Lender are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Foreign Lender may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit I-4 on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner;

(C) any Foreign Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower Representative or Administrative Agent), executed copies of any other form prescribed by applicable law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly completed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable law to permit the Borrowers or Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made; and

(D) if a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent, as may be necessary for the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Lender has complied with such Lender’s obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (D), “FATCA” shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(E) The Lenders and any transferees or assignees after the Closing Date will be required to provide to the Administrative Agent or its agents all information, documentation or certifications reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent to permit the Administrative Agent to comply with its tax reporting obligations under applicable law, including any applicable cost basis reporting obligations.

(iii) Each Lender agrees that if any form or certification it previously delivered expires or becomes obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, it shall (to the extent it is legally entitled to do so) promptly deliver to the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent renewals, amendments or additional or successor forms, properly completed and duly executed by such Lender, together with any other certificate or statement of exemption required in order to confirm or establish such Lender’s status or that such Lender is entitled to an exemption from or reduction in applicable Tax. If as a result of any Change in Law, regulation or treaty, or in any official application or interpretation thereof applicable to the payments made by or on behalf of any Loan Party or by the Administrative Agent under any Loan Document or any change in an income tax treaty applicable to any Lender, any Lender is unable to submit to the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent any form or certificate that such Lender is obligated to submit pursuant to Section 2.16(f) or such Lender is required to withdraw or cancel any such form or certificate previously submitted or any such form or certificate otherwise becomes ineffective or inaccurate, such Lender shall promptly notify the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent of such fact and the Lender shall not be obligated to provide any such form or certificate and will be entitled to withdraw or cancel any affected form or certificate, as applicable.

(iv) Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to deliver to the Loan Parties and to any successor Administrative Agent any documentation provided by such Lender to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 2.16(f).

(v) On or before the date the Administrative Agent becomes a party to this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall provide to the Borrower Representative, two duly-signed, properly completed copies of the documentation prescribed in clause (x) or (y) below, as applicable (together with all required attachments thereto): (x) IRS Form W-9 or any successor thereto, or (y) if the Administrative Agent is not a "U.S. person" as defined under Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, (A) IRS Form W-8ECI or any successor thereto, and (B) with respect to payments received on account of any Lender, a U.S. branch withholding certificate on IRS Form W-8IMY or any successor thereto evidencing its agreement with the Borrowers to be treated as a U.S. Person for U.S. federal withholding purposes. At any time thereafter, the Administrative Agent shall (to the extent it is legally entitled to do so) provide updated documentation previously provided (or a successor form thereto) when any documentation previously delivered has expired or become obsolete or invalid or otherwise upon the reasonable request of the Borrower Representative. The Administrative Agent represents to the company that it is a "U.S. person" and a "U.S. financial institution" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Sections 1.1441-1 and 1.1471-3, as applicable, and that it will comply with its obligations to withhold under Section 1441 of the Code and FATCA.

(g) If the Administrative Agent, an Issuing Bank or a Lender determines, in its sole discretion, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by a Loan Party or with respect to which such Loan Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.16, it shall pay over such refund to such Loan Party (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by such Loan Party under this Section 2.16 with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank (including any Taxes imposed with respect to such refund) as is determined by the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank in good faith in its reasonable discretion, and without interest (other than any net after-Tax interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund); provided that such Loan Party, upon the request of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank, agrees to repay the amount paid over to such Loan Party (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank in the event the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (g), in no event will the Administrative Agent, a Lender or an Issuing Bank be required to pay any amount to a Loan Party pursuant to this paragraph (g) to the extent that the payment of which would place the Administrative Agent, Lender or Issuing Bank in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the Administrative Agent, Lender or Issuing Bank would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This paragraph (g) shall not be construed to require the Administrative Agent, any Lender or Issuing Bank to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its taxes which it deems confidential) to such Loan Party or any other Person.

(h) Survival. Each party's obligations under this Section 2.16 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Loan Document.

Section 2.17 Payments Generally; Allocation of Proceeds; Sharing of Set-offs.

(a) The Borrowers shall make each payment required to be made by them hereunder (whether of principal, interest, fees or reimbursement of LC Disbursements, or of amounts payable under Sections 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16, or otherwise) in immediately available funds, without set-off (except as otherwise provided in Section 2.16) or counterclaim and, unless otherwise specified, prior to 2:00 p.m. on the date when due. Any amounts received after such time on any date may, in the discretion of the Administrative Agent, be deemed to have been received on the next succeeding Business Day for purposes of calculating interest thereon. All such payments shall be made to the Administrative Agent to the applicable account designated to the Borrower Representative by the Administrative Agent, except payments to be made directly to the applicable Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender as expressly provided herein and except that payments pursuant to Sections 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16 and 9.03 shall be made directly to the Persons entitled thereto. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments received by it for the account of any other Person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof. Except as otherwise provided herein (including in Section 2.20), each Borrowing, each payment or prepayment of principal of any Borrowing, each payment of interest on the Loans of a given Class and each conversion of any Borrowing to or continuation of any Borrowing as a Borrowing of any Type (and of the same Class) shall be allocated pro rata among the Lenders in accordance with their respective Applicable Percentages. Each Lender agrees that in computing such Lender's portion of any Borrowing to be made hereunder, the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion, round each Lender's percentage of such Borrowing to the next higher or lower whole dollar amount. All payments hereunder shall be made in the same Agreed Currency as the Borrowing in respect of which such payment is being made. Any payment required to be made by the Administrative Agent hereunder shall be deemed to have been made by the time required if the Administrative Agent shall, at or before such time, have taken the necessary steps to make such payment in accordance with the regulations or operating procedures of the clearing or settlement system used by the Administrative Agent to make such payment. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments denominated in the same currency received by it for the account of any other Person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof. If any payment hereunder shall be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the date for payment shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day, and, in the case of any payment accruing interest, interest thereon shall be payable for the period of such extension. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, if, after the making of any Borrowing in Canadian Dollars, currency control or exchange regulations are imposed in the country which issues such currency with the result that the type of currency in which the extension of credit was made (the "Original Currency") no longer exists, or any Borrower is not able to make payment to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders in such Original Currency, or the terms of this Agreement require the conversion of such extension of credit into Dollars, then all payments to be made by a Loan Party hereunder in such currency shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, instead be made when due in Dollars in an amount equal to the Dollar Equivalent (as of the date of repayment) of such payment due, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the Borrowers take all risks of the imposition of any such currency control or exchange regulations or conversion, and each Borrower agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Swingline Lender, the Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders from and against any loss resulting from any extension of credit made to or for the benefit of such Borrower denominated in Canadian Dollars that is not repaid to the Swingline Lender, the Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent or the Lenders, as the case may be, in the Original Currency.

(b) Subject in all respects to the provisions of the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement, (x) all proceeds of Collateral received by the Administrative Agent (including all amounts received after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and all or any portion of the Loans shall have been accelerated hereunder pursuant to Section 7.01), (y) all amounts to be applied during a Cash Dominion Period, and (z) all payments not constituting a specific payment of interest or fees or other sum payable under the Loan Documents (which shall be applied as specified herein or any other applicable Loan Document) shall be applied, first, to pay Pre-Petition Revolving Loans in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, second, on a pro rata basis, to pay any fees, indemnities or expense reimbursements then due to the Administrative Agent or any Issuing Bank from the Borrowers constituting Obligations, third on a pro rata basis, to pay any fees, indemnities or expense reimbursements then due to the Lenders from the Borrowers constituting Obligations, fourth, to pay interest due and payable hereunder in respect of any Loans, on a pro rata basis, fifth, to prepay principal on the Loans and pay unreimbursed LC Disbursements and, to the extent Reserves have been implemented in respect thereof, to pay all Banking Services Obligations that constitute Secured Obligations and to pay all Secured Hedging Obligations, in each case in an aggregate amount for all Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations not to exceed $2,500,000 or such greater amount as the Administrative Agent and (if the Payment in Full of the Term Loan Obligations (as such terms are defined in the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement) has not occurred) the Term Loan Agent agree in their respective sole discretion on a pro rata basis among the Secured Parties, sixth, to pay an amount to the Administrative Agent equal to 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of LC Exposure on such date, to be held in the LC Collateral Account as cash collateral for such Obligations, on a pro rata basis, seventh, to the payment of any other Secured Obligation (other than contingent indemnification obligations for which no claim has yet been made, Banking Services Obligations that constitute Secured Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations) due to the Administrative Agent or any Lender on a pro rata basis, eighth, to pay all Banking Services Obligations that constitute Secured Obligations and to pay all Secured Hedging Obligations, in an aggregate amount for all Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations not to exceed $2,500,000 (less any amount paid pursuant to the clause fifth above) or such greater amount as the Administrative Agent and (if the Payment in Full of the Term Loan Obligations (as such terms are defined in the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement) has not occurred) the Term Loan Agent agree in their respective sole discretion on a pro rata basis among the Secured Parties, ninth, following the Payment in Full of the Term Loan Obligations (as such terms are defined in the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement), any remaining Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations and tenth, to the Borrowers or as the Borrower Representative shall direct.

(c) If any Lender shall, by exercising any right of set-off or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Loans or participations in LC Disbursements of any Class resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a greater proportion of the aggregate amount of its Loans and participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans of such Class and accrued interest thereon than the proportion received by any other Lender with Loans of such Class, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall purchase (for Cash at face value) participations in the Loans and sub-participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans of other Lenders of such Class at such time outstanding to the extent necessary so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders of such Class ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Loans and participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans of such Class; provided that (i) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest, and (ii) the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to apply to (x) any payment made by the Borrowers pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or (y) any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans or participations in LC Disbursements or Swingline Loans to any permitted assignee or participant, or (z) any payment of any fees to the Administrative Agent, the Lead Arranger or the Lenders. Each Borrower consents to the foregoing and agrees, to the extent they may effectively do so under applicable law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against such Borrower rights of set-off and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of such Borrower in the amount of such participation.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Borrower Representative prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders or any Issuing Bank hereunder that the Borrowers will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrowers have made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders or the applicable Issuing Bank the amount due. In such event, if the Borrowers have not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders or the applicable Issuing Bank severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender or Issuing Bank with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the Overnight Rate. It is understood that the Administrative Agent shall not have a duty to advance its personal funds pursuant to this Section.

(e) If any Lender shall fail to make any payment required to be made by it pursuant to Section 2.06(b), Section 2.17(c) or the last paragraph of Article 8, then the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion (notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof), apply any amounts thereafter received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender to satisfy such Lender's obligations under such Sections or paragraphs, as applicable, until all such unsatisfied obligations are fully paid.

Section 2.18 Mitigation Obligations; Replacement of Lenders.

(a) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.14 or such Lender determines it can no longer make or maintain SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans pursuant to Section 2.19, or if any Loan Party is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.16, then such Lender shall use reasonable efforts to designate a different lending office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or its participation in any Letters of Credit affected by such event, or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or Affiliates, if, in the reasonable judgment of such Lender, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.14 or 2.16, as applicable, in the future and (ii) would not subject such Lender to any unreimbursed out-of-pocket cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Lender. The Borrowers hereby agree to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such designation or assignment.

(b) If (i) any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.14 or such Lender determines it can no longer make or maintain SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans pursuant to Section 2.19, (ii) any Loan Party is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.16, (iii) any Lender is a Defaulting Lender or (iv) in connection with any proposed amendment, waiver or consent requiring the consent of "each Lender" or "each Lender directly affected thereby" with respect to which Required Lender consent has been obtained, any Lender is a non-consenting Lender (each such Lender, a "Non-Consenting Lender"), then the Borrowers may, at their sole expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, (x) terminate the applicable Revolving Credit Commitments of such Lender and repay all Obligations of the Borrowers owing to such Lender relating to the Loans and participations held by such Lender as of such termination date under the Revolving Facility as the Company may elect on a non-pro rata basis or (y) replace such Lender by requiring such Lender to assign and delegate (and such Lender shall be obligated to assign and delegate), without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 9.05), all its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement to an Eligible Assignee that shall assume such obligations (which Eligible Assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided that (i) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal amount of its Loans and, if applicable, participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans, in each case of such Class of Loans, Revolving Credit Commitments and, other than in the case of a Defaulting Lender, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder with respect to such Class of Loans, Revolving Credit Commitments, (ii) in the case of any assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 2.14 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 2.16, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments and (iii) such assignment does not conflict with applicable law. A Lender (other than a Defaulting Lender) shall not be required to make any such assignment and delegation, and the Borrowers may not repay the Obligations of such Lender or terminate its Commitments, if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Borrowers to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply. Each Lender agrees that if it is replaced pursuant to this Section 2.18, it shall (x) execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption to evidence such sale and purchase and shall deliver to the Borrowers any Promissory Note (if the assigning Lender's Loans are evidenced by Promissory Notes) subject to such Assignment and Assumption; provided that the failure of any Lender replaced pursuant to this Section 2.18 to execute an Assignment and Assumption or deliver such Promissory Notes shall not render such sale and purchase (and the corresponding assignment) invalid and such assignment shall be recorded in the Register and the Promissory Notes shall be deemed cancelled and (y) consent to such proposed amendment, waiver or consent prior to signing such Assignment and Assumption. Each Lender hereby irrevocably appoints the Administrative Agent (such appointment being coupled with an interest) as such Lender's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of such Lender and in the name of such Lender, from time to time in the Administrative Agent's discretion, with prior written notice to such Lender, to take any action and to execute any such Assignment and Assumption or other instrument that the Administrative Agent may deem reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this clause (b). To the extent a Lender is replaced pursuant to Section 2.18(b)(iv).

Section 2.19 Illegality. If any Lender reasonably determines that any Change in Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted after the Closing Date that it is unlawful, for such Lender or its applicable lending office to make or maintain any SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans then, on notice thereof by such Lender to the Borrower Representative through the Administrative Agent, any obligations of such Lender to make or continue SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans or to convert ABR Borrowings to SOFR Borrowings or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings to Term CORRA Borrowings or Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowings shall be suspended until such Lender notifies the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrowers shall upon demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), either convert all SOFR Borrowings of such Lender to ABR Borrowings or all Term CORRA Borrowings or Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowings of such Lender to Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings, as applicable, either on the last day of the SOFR Index Period or Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such SOFR Borrowings, Term CORRA Borrowings or Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowings to such day, or immediately, if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such Loans. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrowers shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted. Each Lender agrees to designate a different lending office if such designation will avoid the need for such notice and will not, in the determination of such Lender, otherwise be materially disadvantageous to it.

Section 2.20 Defaulting Lenders. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then the following provisions shall apply for so long as such Lender is a Defaulting Lender:

(a) Fees shall cease to accrue on the unfunded portion of the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 2.11(a) and, subject to clause (d)(iv) below, on the participation of such Defaulting Lender in Letters of Credit pursuant to Section 2.11(b).

(b) The Commitments and the LC Exposure of such Defaulting Lender shall not be included in determining whether all Lenders, all “affected Lenders” or the Required Lenders have taken or may take any action hereunder (including any consent to any amendment or waiver pursuant to Section 9.02); provided that any waiver, amendment or modification requiring the consent of all Lenders or each affected Lender which affects such Defaulting Lender disproportionately and adversely relative to other affected Lenders shall require the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

(c) Any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of a Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Section 2.10, Section 2.14, Section 2.15, Section 2.16, Section 2.17, Article 7, Section 9.06 or otherwise, and including any amounts made available to the Administrative Agent by that Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 9.09), shall be applied at such time or times as may be determined by the Administrative Agent and, where relevant, the Borrower Representative as follows: first, to the payment of any amounts owing by that Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent hereunder; second, to the payment on a pro rata basis of any amounts owing by that Defaulting Lender to any applicable Issuing Banks or the Swingline Lender hereunder; third, if so reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent or reasonably requested by the applicable Issuing Bank, to be held as cash collateral for future funding obligations of that Defaulting Lender of any participation in any Letter of Credit; fourth, as the Borrower Representative may request (so long as no Default or Event of Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which that Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement, as determined by the Administrative Agent; fifth, if so determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative, to be held in a deposit account and released pro rata in order to (x) satisfy such Defaulting Lender’s potential future funding obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement and (y) cash collateralize the Issuing Bank’s future LC Exposure with respect to such Defaulting Lender with respect to future Letters of Credit issued under this Agreement, in accordance with this Section; sixth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the non-Defaulting Lenders and any Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by any non-Defaulting Lender or any Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender against that Defaulting Lender as a result of that Defaulting Lender’s breach of its obligations under this Agreement; seventh, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrowers as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrowers against that Defaulting Lender as a result of that Defaulting Lender’s breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and eighth, to that Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that if (x) such payment is a payment of the principal amount of any Loans or LC Disbursements in respect of which that Defaulting Lender has not fully funded its appropriate share and (y) such Loans were made or the related Letters of Credit were issued at a time when the conditions set forth in Section 4.02 were satisfied or waived, such payment shall be applied solely to pay the Loans of, and LC Disbursements owed to, all non-Defaulting Lenders on a pro rata basis prior to being applied to the payment of any Loans of, or LC Disbursements owed to, such Defaulting Lender until such time as all Loans and funded and unfunded participations in the Borrowers’ obligations corresponding to such Defaulting Lender’s LC Exposure and Swingline Loans are held by the Lenders pro rata in accordance with the Commitments without giving effect to clause (d) below. Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender or to post cash collateral pursuant to this Section 2.20(c) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by that Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(d) If any Swingline Exposure or LC Exposure exists at the time a Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender then:

(i) all or any part of such Swingline Exposure and LC Exposure of such Defaulting Lender shall be reallocated among the non-Defaulting Lenders in accordance with their respective Applicable Percentages but only to the extent (x) the sum of all non-Defaulting Lenders' Revolving Credit Exposures does not exceed the total of all non-Defaulting Lenders' Revolving Credit Commitments and (y) such reallocation does not cause the aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure of any non-Defaulting Lender to exceed such non-Defaulting Lender's Revolving Credit Commitments; provided, that, subject to Section 9.04, no reallocation hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder against a Defaulting Lender arising from that Lender having become a Defaulting Lender, including any claim of a non-Defaulting Lender as a result of such non-Defaulting Lender's increased exposure following such reallocation;

(ii) if the reallocation described in clause (i) above cannot, or can only partially, be effected, the Borrowers shall (x) within two (2) Business Days following notice by the Administrative Agent prepay such Swingline Exposure and (y) without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to it hereunder or under law, within two (2) Business Days following notice by the Administrative Agent, cash collateralize 100% of such Defaulting Lender's LC Exposure (after giving effect to any partial reallocation pursuant to paragraph (i) above and any cash collateral provided by the Defaulting Lender or pursuant to Section 2.20(c) above) or make other arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and to the applicable Issuing Bank with respect to such LC Exposure. Cash collateral (or the appropriate portion thereof) provided to reduce LC Exposure or other obligations shall be released promptly following (A) the elimination of the applicable LC Exposure or other obligations giving rise thereto (including by the termination of Defaulting Lender status of the applicable Lender (or, as appropriate, its assignee following compliance with Section 2.18)) or (B) the Administrative Agent's good faith determination that there exists excess cash collateral (including any subsequent reallocation of LC Exposure among non-Defaulting Lenders described in clause (i) above);

(iii) if the LC Exposure of the non-Defaulting Lenders are reallocated pursuant to this Section 2.20(d), then the fees payable to the Revolving Lenders pursuant to Sections 2.11(a) and (b), as the case may be, shall be adjusted in accordance with such non-Defaulting Lenders' Applicable Percentages; and

(iv) if any Defaulting Lender's LC Exposure is not cash collateralized, prepaid or reallocated pursuant to this Section 2.20(d), then, without prejudice to any rights or remedies of the applicable Issuing Bank or any Revolving Lender hereunder, all letter of credit fees payable under Section 2.11(b) with respect to such Defaulting Lender's LC Exposure shall be payable to the applicable Issuing Bank until such Defaulting Lender's LC Exposure is reallocated and/or cash collateralized.

(e) So long as any Lender is a Defaulting Lender, the Swingline Lender shall not be required to fund any Swingline Loan and no Issuing Bank shall be required to issue, extend, create, incur, amend or increase any Letter of Credit unless it is reasonably satisfied that the related exposure will be 100% covered by the Revolving Credit Commitments of the non-Defaulting Lenders, cash collateral provided pursuant to Section 2.20(c) and/or cash collateral will be provided by the Borrowers in accordance with Section 2.20(d), and Swingline Exposure related to any newly made Swingline Loan and participating interests in any such newly issued, extended or created Letter of Credit shall be allocated among non-Defaulting Lenders in a manner consistent with Section 2.20(d)(i) (and Defaulting Lenders shall not participate therein).

(f) In the event that the Administrative Agent, the Borrowers, the Swingline Lender and the Issuing Banks each agree that a Defaulting Lender has adequately remedied all matters that caused such

Lender to be a Defaulting Lender, then the Applicable Percentage of the Swingline Exposure and the LC Exposure of the Revolving Lenders shall be readjusted to reflect the inclusion of such Lender's Revolving Credit Commitment and on such date such Revolving Lender shall purchase at par such of the Revolving Loans of the other Revolving Lenders (other than Swingline Loans) or participations in Revolving Loans as the Administrative Agent shall determine may be necessary in order for such Revolving Lender to hold such Revolving Loans or participations in accordance with its Applicable Percentage; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Borrowers while that Revolving Lender was a Defaulting Lender; and provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender's having been a Defaulting Lender.

Section 2.21 Designation of Borrowers; Co-Borrowers. As of the Closing Date, the Company is the sole Borrower under this Agreement, and no other Loan Party or Subsidiary may be designated as a "Borrower" hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent.

ARTICLE 3 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

On the dates and to the extent required pursuant to Sections 4.01 or 4.02 hereof, as applicable, each of Holdings (solely to the extent applicable to it), the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties, on behalf of themselves and their respective Subsidiaries represent and warrant to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders that:

Section 3.01 Organization; Powers. Each of the Loan Parties and each of its Subsidiaries (a) is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing (to the extent such concept exists in the relevant jurisdiction) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, (b) has all requisite power and authority to own its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted and (c) is qualified to do business in, and is in good standing (to the extent such concept exists in the relevant jurisdiction) in, every jurisdiction where its ownership, lease or operation of properties or conduct of its business requires such qualification; except, solely in the case of this clause (c), where the failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.02 Authorization; Enforceability. Subject to entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Financing Order and any other applicable order of the Bankruptcy Court, the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Loan Documents are within each applicable Loan Party's corporate or other organizational powers and have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other organizational action of such Loan Party. Upon entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Financing Order and in the case of the Canadian Borrower the Canadian DIP Recognition Order, each Loan Document to which any Loan Party is a party will have been duly executed and delivered by such Loan Party and will be a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity and principles of good faith and dealing.

Section 3.03 Governmental Approvals; No Conflicts. Except for the entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Financing Order and in the case of the Canadian Borrower the Canadian DIP Recognition Order, the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents by each Loan Party thereto and the performance by such Loan Party thereof (a) do not require any consent or approval of, registration or filing with, or any other action by, any Governmental Authority, except (i) such as have been obtained or made and are in full force and effect, (ii) for filings necessary to perfect Liens created pursuant to the Loan Documents and (iii) such consents, approvals, registrations, filings, or other actions the failure to obtain or make which could not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (b) will not violate any (i) of such Loan Party's Organizational Documents or (ii) any Requirements of Law applicable to such Loan Party which, in the case of this clause (b)(ii), would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect and (c) will not violate or result in a default under any other Contractual Obligation of any of the Loan Parties which in the case of this clause (c) would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.04 Financial Condition; No Material Adverse Effect; Approved Budget.

(a) As of the Closing Date, the financial statements most recently delivered to the Pre-Petition Agent pursuant to the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement and, after the Closing Date, the financial statements most recently delivered pursuant to this Agreement present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position and results of income and cash flows of the Borrowers as of such dates and for such periods in accordance with GAAP, except as otherwise noted therein, subject in the case of interim financial statements, to the absence of footnotes, disclosures and changes resulting from audit and normal year-end adjustments (none of which are material, individually or in the aggregate).

(b) Since the Petition Date, other than those events or circumstances customarily resulting from the commencement of a case under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, no event or condition has occurred that has had or could be reasonably expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, no Material Adverse Effect has occurred.

(c) The initial Approved Budget is attached to this Agreement as Annex I, which was furnished to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the Closing Date, and each subsequent Approved Budget delivered in accordance with Section 5.14, has been (or when delivered, will be) prepared by the Loan Parties (after consultation with the Company Advisors) in good faith, with due care and based upon assumptions the Loan Parties (and their chief restructuring officer) believed to be reasonable assumptions on the date of delivery of the then applicable Approved Budget. To the knowledge of the Borrower Representative (and its chief restructuring officer), as of the Closing Date, no facts exist that, individually or in the aggregate, would result in any material change to the Approved Budget for the period covered thereby.

Section 3.05 Properties.

(a) Each Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries has good and valid fee simple title (or similar concept under any applicable jurisdiction) to or rights to purchase, or valid leasehold interests in, or other limited property interests in, all its Real Estate Assets and has good title to its personal property and assets, in each case, except (i) for defects in title that do not materially interfere with its ability to conduct its business as currently conducted or to utilize such properties and assets for their intended purposes, or (ii) where the failure to have such title or rights would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. All such properties and assets are free and clear of Liens, other than Permitted Liens. Schedule 3.05(a) sets forth (A) the address (including street address and state) of all Owned Real Property and (B) the nature of use of such Owned Real Property. None of the Owned Real Property is subject to any lease, license, sublease, assignment of leases or deed of trust, except as otherwise set forth on such Schedule 3.05(a).

(b) Each Loan Party and its Subsidiaries have valid title to or a valid license or right to use all patents, industrial designs, trademarks, service marks, trade names, copyrights, proprietary know how and data and other rights in works of authorship (including all copyrights embodied in software), and all other similar intellectual property rights (the foregoing, collectively, “IP Rights”) needed to conduct the businesses of such Loan Party and its Subsidiaries as presently conducted without, to the knowledge of the Borrower Representative, any infringement or misappropriation of the IP Rights of third parties, except where such failure to own or license or have rights to use would not, or where such infringement or misappropriation would not, have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.06 Litigation and Environmental Matters.

(a) Except for the Chapter 11 Case, there are no actions, suits or proceedings by or before any arbitrator or Governmental Authority pending against or, to the knowledge of the Borrower Representative, threatened in writing against or affecting the Loan Parties or any of their Subsidiaries which would reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Except for any matters that, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (i) no Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries has received notice of any claim with respect to any Environmental Liability and (ii) no Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries (A) has failed to comply with any Environmental Law or to obtain, maintain or comply with any permit, license or other approval required under any Environmental Law or (B) has become subject to any Environmental Liability.

(c) Neither any Borrower nor any of its Subsidiaries has treated, stored, transported, disposed of Hazardous Materials at or from any currently or formerly operated real estate or facility relating to its business in a manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.07 Compliance with Laws.

(a) Each Loan Party and its Subsidiaries is in compliance with all Requirements of Law (other than pursuant to Anti-Corruption Laws and the Controlled Substances Act) applicable to it or its property, except, in each case, where the failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Each Loan Party and its Subsidiaries is in material compliance with all Requirements of Law pursuant to Anti-Corruption Laws and the Controlled Substances Act applicable to it or its property.

Section 3.08 Investment Company Status. No Loan Party is required to be registered as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Section 3.09 Taxes. Each Loan Party and its Subsidiaries has timely filed or caused to be filed all Tax returns and reports required to have been filed and has paid or caused to be paid all Taxes required to have been paid by it (including in the capacity of a withholding agent) that are due and payable, except (a) Taxes (or any requirement to file Tax returns with respect thereto) that are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and for which such Loan Party or such Subsidiary, as applicable, has set aside on its books adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP, (b) to the extent that the failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or (c) to the extent not required to be paid by the Bankruptcy Court.

Section 3.10 ERISA; Canadian Pension Plans.

(a) No ERISA Event has occurred, or is reasonably expected to occur, that, when taken together with all other such ERISA Events, would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) No Canadian Pension Termination Event has occurred or is reasonably expected to occur. None of Holdings, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries maintains, contributes to, or has any liability or contingent liability with respect to any Canadian Defined Benefit Pension Plan as of the Closing Date, and thereafter, none of Holdings, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries will create, establish, maintain, contribute to, or have any liability or contingent liability with respect to any Canadian Defined Benefit Pension Plan.

Section 3.11 Disclosure. As of the Closing Date all written information (other than financial estimates, budgets, forecasts and other forward-looking information and information of a general economic or industry-specific nature) that has been made available concerning Holdings, the Company and its Subsidiaries, the Transactions or otherwise prepared by, or on behalf of, the foregoing by any of their respective representatives, and made available to any Lender or the Administrative Agent in connection with the Transactions on or before the Closing Date (the “Information”), when taken as a whole, after giving effect to any supplements and updates provided thereto, did not, when furnished, supplemented, or updated contain any untrue statements of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not materially misleading in light of the circumstances under which such statements are made (after giving effect to all supplements and updates thereto from time to time).

Section 3.12 [Reserved].

Section 3.13 Capitalization and Subsidiaries. Schedule 3.13 sets forth, in each case as of the Closing Date, (a) a correct and complete list of the name of each Subsidiary of the Company and the ownership interest therein held by the Company or its applicable Subsidiary, and (b) the type of entity of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries.

Section 3.14 Security Interest in Collateral. Subject to entry of the Financing Order by the Bankruptcy Court, and in the case of the Canadian Borrower the Canadian DIP Recognition Order, the provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents create legal, valid and enforceable Liens on all of the Collateral in favor of the Administrative Agent (or any designee or trustee on its behalf), for the benefit of itself and the other Secured Parties, subject, as to enforceability, to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting creditors’ rights generally and to general principles of equity and principles of good faith and dealing, such Liens constitute perfected Liens on, and security interest in, all right, title and interest of the grantors in the Collateral, with the priority set forth in the Financing Order.

Section 3.15 Labor Matters. As of the Closing Date and as of the date of any Credit Extension, except as, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, there are no strikes, lockouts or slowdowns against any Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries pending or, to the knowledge of any Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, overtly threatened. All material payments due from any Loan Party or its Subsidiary on account of wages and employee health and welfare insurance have been paid or accrued as a liability on the books of the relevant party and each Loan Party or its Subsidiary has withheld all employee withholdings and has made all employer contributions to be withheld and made by it pursuant to Requirements of Law on account of any employee benefit plans, employment insurance and employee income taxes. As of Closing Date, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents will not give rise to any right of termination or right of renegotiation on the part of any union under any collective bargaining agreement to which any Loan Party is bound to the extent that such would be reasonably expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.16 Federal Reserve Regulations.

(a) On the Closing Date and as of the date of any Credit Extension, not more than 25% of the value of the assets of Holdings, the Company and its Subsidiaries, taken as a whole, is represented by Margin Stock.

(b) None of Holdings, the Company nor any of its Subsidiaries is engaged principally, or as one of its important activities, in the business of extending credit for the purpose of buying or carrying Margin Stock.

(c) No part of the proceeds of any Loan or Letter of Credit will be used, whether directly or indirectly, and whether immediately, incidentally or ultimately, for any purpose that entails a violation of the provisions of Regulation T, U or X.

Section 3.17 Anti-Terrorism Laws.

(a) None of Holdings, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries, any Parent Company or any Affiliate or holder of Capital Stock of any of the foregoing nor, to the knowledge of the Company, any director, officer, agent or employee or Affiliate of any of the foregoing is (i) a Person on the list of “Specially Designated Nationals and Blocked Persons” or (ii) otherwise currently the target of any U.S. sanctions administered by the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the United States Treasury Department (“OFAC”) or any Sanctions administered or enforced by Global Affairs Canada or any other Sanctions authority with jurisdiction over any Lender, Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, any Parent Company or any Affiliate or holder of Capital Stock of any of the foregoing; and the Borrowers will not directly or, to the knowledge of the Borrower Representative, indirectly use the proceeds of the Loans or Letters of Credit or otherwise make available such proceeds to any Person, for the purpose of financing activities or business of or with any Person that, at the time of such financing, is a Sanctioned Person, except to the extent licensed or otherwise authorized by OFAC, Global Affairs Canada or any other Sanctions authority with jurisdiction over any Lender, Holdings or any of its Subsidiaries or Affiliates, any Parent Company or any Affiliate or holder of Capital Stock of any of the foregoing; and no Borrower will take any action that would reasonably be expected to cause any party to this Agreement to be in violation of any applicable Sanctions.

(b) The Borrowers will not directly or, to the knowledge of the Borrower Representative, indirectly repay any debt or obligation owed under this Agreement, in whole or in part, out of any proceeds derived from any unlawful dealings with Sanctioned Persons.

(c) To the extent applicable, each Loan Party is in compliance, in all material respects, with (i) the Trading with the Enemy Act and applicable Sanctions (including each of the foreign assets control regulations of the United States Treasury Department (31 CFR, Subtitle B, Chapter V) and any other enabling legislation or executive order relating thereto); (ii) applicable Anti-Corruption Laws; and (iii) the USA PATRIOT Act.

(d) No part of the proceeds of any Loan or any Letter of Credit will be used, directly or, to the knowledge of the Borrower Representative, indirectly, for any payments to any governmental official or employee, political party, official of a political party, candidate for political office, or anyone else acting in an official capacity, in order to obtain, retain or direct business or obtain any improper advantage, in violation of any applicable Anti-Corruption Laws.

Section 3.18 Use of Proceeds. The proceeds of the Loans are intended to be and shall be used solely for the purposes set forth in and permitted by Section 5.11.

Section 3.19 Borrowing Base Calculation. The calculation by the Borrower Representative of each Borrowing Base in any Borrowing Base Certificate delivered to the Administrative Agent and the valuation thereunder is complete and accurate in all material respects as of the date of such delivery.

Section 3.20 Eligible Accounts. As to each Account that is identified by Borrowers as an Eligible Account in the most recent Borrowing Base Certificate submitted to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 5.01(d), as of the date of such delivery such Account is (a) a bona fide existing payment obligation of the applicable Account Debtor created by the sale and delivery of Inventory or the rendition of services to such Account Debtor in the ordinary course of a Loan Party's business, (b) owed to a Loan Party without any known defenses, disputes, offsets, counterclaims, or rights of return or cancellation, and (c) not excluded as ineligible by virtue of one or more of the excluding criteria (other than any Administrative Agent-discretionary criteria) set forth in the definition of "Eligible Account".

Section 3.21 Eligible Inventory. As to each item of Inventory that is identified by Borrowers as Eligible Inventory in the most recent Borrowing Base Certificate submitted to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 5.01(d), as of the date of such delivery such Inventory is (a) of good and merchantable quality, free from known defects, and (b) not excluded as ineligible by virtue of one or more of the excluding criteria (other than any Administrative Agent-discretionary criteria) set forth in the definition of "Eligible Inventory".

Section 3.22 Location of Inventory. Excluding Inventory with an aggregate value equal to or less than $1,000,000, the Inventory of each Borrower and its Subsidiaries identified by Borrowers as Eligible Inventory in the most recent Borrowing Base Certificate submitted to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 5.01(d) as of the date of such delivery is not stored with a bailee, warehouseman, or similar party and is located only at, or in-transit between, the locations identified on Schedule E-1 (as such Schedule may be updated from time to time in accordance with this Agreement).

Section 3.23 Inventory Records. Each Loan Party keeps correct and accurate records itemizing and describing the type, quality, and quantity of its and its Subsidiaries' Inventory and the book value thereof.

Section 3.24 Chapter 11 Case Matters.

(a) The Chapter 11 Case was commenced on the Petition Date in accordance with applicable law and notice of (i) the motion seeking approval of the Loan Documents and the Interim Financing Order and the Final Financing Order, (ii) the hearing for the entry of the Interim Financing Order and (iii) the hearing for the entry of the Final Financing Order, in each case, has been or will be given in accordance with applicable law and the Bankruptcy Rules.

(b) After the entry of the Interim Financing Order, and pursuant to and to the extent permitted in the Financing Order, the Secured Obligations will constitute allowed administrative expense claims in the Chapter 11 Case having priority over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Loan Parties now existing or hereafter arising, of any kind whatsoever, including all administrative expense claims of the kind specified in Sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (after entry of the Final Financing Order), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 726, 1114 or any other provision of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, as provided under Section 364(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to (i) the Carve Out and (ii) the priorities set forth in the Financing Order.

(d) The Interim Financing Order (with respect to the period on and after entry of the Interim Financing Order and prior to the Final Order Entry Date) and the Final Financing Order (with respect to the period on and after the Final Order Entry Date), as the case may be, once entered, is in full force and effect and has not been reversed, stayed (whether by statutory stay or otherwise), modified or amended.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, and subject to the applicable provisions of the Financing Order, upon the maturity (whether by acceleration or otherwise) of any of the Secured Obligations, the Lenders shall be entitled to immediate payment of such Secured Obligations (together with any outstanding Pre-Petition Obligations) and to enforce the remedies provided for hereunder, under the other Loan Documents or under applicable law, without further application to or order by the Bankruptcy Court, but in the case of the Canadian Collateral subject to any applicable provisions in the Canadian DIP Recognition Order.

Section 3.25 Canadian Recognition Proceedings Matters. The Canadian DIP Recognition Order (with respect to the period on and after entry thereof), once entered, is in full force and effect and has not been reversed, stayed (whether by statutory stay or otherwise), vacated, or, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified. No motion for leave to appeal, appeal, or motion to set aside or vary the Canadian DIP Recognition Order has been filed and remains pending. The Loan Parties are in compliance in all material respects with the Canadian DIP Recognition Order.

ARTICLE 8 THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT

Each of the Lenders and the Issuing Banks hereby irrevocably appoints ACF Finco I LP (or any successor appointed pursuant hereto) as its agent and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf, including execution of the other Loan Documents, and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms of the Loan Documents, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

Any Person serving as Administrative Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent and the term “Lender” or “Lenders” shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated, unless the context otherwise requires or unless such Person is in fact not a Lender, include each Person serving as Administrative Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Loan Parties or any subsidiary of a Loan Party or other Affiliate thereof as if it were not the Administrative Agent hereunder. The Lenders acknowledge that, pursuant to such activities, the Administrative Agent or its Affiliates may receive information regarding any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of such Loan Party or such Affiliate) and acknowledge that the Administrative Agent shall not be under any obligation to provide such information to them.

The Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in the Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (a) the Administrative Agent shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the use of the term “agent” herein and in the other Loan Documents with reference to the Administrative Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law and instead, such term is used merely as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties, (b) the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers that are expressly contemplated by the Loan Documents that the Administrative Agent is required to exercise in writing as directed by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.02); provided that the Administrative Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable laws, and (c) except as expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity. The Administrative Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.02) or in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, in connection with its duties expressly set forth herein. The Administrative Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default unless and until written notice thereof is given to the Administrative Agent by the Borrowers or any Lender in accordance with the notice information in Section 10.01, and the Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with any Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or in connection with any Loan Document, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in any Loan Document or the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of any Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, (v) the creation, perfection or priority of Liens on the Collateral or the existence, value or sufficiency of the Collateral, (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article 4 or elsewhere in any Loan Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent or (vii) the properties, books or records of any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof.

If any Lender acquires knowledge of a Default or Event of Default, it shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders thereof in writing. Each Lender agrees that, except with the written consent of the Administrative Agent, it will not take any enforcement action hereunder or under any other Loan Document, accelerate the Obligations under any Loan Document, or exercise any right that it might otherwise have under applicable law or otherwise to credit bid at foreclosure sales, UCC and/or PPSA sales, any sale under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any similar provision under any other Debtor Relief Law or other similar Dispositions of Collateral. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, a Lender may take action to preserve or enforce its rights against a Loan Party where a deadline or limitation period is applicable that would, absent such action, bar enforcement of the Obligations held by such Lender, including the filing of proofs of claim in a case under the Bankruptcy Code or under any other Debtor Relief Law.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any of the other Loan Documents, the Loan Parties, the Administrative Agent and each Secured Party agrees that (i) no Secured Party shall have any right individually to realize upon any of the Collateral or to enforce the Loan Guaranty, it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies hereunder may be exercised solely by the Administrative Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms hereof and all powers, rights and remedies under the other Loan Documents may be exercised solely by the Administrative Agent, and (ii) in the event of a foreclosure by the Administrative Agent on any of the Collateral pursuant to a public or private Disposition (including pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any similar provision under any other Debtor Relief Law), (A) the Administrative Agent, as agent for and representative of the Secured Parties, shall be entitled, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral sold at any such Disposition, to use and apply any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any Collateral payable by the Administrative Agent at such Disposition and (B) the Administrative Agent or any Lender may be the purchaser or licensor of any or all of such Collateral at any such Disposition.

No holder of Secured Hedging Obligations or Banking Services Obligations shall have any rights in connection with the management or release of any Collateral or of the obligations of any Loan Guarantor under this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, no provider of any Banking Services shall have any voting or approval rights hereunder (or be deemed a Lender) solely by virtue of its status as the provider under such agreements or of such products or as the holder of Secured Hedging Obligations or Banking Services Obligations owing thereunder, nor shall the consent of any such provider or holder be required (other than in their capacities as Lenders, to the extent applicable) for any matter hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents, including as to any matter relating to the Collateral or the release of Collateral or Guarantors.

Each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably authorizes (and by entering into a Hedge Agreement with respect to Secured Hedging Obligations and/or by entering into documentation in connection with Banking Services Obligations, each of the other Secured Parties hereby authorizes and shall be deemed to authorize) the Administrative Agent, on behalf of all Secured Parties to take any of the following actions upon the written instruction of the Required Lenders:

(a) consent to the Disposition of all or any portion of the Collateral free and clear of the Liens securing the Secured Obligations in connection with any such Disposition or other transfer pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including Section 363 thereof, or under any other Debtor Relief Law;

(b) credit bid all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, or purchase all or any portion of the Collateral, (in each case, either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) in connection with any Disposition of all or any portion of the Collateral pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including under Section 363 thereof, or under any other Debtor Relief Law;

(c) credit bid all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, or purchase all or any portion of the Collateral, (in each case, either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) in connection with any Disposition of all or any portion of the Collateral pursuant to the applicable provisions of the UCC and/or PPSA, including pursuant to Sections 9-610 or 9-620 of the UCC; and/or

(d) credit bid all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, or purchase all or any portion of the Collateral, (in each case, either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) in connection with any foreclosure or other Disposition conducted in accordance with applicable law following the occurrence of an Event of Default, including by power of sale, judicial action or otherwise;

it being understood that no Lender shall be required to fund any amounts in connection with any purchase of all or any portion of the Collateral by the Administrative Agent pursuant to the foregoing clauses (b), (c) or (d) without its prior written consent.

Each Lender and each other Secured Party agrees that the Administrative Agent is under no obligation to credit bid any part of the Secured Obligations or to purchase or retain or acquire any portion of the Collateral; provided that, in connection with any credit bid or purchase under clause (b), (c) or (d) of the preceding paragraph, the Secured Obligations owed to all of the Secured Parties (other than with respect to contingent or unliquidated liabilities as set forth in the next succeeding paragraph) shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid by the Administrative Agent on a ratable basis.

With respect to each contingent or unliquidated claim that is a Secured Obligation, the Administrative Agent is hereby authorized, but is not required, to estimate the amount of any such claim for purposes of the credit bid or purchase so long as the fixing or liquidation of such claim would not unduly delay the ability of the Administrative Agent to credit bid the Secured Obligations or purchase the Collateral at such Disposition. In the event that the Administrative Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, elects not to estimate any such contingent or unliquidated claim or any such claim cannot be estimated without unduly delaying the ability of the Administrative Agent to credit bid or purchase in accordance with the second preceding paragraph, then those of the contingent or unliquidated claims not so estimated shall be disregarded, shall not be credit bid, and shall not be entitled to any interest in the portion or the entirety of the Collateral purchased by means of such credit bid.

Each Secured Party whose Secured Obligations are credit bid under clauses (b), (c) or (d) of the third preceding paragraph shall be entitled to receive interests in the Collateral or other asset or assets acquired in connection with such credit bid (or in the Capital Stock of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such acquisition) on a ratable basis in accordance with the percentage obtained by dividing (x) the amount of the Secured Obligations of such Secured Party that were credit bid in such credit bid or Disposition, by (y) the aggregate amount of all Secured Obligations that were credit bid in such credit bid or Disposition.

In addition, in case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, each Secured Party agrees that the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan or LC Exposure shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrowers) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans or LC Exposure and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts to the extent due to the Lenders and the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.11 and 9.03) allowed in such judicial proceeding;

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same; and

(c) to receive payments from any custodian, receiver, receiver and manager, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding and, in the event that the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders and the Issuing

Banks, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amount to the extent due to the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.11 and 9.03.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender or any Issuing Bank any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or any Issuing Bank to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or any Issuing Bank in any such proceeding.

The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. The Administrative Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, or the issuance of a Letter of Credit, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender or the applicable Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent and the Issuing Bank may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent or Issuing Bank shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender or Issuing Bank prior to the making of such Loan or issuance of such Letter of Credit. The Administrative Agent and any Issuing Bank may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrowers), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

The Administrative Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default hereunder unless the Administrative Agent has received written notice from a Lender or the Borrower Representative referring to this Agreement, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a “notice of default.” In the event that the Administrative Agent receives such a notice, the Administrative Agent shall give notice thereof to the Lenders. The Administrative Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as shall be reasonably directed by, or with the consent of, the Required Lenders.

The Administrative Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article 8 shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the activities as the Administrative Agent.

The Administrative Agent may resign at any time by giving ten days prior written notice to the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Borrower Representative. If the Administrative Agent is a Defaulting Lender or an Affiliate of a Defaulting Lender, the Borrower Representative may, upon ten days’ notice, remove the Administrative Agent. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation or removal, the Required Lenders shall have the right, with the consent of the Borrower Representative (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), to appoint a successor Administrative Agent which shall be a commercial bank with an office in the U.S. having combined capital and surplus in excess of $1,000,000,000 and who shall be a “U.S. person” and a “financial institution” within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.1441-1; provided that during the existence and continuation of an Event of Default under Section 7.01(a) or, with respect to any Borrower, Section 7.01(f) or (g), no consent of the Borrower Representative shall be required. If no successor shall have been so appointed as provided above and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Administrative Agent gives notice of its resignation, then (a) in the case of a retirement, the retiring Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to), on behalf of the Lenders and the Issuing Banks, appoint a successor Administrative Agent meeting the qualifications (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Borrower Representative consent, if required) set forth above or (b) in the case of a removal, the Borrower Representative may, after consulting with the Required Lenders, appoint a successor Administrative Agent meeting the qualifications set forth above; provided that (x) in the case of a retirement, if such Administrative Agent shall notify the Borrower Representative, the Lenders and the Issuing Banks that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment or (y) in the case of a removal, the Borrower Representative notifies the Required Lenders that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment, then, in each case, such resignation or removal shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice and (i) the retiring or removed Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents and (ii) all payments and communications provided to be made to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made to each Lender and Issuing Bank directly (and each Lender and Issuing Bank will cooperate with the Borrower Representative to enable the Borrower Representative to take such actions), and all determinations provided to be made by the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by the Required Lenders, in each case, until such time as the Required Lenders or the Borrower Representative, as applicable, appoint a successor Administrative Agent, as provided for above in this Article 8. Upon the acceptance of its appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder by a successor, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Administrative Agent (other than any rights to indemnity payments owed to the retiring Administrative Agent), and the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder. The fees payable by the Borrowers to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrowers and such successor. After the Administrative Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article 8 and Section 9.03 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while it was acting as Administrative Agent.

Each Lender and each Issuing Bank acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender and each Issuing Bank also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon either Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Loan Document or related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder. Except for notices, reports and other documents expressly required to be furnished to the Lenders and the Issuing Banks by the Administrative Agent herein, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility to provide any Lender or Issuing Bank with any credit or other information concerning the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition or creditworthiness of any of the Loan Parties or any of their respective Affiliates which may come into the possession of the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties.

Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Lead Arranger shall not have any right, power, obligation, liability, responsibility or duty under this Agreement, except in its respective capacities, as applicable, as the Administrative Agent, an Issuing Bank or a Lender hereunder.

Each of the Lenders and the Issuing Banks irrevocably authorize and instruct the Administrative Agent to, and the Administrative Agent shall,

(a) release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent under any Loan Document (i) upon the occurrence of the Termination Date, (ii) that is sold or to be sold or transferred as part of or in connection with any Disposition permitted under the Loan Documents to a Person that is not a Loan Party, (iii) that does not constitute (or ceases to constitute) Collateral, (iv) if the property subject to such Lien is owned by a Subsidiary Guarantor, upon the release of such Subsidiary Guarantor from its Loan Guaranty otherwise in accordance with the Loan Documents, (v) as required under clause (d) below or (vi) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Required Lenders in accordance with Section 9.02;

(b) release any Subsidiary Guarantor from its obligations under the Loan Guaranty if such Person ceases to be a Subsidiary (or becomes an Excluded Subsidiary) as a result of a single transaction or related series of transactions permitted hereunder; and

(c) enter into subordination, intercreditor and/or similar agreements with respect to Indebtedness that is (i) required or permitted to be subordinated hereunder and/or (ii) secured by Liens, and which Indebtedness contemplates an intercreditor, subordination or collateral trust agreement.

Upon request by the Administrative Agent at any time, the Required Lenders will confirm in writing the Administrative Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, or to release any Loan Guarantor from its obligations under the Loan Guaranty pursuant to this Article 8 and Section 10.12 hereunder. In each case as specified in this Article 8, the Administrative Agent will (and each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to), at the Borrowers' expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Loan Party such documents as such Loan Party may reasonably request to evidence the release of such item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Collateral Documents or to subordinate its interest in such item, or to release such Loan Guarantor from its obligations under the Loan Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents and this Article 8.

The Administrative Agent is authorized to enter into any intercreditor agreement contemplated hereby with respect to Indebtedness that is (i) required or permitted to be subordinated hereunder and/or (ii) secured by Liens and which Indebtedness contemplates an intercreditor, subordination or collateral trust agreement (any such other intercreditor agreement, an "Additional Agreement"), and the parties hereto acknowledge that any Additional Agreement is binding upon them. Each Lender and Issuing Bank (a) hereby consents to the subordination of the Liens on the Collateral securing the Secured Obligations on the terms set forth in any Additional Agreement, (b) hereby agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of any Additional Agreement and (c) hereby authorizes and instructs the Administrative Agent to enter into any Additional Agreement and to subject the Liens on the Collateral securing the Secured Obligations to the provisions thereof. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the Secured Parties to extend credit to the Borrowers and such Secured Parties are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions and the provisions of any Additional Agreement.

To the extent the Administrative Agent or Issuing Bank (or in each case any Affiliate thereof) is not reimbursed and indemnified by the Borrowers, the Lenders will reimburse and indemnify the Administrative Agent and the Issuing Bank (and in each case any Affiliate thereof) in proportion to their respective Applicable Percentage for and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, costs, expenses or disbursements of whatsoever kind or nature which may be imposed on, asserted against or incurred by the Administrative Agent (or any Affiliate thereof) in performing its duties hereunder or under any other Loan Document or in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Loan Document in its (or any of its Affiliates') capacity as Administrative Agent; provided that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Administrative Agent's or the Issuing Bank's (or each such Affiliate's) gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision).

Whenever reference is made in the Loan Documents to any action by, consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval of, notice, request or other communication from, or other direction given or action to be undertaken or to be (or not to be) suffered or omitted by the Administrative Agent to any amendment, waiver or other modification of this Agreement to be executed (or not to be executed) by the Administrative Agent or to any election, decision, opinion, acceptance, use of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other exercise of discretion, rights or remedies to be made (or not to be made) by the Administrative Agent, it is understood that in all cases the Administrative Agent shall be acting, giving, withholding, suffering, omitting, making or otherwise undertaking and exercising the same (or shall not be undertaking and exercising the same) as directed in accordance with this Agreement by the Required Lenders. This provision is intended solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and its successors and permitted assigns and is not intended to and will not entitle the other parties hereto to any defense, claim or counterclaim under or in relation to any Loan Document, or confer any rights or benefits on any party hereto.

All such notices and other communications (A) sent by hand or overnight courier service, or mailed by certified or registered mail, shall be deemed to have been given when delivered in person or by courier service and signed for against receipt thereof or three Business Days after dispatch if sent by certified or registered mail, in each case, delivered, sent or mailed (properly addressed) to such party as provided in this Section 9.01 or in accordance with the latest unrevoked direction from such party given in accordance with this Section 9.01 or (B) sent by facsimile shall be deemed to have been given when sent and when receipt has been confirmed by telephone; provided that received notices and other communications sent by telecopier shall be deemed to have been given when sent (except that, if not given during normal business hours for the recipient, such notices or other communications shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient). Notices and other communications delivered through electronic communications to the extent provided in clause (b) below shall be effective as provided in such clause (b).

(b) Notices and other communications to the Lenders hereunder may be delivered or furnished by electronic communications (including e-mail and Internet or Intranet websites) pursuant to procedures set forth herein or otherwise approved by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent or the Borrower Representative (on behalf of the Loan Parties) may, in its discretion, agree to accept notices and other communications to it hereunder by electronic communications pursuant to procedures set forth herein or otherwise approved by it; provided that approval of such procedures may be limited to particular notices or communications. All such notices and other communications (i) sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement); provided that if not given during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient, and (ii) posted to an Internet or Intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (b)(i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor.

(c) Any party hereto may change its address or facsimile number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other parties hereto.

(d) Each Loan Party hereby agrees that it will provide to the Administrative Agent all information, documents and other materials that it is obligated to furnish to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders pursuant to this Agreement and any other Loan Document, including all notices, requests, financial statements, financial and other reports, certificates and other information materials (the "Communications"), by transmitting them in an electronic medium in a format reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent at such e-mail address(es) provided to the Borrower Representative from time to time or in such other form as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably require. In addition, each Loan Party agrees to continue to provide the Communications to the Administrative Agent in the manner specified in this Agreement or any other Loan Document or in such other form as the Administrative Agent shall require. Each Loan Party further agrees that the Administrative Agent may make the Communications available to the Lenders by posting the Communications on Intralinks, SyndTrak or a substantially similar secure electronic transmission system (the “Platform”). The Platform is provided “as is” and “as available”. The Administrative Agent does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the Communications, of the adequacy of the Platform and expressly disclaims liability for errors or omissions in any Communications for which the Administrative Agent has appropriately been instructed to transmit. No warranty of any kind, express, implied, or statutory, including, without limitation, any warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement of third-party rights of freedom from viruses or other code defects, is made by the Administrative Agent in connection with the Communications or the Platform. In no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties have any liability to the Loan Parties, any Lender or any other Person for damages of any kind, including direct or indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, losses or expenses (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of any Loan Party’s or the Administrative Agent’s transmission of communications, through the Internet, except to the extent the liability of such Person is found in a final, non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the Administrative Agent’s or any of its Related Parties’ bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct or a material breach by the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties of the Loan Documents.

Section 9.02 Waivers; Amendments.

(a) No failure or delay by the Administrative Agent, any Issuing Bank or any Lender in exercising any right or power hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders hereunder and under any other Loan Document are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of any Loan Document or consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by this Section 9.02(b), and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to the extent permitted by law, the making of a Loan or issuance of a Letter of Credit shall not be construed as a waiver of any Default or Event of Default, regardless of whether the Administrative Agent, any Lender or Issuing Bank may have had notice or knowledge of such Default or Event of Default at the time.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified, except (i) in the case of this Agreement, pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Borrowers and the Required Lenders (or the Administrative Agent with the consent of the Required Lenders) (with a fully executed copy delivered to the Administrative Agent, if they are not signatory thereto), (ii) in the case of any other Loan Document (other than any such waiver, amendment or modification to effectuate any modification thereto expressly contemplated by the terms of such other Loan Documents), pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Administrative Agent and the Loan Party or Loan Parties that are parties thereto, with the consent of the Required Lenders or (iii) Section 5.14 may be waived or modified with the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent acting in its sole discretion; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing:

(i) solely with the consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby (but without the necessity of obtaining the consent of the Required Lenders), any such agreement may:

(A) increase any of the Commitments of such Lender; it being understood that no amendment, modification or waiver of, or consent to departure from, any condition precedent, representation, warranty, covenant, Default, Event of Default, mandatory prepayment or mandatory reduction of the Commitments shall constitute an increase of any Commitment of such Lender;

(B) reduce or forgive the principal amount of any Loan or any unreimbursed LC Disbursement;

(C) extend the scheduled final maturity of the Loans, unreimbursed LC Disbursement or postpone the date of any scheduled payment of interest, fees or LC Disbursement payable hereunder (in each case, other than extensions for administrative reasons agreed by the Administrative Agent);

(D) reduce the rate of interest (other than to waive any obligations of the Borrowers to pay interest at the default rate of interest under Section 2.12(c)) or the amount of any fees owed to such Lender; it being understood that any change in any ratio used in the calculation of any interest or fees due hereunder (including any component definition thereof) shall not constitute a reduction in any rate of interest or fees hereunder;

(E) extend the expiry date of any of such Lender's Commitments; it being understood that no amendment, modification or waiver of, or consent to departure from, any condition precedent, representation, warranty, covenant, Default, Event of Default, mandatory prepayment or mandatory reduction of any Commitments shall constitute an extension of any Commitment of any Lender; or

(F) change any of the provisions of this Section 9.02(b);

(G) change the Agreed Currency of any Loan; and

(ii) no such agreement shall:

(A) change the definitions of "Required Lenders" to reduce any of the voting percentages required to waive, amend or modify any rights thereunder or make any determination or grant any consent thereunder, without the prior written consent of each Lender (in the case of the definition of "Required Lenders");

(B) (x) release all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Lien granted pursuant to the Loan Documents (except as otherwise permitted herein or in the other Loan Documents, including pursuant to Article 8 or Section 10.12 hereof), without the prior written consent of each Lender or (y) contractually subordinate the Obligations hereunder or Liens on all or substantially all of the Collateral for the Obligations to any other Indebtedness or Lien without the consent of all Lenders; or

(C) release all or substantially all of the value of the Guarantees under the Loan Guaranty (except as otherwise permitted herein or in the other Loan Documents, including pursuant to Section 10.12 hereof), without the prior written consent of each Lender; or provided, further, that no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights, protections, immunities or duties of the Administrative Agent hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent may also amend the Commitment Schedule to reflect assignments entered into pursuant to Section 9.05 and Commitment reductions or terminations pursuant to Section 2.08. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder, except amendments, waivers and consents requiring the consent of all Lenders or all affected Lenders pursuant to Section 9.02(b)(i)(A) and (B) above which affects such Defaulting Lender disproportionately and adversely relative to other affected Lenders.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 9.02 or any other provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (i) guarantees, collateral security agreements, pledge agreements and related documents (if any) executed by the Loan Parties in connection with this Agreement may be in a form reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent and may be amended, supplemented and/or waived with the consent of the Administrative Agent at the request of the Borrower Representative without the input or need to obtain the consent of any other Lenders to (x) comply with Requirements of Law or advice of local counsel, (y) cure ambiguities, omissions or defects or (z) to cause such guarantees, collateral security agreements, pledge agreement or other document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and (ii) if the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative have jointly identified any ambiguity, mistake, defect, inconsistency, obvious error or any error or omission of a technical nature or any necessary or desirable technical change, in each case, in any provision of the Loan Documents, then the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative shall be permitted to amend such provision.

Section 9.03 Expenses; Indemnity; Damage Waiver.

(a) The Borrowers shall pay (i) all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lead Arranger, the Administrative Agent and their respective Affiliates (but limited, in the case of legal fees and expenses, to the actual reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, disbursements and other charges of (w) one firm of outside counsel to the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates, (x) one firm of outside counsel appointed by the Administrative Agent to all other such Persons taken as a whole (y) one local counsel to the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates in the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and (z) if necessary, one local counsel in any relevant material jurisdiction to such Persons, taken as a whole) in connection with the distribution (including via the Internet or through a service such as Intralinks or SyndTrak) of the Revolving Facility, the preparation, execution, delivery and administration of the Loan Documents and related documentation, including in connection with any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions of any Loan Documents (whether or not the transactions contemplated thereby shall be consummated, but only to the extent such amendments, modifications or waivers were requested by the Borrowers to be prepared) and (ii) all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Lead Arranger, the Issuing Banks or the Lenders and each of their respective Affiliates (but limited, in the case of legal fees and expenses, to the actual reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, disbursements and other charges of (x) one firm of outside counsel to the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates and (y) solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional counsel to all affected Persons, taken as a whole, and, if reasonably necessary, one local counsel in any relevant material jurisdiction to all such Persons, taken as a whole and, solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional local counsel to all affected Persons, taken as a whole) in connection with the enforcement, collection or protection of its rights in connection with the Loan Documents, including its rights under this Section 9.03, or in connection with the Loans made and/or Letters of Credit issued hereunder. Other than to the extent required to be paid on the Closing Date, all amounts due under this Section 9.03(a) shall be payable by the Borrowers within 5 Business Days after receipt of an invoice relating thereto, setting forth such expenses in reasonable detail and together with backup documentation supporting such reimbursement requests (or as otherwise agreed by the Borrower Representative); provided that, in each case, the payment of such fees and expenses shall be subject to the review and objection procedures set forth in the Financing Order.

(b) The Borrowers shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Issuing Bank and each Lender, and each Related Party of any of the foregoing Persons (each such Person being called an “Indemnitee”) against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses (but limited, in the case of legal fees and expenses, to the actual reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, disbursements and other charges of (x) one counsel to the Administrative Agent and its Related Parties, (y) one counsel to all other Indemnities taken as a whole and (z) solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional counsel to all affected Indemnities, taken as a whole, and, if reasonably necessary, one local counsel in any relevant material jurisdiction to all Indemnities, taken as a whole and, solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional local counsel to all affected Indemnities, taken as a whole), incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of the Loan Documents or any agreement or instrument contemplated thereby, the performance by the parties hereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of the Transactions or any other transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, (ii) the use or the proposed use of the proceeds of the Loans, (iii) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto (and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by the Borrowers, any other Loan Party or any of their respective Affiliates) or (iv) any actual or alleged presence or Release or threat of Release of Hazardous Materials on, at, to or from any property currently or formerly owned or operated by any Loan Party or any Subsidiary, or any Environmental Liability; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses (A) are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or of any Affiliate of such Indemnitee or to the extent such judgment finds such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses to have resulted from such Indemnitee’s material breach of the Loan Documents (it being understood that with respect to the Administrative Agent, the foregoing proviso shall not apply to clause (iv) hereof) or (B) arise out of any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding brought by such Indemnitee (or its Related Parties) against another Indemnitee (or its Related Parties) (other than any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding brought by or against the Administrative Agent or the Lead Arranger, acting in its capacity as the Administrative Agent or as an Arranger, as applicable) that does not involve any act or omission of Holdings, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Each Indemnitee shall be obligated to refund or return any and all amounts paid by the Borrowers pursuant to this Section 9.03(b) to such Indemnitee for any fees, expenses, or damages to the extent such Indemnitee is not entitled to payment of such amounts in accordance with the terms hereof. All amounts due under this Section 9.03(b) shall be payable by the Borrowers within five (5) Business Days (x) after written demand thereof, in the case of any indemnification obligations and (y) in the case of reimbursement of costs and expenses, after receipt of an invoice relating thereto, setting forth such expenses in reasonable detail and together with backup documentation supporting such reimbursement requests. This Section 9.03(b) shall not apply with respect to any Taxes (which shall be governed by Section 2.16), other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims or damages arising from any non-Tax claim.

Section 9.04 Waiver of Claim. To the extent permitted by applicable law, no party to this Agreement shall assert, and each hereby waives, any claim against any other party hereto or any Related Party thereof, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the Transactions, any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use of the proceeds thereof, except, in the case of a claim by any Indemnitee against a Borrower, to the extent such damages would otherwise be subject to indemnification pursuant to the terms of Section 9.03.

Section 9.05 Successors and Assigns.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that (i) except as provided under Section 6.07, the Borrowers may not assign or otherwise transfer any of their rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of each Lender and the Administrative Agent (such consent of the Administrative Agent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrowers without such consent shall be null and void) and (ii) no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 9.05 (any attempted assignment or transfer not complying with the terms of this Section 9.05 shall be null and void). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants (to the extent provided in paragraph (c) of this Section 9.05) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent, the Lead Arranger, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) (i) Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (b)(ii) below, any Lender may assign to one or more Eligible Assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement with the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of:

(A) the Administrative Agent; provided, that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required for an assignment to another Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund, subject to the provisions governing assignments thereto;

(B) any Issuing Bank in the case of the Revolving Credit Commitments or such Lender's obligations in respect of its LC Exposure; and

(C) the Swingline Lender; provided, that no consent of the Swingline Lender shall be required for an assignment to another Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund, subject to the provisions governing assignments thereto.

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of an assignment to another Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Loans or commitments of any Class, the principal amount of Loans or commitments of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent and determined on an aggregate basis in the event of concurrent assignments to Related Funds or by Related Funds (as defined below)) shall not be less than $5,000,000 in the case of the Revolving Facility, unless the Administrative Agent otherwise consent;

(B) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement;

(C) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption via an electronic settlement system acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if previously agreed with the Administrative Agent, manually), and shall pay to the Administrative Agent a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (which fee may be waived or reduced in the sole discretion of the Administrative Agent) in connection with all assignments other than an assignment by a Lender to one or more of its Affiliates; and

(D) the Eligible Assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver on or prior to the effective date of such assignment, to the Administrative Agent (1) an Administrative Questionnaire, (2) any IRS forms required under Section 2.16, and (3) all documentation and other information required by regulatory authorities under applicable “know your customer” and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including, without limitation, the USA PATRIOT Act and the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada).

(iii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to paragraph (b)(iv) of this Section 9.05, from and after the effective recordation specified in each Assignment and Assumption the Eligible Assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption covering all of the assigning Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.14, 2.15, 2.16 and 9.03 with respect to facts and circumstances occurring on or prior to the effective date of such assignment and subject to its obligations thereunder and under Section 9.13). If any such assignment by a Lender holding a Promissory Note hereunder occurs after the issuance of any Promissory Note hereunder to such Lender, the assigning Lender shall, upon the effectiveness of such assignment or as promptly thereafter as practicable, surrender such Promissory Note to the Borrower Representative for cancellation, and thereupon the Borrower Representative shall issue and deliver a new Promissory Note(s), if so requested by the assignee and/or assigning Lender, to such assignee and/or to such assigning Lender, with appropriate insertions, to reflect the new commitments and/or outstanding Loans of the assignee and/or the assigning Lender. Each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Loans or the Commitments assigned (it being understood that assignments of separate Classes shall not be required to be made on a pro rata basis).

(iv) The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, shall maintain at one of its offices a copy of each Assignment and Assumption delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders and their respective successors and assigns, and the commitment of, and principal amount of and interest on the Loans and LC Disbursements owing to, each Lender or Issuing Bank pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the “Register”). Failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation, shall not affect the amount of the Borrowers’ obligations in respect of such Loans and LC Disbursements. The entries in the Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, and the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrowers and, with respect to itself, any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior written notice, provided that the information contained in the Register which is shared with each Lender (other than the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates) shall be limited to the entries with respect to such Lender including the Commitment of, or principal amount of and stated interest on the Loans owing to such Lender. The intention of this Section 9.05(b)(iv) is that the Loans be treated as registered for purposes of Section 5f.103-1(c) and proposed Section 1.163-5(b) of the United States Treasury Regulations and Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code, and this Section 9.05(b)(iv) shall be construed accordingly.

(v) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Assumption executed by an assigning Lender and an Eligible Assignee, the Eligible Assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire and tax certifications required by Section 9.05(b)(ii)(D)(2) (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in paragraph (b) of this Section 9.05, if applicable, and any written consent to such assignment required by paragraph (b) of this Section 9.05, the Administrative Agent shall promptly accept such Assignment and Assumption and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this paragraph.

(vi) By executing and delivering an Assignment and Assumption, the assigning Lender thereunder and the Eligible Assignee thereunder shall be deemed to confirm and agree with each other and the other parties hereto as follows: (A) such assigning Lender warrants that it is the legal and beneficial owner of the interest being assigned thereby free and clear of any adverse claim and that the amount of its commitments, and the outstanding balances of its Loans, in each case without giving effect to assignments thereof which have not become effective, are as set forth in such Assignment and Assumption; (B) except as set forth in clause (A) above, such assigning Lender makes no representation or warranty and assumes no responsibility with respect to any statements, warranties or representations made in or in connection with this Agreement, or the execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto, or the financial condition of the Borrowers or any Subsidiary or the performance or observance by the Borrowers or any Subsidiary of any of its obligations under this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto; (C) such assignee represents and warrants that it is an Eligible Assignee, legally authorized to enter into such Assignment and Assumption; (D) such assignee confirms that it has received a copy of this Agreement, together with copies of the most recent financial statements referred to in Section 3.04(a) or delivered pursuant to Section 5.01(a) or (b), as applicable, and such other documents and information as it has deemed appropriate to make its own credit analysis and decision to enter into such Assignment and Assumption; (E) such assignee will independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, such assigning Lender or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement; (F) such assignee appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such action as agent on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement as are delegated to the Administrative Agent, by the terms hereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto; and (G) such assignee agrees that it will perform in accordance with their terms all the obligations which by the terms of this Agreement are required to be performed by it as a Lender.

(c) (i) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks, the Swingline Lender or any other Lender, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (other than to any natural person (or a holding company, investment vehicle or trust for, or owned and operated for the primary benefit of, a natural person), the Investors, Holdings, the Borrowers and their Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates) (a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its commitments and the Loans owing to it); provided that (A) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (C) the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver described in (x) clause (A) to the first proviso to Section 9.02(i)(b) that directly and adversely affects the Loans or commitments in which such Participant has an interest and (y) clauses (i)(B)(1), (2) or (3) to the first proviso to Section 9.02(b). Subject to paragraph (c)(ii) of this Section 9.05, the Borrowers agree that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.14, 2.15 and 2.16 (subject to the limitations and requirements of such Sections (it being understood and agreed that any documentation required to be delivered pursuant to Section 2.16(f) shall be delivered solely to the applicable participating Lender)) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 9.05, provided that such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.18 as though it were a Lender. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 9.09 as though it were a Lender; provided that such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.17(c) as though it were a Lender.

(ii) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant.

Each Lender that sells a participation or grants any rights to an SPC shall, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, maintain at one of its offices a copy of a register complying with the requirements of Sections 163(f), 871(h) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations issued thereunder for the recordation of the names and addresses of each Participant and each SPC (other than an SPC that is treated as a disregarded entity of its Granting Lender for U.S. federal income tax purposes) that has exercised its option pursuant to Section 9.05(e) and their respective successors and assigns, and the principal amount of and interest on each such Participant's and SPC's interest in such Lender's rights and/or obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or SPC or any information relating to any Participant's or SPC's interest in any Commitment, Loan or any other obligation under any Loan Document) to any Person except (i) to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such Commitment, Loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) or proposed Section 1.163-5(b) (or any amended or successor version) of the Treasury Regulations and Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code, or is otherwise required thereunder or (ii) if compelled by order of the court or other legal process. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and each Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation or SPC interest for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent (in its capacity as Administrative Agent) shall have no responsibility for maintaining a Participant Register.

(d) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (other than to any natural person (or a holding company, investment vehicle or trust for, or owned and operated for the primary benefit of, a natural person)) to secure obligations of such Lender, including without limitation any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank or other central bank having jurisdiction over such Lender, and this Section 9.05 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle (an "SPC"), identified as such in writing from time SPC to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative and as recorded in the Participant Register, the option to provide to the Borrowers all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make to the Borrowers pursuant to this Agreement; provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPC to make any Loan and (ii) if an SPC elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to provide all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof. The making of a Loan by an SPC hereunder shall utilize the Revolving Credit Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Each party hereto hereby agrees that (i) neither the grant to any SPC nor the exercise by any SPC of such option shall increase the costs or expenses or otherwise increase or change the obligations of the Borrowers under this Agreement (including its obligations under Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16) and no SPC shall be entitled to any greater amount under Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16 or any other provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document that the Granting Lender would have been entitled to receive, (ii) no SPC shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement (all liability for which shall remain with the Granting Lender) and (iii) the Granting Lender shall for all purposes including approval of any amendment, waiver or other modification of any provision of the Loan Documents, remain the Lender of record hereunder.

Section 9.06 Survival. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by the Loan Parties in the Loan Documents and in the certificates or other instruments delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the other parties hereto and shall survive the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents and the making of any Loans and issuance of any Letter of Credit, regardless of any investigation made by any such other party or on its behalf and notwithstanding that the Administrative Agent, any Issuing Bank or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default or Event of Default or incorrect representation or warranty at the time any credit is extended hereunder, and shall continue in full force and effect until the Termination Date. The provisions of Sections 2.14, 2.15, 2.16, 9.03 and 9.13 and Article 8 shall survive and remain in full force and effect regardless of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of the Loans, the expiration or termination of the Letters of Credit and the Revolving Credit Commitments, the occurrence of the Termination Date or the termination of this Agreement or any provision hereof but in each case, subject to the limitations set forth in this Agreement.

Section 9.07 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Counterparts may be delivered via facsimile, electronic mail (including any electronic signature covered by the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, Uniform Electronic Transactions Act, the Electronic Signatures and Records Act or other applicable law, e.g., www.docusign.com) or other transmission method and any counterpart so delivered shall be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes. This Agreement, the other Loan Documents and the Fee Letters and any separate letter agreements with respect to fees payable to the Administrative Agent or the Lead Arranger constitutes the entire agreement among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 4.01, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by Holdings, the Borrowers, the Subsidiaries of the Borrowers party hereto and the Administrative Agent and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof which, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto, and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by facsimile or by email as a “.pdf” or “.tif” attachment shall be effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement.

Section 9.08 Severability. To the extent permitted by law, any provision of any Loan Document held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions thereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 9.09 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, upon the written consent of the Administrative Agent, each Issuing Bank and each Lender and each of its respective Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other obligations at any time owing by the Administrative Agent, such Issuing Bank or such Lender or Affiliate (including by branches and agencies of the Administrative Agent, such Issuing Bank or such Lender, wherever located) to or for the credit or the account of the Borrowers or any Loan Guarantor against any of and all the Secured Obligations held by the Administrative Agent, such Issuing Bank or such Lender or Affiliate, irrespective of whether or not the Administrative Agent, such Issuing Bank or such Lender or Affiliate shall have made any demand under the Loan Documents and although such obligations may be unmaturing. Any applicable Lender, Issuing Bank or Affiliate shall promptly notify the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent of such set-off or application; provided that any failure to give or any delay in giving such notice shall not affect the validity of any such set-off or application under this Section. The rights of each Lender, each Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent and Affiliate under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) which such Lender, Issuing Bank, Administrative Agent or Affiliate may have.

Section 9.10 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS) AND ANY CLAIM, CONTROVERSY OR DISPUTE ARISING UNDER OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS), WHETHER IN TORT, CONTRACT (AT LAW OR IN EQUITY) OR OTHERWISE, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICT OF LAW PRINCIPLES THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF ANY LAW OTHER THAN THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE THAT SERVICE OF ANY PROCESS, SUMMONS, NOTICE OR DOCUMENT BY REGISTERED MAIL ADDRESSED TO SUCH PERSON SHALL BE EFFECTIVE SERVICE OF PROCESS AGAINST SUCH PERSON FOR ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AGREES THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW. EACH PARTY HERETO AGREES THAT THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT, THE ISSUING BANKS AND THE LENDERS RETAIN THE RIGHT TO BRING PROCEEDINGS AGAINST ANY LOAN PARTY IN THE COURTS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION SOLELY IN CONNECTION WITH THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS UNDER ANY COLLATERAL DOCUMENT.

(c) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY LEGALLY AND EFFECTIVELY DO SO, ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN ANY COURT REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH (b) OF THIS SECTION. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY CLAIM OR DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

(d) TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES PERSONAL SERVICE OF ANY AND ALL PROCESS UPON IT AND AGREES THAT ALL SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS MAY BE MADE BY REGISTERED MAIL (OR ANY SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR FORM OF MAIL) DIRECTED TO IT AT ITS ADDRESS FOR NOTICES AS PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION 9.01. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION TO SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS AND FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING COMMENCED HEREUNDER OR UNDER ANY LOAN DOCUMENT THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS WAS INVALID AND INEFFECTIVE. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW.

EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY SUIT, ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY) DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY. EACH PARTY HERETO (a) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (b) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

Section 9.12 Headings. Article and Section headings and the table of contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and shall not affect the construction of, or be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

Section 9.13 Confidentiality. The Administrative Agent, each Lender and the Lead Arranger agree to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information (as defined below), except that Confidential Information may be disclosed, subject to the acknowledgement and acceptance by the recipient thereof that such Confidential Information is being disseminated on a confidential basis (on substantially the terms set forth in this Section 9.13 or as is otherwise reasonably acceptable to the Borrower Representative), (a) to its and its Affiliates' directors (or equivalent managers), officers, members, partners, stockholders, co-investors, investors or prospective investors in a financing, separate account or commingled fund, legal counsel employees, independent auditors, other professionals, experts and advisors, including accountants, legal counsel and other advisors, or other agents that are retained by such Lender solely to assist with administration of the Loans in the ordinary course of business (collectively, the "Representatives") on a "need to know" basis solely in connection with the transactions completed hereby and who are informed of the confidential nature of such Confidential Information and are or have been advised of their obligation to keep such Confidential Information of this type confidential; provided that such Person shall be responsible for its Affiliates' and their Representatives' compliance with this paragraph, (b) upon the demand or request of any regulatory (including any self-regulatory body, such as the National Association of Insurance Commissioners), governmental or administrative authority that has jurisdiction over such Person or its Affiliates (in which case such Person shall (i) except with respect to any audit or examination conducted by bank accountants or any Governmental Authority exercising examination or regulatory authority, to the extent permitted by law, inform the Borrower Representative promptly in advance thereof and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any such information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment), (c) to the extent compelled by legal, judicial or administrative proceeding, in any such legal, judicial or administrative proceeding or otherwise as required by applicable Requirements of Law, rule or regulation (in which case such Person shall (i) to the extent permitted by law, inform the Borrower Representative promptly in advance thereof and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any such information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment), (d) to any other party to this Agreement, (e) to (i) any Eligible Assignee of or Participant in, or any prospective Eligible Assignee of or Participant in, any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, (ii) any pledgee referred to in Section 9.05 or (iii) any actual or prospective, direct or indirect contractual counterparty (or its advisors) to any Derivative Transaction (including any credit default swap) or similar derivative product relating to the Loan Parties and their obligations, (f) with the prior written consent of the Borrower Representative, (g) for purposes of establishing a "due diligence" defense and (h) to the extent such Confidential Information (X) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section and from a source that is not, to the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as applicable, subject to any confidentiality obligations to any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof, by such Person, its Affiliates or their respective Representatives or (Y) becomes available to the Administrative Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis other than as a result of a breach of this Section from a source other than a Loan Party. For the purposes of this Section, "Confidential Information" means all information received relating to the Loan Parties and/or any of their subsidiaries and their respective businesses or the Transactions (including any information obtained by the Administrative Agent, any Issuing Bank, any Lender or any Arranger, or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives, based on a review of the books and records relating to Holdings and/or any of its subsidiaries and their respective Affiliates from time to time, including prior to the date hereof) other than any such information that is or becomes publicly available to the Administrative Agent, any Arranger, any Issuing Bank or any Lender on a non-confidential basis and from a source that is not, to the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as applicable, subject to any confidentiality obligations to any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof, prior to disclosure by any Loan Party.

Section 9.14 No Fiduciary Duty. Each of the Administrative Agent, the Lead Arranger, each Issuing Bank and each Lender and their respective Affiliates (collectively, solely for purposes of this paragraph, the "Lenders"), may have economic interests that conflict with those of the Loan Parties, their stockholders and/or their respective Affiliates. Each Loan Party agrees that nothing in the Loan Documents or otherwise will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship or fiduciary or other implied duty between any Lender, on the one hand, and any Loan Party, its respective stockholders or its respective Affiliates, on the other. The Loan Parties acknowledge and agree that: (i) the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents (including the exercise of rights and remedies hereunder and thereunder) are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Lenders, on the one hand, and each Loan Party, on the other, and (ii) in connection therewith and with the process leading thereto, (x) no Lender has assumed an advisory or fiduciary responsibility in favor of any Loan Party, its respective stockholders or its respective Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby (or the exercise of rights or remedies with respect thereto) or the process leading thereto (irrespective of whether any Lender has advised, is currently advising or will advise any Loan Party, its respective stockholders or its respective Affiliates on other matters) or any other obligation to any Loan Party except the obligations expressly set forth in the Loan Documents and (y) each Lender is acting solely as principal and not as the Administrative Agent or fiduciary of such Loan Party, its respective management, stockholders, creditors or any other Person. Each

Loan Party acknowledges and agrees that such Loan Party has consulted its own legal and financial advisors to the extent it deemed appropriate and that it is responsible for making its own independent judgment with respect to such transactions and the process leading thereto. Each Loan Party agrees that it will not claim that any Lender owes a fiduciary or similar duty to such Loan Party in connection with such transaction or the process leading thereto.

Section 9.15 Several Obligations; Violation of Law. The respective obligations of the Lenders hereunder are several and not joint and the failure of any Lender to make any Loan or perform any of its obligations hereunder shall not relieve any other Lender from any of its obligations hereunder.

Section 9.16 USA PATRIOT Act. Each Lender that is subject to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada) hereby notifies the Loan Parties that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada), it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Borrowers and each Loan Guarantor, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow such Lender to identify the Loan Parties in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada). This notice is given in accordance with the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada) and is effective as to the Administrative Agent and each Lender. The Borrowers and each Loan Party hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Administrative Agent shall be permitted to share any or all such information provided to the Administrative Agent pursuant to the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada) with the Lenders.

Section 9.17 Force Majeure. In no event shall the Administrative Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Administrative Agent shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

Section 9.18 Disclosure. Each Loan Party and each Lender hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Administrative Agent and/or its Affiliates from time to time may hold investments in, make other loans to or have other relationships with any of the Loan Parties and their respective Affiliates.

Section 9.19 Appointment for Perfection. Each Lender hereby appoints each other Lender and Issuing Bank as its agent for the purpose of perfecting Liens, for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders, in assets which, in accordance with Article 9 of the UCC, the equivalent provisions of the PPSA or any other applicable law can be perfected only by possession. Should any Lender or Issuing Bank (other than the Administrative Agent) obtain possession of any such Collateral, such Lender or Issuing Bank shall notify the Administrative Agent thereof; and, promptly upon the Administrative Agent's request therefor shall deliver such Collateral to the Administrative Agent or otherwise deal with such Collateral in accordance with the Administrative Agent's instructions.

Section 9.20 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the interest rate applicable to any Loan or Letter of Credit, together with all fees, charges and other amounts which are treated as interest on such Loan or Letter of Credit under applicable law (collectively, "Loan Charges"), shall exceed the maximum lawful rate or would result in the receipt of "interest" at a "criminal rate" (as such terms are construed under the Criminal Code (Canada)) (collectively, the “Maximum Rate”) which may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by the Lender or Issuing Bank holding such Loan or Letter of Credit in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable in respect of such Loan or Letter of Credit hereunder, together with all Loan Charges payable in respect thereof, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate and, to the extent lawful, the interest and Loan Charges that would have been payable in respect of such Loan or Letter of Credit but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section shall be cumulated and the interest and Loan Charges payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or Letters of Credit or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such cumulated amount, together with interest thereon at the Federal Funds Rate to the date of repayment, shall have been received by such Lender or Issuing Bank.

Section 9.21 Erroneous Payments.

(a) Each Lender hereby agrees that (i) if the Administrative Agent notifies such Lender that the Administrative Agent has determined in its sole discretion that any funds received by such Lender from the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates, in each case in connection with the Loan Documents, were erroneously or mistakenly transmitted to, or otherwise erroneously or mistakenly received by, such Lender (whether or not known to such Lender) (whether as a payment, prepayment or repayment of principal, interest, fees or otherwise; individually and collectively, an “Erroneous Payment”) and demands the return of such Erroneous Payment (or a portion thereof), such Lender shall promptly, but in no event later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, return to the Administrative Agent the amount of any such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) as to which such a demand was made, in same day funds (in the currency so received), together with interest thereon in respect of each day from and including the date such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) was received by such Lender to the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent in same day funds at the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation from time to time in effect and (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable law, such Lender shall not assert any right or claim to the Erroneous Payment, and hereby waives any claim, counterclaim, defense or right of set-off or recoupment with respect to any demand, claim or counterclaim by the Administrative Agent for the return of any Erroneous Payments received, including, without limitation, waiver of any defense based on “discharge for value” or any similar theory or doctrine. A notice of the Administrative Agent to any Lender under this clause (a) shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

(b) Without limiting immediately preceding clause (a), each Lender hereby further agrees that if it receives a payment from the Administrative Agent (or any of its Affiliates) (x) that is in a different amount than, or on a different date from, that specified in a notice of payment sent by the Administrative Agent, (y) that was not preceded or accompanied by notice of payment, or (z) that such Lender otherwise becomes aware was transmitted, or received, in error or by mistake (in whole or in part), then in each case, if an error has been made each such Lender is deemed to have knowledge of such error at the time of receipt of such Erroneous Payment, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, such Lender shall not assert any right or claim to the Erroneous Payment, and hereby waives, any claim, counterclaim, defense or right of set-off or recoupment with respect to any demand, claim or counterclaim by the Administrative Agent for the return of any Erroneous Payments received, including without limitation waiver of any defense based on “discharge for value” or any similar theory or doctrine. Each Lender agrees that, in each such case, it shall promptly (and, in all events, within one Business Day of its knowledge (or deemed knowledge) of such error) notify the Administrative Agent of such occurrence and, upon demand from the Administrative Agent, it shall promptly, but in all events no later than one Business Day thereafter, return to the Administrative Agent the amount of any such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) as to which such a demand was made in same day funds (in the currency so received), together with interest thereon in respect of each day from and including the date such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) was received by such Lender to the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent in same day funds at the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation from time to time in effect.

(c) The parties hereto agree that an Erroneous Payment shall not pay, prepay, repay, discharge or otherwise satisfy any Obligations owed by the Borrowers or any other Loan Party, except, in each case, to the extent such Erroneous Payment is, and solely with respect to the amount of such Erroneous Payment that is, comprised of funds received by the Administrative Agent or its Affiliates from or on behalf of the Borrowers or any other Loan Party or from the proceeds of Collateral.

(d) In addition to any rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent provided by law, Administrative Agent shall have the right, without prior notice to any Lender, any such notice being expressly waived by such Lender to the extent permitted by applicable law, with respect to any Erroneous Payment for which a demand has been made in accordance with this Section 9.21 and which has not been returned to the Administrative Agent, to set off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final but excluding trust accounts), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliate, branch or agency thereof to or for the credit or the account of such Lender. Administrative Agent agrees promptly to notify the Lender after any such setoff and application made by Administrative Agent; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

(e) Each party's obligations under this Section 9.21 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent, the termination of the Commitments or the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all Obligations (or any portion thereof) under any Loan Document.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, no Loan Party nor any of their respective Affiliates shall have any additional obligations or liabilities directly or indirectly arising out of this Section 9.21 in respect of any Erroneous Payment (including the repayment or recovery of any amounts) and, for the avoidance of doubt, it is understood and agreed that if a Loan Party has paid principal, interest, fees or any other amounts owed pursuant to a Loan Document, nothing in this Section 9.21 shall require any such Loan Party to pay additional amounts that are duplicative of such previously paid amounts.

Section 9.22 Conflicts. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in any other Loan Document, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Agreement and any other Loan Document, the terms of this Agreement shall govern and control.

Section 9.23 Acknowledgement and Consent to Bail-In of Affected Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Loan Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any such parties, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any Affected Financial Institution arising under any Loan Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of the applicable Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by the applicable Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any party hereto that is an Affected Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-In Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

- (i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;
- (ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such Affected Financial Institution, its parent undertaking, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; or
- (iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of the applicable Resolution Authority.

Section 9.24 Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Liens and security interests granted under the Collateral Documents to the Administrative Agent in any Collateral and the exercise of any right or remedy by the Administrative Agent with respect to any Collateral thereunder are subject to the provisions of the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement with respect to such matters, the terms of the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control.

Section 9.25 Borrower Representative. Each Borrower hereby irrevocably appoints Bamboo Purchaser, Inc. as the borrowing agent and attorney-in-fact for all Borrowers (the “Borrower Representative”) which appointment shall remain in full force and effect unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received prior written notice signed by each Borrower that such appointment has been revoked and that another Borrower has been appointed Borrower Representative. Each Borrower hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Borrower Representative (a) to provide the Administrative Agent with all notices with respect to Loans and Letters of Credit obtained for the benefit of any Borrower and all other notices and instructions under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (and any notice or instruction provided by the Borrower Representative shall be deemed to be given by Borrowers hereunder and shall bind each Borrower), (b) to receive notices and instructions from the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders (and any notice or instruction provided by the Administrative Agent, any Issuing Bank and any Lender to the Borrower Representative in accordance with the terms hereof shall be deemed to have been given to each Borrower), and (c) to take such action as the Borrower Representative deems appropriate on its behalf to obtain Loans and Letters of Credit and to exercise such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto to carry out the purposes of this Agreement. It is understood that the handling of the Loans, the Letters of Credit and Collateral in a combined fashion, as more fully set forth herein, is done solely as an accommodation to Borrowers in order to utilize the collective borrowing powers of Borrowers in the most efficient and economical manner and at their request, and that the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders shall not incur liability to any Borrower as a result hereof. Each Borrower expects to derive benefit, directly or indirectly, from the handling of the Loans, the Letters of Credit and the Collateral in a combined fashion since the successful operation of each Borrower is dependent on the continued successful performance of the integrated group. To induce the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders to do so, and in consideration thereof, each Borrower hereby jointly and severally agrees to indemnify each Lender and hold each Lender harmless against any and all liability, expense, loss or claim of damage or injury, made against the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders by any Borrower or by any third party whosoever, arising from or incurred by reason of (i) the handling of the Collateral of Borrowers as herein provided, or (ii) the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders relying on any instructions of the Borrower Representative, except that Borrowers will have no liability to the relevant person under this Section 9.25 with respect to any liability that has been finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted solely from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such person, as the case may be.

Section 9.26 Banking Services. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, in connection with any distribution of payments or proceeds of Collateral, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to assume no amounts are due or owing to any provider of Banking Services unless such provider of Banking Services has provided a written certification (setting forth a reasonably detailed calculation) to Administrative Agent as to the amounts that are due and owing to it and such written certification is received by the Administrative Agent a reasonable period of time prior to the making of such distribution. The Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to calculate the amount due and payable with respect to any Banking Services, but may rely upon the written certification of the amount due and payable from the applicable provider of Banking Services. In the absence of an updated certification, Administrative Agent shall be entitled to assume that the amount due and payable to the applicable provider of Banking Services is the amount last certified to the Administrative Agent by such provider of Banking Services as being due and payable (less any distributions made to such provider of Banking Services on account thereof).

Section 9.27 Judgment Currency.

(a) If, for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due to the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank or any Lender (herein a “Recipient”) in any currency (the “Original Judgment Currency”) into another currency (the “Other Currency”), the parties agree, to the fullest extent that they may effectively do so, that the rate of exchange used shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, such Recipient could purchase the Original Currency with the Other Currency on the Business Day preceding the day on which final judgment is given or, if permitted by applicable law, on the day on which the judgment is paid or satisfied.

(b) The obligations of the Loan Parties in respect of any sum due in the Original Currency from it to any Recipient under any of the Loan Documents shall, notwithstanding any judgment in any Other Currency, be discharged only to the extent that on the Business Day following receipt by the Recipient of any sum adjudged to be so due in the Other Currency, the Recipient may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase the Original Currency with such Other Currency. If the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Recipient in the Original Currency, the Loan Parties agree, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding the judgment, to indemnify the Recipient, against any loss, and, if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased exceeds the sum originally due to the Recipient in the Original Currency, the Recipient shall remit such excess to the Loan Parties.

ARTICLE 10 LOAN GUARANTY

Section 10.01 Guaranty. Each Loan Guarantor hereby agrees that it is jointly and severally liable for, and, as primary obligor and not merely as surety, and absolutely and unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to the Administrative Agent for the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties the full and prompt payment upon the failure of the Borrowers to do so, when and as the same shall become due, whether at stated maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise, and at all times thereafter, of the Secured Obligations (collectively, the “Guaranteed Obligations”). Each Loan Guarantor further agrees that the Guaranteed Obligations may be extended or renewed in whole or in part without notice to or further assent from it, and that it remains bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any such extension or renewal. If any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations becomes due and payable hereunder, each Loan Guarantor, unconditionally and irrevocably, promises to pay such Guaranteed Obligations to the Administrative Agent and/or the other Secured Parties, on demand, together with any and all expenses which may be incurred by the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties in collecting any of the Guaranteed Obligations, to the extent reimbursable in accordance with Section 9.03. Each Loan Guarantor unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the payment of any and all of the Guaranteed Obligations to the Secured Parties whether or not due or payable by the Borrowers upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, and in such event, irrevocably and unconditionally promises to pay such indebtedness to the Secured Parties, on demand, in the applicable Agreed Currency.

Each Qualified ECP Guarantor hereby jointly and severally absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably undertakes to provide such funds or other support as may be needed from time to time by each other Loan Party to honor all of its obligations under this Loan Guaranty in respect of Hedging Obligations (provided, however, that each Qualified ECP Guarantor shall only be liable under this Section 10.01 for the maximum amount of such liability that can be hereby incurred without rendering its obligations under this Section 10.01, or otherwise under this Loan Guaranty, as it relates to such other Loan Party, voidable under applicable law relating to fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer, and not for any greater amount). The obligations of each Qualified ECP Guarantor under this Section 10.01 shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of this Loan Guaranty in accordance with Section 10.12 hereof. Each Qualified ECP Guarantor intends that this Section 10.01 constitute, and this Section 10.01 shall be deemed to constitute, a “keepwell, support, or other agreement” for the benefit of each other Loan Party for all purposes of Section 1a(18)(A)(v)(II) of the Commodity Exchange Act.

Section 10.02 Guaranty of Payment. This Loan Guaranty is a guaranty of payment and not of collection. Each Loan Guarantor waives any right to require the Administrative Agent or any Lender to sue the Borrowers, any other Loan Guarantor, any other guarantor, or any other Person obligated for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations (each, an “Obligated Party”), or otherwise to enforce its rights in respect of any Collateral securing all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations. The Administrative Agent may enforce this Loan Guaranty upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default.

Section 10.03 No Discharge or Diminishment of Loan Guaranty.

(a) Except as otherwise provided for herein, the obligations of each Loan Guarantor hereunder are unconditional, irrevocable and absolute and not subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason (other than as set forth in Section 10.12), including: (i) any claim of waiver, release, extension, renewal, settlement, surrender, alteration, or compromise of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, by operation of law or otherwise; (ii) any change in the corporate existence, structure or ownership of the Borrowers or any other Guarantor or of other Person liable for any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (iii) any insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting any Obligated Party, or their assets or any resulting release or discharge of any obligation of any Obligated Party; (iv) the existence of any claim, setoff or other rights which any Loan Guarantor may have at any time against any Obligated Party, the Administrative Agent, any Lender or any other Person, whether in connection herewith or in any unrelated transactions; (v) any direction as to application of payments by the Borrowers or by any other party; (vi) any other continuing or other guaranty, undertaking or maximum liability of a Guarantor or of any other party as to the Guaranteed Obligations; (vii) any payment on or in reduction of any such other guaranty or undertaking; (viii) any dissolution, termination or increase, decrease or change in personnel by the Borrowers; or (ix) any payment made to any Secured Party on the Guaranteed Obligations which any such Secured Party repays to the Borrowers pursuant to court order in any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, moratorium or other debtor relief proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, and each Loan Guarantor waives any right to the deferral or modification of its obligations hereunder by reason of any such proceeding.

(b) Except for termination of a Loan Guarantor’s obligations hereunder or as expressly permitted by Section 10.12, the obligations of each Loan Guarantor hereunder are not subject to any defense or setoff, counterclaim, recoupment, or termination whatsoever by reason of the invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise, or any provision of applicable law or regulation purporting to prohibit payment by any Obligated Party, of the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof.

(c) Further, the obligations of any Loan Guarantor hereunder are not discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by: (i) the failure of the Administrative Agent or any Secured Party to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any remedy with respect to all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations; (ii) any waiver or modification of or supplement to any provision of any agreement relating to the Guaranteed Obligations; (iii) any release, non-perfection, or invalidity of any indirect or direct security for the obligations of the Borrowers for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or any obligations of any other guarantor or of other Person liable for any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (iv) any action or failure to act by the Administrative Agent or any Secured Party with respect to any Collateral securing any part of the Guaranteed Obligations; or (v) any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the payment or performance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, or any other circumstance, act, omission or delay that might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of such Loan Guarantor or that would otherwise operate as a discharge of any Loan Guarantor as a matter of law or equity (other than as set forth in Section 10.12).

Section 10.04 Defenses Waived. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, and except for termination of a Loan Guarantor's obligations hereunder or as expressly permitted by Section 10.12, each Loan Guarantor hereby waives any defense based on or arising out of any defense of the Borrowers or any other Loan Guarantor or arising out of the disability of any Borrower or any other Loan Guarantor or any other party or the unenforceability of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof from any cause, or the cessation from any cause of the liability of the Borrowers or any other Loan Guarantor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Loan Guarantor irrevocably waives acceptance hereof, presentment, demand, protest and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any notice not provided for herein, including notices of nonperformance, notices of protest, notices of dishonor, notices of acceptance of this Loan Guaranty, and notices of the existence, creation or incurring of new or additional Guaranteed Obligations, as well as any requirement that at any time any action be taken by any Person against any Obligated Party, or any other Person, including any right (except as shall be required by applicable statute and cannot be waived) to require any Secured Party to (i) proceed against any Borrower, any other guarantor or any other party, (ii) proceed against or exhaust any security held from any Borrower, any other Loan Guarantor or any other party or (iii) pursue any other remedy in any Secured Party's power whatsoever. The Administrative Agent may, at its election, foreclose on any Collateral held by it by one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, whether or not every aspect of any such sale is commercially reasonable (to the extent permitted by applicable law), accept an assignment of any such Collateral in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise act or fail to act with respect to any Collateral securing all or a part of the Guaranteed Obligations, and the Administrative Agent may, at its election, compromise or adjust any part of the Guaranteed Obligations, make any other accommodation with any Obligated Party or exercise any other right or remedy available to it against any Obligated Party, or any security, without affecting or impairing in any way the liability of such Loan Guarantor under this Loan Guaranty except as otherwise provided in Section 10.12. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Loan Guarantor waives any defense arising out of any such election even though that election may operate, pursuant to applicable law, to impair or extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of any Loan Guarantor against any Obligated Party or any security.

Section 10.05 Authorization. The Loan Guarantors authorize the Secured Parties without notice or demand (except as shall be required by applicable statute and cannot be waived), and without affecting or impairing its liability hereunder (except as set forth in Section 10.12), from time to time to:

(a) change the manner, place or terms of payment of, and/or change or extend the time of payment of, renew, increase, accelerate or alter, any of the Guaranteed Obligations (including any increase or decrease in the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest or fees thereon), any security therefor, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof, and this Loan Guaranty shall apply to the Guaranteed Obligations as so changed, extended, renewed or altered;

(b) take and hold security for the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and sell, exchange, release, impair, surrender, realize upon or otherwise deal with in any manner and in any order any property by whomsoever at any time pledged or mortgaged to secure, or howsoever securing, the Guaranteed Obligations or any liabilities (including any of those hereunder) incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof or hereof, and/or any offset there against;

(c) exercise or refrain from exercising any rights against the Borrowers, any other Loan Party or others or otherwise act or refrain from acting;

(d) release or substitute any one or more endorsers, guarantors, the Borrowers, other Loan Parties or other obligors;

(e) settle or compromise any of the Guaranteed Obligations, any security therefor or any liability (including any of those hereunder) incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof or hereof, and may subordinate the payment of all or any part thereof to the payment of any liability (whether due or not) of the Borrowers to its creditors other than the Secured Parties;

(f) apply any sums by whomsoever paid or howsoever realized to any liability or liabilities of the Borrowers to the Secured Parties regardless of what liability or liabilities of the Borrowers remain unpaid;

(g) consent to or waive any breach of, or any act, omission or default under, this Agreement, any other Loan Document, any Hedge Agreement or any of the instruments or agreements referred to herein or therein, or otherwise amend, modify or supplement this Agreement, any other Loan Document, any Hedge Agreement or any of such other instruments or agreements; and/or

(h) take any other action which would, under otherwise applicable principles of common law, give rise to a legal or equitable discharge of the Loan Guarantors from their respective liabilities under this Loan Guaranty.

Section 10.06 Rights of Subrogation. No Loan Guarantor will assert any right, claim or cause of action, including a claim of subrogation, contribution or indemnification that it has against any Loan Party in respect of this Loan Guaranty until the occurrence of the Termination Date.

Section 10.07 Reinstatement; Stay of Acceleration. If at any time any payment of any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, or reorganization of any Borrower or otherwise, each Loan Guarantor's obligations under this Loan Guaranty with respect to that payment shall be reinstated at such time as though the payment had not been made. If acceleration of the time for payment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations is stayed upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of any Borrower, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration under the terms of any agreement relating to the Guaranteed Obligations shall nonetheless be payable by the other Loan Guarantors forthwith on demand by the Administrative Agent.

Section 10.08 Information. Each Loan Guarantor assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the Borrowers' financial condition and assets, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks that each Loan Guarantor assumes and incurs under this Loan Guaranty, and agrees that none of the Administrative Agent, any Lender or any other Secured Party shall have any duty to advise any Loan Guarantor of information known to it regarding those circumstances or risks.

Section 10.09 Maximum Liability. It is the desire and intent of the Loan Guarantors and the Secured Parties that this Loan Guaranty shall be enforced against the Loan Guarantors to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. The provisions of this Loan Guaranty are severable, and in any action or proceeding involving any state, federal or provincial corporate law, or any state, federal or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other law affecting the rights of creditors generally, if the obligations of any Loan Guarantor under this Loan Guaranty would otherwise be held or determined to be avoidable, invalid or unenforceable on account of the amount of such Loan Guarantor's liability under this Loan Guaranty, then, notwithstanding any other provision of this Loan Guaranty to the contrary, the amount of such liability shall, without any further action by the Loan Guarantors or the Secured Parties, be automatically limited and reduced to the highest amount that is valid and enforceable as determined in such action or proceeding (such highest amount determined hereunder being the relevant Loan Guarantor's "Maximum Liability"). Each Loan Guarantor agrees that the Guaranteed Obligations may at any time and from time to time exceed the Maximum Liability of each Loan Guarantor without impairing this Loan Guaranty or affecting the rights and remedies of the Secured Parties hereunder; provided that nothing in this sentence shall be construed to increase any Loan Guarantor's obligations hereunder beyond its Maximum Liability.

Section 10.10 Contribution. In the event any Loan Guarantor (a "Paying Guarantor") shall make any payment or payments under this Loan Guaranty or shall suffer any loss as a result of any realization upon any Collateral granted by it to secure its obligations under this Loan Guaranty, each other Loan Guarantor (each, a "Non-Paying Guarantor") shall contribute to such Paying Guarantor an amount equal to such Non-Paying Guarantor's "Guarantor Percentage" of such payment or payments made, or losses suffered, by such Paying Guarantor. For purposes of this Article 10, each Non-Paying Guarantor's "Guarantor Percentage" with respect to any such payment or loss by a Paying Guarantor shall be determined as of the date on which such payment or loss was made by reference to the ratio of (a) such Non-Paying Guarantor's Maximum Liability as of such date (without giving effect to any right to receive, or obligation to make, any contribution hereunder) or, if such Non-Paying Guarantor's Maximum Liability has not been determined, the aggregate amount of all monies received by such Non-Paying Guarantor from the Borrowers after the date hereof (whether by loan, capital infusion or by other means) to (b) the aggregate Maximum Liability of all Loan Guarantors hereunder (including such Paying Guarantor) as of such date (without giving effect to any right to receive, or obligation to make, any contribution hereunder), or to the extent that a Maximum Liability has not been determined for any Loan Guarantor, the aggregate amount of all monies received by such Loan Guarantors from the Borrowers after the date hereof (whether by loan, capital infusion or by other means). Nothing in this provision shall affect any Loan Guarantor's several liability for the entire amount of the Guaranteed Obligations (up to such Loan Guarantor's Maximum Liability). Each of the Loan Guarantors covenants and agrees that its right to receive any contribution under this Loan Guaranty from a Non-Paying Guarantor shall be subordinate and junior in right of payment to the Secured Obligations until the Termination Date. This provision is for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and the other Secured Parties and may be enforced by any one, or more, or all of them in accordance with the terms hereof.

Section 10.11 Liability Cumulative. The liability of each Loan Guarantor under this Article 10 is in addition to and shall be cumulative with all liabilities of such Loan Guarantor to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents to which such Loan Guarantor is a party or in respect of any obligations or liabilities of the other Loan Guarantors, without any limitation as to amount, unless the instrument or agreement evidencing or creating such other liability specifically provides to the contrary.

Section 10.12 Release of Loan Guarantors. Notwithstanding anything in Section 9.02(b) to the contrary, a Subsidiary Guarantor (other than any Borrower) shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and its Loan Guaranty shall be automatically released (a) upon the consummation of any sale of any equity interests of such Subsidiary Guarantor to a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Borrowers pursuant to a transaction or related series of transactions permitted hereunder if as a result thereof such Subsidiary Guarantor shall cease to be a Subsidiary (or becomes an Excluded Subsidiary) or (b) upon the occurrence of the Termination Date. In connection with any such release, the Administrative Agent shall promptly execute and deliver to any Loan Guarantor, at such Loan Guarantor's expense, all documents that such Loan Guarantor shall reasonably request to evidence termination or release. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to the preceding sentence of this Section 10.12 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Administrative Agent (other than as to the Administrative Agent's authority to execute and deliver such documents).

U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that this matter is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b); and this Court having found that due and sufficient notice of the Motion has been given under the particular circumstances and that no other or further notice of the Motion need be given; and upon consideration of the First Day Declaration; and a hearing having been held to consider the relief requested in the Motion; and upon the record of the hearing and all of the proceedings had before this Court; and this Court having found and determined that the relief sought in the Motion is in the best interest of the Debtors, their estates, their creditors and all other parties in interest; and that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, it is hereby

FOUND, CONCLUDED, AND DETERMINED THAT:³

A. The Debtors have advanced sound business reasons for commencement of the Sales and the assumption of the Consulting Agreement on an interim basis as set forth in the Motion and at the hearing, and the Debtors' operation under the Consulting Agreement is a reasonable exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and is in the best interest of the Debtors and their estates.

B. The Consulting Agreement was negotiated, proposed, and entered into without collusion, in good faith, and from arm's length bargaining positions.

C. The Sales of Assets in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order and with the assistance of the Consultant will provide efficient means for the Debtors to orderly and efficiently liquidate and dispose of the Assets in an orderly and efficient manner and are in the best interest of the Debtors' estates.

³ The findings and conclusions set forth herein constitute this Court's findings of fact and conclusions of law pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 7052, made applicable to this proceeding pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9014. To the extent any of the following findings of fact constitute conclusions of law, they are adopted as such. To the extent that any of the following conclusions of law constitute findings of fact, they are adopted as such.

D. The Debtors and the Consultant may sell the Assets free and clear of all liens, claims, encumbrances, or other interests (the “Encumbrances”) as provided for herein because, in each case, one or more of the standards set forth in section 363(f)(1)–(5) of the Bankruptcy Code has been satisfied. The DIP Agent and applicable Prepetition Agent (i) hold the DIP Liens and Prepetition Liens (as defined in the DIP Order) for the benefit of the DIP Lenders and the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditors, respectively, on the property to be sold and such liens shall attach to the proceeds of all Sales of Assets, net of the Consultant Payment Obligations, in the priorities set forth in the DIP Order, including the Lien Priority Annex set forth therein (and any applicable Order granted in the recognition proceeding pending before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Recognition Proceedings”)), and (ii) have consented to the relief requested in the Motion in accordance with the terms set forth herein. The Debtors are authorized on an interim basis to apply or reserve the proceeds of the Assets, net of the Consultant Payment Obligations, in accordance with the DIP Order and to pay the Consultant Payment Obligations in a timely manner in accordance with the Consulting Agreement and this Order. Those holders of any such Encumbrances who did object fall within one or more of the other subsections of section 363(f) and are adequately protected, because all Encumbrances will, subject to the terms of the DIP Order, attach to the proceeds of the sale of the applicable Assets, net of the Consultant Payment Obligations, with the same validity and priority and to the same extent and in the same amount that any such Encumbrances had with respect to such Assets immediately prior to such sale, and subject to the same rights, claims, defenses, and objections, if any, of all parties with respect thereto (including the Consultant).

E. The relief set forth herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors and their estates, and the Debtors have demonstrated good, sufficient, and sound business purposes and justifications for the relief approved herein.

F. The entry of this Interim Order is in the best interest of the Debtors and their estates, creditors, and all other parties in interest herein.

BASED ON THE FOREGOING FINDINGS OF FACT AND CONCLUSIONS OF LAW, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on an interim basis as set forth herein.
2. The final hearing on the Motion shall be held on September 16, 2026, at 10:00 a.m., prevailing Eastern Time. Any objections or responses to entry of the Final Order shall be filed with the Court, and served so as to be received by the following parties, by no later than 4:00 p.m., prevailing Eastern Time, on September 9, 2026 (the “Objection Deadline”): (a) proposed counsel for the Debtors, Cole Schotz P.C., 500 Delaware Avenue, Suite 600, Wilmington, Delaware 19801, Attn: Justin R. 3. The Debtors and the Consultant are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary or appropriate to implement the relief granted in this Interim Order and each of the transactions contemplated by the Consulting Agreement, and any actions taken by the Debtors and the Consultant reasonably necessary to implement the Consulting Agreement and/or the Sales prior to the date of this Interim Order, are hereby approved and ratified to the extent not inconsistent with this Interim Order.

4. The failure to specifically include any particular provision of the Consulting Agreement in this Interim Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provisions, it being the intent of this Court that the Consulting Agreement and all of its provisions, payments, and transactions, be and hereby are authorized and approved as and to the extent provided for in this Interim Order. To the extent that there is any conflict between this Interim Order, the Consulting Agreement, or any other agreement governing the Sales, the terms of this Interim Order shall control over all other documents, and shall control over the Consulting Agreement.

A. The Assumption of the Consulting Agreement by the Debtors

5. The Debtors are authorized to act and perform in accordance with the terms of the Consulting Agreement, a copy of which is attached to the Motion as Exhibit C, including making payments required by the Consulting Agreement to the Consultant (including, without limitation, the Advisory Fee, Inventory Fee, Fixed Asset Commission, Receivables Fee), reimbursement of the Consultant Expenses, and, subject to the provisions contained herein, payment of indemnification amounts, in each case, as provided for in the Consulting Agreement without the need for any application of the Consultant or a further order of this Court (and all such payments of fees and reimbursement of expenses (collectively, the “Consultant Payment Obligations”) shall be free and clear of any and all Encumbrances).

6. Consultant may, without further order of the Court, withhold the Consultant Payment Obligations from the Gross Proceeds generated from the Sales in accordance with the terms of the Consulting Agreement and any expense budget approved in connection therewith, without the need for any application of the Consultant, or a further order of the Court, and without adherence to any weekly, monthly, or aggregate limitation in any interim or final order approving the postpetition financing (the “DIP Orders”), other order, or any budget approved in connection with a DIP Order (each a “DIP Budget”), cash collateral or other budget entered in connection with the Debtors’ chapter 11 case (collectively, an “Approved Budget”), provided, however, that payment of the Consultant Payment Obligations shall be (a) deemed to be in compliance with any Approved Budget and the applicable provisions of the DIP Orders; and (b) included in each Approved Budget. To the extent there is any conflict or inconsistency between this Interim Order and the DIP Orders, the Consultant’s rights under this Interim Order regarding the payment of Consultant Payment Obligations shall be governed by this Order.

7. If Consultant Payment Obligations are not timely paid as contemplated by the Consulting Agreement and this Interim Order (for any reason) (the “Unpaid Consultant Payment Obligations”), after five (5) business days’ notice and opportunity to cure, the Consultant can, at its election, suspend the provision of services until the Debtors have paid all outstanding Unpaid Consultant Payment Obligations and replenished any portion of the Prepayment that has been exhausted by the Consultant, or terminate the Consulting Agreement and in either case have no further obligation to perform services under the Consulting Agreement during such suspension period or after such termination, as applicable, and the Consultant shall have no liability for any claims arising from such suspension or termination of services are hereby released and the Consultant shall be indemnified for any damages caused by the suspension or termination of services; provided that the Consultant may not recover the amount of any such claim (other than Unpaid Consultant Payment Obligations) from any advances or any other amounts on deposit in the advance funding account, whether by setoff, lien, attachment or otherwise without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent. In addition, the Consultant will have the right to file a motion to compel payment of any Unpaid Consultant Payment Obligations on expedited one-day notice with an expedited hearing, subject to Court availability (provided however, that with respect to the assets of De Cloet Mfg. Ltd. such motion shall be subject to the terms of the Orders granted in the Recognition Proceedings).

8. The Debtors, with the assistance of the Consultant, shall maintain accurate records of all Term Loan Priority Collateral⁴ proceeds realized during the Sale Term, including records sufficient to identify (i) the specific items of Term Loan Priority Collateral sold or otherwise subject to disposition, (ii) the identity of the purchaser and the date of each such sale or disposition, and (iii) the gross proceeds attributable to each such sale or disposition. The Debtors, with the assistance of the Consultant, shall maintain such records in a form that permits the segregation and identification of Term Loan Priority Collateral proceeds from proceeds attributable to other Assets.

9. Commencing on the fourteenth (14th) day following the date of entry of this Interim Order and continuing every two (2) weeks thereafter through the Sale Termination Date (and, if the Receivables Services extend beyond the Sale Termination Date, every two (2) weeks through the conclusion of such services with respect to any Receivables constituting Term Loan Priority

⁴ “Term Loan Priority Collateral” shall have the meaning ascribed to it in the Intercreditor Agreement (as defined in the DIP Order).

Collateral), the Debtors shall deliver to counsel to the DIP Agent and Prepetition Agent, and counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties a written report setting forth: (i) a summary of all Term Loan Priority Collateral sold or otherwise disposed of during the applicable reporting period; (ii) the aggregate gross proceeds realized from such sales or dispositions during the applicable reporting period; and (iii) the cumulative gross proceeds realized from the sale or disposition of Term Loan Priority Collateral from the Start Date through the end of the applicable reporting period.

10. All parties' rights are reserved to challenge, contest, or otherwise object to (i) the characterization or classification of any collateral or proceeds thereof as Term Loan Priority Collateral, ABL Priority Collateral (as defined in the Intercreditor Agreement), or otherwise, and (ii) the allocation of any Consultant Payment Obligations to any such collateral.

B. Authority to Engage in the Sales

11. The Debtors are authorized, on an interim basis pending the entry of the Final Order, pursuant to section 105(a) and section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, to immediately continue conducting the Sales in accordance with this Interim Order (as may be modified by a Side Letter (defined below)) and the Consulting Agreement. Subject to the terms and provisions set forth in this Interim Order, the Debtors and the Consultant are authorized to take any and all actions, from and after the Petition Date, as may be necessary or desirable to implement the Consulting Agreement, the Sales, and each of the transactions contemplated by the Consulting Agreement.

12. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Consulting Agreement, the Debtors and their estates shall not indemnify the Consultant for any damages arising out of the Consultant's fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence.

13. All entities that are presently in possession of some or all of the Assets in which the Debtors hold an interest that are or may be subject to the Consulting Agreement or this Interim Order hereby are directed to surrender possession of such Assets to the Debtors.

14. Except as provided herein, neither the Debtors nor the Consultant nor any of their officers, employees, or agents shall be required to obtain the approval of any third party, including (without limitation) any governmental unit (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) (a “Governmental Unit”), to conduct the Sales or to take any related actions authorized herein. Subject to the terms of this Interim Order, each Governmental Unit with regulatory authority over the Sales shall consider this Interim Order as binding authority that no further approval, license, or permit of any governmental unit shall be required, nor shall the Debtors be required to post any bond, to conduct the Sales.

C. Conducting the Sales

15. All newspapers and other advertising media in which the Sales may be advertised and all parties are directed to accept this Interim Order as binding authority so as to authorize the Debtors and the Consultant to conduct the Sales pursuant to the Consulting Agreement, including, without limitation, to conduct and advertise the sale of the Assets in the manner contemplated by and in accordance with this Interim Order and the Consulting Agreement.

16. The Debtors and the Consultant are hereby authorized, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, to take such actions as may be necessary and appropriate to implement the Consulting Agreement and, notwithstanding any applicable non-bankruptcy laws, to conduct the Sales without the need for a further order of this Court as provided in this Interim Order and the Consulting Agreement.

17. Except as expressly provided in the Consulting Agreement or this Interim Order, the sale of the Assets shall be conducted by the Debtors and the Consultant notwithstanding any restrictive provision of any lease, license, restrictive covenant, reciprocal easement agreement, occupancy agreement or other agreement related to the Debtors' Assets, including but not limited to any wholesale, supply, exclusive, non-exclusive, or other distribution or vendor agreements, affecting or purporting to restrict the conduct of the Sales, including with respect to advertising and promotion of the Sales and any auctions conducted in connection with the sale of Assets, the necessity of obtaining any third party consents, or the abandonment of assets, and such provisions shall not be enforceable in conjunction with the Sale of Assets. Breach of any such provisions in these Chapter 11 Cases in conjunction with the Sales shall not constitute a default under a lease or other agreement or provide a basis to terminate such lease or other agreement; provided that the Sales are conducted in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order.

18. The Consultant and the Debtors are authorized to enter into agreements ("Side Letters") with applicable landlords, licensors, service providers, utilities, other creditors, and other contract counterparties (each such party, a "Side Letter Counterparty") modifying the Consulting Agreement without further order of this Court, and such Side Letters shall be binding as among the Consultant and any such Side Letter Counterparty; provided, however, that the terms of the Consulting Agreement may not be modified in a material way without the consent of the DIP Agent (or, if the modification materially affects the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties or the Term Loan Priority Collateral, of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent), which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, conditioned, or delayed. In the event of any conflict between this Interim Order and any Side Letter, the terms of such Side Letter shall control. To the extent the Debtors, the Consultant, the DIP Agent, and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent are unable to resolve any dispute regarding a modification to the Consulting Agreement, any party may request a hearing with this Court. Notwithstanding the foregoing, in no event shall any Side Letter or other agreement alter, amend, or otherwise modify the Consultant Payment Obligations or other amounts payable from any collateral or proceeds thereof without further Court order.

19. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if any dispute arises during the course of the Sales regarding laws regulating the conduct of such sales, and the Debtors and the Consultant are unable to resolve the matter with the disputing party consensually, any party may request a hearing with this Court pursuant to these provisions. Until such a hearing, no party shall interfere with the Sales' conduct in accordance with this Interim Order.

20. Except as provided in this Interim Order, to the extent provided in section 365(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, no person or entity, including, but not limited to, any landlord, licensor, property owner, property manager, service provider, utility provider, seller or supplier of Assets to the Debtors, vendor or creditor or equity holder of the Debtors or other stakeholder, shall take any action to directly or indirectly prevent, interfere with, or otherwise hinder the Sales, the sale of the Assets, or the advertising and promotion of the Sales (where applicable), and all such parties and persons of every nature and description, including, but not limited to, any landlord, licensor, service provider, utility, seller or supplier of Assets to the Debtors, vendor, and creditor, as well as all those acting for or on behalf of such parties, are prohibited from (a) interfering in any way with, obstructing, or otherwise impeding the conduct of the Sales, including, but not limited to, by purporting to terminate any supply or distribution agreement with the Debtors by virtue of the Debtors' bankruptcy or pre-petition non-payment under such agreements; or (b) instituting any action or proceeding in any court (other than this Court) or administrative body seeking an order or judgment against, among others, the Debtors, the Consultant, or any landlords at the Facilities, that might in any way directly or indirectly obstruct or otherwise interfere with or adversely affect the conduct of the Sales or seek to recover damages for breach(es) of covenants or provisions in any license or contract based upon any relief authorized herein.

21. In accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of the Consulting Agreement, the Consultant shall have the right to use the Debtors' sales channels, the Facilities and other assets of the Debtors for the purpose of conducting the Sales free of any interference from any entity or person, subject to compliance with this Interim Order.

22. All sales of all Assets shall be "as is" and final, and all advertisements and sale receipts, where applicable, shall reflect that such sales are "as is" and final.

23. The Consultant shall not be liable for sales taxes and the Debtors remain responsible for the payment of any and all sales taxes. The Debtors are directed to remit all taxes accruing from the Sales to the applicable Governmental Units as and when due, provided that in the case of a bona fide dispute, the Debtors may pay such taxes upon the resolution of the dispute, if and to the extent that the dispute is decided in favor of the applicable Governmental Unit. For the avoidance of doubt, sales taxes collected and held in trust by the Debtors, if any, shall not be used to pay any creditor or any other party, other than the applicable Governmental Unit for which the sales taxes are collected.

24. Pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Consultant, on behalf of the Debtors, is authorized to sell all Assets pursuant to the Consulting Agreement and in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Orders. All sales of Assets, whether by the Consultant or the Debtors, shall be free and clear of any and all Encumbrances; provided, however, that any Encumbrances shall, subject to the terms of the DIP Orders, attach to the proceeds of the sale of applicable Assets net of the Consultant Payment Obligations, with the same validity and priority and to the same extent and in the same amount that any such Encumbrances had with respect to such Assets immediately prior to such sale and subject to the same rights, claims, defenses, and objections, if any, of all parties with respect thereto.

25. The Debtors and the Consultant, in consultation with the DIP Agent, are empowered to transfer Assets among, and into the Facilities. The Debtors and the Consultant are authorized to sell the Debtors' Assets as provided for and in accordance with the terms of the Consulting Agreement and this Interim Order; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Debtors shall not abandon, or permit to be deemed abandoned, any Assets constituting DIP Collateral, Term Loan Priority Collateral or Prepetition Collateral (each as defined in the DIP Orders) without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent or Prepetition Term Loan Agent, as applicable (which consent may be provided by email from counsel to the DIP Agent or Prepetition Term Loan Agent), and any purported abandonment without such consent shall be void and of no force or effect. Any abandoned Inventory and/or Fixed Assets left in the Facilities after the later of the date the lease is rejected or the date the Debtors vacate the premises shall be deemed abandoned. The automatic stay is modified to the extent necessary to allow such dispositions. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Interim Order, (a) the Debtors may not abandon any personal property that the Debtors know is not property of the Debtors and (b) the Debtors are not authorized to abandon any hazardous materials as defined under applicable law from any leased premises. Consultant shall not be responsible for the removal or disposition of any hazardous materials or substances. To the extent the Debtors seek to abandon personal property that contains any "personally identifiable information," as that term is defined in section 101(41A) of the Bankruptcy Code, or other personal and/or confidential information about the Debtors' employees or any other individual (the "Confidential Information"), the Debtors shall remove or wipe the Confidential Information from such personal property before abandonment.

26. The Debtors shall remove or cause to be removed any Confidential Information in any of the Debtors' hardware, software, computers or similar equipment which are to be sold or abandoned so as to render the Confidential Information unreadable or undecipherable. At the conclusion of the Sales, the Consultant shall provide the Debtors with written verification that the Consultant has not removed, copied, or transferred any customer Confidential Information and that the Consultant has used commercially reasonable efforts to shred, erase, or otherwise modify or render any records containing Confidential Information to be unreadable or undecipherable.

27. The Consultant is authorized to perform the Receivables Services and the Debtors are authorized, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, to collect, compromise, adjust, and settle any and all accounts receivable of the Debtors (the "Receivables"), in each case in accordance with the terms of the Consulting Agreement and this Interim Order, without the need for any further notice, hearing, motion pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 9019, or order of this Court. In furtherance of the foregoing, the Debtors and the Consultant are authorized to negotiate the terms of, and enter into, settlements, compromises, or other resolutions with any customer or other obligor with an open account balance in order to resolve and settle payment of any Receivable; provided that the Debtors and the Consultant shall consult with the DIP Agent in advance of the collection, compromise, adjustment, settlement, or release of any Receivable in excess of $250,000 (and with the Prepetition Term Loan Agent with respect to any Receivable that constitutes Term Loan Priority Collateral), and shall not compromise, settle, adjust, or release any Receivable other than in accordance with the DIP Orders and the Approved Budget. In connection with the settlement of any Receivable, the Debtors are authorized to release claims and causes of action related to such Receivable and its obligor. Encumbrances on any Receivable, to the extent valid, perfected, and enforceable, shall attach to the proceeds thereof, net of the Consultant

Payment Obligations, with the same validity, priority, extent, and amount, and subject to the same claims and defenses, as existed immediately prior to such collection or settlement, subject to the DIP Order. Nothing in this paragraph shall require the Debtors or the Consultant to obtain the approval of any third party (except the DIP Agent or the Prepetition Term Loan Agent as expressly set forth in this paragraph 27), in connection with the collection, compromise, or settlement of any Receivable.

28. Within thirty (30) days of the conclusion of the Sales, the Debtors shall file with the Court a summary report of the Sales that will include gross revenue from the Sales. On a confidential basis and for professionals' "eyes only" and upon the written request (including email) of the U.S. Trustee (which request has been made) or the Committee (if any), the Debtors shall provide such requesting party, if any, with copies of periodic reports and detailed information regarding the calculation of fees paid to the Consultant and expenses reimbursed to the Consultant concerning the Sales that are prepared by the Debtors, their professionals or the Consultant.

D. Dispute Resolution Procedures

29. Nothing in this Interim Order or the Consulting Agreement releases, nullifies, or enjoins the enforcement of any liability to a Governmental Unit under environmental laws or regulations (or any associated liabilities for penalties, damages, cost recovery, or injunctive relief) to which any entity would be subject as the owner, lessor, lessee, or operator of the property after the date of entry of this Interim Order. Nothing contained in this Interim Order or the Consulting Agreement shall in any way (a) diminish the obligation of any entity to comply with environmental laws or (b) diminish the obligations of the Debtors to comply with environmental laws consistent with its rights and obligations as debtor in possession under the Bankruptcy Code. The Sales shall not be exempt from laws of general applicability, including, without limitation, public health and safety, criminal, tax, labor, employment, environmental, antitrust, fair competition, traffic and consumer protection laws, including local laws, regulations, ordinances, or police powers of general applicability regarding matters such as regulating deceptive practices and false advertising (collectively, “General Laws”). Nothing in this Interim Order or the Consulting Agreement shall alter or affect obligations to comply with all applicable federal safety laws and regulations. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed to bar any Governmental Unit (as such term is defined in section 101(47) of the Bankruptcy Code) from enforcing General Laws in the applicable non-bankruptcy forum, subject to the Debtors’ rights to assert in that forum or before this Court (or the Canadian Court) that any such laws are not in fact General Laws or that such enforcement is impermissible under the Bankruptcy Code, this Interim Order, or otherwise. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Interim Order, no party waives any rights to argue any position with respect to whether the conduct was in compliance with this Interim Order and/or any applicable law, or that enforcement of such applicable law is preempted by the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed to have made any rulings on any such issues.

30. To the extent that the sale of Assets is subject to any Liquidation Sale Laws, including any federal, state, or local statute, ordinance, or rule, or licensing requirement directed at regulating inventory liquidation sales, or bulk sale laws, including laws restricting safe, professional, and non-deceptive customary advertising such as signs, banners, posting of signage, solely in connection with the Sales and including ordinances establishing license or permit requirements, waiting periods, time limits, or bulk sale restrictions that would otherwise apply solely to the sale of the Assets, or any similar laws, the dispute resolution procedures in this section shall apply.

31. To the extent that any party has objections to the conduct of the Sales or to the sale of the Assets, the following procedures (the “Resolution Procedures”) shall apply during the Sale Term:

- a. Provided that the Sales are conducted in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order and the Consulting Agreement, the Debtors and the Consultant are authorized to conduct the Sales, and the Debtors shall be presumed to be in compliance with any Liquidation Sale Laws, without the necessity of further showing compliance with any Liquidation Sale Laws.
- b. Within two (2) business days after entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors will serve by email, facsimile, or first-class mail, copies of the Interim Order on the following: (i) landlords of or counterparties to any agreements governing the use of or access to the Facilities (ii) the Attorney General’s office for each state in which the Facilities are located; (iii) the county consumer protection agency or similar agency for each county in which the Facilities are located; (iv) the division of consumer protection for each state in which the Facilities are located; (v) supplier contract counterparties; (vi) and any other party with an interest in the Assets, or sales thereof (collectively, the “Dispute Notice Parties”).
- c. To the extent that there is a dispute arising from or relating to the conduct of the Sales, the sale of the Assets, this Interim Order, or the Consulting Agreement (a “Reserved Dispute”), the Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to resolve the Reserved Dispute. Any party in interest (including, but not limited to, any of the Dispute Notice Parties) may assert that a Reserved Dispute exists by sending a notice (the “Dispute Notice”) explaining the nature of the dispute to: (a) Proposed Counsel to the Debtors, Cole Schotz P.C., 500 Delaware Avenue, Suite 600, Wilmington, DE 19801, Attn: Justin Alberto (jalberto@coleschotz.com), Stacy Newman (snewman@coleschotz.com), and Sarah Carnes (scarnes@coleschotz.com); (b) Office of the United States Trustee, J. Caleb Boggs Federal Building, 844 King Street, Suite 2207, Lockbox 35, Wilmington, DE 19801, Attn: Jane Leamy (jane.m.leafy@usdoj.gov); (c) Counsel to the Consultant, Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP, 50 Rockefeller Plaza, New York, NY 10020, Attn: Cindi M. Giglio (cgiglio@katten.com) and Grace A. Thompson (grace.thompson@katten.com) (d) counsel to the DIP Agent and Prepetition ABL Agent, Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP, Two International Place, Boston, MA 02110, Attn: John F. Ventola (jventola@choate.com), Michael E. Comerford (mcomerford@choate.com), and Alexandra M. Thomas (athomas@choate.com), and Womble Bond Dickinson (US) LLP, 1313 North Market Street, Suite 1200, Wilmington, DE 19801, Attn: Matthew Ward (matthew.ward@wbd-us.com); (e) co-counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, Proskauer Rose LLP, Eleven Times Square, New York, NY 10036, Attn: David M. Hillman (dhillman@proskauer.com) and Matthew R.

Koch (mkoch@proskauer.com), and Landis Rath & Cobb LLP, 919 Market Street, Suite 1800, Wilmington, Delaware 19801, Attn: Matthew B. McGuire(mcguire@lrclaw.com); and (f) if any statutory committee has been appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, counsel to such committee.

- d. If the Debtors, the Consultant, and the party asserting the Reserved Dispute are unable to resolve the Reserved Dispute within fourteen (14) days after service of the Dispute Notice, the party asserting the Reserved Dispute may file a motion with the Court requesting that the Court resolve the Reserved Dispute (a “Dispute Resolution Motion”).
- e. Filing a Dispute Resolution Motion as set forth herein shall not be deemed to affect the finality of this Interim Order, or to limit or interfere with the Debtors’ or the Consultant’s ability to conduct or to continue to conduct the Sales pursuant to this Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable, absent further order of the Court. Upon the entry of this Interim Order, the Court grants authority for the Debtors and the Consultant to conduct the Sales pursuant to the terms of this Interim Order and the Consulting Agreement, and to take all actions reasonably related thereto or arising in connection therewith. Nothing in this Interim Order will constitute a ruling with respect to any issues to be raised in any Dispute Resolution Motion. Nothing in this Interim Order shall preclude the Debtors from asserting that the provisions of the Liquidation Sale Laws are preempted by the Bankruptcy Code.

E. Miscellaneous

32. The Debtors are authorized and permitted to transfer to the Consultant personal information in the Debtors’ custody and control solely for the purposes of assisting with and conducting the Sales and only to the extent necessary for such purposes, provided that the Consultant removes such personal information from the Assets prior to the sale or abandonment of the same.

33. This Interim Order shall be binding on all of the Debtors’ creditors (whether known or unknown), the Debtors, the Consultant, and their respective affiliates, successors, and assigns, and any affected third parties including, but not limited to, all persons asserting an interest in the Assets, notwithstanding any subsequent appointment of any trustee, party, entity, or other fiduciary under any section of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the foregoing parties, and as to such trustee, party, entity, or other fiduciary, such terms and provisions likewise shall be binding.

34. This Interim Order shall be binding upon and shall govern the acts of all entities, including, without limitation, all filing agents, filing officers, administrative agencies, governmental departments, secretaries of state, federal, state, and local officials, and all other persons and entities who may be required by operation of law, the duties of their office, or contract, to accept, file, register, or otherwise record or release any documents or instruments, or who may be required to report or insure any title or state of title in or to the Assets.

35. The provisions of this Interim Order, and any actions taken pursuant hereto, shall survive the entry of any order that may be entered confirming or consummating any plan(s) of the Debtors pursuant to section 1129 of the Bankruptcy Code, or converting the Debtors' cases from chapter 11 to chapter 7, and the rights and interests granted pursuant to this Interim Order and the Consulting Agreement, shall continue in these or any superseding cases and shall be binding upon the Debtors, the Consultant, and their respective successors and permitted assigns, including any trustee or other fiduciary hereafter appointed as a legal representative of the Debtors under chapter 7 or chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code.

36. The Consultant shall not be liable for any claims against the Debtors, and the Debtors shall not be liable for any claims against the Consultant, in each case, other than as expressly provided for in the Consulting Agreement.

37. Neither the Consultant nor any of its respective affiliates (whether individually, as part of a joint venture, or otherwise) shall be precluded from providing additional services to the Debtors and/or bidding on the Debtors' assets in connection with any other future process that may or may not be undertaken by the Debtors, provided that any such services and/or transactions is approved by separate order of this Court.

38. The Consultant shall act solely as an independent consultant to the Debtors and shall not be liable for any claims against the Debtors other than as expressly provided in the Consulting Agreement (including the Consultant's indemnity obligations thereunder) with the exception of acts of gross negligence or willful misconduct and, for greater certainty, the Consultant shall not be deemed to be an employer, or a joint or successor employer, or a related or common employer or payor within the meaning of any legislation governing employment or labor standards or pension benefits or health and safety or other statute, regulation or rule of law or equity, for any purpose whatsoever, and shall not incur any successor liability whatsoever.

39. The Debtors and the Consultant may modify the Consulting Agreement in accordance with the terms thereof without further order of the Court; provided that (a) the Debtors shall provide five (5) business days' advance notice of any contemplated material modification(s) of the Consulting Agreement (including any modification of the Consulting Agreement's economic terms) to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition Secured Creditors and DIP Credit Parties, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, and counsel to the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors (if any, the "Committee"), and counsel to any party that has requested such notice (collectively, the "Amendment Notice Parties"). If an Amendment Notice Party timely objects to a proposed material modification to the Consulting Agreement and the Debtors, the Consultant, and such objecting Amendment Notice Party cannot consensually resolve such objection, the Debtors and the Consultant shall not proceed with such modification absent a further order of the Court approving such modification.

40. The Debtors shall deliver to the DIP Agent (and any Agent Advisor (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement)) and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent copies of all reports, statements, and reconciliations delivered to the Debtors by the Consultant pursuant to the Consulting Agreement within two (2) business days of the Debtors' receipt of such documents from the Consultant. In addition, the Debtors shall cooperate with, and promptly respond to, reasonable requests of the DIP Agent for reports and other information regarding the Sales, the Consultant Payment Obligations, the Gross Proceeds, and the Receivables in the form and level of detail reasonably requested by the DIP Agent to the extent such information is in the Debtors' possession or reasonably obtainable by the Debtors from the Consultant.

41. No later than seven (7) calendar days prior to the Objection Deadline, the Consultant shall file a declaration disclosing its connections to the Debtors, their creditors, and other parties in interest in these Chapter 11 Cases.

42. Nothing in the Consulting Agreement shall require the Debtors, or any subsequently appointed chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee (if any), to take any action or refrain from taking any action contemplated by the Consulting Agreement to the extent taking or refraining from taking such action would be inconsistent with applicable law or inconsistent with the exercise of the Debtors', or such chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee's (if any), fiduciary obligations under applicable law.

43. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) are satisfied.

44. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6007(a) are waived, to the extent applicable to the relief provided for herein.

45. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

46. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

47. This Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction with regard to all issues or disputes arising from or relating to the implementation, interpretation, or enforcement of this Interim Order or the Consulting Agreement, including, but not limited to, any claim or issue relating to any efforts by any party or person to prohibit, restrict, or in any way limit the Sales in accordance with this Interim Order, or any other disputes related to the Sales. No party or person shall take any action against the Debtors, the Consultant, the Sales, or the landlords of or counterparties to agreements concerning use of and access to the Facilities, as applicable, until this Court has resolved such dispute. This Court shall hear the request of such parties or persons with respect to any such disputes on an expedited basis, as may be appropriate under the circumstances.

3. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay all or part of, and discharge, on a case-by-case basis, the Critical Vendor Claims in an aggregate amount not to exceed $2 million on an interim basis, absent further order of the Court.

4. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Motion or this Interim Order, the Debtors shall not: (a) designate (i) any insider, (ii) any of the Debtors' professionals, or (iii) any entity affiliated with any insider as a Critical Vendor; (b) enter into any Customary Trade Terms with any insider or any entity affiliated with any insider; and/or (c) pay any Critical Vendor Claims of any insider, any of the Debtors' professionals, or any entity affiliated with any insider in each case, prior to consultation with counsel to any committee of unsecured creditors that may be appointed, the DIP Lender, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, or further order of the Court after notice and a hearing. For purposes of this Order, the term "insider" shall have the meaning ascribed to such term in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. As a condition to receiving payment hereunder, the Debtors, in their sole discretion, may require, by written agreement, such parties to continue supplying goods or services to the Debtors in accordance with trade terms at least as favorable to the Debtors as those practices and programs (including credit limits, pricing, cash discounts, timing of payments, allowances, product mix, availability, and other programs) consistent with the parties' ordinary course practice (collectively, the "Customary Trade Terms"). The Debtors reserve the right to require more favorable trade terms with any party as a condition to payment of any prepetition claim.

6. If any party accepts payment hereunder for a prepetition obligation of the Debtors premised on compliance with the above, and thereafter fails to comply with the Customary Trade Terms, or other such terms as agreed to by the Debtors, then, subject to entry of a final order on the Motion from this Court: (a) any payment on account of a prepetition claim received by such party shall be deemed, in the Debtors' sole discretion, an improper postpetition transfer and, therefore, immediately recoverable in cash upon written request by the Debtors; (b) upon recovery by the Debtors, any prepetition claim of such party shall be reinstated as if the payment had not been made; and (c) if there exists an outstanding postpetition balance due from the Debtors to such party, the Debtors may elect to recharacterize and apply any payment made pursuant to the relief requested by the Motion to such outstanding postpetition balance and such supplier or vendor will be required to repay to the Debtors such paid amounts that exceed the postpetition obligations then outstanding, without the right of any setoffs, claims, provisions for payment of any claims, or otherwise.

7. Any Critical Vendor that accepts payment from the Debtors on account of all or a portion of such party's claim pursuant to this Interim Order shall be deemed to (a) agree to the terms and provisions of this Interim Order and (b) have waived, to the extent so paid, Critical Vendor Claims of any type, kind, or priority (including any reclamation claim) against the Debtors and their assets. The Debtors shall provide a copy of this Interim Order to any Critical Vendor in advance of any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order.

8. Nothing herein shall impair or prejudice the Debtors' ability to contest, in their sole discretion, the extent, perfection, priority, validity, or amounts of any claims held by any Critical Vendor. The Debtors do not concede that any claims satisfied pursuant to this Interim Order are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve all rights to contest the extent, validity, or perfection, or to seek the avoidance of all such liens or the priority, of such claims.

9. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to entry of an order granting the relief requested in the Motion on a final basis, the Debtors are not authorized to pay any prepetition amounts on account of Critical Vendor Claims before the applicable due dates of such claims.

10. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, the Motion or its attachments, the priority status of a creditor's claim, including that of claims arising under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, shall not be affected by whether such creditor provides services or goods to the Debtors under Customary Trade Terms.

11. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

12. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, and no action taken pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with this Interim Order), is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an admission as to the amount, validity, or priority of, or basis for any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in the Motion or this Interim Order; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action, or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

13. The Debtors shall maintain a schedule of amounts directly or indirectly paid, subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, including the following information: (a) the name of the transferor; (b) the name of the transferee; (c) the amount of the payment; and (d) the purpose of the payment; provided that the Debtors shall provide a copy of such schedule to the DIP Agent and its advisors, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these Chapter 11 Cases upon reasonable request, and in any event within three (3) business days following any such request.

14. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to and in compliance with each interim and final order entered by the Court in respect of the Debtor's Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Utilize Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (IV) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (V) Granting Related Relief (collectively, such interim and final orders, the “DIP Order”), including compliance with the Approved Budget (as defined in the DIP Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of the DIP Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of the DIP Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of the DIP Order and Approved Budget (as defined in the DIP Order) shall control.

15. The Debtors are authorized to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of this Chapter 11 Case with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein.

16. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is “necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm” as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003.

17. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

18. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) are satisfied by such notice.

19. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

20. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

21. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.

2. The final hearing on the Motion shall be held on September 16, 2026, at 10:00 a.m., prevailing Eastern Time. If no objections or responses are filed and served, this Court may enter a final order without further notice or hearing.

3. Within 20 days after the Petition Date, the Debtors shall, for each Utility Company listed on Exhibit C to the Motion (the “Utility Company List”) place a deposit for such Utility Company equal to approximately two weeks of Utility Services (each such deposit, a “Utility Deposit”) into the Utility Deposit Account.

4. Except as the amount may be adjusted by application of the provisions of this Interim Order, the aggregate amount of $53,104 shall be deposited in the Utility Deposit Account on account of the Utility Deposits within 20 days after the Petition Date and shall be held for the purpose of providing adequate assurance of payment to each Utility Company for its postpetition Utility Services provided to the Debtors.

5. 7. No liens – prepetition, postpetition, debtor-in-possession, or otherwise – shall attach to the funds in the Utility Deposit Account until such time that the Utility Companies have been paid in full.

8. The following procedures (the “Adequate Assurance Procedures”) are hereby approved with respect to all Utility Companies, including any Subsequently Identified Utility Company:

- a) Except as provided by the Adequate Assurance Procedures, the Utility Companies will be prohibited from: (i) altering, refusing, or discontinuing services to, or discriminating against, the Debtors on the basis of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases or a debt owed by the Debtors for services rendered prior to the Petition Date, or on account of any perceived inadequacy of the Debtors' Proposed Adequate Assurance; or (ii) requiring the Debtors to pay a deposit or other security in connection with the provision of postpetition Utility Services, other than the funding of the Utility Deposit.

- b) Within 48 hours after entry of the Interim Order,³ the Debtors will mail a copy of the Motion and Interim Order to the Utility Companies on the Utility Company List.
- c) If a Utility Company is not satisfied with the Proposed Adequate Assurance and seeks additional adequate assurance of payment, it must serve a written request for additional adequate assurance (an "Additional Assurance Request") upon: (i) the Debtors, BFG Supply Co., LLC, 4660 East Paris Avenue SE, Grand Rapids, Michigan 49512, Attn: Adam Zalav (azalev@reflectadvisors.com); (ii) proposed counsel for the Debtors, Cole Schotz P.C., 500 Delaware Avenue, Suite 600, Wilmington, Delaware 19801, Attn: Stacy L. - e) Upon the Debtors' receipt of an Additional Assurance Request, the Debtors will promptly negotiate with the requesting Utility Company to resolve such Utility Company's Additional Assurance Request.

- f) Should the Debtors be unable to reach a resolution with respect to an Additional Assurance Request, the Debtors will, upon reasonable notice, calendar the matter (the “Determination Hearing”) for the next regularly scheduled omnibus hearing to determine the adequacy of assurance of payment pursuant to section 366(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.
- g) Pending the Determination Hearing, the Utility Company that is the subject of the unresolved Additional Assurance Request is prohibited from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service to the Debtors on account of unpaid charges for prepetition services, the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, or any objection (an “Objection”) to the adequacy of the proposed Adequate Assurance.
- h) Any Utility Company that does not serve an Additional Assurance Request in compliance with the procedures herein will be deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment that is satisfactory to such Utility Company within the meaning of section 366(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject to each such Utility Company’s right to seek a modification of adequate assurance under section 366(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

9. The Debtors are authorized, in their sole discretion, to amend the Utility Company List to add or remove any Utility Company, and all provisions of this Interim Order shall apply to any such Subsequently Identified Utility Company that is added to such list; provided, however, that if any Subsequently Identified Utility Company is added to the Utility Company List, the Debtors shall: (i) file a copy of any such amendment and serve a copy of the Motion and this Interim Order on any such Subsequently Identified Utility Company, along with an amended Utility Company List; and (ii) increase the amount of the Utility Deposit Account by an amount equal to the cost of two weeks of Utility Services provided by each such Subsequently Identified Utility Company. Such Subsequently Identified Utility Company shall be permitted to make an Additional Assurance Request in compliance with the Adequate Assurance Procedures after it receives notice of the Motion.

10. Pending entry of the Final Order and resolution of any Additional Assurance Request, Objection or Determination Hearing, the Utility Companies are prohibited from (a) discriminating against the Debtors, (b) altering, refusing, or discontinuing service to the Debtors, or (c) requiring payment of a deposit or receipt or any other security for continued service other than the Utility Deposit, on the basis of the commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases or a debt owed by the Debtors for services rendered prior to the Petition Date, or on account of any perceived inadequacy of the Debtors' Proposed Adequate Assurance.

11. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms of this Interim Order, including the Adequate Assurance Procedures, shall apply to each Utility Company, notwithstanding any customary business practices, policies, internal operating procedures, or state or local laws or regulations to the contrary. Any Utility Company that believes its customary business practices, policies, internal operating procedures, or state or local laws or regulations forbid it from accepting the Proposed Adequate Assurance or entitle it to additional adequate assurance shall make an Additional Assurance Request or file an Objection in accordance with this Interim Order.

12. Nothing herein constitutes a finding that any entity is or is not a Utility Company hereunder or a "utility" within the meaning of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, whether or not such entity is listed on the Utility Company List.

13. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to and in compliance with each interim and final order entered by the Court in respect of the Debtor's Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Utilize Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (IV) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (V) Granting Related Relief (collectively, such interim and final orders, the "DIP Order"), including compliance with the Approved Budget (as defined in the DIP Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of the DIP Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of the DIP Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of the DIP Order and Approved Budget (as defined in the DIP Order) shall control.

14. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, and no action taken pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with this Interim Order) is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an admission as to the amount, validity or priority of, or basis for, any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in the Motion or this Interim Order; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action, or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

15. The Court finds and determines that the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 are satisfied and that the relief requested is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.

16. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Interim Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

17. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in this Interim Order.

18. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.

If no objections or responses are filed and served, this Court may enter a final order without further notice or hearing.

3. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to: (a) negotiate, pay, and remit (or use tax credits to offset) or otherwise satisfy the Taxes and Fees (including corresponding Assessments) that arose or accrued prior to the Petition Date and that will become due and owing in the ordinary course of business, at such time when the Taxes and Fees are payable, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $500,000 on an interim basis; and (b) negotiate, pay, and remit (or use tax credits to offset) Taxes and Fees that arise or accrue in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis—including, for the avoidance of doubt, posting collateral (that is not collateral of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent or the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders without their prior written consent) or a letter of credit in connection with any dispute related to the Audits or Assessments or paying any Taxes and Fees arising as a result of the Audits or Assessments (including, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to kinds of Taxes and Fees otherwise addressed by the Wages Motion); provided that notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Motion, that in the event the Debtors make a payment with respect to any Taxes and Fees for the prepetition portion of any “straddle” amount, and this Court subsequently determines such amount was not entitled to priority or administrative treatment under sections 507(a)(8) or 503(b)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors may (but shall not be required to) seek an order from the Court requiring a return of such amounts.

4. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein or any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained in this Interim Order shall create any rights in favor of, or enhance the status of any claim held by, any of the Authorities.

5. To the extent that the Debtors have overpaid any Taxes and Fees, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to seek a refund or credit.

6. The Debtors' right to contest the validity or priority of any Taxes and Fees on any grounds they deem appropriate are reserved and extend to the payment of Taxes and Fees relating to Audits that have been completed, are in progress, or arise from prepetition periods.

7. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, and no action taken pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with this Interim Order) is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an admission as to the amount of, basis for, priority, or validity of any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in the Motion, this Interim Order, or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action, or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

8. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors to pay any past-due taxes.

9. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to and in compliance with each interim and final order entered by the Court in respect of the Debtor's Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Utilize Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (IV) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (V) Granting Related Relief (collectively, such interim and final orders, the "DIP Order"), including compliance with the Approved Budget (as defined in the DIP Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of the DIP Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of the DIP Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of the DIP Order and Approved Budget (as defined in the DIP Order) shall control.

10. The contents of the Motion satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b).

11. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules with respect to notice of the Motion have been satisfied.

12. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

1. The Motion is granted on an interim basis as set forth herein.
2. The final hearing on the Motion shall be held on September 16, 2026, at 10:00 a.m., prevailing Eastern Time. If no objections or responses are filed and served, this Court may enter a final order without further notice or hearing.

3. Pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors, in their discretion, subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, are authorized, but not directed, to (a) designate, maintain, and continue to use any in the ordinary course of business and all of their Bank Accounts in existence as of the Petition Date, with the same account numbers, including the accounts identified on Exhibit C to the Motion; (b) close existing accounts; and (c) treat the Bank Accounts for all purposes as accounts of the Debtors in their capacity as debtors-in-possession; provided, however, that the Debtors are only authorized to open new bank accounts (i) after providing five (5) days advance notice to the prepetition and DIP lenders, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, the U.S. Trustee, and any official committee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases; (ii) with a bank that (a) is organized under the laws of the United States of America or any state thereof, (b) is insured by the FDIC or CDIC, and (c) has executed, or is willing to immediately execute, a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S.

Trustee for the District of Delaware; and (iii) that are designated “Debtor-in-Possession” accounts by the relevant bank.

4. In each instance in which the Debtors hold an account at a Bank that is a party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee, as soon as possible after entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall: (a) contact the Bank; (b) provide the Bank with each of the Debtors’ employer identification numbers; and (c) identify each of their accounts held at the Bank as being held by a debtor-in-possession. For Banks at which the Debtors hold accounts that are not party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee for the District of Delaware, the Debtors shall use their good-faith efforts to cause the Banks to execute a Uniform Depository Agreement in a form prescribed by the U.S. Trustee within thirty (30) days of entry of this Interim Order. The U.S. Trustee’s rights to seek further relief from this Court on notice in the event that the aforementioned Banks are unwilling to execute a Uniform Depository Agreement in a form prescribed by the U.S. Trustee are fully reserved.

5. Notwithstanding the requirements of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, the Debtors are not required to (a) close any or all existing bank accounts and open new debtor-in-possession accounts or (b) establish specific bank accounts for tax payments.

6. Subject to the requirements for opening new accounts in paragraph 3 hereof, the relief granted in this Interim Order is extended to any new bank account opened by the Debtors after the date hereof and to the bank at which such account is opened.

7. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to maintain and use the Bank Accounts in the same manner and with the same account numbers, styles, and document forms as those employed prior to the Petition Date, including without limitation (a) to deposit funds in, and withdraw funds from, the Bank Accounts by all usual means, including checks, wire transfers, automated clearinghouse (“ACH”) transfers, drafts, electronic fund transfers, and other debits or items presented, issued, or drawn on the Bank Accounts, (b) to pay postpetition ordinary course bank fees and service fees in connection with the Bank Accounts, (c) to perform their obligations under the documents and agreements governing the Bank Accounts, including without limitation, any prepetition cash management agreements or treasury services agreements, and (d) to treat the Bank Accounts for all purposes as accounts of the Debtors in their capacities as debtors-in possession.

8. The Banks are authorized without the need for further order of this Court to, in the ordinary course of business (a) continue to administer, service, and maintain the Bank Accounts as such accounts were administered, serviced, and maintained prior to the Petition Date without interruption and in the ordinary course; (b) receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks, drafts, wires, ACH transfers, electronic fund transfers, payment orders, or other items presented, issued, or drawn on the Bank Accounts; and (c) debit the Bank Accounts for (i) all undisputed prepetition bank and service fees outstanding as of the date hereof, if any, owed to the Banks for the maintenance of the Cash Management System; (ii) all checks drawn on the Debtors’ Bank Accounts which were cashed at such Bank’s counters or exchanged for cashier’s checks by the payees thereof prior to the Petition Date; and (iii) all checks or other items deposited in one of the Debtors’ Bank Accounts with such Bank prior to the Petition Date, which have not been dishonored or returned unpaid for any reason, together with any fees and costs in connection therewith, to the same extent the applicable Debtor was responsible for such items prior to the Petition Date; provided, however, that checks, drafts, wires, or electronic fund transfers (excluding any electronic fund transfers that the Banks are obligated to settle), or other items presented, issued, or drawn on the Bank Accounts prior to the Petition Date shall not be honored if (a) prohibited by a “stop payment” request received by the Banks from the Debtors or (b) not supported by sufficient funds in the Bank Account in question.

9. Subject to the terms of this Interim Order, the Banks are authorized, when requested by the Debtors, in the Debtors’ discretion, to honor and process checks or electronic fund transfers drawn on the Debtors’ Bank Accounts to pay prepetition obligations authorized to be paid hereunder, whether such checks or other requests were submitted prior to, or after, the Petition Date, provided that sufficient funds are available in the applicable Bank Accounts to make such payments. The Banks may rely on the representations of the Debtors with respect to whether any check or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to this Interim Order, and Banks shall not be liable to any party on account of (a) following the Debtors’ instructions or representations as to any order of this Court; (b) honoring any prepetition check or other item drawn on any account that is the subject of this Interim Order in a good faith belief that the Court has authorized such prepetition check or item to be honored; and (c) an innocent mistake made despite implementation of reasonable item handling procedures.

10. The Banks are further authorized to (a) honor the Debtors’ directions with respect to the opening or closing of any Bank Account and (b) accept and hold, or invest, the Debtors’ funds in accordance with the Debtors’ instructions, and the Banks shall have no liability to any party for relying on such representations or instructions.

11. If any Bank Accounts existing as of the Petition Date are not in compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code or any of the U.S. Trustee’s requirements or guidelines, the Debtors shall have thirty (30) days from the date of this Interim Order to come into compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and any of the U.S. Trustee’s requirements or guidelines, without prejudice to the Debtors’ ability to seek an additional extension or final waiver of such requirements; provided that nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors, in consultation with the prepetition and DIP lenders, or the U.S. Trustee from seeking further relief from the Court to the extent that an agreement cannot be reached.

12. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue using the Credit Cards in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practices, including by paying to American Express and Visa prepetition and postpetition credit card obligations outstanding with respect thereto, subject to the limitations of this Interim Order and any other applicable interim and/or final orders of this Court.

13. The Debtors shall serve a copy of this Interim Order on the Banks within 48 hours of the entry of this Interim Order and upon any bank at which the Debtors open a new bank account immediately upon the opening of such new account.

14. The Debtors are authorized to continue engaging in Intercompany Transactions by and among the Debtors in the ordinary course of business and on the terms materially consistent with historical practices. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Debtors may not materially amend, modify, change, or terminate their existing ordinary course practices with respect to Intercompany Transactions. In connection with the Intercompany Transactions, the Debtors shall continue to maintain accurate and current records with respect to all transfers of cash and non-cash setoffs so that all prepetition and postpetition transactions, including the Intercompany Transactions, may be readily ascertained, traced, and recorded properly on applicable intercompany accounts and shall make such records promptly available to counsel to the prepetition and DIP lenders, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, the U.S. Trustee, and any statutory committee appointed in these cases upon request. For the avoidance of doubt, this Interim Order does not authorize the set off of any postpetition obligations against any prepetition obligations.

15. The Intercompany Claims arising postpetition relating to the Intercompany Transactions shall have administrative expense priority status pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that any such administrative expense status claim shall be junior to the carve-out and approved superpriority administrative expense claims provided for under the DIP Order.

16. Subject to the terms of this Interim Order, the Debtors are authorized to continue to use their existing Cash Management System as depicted on Exhibit D to the Motion. The Debtors may transfer funds into, out of, and through the Cash Management System using ordinary transfer methods in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition practice, subject to the terms of this Interim Order. In connection with the ongoing use of their Cash Management System, the Debtors shall continue to maintain accurate and detailed records with respect to all transfers of cash so that all transactions may be readily ascertained, traced, and recorded properly and the Debtors may distinguish between prepetition and postpetition transactions. Subject to complying with the terms of this Interim Order, the Debtors, in consultation with the prepetition and DIP lenders and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders, and the Banks may agree, without further order of this Court, to implement any changes to the Cash Management System and procedures in the ordinary course of business that they deem appropriate.

17. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay and/or reimburse their Banks for any Bank Account Claims arising prior to or after the Petition Date up to $25,000.

18. The Debtors shall not make any intercompany loans to non-debtor entities absent further Court order.

19. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue to use their existing Business Forms (including checks) without alteration or change and without the designation “Debtor-in-Possession” imprinted upon them; provided that once the Debtors have exhausted their existing stock of business forms, the Debtors shall ensure that any new business forms are clearly labeled “Debtor in Possession”; provided further that with respect to any business forms that exist or are generated electronically, to the extent reasonably practicable, the Debtors shall ensure that such electronic business forms are clearly labeled “Debtor-in-Possession” within ten (10) days after the date of this Interim Order.

20. The Debtors shall give notice within 10 days of closing any bank accounts to the U.S. Trustee and any official committee appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases.

21. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Debtors shall not close or implement any changes to the Term Loan Priority Account, absent further order of this Court or the prior written consent of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders.

22. Nothing in the Motion or this Interim Order shall be construed to: (i) create or perfect, in favor of any person or entity, any interest in cash of a Debtor that did not exist as of the Petition Date or (ii) alter or impair the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any security interest or lien or setoff right, in favor of any person or entity, that existed as of the Petition Date.

23. Nothing in the Motion or this Interim Order, and no action taken by the Debtors pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with any such order) is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be (a) an admission as to the amount of, basis for, priority, or validity of any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors’ or any other party in interest’s rights to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in the Motion or this Interim Order; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action, or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

24. The Court finds and determines that the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 are satisfied and that the relief requested is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.

25. The requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) with respect to notice of the Motion have been satisfied.

26. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), this Interim Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

27. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in this Interim Order.

28. This Court shall retain jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.

29. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to and in compliance with each interim and final order entered by the Court in respect of the Debtor's Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Obtain Postpetition Financing and (B) Utilize Cash Collateral, (II) Granting Adequate Protection to Prepetition Secured Creditors, (III) Modifying the Automatic Stay, (IV) Scheduling a Final Hearing, and (V) Granting Related Relief (collectively, such interim and final orders, the “DIP Order”), including compliance with the Approved Budget (as defined in the DIP Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of the DIP Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of the DIP Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of the DIP Order and Approved Budget (as defined in the DIP Order) shall control.

(Joint Administration Requested)

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) AUTHORIZING

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors respectfully request entry of the Proposed Order (i) authorizing, but not directing, Debtor De Cloet Greenhouse Mfg. Ltd (“De Cloet”) to act as the Debtors’ Foreign Representative (as defined below) in the Canadian Proceeding (as defined below) and (ii) granting related relief.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States District Court for the District of Delaware has jurisdiction to consider this Motion under 28 U.S.C. § 1334, which was referred to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Court”) under 28 U.S.C. § 157 and the Amended Standing Order of Reference from the United States District Court for the District of Delaware, dated February 29, 2012. This is a core proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) and, pursuant to Rule 9013-1(f) of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the “Local Rules”), the Debtors consent to the entry of a final order by the Court in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue of these cases and the Motion in this District is proper under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105, 1107, and 1505 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”).

Background

I. General Background

5. On the date hereof (the “Petition Date”), each Debtor commenced a case by filing a petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, the “Chapter 11 Cases”). The Debtors have requested that the Chapter 11 Cases be jointly administered. The factual background regarding the Debtors, including their business operations, their capital and debt structures, and the events leading to the filing of the Chapter 11 Cases, is set forth in the First Day Declaration.

6. The Debtors continue to manage and operate their businesses as debtors in possession pursuant to section 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

7. To date, no creditors' committee has been appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases by the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware (the "U.S. Trustee"). No trustee or examiner has been appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases.

II. The Canadian Proceeding

8. As discussed in more detail in the First Day Declaration, the Debtors operate one of North America's leading value-added wholesale distribution platforms serving the professional green industry. Over more than five decades, the business has evolved from a regional horticultural supplier into a diversified distributor of lawn and garden products, greenhouse supplies, nursery products, controlled-environment agriculture products, greenhouse structures, and related horticultural equipment. Through a combination of organic growth and strategic acquisitions, the Debtors have assembled an integrated business-to-business distribution platform that connects a highly fragmented supplier base with thousands of commercial customers throughout the United States and Canada.

9. The Debtors conduct operations in Canada through De Cloet (an entity organized under the laws of Ontario). Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors had approximately two dozen employees in Canada. The Debtors own one distribution, manufacturing, and service facility in Simcoe, Ontario, Canada. The Canadian operations support the broader North American distribution platform and reflect the enterprise's cross-border operations developed over many years.

10. Following commencement of the Chapter 11 Cases, De Cloet will commence an ancillary proceeding (the "Canadian Proceeding") under Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act (Canada) R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36 (as amended, the “CCAA”) before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the “Canadian Court”). The purpose of the Canadian Proceeding is to: (1) request that the Canadian Court recognizes the Chapter 11 Case of De Cloet as “foreign main proceedings” and De Cloet as a “foreign representative” under the applicable provisions of the CCAA;³ (2) request that the Canadian Court lend assistance to this Court in protecting the Debtors’ assets, operations, and property in Canada.; and (c) seek any other appropriate relief and protections from the Canadian Court that De Cloet deems just and proper in the furtherance of the protection of the Debtors’ estates.

11. To commence the Canadian Proceeding, the Debtors require authority for a debtor entity to act as the “foreign representative”⁴ on behalf of the Debtors’ estates (the “Foreign Representative”). Therefore, the Debtors request authority to appoint De Cloet as such Foreign Representative and commence the Canadian Proceeding.

12. More specifically, section 46 of the CCAA provides in part:

- a. Application for recognition of a foreign proceeding. —
A foreign representative may apply to the court for recognition of the foreign proceeding in respect of which he or she is a foreign representative.
- b. Documents that must accompany application. — . . . the application must be accompanied by . . . (b) a certified copy of the instrument, however designated, authorizing the foreign representative to act in that capacity or a certificate from the foreign court affirming the foreign representative’s authority to act in that capacity . . .

CCAA, R.S.C., Ch. C-36, § 46 (1985) (Can.)

13. Accordingly, for De Cloet to seek recognition as the Foreign Representative in the Canadian Proceeding and thereby apply to have the Chapter 11 Cases recognized by the Canadian Court, this Court must enter an order authorizing De Cloet to act as the Foreign Representative in the Canadian Proceeding. Upon entry of the Proposed Order, De Cloet will be able to file such order with the Canadian Court as the instrument authorizing De Cloet to act as the Foreign Representative pursuant to section 46 of the CCAA.

Basis For Relief

14. Section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that “[a] trustee or another entity (including an examiner) may be authorized by the court to act in a foreign country on behalf of an estate created under section 541. An entity authorized to act under this section may act in any way permitted by the applicable foreign law.” 11 U.S.C. § 1505.

15. The purpose of section 1505 is to allow a debtor to petition a foreign court for recognition of its chapter 11 case and to request that the foreign court cooperate with and lend assistance to the debtor and this Court in meeting the objectives of both chapter 15 of the Bankruptcy Code and the Model Law on Cross-Border Insolvency (the “Model Law”),⁵ adopted by the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) in 1997, on which chapter 15 is based.

16. Further, section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that “a debtor in possession shall have all the rights . . . and powers, and shall perform all the functions and duties . . . of a trustee serving in a case under this chapter.” 11 U.S.C. § 1107(a).

17. The Debtors submit that sections 1107 and 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code confer upon De Cloet, as a debtor in possession, sufficient rights, powers, and duties to act as the Foreign Representative of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Proceeding. To avoid any possible confusion or doubt regarding this authority and to comply with the requirements of section 46 of the CCAA, the Debtors seek entry of an order, pursuant to section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code, explicitly authorizing De Cloet to act as the Foreign Representative of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Proceeding.

18. Authorizing De Cloet to act as the Foreign Representative on behalf of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Proceeding will allow for coordination between these Chapter 11 Cases and the Canadian Proceeding and provide an effective mechanism to protect and maximize the value of the Debtors' assets and estates. Courts have granted relief similar to that requested herein in other large chapter 11 cases where a debtor has foreign assets or operations requiring a recognition proceeding. See, e.g., In re Eddie Bauer LLC, Case No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026); In re WeWork Inc., Case No. 23-19865 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 8, 2023); In re CTI Liquidation Co., Inc. (f/k/a Cyxtera Techs., Inc.), Case No. 23-14853 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 6, 2023); In re Celsius Network LLC, Case No. 22-10964 (MG) (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. Dec. 9, 2022); In re Armstrong Flooring, Inc., Case No. 22-10426 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. May 11, 2022); In re Knotel, Inc., Case No. 21-10146 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 11, 2021). Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the relief requested herein is necessary and appropriate, is in the best interests of their estates and creditors, and should be granted in all respects.

Notice

19. Notice of this Motion will be provided to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the DIP Agent and Prepetition ABL Agent; (c) counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders; (d) the parties listed on the Debtors' consolidated list of their thirty (30) largest unsecured creditors; (e) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (f) the Internal Revenue Service; (g) the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Delaware; (h) Delaware State Treasury; (i) Delaware Secretary of State; and (j) all parties that have requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that no other or further notice is required under the circumstances.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors requests that the Court enter the Proposed Order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A, granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as may be just and proper under the circumstances.

Following a series of arm’s-length negotiations with the Debtors’ Prepetition ABL Agent, the Debtors ultimately agreed to the terms of the proposed DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral, which provides the Debtors with sufficient runway to pursue the following concurrent, potential transactions during this case: a going-concern sale process; an orderly liquidation of inventory and receivables; and/or a disposition of the Debtors’ real estate portfolio. The proposed DIP Facility consists of a postpetition superpriority senior secured, asset-based debtor-in-possession revolving credit facility and other financial accommodations in an aggregate principal amount of up to $55 million, consisting of (a) revolving credit commitments (the “DIP Commitments”, which DIP Commitments shall be available to the Borrower to draw upon pursuant to a “creeping roll-up” whereby all Cash Collateral is used to pay down the Prepetition Revolving Loans (as defined in the Interim Order) and gives rise to a corresponding amount of availability under the DIP Facility (subject to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement), provided, that all Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations (each as defined in the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement) shall be deemed DIP Obligations upon entry of the Interim Order (the “Interim Financing”); and (b) upon the entry of a final order approving the DIP Facility, a cashless roll-up and refinancing of any remaining outstanding Prepetition Revolving Loans of the DIP Lenders as loans under the DIP Facility, together, to the extent not already paid in cash on the Closing Date, with the cash payment of any accrued interest, fees, and other amounts outstanding that constitute Prepetition ABL Obligations owing to such lenders through the entry of the Final Order (collectively, the “DIP Roll-Up Loan” and, together with the Interim Financing, the “DIP Loans” as more fully defined in the DIP Credit Agreement and the Interim Order).

4. The DIP Facility will be secured by liens (the “DIP Liens”) that are senior to the Prepetition Liens with respect to the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral (each as defined in the Interim Order), and junior to the liens of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral (each as defined in the Interim Order). However, the Carve Out (as defined in the Interim Order) will be senior to all Prepetition Liens, including the liens of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral.

5. All of the Debtors’ cash on hand as of the Petition Date is subject to the liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors (as defined below) and thus constitutes Cash Collateral. In the absence of a consensual agreement with the Prepetition Secured Creditors regarding the DIP Facility and use of Cash Collateral, the Debtors anticipate that there would have been a contentious dispute on the first day of these Chapter 11 Cases with respect to nonconsensual use of Cash Collateral and/or the priming of the Prepetition Collateral (as defined in the Interim Order), the outcome of which would have been uncertain.

6. Even with access to Cash Collateral, the Debtors require the proceeds from the DIP Facility to fund operations during these Chapter 11 Cases, including three complementary and concurrent value-maximizing workstreams: (i) a court-supervised going-concern sale process, (ii) an orderly monetization of inventory, receivables, and other assets, and (iii) a real estate disposition program. As of the date hereof, the Debtors only have approximately $1,956,642 in cash on hand. Absent immediate access to the DIP Facility and Cash Collateral, the Debtors will have insufficient liquidity to satisfy, among other things: (a) their working capital and business operating needs; (b) the administrative costs of these Chapter 11 Cases; and (c) the funding requirements necessary to pursue the foregoing workstreams and preserve value for the benefit of all stakeholders. Any delay or inability to draw under the DIP Facility and use Cash Collateral will require the Debtors to cease operations and cause immediate and irreparable harm to the value of the Debtors' estates to the detriment of all stakeholders.

7. For these reasons, in addition to the reasons set forth below, in the DIP Declaration, and in the First Day Declaration, the Debtors believe that entry into the DIP Facility is an exercise of the Debtors' sound business judgment and will maximize value for the Debtors' stakeholders. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court approve the Debtors' entry into the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral.

See Interim Order ¶ F.
Priority of Claims and Liens; Collateral Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(c)(1)(B)(i)	The DIP Liens on the DIP Collateral shall have the following priority, subject to the Carve Out and the Prepetition Permitted Liens: (a) with respect to Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral, the DIP Liens shall be first and senior in priority to all other interests and liens; and (b) with respect to Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, the DIP Liens shall be junior and subordinate to the Prepetition Term Loan Liens. The DIP Superpriority Claims shall have priority over any and all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex attached as Exhibit 1 to the Interim Order. Upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, all remaining outstanding Prepetition Revolving Loans shall automatically be deemed exchanged and converted on a cashless basis into and constitute DIP Obligations (the “Full Roll-Up” and, together with the Creeping Roll-Up, the “DIP Roll-Up Obligations”). All accrued and unpaid interest, expenses, fees, and other sums payable in respect of the outstanding Prepetition ABL Obligations through the entry of the Final Order, including any amounts not previously paid pursuant to the Interim Order, shall be paid in cash by the DIP Loan Parties to the DIP Agent on the date of entry of the Final Order. All Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations (each as defined in the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement) shall be deemed DIP Obligations upon entry of the Interim Order. The DIP Roll-Up Obligations shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, and solely on account of, the agreement of the Prepetition ABL Lenders to fund amounts under the DIP Facility and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition ABL Obligations.

Within three (3) Business Days of delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice, the Debtors shall fund the outstanding Carve Out amount into the Professional Fee Escrow Account, first from cash on hand and then from proceeds of the DIP Facility. Use of Funds to Investigate Prepetition Liens Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(c)(1)(B); Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(L)	Pursuant to the Interim Order, no portion of the Carve Out, DIP Collateral, or Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used to investigate, initiate, or prosecute any claims or causes of action against the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Creditors, or to challenge the validity, perfection, priority, or enforceability of the DIP Liens or the Prepetition Liens. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Committee (if any) may use up to an aggregate of $50,000 of DIP Loan proceeds and DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) to investigate (but not prosecute) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors and potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action, or defenses against any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, prior to the Challenge Deadline. See Interim Order ¶ 32.
Liens on Avoidance Actions Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(U)	The DIP Collateral includes, subject to and effective upon entry of the Final Order, all claims and causes of action to avoid a transfer of property or an obligation incurred by the DIP Loan Parties pursuant to any applicable section of the Bankruptcy Code, including chapter 5 and section 724(a) of the Bankruptcy Code (collectively, the "Avoidance Actions"), and any proceeds thereof ("Avoidance Proceeds"). The DIP Superpriority Claims shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof, including, subject to entry of the Final Order, Avoidance Proceeds. See Interim Order ¶ 6(a) (xvii).
Waiver or Modification of the Automatic Stay Fed. R. Bankr. P. 4001(c)(1)(B)(iv)	The automatic stay imposed under section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is modified as necessary to effectuate the terms of the Interim Order, including to permit: (a) the Debtors to grant the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims; (b) the Debtors to incur all liabilities and obligations to the DIP Agent under the DIP Loan Documents; and (c) the Debtors to pay, and the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition Secured Creditors to retain and apply, all amounts required under the Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents. Upon the occurrence of a Termination Declaration Date, the automatic stay is further modified so that, following the expiration of the five (5) Business Day Remedies Notice Period (and the funding of the Carve Out), the DIP Agent and the applicable Prepetition Agents shall be entitled to exercise all rights and remedies under the DIP Loan Documents and the Prepetition Credit Documents, respectively, without further order of the Court. DIP Credit Agreement § 7.01.
Repayment Features Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(I)	All outstanding Revolving Loans, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon, shall be due and payable on the Revolving Credit Maturity Date. All proceeds of DIP Collateral received during a Cash Dominion Period shall be applied in accordance with the waterfall set forth in Section 2.17(b) of the DIP Credit Agreement, including first to pay Pre-Petition Revolving Loans in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement.

Emergency Default Hearing Local Rule 4001-2(a)(i)(T)	Upon the occurrence of a Termination Declaration Date, the Debtors and all other parties-in-interest shall be entitled to seek an emergency hearing with the Court (a "Remedies Determination") during the five (5) Business Day Remedies Notice Period. If the Debtors seek an emergency hearing during the Remedies Notice Period but such hearing is scheduled by the Court for a later date (without any request by the Debtors for such later scheduling), the Remedies Notice Period shall be tolled and the automatic stay shall not be modified until such hearing occurs. The Court may fashion an appropriate remedy at a Remedies Determination hearing; provided that the rights of the Debtors, the DIP Credit Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors to contest such relief are expressly preserved. Except as set forth in the Interim Order or as otherwise ordered by the Court prior to the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, after the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors shall waive their right to seek relief that would in any way impair or restrict the rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Creditors. See Interim Order ¶ 22(c).

BACKGROUND

A. General Background

15. On the date hereof (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors-in-possession pursuant to sections 1107 and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made, and no official committees have been appointed, in these Chapter 11 Cases.

16. Additional factual background regarding the Debtors, including their business operations, corporate and capital structure, and the events leading to the filing of these Chapter 11 Cases is set forth in detail in the First Day Declaration.

B. The Debtors' Prepetition Funded Debt Obligations

17. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' funded debt consists primarily of obligations under (i) a senior secured asset-based revolving credit facility (the "Prepetition ABL Facility") pursuant to that certain ABL Credit Agreement, dated as of November 5, 2021 (as amended and in effect on the Petition Date, the "Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement"), and (ii) a senior secured term loan credit facility pursuant to that certain Credit Agreement, dated as of November 5, 2021, (as amended and in effect on the Petition Date, the “Prepetition Term Loan Facility” and, together with the Prepetition ABL Facility, the “Prepetition Loan Facilities”), each more fully described below. The agents and lenders under the Prepetition Loan Facilities are referred to herein as the “Prepetition Secured Creditors.”

18. Prepetition ABL Facility. The Prepetition ABL Facility is governed by the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement, entered into by and among the Borrower, BFG Purchaser Parent, Inc., as Holdings, the other U.S. borrowers and Canadian borrowers from time to time party thereto, the subsidiaries of the Borrower from time to time party thereto as guarantors, the financial institutions from time to time party thereto as lenders, and ACF FinCo I LP, as Administrative Agent, Collateral Agent, and Lead Arranger (the “Prepetition ABL Agent”).

19. The Prepetition ABL Facility serves as the Debtors’ principal source of seasonal working-capital financing. Because the Debtors must build inventory well in advance of the spring selling season, borrowings under the revolving facility historically increased during periods of inventory accumulation and declined as seasonal receivables were collected. This revolving borrowing cycle has long been central to the Debtors’ operating model.

20. As of August 18, 2026, approximately $43,079,675.97 million in Prepetition Revolving Loans remained outstanding under the Revolving Credit Facility, plus other Obligations under the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement, which has an aggregate commitment of approximately $120 million. The facility is secured by substantially all of the Debtors’ assets⁴ and contains financial and operational provisions designed to protect lender collateral, including cash dominion provisions that become operative if the Debtors' unrestricted cash falls below specified thresholds. The Prepetition ABL Facility matures on December 31, 2028.

21. Prepetition Term Loan Facility. In addition to the Prepetition ABL Facility, certain of the Debtors are borrowers and/or guarantors under the Prepetition Term Loan Facility, which is governed by the Credit Agreement, dated as of November 5, 2021 (as amended, the "Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement"), entered into by and among Borrower, Holdings, the subsidiary guarantors from time to time party thereto, the lenders from time to time party thereto, and Ares Capital Corporation, as Administrative Agent and Collateral Agent (the "Prepetition Term Loan Agent").

22. The Prepetition Term Loan Facility matures on December 31, 2029 and is secured by substantially all assets of the Company.⁵

23. The Prepetition Term Loan Facility originally provided approximately $210 million of acquisition financing through an initial term loan and a delayed draw facility. In light of the Debtors' developing liquidity challenges, the parties amended both the Prepetition ABL Facility and the Prepetition Term Loan Facility in November 2025 (together, the "November 2025 Amendments"). Among other things, the November 2025 Amendments provided the additional borrowing capacity through a new term loan with a principal amount of $45 million and a delayed draw term loan facility with commitments of $15 million, and extended the maturities of the existing instruments. In connection with the November 2025 Amendments, the existing term loans were exchanged, on a cashless basis, into two new classes of term loans: "Term Loans A" (as defined in the prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement) in an aggregate principal amount of $32,500,000, and "Term Loans B" (as defined in the prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement) in an aggregate principal amount of $178,449,679.50. Accrued but unpaid interest of $8,199,679.50 through the Fourth Amendment Effective Date (as defined therein) was paid in kind by being added to the principal of the exchanged term loans immediately prior to the exchange.

24. In addition, as part of the November 2025 Amendments, the parties also modified the interest payment mechanics applicable to the Prepetition Term Loan Facility. As amended, interest accruing on the Prepetition Term Loan Facility is paid in kind (unless the Debtors affirmatively elect to pay cash interest), a feature that provided the Debtors helpful relief by reducing near-term cash interest obligations. When interest is paid in kind, an additional 3.00% per annum PIK premium is added to the applicable interest rate, further increasing the rate at which the outstanding principal balance grows.

25. As of the Petition Date, the obligors under the Prepetition Term Loan Facility were obligated to the lenders thereto in the aggregate outstanding principal amount of not less than $299,456,012.99, consisting of Term Loans A in the aggregate outstanding principal amount of not less than $137,608,289.31 and Term Loans B in the aggregate outstanding principal amount of not less than $161,847,723.68.

26. Intercreditor Agreement. The Debtors are party to an Intercreditor Agreement, dated as of November 5, 2021 (as amended by the First Amendment dated January 12, 2024 and the Second Amendment dated November 10, 2025, the “Intercreditor Agreement”), by and among the Prepetition ABL Agent, and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent. The Intercreditor Agreement governs the relative lien priorities and enforcement rights of the Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to the Debtors’ assets, which are divided into two categories: (i) “ABL Priority Collateral,” consisting primarily of accounts receivable, inventory, cash, deposit accounts, and related general intangibles (the “Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral”), and (ii) “Term Loan Priority Collateral,” consisting of all other common collateral, including real estate, equipment, equity interests, and intellectual property (the “Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral”). The Prepetition ABL Agent holds a first-priority lien on Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral, while the Prepetition Term Loan Agent holds a first-priority lien on Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, with each agent holding a second priority lien on the other’s priority collateral.

27. The DIP Facility proposed herein is structured to be consistent with the Intercreditor Agreement. Pursuant to Section 5.2(a) of the Intercreditor Agreement, the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties are deemed to have consented to the DIP Facility, subject to certain conditions that are met by the proposed DIP Facility. The DIP Liens will prime the existing Prepetition ABL Liens on the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral. With respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, the DIP Liens shall not prime, and shall instead be subject and subordinate to, the Prepetition Term Loan Liens; provided, however, that the Prepetition Term Loan Liens shall in all cases be subject and subordinate to the Carve Out and the Prepetition Permitted Liens, in each case as and to the extent set forth in the DIP Orders (including the Lien Priority Annex).

C. The Debtors’ Need for Debtor-in-Possession Financing and Use of Cash Collateral

28. The Debtors require access to the DIP Facility and authority to use Cash Collateral to ensure they have sufficient liquidity to operate their businesses and administer their estates during the Chapter 11 Cases. Access to the DIP Facility will provide the Debtors with immediate access to liquidity and to the Cash Collateral, which will (a) provide the Debtors with critical working capital for their businesses; (b) fund other general corporate purposes; (c) fund the payments authorized by the Court pursuant to the “first-day motions” filed contemporaneously with the Motion; (d) satisfy administrative costs and expenses incurred in the Chapter 11 Cases; and (e) permit the Debtors the runway necessary to maximize value through three complementary and concurrent workstreams: (i) a court-supervised going-concern marketing and sale process; (ii) an orderly monetization of inventory, receivables, and other assets; and (iii) a real estate disposition program.

29. The Debtors have insufficient cash to fund their operations during the Chapter 11 Cases. Absent authority to enter into and access the DIP Facility, even for a limited period of time, the Debtors will be unable to continue operating their businesses, pursue the foregoing concurrent workstreams, or administer the Chapter 11 Cases. Thus, denial of the authority sought by this Motion would result in immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates.

30. Immediate access to the DIP Facility is essential so the Debtors can assure their continuing employees, vendors, and other interested parties that they have sufficient capital to continue operating during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases. Even with access to Cash Collateral, the Debtors do not believe it would be prudent, or even possible, to administer these Chapter 11 Cases solely on a "cash collateral" basis.

31. The DIP Facility, together with the relief in the Interim Order and the Final Order, will permit the Debtors to consensually use the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties' Cash Collateral (as defined in the Interim Order), which is a critical element of the Debtors' decision to enter into the DIP Facility. As explained above, absent the consent of the Prepetition ABL Parties, there would have likely been a dispute on the first day of these Chapter 11 Cases regarding the use of Cash Collateral. These issues would likely have been litigated on the first day of these Chapter 11 Cases and, had the Debtors not prevailed, could have caused a significant and value-destructive disruption to the Debtors' ability to operate in chapter 11 and administer these Chapter 11 Cases. Instead, the DIP Facility resolves these issues by providing for consensual use of Cash Collateral, which, in turn, allows the Debtors to preserve the going-concern value of the estate for the benefit of all stakeholders.

32. The Debtors have worked closely with their advisors to evaluate their cash requirements for their businesses. As part of such evaluation, the Debtors and their advisors reviewed and analyzed the Debtors' near-term weekly and long-term cash flow forecasts and prepared the Approved Budget. These forecasts take into account anticipated disbursements during the projected periods and consider a number of factors, including, but not limited to, the effect of the chapter 11 filing on the operations of the business, fees and interest associated with postpetition financing, professional fees, and vendor obligations, as well as the operational performance of the Debtors' business and the costs associated with conducting the three concurrent workstreams described herein, namely, a going-concern marketing and sale process, an orderly monetization of inventory, receivables, and other assets, and a real estate disposition program. The Debtors believe that the Approved Budget provides an accurate reflection of the Debtors' funding requirements over the identified period and is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances.

D. Alternative Sources of Financing are Not Available on Better Terms

33. The Debtors believe that the DIP Facility represents the best option currently available to the Debtors under the circumstances for financing, based on a financing process that revealed no viable alternatives. DIP Decl. ¶ 14. As stated in the DIP Declaration, SSG Advisors, LLC ("SSG"), the Debtors' proposed investment banker, conducted a marketing process to determine the availability of third-party financing sources that were willing to provide financing to the Debtors in their current financial situation. Id. ¶ 7. In consultation with the Debtors and their advisors, SSG developed a list of parties that could be interested in providing financing to the Debtors to fund these Chapter 11 Cases. Id. ¶ 8. Because substantially all of the Debtors' assets are encumbered and subject to validly perfected first priority liens, the strategy to obtain the best source of financing from the market was reflective of the practical realities of the Debtors' existing circumstances. Id. SSG solicited interest from no less than 14 third-party institutions that routinely provide debtor-in-possession financing. Id. ¶ 7. SSG inquired whether any of these parties would be willing to extend financing to the Debtors on an unsecured or junior priority (or even priming) basis. Id.

34. Ultimately, no third party that the Debtors communicated with as part of the marketing process, and no other party that the Debtors are aware of, was willing to provide postpetition financing to the Debtors on an unsecured, junior lien, or even priming basis. Id. at 8. No party contacted, other than the DIP Lenders, was willing to provide postpetition financing. Id.

35. After extensive, arm's-length negotiations with the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the DIP Lenders, the Debtors were able to secure the proposed DIP Facility. The DIP Facility is critical to the Debtors' ability to pay the administrative costs of these Chapter 11 Cases and should provide the Debtors with sufficient liquidity to operate their business. The DIP Facility provides the Debtors with the runway necessary to maintain relationships with key suppliers and vendors during the pendency of these Chapter 11 Cases, thereby preserving value to pursue a value-maximizing pathway for the benefit of all stakeholders.

36. Based on the financing process described above, there are no alternative sources of financing reasonably available to the Debtors and no alternative sources of financing currently available under the circumstances on both better and executable terms than those being provided by the DIP Facility. DIP Decl. ¶ 9. Accordingly, the DIP Facility is reasonable and appropriate under the circumstances and is the Debtors' best option currently available under the circumstances. Id.

37. For all the reasons set forth herein, the DIP Facility is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, and the Debtors respectfully request that the Court approve the DIP Facility on the terms and conditions described herein.

BASIS FOR RELIEF REQUESTED

I. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Obtain Secured, Superpriority DIP Financing

A. Entry into the DIP Facility Is an Exercise of the Debtors' Sound Business Judgment

38. The Court should authorize the Debtors, as a sound exercise of their business judgment, to enter into the DIP Facility. Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes the Debtors to obtain secured or superpriority postpetition financing. As long as an agreement to obtain secured credit does not run afoul of the provisions of, and policies underlying, the Bankruptcy Code, courts grant debtors considerable deference to debtors' sound business judgment in obtaining such credit. See, e.g., In re Trans World Airlines, Inc., 163 B.R. 964, 974 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (approving a postpetition loan and receivables facility because such facility "reflect[ed] sound and prudent business judgment"); In re L.A. Dodgers LLC, 457 B.R. 308, 313 (Bankr. D. Del. 2011) ("[C]ourts will almost always defer to the business judgment of a debtor in the selection of the lender."); In re Barbara K. Enters., Inc., Case No. 08-11474, 2008 WL 2439649, at *14 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. June 16, 2008) (explaining that courts defer to a debtor's business judgment "so long as a request for financing does not 'leverage the bankruptcy process' and unfairly cede control of the reorganization to one party in interest."); In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. 34, 40 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990) ("[C]ases consistently reflect that the court's discretion under section 364 [of the Bankruptcy Code] is to be utilized on grounds that permit [a debtor's] reasonable business judgment to be exercised so long as the financing agreement does not contain terms that leverage the bankruptcy process and powers or its purpose is not so much to benefit the estate as it is to benefit a party-in-interest.”); In re Farmland Indus., Inc., 294 B.R. 855, 881 (Bankr. W.D. Mo. 2003) (noting that approval of postpetition financing requires, inter alia, an exercise of “sound and reasonable business judgment.”).

39. To determine whether the business judgment standard is met, the Court need only “examine whether a reasonable business person would make a similar decision under similar circumstances.” In re Exide Techs., 340 B.R. 222, 239 (Bankr. D. Del. 2006); see also In re Curlew Valley Assocs., 14 B.R. 506, 513–14 (Bankr. D. Utah 1981) (noting that courts should not second guess a debtor’s business decision when that decision involves “a business judgment made in good faith, upon a reasonable basis, and within the scope of [the debtor’s] authority under the [Bankruptcy] Code”). To determine whether the business judgment test is met, “the court ‘is required to examine whether a reasonable business person would make a similar decision under similar circumstances.’” In re Dura Auto. Sys. Inc., Case No. 06-11202 (KJC), 2007 Bankr. LEXIS 2764, at *272 (Bankr. D. Del. Aug. 15, 2007) (citation omitted). The Court should evaluate the soundness of a debtor’s business judgment, “in context, and considering the relative circumstances of the parties.” Farmland Indus., 294 B.R. at 886 (“Viewed in isolation, several of the terms of the [postpetition financing] might appear to be extreme or even unreasonable. Certainly, many of them favor the DIP Lenders. But, taken in context, and considering the relative circumstances of the parties, the Court does not believe that the terms are unreasonable.”).

40. Here, as described in the First Day Declaration and the DIP Declaration, the Debtors’ determination to enter into the DIP Facility was a business decision guided by the Debtors’ financial and restructuring needs. Specifically, the Debtors and their advisors determined that the Debtors will require additional liquidity to maintain operational continuity while the Debtors pursue a value-maximizing transaction. The ability to pursue concurrent workstreams—including a going-concern marketing and sale process, an orderly monetization of inventory, receivables, and other assets, and a real estate disposition program—on the Petition Date strongly weighed in favor of the Debtors’ decision to enter into the DIP Facility. To maximize value for these Debtors’ estates, maintaining positive ordinary course relations with its employees and vendors is crucial.

41. The Debtors’ advisors attempted to find other parties that would be willing to provide financing on more favorable terms. After finding none, the Debtors ultimately selected the DIP Lenders’ proposal as the best available option.

42. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that entry into the DIP Facility is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates, is necessary to preserve the value of estate assets, and is an exercise of the Debtors’ sound and reasonable business judgment.

B. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Obtain Postpetition Financing on a Secured and Superpriority Basis

43. The Debtors satisfy the requirements for relief under section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code, which authorizes a debtor to obtain secured or superpriority financing under certain circumstances. Specifically, section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that:

If the trustee is unable to obtain unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of this title as an administrative expense, the court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt:

(1) with priority over any or all administrative expenses of the kind specified in section 503(b) or 507(b) of this title; [or]

(2) secured by a lien on property of the estate that is not otherwise subject to a lien;

(3) secured by a junior lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien[.]

11 U.S.C. § 364(c).

44. To satisfy the requirements of section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor need only demonstrate “by a good faith effort that credit was not available” to the debtor on an unsecured or administrative expense basis. Bray v. Shenandoah Fed. Savs. & Loan Ass’n (In re Snowshoe Co.), 789 F.2d 1085, 1088 (4th Cir. 1986) (“The statute imposes no duty to seek credit from every possible lender before concluding that such credit is unavailable.”); see also Pearl-Phil GMT (Far East) Ltd. v. Caldor Corp., 266 B.R. 575, 584 (S.D.N.Y. 2001) (superpriority administrative expenses authorized where debtor could not obtain credit as an administrative expense). When few lenders are likely to be able and willing to extend the necessary credit to a debtor, “it would be unrealistic and unnecessary to require [the debtor] to conduct such an exhaustive search for financing.” In re Sky Valley, Inc., 100 B.R. 107, 113 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1988), aff’d sub nom., Anchor Savs. Bank FSB v. Sky Valley, Inc., 99 B.R. 117, 120 n. 4 (N.D. Ga. 1989); see also Ames Dep’t Stores, 115 B.R. at 40 (approving financing facility and holding that the debtor made reasonable efforts to satisfy the standards of section 364(c) where it approached four lending institutions, was rejected by two, and selected the most favorable of the two offers it received).

45. The Debtors satisfy the standard. Despite efforts to obtain DIP financing proposals from third parties outside the capital structure, the Debtors were unable to obtain any competing financing proposals on any terms. In this process, SSG contacted a number of third-party financial institutions in an effort to procure DIP financing. After reviewing their options, the Debtors determined the DIP Lenders’ proposal was the best option currently available under the circumstances to the Debtors and that that could not obtain postpetition financing without granting the liens and claims in the priorities set forth in the Interim DIP Order and the DIP Loan Documents and described herein.

46. Absent the DIP Facility, which will provide sufficient liquidity to administer these Chapter 11 Cases, the value of the Debtors' estates would be significantly impaired to the detriment of all stakeholders. Given the Debtors' circumstances, the Debtors believe that the terms of the DIP Facility, including the DIP Roll-Up Loan and other economic provisions of the DIP Facility, as set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement, are reasonable under the circumstances. For these reasons, the Debtors have met the standard for obtaining postpetition financing under section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code.

C. The DIP Facility Provides for Consensual Priming

47. Courts may authorize a debtor to obtain postpetition credit secured by a lien that is senior or equal in priority to existing liens on the encumbered property, without the consent of existing lien holders if the debtor cannot otherwise obtain such credit and the interests of existing lien holders are adequately protected. See 11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1). Specifically, section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides:

(1) The court, after notice and a hearing, may authorize the obtaining of credit or the incurring of debt secured by a senior or equal lien on property of the estate that is subject to a lien only if:

(A) the trustee is unable to obtain such credit otherwise; and

(B) there is adequate protection of the interest of the holder of the lien on the property of the estate on which such senior or equal lien is proposed to be granted.

11 U.S.C. § 364(d)(1).

48. When determining whether to authorize a debtor to obtain credit secured by senior liens as authorized by section 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts focus on whether the transaction will enhance the value of the debtor's assets. Courts consider a number of factors, including:

- whether the party subject to a priming lien has consented to such treatment;
- whether alternative financing is available on any other basis (i.e., whether any better offers, bids, or timely proposals are before the court);
- whether the proposed financing is necessary to preserve estate assets and is necessary, essential and appropriate for continued operation of the debtors' businesses;
- whether the terms of the proposed financing are reasonable and adequate given the circumstances of both the debtors and proposed lender(s); and
- whether the proposed financing agreement was negotiated in good faith and at arms'-length and entry therein is an exercise of sound and reasonable business judgment and in the best interest of the debtor's estate and its creditors.

See, e.g., Ames Dep't Stores, 115 B.R. at 37–39; Bland v. Farmworker Creditors, 308 B.R. 109, 113-14 (S.D. Ga. 2003); Farmland Indus., 294 B.R. at 862–79; In re Lyondell Chem. Co., Case No. 09-10023 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. March 5, 2009); Barbara K. Enters., 2008 WL 2439649 at *10.

Here, each of the Prepetition Secured Creditors whose liens will be primed has consented or is deemed to have consented to the priming of its respective liens on the terms described herein and set forth in the proposed Interim Order. Therefore, the relief requested pursuant to section 364(d)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code is appropriate.

D. The Liens Granted Under the DIP Facility Further Reflect a Sound Exercise of the Debtors' Business Judgment

49. The Debtors believe that, after extensive arm's-length negotiations with the DIP Lenders, the DIP Loan Documents reflect the most favorable terms on which the Debtors are currently able to obtain postpetition financing and that they could not obtain financing without granting the liens in the priority described herein. Accordingly, because the Debtors' judgment does not run afoul of the provisions of, and policies underlying, the Bankruptcy Code, the Court should grant the Debtors considerable deference in acting in accordance with its business judgment and approve the liens required by the DIP Facility. See, e.g., In re Ames Dept. Stores, Inc., 115

B.R. at 40 (courts have discretion under Bankruptcy Code section 364 to permit debtors to exercise reasonable business judgment so long as (a) the terms of the financing agreement do not “leverage the bankruptcy process and powers” and (b) the financing agreement’s purpose is primarily to benefit the estate, and not a party in interest).

E. The Roll-Up Loan Is Necessary and Appropriate

50. As set forth herein, the DIP Roll-Up Loan contemplates repayment and refinancing of the Prepetition ABL Obligations outstanding as of the Petition Date pursuant to a “creeping roll-up” whereby all cash is used to pay down the Prepetition Revolving Loans and gives rise to a corresponding amount of availability under the DIP Facility (subject to the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement), and any remaining outstanding Prepetition Revolving Loans shall be fully “rolled” into the DIP Facility and shall constitute DIP Obligations upon the entry of the Final Order.

51. The DIP Lenders made it evident in their negotiations with the Debtors that the inclusion of the DIP Roll-Up Loan was a required part of any DIP Facility. DIP Decl. ¶ 10-11. Given the thorough negotiations with the DIP Lenders and the Debtors’ assessment, along with SSG, that they were unlikely to find better currently available alternatives given the circumstances, agreeing to the DIP Roll-Up Loan was a reasonable exercise of the Debtors’ business judgment. DIP Decl. ¶ 13. Moreover, the DIP Roll-Up Loan is subject to challenge until the Challenge Deadline and is, therefore, not prejudicial to the rights of creditors in these Chapter 11 Cases.

52. Courts in this jurisdiction have approved similar features in debtor-in-possession financing packages, including on an interim basis. See, e.g., In re American Signature, Inc., et al., No. 25-12105 (JKS) (Bankr. D. Del. Jan 8, 2026 (authorizing a $50 million DIP facility, including a $39 million roll-up of prepetition secured obligations); In re Synthego Corporation, Case No. 25-10823 (MFW) (Bankr. D. Del. May 9, 2025) (interim order authorizing $5 million new money loans and $10 million in roll-up loans); In re Molecular Templates, Inc., Case No. 25-10739 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. April 28, 2025) (authorizing an approximately $12 million DIP facility, including a $9 million roll-up of the prepetition secured obligations); In re Sientra, Inc., Case No. 24-10245 (JTD) (Bankr. D. Del. Feb. 14, 2024) (interim order authorizing $22 million new money loans and $35 million in roll-up loans); In re PGX Holdings, Inc., No. 23-10718 (CTG) (Bankr. D. Del. Jul. 31, 2023) (authorizing an approximately $63 million DIP Facility, including an approximately $43 million roll-up); In re SiO2 Medical Prods., Inc., No. 23-10366 (JTD) (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 26, 2023) (authorizing an approximately $120 million DIP facility, including a $60 million roll-up).

53. For the Debtors to obtain the benefits of the DIP Facility, the Debtors and the DIP Lenders agreed to the terms of the DIP Roll-Up Loan as incorporated into the DIP Facility. The DIP Lenders would not otherwise extend credit to the Debtors without such roll-up provisions. Accordingly, the proposed roll-up is an appropriate exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and should be approved.

II. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Use Postpetition Collateral, Including Cash Collateral

54. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code governs the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral. Under section 363(c)(2), a debtor may not use cash collateral unless "(A) each entity that has an interest in such cash collateral consents; or (B) the court, after notice and a hearing, authorizes the use, sale or lease in accordance with the provisions of this section." 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(2).

55. Here, the Debtors seek authority to use the Cash Collateral pursuant to the Approved Budget and have sought approval of various forms of adequate protection in favor of the Prepetition ABL Agent, including adequate protection liens and superpriority claims to the extent of any diminution and reimbursement of fees, costs and expenses (including, but not limited to, reasonable professional fees incurred by the Prepetition ABL Lenders). Importantly, the DIP

Lenders and Prepetition ABL Secured Parties consent to the use of Cash Collateral on the terms set forth in the Interim Order and Final Order.

56. The Prepetition ABL Secured Parties' Cash Collateral will be used to sustain the Debtors' business operations, pursue concurrent value-maximizing workstreams—including a going-concern marketing and sale process and an orderly monetization of inventory, receivables, and other assets—and administer these Chapter 11 Cases. If the Debtors are unable to use such Cash Collateral, they will be unable to fund payroll obligations, procure goods and services from vendors or administer these Chapter 11 Cases, thereby dissipating value to the detriment of the Debtors' estates and stakeholders.

57. Accordingly, based upon the foregoing, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize the Debtors' proposed use of Cash Collateral constituting Prepetition ABL Collateral to which the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties have consented and with respect to which the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties are adequately protected.

III. The DIP Lenders Should Be Deemed Good Faith Lenders

58. Section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code protects a good faith lender's right to collect on loans extended to a debtor, and its right in any lien securing those loans, even if the authority of the debtor to obtain such loans or grant such liens is later reversed or modified on appeal. Section 364(e) provides that:

The reversal or modification on appeal of an authorization under this section [364 of the Bankruptcy Code] to obtain credit or incur debt, or of a grant under this section of a priority or a lien, does not affect the validity of any debt so incurred, or any priority or lien so granted, to an entity that extended such credit in good faith, whether or not such entity knew of the pendency of the appeal, unless such authorization and the incurring of such debt, or the granting of such priority or lien, were stayed pending appeal.

11 U.S.C. § 364(e).

59. Here, the DIP Loan Documents embody the best terms on which the Debtors could currently obtain DIP Financing under the circumstances. See DIP Decl. ¶ 14. All negotiations regarding the provision of the DIP Facility were conducted on an arm's-length basis. Id. The terms and conditions of the DIP Facility are reasonable, and the proceeds of the DIP Facility will be used only for purposes that are permissible under the Bankruptcy Code. Further, no consideration is being provided to any party to the DIP Facility other than as disclosed herein. Accordingly, the Court should find that the DIP Lenders are “good faith” lenders within the meaning of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and are entitled to all of the protections afforded by that section.

IV. The Scope of the Carve Out Is Necessary and Appropriate

60. The DIP Liens are subject to the Carve Out (as described above). Without the Carve Out, the Debtors and other parties-in-interest may be deprived of certain rights and powers because the services for which professionals may be paid in these Chapter 11 Cases would be restricted. See In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. at 40 (observing that courts insist on carve outs for professionals representing parties-in-interest because “[a]bsent such protection, the collective rights and expectations of all parties-in-interest are sorely prejudiced”); In re Molycorp, Inc., 562 B.R. 67, 76 n. 39 (Bankr. D. Del. 2017) (“as a practical matter, the secured creditor usually agrees to the carve-out because otherwise nobody will represent the debtor or the committee and the case will fall apart, further diminishing the overall value of the secured creditor's collateral”). The Carve Out does not directly or indirectly deprive the Debtors’ estate or other parties-in-interest of possible rights and powers. Additionally, the Carve Out ensures that assets will be available for the payment of fees of the Clerk of the Bankruptcy Court or the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of Delaware and professional fees of the Debtors and an unsecured creditors committee, if one is appointed. Accordingly, the Carve Out is necessary and appropriate, and should be approved.

V. Modification of the Automatic Stay

61. By this Motion, the Debtors are requesting modification of the automatic stay (to the extent applicable) as necessary to, inter alia, (a) implement the terms of the Interim Order; (b) permit the Debtors to grant the security interests and liens described above and to perform such acts as may be requested to assure the perfection and priority of such security interests and liens; and (c) permit the DIP Lenders to exercise certain remedies upon the occurrence of an event of default under the DIP Loan Documents—subject to the Remedies Notice Period set forth in the Interim Order. The Debtors believe that these provisions are required for the Debtors to obtain the DIP Facility and use Cash Collateral as provided in the Interim Order.

62. Stay modification provisions of this kind are ordinary and standard terms of postpetition use of collateral by debtors-in-possession, and, in the Debtors' business judgment, are reasonable and necessary under the present circumstances. See, e.g., In re Freedom Forever LLC, Case No. 26-10522 (BLS) (Bankr. D. Del. June 1, 2026) (modifying the automatic stay as necessary to effectuate the terms of the DIP order); In re Impac Mortgage Holdings, Inc., Case No. 26-10593 (CTG) (Bankr. D. Del. May 20, 2026) (modifying automatic stay as necessary to effectuate the terms of the DIP order and following occurrence of an event of default); In re Avenger Flight Group, LLC, Case No. 26-10183-MFW (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 11, 2026) (same); In re SiO2 Medical Prods., Inc., No. 23-10366 (JTD) (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 26, 2023) (same); In re

Enjoy Tech., Inc., Case No. 22-10580 (JKS) (Bankr. D. Del. July 26, 2022) (terminating automatic stay after occurrence of event of default and applicable notice).⁶

63. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize the modification of the automatic stay in accordance with the terms set forth in the DIP Orders.

VI. Interim Approval of the DIP Facility

64. Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b) and (c) provide that a final hearing on a motion to use cash collateral pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 363 or to obtain credit under Bankruptcy Code section 364 be commenced no earlier than 14 days after the service of such motion. Upon request, however, a court is empowered to conduct a preliminary expedited hearing on the motion and to authorize the use of cash collateral and the obtaining of credit to the extent necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to a debtor's estate.

65. As described above and in the First Day Declaration, denial of immediate use of Cash Collateral and access to the DIP Facility will cause immediate and irreparable harm to the value of Debtors to the detriment of its creditors and other stakeholders. See First Day Decl. ¶ 71.

66. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court conduct a preliminary hearing on the Motion and authorize the Debtors from the entry of the Interim Order until the Final Hearing to use Cash Collateral and obtain credit under the terms of the DIP Credit Agreement.

VII. Request for a Final Hearing

67. Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 4001(b)(2), the Debtors request that the Court set a date for the Final Hearing that is no later than twenty-eight (28) days after the entry of the Interim Order and fix the date and time prior to the Final Hearing for parties to file objections to the relief requested by this Motion. The Debtors also requests authority to serve a copy of the signed Interim Order, which fixes the time and date for the filing of objections, if any, to entry of the Final Order, by first class mail upon the notice parties listed below, and further requests that the Court deem service thereof sufficient notice of the hearing on the Final Order under Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(2).

IMMEDIATE RELIEF IS NECESSARY TO AVOID IMMEDIATE AND IRREPARABLE HARM

68. Bankruptcy Rule 6003 provides that the relief requested in this Motion may be granted if the “relief is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003. The Third Circuit has interpreted the language “immediate and irreparable harm” in the context of preliminary injunctions. In that context, the court has instructed that irreparable harm is a continuing harm which cannot be adequately redressed by final relief on the merits and for which money damages cannot provide adequate compensation. See, e.g., Norfolk S. Ry. Co. v. City of Pittsburgh, 235 Fed. App’x 907, 910 (3d Cir. 2007) (citing Glasco v. Hills, 558 F.2d 179, 181 (3d Cir. 1977)). Furthermore, the harm must be shown to be actual and imminent, not speculative or unsubstantiated. See, e.g., Acierno v. New Castle County, 40 F.3d 645, 653-55 (3d Cir. 1994). The Debtors submit that for the reasons set forth herein, the relief requested in this Motion is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors and, accordingly, should be granted on an interim basis.

WAIVER OF NOTICE AND STAY UNDER BANKRUPTCY RULE 6004

69. To the extent that Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) applies, the Debtors respectfully request a waiver of such notice requirement in order to implement the foregoing requested relief.

70. The Debtors also request that the Court waive the stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), which provides that “[a]n order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property other than cash collateral is stayed until the expiration of 14 days after entry of the order, unless the court orders otherwise.” Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6004(h). As described above, the relief that the Debtors seek in this Motion is necessary for the Debtors to operate their businesses without interruption and to preserve value for their estate. Accordingly, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court waive the fourteen-day stay imposed by Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

NOTICE

71. Notice of this Motion will be provided to: (a) the U.S. Trustee; (b) counsel to the Prepetition DIP Agent and ABL Agent; (c) counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders; (d) the parties listed on the Debtors’ consolidated list of their thirty (30) largest unsecured creditors; (e) the United States Securities and Exchange Commission; (f) the Internal Revenue Service; (g) the Office of the United States Attorney for the District of Delaware; (h) Delaware State Treasury; (i) Delaware Secretary of State; and (j) all parties that have requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. As this Motion is seeking “first day” relief, the Debtors will serve this Motion and any order entered with respect to this Motion as required by Local Rule 9013-1(m). The Debtors submit that no other or further notice is required under the circumstances.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter the Interim Order, and following notice and the opportunity of parties-in-interest to be heard, the Final Order, granting the relief requested herein and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

(i) Prepetition ABL Obligations. The Borrower, certain of the other Debtors (in their respective capacities as guarantors of the Prepetition ABL Facility (as defined herein), collectively, the "Prepetition ABL Obligors") and ACF FINCO I LP, as administrative agent and collateral agent (in such capacities, the "Prepetition ABL Agent"), for its own benefit and the benefit of the lenders and letter of credit issuers from time to time party under the Prepetition ABL Facility (the "Prepetition ABL Lenders" and collectively with the Prepetition ABL Agent and the other Secured Parties (as defined in the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement), collectively, the "Prepetition ABL Secured Parties"), are party to that certain ABL Credit Agreement dated as of November 5, 2021 (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, replaced, or otherwise modified from time to time, the "Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement," and together with the Loan Documents (as defined therein), collectively, the "Prepetition ABL Documents," and the revolving facility thereunder, the "Prepetition ABL Facility"). (ii) Prepetition Term Loan Obligations. The Borrower, certain of the other Debtors (in their respective capacities as guarantors of the Prepetition Term Loan Facility (as defined herein), collectively, the “Prepetition Term Loan Obligors”), Ares Capital Corporation, as administrative agent and collateral agent (in such capacities, the “Prepetition Term Loan Agent”, and together with the Prepetition ABL Agent, the “Prepetition Agents”) for its own benefit and the benefit of the lenders from time to time party thereto (the “Prepetition Term Loan Lenders”, collectively with the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the “Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties” and, together with the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties, the “Prepetition Secured Creditors”) are party to that certain Credit Agreement, dated as of November 5, 2021, among BFG Purchaser Parent, Inc., Bamboo Purchaser, Inc., and the other Loan Parties party thereto, (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, replaced, or otherwise modified from time to time prior to the filing of the Petitions, the “Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement”, and together with the other “Loan Documents” (as defined therein), the “Prepetition Term Loan Documents” (together with the Prepetition ABL Documents, the “Prepetition Credit Documents”), and the term loan facility thereunder, the “Prepetition Term Loan Facility” and, together with the Prepetition ABL Facility, the “Prepetition Loan Facilities”). As of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Term Loan Obligors were obligated under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement to the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders in the aggregate outstanding principal amount of not less than $299,456,012.99, consisting of Term Loans A (as defined in the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement) in the aggregate outstanding principal amount of not less than $137,608,289.31 and Term Loans B (as defined in the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement) in the aggregate outstanding principal amount of not less than $161,847,723.68, plus all other “Obligations” (as defined in the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement), including, without limitation, all accrued, accruing, and unpaid interest (including default rate interest), fees, costs, expenses, indemnity obligations and disbursements (including, without limitation, all attorneys’ fees, accountants’ fees, auditor fees, appraisers’ fees, financial advisors’ fees, and related fees, costs, expenses, and disbursements), in each case payable pursuant to the Prepetition Term Loan Documents, plus (b) all amounts allowable under section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the “Prepetition Term Loan Obligations” and, together with the Prepetition ABL Obligations, the “Prepetition Secured Obligations”). The Prepetition Term Loan Obligations are secured by (i) first priority security interests in and liens on the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, and (ii) second priority security interests in and liens on the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement (the immediately forgoing liens and security interests, the “Prepetition Term Loan Liens” and, together with the Prepetition ABL Liens, the “Prepetition Liens”).

(iii) Intercreditor Agreement. That certain Intercreditor Agreement, dated as of November 5, 2021, entered into by and among the Prepetition ABL Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, and acknowledged and agreed to by Holdings, the Borrower, and the other Loan Parties party thereto (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, replaced, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Intercreditor Agreement”) governs the respective priority rights of the Prepetition Secured Creditors’ interests in and liens on the Prepetition Collateral as it concerns the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral and the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, as applicable.

(iv) Prepetition Obligations. Subject to paragraph 44 herein, each of the Debtors acknowledges that the Prepetition Secured Obligations owing to the Prepetition Secured Creditors, (a) constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the Debtors and their applicable affiliates, enforceable against them in accordance with their terms, and (b) no portion of the Prepetition Secured Obligations owing to the Prepetition Secured Creditors is subject to avoidance, recharacterization, reduction, set-off, offset, counterclaim, cross-claim, recoupment, defenses, disallowance, disgorgement, impairment, recovery, subordination (equitable or otherwise), or any other challenges pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law or regulation by any person or entity, including in any Successor Cases.

(v) Prepetition Liens. Subject to paragraph 44 herein, the Debtors acknowledge that, as of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors (a) constitute legal, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected security interests in and liens on the Prepetition Collateral, and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value, (b) are not subject to defense, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, avoidance, or recovery pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law or regulation by any person or entity, and (c) are senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral; provided that the Prepetition Term Loan Liens may be subject to certain liens senior (solely to the extent any such liens were valid, non-avoidable, and senior in priority to the Prepetition Term Loan Liens as of the Petition Date and properly perfected prior to the Petition Date or perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Term Loan Documents (the “Prepetition Term Loan Permitted Liens”); provided further that the Prepetition ABL Liens may be subject to certain liens senior (solely to the extent any such liens were valid, non-avoidable, and senior in priority to the Prepetition ABL Liens as of the Petition Date and properly perfected prior to the Petition Date or perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition ABL Documents (the “Prepetition ABL Permitted Liens” and, together with the Prepetition Term Loan Permitted Liens, the “Prepetition Permitted Liens”).

(vi) No Challenges / Claims. Subject to an investigation by a Committee, if one is appointed, permitted pursuant to paragraph 32 and 44 herein, the Debtors’ estates have no valid Claims (as such term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code), objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action against any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors, and employees with respect to the Prepetition Credit Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Prepetition Liens, or otherwise, whether arising at law or at equity, including, without limitation, any challenge, recharacterization, subordination, avoidance, recovery, disallowance, disgorgement, reduction, or other claims arising under or pursuant to sections 105, 502, 510, 541, 542 through 553, inclusive, or 558 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents. The Prepetition Secured Obligations constitute allowed, secured claims within the meaning of sections 502 and 506 of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to paragraph 44 herein, the Debtors have waived, discharged, and released any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the priority of the Debtors’ obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the Prepetition Liens.

(vii) Cash Collateral. Except as otherwise provided in the Prepetition Credit Documents, all of the Debtors’ cash, including, without limitation, the cash in their deposit accounts, wherever located, whether as original collateral or proceeds of other Prepetition Collateral, constitutes Cash Collateral within the meaning of section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and is Prepetition Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, subject to the Lien Priority Annex.

(viii) No Control. None of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent or the other Prepetition Secured Creditors, controls the Debtors or their operations, has authority to determine the manner in which any of the Debtors' operations are conducted or is a control person or "insider" (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors or any of their affiliates by virtue of any of the actions taken through the date of this Interim Order with respect to, in connection with, related to, or arising from this Interim Order, the DIP Facility, the DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, and/or the Prepetition Credit Documents.⁴

(ix) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of this Interim Order and subject to the rights of all parties-in-interest hereunder (including with respect to a Challenge (as defined herein)), other than the Debtors, as set forth in paragraph 44 herein, each of the Debtors, on their own behalf and on behalf of each of their past, present, and future predecessors, successors, heirs, subsidiaries, and assigns, and solely to the extent permitted under applicable law, hereby forever, unconditionally, permanently, and irrevocably releases, discharges, and acquits each of the DIP Agent, the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the other Prepetition ABL Secured Parties, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the other Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, and each of their respective successors, assigns, affiliates, parents, subsidiaries, partners, controlling persons, representatives, agents, attorneys, advisors, financial advisors, consultants, professionals, officers, directors, members, managers, shareholders, and employees, past, present and future, advisors, sub-fund advisors, and collateral managers, and each of their respective heirs, predecessors, successors, and assigns, in each case solely in their capacity as such (collectively, the “Released Parties”) of and from any and all claims, controversies, disputes, liabilities, obligations, demands, damages, expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees), actions, suits, controversies, proceedings, losses, damages, injuries, debts, liens, actions, judgments, and causes of action of any and every nature whatsoever, whether arising in law or otherwise, and whether known or unknown, matured or contingent, asserted, unasserted, suspected, unsuspected, accrued, unaccrued, pending, or threatened, arising under, in connection with, or relating to the DIP Obligations or DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations or the Prepetition Credit Documents, including, without limitation: (a) any so-called “lender liability” or equitable subordination claims or defenses; (b) Claims and causes of action arising under the Bankruptcy Code; and (c) any and all offsets, defenses, claims, counterclaims, set off rights, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action of any kind or nature whatsoever, whether arising at law or in equity, including any recharacterization, recoupment, subordination, avoidance, or other claim or cause of action arising under or pursuant to section 105 or chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any other similar provisions of applicable state, federal, or foreign law, including, without limitation, any right to assert any disgorgement or recovery, in each case, with respect to the extent, amount, validity, enforceability, priority, security, and perfection of any of the DIP Obligations, the DIP Loan Documents, the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Documents, or the Prepetition Liens, and further waive and release any defense, right of counterclaim, right of setoff, or deduction to the payment of the DIP Obligations and the Prepetition Secured Obligations that the Debtors now have or may claim to have against the Released Parties, arising under, in connection with, based upon, or released to any and all acts, omissions, conduct undertaken, or events occurring prior to entry of this Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph F(ix) shall relieve the DIP Agent, the other DIP Lenders, or the Debtors of their obligations hereunder or under the DIP Obligations.

G. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Request for Postpetition Financing. The Debtors seek authority on an interim basis to: (a) enter into, and access and use the liquidity provided under, the DIP Facility on the terms described herein and in the DIP Loan Documents; and (b) use Cash Collateral on the terms described herein to administer the Chapter 11 Cases and fund operations. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors shall apply the proceeds of the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents, the Lien Priority Annex and paragraph 17 of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, upon entry of the Final Order, the exchange and conversion on a cashless basis of the remaining outstanding Prepetition ABL Obligations into DIP Obligations.

(ii) Priming of Certain Prepetition Liens; Consent to Use of Cash Collateral.

For the avoidance of doubt, with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, the DIP Liens shall not prime, and shall instead be subject and subordinate to the Prepetition Term Loan Liens solely with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral; provided, however, that the Prepetition Term Loan Liens shall in all cases be subject and subordinate to the Carve Out, subject to paragraph 31(j). The Prepetition ABL Secured Parties have consented to the use of the Cash Collateral and to the subordination of the Prepetition ABL Liens to the DIP Liens and the Carve Out on the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order.

(iii) Immediate Need for Postpetition Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

The Debtors' immediate need to use Cash Collateral and to obtain credit pursuant to the DIP Facility as provided for herein is necessary and critical in order to enable the Debtors to continue operations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to maintain business relationships with their vendors, suppliers, and customers, to pay their employees, to protect the value of their assets, and to otherwise finance their operations requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral. Without the ability to access the DIP Facility or use Cash Collateral, the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, their equity holders, and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of all or substantially all of the Debtors' assets, would suffer immediate and irreparable harm. The Debtors do not have sufficient available sources of working capital and financing to operate their businesses or maintain their properties in the ordinary course of business without the DIP Facility and authorized use of Cash Collateral.

(iv) DIP Roll-Up Loan. Upon (i) entry of this Interim Order, without any further action by the Debtors or any other party, but subject to paragraph 44 herein, all cash, collections and proceeds of DIP Collateral (other than Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral) shall be used, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, to reduce the Prepetition Revolving Loans and result in a corresponding increase to availability under the DIP Facility (the "Creeping Roll-Up"), and (ii) entry of the Final Order granting such relief, but subject to paragraph 44 herein, all remaining outstanding Prepetition Revolving Loans shall automatically be deemed exchanged and converted on a cashless basis into and constitute DIP Obligations (the "Full Roll-Up" and, together with the Creeping Roll-Up, the "DIP Roll-Up Obligations"). All accrued and unpaid interest, expenses, fees, and other sums payable in respect of the outstanding Prepetition ABL Obligations through the entry of the Final Order including any amounts not previously paid pursuant to this Interim Order shall be paid in cash by the Loan Parties to the Administrative Agent on the date of entry of the Final Order. The Prepetition ABL Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtors thereunder, without the inclusion of (a) the Creeping Roll-Up, upon entry of this Interim Order, and (b) the Full Roll-Up, upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief. The DIP Roll-Up Obligations shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, and solely on account of, the agreement of the Prepetition ABL Lenders to fund amounts under the DIP Facility and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition ABL Obligations. All accrued interest, expenses, fees and other sums constituting Prepetition ABL Obligations owing to the Prepetition ABL Lenders shall be paid in cash on the Closing Date, and all Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations (each as defined in the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement) shall be deemed DIP Obligations upon entry of this Interim Order.

(v) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. Given their current financial condition, financing arrangements, and capital structure, the Debtors are unable to obtain financing from sources other than the DIP Credit Parties on terms more favorable than the DIP Facility. The Debtors are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtors are unable to obtain adequate credit: (a) having priority over that of administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 507(a), and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) secured by a lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or (c) secured solely by a junior lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is subject to a lien. Financing on a postpetition basis is not otherwise available under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2), and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting the DIP Agent, for the benefit of the DIP Credit Parties, in each case, subject to the terms of this Interim Order: (x) perfected security interests in and liens on (each as provided herein) all of the Debtors' existing and after-acquired assets with the priorities and to the extent set forth herein; (y) superpriority claims and priming liens to the extent set forth herein; and (z) the other protections set forth in this Interim Order, and without incurring the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims and Adequate Protection Liens (each as defined herein) described herein.

(vi) Adequacy of the Approved Budget. As set forth in the DIP Loan Documents, the Debtors have prepared and delivered to the DIP Credit Parties, a budget, a summary copy of which is attached as Exhibit 3 hereto (as the same may be modified from time to time consistent with the terms of the DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order, and once approved by DIP Agent, the "Approved Budget"). As a condition to entry into the DIP Credit Agreement, the extensions of credit under the DIP Facility, and the authorization to use Cash Collateral, the DIP Credit Parties require, and the Debtors have agreed, that proceeds of the DIP Facility and the Cash Collateral shall be used in a manner consistent with the terms and conditions of the DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order and in accordance with the Approved Budget (subject to Permitted Variances (as defined herein)).

(vii) Certain Conditions to DIP Facility. The DIP Lenders' willingness to make the DIP Loans is conditioned upon, among other things: (a) the Debtors obtaining Court approval to enter into the DIP Loan Documents and to incur all of the respective obligations thereunder, and to confer upon the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties all applicable rights, powers, and remedies thereunder in each case as modified by this Interim Order; (b) the provision and scope of adequate protection, as set forth herein, of the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties' interests in the Prepetition Collateral pursuant to sections 361, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; and (c) the DIP Credit Parties being granted, as security for the prompt payment of the DIP Facility and all other obligations of the Debtors under the DIP Loan Documents, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, senior, first priority perfected security interests in and liens upon the DIP Collateral to the extent set forth herein.

H. Prepetition ABL Lenders' Adequate Protection. Until such time as the Prepetition ABL Obligations are Paid in Full,⁵ the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties are entitled to receive adequate protection pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code and as set forth in paragraph 12 of this Interim Order resulting from, among other things: (i) provisions of this Interim Order granting the DIP Liens; (ii) the use of the Cash Collateral; (iii) the use, sale,

⁵ "Paid in Full" or "Payment in Full" means the indefeasible repayment in full in cash of all obligations (including principal, accrued and unpaid interest and fees, reimbursable expenses and indemnities, other than contingent indemnification obligations for which no claim has been asserted and threatened, and all other amounts due and owing by the Debtors) under the applicable credit facility and this Interim Order, the cash collateralization or repayment in full in cash of all treasury and cash management obligations, hedging obligations, and bank product obligations, and the cancellation, replacement, backing, or cash collateralization of letters of credit, in each case, in accordance with the terms of the applicable facility and that each of the Prepetition ABL Agent, Prepetition ABL Lenders, Prepetition Term Loan Agent, Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, DIP Agent and DIP Lenders, as the case may be, shall have received a release from each Debtor and any Committee of and from all demands, actions, causes of action, suits, covenants, contracts, controversies, agreements, promises, sums of money, accounts, bills, reckonings, damages and any and all other claims, counterclaims, defenses, rights of set-off, demands and liabilities (including, without limitation any obligations or liabilities of any kind related to the Carve Out upon payment in full of the Prepetition ABL Obligations, the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations or DIP Obligations) in form and substance acceptable to the Prepetition ABL Agent, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, or the DIP Agent, as applicable or in the case of the Committee, instead of such release, (A) if the Challenge Deadline (as defined in this Interim Order) has not elapsed, a written notice or other confirmation that no Challenge or any other claims of any kind (including with respect to the Carve Out upon payment in full of the Prepetition ABL Obligations, Prepetition Term Loan Obligations or DIP Obligations) will be asserted or (B) if the Challenge Deadline has elapsed, then no Challenge or any other claim has been asserted or any Challenge or other claim asserted has been dismissed pursuant to a final, non-appealable order of a court of competent jurisdiction and a written notice or other confirmation that no claim of any kind with respect to the Carve Out will be asserted against the Prepetition ABL Agent, any Prepetition ABL Secured Party, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, any Prepetition Term Loan Secured Party, the DIP Agent or any DIP Lender.

lease, or depreciation or other Diminution in Value of the Prepetition Collateral; and/or (iv) the imposition of the automatic stay under the Bankruptcy Code, subject in each case to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex. The terms of the adequate protection being provided reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute a reasonable compromise for the use of the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral, including Cash Collateral.

I. Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties' Adequate Protection. Until such time as the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations are Paid in Full, the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties are entitled to receive adequate protection pursuant to sections 361, 362, 363 and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code and as set forth in paragraph 12 of this Interim Order resulting from, among other things: the (i) provisions of this Interim Order granting the DIP Liens; (ii) use, sale, lease, or depreciation or other Diminution in Value of the Prepetition Collateral; and/or (iii) the imposition of the automatic stay under the Bankruptcy Code, subject in each case to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex. The terms of the adequate protection being provided reflect the Debtors' prudent exercise of business judgment and constitute a reasonable compromise for the use of the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral as provided herein.

J. Sections 506(c) and 552(b). The Debtors have agreed as a condition to obtaining financing under the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral that as a material inducement to the DIP Credit Parties' agreement to provide the DIP Facility and the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties' consent to the use of Cash Collateral, and in exchange for: (a) the DIP Credit Parties' willingness to provide the DIP Facility to the extent set forth herein; (b) the DIP Credit Parties' and the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties' agreement to subordinate the DIP Liens and the Prepetition ABL Liens, respectively, to the Carve Out; and (c) the consensual use of Cash Collateral consistent with the Approved Budget (subject to Permitted Variances), the terms of the DIP Loan Documents, and the terms of this Interim Order, subject to and upon entry of the Final Order, each of the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition ABL Secured Parties shall receive a waiver of any equities of the case exceptions or claims under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and a waiver of unjust enrichment and similar equitable relief as set forth below; and the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition ABL Secured Parties shall receive a waiver of the provisions of section 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

K. Good Faith of the DIP Credit Parties.

(i) Willingness to Provide Financing. Each of the DIP Lenders has indicated a willingness to provide financing to the Debtors subject to: (a) on an interim basis, the entry by this Court of this Interim Order, and on a final basis, the entry by this Court of a Final Order; (b) approval by this Court of the terms and conditions of the DIP Facility and the DIP Loan Documents; and (c) entry of findings by this Court that such financing is essential to the Debtors' estates, that each of the DIP Credit Parties is extending credit to the Debtors pursuant to the DIP Loan Documents in good faith, and that each of the DIP Credit Parties' claims, superpriority claims, security interests, liens, rights, and other protections granted pursuant to this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents will have the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code.

(ii) Business Judgment and Good Faith Pursuant to Section 364(e). The terms and conditions of this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, the extension of credit and the fees paid and to be paid thereunder: (a) are fair, reasonable, and the best available to the Debtors under the circumstances; (b) reflect the Debtors' exercise of prudent and sound business judgment; and (c) are supported by reasonably equivalent value and consideration. The DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral were negotiated in good faith and at arm's length among the Debtors and the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties. The use of Cash Collateral and credit to be extended under the DIP Loan Documents shall be deemed to have been so allowed, advanced, made, used, and extended in good faith, and for valid business purposes and uses, within the meaning of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, and each of the DIP Credit Parties is therefore entitled to the protection and benefits of section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code and this Interim Order in the event that this Interim Order or any provision hereof is vacated, reversed, or modified, on appeal or otherwise. The DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition ABL Secured Parties have acted in good faith in connection with this Interim Order and their reliance on this Interim Order is in good faith.

L. Prepetition Permitted Liens. Nothing herein shall constitute a finding or ruling by this Court that any alleged Prepetition Permitted Lien is valid, senior, enforceable, prior, perfected, or non-avoidable. Moreover, nothing shall prejudice the rights of any party-in-interest, including, but not limited to, the Debtors, the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition Secured Creditors or the Committee (if any), to challenge the validity, priority, enforceability, seniority, perfection, or extent of any alleged Prepetition Permitted Lien and/or security interests. Subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief, the right of a seller of goods to reclaim such goods under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code is not a Prepetition Permitted Lien and is expressly subject to the Prepetition Liens and the DIP Liens.

M. Good Cause. Good cause has been shown for the entry of this Interim Order. The relief requested in the Motion is necessary, essential, and appropriate and is in the best interest of and will benefit the Debtors, their creditors, and their estates, as its implementation will, among other things, provide the Debtors with the necessary liquidity to: (a) minimize disruption to the Debtors' businesses and on-going operations; (b) preserve and maximize the value of the Debtors' estates for the benefit of all the Debtors' creditors; and (c) avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors, their creditors, their businesses, their employees, and their assets. The terms of the DIP Facility are fair and reasonable, reflect each Debtor's exercise of its business judgment, and are supported by reasonably equivalent value and fair consideration. The DIP Facility is the product of reasonable, arm's-length, good faith negotiations between the Debtors and the DIP Credit Parties.

N. Immediate Entry. Good and sufficient cause exists for immediate entry of this Interim Order pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 4001(c)(2).

Based upon the foregoing findings and conclusions, the Motion and the record before this Court with respect to the Motion, and good and sufficient cause appearing therefor,

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED THAT:

1. Motion Granted; Interim Financing Approved. The Motion is granted on an interim basis, the Interim Financing is authorized on an interim basis, and the use of Cash Collateral on an interim basis is authorized, solely to the extent of the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order.

2. Objections Overruled. All objections, reservations of rights, or other statements with respect to the Interim Financing and/or entry of this Interim Order to the extent not withdrawn or resolved are hereby overruled on the merits.

DIP Facility Authorization

3. Authorization of the DIP Financing and DIP Loan Documents. The Debtors are expressly and immediately authorized and empowered to: (a) execute and deliver the DIP Loan

Documents; (b) incur and to perform the DIP Obligations (including the Creeping Roll-Up)⁶ in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents (including the Approved Budget); and (c) deliver all instruments, agreements, certificates, letters, and documents that may be necessary, desirable, or required for performance by the Debtors under the DIP Facility and the creation and perfection of the DIP Liens described in and provided for by this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents. The Debtors are hereby authorized to pay the principal, interest, fees, expenses and other amounts described in the DIP Loan Documents as such become due on the terms set forth in the DIP Loan Documents and without need to obtain further Court approval, including, without limitation, commitment fees, exit fees, collateral management fees, any additional fees and other amounts set forth in the DIP Loan Documents, and the reasonable and documented fees and disbursements of the DIP Credit Parties' attorneys, advisers, accountants, and other consultants, all to the extent required by the DIP Loan Documents, with invoices to be provided in accordance with paragraph 25 below. Upon execution and delivery, the DIP Loan Documents shall represent valid and binding, and joint and several, obligations of the Debtors, enforceable against each of the Debtors and their estates in accordance with the terms of the DIP Loan Documents. The Debtors are also hereby authorized, by this Interim Order, to make the Adequate Protection Payments. Without any further action by the Debtors or any other party, but subject to any Challenge (as defined herein) and an appropriate remedy fashioned by this Court in the event of a successful Challenge, the Debtors shall be authorized and deemed to have repaid and refinanced (i) the Prepetition ABL Obligations with proceeds of the Creeping Roll-Up, as applicable and (ii) upon entry of the Final Order, all additional outstanding Prepetition ABL Obligations with the Full Roll-Up.

⁶ The Full Roll-Up remains subject to entry of the Final Order.

4. Authorization to Borrow. Until a Termination Declaration Date (as defined herein), and subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the DIP Loan Documents, the DIP Facility, and this Interim Order, and in order to prevent immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates, the Debtors are hereby authorized, prior to the entry of the Final Order, to request extensions of credit under the DIP Facility up to an aggregate principal amount of $22 million at any one time outstanding. No other corporate action is required for the Debtors to execute and deliver the DIP Loan Documents, perform their obligations thereunder, or request any extension of credit under the DIP Facility as set forth herein.

5. DIP Obligations. The DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order shall constitute and evidence the validity and binding effect of the DIP Obligations, which DIP Obligations shall be enforceable against the Debtors, their estates and any successors thereto, including, without limitation, any trustee or other estate representative appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases, or any case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases (collectively, "Successor Cases"). Upon entry of this Interim Order, the DIP Obligations shall include all loans (for the avoidance of doubt, the DIP Roll-Up Loan shall be included upon entry of the Final Order), and any other indebtedness or obligations, contingent or absolute, which may now or from time to time be owing by any of the Debtors to any of the DIP Credit Parties under the DIP Loan Documents or this Interim Order, including, without limitation, all principal, accrued interest, costs, fees, expenses, and other amounts owed pursuant to the DIP Loan Documents, and shall be joint and several obligations of the Debtors in all respects; provided that the DIP Roll-Up Loan shall be subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder. No obligation, payment, transfer, or grant of security under the DIP Credit Agreement, the other DIP Loan Documents or this Interim Order shall be stayed, restrained, voidable, or recoverable under the Bankruptcy Code or under any applicable law (including, without limitation, under section 502(d) of the Bankruptcy Code), or be subject to any defense, reduction, setoff, recoupment, or counterclaim.

6. Postpetition Liens and Collateral.

(a) Effective immediately upon the entry of this Interim Order, pursuant to sections 364(c)(3) and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, the DIP Agent (for the benefit of itself and the other DIP Lenders under and as described in the DIP Loan Documents) is hereby granted, continuing valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and automatically and properly perfected postpetition security interests in and liens, (collectively, the “DIP Liens”) on all tangible and intangible prepetition and postpetition assets and real property of the DIP Loan Parties, whether existing on the Petition Date or thereafter acquired, and the proceeds, products, rents, and profits thereof including, without limitation, the following (the “DIP Collateral”):

(xviii) subject to and effective upon the entry of the Final Order granting such relief, the DIP Loan Parties’ rights under Sections 506(c) and 552 of the Bankruptcy Code;

(b) Notwithstanding anything in this Interim Order or the DIP Loan Documents to the contrary, in no event shall DIP Collateral include: (a) any leasehold interest in non-residential real property that prohibits or restricts the granting of liens thereon (except as permitted pursuant to applicable non-bankruptcy law), but shall include the proceeds of the sale or other disposition of such leases; and (b) any security deposits held by a landlord under any non-residential real property lease or the Debtors' interest in any pre-paid rent under any such lease (but shall include the Debtors' reversionary interests therein), in each case, unless such lien is expressly permitted under such lease.

7. DIP Lien Priority in DIP Collateral.

(a) DIP Liens. Pursuant to Section 364(d), the DIP Liens on the DIP Collateral securing the DIP Obligations shall be first and senior in priority to all other interests and liens of every kind, nature, and description, whether created consensually, by an order of this Court or otherwise, including, without limitation, liens or security interests granted in favor of third parties in conjunction with sections 363, 364, or any other section of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable law; provided, however, that the DIP Liens on the DIP Collateral shall be subordinate to the Prepetition Permitted Liens and subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex.

(b) Other than as set forth herein, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Carve Out, the Adequate Protection Liens, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims (each of which shall be subject to the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex): (i) shall not be made subject to or pari passu with (A) any lien, security interest, or claim heretofore or hereinafter granted in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases or any claim for reclamation or return (whether asserted pursuant to section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise), and shall be valid and enforceable against the Debtors, their estates, any trustee, or any other estate representative appointed or elected in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, (B) any lien that is avoided and preserved for the benefit of the Debtors and their estates under section 551 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise, and (C) any intercompany or affiliate lien or claim; and (ii) shall not be subject to challenge under sections 510, 549, 550, or 551 of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that the DIP Roll-Up Loan shall be subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder.

8. DIP Superpriority Claims.

(a) DIP Superpriority Claim. Subject to the Carve Out on account of all DIP Obligations now existing or hereafter arising pursuant to this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, or otherwise, the DIP Agent (for the benefit of itself and the other DIP Lenders) is hereby granted to the maximum extent permitted pursuant to sections 364(c)(1), 503, and 507 of the Bankruptcy Code, an allowed superpriority administrative expense claim in each of the Chapter 11 Cases and any Successor Cases (collectively, the “DIP Superpriority Claim”) for all DIP Obligations; provided that the DIP Roll-Up Loan shall be subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder. Subject to paragraph 8(b) of this Interim Order, the Carve Out, the Lien Priority Annex, and Prepetition Permitted Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claim shall have, to the fullest extent permitted under the Bankruptcy Code, priority over any and all other obligations, liabilities, and indebtedness of each Debtor, whether now in existence or hereafter incurred by such Debtor including without limitation administrative expenses of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (upon entry of the Final Order), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 546(d), 726, and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code.

(b) Priority of DIP Superpriority Claim. The DIP Superpriority Claim, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof, including subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief, Avoidance Proceeds.

9. No Obligation to Extend Credit. Except as may be required to fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account (as defined herein) or as otherwise required under this Interim Order, no DIP Credit Party shall have any obligation to make any loan or advance under the DIP Loan Documents unless all of the conditions precedent to the making of such extension of credit under the applicable DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order have been satisfied in full or waived in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents.

10. Use of Proceeds of the DIP Facility. The DIP Loans shall be made available to the Debtors: (a) on the Closing Date (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) to pay the fees, costs and expenses incurred in connection with the transactions contemplated hereby; and (b) on and/or after the Closing Date (i) to repay the Prepetition ABL Obligations pursuant to the Creeping Roll-Up and, subject to entry of the Final order, the Full Roll-Up, (ii) for the Debtors' working capital requirements in accordance with the provisions governing the Approved Budget (including the Permitted Variances) set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement, (iii) to fund the costs, fees, and expenses in connection with administration of the Chapter 11 Cases in accordance with the provisions governing the Approved Budget (including the Permitted Variances) set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement, (iv) payment of all reasonable and documented out of pocket costs, fees, and expenses required by the DIP Loan Documents, (v) payment of Court approved prepetition liabilities of the DIP Loan Parties in accordance with the provisions governing the Approved Budget (including the Permitted Variances) set forth herein and in the DIP Credit Agreement, (vi) to fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account and obligations benefitting from the Carve Out, and (vii) to fund such other costs and expenses of the Debtors and their estates as the DIP Agent may approve in writing, in its sole discretion, as to both the amount thereof and the permitted uses thereof, in each case of (a) and (b) above, in accordance with the terms of the DIP Loan Documents. For the avoidance of doubt, until such time as the DIP Obligations and the Prepetition ABL Obligations have been Paid in Full, except as may be otherwise agreed by the DIP Agent, any fees or disbursements of any Case Professional (which shall not include, for the avoidance of doubt, those payments authorized or required pursuant to paragraphs 12(b), 25 and 26 of this Interim Order) shall be paid solely from the Professional Fee Escrow Account (including, to the extent applicable, the Case Professional Carve Out Limit funded into the Professional Fee Escrow Account following delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice (as each term is defined herein)) and any retainer held by a Case Professional, as applicable.

Authorization to Use Cash Collateral

11. Authorization to Use Cash Collateral. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents, and in compliance with the Approved Budget (subject to Permitted Variances), the Debtors are authorized to use Cash Collateral only in accordance with the Approved Budget (subject to Permitted Variances) until such time that the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties terminate the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral as provided herein; provided that the Adequate Protection Payments, as applicable, and other forms of adequate protection set forth herein are paid and maintained; provided further that nothing herein shall impede the Debtors' ability and entitlement to fund the Carve Out as provided in paragraph 31 hereof; provided further that during the Remedies Notice Period (as defined herein), the Debtors may use Cash Collateral solely to fund the Carve Out in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Interim Order and the Approved Budget, and (i) pay payroll (provided that the Debtors shall be prohibited from paying any severance or bonuses), (ii) U.S. Trustee fees, and (iii) subject to the consent of the DIP Agent in its reasonable discretion (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), other day-to-day operational expenses that are critical to the administration of the Debtors' estates during the Remedies Notice Period (not to exceed the Approved Budget under any circumstances absent the written consent of the DIP Agent and, solely if the proposed payment relates to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, the written consent of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent). All fees and costs incurred by the Debtors in connection with any Remedies Determination (including the fees and costs of its professionals) shall be funded solely by the Carve Out.

Adequate Protection Provisions

12. As adequate protection for the interest of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) on account of the granting of, among other things, the DIP Liens, the incurrence of the DIP Obligations, the subordination, as applicable, of the Prepetition Liens to the Carve Out, the Debtors' use of Cash Collateral, and any other diminution in value arising out of the imposition of the automatic stay or the Debtors' use, sale, lease, depreciation, or disposition of the Prepetition Collateral and Cash Collateral during the pendency of the Chapter 11 Cases (collectively, "Diminution in Value"), the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall receive adequate protection as follows:

(a) Adequate Protection Liens. To the extent of any Diminution in Value, each of the Prepetition ABL Agent and Prepetition Term Loan Agent (for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Creditors, as applicable) are hereby granted, pursuant to sections 361, 363(e), and 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable and perfected replacement and additional postpetition security interests in, and liens on the DIP Collateral (the "Adequate Protection Liens"), which shall each be (x) subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex and (y) subordinate to the Prepetition Permitted Liens, as applicable. The Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition ABL Agent (on behalf of the Prepetition ABL Lenders) shall secure the Prepetition ABL Obligations and the Adequate Protection Liens granted to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent (on behalf of the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders) shall secure the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations.

(i) The Adequate Protection Liens shall be: (A) deemed to be valid, binding, non-avoidable, enforceable, and fully perfected as of the Petition Date; and (B) in all instances, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex. Other than as set forth herein, until all of the Prepetition Secured Obligations are Paid in Full, the Adequate Protection Liens shall not be made subject to or pari passu with any lien or security interest by any court order heretofore or hereinafter granted in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases. The Adequate Protection Liens shall be valid and enforceable against any trustee or other estate representative appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, upon the conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code (or in any other Successor Cases), and/or upon the dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases. The Adequate Protection Liens shall not be subject to Bankruptcy Code sections 506(c) (upon entry of the Final Order), 510, 549, or 550. No lien or interest avoided and preserved for the benefit of any Debtor's estate pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 551 shall be made pari passu with or senior to the Adequate Protection Liens.

(ii) Priority of Adequate Protection Liens. The Adequate Protection Liens shall be payable from and have recourse to all DIP Collateral, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex.

(b) Adequate Protection Payments.

(i) Until the Prepetition ABL Obligations have been Paid in Full, all claims (including principal, interest at the default rate of interest specified in Section 2.12(c) of the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement, and letter of credit fees, costs and other charges) arising from or related to the Prepetition ABL Obligations shall continue to accrue and be paid in cash at the default rate of interest specified in Section 2.12(c) of the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement monthly in arrears on the first Business Day of each calendar month, commencing with the first such date to occur after entry of this Interim Order (the “ABL Lender Payments”).

(ii) Until the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations have been Paid in Full, all claims (including principal, interest at the default rate and letter of credit fees, costs and other charges) arising from or related to the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations shall continue to accrue interest at the applicable rate as provided for in the Prepetition Term Loan Documents through the Chapter 11 Cases.

(iii) The Prepetition ABL Agent (including any successor thereto) shall further be entitled to the payment of all reasonable and documented fees, costs, expenses and charges of the Prepetition ABL Agent, to the extent payable under the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement (the “ABL Fees and Expenses”) and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent (including any successor thereto) shall further be entitled to the payment of all reasonable and documented fees, costs, expenses and charges of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, to the extent payable under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement and solely from, and to the extent of, funds in the Term Loan Reserve (as defined herein), until Payment in Full of the DIP Obligations and Prepetition ABL Obligations and thereafter without limitation (the “Term Loan Fees and Expenses”, and together with ABL Fees and Expenses and the ABL Lender Payments collectively, the “Adequate Protection Payments”); provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Prepetition ABL Agent prior to and unpaid as of the Closing Date shall be paid indefeasibly upon the occurrence of the Closing Date without the Prepetition ABL Agent (or their counsel or other professionals) being required to deliver an invoice in summary form as set forth herein. For all ABL Fees and Expenses and Term Loan Fees and Expenses incurred after the Closing Date, counsel and/or professionals to the Prepetition Agents shall each deliver an invoice in summary form, which shall not be required to include time entry detail, but shall include a general description of the nature of the matters for which services were performed, and may be redacted for privileged information; provided, however, that the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee and any Committee reserve their rights to request additional detail regarding the services rendered and expenses incurred by such professionals to counsel to the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, and any Committee. If no written objection is received on the date that is ten (10) days after delivery of such invoice to counsel to the Debtors, the U.S. Trustee, and any Committee, the Debtors shall promptly pay such fees and expenses in full. If an objection to the applicable Prepetition Agent's invoice is timely received, the Debtors shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice, and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. None of the Adequate Protection Payments shall be subject to further approval by this Court or the U.S. Trustee guidelines, and counsel and/or professionals to the Prepetition Agents shall not be required to file applications or motions with this Court for the payment of any of its fees or out-of-pocket expenses (other than with respect to disputed amounts). Payments of any amounts set forth in this paragraph are not subject to avoidance, subordination, or disgorgement. For the avoidance of doubt, the Adequate Protection Payments shall be subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder.

(c) Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims.

(i) Superpriority Claims of the Prepetition Agents. As further adequate protection of the interests of the Prepetition Agents and the other Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Prepetition ABL Agent and Prepetition Term Loan Agent (for the benefit of itself and the other Prepetition Secured Creditors, as applicable) is hereby granted an allowed administrative claim against the Debtors' estates to the maximum extent permitted under section 503 of the Bankruptcy Code, with priority over all administrative expense claims and unsecured claims against the Debtors and their estates of any kind or nature whatsoever, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, including, without limitation, administrative expense claims of the kinds specified in or ordered pursuant to sections 105, 326, 328, 330, 331, 365, 503(a), 503(b), 506(c) (subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief), 507(a), 507(b), 546(c), 726, 1113, and 1114 of the Bankruptcy Code, as provided for by section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims"), to the extent that the Adequate Protection Liens do not adequately protect against any Diminution in Value of the Prepetition Agents' respective interests in the Prepetition Collateral.

(ii) Priority of Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims. The Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities as and to the extent set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, shall be payable from and have recourse to all prepetition and postpetition property of the Debtors and all proceeds thereof, including subject to entry of the Final Order granting such relief, Avoidance Proceeds.

(d) Reservations of Rights. Subject only to the Carve Out, the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, and the Prepetition Permitted Liens, nothing contained herein shall impair or modify the Prepetition Secured Creditors' rights under section 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code in the event that the adequate protection provided to the Prepetition Secured Creditors in this Interim Order is insufficient to compensate for the Diminution in Value of the interest of the Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral during the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases. Nothing contained in this Interim

Order shall be construed as an admission as to the extent of any Diminution in Value, if any, in the interest of any Prepetition Secured Creditors in the Prepetition Collateral and nothing shall impair or modify the rights of any party to contest any assertion of Diminution in Value or contest any request for additional adequate protection.

Provisions Common to DIP Financing and Use of Cash Collateral Authorizations

13. Amendments. The DIP Loan Documents may from time to time be amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, or otherwise modified, in each case in accordance with the provisions of the DIP Loan Documents governing amendments thereto, by the parties thereto, each without further application to or order of this Court; provided, that any amendment to the DIP Credit Agreement: that (a) shortens or lengthens the maturity of the extensions of credit thereunder; (b) increases or decreases the aggregate commitments thereunder; or (c) increases the rate of interest payable with respect thereto (each, a “Material DIP Amendment”), shall be (a) provided (which may be by electronic mail) to the U.S. Trustee, the Prepetition Agents and any Committee, which shall have five (5) days from the date of receipt of such notice within which to object, in writing to the Material DIP Amendment and (b) filed with the Court, it being understood that, among other things, (i) waivers for the benefit of the Debtors and extensions of Chapter 11 Case Milestones and similar deadlines, (ii) waivers for the benefit of the Debtors regarding Approved Budget testing, or any modifications, amendments, or updates to the Approved Budget made in accordance with paragraph 14 of this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents, shall not be considered “material” for purposes hereof, and may become immediately effective. If the U.S. Trustee, Prepetition Agent(s) or any Committee timely objects to the Material DIP Amendment, the Material DIP Amendment shall only be permitted pursuant to an order of this Court. The foregoing shall be without prejudice to the Debtors’ right to seek approval from this Court of a Material DIP Amendment on an expedited basis.

14. Approved Budget, Testing, and Permitted Variances.

(a) Approved Budget. The Approved Budget and any modification to, or amendment or update of, the Approved Budget shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Agent in its sole discretion and modified or amended in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents. The Approved Budget shall be updated, modified or supplemented by the Debtors in accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement and this Interim Order, but in any event the budget shall be updated from time to time upon the written request of the Administrative Agent and otherwise every two weeks; provided that, on or before the fourth Business Day of the first week (but in any event not later than Friday of such week) of each successive two-week period following the Closing Date (i.e., commencing with the week of August 30, 2026), the Borrowers shall submit an updated budget for the next successive thirteen-week period (it being understood that, unless otherwise agreed by the DIP Agent, each updated budget shall only add projections for periods not previously covered by any Approved Budget and shall not modify any prior periods). Each such updated, modified or supplemented budget shall be in form and substance satisfactory to the DIP Agent in its sole discretion, and no such updated, modified or supplemented budget shall be effective until so approved and once approved shall be deemed the Approved Budget; provided, however, that, in the event that the DIP Agent and the Debtors cannot agree as to a new Approved Budget, such disagreement shall give rise to an Event of Default under the DIP Credit Agreement once the period covered by the most recent Approved Budget has terminated.

(b) Permitted Variances. The Debtors shall comply with the Approved Budget subject to the permitted variances set out in the DIP Credit Agreement (as amended from time to time as provided herein, the “Permitted Variances”).

(c) Approved Budget Testing. Permitted Variances shall be reported by the Debtors on the Wednesday following the last Saturday of each completed week. For the avoidance of doubt, the testing of covenant compliance shall begin on the first full calendar week following the Petition Date. The Debtors shall prepare a variance report, and deliver such variance report to the DIP Agent, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and their advisors in accordance with the requirements set out in the DIP Credit Agreement.

15. Modification of Automatic Stay. The automatic stay imposed under section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code is hereby modified as necessary to effectuate all of the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, to permit: (a) the Debtors to grant the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims; (b) the Debtors to incur all liabilities and obligations to the DIP Agent as contemplated under the DIP Loan Documents; and (c) the Debtors to pay, and the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition Secured Creditors to retain and apply, all amounts referred to, required under, and in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents.

16. Perfection of DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens.

(a) This Interim Order shall be sufficient and conclusive evidence of the priority, perfection, and validity of the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, and the other security interests granted herein, effective as of the Petition Date, without any further act and without regard to any other federal, state, or local requirements or law requiring notice, execution, filing, registration, recording, or possession of the DIP Collateral, or other act to validate or perfect such security interest or lien, including, without limitation: (i) entering into any control agreements with any financial institution(s) party to a control agreement or other depository account consisting of DIP Collateral; (ii) any requirement to register liens on any certificates of title; (iii) the filing of any financing statements; (iv) the filing of any intellectual property filings; (v) entering into any mortgages; (vi) noticing any liens; and/or (vii) the taking of any similar actions (each of the foregoing (i)-(vii) a “Perfection Act”). Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the DIP Agent or any Prepetition Agent, as applicable, shall, in its sole discretion, elect for any reason to file, record, or otherwise effectuate any Perfection Act, then such DIP Agent or Prepetition Agent, as applicable, is authorized to perform such act, and the Debtors are authorized to perform such act to the extent necessary or required by the DIP Loan Documents, which act or acts shall be deemed to have been accomplished as of the date and time of entry of this Interim Order notwithstanding the date and time actually accomplished, and, in such event, the subject filing or recording office is authorized to accept, file, or record any document in regard to such act in accordance with applicable law. The DIP Agent or either Prepetition Agent, as applicable, may choose to file, record, or present a certified copy of this Interim Order in the same manner as a Perfection Act, which shall be tantamount to a Perfection Act, and, in such event, the subject filing or recording office is authorized to accept, file, or record such certified copy of this Interim Order in accordance with applicable law. Should the DIP Agent or either Prepetition Agent, as applicable, so choose and attempt to file, record, or perform a Perfection Act, no defect or failure in connection with such attempt shall in any way limit, waive, or alter the validity, enforceability, attachment, priority, or perfection of the postpetition liens and security interests granted herein by virtue of the entry of this Interim Order.

(b) To the extent that any applicable non-bankruptcy law otherwise would restrict the granting, scope, enforceability, attachment, or perfection of any liens and security interests granted and created by this Interim Order (including the DIP Liens and the Adequate Protection Liens) or otherwise would impose filing or registration requirements with respect to such liens and security interests, such law is hereby pre-empted to the maximum extent permitted by the Bankruptcy Code, applicable federal or foreign law, and the judicial power and authority of this Court; provided, however, that nothing herein shall excuse the Debtors from payment of any local fees, if any, required in connection with such liens. By virtue of the terms of this Interim Order, to the extent that the DIP Agent or either Prepetition Agent, as applicable, has filed Uniform Commercial Code financing statements, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other security or perfection documents under the names of any of the Debtors, such filings shall be deemed to properly perfect its liens and security interests granted and confirmed by this Interim Order without further action by the DIP Agent or applicable Prepetition Agent.

17. (a) Application of Proceeds of DIP Collateral. Subject to the Carve Out, the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, and the Prepetition Permitted Liens, as applicable, the proceeds of DIP Collateral shall be applied in accordance with the terms of the DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Documents and this Interim Order. The Debtors shall not, directly or indirectly, voluntarily purchase, redeem, defease, or prepay any principal of, premium, if any, interest or other amount payable in respect of any indebtedness prior to its scheduled maturity, other than the DIP Obligations, the Adequate Protection Payments required under this Interim Order, and obligations authorized by an order of this Court (which may include, without limitation, obligations secured by Prepetition Permitted Liens). The Debtors shall apply the proceeds of the DIP Collateral, the proceeds of the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral, and any other cash and collections and receipts of cash from any source, including accounts, sale of property, loan advances, or refunds (but excluding amounts reserved for the Carve Out and proceeds of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, which shall be applied in accordance with paragraph 17(b) hereof) to the repayment and refinancing of the Prepetition ABL Obligations as set forth in this Interim Order, the Prepetition Credit Documents and the DIP Credit Agreement. The extension of the DIP Facility and the repayment and refinancing of the Prepetition ABL Obligations with the proceeds of the DIP Loans are part of an integrated transaction.

(b) Proceeds of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, all proceeds of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral shall be deposited into a segregated account maintained by the Debtors (the “Term Loan Reserve”) and all Prepetition Liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall attach to funds in the Term Loan Reserve to the same extent and with the same priority as such Prepetition Liens attached to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral and the Debtors shall not use such cash collateral or make any distributions from the Term Loan Reserve without further order of the Court (the “Term Loan Reserve Release Order”) or the prior written consent of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent and Prepetition ABL Agent. All estate retained Case Professionals shall use reasonable efforts to indicate in their respective monthly fee applications, interim fee applications and/or final fee applications whether and to what extent any fees or expenses were incurred in connection with preserving or disposing of the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral. For the avoidance of doubt, any reasonable fees and expenses of the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties and their counsel shall be paid solely from funds in the Term Loan Reserve until the DIP Obligations and Prepetition ABL Obligations are paid in full. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, all parties’ rights, claims and defenses under this paragraph, including with respect to the gross cash proceeds received by the Debtors in connection with the sale or disposition of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral and the allocation of costs, fees, and expenses incurred in connection with such sale or disposition of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, are fully reserved and preserved.

18. Proceeds of Subsequent Financing. If the Debtors, any trustee, any examiner with enlarged powers, any responsible officer or any other estate representative subsequently appointed in the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases shall obtain credit or incur debt pursuant to sections 364(b), 364(c), or 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code in violation of the DIP Loan Documents at any time prior to the repayment in full in cash of all DIP Obligations, and the termination of the DIP Credit Parties' obligations to extend credit under the DIP Facility, then all the cash proceeds derived from such credit or debt shall immediately be turned over to the DIP Agent to be applied as set forth in paragraph 17 herein, subject to the Lien Priority Annex.

19. Maintenance of DIP Collateral and Prepetition Collateral. Until the Prepetition Secured Obligations and DIP Obligations are Paid in Full and the DIP Credit Parties' obligations to extend credit under the DIP Loan Documents are terminated, as provided therein, the Debtors shall insure the Prepetition Collateral and the DIP Collateral as required under the DIP Loan Documents and the Prepetition Credit Documents including, without limitation: (i) the payment of all past due tax obligations and assessments, solely in accordance with the Approved Budget; (ii) the payment of taxes and assessments that come due following the Petition Date as they come due, solely in accordance with the Approved Budget; and (iii) the maintenance of insurance consistent with the Debtors' practices prior to the Petition Date and any insurance related relief granted by the Court.

20. Termination Declaration Date. On a Termination Declaration Date (as defined herein), consistent with Article VII of the DIP Credit Agreement: (a) all DIP Obligations shall be immediately due and payable; and (b) all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility will terminate (subject, in each case, to funding of the Carve Out as provided herein).

21. Events of Default. The occurrence of an “Event of Default” under the DIP Credit Agreement, including failure to comply with any Chapter 11 Case Milestones (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement and attached hereto as Exhibit 4) as and when required as set forth in section 5.15 of the DIP Credit Agreement and on Exhibit 4 (unless otherwise extended by the DIP Agent in its sole discretion), in each case, on terms and conditions and subject to documentation (including, in all cases, forms of all applicable motions and orders) in form and substance reasonably satisfactory to the DIP Agent in all respects, shall constitute an event of default under this Interim Order after giving effect to any applicable cure period set forth in the DIP Credit Agreement (each, an “Event of Default”).

22. Rights and Remedies Upon Event of Default.

(a) Subject to the terms of the DIP Loan Documents, immediately upon the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default, notwithstanding the provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, without any application, motion, or notice to, hearing before, or order from this Court, but subject to the terms of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, the funding of the Carve Out, the Remedies Notice Period (as defined herein) and the notice and grace period provisions of the DIP Credit Agreement set forth in Article VII of the DIP Credit Agreement: (1) (i) the DIP Agent may declare in writing (the “DIP Termination Declaration”) (A) all DIP Obligations owing under the DIP Loan Documents to be immediately due and payable, (B) the termination, reduction, or restriction of any further commitment to extend applicable credit to the Debtors to the extent any such commitment remains under the DIP Facility, (C) termination of the DIP Facility and the DIP Loan Documents as to any future liability or obligation of the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders, but without affecting any of the DIP Liens or the DIP Obligations, and/or (D) that any obligations to fund amounts in respect to the Carve Out shall be triggered, through the delivery of the Carve Out Trigger Notice (each as defined herein) to the Debtors; and (ii) the DIP Agent may declare a termination, reduction, or restriction on the ability of the Debtors to use Cash Collateral except solely to fund the ABL Carve Out Reserve and to seek a Remedies Determination (as defined herein) (the date on which a DIP Termination Declaration is delivered by the DIP Agent, the “Termination Declaration Date”).

(b) Any DIP Termination Declaration shall not be effective until notice has been provided by electronic mail (or other electronic means) to counsel to the Debtors, counsel to any Committee, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to each of the Prepetition Agents. The automatic stay in the Chapter 11 Cases otherwise applicable to the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors is hereby modified so that five (5) Business Days after the Termination Declaration Date (as such period may be extended pursuant to the terms hereof, the “Remedies Notice Period”) and the funding of the Carve Out in accordance with paragraph 31(b) of this Interim Order, as applicable, and subject to the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex and the Prepetition Permitted Liens: (x) the DIP Agent shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents and this Interim Order; and (y) the applicable Prepetition Agent shall be entitled to exercise its respective rights and remedies to the extent available in accordance with the applicable Prepetition Credit Documents and this Interim Order.

(c) During the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors and all other parties in interest shall be entitled to seek an emergency hearing with this Court (the “Remedies Determination”); provided that if the Debtors seek an emergency hearing during the

Remedies Notice Period, but such hearing is scheduled for a later date by this Court (without any request by the Debtors to this Court with respect to such later scheduling), the Remedies Notice Period shall be tolled and the automatic stay shall not be modified until such hearing occurs. The Court may fashion an appropriate remedy at a hearing on a Remedies Determination; provided that the rights of the Debtors, the DIP Credit Parties, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors to contest such relief are expressly preserved. Except as set forth in this paragraph 22(c) or otherwise ordered by this Court prior to the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, after the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors shall waive their right to and shall not be entitled to seek relief, including, without limitation, under section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent such relief would in any way impair or restrict the rights and remedies of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, or the Prepetition Secured Creditors under this Interim Order. Furthermore, during the Remedies Notice Period, the Debtors may use Cash Collateral solely to fund the Carve Out in accordance with, and subject to, the terms of this Interim Order and the Approved Budget, and (i) pay payroll (provided that the Debtors shall be prohibited from paying any severance or bonuses), (ii) U.S. Trustee fees, and (iii) subject to the consent of the DIP Agent in its reasonable discretion (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld), other day-to-day operational expenses that are critical to the administration of the Debtors' estates during the Remedies Notice Period (not to exceed the Approved Budget under any circumstances absent the written consent of the DIP Agent and, solely if the proposed payment relates to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, the written consent of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent). All fees and costs incurred by the Debtors in connection with any Remedies Determination (including the fees and costs of its professionals) shall be funded solely by the Carve Out. Unless this Court orders otherwise prior to the expiration of the Remedies Notice Period, the automatic stay, as to all of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall automatically be terminated at the end of the Remedies Notice Period (as it may be extended in accordance with this paragraph) without further notice or order. Upon expiration of the Remedies Notice Period (as it may be extended in accordance with this paragraph) and the funding of the Carve Out in accordance with paragraph 31(b) of this Interim Order, as applicable, and subject to the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex and the Prepetition Permitted Liens, the applicable DIP Agent and the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be permitted to exercise all remedies set forth herein, and in the DIP Loan Documents, and as otherwise available at law without further order of or application or motion to this Court consistent with this Interim Order and the applicable loan documents. The DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors may, subject to the Prepetition Credit Documents, the funding of the Carve Out, as applicable, the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, and the Prepetition Permitted Liens, after the Remedies Notice Period, enter onto the premises of any Debtor in accordance with paragraph 23(b) herein.

23. Leased Premises.

(a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, for purposes of this Interim Order, DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall not encumber and DIP Collateral shall not include (i) leasehold interests of non-residential real property that prohibit or restrict the granting of such liens in the applicable lease except as permitted pursuant to applicable non-bankruptcy law (but shall include the proceeds of the sale or disposition of such leases) and (ii) any security deposits (in possession of the Debtors or the landlord) or the Debtors' interests, if any, in pre-paid rent, unless liens on such security deposits or pre-paid rent are expressly permitted pursuant to the underlying lease documents; provided that, the DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall extend to any such security deposits or pre-paid rent upon reversion thereof to the Debtors, if at all, as well as any proceeds or value of such leasehold interests whether by sale, financing, or other disposition or form of transfer, termination or transaction; provided, further, that any liens granted herein relating to the Debtors' insurance policies shall not interfere with any rights held by a landlord under such policies to any such insurance proceeds for damage to landlord's property.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, or the Prepetition Credit Documents, the DIP Agent's or the Prepetition Agents' exercise of their remedies pursuant to paragraph 22 and in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents and the Prepetition Credit Documents shall be subject to, as may be applicable: (a) any agreement in writing between the DIP Agent or Prepetition Agents and any applicable landlord; (b) pre-existing rights of the DIP Agent or Prepetition Agents, and any applicable landlord under applicable non-bankruptcy law; (c) written consent of the applicable landlord; or (d) further order of this Court following notice and a hearing.

24. Good Faith Under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code; No Modification or Stay of this Interim Order. In accordance with sections 364(e) and 363(m) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the event any or all of the provisions of this Interim Order are hereafter reversed, modified, amended, or vacated by a subsequent order of this Court, or any other court, the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition Secured Creditors are entitled, upon entry of this Interim Order, to the protections provided in section 364(e) of the Bankruptcy Code. Any such reversal, modification, amendment, or vacatur shall not affect the validity and enforceability of any advances previously made or made hereunder, or lien, claim or priority authorized or created hereby. Any liens or claims granted to the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition Secured Creditors hereunder arising prior to the effective date of any such reversal, modification, amendment, or vacatur of this Interim Order shall be governed in all respects by the original provisions of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, entitlement to all rights, remedies, privileges, and benefits granted herein.

25. DIP and Other Expenses. The Debtors are authorized to pay, without duplication of fees paid for the benefit of the DIP Credit Parties, all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket costs and expenses (and the DIP Agent is authorized to make advances or charges against the loan account to pay such agreed costs and expenses of the DIP Credit Parties in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents) of the DIP Credit Parties in connection with the DIP Facility (including, without limitation, costs and expenses incurred prior to the Petition Date), to the extent set forth in the DIP Loan Documents. The professionals for the DIP Agent, shall deliver an invoice in summary form (which shall not be required to include time entry detail and may be redacted for privileged information, but shall include (i) a general description of the nature of the matters for which services were performed and (ii) contain sufficiently detailed information to permit the Review Parties (as defined herein) to determine whether the fees and expenses sought to be paid are reasonable); provided, however, that the Debtors, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the U.S. Trustee and any Committee reserve their rights to request unredacted copies of such invoices and additional detail regarding the services rendered and expenses incurred by such professionals to counsel to the Debtors, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the U.S. Trustee, and any Committee (together, the “Review Parties”); provided, however, that notwithstanding the foregoing, the out-of-pocket expenses (including, without limitation, all attorneys’ and other professionals’ fees and expenses) incurred by the DIP Agent prior to and unpaid as of the Closing Date shall be paid indefeasibly upon the occurrence of the Closing Date without the DIP Agent being required to deliver an invoice in summary form as set forth herein. If no written objection is received by ten (10) calendar days after receipt of such invoice by the Review Parties, the Debtors shall promptly pay such fees and expenses in full. If an objection to a professional's invoice is timely received, the Debtors shall promptly pay the undisputed amount of the invoice, and this Court shall have jurisdiction to determine the disputed portion of such invoice if the parties are unable to resolve the dispute consensually. The DIP Agent's professionals shall not be required to comply with the U.S. Trustee guidelines or to file applications or motions with, or obtain approval of, this Court for the payment of any of their fees or out-of-pocket expenses (other than with respect to disputed amounts).

26. Indemnification. The Debtors shall indemnify and hold harmless the DIP Agent, each other DIP Credit Party, and each Indemnitee (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement), subject to and in accordance with each DIP Credit Agreement, including, without limitation, Section 9.03(b) of the DIP Credit Agreement.

27. [Reserved.]

28. [Reserved.]

29. Proofs of Claim. Notwithstanding any order entered by this Court in relation to the establishment of a bar date in any of these Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, neither the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition Agents, nor any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be required to file proofs of claim in these cases or any Successor Cases in order to assert claims for payment of any of the DIP Obligations or the Prepetition Secured Obligations, including, without limitation, any principal, unpaid interest, fees, expenses and other amounts due and payable under the Prepetition Credit Documents or this Interim Order. None of the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors will be required to file proofs of claim or requests for approval of administrative expenses in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, and the provisions of this Interim Order relating to the DIP Obligations, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, the Prepetition ABL Obligations, or the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations, and the Debtors' Stipulations shall constitute timely filed proofs of claim and/or administrative expense requests (as applicable) in each of the Chapter 11 Cases.

30. Rights of Access and Information. The Debtors shall use commercially reasonable efforts to afford the DIP Credit Parties all of the rights of access and information provided for under the DIP Loan Documents, including, but not limited to, the right to conduct field examinations and inventory appraisals during normal business hours and upon reasonable advance notice (at the expense of the Debtors) as frequently as determined by the DIP Agent in its reasonable discretion.

31. Carve Out.

(a) Priority of Carve Out. Each of the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, the DIP Obligations, and the Prepetition Secured Obligations shall be subject and subordinate to payment of the Carve Out (as defined herein). The Carve Out shall be senior to all claims and liens over all assets of the Debtors, including any DIP Collateral, as set forth in the Lien Priority Annex.

(b) Definition of Carve Out. As used in this Interim Order, the Carve Out means the sum of (i) all unpaid professional fees and disbursements incurred by the Debtors and the Committee, if any, pursuant to Sections 327 and 1103 of the Bankruptcy Code, including (A) Cole Schotz P.C., as Debtors' restructuring counsel, and (B) Reflect Advisors, in their professional capacity providing services and additional staff to the chief restructuring officer (the "Case Professionals") prior to the delivery of the Carve Out Trigger Notice to the extent allowed by the Court at any time, but in each case under clause (i) solely to the extent the same are incurred by each Case Professional in accordance with any Approved Budget; plus (ii) following the delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice, the unpaid professional fees and disbursements incurred by the Case Professionals in an amount collectively up to (x) $250,000 for Case Professionals retained by the Debtors (the "Debtors' Professional Carve Out Limit") and (y) $50,000 for Case Professionals retained by the Committee (the "Committee Professional Carve Out Limit") and, together with the Debtors' Professional Carve Out Limit, the "Case Professional Carve Out Limit"), plus (iii) the payment of fees pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a), including fees owed to the U.S. Trustee, and any fees required to be paid to the Clerk of the Court, which fees shall not be limited to amounts that may be set forth in the Approved Budget; plus (iv) all reasonable fees and expenses up to $50,000 incurred by a chapter 7 trustee under Section 726(b) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Chapter 7 Trustee Carve Out Limit", and together with the Case Professional Carve Out Limit, the "Carve Out Limit") (items (i) through (iv), collectively, the "Carve Out"). Within three (3) Business Days of delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice, the outstanding amount of the Carve Out shall be funded by the Debtors into the Professional Fee Escrow Account; provided, that (i) the Debtors shall first utilize cash on hand to fund the Carve Out, and (ii) solely to the extent that the Debtors are unable to fully fund the Carve Out with cash on hand in the manner and in the amount set forth in this paragraph 31(b), then proceeds from the DIP Facility shall be used to fund any shortfall, which funding may be in the form of additional DIP Loans. For purposes of the foregoing, "Carve Out Trigger Notice" shall mean a written notice delivered by email (or other electronic means) by the DIP Agent to the Debtors, their lead restructuring counsel (Cole Schotz P.C.), the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the

Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, and lead counsel to any Committee, which notice may be delivered only following the occurrence and during the continuation of an Event of Default.

(c) Professional Fee Escrow Account. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Interim Order, until an Event of Default or the Termination Declaration Date has occurred, the Debtors shall be permitted to borrow under the DIP Facility on a weekly basis to fund a segregated non-interest bearing account (which may be the trust account of the Debtors' restructuring counsel) and hold in trust solely for the benefit of the Case Professionals (the "Professional Fee Escrow Account") in the amounts contemplated under clause (i) of the immediately preceding paragraph. The Debtors shall be permitted to pay, or cause to be paid from the Professional Fee Escrow Account, as and when the same may become due and payable, the allowed professional fees of Case Professionals regardless of whether an Event of Default or the Termination Declaration Date has occurred. Subject to paragraph 31(j) hereof, none of the provisions of this Interim Order or any DIP Loan Document shall prohibit or restrict the payment of the fees and expenses of any Case Professionals from any retainers held by such Case Professional. The amounts held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall not be subject to any lien, attachment, garnishment, or other claim of any creditor of the Debtors other than the Case Professionals for whose benefit such amounts are held in trust. Any amounts remaining in the Professional Fee Escrow Account after the payment in full of all allowed professional fees of Case Professionals pursuant to final fee applications and orders shall be returned to the Debtors, the amounts which shall be applied in accordance with paragraph 17 hereof and the Lien Priority Annex. The DIP Liens and Adequate Protection Liens shall attach, in accordance with the relative priorities set forth in the Lien Priority Annex, to any cash held in the Professional Fee Escrow Account following the payment of Case Professionals from the Carve Out.

(d) Payment of Allowed Professional Fees Prior to the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made prior to the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any allowed professional fees shall not reduce or be deemed to reduce the Carve Out; provided, however, that the obligation of the DIP Credit Parties to fund the Professional Fee Escrow Account shall be deemed satisfied so long as the DIP Credit Parties have complied with their obligations with respect to the Professional Fee Escrow Account as set forth in this paragraph 31.

(e) Payment of Carve Out On or After the Termination Declaration Date. Any payment or reimbursement made on or after the occurrence of the Termination Declaration Date in respect of any allowed professional fees shall permanently reduce the Carve Out on a dollar-for-dollar basis. Any funding or payment of the Carve Out shall be added to, and made a part of the DIP Obligations secured by the DIP Collateral and shall be otherwise entitled to the protections granted under this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, the Bankruptcy Code, and applicable law; provided that any funding or payment that (i) constituted DIP Obligations shall not be further added to the DIP Obligations and (ii) was made with the proceeds of Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral shall not constitute DIP Obligations.

(f) No Direct Obligation To Pay Allowed Professional Fees. None of the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be responsible for the payment or reimbursement of any fees or disbursements of any Case Professional or any fees or expenses of the U.S. Trustee or Clerk of this Court incurred in connection with the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases under any chapter of the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in this Interim Order or otherwise shall be construed to obligate the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors, in any way, to pay compensation to, or to reimburse expenses of, any Case Professional or to guarantee that the Debtors have sufficient funds to pay such compensation or reimbursement. Until the DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations have been Paid in Full, allowed professional fees of Case Professionals shall be paid solely from the Professional Fee Escrow Account or any retainers held by Case Professionals.

(g) Subordination to Carve Out. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, the Debtors' obligations to the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors and the liens, security interests, and superpriority claims granted herein, under the DIP Loan Documents, and/or under the Prepetition Credit Documents, including, without limitation, the DIP Liens, the DIP Superpriority Claims, the Adequate Protection Liens, Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, and the Prepetition Secured Obligations, shall be subject in all respects and subordinate to the Carve Out, including paragraph 31(j) hereof. For the avoidance of doubt, upon the funding of the Carve Out as set forth in this paragraph 31, the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall have no further obligation to fund the Carve Out (including the Professional Fee Escrow Account), and their liens and claims shall not be subordinate to any obligations or amounts other than that which is held in the Carve Out, subject to paragraph 31(j) hereof.

(h) ABL Carve Out Reserve. In accordance with the DIP Credit Agreement, the DIP Agent shall be entitled to at all times maintain a reserve (the "ABL Carve Out Reserve") against the Borrowing Base (as defined in the DIP Credit Agreement) in an amount not to exceed, at any time of determination, the sum of the Carve Out Limit, provided that the DIP Agent may reserve for the fees and expenses of any Case Professionals to be included in the Professional Fee

Escrow Account to the extent they are not timely funded in accordance with paragraph 31(c) hereof.

(i) Reservation of Rights With Respect to Allowance of Fees. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be construed as consent to the allowance of any professional fees or expenses of any Case Professional or shall be construed as a waiver of any right of the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to any fee statement, interim application or monthly application issued or filed by the Case Professionals. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the DIP Loan Documents, (x) in no event shall any DIP Lender be required to fund any amounts in excess of its DIP Commitment and (y) the payment of any allowed professional fees pursuant to the Carve Out shall not (i) reduce any Debtor's obligations owed to the DIP Agent, any DIP Lender, the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition Agents, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors (whether under this Interim Order or otherwise) or (ii) modify, alter or otherwise affect any of the liens and security interests of such parties (whether granted under this Interim Order or otherwise) in the Prepetition Collateral or the DIP Collateral (or their claims against the Debtors).

(j) Reservation of Rights With Respect to Allocation of Proceeds Used to Fund Carve Out. The DIP Secured Parties, the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties, and the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties reserve their respective rights as to the allocation of proceeds used to fund the Carve Out as among the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral, the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, and the DIP Collateral.

32. Limitation on Use of DIP Loans and DIP Collateral (Including Cash Collateral). For the avoidance of doubt and notwithstanding any other provision of this Interim Order or any other order entered by this Court to the contrary, no portion of the Carve Out, DIP Collateral, or

Prepetition Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used directly or indirectly in connection with: (i) the investigation, initiation, or prosecution of any claims, causes of action, motions, adversary proceedings, or other litigation, (A) against any of the DIP Lenders, the DIP Agent, the Prepetition Secured Creditors (whether in such capacity or otherwise), or (B) challenging the amount, validity, perfection, priority, or enforceability of or asserting any defense, counterclaim or offset to, the obligations and the liens and security interests granted under the DIP Loan Documents or in connection with the Prepetition Loan Facilities, including, in each case without limitation, for lender liability or pursuant to Sections 105, 510, 544, 547, 548, 549, 550, or 552 of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable non-bankruptcy law or otherwise; (ii) attempts to modify any of the rights granted to the DIP Lenders or the DIP Agent with respect to the DIP Facility or the Prepetition Agents or the other Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to the Prepetition Loan Facilities; (iii) any objection to, motion to reconsider or appeal of any order with respect to the DIP Facility; (iv) attempts to prevent, hinder, or otherwise delay any of the DIP Lenders' or the DIP Agent's assertion, enforcement, or realization upon any DIP Collateral in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents and the Final Order once an Event of Default has occurred and any applicable Remedies Notice Period expired; provided, however, that the proceeds of the DIP Loans and DIP Collateral (including Cash Collateral) may be used by the Committee (if any) to investigate prior to the Challenge Deadline (as defined herein), but not to prosecute, (A) the claims and liens of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, and (B) potential claims, counterclaims, causes of action or defenses against any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, up to an aggregate cap of no more than $50,000.

33. No Third Party Rights. Except as explicitly provided for herein, this Interim Order does not create any rights for the benefit of any third party, creditor, equity holder or any direct, indirect, or incidental beneficiary.

34. Release. Subject to paragraph 44 hereof, and the challenge rights granted thereunder, effective upon entry of this Interim Order, each of the Released Parties is released by the Debtors as provided in paragraph F(ix) hereof.

35. Section 506(c) Claims. Subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, no costs or expenses of administration which have been or may be incurred in the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases at any time shall be charged against the DIP Credit Parties or the DIP Collateral (other than the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral pursuant to subsequent order of this Court) or the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties or the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral pursuant to sections 105 or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, or otherwise and all rights to surcharge the DIP Credit Parties or the DIP Collateral (other than the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral pursuant to subsequent order of this Court) or the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties or the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral under sections 105 or 506(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable principle of equity or law shall be and are hereby finally and irrevocably waived, and such waiver shall be binding upon the Debtors and all parties-in-interest in this or any Successor Cases.

36. No Marshaling / Applications of Proceeds. Subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, none of the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall be subject to the equitable doctrine of “marshaling” or any other similar doctrine with respect to any of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral.

37. Section 552(b). The DIP Agent and the other DIP Credit Parties shall be entitled to all of the rights and benefits of section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to and upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief, and subject to approval by this Court therein, the “equities of the case” exception under section 552(b) of the Bankruptcy Code shall not apply to the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to proceeds, products, offspring, or profits of any of the Prepetition Collateral or DIP Collateral.

38. Limits on Lender Liability. Nothing in this Interim Order, any of the DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Credit Documents, or any other documents related thereto shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Agents, or the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from any activities by the Debtors in the operation of their businesses or in connection with the administration of the Chapter 11 Cases. The DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Agents, and the Prepetition Secured Creditors shall not, solely by reason of having made loans under the DIP Facility or permitting the use of Cash Collateral, as applicable, be deemed in control of the operations of the Debtors or to be acting as a “responsible person” or “owner or operator” with respect to the operation or management of the Debtors (as such terms, or any similar terms, are used in the United States Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act, 42 U.S.C. §§ 9601 et seq., as amended, or any similar federal or state statute). Nothing in this Interim Order or the DIP Loan Documents, shall in any way be construed or interpreted to impose or allow the imposition upon the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition Agents, or the Prepetition Secured Creditors of any liability for any claims arising from the prepetition or postpetition activities of any of the Debtors.

39. Joint and Several Liability. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be construed to constitute a substantive consolidation of any of the Debtors' estates, it being understood, however, that the Debtors shall be jointly and severally liable for the obligations hereunder and in accordance with the terms of the DIP Facility and the DIP Loan Documents.

40. No Superior Rights of Reclamation. The extension of the DIP Facility and the repayment and refinancing of the Prepetition ABL Obligations with the proceeds of the DIP Loans are part of an integrated transaction. Based on the findings and rulings herein concerning the integrated nature of the DIP Facility and the Prepetition ABL Documents and the relation back of the DIP Liens, in no event shall any alleged right of reclamation or return (whether asserted under section 546(c) of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise) be deemed to have any additional or greater rights and priority with respect to the Prepetition ABL Liens as such claim had on the Petition Date.

41. Debtors' Waivers/Covenants. At all times during the Chapter 11 Cases prior to the DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations being Paid in Full, and whether or not an Event of Default has occurred, it shall be an Event of Default for the Debtors to seek authority to take any of the following actions prior to the DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations being Paid in Full, other than as expressly provided for in this Interim Order or the DIP Loan Documents, or unless the DIP Agent or applicable Prepetition Agent otherwise consents in writing: (i) use Cash Collateral under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) obtain postpetition loans or other financial accommodations pursuant to Section 364(c) or 364(d) of the Bankruptcy Code, (iii) challenge the application of any payments authorized hereunder pursuant to Section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, or assert that the value of the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral is less than the Prepetition ABL Obligations, or assert that the value of the applicable Prepetition

Term Loan Priority Collateral is less than the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations secured thereby, (iv) propose, support or have a plan of reorganization or liquidation that does not provide for all DIP Obligations and Prepetition Secured Obligations to be Paid in Full on the effective date of such plan, (v) seek relief under the Bankruptcy Code, including without limitation, under Section 105 of the Bankruptcy Code, to the extent any such relief would in any way restrict or impair the rights and remedies of any DIP Credit Parties as provided in this Interim Order and the DIP Loan Documents or any DIP Credit Parties' exercise of such rights or remedies, (vi) challenge, contest or otherwise seek to impair or object to the validity, extent, enforceability or priority of the DIP Agent's postpetition liens and claims, or (vii) take any action prohibited pursuant to Section 5.11 or 7.01(l) of the DIP Credit Agreement. No consent to any of the foregoing shall be implied from any other action, inaction, or acquiescence by any of the DIP Credit Parties, and the written consent of the DIP Agent shall be required to relieve the Debtors of their obligations under this paragraph 41 and the consent of the Prepetition Term Loan Agent required to relieve the Debtor of their obligations under this paragraph 41 pertaining to any of the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, Prepetition Term Loan Liens or Prepetition Term Loan Obligations.

42. Rights Preserved. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the entry of this Interim Order is without prejudice to, and does not constitute a waiver of, expressly or implicitly: (a) the DIP Credit Parties' or the Prepetition Secured Creditors' right to seek any other or supplemental relief in respect of the Debtors (including, the right to seek additional or different adequate protection); (b) the rights of any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors to seek the payment by the Debtors of postpetition interest or fees pursuant to section 506(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; or (c) any of the rights of the DIP Credit Parties or the Prepetition Secured Creditors under the Bankruptcy Code or under non-bankruptcy law, including, without limitation, the right to (i) request modification of the automatic stay of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, (ii) request dismissal of any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, conversion of any of the Chapter 11 Cases to cases under chapter 7, or appointment of a chapter 11 trustee or examiner with expanded powers, (iii) seek an injunction, (iv) oppose any request for use of Cash Collateral, (v) object to any sale of assets, or (vi) propose, subject to the provisions of section 1121 of the Bankruptcy Code, a chapter 11 plan or plans; provided, that the rights of the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors with respect to sections (i)–(iii) of this paragraph 42 shall be subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex. Other than as expressly set forth in this Interim Order, any other rights, claims or privileges (whether legal, equitable or otherwise) of the DIP Credit Parties and the Prepetition Secured Creditors are preserved.

43. No Waiver by Failure to Seek Relief. The failure of the DIP Credit Parties to seek relief or otherwise exercise rights and remedies under this Interim Order, the DIP Loan Documents, or applicable law, as the case may be, shall not constitute a waiver of any of the rights hereunder, thereunder, or otherwise of the DIP Credit Parties.

44. Binding Effect of Interim Order. Immediately upon entry by this Court of this Interim Order, the stipulations (including the Debtors' Stipulations), terms and provisions of this Interim Order (including, without limitation, the Adequate Protection Liens, Adequate Protection Payments, and the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims) shall become valid and binding upon and inure to the benefit of the Debtors, the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition Secured Creditors, all other creditors of any of the Debtors, the Committee, if any, and all other parties-in-interest and their respective successors and assigns, including, without limitation, any trustee or other fiduciary hereafter appointed in any of the Chapter 11 Cases, any Successor Cases, or upon dismissal of any Chapter 11 Case or Successor Case, unless, and solely to the extent that:

(A) any person or any party-in-interest (including the Committee, if any) has sought and obtained standing and the requisite authority to commence a Challenge⁸ (other than the Debtors, as to which any Challenge is hereby irrevocably waived and relinquished) and has timely commenced a Challenge until the date that is seventy five (75) calendar days after the entry of this Interim Order (the “Challenge Deadline”), as such applicable date may be extended in writing from time to time by the applicable Prepetition Secured Creditor in its sole discretion, or by this Court for good cause shown pursuant to an application filed by a party in interest prior to the expiration of the Challenge Deadline; provided that if the Chapter 11 Cases are converted to chapter 7 or a chapter 7 or chapter 11 trustee is appointed or elected prior to the expiration of the Challenge Deadline, any such estate representative or trustee shall receive the full benefit of any remaining time before expiration of the Challenge Deadline, which, solely if not yet expired, shall be extended for a period of sixty (60) days; and (B) this Court enters judgment in favor of the plaintiff or movant in any such timely commenced Challenge proceeding and any such judgment has become a final judgment that is not subject to any further review or appeal. The Challenge Deadline set forth herein shall be tolled if a party-in-interest (including the Committee, if any) files a motion seeking standing to bring a Challenge (“Standing Motion”), which attaches one or more draft complaints that detail the alleged challenge(s) that the applicable party in interest seeks to file, until such time as the Court decides the Standing Motion and solely with respect to (i) the party-in-interest that files the Standing Motion and (ii) the contents of the complaint attached to the Standing Motion. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Interim Order, the Court retains the right to enter any appropriate remedy in connection with a successful Challenge.

45. Credit Bidding. Subject to paragraph 44 of this Interim Order and the rights of parties-in-interest under section 363(k) of the Bankruptcy Code, in connection with any sale process authorized by the Court, upon entry of the Interim Order, the Prepetition Agents may seek to credit bid some or all of their claims for their respective priority collateral (each a “Credit Bid”). A Credit Bid may be applied only to reduce the cash consideration with respect to those assets in which the party submitting such Credit Bid holds a senior, perfected security interest. For the avoidance of doubt, unless and until the Prepetition Term Loan Obligations are Paid in Full, the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties may not Credit Bid for Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral and, unless and until the Prepetition ABL Obligations are Paid in Full, the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties may not Credit Bid for Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral.

46. Continuation of Jurisdiction and Binding Effect. Any order dismissing one or more of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases under section 1112 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise shall be deemed to provide (in accordance with sections 105 and 349 of the Bankruptcy Code) that: (i) the DIP Liens, Prepetition Liens, and Adequate Protection Liens shall continue in full force and effect, subject to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, notwithstanding such dismissal until the DIP Obligations, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, and/or Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, as applicable, are Paid in Full; and (ii) this Court shall retain jurisdiction, to the extent permissible under applicable law, notwithstanding such dismissal, for the purposes of enforcing the DIP Superpriority Claims, DIP

Liens, Carve Out, Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, Adequate Protection Liens, and the Prepetition Liens. Notwithstanding anything contained herein with respect to the obligations or limitations when a Final Order is entered, the terms of the Final Order shall be what is binding on all parties.

47. No Modification of Interim Order. Until and unless the DIP Obligations have been Paid in Full (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Facility which survive such discharge by their terms) and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility have been terminated, it shall be an Event of Default for the Debtors to seek, and the Debtors shall not seek or consent to, directly or indirectly: (a) without the prior written consent of the DIP Agent (i) any reversal, modification, stay, vacatur, or amendment to this Interim Order or (ii) a priority claim for any administrative expense or unsecured claim against the Debtors (now existing or hereafter arising of any kind or nature whatsoever, including, without limitation, any administrative expense of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 507(a), or 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) in any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases, equal or superior to the DIP Superpriority Claims or the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims, other than the Carve Out; (b) any order, other than this Interim Order or the Final Order, allowing use of Cash Collateral resulting from DIP Collateral; and (c) except as set forth in this Interim Order or the Final Order, any lien on any of the DIP Collateral or Prepetition Collateral with priority equal or superior to the DIP Liens, the Adequate Protection Liens or the Prepetition Liens.

48. DIP Obligations Paid in Full and Commitments Terminated. In connection with (i) the DIP Obligations being Paid in Full (such payment being without prejudice to any terms or provisions contained in the DIP Facility which survive such discharge by their terms), and (ii) all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility being terminated, all obligations of the DIP

Credit Parties or the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties to pay or otherwise satisfy any obligations under this Interim Order (including, without limitation, with respect to the Carve Out), the DIP Loan Documents, and/or the Prepetition ABL Documents shall be terminated.

49. Interim Order Controls. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of the DIP Loan Documents or this Interim Order, the provisions of this Interim Order shall govern and control.

50. Survival. The provisions of this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant hereto shall survive entry of any order which may be entered: (a) confirming any plan of reorganization in any of the Chapter 11 Cases; (b) converting any of the Chapter 11 Cases to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code; (c) dismissing any of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases; or (d) pursuant to which this Court abstains from hearing any of the Chapter 11 Cases or Successor Cases. Upon entry of the Final Order, the terms and provisions of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, the claims, liens, security interests, and other protections granted to the DIP Credit Parties and Prepetition Secured Creditors pursuant to this Interim Order and/or the DIP Loan Documents, notwithstanding the entry of any such order, shall continue in the Chapter 11 Cases, in any Successor Cases, or following dismissal of the Chapter 11 Cases or any Successor Cases, and shall maintain their priority as provided by this Interim Order, subject in all cases to the Carve Out and the relative priorities set forth on the Lien Priority Annex, until (x) all DIP Obligations have been Paid in Full and all commitments to extend credit under the DIP Facility are terminated and (y) all Prepetition Secured Obligations have been Paid in Full.

51. Final Hearing. A final hearing to consider the relief requested in the Motion shall be held on [_____], 2026, at [] [a.m./p.m.], prevailing Eastern Time before this Court.

52. Notice of Entry of Interim Order. The Debtors shall promptly serve copies of this Interim Order (which shall constitute adequate notice of the Final Hearing) to the parties having been given notice of the Interim Hearing and to any party that has filed a request for notices with this Court.

53. Objections. Any party in interest objecting to the relief sought at the Final Hearing shall file a written objection no later than [____], 2026, at [] [a.m./p.m.], prevailing Eastern Time and serve such objection or response on the following parties: (a) proposed counsel to the Debtors, Cole Schotz P.C., Attn: Justin R. (matthew.ward@wbd-us.com); (c) counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, (i) Proskauer Rose LLP, Eleven Times Square, New York, NY 10036, Attn: David M. Hillman (dhillman@proskauer.com) and Matthew R. Koch (mkoch@proskauer.com) and (ii) Landis Rath & Cobb LLP, 919 Market Street, Suite 1800, Wilmington, Delaware 19801 (Attn: Matthew B. In the event no objections to entry of the Final Order on the Motion are timely received, this Court may enter such Final Order without need for the Final Hearing.

54. Effectiveness. This Interim Order shall constitute findings of fact and conclusions of law in accordance with Bankruptcy Rule 7052 and shall take effect and be fully enforceable nunc pro tunc to the Petition Date immediately upon entry hereof. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary proscribed by applicable law, this Interim Order shall be immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry and there shall be no stay of execution or effectiveness of this Interim Order.

55. Retention of Jurisdiction. This Court has and will retain jurisdiction to enforce this Interim Order.

Section 1.07 Currency Equivalents Generally. Notwithstanding the foregoing, for purposes of any determination under Article 5, Article 6 (other than the calculation of compliance with any financial ratio for purposes of taking any action hereunder) or Article 7 with respect to the amount of any Indebtedness, Lien, Restricted Payment, Restricted Debt Payment, Investment, Disposition, Sale and Lease-Back Transaction, Affiliate transaction or other transaction, event or circumstance, or any determination under any other provision of this Agreement expressly requiring the use of a current exchange rate, or for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court where it is necessary to convert a sum due hereunder or under any other Loan Document (any of the foregoing, a “subject transaction”), in each case in a currency other than Dollars, (i) the Dollar Equivalent amount of a subject transaction in a currency other than Dollars shall be calculated based on the rate of exchange quoted by the Reuters World Currency Page (or, in the event such rate does not appear on such Reuters page or screen, on any successor or substitute page on such screen that displays such rate, or on the appropriate page of such other information service that publishes such rate from time to time as may be agreed upon by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative) for such alternate currency, as in effect at 11:00 a.m. (London time) on the date of such subject transaction (which, in the case of any Restricted Payment, shall be deemed to be the date of the declaration thereof and, in the case of the incurrence of Indebtedness, shall be deemed to be on the date first committed); provided, that if any Indebtedness is incurred (and, if applicable, associated Lien granted) to refinance or replace other Indebtedness denominated in a currency other than Dollars, and the relevant refinancing or replacement would cause the applicable Dollar-denominated restriction to be exceeded if calculated at the relevant currency exchange rate in effect on the date of such refinancing or replacement, such Dollar-denominated restriction shall be deemed not to have been exceeded so long as the principal amount of such refinancing or replacement Indebtedness (and, if applicable, associated Lien granted) does not exceed an amount sufficient to repay the principal amount of such Indebtedness being refinanced or replaced, except by an amount equal to (x) unpaid accrued interest and premiums (including tender premiums) thereon plus other reasonable and customary fees and expenses (including upfront fees and original issue discount) incurred in connection with such refinancing or replacement, (y) any existing commitments unutilized thereunder, and (z) additional amounts permitted to be incurred under Section 6.01 and (ii) for the avoidance of doubt, no Default or Event of Default shall be deemed to have occurred solely as a result of a change in the rate of currency exchange occurring after the time of any subject transaction so long as such subject transaction was permitted at the time incurred, made, acquired, committed, entered or declared as set forth in clause (i).

Section 1.08 Cashless Rolls. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or in any other Loan Document, to the extent that any Lender extends the maturity date of, or replaces, renews or refinances, any of its then-existing Loans (including loans incurred under a new credit facility), in each case, to the extent such extension, replacement, renewal or refinancing is effected by means of a “cashless roll” by such Lender, such extension, replacement, renewal or refinancing shall be deemed to comply with any requirement hereunder or any other Loan Document that such payment be made “in Dollars” or the relevant alternate currency, “in immediately available funds”, “in Cash” or any other similar requirement.

Section 1.09 [Reserved].

Section 1.10 Divisions. Any reference herein to a merger, transfer, consolidation, amalgamation, assignment, sale, disposition or transfer, or similar term, shall be deemed to apply to a division of or by a limited liability company or other Person, or an allocation of assets to a series of a limited liability company or other Person (or the unwinding of such a division or allocation) (any such transaction, a “Division”), as if it were a merger, transfer, consolidation, amalgamation, assignment, sale, disposition or transfer, or similar term, as applicable, to, of or with a separate Person. Any Division of a limited liability company or other Person shall constitute a separate Person hereunder (and each Division of any limited liability company or other Person that is a Subsidiary, joint venture or any other like term shall also constitute such a Person or entity).

Section 1.11 Rates. The Administrative Agent does not warrant or accept responsibility for, and shall not have any liability with respect to (a) the continuation of, administration of, submission of, calculation of or any other matter related to ABR, Alternate Base Rate, the Term SOFR Reference Rate, Adjusted Term SOFR, Term SOFR, Canadian Prime Rate, the Term CORRA Reference Rate, Adjusted Term CORRA, Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA, Term CORRA, Daily Compounded CORRA, or any component definition thereof or rates referred to in the definition thereof, or any alternative, successor or replacement rate thereto (including any Benchmark Replacement), including whether the composition or characteristics of any such alternative, successor or replacement rate (including any Benchmark Replacement) will be similar to, or produce the same value or economic equivalence of, or have the same volume or liquidity as, ABR, Alternate Base Rate, the Term SOFR Reference Rate, Adjusted Term SOFR, Term SOFR, Canadian Prime Rate, the Term CORRA Reference Rate, Adjusted Term CORRA, Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA, Term CORRA, Daily Compounded CORRA, or any other Benchmark prior to its discontinuance or unavailability, or (b) the effect, implementation or composition of any Conforming Changes. The Administrative Agent and its affiliates or other related entities may engage in transactions that affect the calculation of ABR, the Alternate Base Rate, the Term SOFR Reference Rate, Term SOFR, Adjusted Term SOFR, Canadian Prime Rate, the Term CORRA Reference Rate, Adjusted Term CORRA, Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA, Term CORRA, Daily Compounded CORRA, any alternative, successor or replacement rate (including any Benchmark Replacement) or any relevant adjustments thereto, in each case, in a manner adverse to the Borrowers. The Administrative Agent may select information sources or services in its reasonable discretion to ascertain ABR, the Alternate Base Rate, the Term SOFR Reference Rate, Term SOFR, Adjusted Term SOFR, Canadian Prime Rate, the Term CORRA Reference Rate, Adjusted Term CORRA, Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA, Term CORRA, Daily Compounded CORRA or any other Benchmark, in each case pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, and shall have no liability to the Borrowers, any Lender or any other person or entity for damages of any kind, including direct or indirect, special, punitive, incidental or consequential damages, costs, losses or expenses (whether in tort, contract or otherwise and whether at law or in equity), for any error or calculation of any such rate (or component thereof) provided by any such information source or service.

ARTICLE 2 THE CREDITS

Section 2.01 Revolving Loans.

(a) Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each Lender agrees, severally and not jointly, to make revolving loans (the “Revolving Loans”) in Canadian Dollars and Dollars to the U.S. Borrowers and in Canadian Dollars and Dollars to the Canadian Borrowers, in any such case, at any time and from time to time on and after the Closing Date, and until the earlier of the Revolving Credit Maturity Date and the termination of the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Lender in accordance with the terms hereof, in an amount at any one time outstanding (on an aggregate basis) not to exceed such Lender’s Applicable Percentage of the Excess Availability. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no Revolving Loans or other Loans or credit extensions denominated in Canadian Dollars shall be made available under this Agreement.

(b) Amounts borrowed pursuant to this Section 2.01 may be repaid and, subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, reborrowed at any time during the term of this Agreement. The outstanding principal amount of the Revolving Loans, together with interest accrued and unpaid thereon, shall constitute Obligations and shall be due and payable on the Revolving Credit Maturity Date or, if earlier, on the date on which they are declared due and payable pursuant to the terms of this Agreement.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall have the right, upon at least three (3) Business Days’ prior written notice to the Borrower Representative (which notice shall include a reasonably detailed description of such Reserve being established, reduced, eliminated or modified and the basis for such Reserve), to establish, modify or eliminate Reserves against the Borrowing Base; provided that any modification of an existing Reserve shall not result in an increase to such Reserve without the Borrower Representative’s consent.

(d) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, on the Final Order Entry Date, but subject to the Financing Order, the total outstanding amount of the Pre-Petition Obligations shall constitute Secured Obligations in accordance with the Financing Order, with (i) the outstanding amount of all Revolving Loans, under and as defined in the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, being refinanced as Revolving Loans under this Agreement on the Final Order Entry Date, and (ii) all accrued and unpaid interest, expenses, fees and other sums payable in respect of the Pre-Petition Obligations through the Final Order Entry Date, including any such amounts not previously paid as adequate protection payments pursuant to the Financing Order, being paid in cash by the Borrowers to the Administrative Agent on the Final Order Entry Date; provided, however, that, on the Closing Date, all Bank Services Obligations (as defined in the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement) and Secured Hedging Obligations (as defined in the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement) being deemed Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations for purposes of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents.

Section 2.02 Loans and Borrowings.

(a) Each Loan (other than a Swingline Loan) shall be made as part of a Borrowing consisting of Loans of the same Class and Type made by the Lenders ratably in accordance with their respective Commitments of the applicable Class. The failure of any Lender to make any Loan required to be made by it shall not relieve any other Lender of its obligations hereunder; provided that the Commitments of the Lenders are several and no Lender shall be responsible for any other Lender's failure to make Loans as required. Any Protective Advance and any Swingline Loan shall be made in accordance with the procedures set forth in Section 2.04(a) and Section 2.04(b), respectively.

(b) Subject to Section 2.13, (i) each Borrowing denominated in Dollars shall be comprised entirely of ABR Loans or SOFR Loans and (ii) each Borrowing denominated in Canadian Dollars shall be comprised entirely of Canadian Prime Rate Loans or Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans, in each case, as the Borrower Representative may request in accordance herewith. Each Swingline Loan shall be an ABR Loan or a Canadian Prime Rate Loan in the case of any Swingline Loan to a Canadian Borrower. Each Lender at its option may make any SOFR Loan by causing any domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender to make such Loan; provided that (i) any exercise of such option shall not affect the obligation of the Borrowers to repay such Loan in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, (ii) such SOFR Loan shall be deemed to have been made and held by such Lender, and the obligation of the Borrowers to repay such SOFR Loan shall nevertheless be to such Lender for the account of such domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender and (iii) in exercising such option, such Lender shall use reasonable efforts to minimize increased costs to the Borrowers resulting therefrom (which obligation of such Lender shall not require it to take, or refrain from taking, actions that it determines would result in increased costs for which it will not be compensated hereunder or that it otherwise determines would be disadvantageous to it); provided, further, that any such domestic or foreign branch or Affiliate of such Lender shall not be entitled to any greater indemnification under Section 2.17 with respect to such SOFR Loan than that which the applicable Lender was entitled on the date on which such Loan was made (except in connection with any indemnification entitlement arising as a result of a Change in Law after the date on which such Loan was made).

(c) At the commencement of each Interest Period for any CORRA Borrowing, such CORRA Borrowing shall comprise an aggregate principal amount that is an integral multiple of Cdn$100,000 and not less than Cdn$1,000,000. Each SOFR Borrowing, ABR Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing when made shall be in an integral multiple of $100,000 or Cdn$100,000, as applicable, and not less than $100,000 or Cdn$100,000, as applicable; provided that a SOFR Borrowing, ABR Borrowing or a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing may be in an aggregate amount that is equal to the entire unused balance (or available unused balance in respect of the Line Cap) of the Aggregate Revolving Commitments or that is required to finance the reimbursement of an LC Disbursement as contemplated by Section 2.05(e). Borrowings of more than one Type and Class may be outstanding at the same time; provided that there shall not at any time be more than a total of three (3) different Interest Periods in effect cumulatively for CORRA Borrowings at any time outstanding (or such greater number of different Interest Periods as the Administrative Agent may agree from time to time).

(d) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, the Borrower Representative shall not nor shall it be entitled to, request, or to elect to convert or continue, any Borrowing if the Interest Period requested with respect thereto would end after the Stated Revolving Credit Maturity Date.

Section 2.03 Requests for Borrowings. To request a Borrowing, the Borrower Representative shall notify the Administrative Agent of such request in writing by delivery of an irrevocable Borrowing Request (by hand delivery, fax or other electronic transmission (including “.pdf” or “.tif”)) signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower Representative (a) in the case of a SOFR Borrowing, 11:00 a.m. New York City time, three (3) U.S. Government Securities Business Days before the date of the proposed Borrowing (or one (1) Business Day in the case of the Borrowing on the Closing Date), (b) in the case of a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, 11:00 a.m. New York City time, three (3) Business Days before the date of the proposed Borrowing or (c) in the case of an ABR Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing (other than the Borrowing of a Swingline Loan), not later than 11:00 a.m. New York City time, one (1) Business Day before the date of the proposed Borrowing. Each such written Borrowing Request shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

- (a) the name of the applicable Borrower(s);
- (b) the Class of such Borrowing;
- (c) the aggregate amount of the requested Borrowing;
- (d) the date of such Borrowing, which shall be a Business Day;
- (e) the Agreed Currency for such Borrowing and whether such Borrowing is to be an ABR Borrowing or a SOFR Borrowing, in the case of a Borrowing by a Borrower, or a Term CORRA Borrowing, Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, in the case of a Borrowing by a Canadian Borrower;
- (f) in the case of a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, the initial Interest Period to be applicable thereto, which shall be a period contemplated by the definition of the term “Interest Period”; and
- (g) the wiring instructions, location and number of the applicable Borrower’s account or any other designated account(s) to which funds are to be disbursed (the “Funding Account”).

If no election as to the Type of Borrowing is specified, then the requested Borrowing shall be an ABR Borrowing or a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, as applicable. If no Interest Period is specified with respect to any requested Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, then the applicable Borrower shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month’s duration for the applicable CORRA Borrowing. Promptly following receipt of a Borrowing Request in accordance with this Section, the Administrative Agent shall advise each Lender of the details thereof and such Lender’s portion of each resulting Borrowing.

Section 2.04 Protective Advances; Swingline Loans.

- (a) Protective Advances.

(i) Subject to the limitations set forth below, the Administrative Agent is authorized by the Borrowers and the Lenders, from time to time in the Administrative Agent's sole discretion (but shall have absolutely no obligation to), to make Loans to the Borrowers, on behalf of all Lenders, which the Administrative Agent, in its Permitted Discretion, deems necessary or desirable (i) to preserve or protect the Collateral, or any portion thereof, (ii) to enhance the likelihood of, or maximize the amount of, repayment of the Loans and other Obligations, or (iii) to pay any other amount chargeable to or required to be paid by the Borrowers pursuant to the terms of this Agreement, including payments of reimbursable expenses (including costs, fees, and expenses as described in Section 9.03) and other sums payable under the Loan Documents (any of such Loans are herein referred to as "Protective Advances"); provided that, the aggregate Dollar Equivalent of Protective Advances outstanding at any time shall not at any time exceed 10.0% of the Aggregate Revolving Commitment, unless the Required Lenders otherwise agree; provided further that, (x) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure outstanding at any time after giving effect to the Protective Advances being made shall not exceed the Aggregate Revolving Commitment and (y) the Canadian Revolving Exposure shall not exceed the Canadian Sublimit. Protective Advances may be made even if the conditions precedent set forth in Section 4.02 have not been satisfied. The Protective Advances shall be secured by the Liens in favor of the Administrative Agent in and to the Collateral and shall constitute Obligations hereunder and Secured Obligations. All Protective Advances shall be ABR Borrowings or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings. The making of a Protective Advance on any one occasion shall not obligate the Administrative Agent to make any Protective Advance on any other occasion. The Administrative Agent's authorization to make Protective Advances may be revoked at any time by the Required Lenders. Any such revocation must be in writing and shall become effective prospectively upon the Administrative Agent's receipt thereof. At any time the conditions precedent set forth in Section 4.02 have been satisfied (including with respect to Excess Availability), the Administrative Agent may request the Revolving Lenders to make Loans to repay a Protective Advance. At any other time the Administrative Agent may require the Lenders to fund their risk participations described in Section 2.04(a)(ii).

(ii) Upon the making of a Protective Advance by the Administrative Agent (whether before or after the occurrence of a Default), each Lender shall be deemed, without further action by any party hereto, to have unconditionally and irrevocably purchased from the Administrative Agent, without recourse or warranty, an undivided interest and participation in such Protective Advance in proportion to its Applicable Percentage. From and after the date, if any, on which any Lender is required to fund its participation in any Protective Advance purchased hereunder, the Administrative Agent shall promptly distribute to such Lender, such Lender's Applicable Percentage of all payments of principal and interest and all proceeds of Collateral received by the Administrative Agent in respect of such Protective Advance.

(b) Swingline Loans.

(i) The Administrative Agent, the Swingline Lender and the Revolving Lenders agree that in order to facilitate the administration of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, promptly after the Borrower Representative requests an ABR Borrowing or a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, the Swingline Lender may elect in its discretion to have the terms of this Section 2.04(b) apply to such Borrowing Request by advancing, on behalf of the Revolving Lenders and in the amount requested, same day funds to the applicable Borrower, on the date of the applicable Borrowing Request to the Funding Account or as otherwise directed by the Borrower Representative in the applicable Borrowing Request (each such Loan made solely by the Swingline Lender pursuant to this Section 2.04(b) is referred to in this Agreement as a "Swingline Loan"), with settlement among them as to the Swingline Loans to take place on a periodic basis as set forth in Section 2.04(b)(iii). Each Swingline Loan shall be subject to all the terms and conditions applicable to other ABR Loans and Canadian Prime Rate Loans funded by the Revolving Lenders, except that all payments thereon shall be payable to the Swingline Lender solely for its own account. The Swingline Lender shall not make any Swingline Loan if after giving effect to such Swingline Loan (i) the aggregate principal Dollar Equivalent of outstanding Swingline Loans exceeds the Swingline Sublimit, (ii) the Swingline Lender's Revolving Credit Exposure exceeds its Revolving Credit Commitment, (iii) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure exceeds the Aggregate Revolving Commitments, (iv) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure exceeds the Line Cap or (v) the Canadian Revolving Exposure exceeds the Canadian Sublimit. All Swingline Loans shall be ABR Borrowings or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings; provided that, Swingline Loans consisting of Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings may only be made to a Canadian Borrower.

(ii) Upon the making of a Swingline Loan (whether before or after the occurrence of a Default and regardless of whether a Settlement has been requested with respect to such Swingline Loan), each Revolving Lender shall be deemed, without further action by any party hereto, to have unconditionally and irrevocably purchased from the Swingline Lender, without recourse or warranty, an undivided interest and participation in such Swingline Loan in proportion to its Applicable Percentage of the Revolving Credit Commitment. The Swingline Lender may, at any time, require the Revolving Lenders to fund their participations. From and after the date, if any, on which any Revolving Lender is required to fund its participation in any Swingline Loan purchased hereunder, the Administrative Agent shall promptly distribute to such Lender, such Lender's Applicable Percentage of all payments of principal and interest and all proceeds of the Collateral received by the Administrative Agent in respect of such Swingline Loan.

(iii) The Administrative Agent, on behalf of the Swingline Lender, shall request settlement (a "Settlement") with the Revolving Lenders on a weekly basis or on a more frequent basis if the Administrative Agent elects, by notifying the Revolving Lenders of such requested Settlement by facsimile, telephone, or e-mail no later than 2:00 p.m. New York City time on the Business Day immediately prior to the date of such requested Settlement (the "Settlement Date"). Each Revolving Lender (other than the Swingline Lender, in the case of the Swingline Loans) shall transfer the amount of such Revolving Lender's Applicable Percentage of the outstanding principal amount of the applicable Loan with respect to which Settlement is requested to the Administrative Agent, to such account of the Administrative Agent as the Administrative Agent may designate, not later than 2:00 p.m., New York City time, on such Settlement Date. Settlements may occur during the existence of a Default and whether or not the applicable conditions precedent set forth in Section 4.02 have then been satisfied. Such amounts transferred to the Administrative Agent shall be applied against the amounts of the Swingline Lender's Swingline Loans and, together with Swingline Lender's Applicable Percentage of such Swingline Loan, shall constitute Revolving Loans of such Revolving Lenders, respectively. If any such amount is not transferred to the Administrative Agent by any Revolving Lender on such Settlement Date, the Swingline Lender shall be entitled to recover from such Lender on demand such amount, together with interest thereon, as specified in Section 2.06.

Section 2.05 Letters of Credit.

(a) General. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement, no Letters of Credit shall be issued pursuant to this Agreement.

(b) Notice of Issuance, Amendment, Renewal, Extension; Certain Conditions. To request the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or the amendment, renewal or extension of an outstanding Letter of Credit), the Borrower Representative shall deliver to the applicable Issuing Bank and the Administrative Agent, at least five (5) Business Days in advance of the requested date of issuance (or such shorter period as is acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank), a request to issue a Letter of Credit, which shall specify that it is being issued under this Agreement, in the form of Exhibit L attached hereto. To request an amendment, extension or renewal of a Letter of Credit, the Borrower Representative shall submit such a request to the applicable Issuing Bank (with a copy to the Administrative Agent) at least five (5) Business Days in advance of the requested date of amendment, extension or renewal (or such shorter period as is acceptable to the applicable Issuing Bank), identifying the Letter of Credit to be amended, extended or renewed, and specifying the proposed date (which shall be a Business Day) and other details of the amendment, extension or renewal. Requests for issuance, amendment, extension or renewal must be accompanied by such other information as shall be necessary to issue, amend, extend or renew such Letter of Credit. If requested by the applicable Issuing Bank, the applicable Borrower shall submit a letter of credit application on such Issuing Bank's standard form in connection with any request for a Letter of Credit. In the event of any inconsistency between the terms and conditions of this Agreement and the terms and conditions of any form of letter of credit application or other agreement submitted by the applicable Borrower to, or entered into by the applicable Borrower with, the applicable Issuing Bank relating to any Letter of Credit, the terms and conditions of this Agreement shall control. No Letter of Credit, letter of credit application or other document entered into by the applicable Borrower with the applicable Issuing Bank relating to any Letter of Credit shall (x) contain any representations or warranties, covenants or events of default not set forth in this Agreement (for the avoidance of doubt, including the exhibits hereto) (and to the extent inconsistent herewith, shall be rendered null and void) and (y) all representations and warranties, covenants and events of default contained therein shall contain standards, qualifications, thresholds and exceptions for materiality or otherwise consistent with this Agreement (and, to the extent inconsistent herewith, shall be deemed to incorporate such standards, qualifications, thresholds and exceptions contained herein without action by any other party). Unless otherwise agreed by the applicable Issuing Bank and the applicable Borrower, each Letter of Credit shall be governed by the laws of the State of New York. A Letter of Credit shall be issued, amended, extended or renewed only if (and on issuance, amendment, extension or renewal of each Letter of Credit the applicable Borrower shall be deemed to represent and warrant that), after giving effect to such issuance, amendment, extension, or renewal, (i) the LC Exposure shall, subject to Sections 2.08, not exceed the Letter of Credit Sublimit, (ii) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure shall not exceed the Aggregate Revolving Commitments, (iii) the Total Revolving Credit Exposure shall not exceed the Line Cap, (iv) the Revolving Credit Exposure of each Lender will not exceed such Lender's Revolving Credit Commitment and (v) the Canadian Revolving Exposure shall not exceed the Canadian Sublimit. No Issuing Bank shall be under any obligation to issue any Letter of Credit if:

(i) any order, judgment or decree of any Governmental Authority or arbitrator shall by its terms purport to enjoin or restrain such Issuing Bank from issuing such Letter of Credit, or any law applicable to such Issuing Bank or any request or directive (whether or not having the force of law) from any Governmental Authority with jurisdiction over such Issuing Bank shall prohibit, or request that such Issuing Bank refrain from, the issuance of letters of credit generally or such Letter of Credit in particular or shall impose upon such Issuing Bank with respect to such Letter of Credit any restriction, reserve or capital requirement (for which such Issuing Bank is not otherwise compensated hereunder) not in effect on the Closing Date, or shall impose upon such Issuing Bank any unreimbursed loss, cost or expense which was not applicable on the Closing Date and which such Issuing Bank in good faith deems material to it;

(ii) the issuance of such Letter of Credit would violate one or more policies of such Issuing Bank regarding completion of customary "know your customer" requirements on the beneficiary of such Letter of Credit and/or any Subsidiary of the Borrowers that is a co-applicant for such Letter of Credit;

(iii) except as otherwise agreed by the Administrative Agent and such Issuing Bank, such Letter of Credit is in an initial Stated Amount less than $10,000;

(iv) such Letter of Credit is to be denominated in a currency other than Dollars or Canadian Dollars;

(v) such Letter of Credit contains any provisions for automatic reinstatement of the Stated Amount after any drawing thereunder; and

(vi) any Revolving Lender is at such time a Defaulting Lender, unless such Issuing Bank has entered into arrangements, including reallocation of such Defaulting Lender's Applicable Percentage of the outstanding LC Exposure pursuant to Section 2.20(d)(i) or the delivery of cash collateral, satisfactory to such Issuing Bank (in its sole discretion) by the applicable Borrower to eliminate such Issuing Bank's actual or potential fronting exposure (after giving effect to Section 2.20(d)(i)) with respect to such Defaulting Lender arising from either the Letter of Credit then proposed to be issued or such Letter of Credit and all other LC Exposure as to which such Issuing Bank has actual or potential fronting exposure, as it may elect in its sole discretion.

No Issuing Bank shall be under any obligation to amend or extend any Letter of Credit if (A) such Issuing Bank would have no obligation at such time to issue the Letter of Credit in its amended form under the terms hereof or (B) the beneficiary of such Letter of Credit does not accept the proposed amendment thereto. Promptly after the delivery of any Letter of Credit or any amendment to a Letter of Credit to an advising bank with respect thereto or to the beneficiary thereof, the applicable Issuing Bank will also deliver to the applicable Borrower and the Administrative Agent a true and complete copy of such Letter of Credit or amendment.

(c) Expiration Date. Each Letter of Credit shall expire not later than the earlier of (i) the date one year after the date of the issuance of such Letter of Credit (or such longer period of time as may be agreed to by the applicable Issuing Bank) and (ii) the date that is five (5) Business Days prior to the Stated Revolving Credit Maturity Date; provided that any Letter of Credit may provide for the automatic extension thereof for any number of additional periods each of up to one year in duration (none of which, in any event, shall extend beyond the date referred to in clause (ii) of this paragraph (c) unless 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of the then available face amount thereof is cash collateralized or backstopped pursuant to arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Issuing Bank thereof).

(d) Participations. By the issuance of a Letter of Credit (or an amendment to a Letter of Credit increasing the amount thereof) and without any further action on the part of the applicable Issuing Bank or the Revolving Lenders, the applicable Issuing Bank hereby grants to each Revolving Lender, and each Revolving Lender hereby acquires from such Issuing Bank, a participation in such Letter of Credit equal to such Revolving Lender's Applicable Percentage of the aggregate amount available to be drawn under such Letter of Credit (calculated, in the case of Letters of Credit in an Agreed Currency, based on the Dollar Equivalent thereof). In consideration and in furtherance of the foregoing, each Revolving Lender hereby absolutely and unconditionally agrees to pay to the Administrative Agent, for the account of the applicable Issuing Bank, such Lender's Applicable Percentage of each LC Disbursement made by such Issuing Bank and not reimbursed by the Borrowers on the date due as provided in paragraph (e) of this Section, or of any reimbursement payment required to be refunded to the Borrowers for any reason (calculated, in the case of Letters of Credit in an Agreed Currency, based on the Dollar Equivalent thereof). Each Revolving Lender acknowledges and agrees that its obligation to acquire participations pursuant to this paragraph in respect of Letters of Credit is absolute and unconditional and shall not be affected by any circumstance whatsoever, including any amendment, renewal or extension of any Letter of Credit or the occurrence and continuance of a Default or Event of Default or reduction or termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments, and that each such payment shall be made without any offset, abatement, withholding or reduction whatsoever.

(e) Reimbursement. If the applicable Issuing Bank shall make any LC Disbursement in respect of a Letter of Credit, the Borrowers shall reimburse such LC Disbursement by paying to the Administrative Agent an amount equal to such LC Disbursement (in the currency of the Letter of Credit or, if the Issuing Bank shall so elect, in Dollars equal to the Dollar Equivalent of such LC Disbursement) not later than 1:00 p.m., New York City time, on the Business Day immediately following the date the Borrower Representative receives notice under paragraph (g) of this Section of such LC Disbursement; provided that the Borrower Representative may, subject to the conditions to borrowing set forth herein, request in accordance with Section 2.03 that such payment be financed with an ABR Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing (in the case of any LC Disbursement denominated in Canadian Dollars) or Swingline Loan in an equivalent amount and, to the extent so financed, the Borrowers' obligation to make such payment shall be discharged and replaced by the resulting ABR Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, as applicable, or Swingline Loan. If the Borrowers fail to make such payment when due, the Administrative Agent shall notify each Revolving Lender of the applicable LC Disbursement, the payment then due from the Borrowers in respect thereof and such Revolving Lender's Applicable Percentage thereof. Promptly following receipt of such notice, each Revolving Lender shall pay to the Administrative Agent its Applicable Percentage of the payment then due from the Borrowers, in the same manner as provided in Section 2.06 with respect to Loans made by such Revolving Lender (and Section 2.06 shall apply, mutatis mutandis, to the payment obligations of the Revolving Lenders), and the Administrative Agent shall promptly pay to the applicable Issuing Bank the amounts so received by it from the Revolving Lenders. Promptly following receipt by the Administrative Agent of any payment from the Borrowers pursuant to this paragraph, the Administrative Agent shall distribute such payment to the applicable Issuing Bank or, to the extent that Revolving Lenders have made payments pursuant to this paragraph to reimburse such Issuing Bank, then to such Revolving Lenders and such Issuing Bank as their interests may appear. Any payment made by a Revolving Lender pursuant to this paragraph to reimburse the Issuing Bank for any LC Disbursement (other than the funding of ABR Loans, Canadian Prime Rate Loans or a Swingline Loan as contemplated above) shall not constitute a Loan and shall not relieve the Borrowers of their obligation to reimburse such LC Disbursement.

(f) Obligations Absolute. The Borrowers' joint and several obligation to reimburse LC Disbursements as provided in paragraph (e) of this Section 2.05 shall be absolute, unconditional and irrevocable, and shall be performed strictly in accordance with the terms of this Agreement under any and all circumstances whatsoever and irrespective of (i) any lack of validity or enforceability of any Letter of Credit or this Agreement, or any term or provision therein, (ii) any draft or other document presented under a Letter of Credit proving to be forged, fraudulent or invalid in any respect or any statement therein being untrue or inaccurate in any respect, (iii) payment by the applicable Issuing Bank under a Letter of Credit against presentation of a draft or other document that does not comply with the terms of such Letter of Credit or (iv) any other event or circumstance whatsoever, whether or not similar to any of the foregoing, that might, but for the provisions of this Section, constitute a legal or equitable discharge of, or provide a right of setoff against, the Borrowers' obligations hereunder. Neither the Administrative Agent, the Revolving Lenders nor any Issuing Bank or any of their respective Related Parties, shall have any liability or responsibility by reason of or in connection with the issuance or transfer of any Letter of Credit or any payment or failure to make any payment thereunder (irrespective of any of the circumstances referred to in the preceding sentence), or any error, omission, interruption, loss or delay in transmission or delivery of any draft, notice or other communication under or relating to any Letter of Credit (including any document required to make a drawing thereunder), any error in interpretation of technical terms or any consequence arising from causes beyond the control of such Issuing Bank; provided that the foregoing shall not be construed to excuse such Issuing Bank from liability to the Borrowers to the extent of any direct damages (as opposed to consequential damages, claims in respect of which are hereby waived by the Borrowers to the extent permitted by applicable law) suffered by the Borrowers that are caused by such Issuing Bank's failure to exercise care when determining whether drafts and other documents presented under a Letter of Credit comply with the terms thereof. The parties hereto expressly agree that, in the absence of gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct on the part of applicable Issuing Bank (as finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction), such Issuing Bank shall be deemed to have exercised care in each such determination. In furtherance of the foregoing and without limiting the generality thereof, the parties agree that, with respect to documents presented which appear on their face to be in substantial compliance with the terms of a Letter of Credit, the applicable Issuing Bank may, in its sole discretion, either accept and make payment upon such documents without responsibility for further investigation, regardless of any notice or information to the contrary, or refuse to accept and make payment upon such documents if such documents are not in strict compliance with the terms of such Letter of Credit.

(g) Disbursement Procedures. The applicable Issuing Bank shall, promptly following its receipt thereof, examine all documents purporting to represent a demand for payment under a Letter of Credit. Such Issuing Bank shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent and the applicable Borrower by facsimile or email of such compliant demand for payment and whether such Issuing Bank has made or will make an LC Disbursement thereunder; provided that any failure to give or delay in giving such notice shall not relieve the Borrowers of their obligation to reimburse such Issuing Bank and the Revolving Lenders with respect to any such LC Disbursement.

(h) Interim Interest. If an Issuing Bank shall make any LC Disbursement, then, unless the Borrowers shall reimburse such LC Disbursement in full on the date such LC Disbursement is made, the unpaid amount thereof shall bear interest, for each day from and including the date such LC Disbursement is made to but excluding the date that the Borrowers reimburse such LC Disbursement, at the rate per annum then applicable to ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, as applicable, and such interest shall be payable on the date when such reimbursement is due; provided that if the Borrowers fail to reimburse such LC Disbursement when due pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Section 2.05, then Section 2.12(c) shall apply. Interest accrued pursuant to this paragraph shall be for the account of the applicable Issuing Bank, except that interest accrued on and after the date of payment by any Revolving Lender pursuant to paragraph (e) of this Section to reimburse such Issuing Bank shall be for the account of such Revolving Lender to the extent of such payment.

(i) Replacement of an Issuing Bank or Addition of New Issuing Banks. An Issuing Bank may be replaced with the consent of the Administrative Agent (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) at any time by written agreement among the Borrower Representative, the Administrative Agent, the replaced Issuing Bank and the successor Issuing Bank. The Administrative Agent shall notify the Revolving Lenders of any such replacement of an Issuing Bank. At the time any such replacement shall become effective, the Borrowers shall pay all unpaid fees accrued for the account of the replaced Issuing Bank pursuant to Section 2.11(b). From and after the effective date of any such replacement, (i) the successor Issuing Bank shall have all the rights and obligations of the replaced Issuing Bank under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit to be issued thereafter and (ii) references herein to the term "Issuing Bank" shall be deemed to refer to such successor or to any previous Issuing Bank, or to such successor and all previous Issuing Banks, as the context shall require. After the replacement of an Issuing Bank hereunder, the replaced Issuing Bank shall remain a party hereto and shall continue to have all the rights and obligations of an Issuing Bank under this Agreement with respect to Letters of Credit issued by it prior to such replacement, but shall not be required to issue additional Letters of Credit. The Borrowers may, at any time and from time to time with the consent of the Administrative Agent (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed) and such Revolving Lender, designate one or more additional Revolving Lenders to act as an Issuing Bank under the terms of this Agreement. Any Revolving Lender designated as an Issuing Bank pursuant to this paragraph (i) shall be deemed to be an "Issuing Bank" (in addition to being a Revolving Lender) in respect of Letters of Credit issued or to be issued by such Revolving Lender, and, with respect to such Letters of Credit, such term shall thereafter apply to the other Issuing Banks and such Revolving Lender.

(j) Cash Collateralization. If any Event of Default shall occur and be continuing, then on the Business Day that the Borrower Representative receives notice from the Administrative Agent demanding the deposit of cash collateral pursuant to this paragraph (j), upon such demand, the Borrowers shall deposit, in an interest-bearing account with the Administrative Agent, in the name of the Administrative Agent and for the benefit of the Revolving Lenders and the Issuing Banks (the “LC Collateral Account”), an amount in Cash equal to 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of the LC Exposure as of such date plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon; provided that the obligation to deposit such cash collateral shall become effective immediately, and such deposit shall become immediately due and payable, without demand or other notice of any kind, upon the occurrence of any Event of Default with respect to any Borrower described in Section 7.01(f) or (g). Such Borrower also shall deposit cash collateral in accordance with this paragraph as and to the extent required by Sections 2.09(b), 2.10(b)(i) or 2.20. Any such deposit under this clause (j) shall be held by the Administrative Agent as collateral for the payment and performance of the Secured Obligations in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph (j). The Administrative Agent shall have exclusive dominion and control, including the exclusive right of withdrawal, over such account and the Borrowers hereby grant the Administrative Agent a security interest in the LC Collateral Account and all money or other assets on deposit therein or credited thereto. Interest or profits, if any, on such investments shall accumulate in such account. Moneys in such account shall be applied by the Administrative Agent to reimburse the applicable Issuing Bank for LC Disbursements for which it has not been reimbursed and, to the extent not so applied, shall be held for the satisfaction of the reimbursement obligations of the Borrowers for the LC Exposure at such time. If the Borrowers are required to provide an amount of cash collateral hereunder as a result of the occurrence of an Event of Default, such amount (together with all interest and other earnings with respect thereto, to the extent not applied as aforesaid) shall be returned to the Borrowers promptly but in no event later than three Business Days, after such Event of Default has been cured (solely with respect to an Event of Default under Section 7.01(d) as a result of a breach of Section 6.15(a)) or waived by the Lenders. If the Borrowers are required to provide an amount of cash collateral under Section 2.20(d)(ii), such amount (to the extent not applied as aforesaid) shall be returned to the Borrowers as requested by the Borrowers so long as the LC Exposure of the applicable Defaulting Lender has been fully reallocated or eliminated.

Section 2.06 Funding of Borrowings.

(a) Each Lender shall make each Loan to be made by it hereunder on the proposed date thereof by wire transfer of immediately available funds by 2:00 p.m., New York City time to the account of the Administrative Agent most recently designated by it for such purpose by notice to the Lenders in an amount equal to such Lender’s respective Applicable Percentage; provided that Swingline Loans shall be made as provided in Section 2.04(b). The Administrative Agent may charge to the Borrower Representative usual and customary fees for the wire transfer of each Borrowing. Upon receipt of all requested funds, the Administrative Agent will make such Loans available to the Borrower Representative by promptly wiring the amounts so received, in like funds, to the Funding Account or as otherwise directed by the Borrower Representative in the applicable Borrowing Request; provided that ABR Loans and/or Canadian Prime Rate Loans made to finance the reimbursement of (i) an LC Disbursement as provided in Section 2.05(e) shall be remitted by the Administrative Agent to the applicable Issuing Bank and (ii) a Protective Advance shall be retained by the Administrative Agent.

(b) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from a Lender prior to the proposed date of any Borrowing that such Lender will not make available to the Administrative Agent such Lender’s share of such Borrowing, the Administrative Agent may assume that such Lender has made such share available on such date in accordance with paragraph (a) of this Section and may, in reliance upon such assumption, make available to the applicable Borrower a corresponding amount. In such event, if a Lender has not in fact made its share of the applicable Borrowing available to the Administrative Agent, then the applicable Lender and the Borrowers each severally agree to pay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand (without duplication) such corresponding amount with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is made available to the applicable Borrower to, but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at (i) in the case of such Lender, the Overnight Rate or (ii) in the case of the Borrowers, the interest rate applicable to ABR Loans. If such Lender pays such amount to the Administrative Agent, then such amount shall constitute such Lender's Loan included in such Borrowing and the Borrowers' obligation to repay the Administrative Agent such corresponding amount pursuant to this Section 2.06(b) shall cease; provided, that any interest received from a Borrower by the Administrative Agent during the period beginning when Administrative Agent funded the Borrowing until such Lender pays such amount shall be solely for the account of the Administrative Agent. If a Borrower pays such amount to the Administrative Agent, the amount so paid shall constitute a repayment of such Borrowing by such amount. Nothing herein shall be deemed to relieve any Lender from its obligation to fulfill its Commitment or to prejudice any rights which the Administrative Agent or the Borrowers or any other Loan Party may have against any Lender as a result of any default by such Lender hereunder. It is understood that the Administrative Agent shall not have a duty to advance its personal funds pursuant to this Section.

Section 2.07 Type; Interest Elections.

(a) Each Borrowing initially shall be of the Type specified in the applicable Borrowing Request and, in the case of (i) a SOFR Borrowing, shall be subject to the then current One Month Term SOFR Index or (ii) a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, shall have an initial Interest Period as specified in such Borrowing Request. Thereafter, the Borrower Representative may elect to convert such Borrowing to a different Type or to continue such Borrowing and, in the case of a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, may elect Interest Periods therefor, all as provided in this Section. The Borrower Representative may elect different options with respect to different portions of the affected Borrowing, in which case each such portion shall be allocated ratably among the Lenders, based upon their Applicable Percentages and the Loans comprising each such portion shall be considered a separate Borrowing. This Section shall not apply to Swingline Borrowings or Protective Advances, which may not be converted or continued.

(b) To make an election pursuant to this Section, the Borrower Representative shall notify the Administrative Agent of such election either by delivering an irrevocable Interest Election Request in writing (by hand delivery, fax or other electronic transmission (including ".pdf" or ".tif")) signed by a Responsible Officer of the Borrower Representative by the time that a Borrowing Request would be required under Section 2.03 if the Borrower Representative was requesting a Borrowing of the Type resulting from such election to be made on the effective date of such election.

(c) Each written Interest Election Request shall specify the following information in compliance with Section 2.02:

(i) the name of the applicable Borrower and the Borrowing to which such Interest Election Request applies and, if different options are being elected with respect to different portions thereof, the portions thereof to be allocated to each resulting Borrowing (in which case the information to be specified pursuant to clauses (iii) and (iv) below shall be specified for each resulting Borrowing);

(ii) the effective date of the election made pursuant to such Interest Election Request, which shall be a Business Day;

(iii) the Agreed Currency of such Borrowing and whether the resulting Borrowing is to be an ABR Borrowing or a SOFR Borrowing in the case of a Borrowing by a Borrower, or a Term CORRA Borrowing, a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing or a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, in the case of a Borrowing by a Canadian Borrower; and

(iv) if the resulting Borrowing is a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing, the Interest Period to be applicable thereto after giving effect to such election, which shall be a period contemplated by the definition of the term “Interest Period”.

If any such Interest Election Request requests a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing but does not specify an Interest Period, then the Borrower Representative shall be deemed to have selected an Interest Period of one month’s duration.

(d) The Administrative Agent shall advise each applicable Lender of the details of an Interest Election Request and such Lender’s portion of such resulting Borrowing no less than one Business Day before the effective date of the election made pursuant to such Interest Election Request.

(e) If the Borrower Representative fails to deliver a timely Interest Election Request with respect to a Term CORRA Borrowing or a Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowing prior to the end of the Interest Period applicable thereto, then, unless such Borrowing is repaid as provided herein, at the end of such Interest Period such Borrowing shall be converted to a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing. Notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof, if an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and the Administrative Agent, at the request of the Required Lenders, so notifies the Borrower Representative, then, so long as an Event of Default is continuing (i) no outstanding Borrowing may be converted to or continued as a SOFR Borrowing or CORRA Borrowing and (ii) unless repaid as provided herein, each SOFR Borrowing shall be converted to an ABR Borrowing, and each CORRA Borrowing shall be converted into a Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, as applicable, at the end of the then-current SOFR Index Election period or Interest Period applicable thereto.

Section 2.08 Termination and Reduction of Commitments.

(a) The Revolving Credit Commitments shall terminate on the Revolving Credit Maturity Date.

(b) Upon delivering the written notice required by Section 2.08(d), the Borrowers may at any time terminate the Revolving Credit Commitments upon (i) the payment in full in Cash of all outstanding Revolving Loans, together with accrued and unpaid interest thereon, (ii) the cancellation and return of all outstanding Letters of Credit (or alternatively, with respect to each such Letter of Credit, the furnishing to the Administrative Agent of a Cash deposit (or if reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and the applicable Issuing Bank, a backup standby letter of credit) equal to 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of the LC Exposure as of such date) and (iii) the payment in full of all accrued and unpaid fees and all reimbursable expenses and other non-Contingent Obligations with respect to the Revolving Facility then due, together with accrued and unpaid interest (if any) thereon.

(c) Upon delivering the notice required by Section 2.08(d), the Borrowers may from time to time reduce the Revolving Credit Commitments; provided that (i) each reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments shall be in an amount that is an integral multiple of the Dollar Equivalent of $100,000 and not less than the Dollar Equivalent of $1,000,000 and (ii) the Borrowers shall not reduce the Revolving Credit Commitments if, after giving effect to any concurrent prepayment of the Revolving Loans in accordance with Section 2.09 or Section 2.10, the Total Revolving Credit Exposure would exceed the Line Cap.

(d) The Borrower Representative shall notify the Administrative Agent in writing of any election to terminate or reduce the Commitments under paragraph (b) or (c) of this Section 2.08 on or before 11:00 a.m. New York City time at least three (3) Business Days prior to the effective date of such termination or reduction, specifying such election and the effective date thereof. Promptly following receipt of any such notice, the Administrative Agent shall advise the Revolving Lenders of the contents thereof. Each notice delivered by the Borrower Representative pursuant to this Section shall be irrevocable; provided that a notice of termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments delivered by the Borrower Representative may state that such notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other transactions, in which case such notice may be revoked by the Borrower Representative (by written notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied. Any termination or reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments pursuant to this Section 2.08 shall be permanent. Upon any reduction of the Revolving Credit Commitments, the Revolving Credit Commitment of each Revolving Lender shall be reduced by such Revolving Lender's Applicable Percentage of such reduction amount.

Section 2.09 Repayment of Loans; Evidence of Debt.

(a) The Borrowers hereby unconditionally promise to pay (i) to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Revolving Lender the then unpaid principal amount of each Revolving Loan on the Revolving Credit Maturity Date and (ii) to the Administrative Agent the then unpaid amount of each Protective Advance on the earlier of the Revolving Credit Maturity Date and upon one Business Days' written demand therefor by the Administrative Agent. Each such payment shall be made by the Borrowers in the same currency as each outstanding Revolving Loan that is being repaid. On the Revolving Credit Maturity Date, the Borrowers shall or shall cause the beneficiary thereof to cancel and return all outstanding Letters of Credit (or alternatively, with respect to each such Letter of Credit, furnish to the Administrative Agent a Cash deposit (or if reasonably satisfactory to the relevant Issuing Bank, a backup standby letter of credit) equal to 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of the LC Exposure as of such date) and make payment in full in Cash of all accrued and unpaid fees and all reimbursable expenses and other Obligations with respect to the Revolving Facility then due, together with accrued and unpaid interest (if any) thereon.

(b) Each Lender shall maintain in accordance with its usual practice an account or accounts evidencing the indebtedness of the Borrowers to such Lender resulting from each Loan made by such Lender, including the amounts of principal and interest payable and paid to such Lender from time to time hereunder.

(c) The Administrative Agent shall maintain accounts in which it shall record (i) the amount of each Loan made hereunder, the Class and Type thereof, the SOFR Index Period and Interest Period (if any) applicable thereto, (ii) the amount of any principal or interest due and payable or to become due and payable from the Borrowers to each Lender hereunder and (iii) the amount of any sum received by the Administrative Agent hereunder for the account of the Lenders and each Lender's share thereof.

(d) The entries made in the accounts maintained pursuant to paragraph (c) or (d) of this Section 2.09 shall be prima facie evidence of the existence and amounts of the obligations recorded therein (absent manifest error); provided that the failure of any Lender or the Administrative Agent to maintain such accounts or any manifest error therein shall not in any manner affect the obligation of the Borrowers to repay the Loans in accordance with the terms of this Agreement; provided, further, that in the event of any inconsistency between the accounts maintained by the Administrative Agent pursuant to paragraph (d) of this Section 2.09 and any Lender's records, the accounts of the Administrative Agent shall govern; provided, further, that in event of any inconsistency between the accounts maintained by the Administrative Agent pursuant to paragraph (d) of this Section 2.09 and the Register, the Register shall govern.

(e) Any Lender may request that Loans made by it be evidenced by a Promissory Note. In such event, the Borrowers shall prepare, execute and deliver to such Lender a Promissory Note payable to such Lender and its registered assigns. Thereafter, the Loans evidenced by such Promissory Note and interest thereon shall at all times (including after assignment pursuant to Section 9.05) be represented by one or more Promissory Notes in such form payable to the payee named therein and its registered assigns. In the event that one or more Promissory Notes shall be issued after the date hereof, it shall not be necessary to tender or present any such Promissory Note to the Administrative Agent for any payment hereunder including the applicable maturity date.

Section 2.10 Prepayment of Loans.

(a) Optional Prepayments.

(i) [Reserved].

(ii) Upon prior notice in accordance with paragraph (a)(iii) of this Section 2.10, the Borrowers shall have the right at any time and from time to time to prepay any Borrowing of Revolving Loans in whole or in part without premium or penalty (but subject to Section 2.15). Prepayments made pursuant to this Section 2.10(a)(ii) shall be applied in accordance with Section 2.17(b).

(iii) The Borrower Representative shall notify the Administrative Agent (and, in the case of prepayment of a Swingline Loan, the Swingline Lender) in writing by providing a Prepayment Notice with respect to (A) of any prepayment under this Section 2.10(a) in the case of prepayment of a SOFR Borrowing, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, three U.S. Government Securities Business Days before the date of prepayment, (B) in the case of a CORRA Borrowing, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, three Business Days before the date of prepayment or (C) in the case of prepayment of an ABR Borrowing or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowing, not later than 11:00 a.m., New York City time, one Business Day before the date of prepayment. Each Prepayment Notice shall be irrevocable and shall specify the prepayment date and the principal amount and currency of each Borrowing or portion thereof to be prepaid; provided that a Prepayment Notice delivered by the Borrower Representative may state that such Prepayment Notice is conditioned upon the effectiveness of other transactions, in which case such Prepayment Notice may be revoked by the Borrower Representative (by written notice to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the specified effective date) if such condition is not satisfied. Promptly following receipt of any such Prepayment Notice relating to a Borrowing, the Administrative Agent shall advise the relevant Lenders of the contents thereof. Each partial prepayment of any Borrowing shall be in an amount that would be permitted in the case of an advance of a Borrowing of the same Type as provided in Section 2.02(c). Each prepayment of a Revolving Borrowing shall be applied ratably to the Revolving Loans included in the prepaid Borrowing. Prepayments shall be accompanied by (i) accrued interest to the extent required by Section 2.12 and (ii) break funding payments pursuant to Section 2.15, as applicable.

(b) Mandatory Prepayments.

(i) If for any reason, at any time the Total Revolving Credit Exposure exceeds the Line Cap (an “Overadvance”) (other than as a result of a Protective Advance that the Administrative Agent has determined to make and/or to permit to remain outstanding), then the Borrowers shall promptly, but in any event, on the date of such Overadvance arises, prepay the Obligations in an aggregate amount equal to such excess by applying such prepayment first, to repay and permanently reduce Pre-Petition Revolving Loans in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, second, to repay Swingline Loans and (subject to the parenthetical above) Protective Advances that may be outstanding, third, to the outstanding principal amount of the Revolving Loans until the Total Revolving Credit Exposure no longer exceeds the Line Cap. No prepayment applied to the Revolving Loans or to cash collateralize LC Exposure under this Section 2.10(b)(i) shall result in a reduction in the Aggregate Revolving Commitment.

(ii) Prepayments shall be accompanied by accrued interest as required by Section 2.12. All prepayments of Borrowings under Section 2.10(b)(i) shall be subject to Section 2.15, but shall otherwise be without premium or penalty.

Section 2.11 Fees.

(a) The Borrowers agree to pay to the Administrative Agent for the account of each Revolving Lender (subject to Section 2.20) a commitment fee, which shall accrue at a rate equal to 0.75% per annum on the average daily amount of the Unused Revolving Credit Commitment of such Revolving Lender during the period from and including the Closing Date to the date on which such Lender's Revolving Credit Commitments terminate. Accrued commitment fees shall be payable in arrears on the first Business Day of each month and on the date on which the Revolving Credit Commitments terminate. All commitment fees shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days and shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day). For purposes of this Section 2.11(a), the Unused Revolving Credit Commitment of each Lender shall be calculated based on the Swingline Exposure of such Lender calculated assuming that all of the Lenders have funded their participations in all Swingline Loans outstanding at such time.

(b) The Borrowers agree to pay to the Administrative Agent, for its own account, the fees set forth in the Agent Fee Letter referred to in the definition of "Fee Letters", payable in the amounts and at the times specified therein or as so otherwise agreed upon by the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent, or such other fees as may otherwise be separately agreed upon by the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent in writing.

(c) All fees payable hereunder shall be paid in Dollars on the dates due, in immediately available funds, to the Administrative Agent (or to the applicable Issuing Bank, in the case of fees payable to it) for distribution, in the case of commitment fees and participation fees, to the Revolving Lenders. Fees paid shall not be refundable under any circumstances.

Section 2.12 Interest.

(a) The Loans comprising each ABR Borrowing (including Swingline Loans) and each Protective Advance shall bear interest at the Alternate Base Rate plus the Applicable Rate. The Loans comprising Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings shall bear interest at the Canadian Prime Rate plus the Applicable Rate.

(b) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Term SOFR Borrowing or Term CORRA Borrowings shall be made available pursuant this Agreement.

(c) Notwithstanding the foregoing, if any Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing (after the expiration of any applicable grace period), at the option of the Administrative Agent or at the direction of the Required Lenders, all outstanding Obligations shall bear interest, to the fullest extent permitted by law, after as well as before judgment, at a rate per annum equal to (i) in the case of overdue principal or interest of any Loan, 2.0% plus the rate otherwise applicable to such Loan as provided in the preceding paragraphs of this Section 2.12, (ii) in the case of any other Obligations, 2.0% plus the rate applicable to ABR Loans as provided in paragraph (a) of this Section 2.12; provided that no amount shall accrue or be payable pursuant to this Section 2.12(c) to a Defaulting Lender so long as such Lender shall be a Defaulting Lender.

(d) Accrued interest on each Loan shall be payable in arrears on each Interest Payment Date for such Loan and upon termination of the Revolving Credit Commitments; provided that (i) interest accrued pursuant to paragraph (c) of this Section 2.12 shall be payable on demand, (ii) in the event of any repayment or prepayment of any Loan (other than a prepayment of an ABR Loan or Canadian Prime Rate Loan prior to the termination of the relevant Commitments), accrued interest on the principal amount repaid or prepaid shall be payable on the date of such repayment or prepayment and (iii) in the event of any conversion of any SOFR Loan prior to the end of the current SOFR Index Period, or any conversion of any CORRA Loan prior to the end of the current Interest Period therefor, accrued interest on such Loan shall be payable on the effective date of such conversion.

(e) All interest hereunder shall be computed on the basis of a year of 360 days, except that interest computed by reference to (i) the Alternate Base Rate at times when the Alternate Base Rate is based on the Prime Rate and the Canadian Prime Rate shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days (or 366 days in a leap year) and (ii) the Term CORRA Reference Rate, Adjusted Term CORRA and Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA shall be computed on the basis of a year of 365 days, and in each case shall be payable for the actual number of days elapsed (including the first day but excluding the last day). All interest hereunder on any Loan shall be computed on a daily basis based upon the outstanding principal amount of such Loan as of the applicable date of determination. The applicable Alternate Base Rate, Adjusted Term SOFR, Canadian Prime Rate, Adjusted Term CORRA or Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA shall be determined by the Administrative Agent, and such determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Interest shall accrue on each Loan for the day on which the Loan is made and shall not accrue on a Loan, or any portion thereof, for the day on which the Loan or such portion is paid; provided that any Loan that is repaid on the same day on which it is made shall bear interest for one day.

(f) For the purposes of the Interest Act (Canada) and disclosure thereunder, whenever any interest or any fee to be paid hereunder or in connection herewith is to be calculated on the basis of a 360-day or any other period of time that is less than a calendar year, the yearly rate of interest to which the rate used in such calculation is equivalent is the rate so used multiplied by the actual number of days in the calendar year in which the same is to be ascertained and divided by three hundred and sixty (360) or the number of days in such period, as applicable. The rates of interest under this Agreement are nominal rates, and not effective rates or yields. The principle of deemed reinvestment of interest does not apply to any interest calculation under this Agreement. The parties acknowledge that there is a material difference between the stated nominal rates and effective yearly rates taking into account reinvestment, and that such parties are capable of making the calculations required to determine effective yearly rates.

(g) In connection with the use or administration of Term SOFR, Term CORRA or Daily Compounded CORRA, the Administrative Agent will have the right to make Conforming Changes from time to time and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, any amendments implementing such Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement or any other Loan Document. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify the Borrower Representative and the Lenders of the effectiveness of any Conforming Changes in connection with the use or administration of Term SOFR or CDOR.

Section 2.13 Alternate Rate of Interest.

(a) Subject to Section 2.13(b), if, on or prior to the first day of any SOFR Index Period for a SOFR Borrowing or of any Interest Period for a CORRA Borrowing:

(i) the Administrative Agent determines (which determination shall be conclusive absent manifest error) that reasonable and adequate means do not exist for ascertaining Adjusted Term SOFR, Term CORRA or Daily Compounded CORRA, as applicable, pursuant to the definition thereof; or

(ii) the Required Lenders determine that for any reason in connection with any request for a SOFR Loan, Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan or a conversion thereto or a continuation thereof that Adjusted Term SOFR, Term CORRA or Daily Compounded CORRA, as applicable, for any requested SOFR Index Period or Interest Period with respect to a proposed SOFR Loan, Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan, as applicable, does not adequately and fairly reflect the cost to such Lenders of making and maintaining such Loan, and the Required Lenders have provided notice of such determination to the Administrative Agent;

then the Administrative Agent shall promptly give notice thereof to the Borrower Representative and the Lenders by facsimile or email as promptly as practicable thereafter. Upon notice thereof by the Administrative Agent to the Borrower Representative, any obligation of the Lenders to make SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans, as applicable, and any right of the Borrowers to continue SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans, as applicable, or to convert ABR Loans to SOFR Loans or to convert Canadian Prime Rate Loans to Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans, as applicable, shall be suspended (to the extent of the affected SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans, or affected SOFR Index Period or Interest Periods, as applicable) until the Administrative Agent (with respect to clause (a)(ii), at the instruction of the Required Lenders) revokes such notice. Upon receipt of such notice, (i) the Borrower Representative may revoke any pending request for a borrowing of, conversion to or continuation of SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans (to the extent of the affected SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans or affected SOFR Index Period or Interest Periods, as applicable) or, failing that, the Borrower Representative will be deemed to have converted any such request into a request for a Borrowing of or conversion to ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, as applicable, in the amount specified therein and (ii) any outstanding affected SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans will be deemed to have been converted into ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, as applicable, at the end of the applicable SOFR Index Period or Interest Period. Upon any such conversion, the Borrower Representative shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so converted, together with any additional amounts required pursuant to Section 2.15. Subject to Section 2.13(b), if the Administrative Agent determines (which determination shall be conclusive and binding absent manifest error) that Adjusted Term SOFR, Adjusted Term CORRA or Adjusted Daily Compounded CORRA cannot be determined pursuant to the definition thereof on any given day, the interest rate on ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans shall be determined by the Administrative Agent without reference to clause (b) of the definition of Alternate Base Rate or clause (ii) of the definition of Canadian Prime Rate, as applicable, until the Administrative Agent revokes such determination.

(b) Effect of Benchmark Transition Event.

(i) Benchmark Replacement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, upon the occurrence of a Benchmark Transition Event, the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative may amend this Agreement to replace the then-current Benchmark with a Benchmark Replacement. Any such amendment with respect to a Benchmark Transition Event will become effective at 5:00 p.m. on the fifth (5th) Business Day after the Administrative Agent has posted such proposed amendment to all affected Lenders and the Borrower Representative so long as the Administrative Agent has not received, by such time, written notice of objection to such amendment from Lenders comprising the Required Lenders. No replacement of a Benchmark with a Benchmark Replacement pursuant to this Section 2.13(b)(i) will occur prior to the applicable Benchmark Transition Start Date.

(ii) Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes. In connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement, the Administrative Agent will have the right to make Conforming Changes from time to time and, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, any amendments implementing such Benchmark Replacement Conforming Changes will become effective without any further action or consent of any other party to this Agreement or any other Loan Document.

(iii) Notices; Standards for Decisions and Determinations. The Administrative Agent will promptly notify the Borrower Representative and the Lenders of (i) the implementation of any Benchmark Replacement and (ii) the effectiveness of any Conforming Changes in connection with the use, administration, adoption or implementation of a Benchmark Replacement. The Administrative Agent will notify the Borrower of (x) the removal or reinstatement of any tenor of a Benchmark pursuant to Section 2.13(b)(iv) and (y) the commencement of any Benchmark Unavailability Period. Any determination, decision or election that may be made by the Administrative Agent or, if applicable, any Lender (or group of Lenders) pursuant to this Section 2.13(b), including any determination with respect to a tenor, rate or adjustment or of the occurrence or non-occurrence of an event, circumstance or date and any decision to take or refrain from taking any action or any selection, will be conclusive and binding absent manifest error and may be made in its or their sole discretion and without consent from any other party hereto or any other Loan Document, except, in each case, as expressly required pursuant to this Section 2.13(b).

(iv) Unavailability of Tenor of Benchmark. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, at any time (including in connection with the implementation of a Benchmark Replacement), (i) if the then-current Benchmark is a term rate (including the Term SOFR Reference Rate) and either (A) any tenor for such Benchmark is not displayed on a screen or other information service that publishes such rate from time to time as selected by the Administrative Agent in its reasonable discretion or (B) the regulatory supervisor for the administrator of such Benchmark has provided a public statement or publication of information announcing that any tenor for such Benchmark is not or will not be representative, then the Administrative Agent may modify the definition of “SOFR Index Period” or “Interest Period” (or any similar or analogous definition) for any Benchmark settings at or after such time to remove such unavailable or non-representative tenor and (ii) if a tenor that was removed pursuant to clause (i) above either (A) is subsequently displayed on a screen or information service for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement) or (B) is not, or is no longer, subject to an announcement that it is not or will not be representative for a Benchmark (including a Benchmark Replacement), then the Administrative Agent may modify the definition of “SOFR Index Period” or “Interest Period” (or any similar or analogous definition) for all Benchmark settings at or after such time to reinstate such previously removed tenor.

(v) Benchmark Unavailability Period. Upon the Borrower Representative’s receipt of notice of the commencement of a Benchmark Unavailability Period, the Borrower Representative may revoke any pending request for a SOFR Borrowing or CORRA Borrowing, as applicable, of, conversion to or continuation of SOFR Loans or CORRA Loans, as applicable, to be made, converted or continued during any Benchmark Unavailability Period and, failing that, the Borrowers will be deemed to have converted any such request into a request for a Borrowing of or conversion to ABR Loans or Canadian Prime Rate Loans, respectively. During any Benchmark Unavailability Period or at any time that a tenor for the then-current Benchmark is not an Available Tenor, the component of Alternate Base Rate based upon the then-current Benchmark or such tenor for such Benchmark, as applicable, will not be used in any determination of Alternate Base Rate.

Section 2.14 Increased Costs.

(a) If any Change in Law shall:

(i) impose, modify or deem applicable any reserve (including pursuant to regulations issued from time to time by the Federal Reserve Board for determining the maximum reserve requirement (including any emergency, special, supplemental or other marginal reserve requirement) with respect to eurocurrency funding (currently referred to as “Eurocurrency liabilities” in Regulation D)), special deposit or similar requirement against assets of, deposits with or for the account of, or credit extended by, any Lender or Issuing Bank; or

(ii) impose on any Lender or Issuing Bank any other condition affecting this Agreement or SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans made by such Lender or any Letter of Credit or participation therein;

and the result of any of the foregoing shall be to increase the cost to such Lender of making or maintaining any SOFR Loan, Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan (or of maintaining its obligation to make any such Loan) or to increase the cost to such Lender or Issuing Bank of participating in, issuing or maintaining any Letter of Credit or to reduce the amount of any sum received or receivable by such Lender hereunder (whether of principal, interest or otherwise) in respect of any SOFR Loan, Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan in an amount deemed by such Lender or Issuing Bank to be material, then, within 30 days after the Borrower Representative’s receipt of the certificate contemplated by paragraph (c) of this Section 2.14, the Borrowers will pay to such Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable, for such additional costs incurred or reduction suffered (including any Taxes other than (i) any Excluded Taxes and (ii) any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes indemnified under Section 2.16); provided that the Borrowers shall not be liable for such compensation if (x) the relevant Change in Law occurs on a date prior to the date such Lender becomes a party hereto, (y) the Lender invokes Section 2.19 or (z) such circumstances in the case of requests for reimbursement under clause (ii) above resulting from a market disruption are not generally affecting the banking market.

(b) If any Lender or Issuing Bank determines that any Change in Law regarding liquidity or capital requirements has or would have the effect of reducing the rate of return on such Lender’s or Issuing Bank’s capital or on the capital of such Lender’s or Issuing Bank’s holding company, if any, as a consequence of this Agreement or the Loans made by, or participations in Letters of Credit or Swingline Loans held by, such Lender, or the Letters of Credit issued by such Issuing Bank, to a level below that which such Lender or Issuing Bank or such Lender’s or such Issuing Bank’s holding company could have achieved but for such Change in Law (including any Change in Law due to Taxes other than (i) any Excluded Taxes and (ii) any Indemnified Taxes or Other Taxes indemnified under Section 2.16) (taking into consideration such Lender’s policies and the policies of such Lender’s holding company with respect to capital adequacy), then within 30 days of receipt by the Borrower Representative of the certificate contemplated by paragraph (c) of this Section 2.14 the Borrowers will pay to such Lender or such Issuing Bank, as applicable, such additional amount or amounts as will compensate such Lender or such Issuing Bank or such Lender’s or such Issuing Bank’s holding company for any such reduction suffered.

(c) A certificate of a Lender or Issuing Bank setting forth the amount or amounts necessary to compensate such Lender or Issuing Bank or its holding company, as applicable, as specified in paragraphs (a) or (b) of this Section 2.14 and setting forth in reasonable detail the manner in which such amount or amounts was determined shall be delivered to the Borrower Representative and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender or the Issuing Bank, as the case may be, the amount shown as due on any such certificate within twenty (20) days after receipt thereof.

(d) Failure or delay on the part of any Lender or Issuing Bank to demand compensation pursuant to this Section shall not constitute a waiver of such Lender's or Issuing Bank's right to demand such compensation; provided that the Borrowers shall not be required to compensate a Lender or an Issuing Bank pursuant to this Section for any increased costs or reductions incurred more than 180 days prior to the date that such Lender or Issuing Bank notifies the Borrower Representative of the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions and of such Lender's or Issuing Bank's intention to claim compensation therefor; provided, further, that if the Change in Law giving rise to such increased costs or reductions is retroactive, then the 180-day period referred to above shall be extended to include the period of retroactive effect thereof.

Section 2.15 Break Funding Payments. In the event of (a) the conversion or prepayment of any principal of the conversion or prepayment of any principal of any Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto (in each case whether voluntary, mandatory, automatic, by reason of acceleration or otherwise), (b) the failure to borrow, convert, continue or prepay any Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan on the date or in the amount specified in any notice delivered pursuant hereto or (c) the assignment of any Term CORRA Loan or Daily Compounded CORRA Loan of any Lender other than on the last day of the Interest Period applicable thereto, in each case, as a result of a request by the Borrower Representative pursuant to Section 2.18, then, in any such event, the Borrowers shall compensate each Lender for any loss, cost and expense attributable to such event (other than loss of profit), including any loss, cost or expense arising from liquidation or redeployment of funds or from any fees payable. A certificate of any Lender setting forth any amount or amounts that such Lender is entitled to receive pursuant to this Section and the basis therefor and setting forth in reasonable detail the manner in which such amount or amounts was determined shall be delivered to the Borrower Representative and shall be conclusive absent manifest error. The Borrowers shall pay such Lender the amount shown as due on any such certificate within twenty (20) days after receipt thereof.

Section 2.16 Taxes.

(a) Any and all payments by or on account of any obligation of any Loan Party under any Loan Document shall be made free and clear of and without deduction or withholding for any Taxes, except as required by Requirements of Law. If any Requirements of Law (as determined in the good faith discretion of an applicable withholding agent) require the deduction or withholding of any Tax from any such payment by a Loan Party, then the applicable withholding agent shall be entitled to make such deduction or withholding and shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with the Requirements of Law; provided that if an applicable withholding agent shall be required to deduct or withhold any Indemnified Taxes from such payments, then (i) the sum payable by the applicable Loan Party shall be increased as necessary so that after making all such required deductions or withholdings (including deductions and withholdings applicable to additional sums payable under this Section) the Administrative Agent (acting for its own account), any Lender or any Issuing Bank (as applicable) receives an amount equal to the sum it would have received had no such deductions or withholding been made, (ii) such withholding agent shall make such deductions or withholdings and (iii) such withholding agent shall timely pay the full amount deducted or withheld to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Requirements of Law. If at any time a Loan Party is required by Requirements of Law to make any deduction or withholding from any sum payable hereunder, such Loan Party shall promptly notify the relevant Lender or Issuing Bank or the Administrative Agent upon becoming aware of the same. In addition, each Lender or the Administrative Agent, as applicable, shall promptly notify a Loan Party upon becoming aware of any circumstances as a result of which a Loan Party is or would be required to make any deduction or withholding from any sum payable hereunder. It is understood that the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent can act as withholding agent hereunder.

(b) In addition (and without duplication of other amounts payable by the Loan Parties under this Section), the Loan Parties shall pay any Other Taxes to the relevant Governmental Authority in accordance with Requirements of Law.

(c) Each Loan Party shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Lender and each Issuing Bank within thirty (30) days after written demand therefor, for the full amount of any Indemnified Taxes paid by the Administrative Agent or such Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable (including Indemnified Taxes imposed or asserted on or attributable to amounts payable under this Section) and any penalties and interest (other than any penalties or interest attributable to the gross negligence or willful misconduct of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or such Issuing Bank (in each case, as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final, non-appealable judgment; provided, the Administrative Agent's, a Lender's or an Issuing Bank's failure to furnish notice of a claim within six months from the date on which the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank has received notice from the relevant Governmental Authority that amounts were being asserted against the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable, shall be deemed to be gross negligence)), and reasonable out-of-pocket expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Indemnified Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority; provided that if the Loan Party reasonably believes that such Taxes were not correctly or legally asserted, the Administrative Agent, Lender or Issuing Bank, as applicable, will use reasonable efforts to cooperate with the Loan Party to obtain a refund of such Taxes (which shall be repaid to the Loan Party in accordance with Section 2.16(g)) so long as such efforts would not, in the sole determination of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank, result in any additional costs or expenses not reimbursed by the Loan Party or be otherwise materially disadvantageous to it. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Loan Party by a Lender, an Issuing Bank (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), or by the Administrative Agent on its own behalf or on behalf of a Lender or an Issuing Bank and certifying that such Lender or Issuing Bank is generally charging the relevant amounts to similarly situated borrowers, shall be conclusive absent manifest error.

(d) Each Lender shall severally indemnify, within thirty (30) days after demand therefor, (i) the Administrative Agent for any Indemnified Taxes attributable to such Lender (but only to the extent that any Loan Party has not already indemnified the Administrative Agent for such Indemnified Taxes and without limiting the obligation of the Loan Parties to do so), (ii) the Administrative Agent and any Loan Party for any Taxes attributable to such Lender's failure to comply with the provisions of Section 9.05(c) relating to the maintenance of a Participant Register and (iii) the Administrative Agent and any Loan Party for any Excluded Taxes attributable to such Lender, in each case, that are payable or paid by the Administrative Agent or such Loan Party in connection with any Loan Document, and any reasonable expenses arising therefrom or with respect thereto, whether or not such Taxes were correctly or legally imposed or asserted by the relevant Governmental Authority. A certificate as to the amount of such payment or liability delivered to any Lender by the Administrative Agent or such Loan Party shall be conclusive absent manifest error. Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent and the Loan Parties to set off and apply any and all amounts at any time owing to such Lender under any Loan Document or otherwise payable by the Administrative Agent or such Loan Party to the Lender from any other source against any amount due to the Administrative Agent or such Loan Party under this paragraph (d).

(e) As soon as practicable after any payment of Indemnified Taxes by a Loan Party to a Governmental Authority, such Loan Party shall deliver to the Administrative Agent the original or a certified copy of a receipt issued by such Governmental Authority evidencing such payment, a copy of the return reporting such payment or other evidence of such payment reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent.

(f) Status of Lenders.

(i) Any Lender that is entitled to an exemption from or reduction of withholding Tax with respect to payments made under any Loan Document shall deliver to the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent, on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement and at the time or times reasonably requested in writing by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent, such properly completed and executed documentation prescribed by applicable laws or by the taxing authorities of any jurisdiction and such other documentation reasonably requested in writing by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent as will permit such payments to be made without withholding or at a reduced rate of withholding. In addition, any Lender, if reasonably requested by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent, shall deliver such other documentation prescribed by applicable law or by the taxing authority of any jurisdiction or reasonably requested in writing by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent as will enable the Borrowers or the Administrative Agent to determine whether or not such Lender is subject to backup withholding or information reporting requirements. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the completion, execution and submission of such documentation (other than such documentation set forth in clauses (A), (B) and (D) of Section 2.16(f)(ii) below) shall not be required if in the Lender's reasonable judgment such completion, execution or submission would subject such Lender to any material unreimbursed cost or expense or would materially prejudice the legal or commercial position of such Lender (it being understood that providing any information currently required by any U.S. federal income tax withholding form shall not be considered prejudicial to the position of a Lender).

(ii) Without limiting the generality of the foregoing,

(A) any Lender that is a "U.S. person" as defined under Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code shall deliver to the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent), executed copies of IRS Form W-9 (or successor form) certifying that such Lender is not subject to U.S. federal backup withholding tax;

(B) any Foreign Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower Representative or Administrative Agent), whichever of the following is applicable:

(1) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of an income tax treaty to which the United States is a party (x) with respect to payments of interest under any Loan Document, executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "interest" article of such tax treaty and (y) with respect to any other applicable payments under any Loan Document, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E establishing an exemption from, or reduction of, U.S. federal withholding Tax pursuant to the "business profits" or "other income" article of such tax treaty;

(2) executed copies of IRS Form W-8ECI;

(3) in the case of a Foreign Lender claiming the benefits of the exemption for portfolio interest under Section 881(c) of the Code, (x) a certificate to the effect that such Foreign Lender is not a "bank" within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(A) of the Code, a "10 percent shareholder" of a Borrower within the meaning of Section 881(c)(3)(B) of the Code, or a “controlled foreign corporation” described in Section 881(c)(3)(C) of the Code (a “U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate”) substantially in the form of Exhibit I-1 and (y) executed copies of IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E; or

(4) to the extent a Foreign Lender is not the beneficial owner, executed copies of IRS Form W-8IMY, accompanied by IRS Form W-8ECI, IRS Form W-8BEN or W-8BEN-E, a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit I-2 or Exhibit I-3, IRS Form W-9, or other certification documents from each beneficial owner, as applicable; provided that if the Foreign Lender is a partnership and one or more direct or indirect partners of such Foreign Lender are claiming the portfolio interest exemption, such Foreign Lender may provide a U.S. Tax Compliance Certificate substantially in the form of Exhibit I-4 on behalf of each such direct and indirect partner;

(C) any Foreign Lender shall, to the extent it is legally entitled to do so, deliver to the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent (in such number of copies as shall be requested by the recipient) on or prior to the date on which such Foreign Lender becomes a Lender under this Agreement (and from time to time thereafter upon the reasonable request of the Borrower Representative or Administrative Agent), executed copies of any other form prescribed by applicable law as a basis for claiming exemption from or a reduction in U.S. federal withholding Tax, duly completed, together with such supplementary documentation as may be prescribed by applicable law to permit the Borrowers or Administrative Agent to determine the withholding or deduction required to be made; and

(D) if a payment made to a Lender under any Loan Document would be subject to U.S. federal withholding Tax imposed by FATCA if such Lender were to fail to comply with the applicable reporting requirements of FATCA (including those contained in Section 1471(b) or 1472(b) of the Code, as applicable), such Lender shall deliver to the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent at the time or times prescribed by law and at such time or times reasonably requested by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent such documentation prescribed by applicable law (including as prescribed by Section 1471(b)(3)(C)(i) of the Code) and such additional documentation reasonably requested by the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent, as may be necessary for the Borrowers and the Administrative Agent to comply with their obligations under FATCA and to determine that such Lender has complied with such Lender’s obligations under FATCA or to determine the amount to deduct and withhold from such payment. Solely for purposes of this clause (D), “FATCA” shall include any amendments made to FATCA after the date of this Agreement.

(E) The Lenders and any transferees or assignees after the Closing Date will be required to provide to the Administrative Agent or its agents all information, documentation or certifications reasonably requested by the Administrative Agent to permit the Administrative Agent to comply with its tax reporting obligations under applicable law, including any applicable cost basis reporting obligations.

(iii) Each Lender agrees that if any form or certification it previously delivered expires or becomes obsolete or inaccurate in any respect, it shall (to the extent it is legally entitled to do so) promptly deliver to the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent renewals, amendments or additional or successor forms, properly completed and duly executed by such Lender, together with any other certificate or statement of exemption required in order to confirm or establish such Lender’s status or that such Lender is entitled to an exemption from or reduction in applicable Tax. If as a result of any Change in Law, regulation or treaty, or in any official application or interpretation thereof applicable to the payments made by or on behalf of any Loan Party or by the Administrative Agent under any Loan Document or any change in an income tax treaty applicable to any Lender, any Lender is unable to submit to the Borrower Representative or the Administrative Agent any form or certificate that such Lender is obligated to submit pursuant to Section 2.16(f) or such Lender is required to withdraw or cancel any such form or certificate previously submitted or any such form or certificate otherwise becomes ineffective or inaccurate, such Lender shall promptly notify the Borrower Representative and Administrative Agent of such fact and the Lender shall not be obligated to provide any such form or certificate and will be entitled to withdraw or cancel any affected form or certificate, as applicable.

(iv) Each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to deliver to the Loan Parties and to any successor Administrative Agent any documentation provided by such Lender to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 2.16(f).

(v) On or before the date the Administrative Agent becomes a party to this Agreement, the Administrative Agent shall provide to the Borrower Representative, two duly-signed, properly completed copies of the documentation prescribed in clause (x) or (y) below, as applicable (together with all required attachments thereto): (x) IRS Form W-9 or any successor thereto, or (y) if the Administrative Agent is not a "U.S. person" as defined under Section 7701(a)(30) of the Code, (A) IRS Form W-8ECI or any successor thereto, and (B) with respect to payments received on account of any Lender, a U.S. branch withholding certificate on IRS Form W-8IMY or any successor thereto evidencing its agreement with the Borrowers to be treated as a U.S. Person for U.S. federal withholding purposes. At any time thereafter, the Administrative Agent shall (to the extent it is legally entitled to do so) provide updated documentation previously provided (or a successor form thereto) when any documentation previously delivered has expired or become obsolete or invalid or otherwise upon the reasonable request of the Borrower Representative. The Administrative Agent represents to the company that it is a "U.S. person" and a "U.S. financial institution" within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Sections 1.1441-1 and 1.1471-3, as applicable, and that it will comply with its obligations to withhold under Section 1441 of the Code and FATCA.

(g) If the Administrative Agent, an Issuing Bank or a Lender determines, in its sole discretion, that it has received a refund of any Indemnified Taxes as to which it has been indemnified by a Loan Party or with respect to which such Loan Party has paid additional amounts pursuant to this Section 2.16, it shall pay over such refund to such Loan Party (but only to the extent of indemnity payments made, or additional amounts paid, by such Loan Party under this Section 2.16 with respect to the Taxes giving rise to such refund), net of all out-of-pocket expenses of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank (including any Taxes imposed with respect to such refund) as is determined by the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank in good faith in its reasonable discretion, and without interest (other than any net after-Tax interest paid by the relevant Governmental Authority with respect to such refund); provided that such Loan Party, upon the request of the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank, agrees to repay the amount paid over to such Loan Party (plus any penalties, interest or other charges imposed by the relevant Governmental Authority) to the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank in the event the Administrative Agent, such Lender or Issuing Bank is required to repay such refund to such Governmental Authority. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this paragraph (g), in no event will the Administrative Agent, a Lender or an Issuing Bank be required to pay any amount to a Loan Party pursuant to this paragraph (g) to the extent that the payment of which would place the Administrative Agent, Lender or Issuing Bank in a less favorable net after-Tax position than the Administrative Agent, Lender or Issuing Bank would have been in if the Tax subject to indemnification and giving rise to such refund had not been deducted, withheld or otherwise imposed and the indemnification payments or additional amounts with respect to such Tax had never been paid. This paragraph (g) shall not be construed to require the Administrative Agent, any Lender or Issuing Bank to make available its Tax returns (or any other information relating to its taxes which it deems confidential) to such Loan Party or any other Person.

(h) Survival. Each party's obligations under this Section 2.16 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent or any assignment of rights by, or the replacement of, a Lender, the termination of the Commitments and the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all obligations under any Loan Document.

Section 2.17 Payments Generally; Allocation of Proceeds; Sharing of Set-offs.

(a) The Borrowers shall make each payment required to be made by them hereunder (whether of principal, interest, fees or reimbursement of LC Disbursements, or of amounts payable under Sections 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16, or otherwise) in immediately available funds, without set-off (except as otherwise provided in Section 2.16) or counterclaim and, unless otherwise specified, prior to 2:00 p.m. on the date when due. Any amounts received after such time on any date may, in the discretion of the Administrative Agent, be deemed to have been received on the next succeeding Business Day for purposes of calculating interest thereon. All such payments shall be made to the Administrative Agent to the applicable account designated to the Borrower Representative by the Administrative Agent, except payments to be made directly to the applicable Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender as expressly provided herein and except that payments pursuant to Sections 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16 and 9.03 shall be made directly to the Persons entitled thereto. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments received by it for the account of any other Person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof. Except as otherwise provided herein (including in Section 2.20), each Borrowing, each payment or prepayment of principal of any Borrowing, each payment of interest on the Loans of a given Class and each conversion of any Borrowing to or continuation of any Borrowing as a Borrowing of any Type (and of the same Class) shall be allocated pro rata among the Lenders in accordance with their respective Applicable Percentages. Each Lender agrees that in computing such Lender's portion of any Borrowing to be made hereunder, the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion, round each Lender's percentage of such Borrowing to the next higher or lower whole dollar amount. All payments hereunder shall be made in the same Agreed Currency as the Borrowing in respect of which such payment is being made. Any payment required to be made by the Administrative Agent hereunder shall be deemed to have been made by the time required if the Administrative Agent shall, at or before such time, have taken the necessary steps to make such payment in accordance with the regulations or operating procedures of the clearing or settlement system used by the Administrative Agent to make such payment. The Administrative Agent shall distribute any such payments denominated in the same currency received by it for the account of any other Person to the appropriate recipient promptly following receipt thereof. If any payment hereunder shall be due on a day that is not a Business Day, the date for payment shall be extended to the next succeeding Business Day, and, in the case of any payment accruing interest, interest thereon shall be payable for the period of such extension. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Section, if, after the making of any Borrowing in Canadian Dollars, currency control or exchange regulations are imposed in the country which issues such currency with the result that the type of currency in which the extension of credit was made (the "Original Currency") no longer exists, or any Borrower is not able to make payment to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders in such Original Currency, or the terms of this Agreement require the conversion of such extension of credit into Dollars, then all payments to be made by a Loan Party hereunder in such currency shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, instead be made when due in Dollars in an amount equal to the Dollar Equivalent (as of the date of repayment) of such payment due, it being the intention of the parties hereto that the Borrowers take all risks of the imposition of any such currency control or exchange regulations or conversion, and each Borrower agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Swingline Lender, the Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders from and against any loss resulting from any extension of credit made to or for the benefit of such Borrower denominated in Canadian Dollars that is not repaid to the Swingline Lender, the Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent or the Lenders, as the case may be, in the Original Currency.

(b) Subject in all respects to the provisions of the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement, (x) all proceeds of Collateral received by the Administrative Agent (including all amounts received after an Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and all or any portion of the Loans shall have been accelerated hereunder pursuant to Section 7.01), (y) all amounts to be applied during a Cash Dominion Period, and (z) all payments not constituting a specific payment of interest or fees or other sum payable under the Loan Documents (which shall be applied as specified herein or any other applicable Loan Document) shall be applied, first, to pay Pre-Petition Revolving Loans in accordance with the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, second, on a pro rata basis, to pay any fees, indemnities or expense reimbursements then due to the Administrative Agent or any Issuing Bank from the Borrowers constituting Obligations, third on a pro rata basis, to pay any fees, indemnities or expense reimbursements then due to the Lenders from the Borrowers constituting Obligations, fourth, to pay interest due and payable hereunder in respect of any Loans, on a pro rata basis, fifth, to prepay principal on the Loans and pay unreimbursed LC Disbursements and, to the extent Reserves have been implemented in respect thereof, to pay all Banking Services Obligations that constitute Secured Obligations and to pay all Secured Hedging Obligations, in each case in an aggregate amount for all Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations not to exceed $2,500,000 or such greater amount as the Administrative Agent and (if the Payment in Full of the Term Loan Obligations (as such terms are defined in the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement) has not occurred) the Term Loan Agent agree in their respective sole discretion on a pro rata basis among the Secured Parties, sixth, to pay an amount to the Administrative Agent equal to 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars) of LC Exposure on such date, to be held in the LC Collateral Account as cash collateral for such Obligations, on a pro rata basis, seventh, to the payment of any other Secured Obligation (other than contingent indemnification obligations for which no claim has yet been made, Banking Services Obligations that constitute Secured Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations) due to the Administrative Agent or any Lender on a pro rata basis, eighth, to pay all Banking Services Obligations that constitute Secured Obligations and to pay all Secured Hedging Obligations, in an aggregate amount for all Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations not to exceed $2,500,000 (less any amount paid pursuant to the clause fifth above) or such greater amount as the Administrative Agent and (if the Payment in Full of the Term Loan Obligations (as such terms are defined in the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement) has not occurred) the Term Loan Agent agree in their respective sole discretion on a pro rata basis among the Secured Parties, ninth, following the Payment in Full of the Term Loan Obligations (as such terms are defined in the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement), any remaining Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations and tenth, to the Borrowers or as the Borrower Representative shall direct.

(c) If any Lender shall, by exercising any right of set-off or counterclaim or otherwise, obtain payment in respect of any principal of or interest on any of its Loans or participations in LC Disbursements of any Class resulting in such Lender receiving payment of a greater proportion of the aggregate amount of its Loans and participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans of such Class and accrued interest thereon than the proportion received by any other Lender with Loans of such Class, then the Lender receiving such greater proportion shall purchase (for Cash at face value) participations in the Loans and sub-participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans of other Lenders of such Class at such time outstanding to the extent necessary so that the benefit of all such payments shall be shared by the Lenders of such Class ratably in accordance with the aggregate amount of principal of and accrued interest on their respective Loans and participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans of such Class; provided that (i) if any such participations are purchased and all or any portion of the payment giving rise thereto is recovered, such participations shall be rescinded and the purchase price restored to the extent of such recovery, without interest, and (ii) the provisions of this paragraph shall not be construed to apply to (x) any payment made by the Borrowers pursuant to and in accordance with the express terms of this Agreement or (y) any payment obtained by a Lender as consideration for the assignment of or sale of a participation in any of its Loans or participations in LC Disbursements or Swingline Loans to any permitted assignee or participant, or (z) any payment of any fees to the Administrative Agent, the Lead Arranger or the Lenders. Each Borrower consents to the foregoing and agrees, to the extent they may effectively do so under applicable law, that any Lender acquiring a participation pursuant to the foregoing arrangements may exercise against such Borrower rights of set-off and counterclaim with respect to such participation as fully as if such Lender were a direct creditor of such Borrower in the amount of such participation.

(d) Unless the Administrative Agent shall have received notice from the Borrower Representative prior to the date on which any payment is due to the Administrative Agent for the account of the Lenders or any Issuing Bank hereunder that the Borrowers will not make such payment, the Administrative Agent may assume that the Borrowers have made such payment on such date in accordance herewith and may, in reliance upon such assumption, distribute to the Lenders or the applicable Issuing Bank the amount due. In such event, if the Borrowers have not in fact made such payment, then each of the Lenders or the applicable Issuing Bank severally agrees to repay to the Administrative Agent forthwith on demand the amount so distributed to such Lender or Issuing Bank with interest thereon, for each day from and including the date such amount is distributed to it to but excluding the date of payment to the Administrative Agent, at the Overnight Rate. It is understood that the Administrative Agent shall not have a duty to advance its personal funds pursuant to this Section.

(e) If any Lender shall fail to make any payment required to be made by it pursuant to Section 2.06(b), Section 2.17(c) or the last paragraph of Article 8, then the Administrative Agent may, in its discretion (notwithstanding any contrary provision hereof), apply any amounts thereafter received by the Administrative Agent for the account of such Lender to satisfy such Lender's obligations under such Sections or paragraphs, as applicable, until all such unsatisfied obligations are fully paid.

Section 2.18 Mitigation Obligations; Replacement of Lenders.

(a) If any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.14 or such Lender determines it can no longer make or maintain SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans pursuant to Section 2.19, or if any Loan Party is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.16, then such Lender shall use reasonable efforts to designate a different lending office for funding or booking its Loans hereunder or its participation in any Letters of Credit affected by such event, or to assign its rights and obligations hereunder to another of its offices, branches or Affiliates, if, in the reasonable judgment of such Lender, such designation or assignment (i) would eliminate or reduce amounts payable pursuant to Section 2.14 or 2.16, as applicable, in the future and (ii) would not subject such Lender to any unreimbursed out-of-pocket cost or expense and would not otherwise be disadvantageous to such Lender. The Borrowers hereby agree to pay all reasonable costs and expenses incurred by any Lender in connection with any such designation or assignment.

(b) If (i) any Lender requests compensation under Section 2.14 or such Lender determines it can no longer make or maintain SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans pursuant to Section 2.19, (ii) any Loan Party is required to pay any additional amount to any Lender or any Governmental Authority for the account of any Lender pursuant to Section 2.16, (iii) any Lender is a Defaulting Lender or (iv) in connection with any proposed amendment, waiver or consent requiring the consent of "each Lender" or "each Lender directly affected thereby" with respect to which Required Lender consent has been obtained, any Lender is a non-consenting Lender (each such Lender, a "Non-Consenting Lender"), then the Borrowers may, at their sole expense and effort, upon notice to such Lender and the Administrative Agent, (x) terminate the applicable Revolving Credit Commitments of such Lender and repay all Obligations of the Borrowers owing to such Lender relating to the Loans and participations held by such Lender as of such termination date under the Revolving Facility as the Company may elect on a non-pro rata basis or (y) replace such Lender by requiring such Lender to assign and delegate (and such Lender shall be obligated to assign and delegate), without recourse (in accordance with and subject to the restrictions contained in Section 9.05), all its interests, rights and obligations under this Agreement to an Eligible Assignee that shall assume such obligations (which Eligible Assignee may be another Lender, if a Lender accepts such assignment); provided that (i) such Lender shall have received payment of an amount equal to the outstanding principal amount of its Loans and, if applicable, participations in LC Disbursements and Swingline Loans, in each case of such Class of Loans, Revolving Credit Commitments and, other than in the case of a Defaulting Lender, accrued interest thereon, accrued fees and all other amounts payable to it hereunder with respect to such Class of Loans, Revolving Credit Commitments, (ii) in the case of any assignment resulting from a claim for compensation under Section 2.14 or payments required to be made pursuant to Section 2.16, such assignment will result in a reduction in such compensation or payments and (iii) such assignment does not conflict with applicable law. A Lender (other than a Defaulting Lender) shall not be required to make any such assignment and delegation, and the Borrowers may not repay the Obligations of such Lender or terminate its Commitments, if, prior thereto, as a result of a waiver by such Lender or otherwise, the circumstances entitling the Borrowers to require such assignment and delegation cease to apply. Each Lender agrees that if it is replaced pursuant to this Section 2.18, it shall (x) execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption to evidence such sale and purchase and shall deliver to the Borrowers any Promissory Note (if the assigning Lender's Loans are evidenced by Promissory Notes) subject to such Assignment and Assumption; provided that the failure of any Lender replaced pursuant to this Section 2.18 to execute an Assignment and Assumption or deliver such Promissory Notes shall not render such sale and purchase (and the corresponding assignment) invalid and such assignment shall be recorded in the Register and the Promissory Notes shall be deemed cancelled and (y) consent to such proposed amendment, waiver or consent prior to signing such Assignment and Assumption. Each Lender hereby irrevocably appoints the Administrative Agent (such appointment being coupled with an interest) as such Lender's attorney-in-fact, with full authority in the place and stead of such Lender and in the name of such Lender, from time to time in the Administrative Agent's discretion, with prior written notice to such Lender, to take any action and to execute any such Assignment and Assumption or other instrument that the Administrative Agent may deem reasonably necessary to carry out the provisions of this clause (b). To the extent a Lender is replaced pursuant to Section 2.18(b)(iv).

Section 2.19 Illegality. If any Lender reasonably determines that any Change in Law has made it unlawful, or that any Governmental Authority has asserted after the Closing Date that it is unlawful, for such Lender or its applicable lending office to make or maintain any SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans then, on notice thereof by such Lender to the Borrower Representative through the Administrative Agent, any obligations of such Lender to make or continue SOFR Loans, Term CORRA Loans or Daily Compounded CORRA Loans or to convert ABR Borrowings to SOFR Borrowings or Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings to Term CORRA Borrowings or Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowings shall be suspended until such Lender notifies the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative that the circumstances giving rise to such determination no longer exist. Upon receipt of such notice, the Borrowers shall upon demand from such Lender (with a copy to the Administrative Agent), either convert all SOFR Borrowings of such Lender to ABR Borrowings or all Term CORRA Borrowings or Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowings of such Lender to Canadian Prime Rate Borrowings, as applicable, either on the last day of the SOFR Index Period or Interest Period therefor, if such Lender may lawfully continue to maintain such SOFR Borrowings, Term CORRA Borrowings or Daily Compounded CORRA Borrowings to such day, or immediately, if such Lender may not lawfully continue to maintain such Loans. Upon any such prepayment or conversion, the Borrowers shall also pay accrued interest on the amount so prepaid or converted. Each Lender agrees to designate a different lending office if such designation will avoid the need for such notice and will not, in the determination of such Lender, otherwise be materially disadvantageous to it.

Section 2.20 Defaulting Lenders. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, if any Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender, then the following provisions shall apply for so long as such Lender is a Defaulting Lender:

(a) Fees shall cease to accrue on the unfunded portion of the Revolving Credit Commitment of such Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 2.11(a) and, subject to clause (d)(iv) below, on the participation of such Defaulting Lender in Letters of Credit pursuant to Section 2.11(b).

(b) The Commitments and the LC Exposure of such Defaulting Lender shall not be included in determining whether all Lenders, all “affected Lenders” or the Required Lenders have taken or may take any action hereunder (including any consent to any amendment or waiver pursuant to Section 9.02); provided that any waiver, amendment or modification requiring the consent of all Lenders or each affected Lender which affects such Defaulting Lender disproportionately and adversely relative to other affected Lenders shall require the consent of such Defaulting Lender.

(c) Any payment of principal, interest, fees or other amounts received by the Administrative Agent for the account of a Defaulting Lender (whether voluntary or mandatory, at maturity, pursuant to Section 2.10, Section 2.14, Section 2.15, Section 2.16, Section 2.17, Article 7, Section 9.06 or otherwise, and including any amounts made available to the Administrative Agent by that Defaulting Lender pursuant to Section 9.09), shall be applied at such time or times as may be determined by the Administrative Agent and, where relevant, the Borrower Representative as follows: first, to the payment of any amounts owing by that Defaulting Lender to the Administrative Agent hereunder; second, to the payment on a pro rata basis of any amounts owing by that Defaulting Lender to any applicable Issuing Banks or the Swingline Lender hereunder; third, if so reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent or reasonably requested by the applicable Issuing Bank, to be held as cash collateral for future funding obligations of that Defaulting Lender of any participation in any Letter of Credit; fourth, as the Borrower Representative may request (so long as no Default or Event of Default exists), to the funding of any Loan in respect of which that Defaulting Lender has failed to fund its portion thereof as required by this Agreement, as determined by the Administrative Agent; fifth, if so determined by the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative, to be held in a deposit account and released pro rata in order to (x) satisfy such Defaulting Lender’s potential future funding obligations with respect to Loans under this Agreement and (y) cash collateralize the Issuing Bank’s future LC Exposure with respect to such Defaulting Lender with respect to future Letters of Credit issued under this Agreement, in accordance with this Section; sixth, to the payment of any amounts owing to the non-Defaulting Lenders and any Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by any non-Defaulting Lender or any Issuing Bank or Swingline Lender against that Defaulting Lender as a result of that Defaulting Lender’s breach of its obligations under this Agreement; seventh, to the payment of any amounts owing to the Borrowers as a result of any judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction obtained by the Borrowers against that Defaulting Lender as a result of that Defaulting Lender’s breach of its obligations under this Agreement; and eighth, to that Defaulting Lender or as otherwise directed by a court of competent jurisdiction; provided that if (x) such payment is a payment of the principal amount of any Loans or LC Disbursements in respect of which that Defaulting Lender has not fully funded its appropriate share and (y) such Loans were made or the related Letters of Credit were issued at a time when the conditions set forth in Section 4.02 were satisfied or waived, such payment shall be applied solely to pay the Loans of, and LC Disbursements owed to, all non-Defaulting Lenders on a pro rata basis prior to being applied to the payment of any Loans of, or LC Disbursements owed to, such Defaulting Lender until such time as all Loans and funded and unfunded participations in the Borrowers’ obligations corresponding to such Defaulting Lender’s LC Exposure and Swingline Loans are held by the Lenders pro rata in accordance with the Commitments without giving effect to clause (d) below. Any payments, prepayments or other amounts paid or payable to a Defaulting Lender or to post cash collateral pursuant to this Section 2.20(c) shall be deemed paid to and redirected by that Defaulting Lender, and each Lender irrevocably consents hereto.

(d) If any Swingline Exposure or LC Exposure exists at the time a Lender becomes a Defaulting Lender then:

(i) all or any part of such Swingline Exposure and LC Exposure of such Defaulting Lender shall be reallocated among the non-Defaulting Lenders in accordance with their respective Applicable Percentages but only to the extent (x) the sum of all non-Defaulting Lenders' Revolving Credit Exposures does not exceed the total of all non-Defaulting Lenders' Revolving Credit Commitments and (y) such reallocation does not cause the aggregate Revolving Credit Exposure of any non-Defaulting Lender to exceed such non-Defaulting Lender's Revolving Credit Commitments; provided, that, subject to Section 9.04, no reallocation hereunder shall constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder against a Defaulting Lender arising from that Lender having become a Defaulting Lender, including any claim of a non-Defaulting Lender as a result of such non-Defaulting Lender's increased exposure following such reallocation;

(ii) if the reallocation described in clause (i) above cannot, or can only partially, be effected, the Borrowers shall (x) within two (2) Business Days following notice by the Administrative Agent prepay such Swingline Exposure and (y) without prejudice to any other right or remedy available to it hereunder or under law, within two (2) Business Days following notice by the Administrative Agent, cash collateralize 100% of such Defaulting Lender's LC Exposure (after giving effect to any partial reallocation pursuant to paragraph (i) above and any cash collateral provided by the Defaulting Lender or pursuant to Section 2.20(c) above) or make other arrangements reasonably satisfactory to the Administrative Agent and to the applicable Issuing Bank with respect to such LC Exposure. Cash collateral (or the appropriate portion thereof) provided to reduce LC Exposure or other obligations shall be released promptly following (A) the elimination of the applicable LC Exposure or other obligations giving rise thereto (including by the termination of Defaulting Lender status of the applicable Lender (or, as appropriate, its assignee following compliance with Section 2.18)) or (B) the Administrative Agent's good faith determination that there exists excess cash collateral (including any subsequent reallocation of LC Exposure among non-Defaulting Lenders described in clause (i) above);

(iii) if the LC Exposure of the non-Defaulting Lenders are reallocated pursuant to this Section 2.20(d), then the fees payable to the Revolving Lenders pursuant to Sections 2.11(a) and (b), as the case may be, shall be adjusted in accordance with such non-Defaulting Lenders' Applicable Percentages; and

(iv) if any Defaulting Lender's LC Exposure is not cash collateralized, prepaid or reallocated pursuant to this Section 2.20(d), then, without prejudice to any rights or remedies of the applicable Issuing Bank or any Revolving Lender hereunder, all letter of credit fees payable under Section 2.11(b) with respect to such Defaulting Lender's LC Exposure shall be payable to the applicable Issuing Bank until such Defaulting Lender's LC Exposure is reallocated and/or cash collateralized.

(e) So long as any Lender is a Defaulting Lender, the Swingline Lender shall not be required to fund any Swingline Loan and no Issuing Bank shall be required to issue, extend, create, incur, amend or increase any Letter of Credit unless it is reasonably satisfied that the related exposure will be 100% covered by the Revolving Credit Commitments of the non-Defaulting Lenders, cash collateral provided pursuant to Section 2.20(c) and/or cash collateral will be provided by the Borrowers in accordance with Section 2.20(d), and Swingline Exposure related to any newly made Swingline Loan and participating interests in any such newly issued, extended or created Letter of Credit shall be allocated among non-Defaulting Lenders in a manner consistent with Section 2.20(d)(i) (and Defaulting Lenders shall not participate therein).

(f) In the event that the Administrative Agent, the Borrowers, the Swingline Lender and the Issuing Banks each agree that a Defaulting Lender has adequately remedied all matters that caused such

Lender to be a Defaulting Lender, then the Applicable Percentage of the Swingline Exposure and the LC Exposure of the Revolving Lenders shall be readjusted to reflect the inclusion of such Lender's Revolving Credit Commitment and on such date such Revolving Lender shall purchase at par such of the Revolving Loans of the other Revolving Lenders (other than Swingline Loans) or participations in Revolving Loans as the Administrative Agent shall determine may be necessary in order for such Revolving Lender to hold such Revolving Loans or participations in accordance with its Applicable Percentage; provided that no adjustments will be made retroactively with respect to fees accrued or payments made by or on behalf of the Borrowers while that Revolving Lender was a Defaulting Lender; and provided, further, that except to the extent otherwise expressly agreed by the affected parties, no change hereunder from Defaulting Lender to Lender will constitute a waiver or release of any claim of any party hereunder arising from that Lender's having been a Defaulting Lender.

Section 2.21 Designation of Borrowers; Co-Borrowers. As of the Closing Date, the Company is the sole Borrower under this Agreement, and no other Loan Party or Subsidiary may be designated as a "Borrower" hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent.

ARTICLE 3 REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

On the dates and to the extent required pursuant to Sections 4.01 or 4.02 hereof, as applicable, each of Holdings (solely to the extent applicable to it), the Borrowers and the other Loan Parties, on behalf of themselves and their respective Subsidiaries represent and warrant to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders that:

Section 3.01 Organization; Powers. Each of the Loan Parties and each of its Subsidiaries (a) is duly organized, validly existing and in good standing (to the extent such concept exists in the relevant jurisdiction) under the laws of the jurisdiction of its organization, (b) has all requisite power and authority to own its property and assets and to carry on its business as now conducted and (c) is qualified to do business in, and is in good standing (to the extent such concept exists in the relevant jurisdiction) in, every jurisdiction where its ownership, lease or operation of properties or conduct of its business requires such qualification; except, solely in the case of this clause (c), where the failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.02 Authorization; Enforceability. Subject to entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Financing Order and any other applicable order of the Bankruptcy Court, the execution, delivery and performance of each of the Loan Documents are within each applicable Loan Party's corporate or other organizational powers and have been duly authorized by all necessary corporate or other organizational action of such Loan Party. Upon entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Financing Order and in the case of the Canadian Borrower the Canadian DIP Recognition Order, each Loan Document to which any Loan Party is a party will have been duly executed and delivered by such Loan Party and will be a legal, valid and binding obligation of such Loan Party, enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting creditors' rights generally and to general principles of equity and principles of good faith and dealing.

Section 3.03 Governmental Approvals; No Conflicts. Except for the entry by the Bankruptcy Court of the Financing Order and in the case of the Canadian Borrower the Canadian DIP Recognition Order, the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents by each Loan Party thereto and the performance by such Loan Party thereof (a) do not require any consent or approval of, registration or filing with, or any other action by, any Governmental Authority, except (i) such as have been obtained or made and are in full force and effect, (ii) for filings necessary to perfect Liens created pursuant to the Loan Documents and (iii) such consents, approvals, registrations, filings, or other actions the failure to obtain or make which could not be reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, (b) will not violate any (i) of such Loan Party's Organizational Documents or (ii) any Requirements of Law applicable to such Loan Party which, in the case of this clause (b)(ii), would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect and (c) will not violate or result in a default under any other Contractual Obligation of any of the Loan Parties which in the case of this clause (c) would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.04 Financial Condition; No Material Adverse Effect; Approved Budget.

(a) As of the Closing Date, the financial statements most recently delivered to the Pre-Petition Agent pursuant to the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement and, after the Closing Date, the financial statements most recently delivered pursuant to this Agreement present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position and results of income and cash flows of the Borrowers as of such dates and for such periods in accordance with GAAP, except as otherwise noted therein, subject in the case of interim financial statements, to the absence of footnotes, disclosures and changes resulting from audit and normal year-end adjustments (none of which are material, individually or in the aggregate).

(b) Since the Petition Date, other than those events or circumstances customarily resulting from the commencement of a case under Chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code, no event or condition has occurred that has had or could be reasonably expected to have, either individually or in the aggregate, no Material Adverse Effect has occurred.

(c) The initial Approved Budget is attached to this Agreement as Annex I, which was furnished to the Administrative Agent on or prior to the Closing Date, and each subsequent Approved Budget delivered in accordance with Section 5.14, has been (or when delivered, will be) prepared by the Loan Parties (after consultation with the Company Advisors) in good faith, with due care and based upon assumptions the Loan Parties (and their chief restructuring officer) believed to be reasonable assumptions on the date of delivery of the then applicable Approved Budget. To the knowledge of the Borrower Representative (and its chief restructuring officer), as of the Closing Date, no facts exist that, individually or in the aggregate, would result in any material change to the Approved Budget for the period covered thereby.

Section 3.05 Properties.

(a) Each Loan Party and each of its Subsidiaries has good and valid fee simple title (or similar concept under any applicable jurisdiction) to or rights to purchase, or valid leasehold interests in, or other limited property interests in, all its Real Estate Assets and has good title to its personal property and assets, in each case, except (i) for defects in title that do not materially interfere with its ability to conduct its business as currently conducted or to utilize such properties and assets for their intended purposes, or (ii) where the failure to have such title or rights would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect. All such properties and assets are free and clear of Liens, other than Permitted Liens. Schedule 3.05(a) sets forth (A) the address (including street address and state) of all Owned Real Property and (B) the nature of use of such Owned Real Property. None of the Owned Real Property is subject to any lease, license, sublease, assignment of leases or deed of trust, except as otherwise set forth on such Schedule 3.05(a).

(b) Each Loan Party and its Subsidiaries have valid title to or a valid license or right to use all patents, industrial designs, trademarks, service marks, trade names, copyrights, proprietary know how and data and other rights in works of authorship (including all copyrights embodied in software), and all other similar intellectual property rights (the foregoing, collectively, “IP Rights”) needed to conduct the businesses of such Loan Party and its Subsidiaries as presently conducted without, to the knowledge of the Borrower Representative, any infringement or misappropriation of the IP Rights of third parties, except where such failure to own or license or have rights to use would not, or where such infringement or misappropriation would not, have, individually or in the aggregate, a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.06 Litigation and Environmental Matters.

(a) Except for the Chapter 11 Case, there are no actions, suits or proceedings by or before any arbitrator or Governmental Authority pending against or, to the knowledge of the Borrower Representative, threatened in writing against or affecting the Loan Parties or any of their Subsidiaries which would reasonably be expected, individually or in the aggregate, to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Except for any matters that, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect, (i) no Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries has received notice of any claim with respect to any Environmental Liability and (ii) no Loan Party nor any of its Subsidiaries (A) has failed to comply with any Environmental Law or to obtain, maintain or comply with any permit, license or other approval required under any Environmental Law or (B) has become subject to any Environmental Liability.

(c) Neither any Borrower nor any of its Subsidiaries has treated, stored, transported, disposed of Hazardous Materials at or from any currently or formerly operated real estate or facility relating to its business in a manner that would reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect.

Section 3.07 Compliance with Laws.

(a) Each Loan Party and its Subsidiaries is in compliance with all Requirements of Law (other than pursuant to Anti-Corruption Laws and the Controlled Substances Act) applicable to it or its property, except, in each case, where the failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) Each Loan Party and its Subsidiaries is in material compliance with all Requirements of Law pursuant to Anti-Corruption Laws and the Controlled Substances Act applicable to it or its property.

Section 3.08 Investment Company Status. No Loan Party is required to be registered as an “investment company” under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

Section 3.09 Taxes. Each Loan Party and its Subsidiaries has timely filed or caused to be filed all Tax returns and reports required to have been filed and has paid or caused to be paid all Taxes required to have been paid by it (including in the capacity of a withholding agent) that are due and payable, except (a) Taxes (or any requirement to file Tax returns with respect thereto) that are being contested in good faith by appropriate proceedings and for which such Loan Party or such Subsidiary, as applicable, has set aside on its books adequate reserves in accordance with GAAP, (b) to the extent that the failure to do so, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect or (c) to the extent not required to be paid by the Bankruptcy Court.

Section 3.10 ERISA; Canadian Pension Plans.

(a) No ERISA Event has occurred, or is reasonably expected to occur, that, when taken together with all other such ERISA Events, would reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) No Canadian Pension Termination Event has occurred or is reasonably expected to occur. None of Holdings, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries maintains, contributes to, or has any liability or contingent liability with respect to any Canadian Defined Benefit Pension Plan as of the Closing Date, and thereafter, none of Holdings, the Company or any of their respective Subsidiaries will create, establish, maintain, contribute to, or have any liability or contingent liability with respect to any Canadian Defined Benefit Pension Plan.

Section 3.11 Disclosure. As of the Closing Date all written information (other than financial estimates, budgets, forecasts and other forward-looking information and information of a general economic or industry-specific nature) that has been made available concerning Holdings, the Company and its Subsidiaries, the Transactions or otherwise prepared by, or on behalf of, the foregoing by any of their respective representatives, and made available to any Lender or the Administrative Agent in connection with the Transactions on or before the Closing Date (the “Information”), when taken as a whole, after giving effect to any supplements and updates provided thereto, did not, when furnished, supplemented, or updated contain any untrue statements of a material fact or omit to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements contained therein not materially misleading in light of the circumstances under which such statements are made (after giving effect to all supplements and updates thereto from time to time).

Section 3.12 [Reserved].

Section 3.13 Capitalization and Subsidiaries. Schedule 3.13 sets forth, in each case as of the Closing Date, (a) a correct and complete list of the name of each Subsidiary of the Company and the ownership interest therein held by the Company or its applicable Subsidiary, and (b) the type of entity of the Company and each of its Subsidiaries.

Section 3.14 Security Interest in Collateral. Subject to entry of the Financing Order by the Bankruptcy Court, and in the case of the Canadian Borrower the Canadian DIP Recognition Order, the provisions of this Agreement and the other Loan Documents create legal, valid and enforceable Liens on all of the Collateral in favor of the Administrative Agent (or any designee or trustee on its behalf), for the benefit of itself and the other Secured Parties, subject, as to enforceability, to applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting creditors’ rights generally and to general principles of equity and principles of good faith and dealing, such Liens constitute perfected Liens on, and security interest in, all right, title and interest of the grantors in the Collateral, with the priority set forth in the Financing Order.

Section 3.15 Labor Matters. As of the Closing Date and as of the date of any Credit Extension, except as, individually or in the aggregate, would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect, there are no strikes, lockouts or slowdowns against any Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries pending or, to the knowledge of any Borrower or any of its Subsidiaries, overtly threatened. All material payments due from any Loan Party or its Subsidiary on account of wages and employee health and welfare insurance have been paid or accrued as a liability on the books of the relevant party and each Loan Party or its Subsidiary has withheld all employee withholdings and has made all employer contributions to be withheld and made by it pursuant to Requirements of Law on account of any employee benefit plans, employment insurance and employee income taxes. As of Closing Date, the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents will not give rise to any right of termination or right of renegotiation on the part of any union under any collective bargaining agreement to which any Loan Party is bound to the extent that such would be reasonably expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect.

(b) The Borrowers will not directly or, to the knowledge of the Borrower Representative, indirectly repay any debt or obligation owed under this Agreement, in whole or in part, out of any proceeds derived from any unlawful dealings with Sanctioned Persons.

(c) To the extent applicable, each Loan Party is in compliance, in all material respects, with (i) the Trading with the Enemy Act and applicable Sanctions (including each of the foreign assets control regulations of the United States Treasury Department (31 CFR, Subtitle B, Chapter V) and any other enabling legislation or executive order relating thereto); (ii) applicable Anti-Corruption Laws; and (iii) the USA PATRIOT Act.

Section 3.24 Chapter 11 Case Matters.

(a) The Chapter 11 Case was commenced on the Petition Date in accordance with applicable law and notice of (i) the motion seeking approval of the Loan Documents and the Interim Financing Order and the Final Financing Order, (ii) the hearing for the entry of the Interim Financing Order and (iii) the hearing for the entry of the Final Financing Order, in each case, has been or will be given in accordance with applicable law and the Bankruptcy Rules.

(xvi) any Loan Party shall take any action in support of any matter prohibited by this Section 7.01(l) or any other Person shall do so and such application is not contested in good faith by the Borrowers and the relief requested is granted in an order that is not stayed pending appeal;

(m) Canadian Recognition Proceedings. The occurrence of any of the following: (i) the Canadian DIP Recognition Order shall be reversed, stayed, vacated, amended, supplemented or otherwise modified, in whole or in part, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent; (ii) the Canadian DIP Recognition Order shall cease to be in full force and effect, or shall cease to create the Canadian DIP Charge on the Canadian Collateral; (iii) the Canadian Recognition Proceedings shall be dismissed or terminated, or any Loan Party or any Subsidiary thereof shall file a motion or other pleading seeking such dismissal or termination, without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent; (iv) a proceeding under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada) shall be commenced by or in respect of any Canadian Loan Party, or any Canadian Loan Party shall be adjudged a bankrupt or make an assignment for the benefit of creditors under the Bankruptcy and Insolvency Act (Canada); (v) the Canadian Court shall enter an order granting relief from or modifying the stay of proceedings in the Canadian Recognition Proceedings to permit any creditor (other than the Administrative Agent or the Pre-Petition Agent) to execute upon, enforce a Lien on, or otherwise realize upon, any Canadian Collateral having a value in excess of $2,000,000; (vi) other than the Canadian Administration Charge and the Canadian D&O Charge (and other than in connection with the recognition of an order granted by the Bankruptcy Court), the entry of an order by the Canadian Court, or the filing of a motion by any Loan Party seeking an order, (A) granting any charge on the Canadian Collateral having priority equal to or senior to the Canadian DIP Charge, or (B) granting any super-priority claim or charge under the CCAA that would rank pari passu with or senior to the Canadian DIP Charge, in each case without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent; (vii) any Loan Party shall fail to comply in any material respect with the terms of the Canadian DIP Recognition Order; (viii) the appointment of a receiver, interim receiver, receiver and manager, trustee in bankruptcy, liquidator, or any similar official with respect to any Canadian Loan Party or any material portion of the Canadian Collateral (excluding, for greater certainty, the appointment of the Information Officer in the Canadian Recognition Proceedings); or (ix) any Loan Party shall take any action in support of any of the matters described in clauses (i) through (viii) above, or any other Person shall do so and such application is not contested in good faith by the Loan Parties and the relief requested is granted in an order that is not stayed pending appeal;

then, in the case of any such Event of Default and at any time thereafter during the continuance of such Event of Default, subject to the Financing Order and the terms thereof, and, in the case of any Canadian Collateral, the Canadian DIP Recognition Order, the Administrative Agent may, and at the request of the Required Lenders shall, by notice to the Borrower Representative, take any of the following actions, at the same or different times:

(i) terminate, reduce or condition the Revolving Credit Commitments, or make any adjustment to the Borrowing Base, each with immediate effect;

(ii) declare the Obligations then outstanding to be due and payable in whole (or in part, in which case any principal not so declared to be due and payable may thereafter be declared to be due and payable), and thereupon the principal of the Obligations so declared to be due and payable, together with accrued interest thereon and all fees and other obligations of the Borrowers accrued hereunder, shall become due and payable immediately, without presentment, demand, protest or other notice of any kind, all of which are hereby waived by the Borrowers;

(iii) terminate this Agreement and any other Loan Document as to any future liability or obligation of the Administrative Agent and the Lenders, but without affecting any of the liens securing the Secured Obligations;

(iv) require that the Borrowers deposit in the LC Collateral Account an additional amount in Cash as reasonably requested by the Issuing Banks (not to exceed 103% (or 105% in the case of Letters of Credit denominated in Canadian Dollars)) of the then outstanding LC Exposure;

(v) terminate, reduce or restrict any right or ability of the Loan Parties to use any “cash collateral” (within the meaning of Section 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Secured Parties or the “Secured Parties” under, and as defined in, the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement, other than to the extent expressly permitted in the Financing Order;

(vi) declare that the application of the Carve Out has occurred through the delivery of a Carve Out Trigger Notice in accordance with the Financing Order;

(vii) subject to the Remedies Notice Period, (A) direct any or all of the Loan Parties to sell or otherwise dispose of any or all of the Collateral on terms and conditions acceptable to the Administrative Agent pursuant to Section 363, Section 365 and other applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code (and, without limiting the foregoing, direct any Loan Party to assume and assign any lease or executory contract included in the Collateral to the Administrative Agent’s designees in accordance with and subject to Section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code) and (B) if applicable, implement (or require implementation of) the actions specified in the Financing Order in connection with the occurrence of any Event of Default; and/or (viii) subject to the Remedies Notice Period, whether or not the maturity of the Secured Obligations shall have been accelerated pursuant hereto, proceed to protect, enforce and exercise all rights and remedies of the Secured Parties under this Agreement or any of the other Loan Documents (including the Financing Order), under the Pre-Petition Credit Agreement or any of the other Pre-Petition Loan Documents, or under applicable law (including the UCC and the PPSA).

ARTICLE 8 THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT

Each of the Lenders and the Issuing Banks hereby irrevocably appoints ACF Finco I LP (or any successor appointed pursuant hereto) as its agent and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such actions on its behalf, including execution of the other Loan Documents, and to exercise such powers as are delegated to the Administrative Agent by the terms of the Loan Documents, together with such actions and powers as are reasonably incidental thereto.

Any Person serving as Administrative Agent hereunder shall have the same rights and powers in its capacity as a Lender as any other Lender and may exercise the same as though it were not the Administrative Agent and the term “Lender” or “Lenders” shall, unless otherwise expressly indicated, unless the context otherwise requires or unless such Person is in fact not a Lender, include each Person serving as Administrative Agent hereunder in its individual capacity. Such Person and its Affiliates may accept deposits from, lend money to, act as the financial advisor or in any other advisory capacity for and generally engage in any kind of business with the Loan Parties or any subsidiary of a Loan Party or other Affiliate thereof as if it were not the Administrative Agent hereunder. The Lenders acknowledge that, pursuant to such activities, the Administrative Agent or its Affiliates may receive information regarding any Loan Party or any of its Affiliates (including information that may be subject to confidentiality obligations in favor of such Loan Party or such Affiliate) and acknowledge that the Administrative Agent shall not be under any obligation to provide such information to them.

The Administrative Agent shall not have any duties or obligations except those expressly set forth in the Loan Documents. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, (a) the Administrative Agent shall not be subject to any fiduciary or other implied duties, regardless of whether a Default or Event of Default has occurred and is continuing and without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the use of the term “agent” herein and in the other Loan Documents with reference to the Administrative Agent is not intended to connote any fiduciary or other implied (or express) obligations arising under agency doctrine of any applicable law and instead, such term is used merely as a matter of market custom, and is intended to create or reflect only an administrative relationship between independent contracting parties, (b) the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty to take any discretionary action or exercise any discretionary powers, except discretionary rights and powers that are expressly contemplated by the Loan Documents that the Administrative Agent is required to exercise in writing as directed by the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.02); provided that the Administrative Agent shall not be required to take any action that, in its opinion or the opinion of its counsel, may expose the Administrative Agent to liability or that is contrary to any Loan Document or applicable laws, and (c) except as expressly set forth in the Loan Documents, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty to disclose, and shall not be liable for the failure to disclose, any information relating to any Loan Party or any of its Subsidiaries that is communicated to or obtained by the Person serving as Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates in any capacity. The Administrative Agent shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it with the consent or at the request of the Required Lenders (or such other number or percentage of the Lenders as shall be necessary, or as the Administrative Agent shall believe in good faith shall be necessary, under the circumstances as provided in Section 9.02) or in the absence of its own gross negligence or willful misconduct as determined by the final judgment of a court of competent jurisdiction, in connection with its duties expressly set forth herein. The Administrative Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge of any Default or Event of Default unless and until written notice thereof is given to the Administrative Agent by the Borrowers or any Lender in accordance with the notice information in Section 10.01, and the Administrative Agent shall not be responsible for or have any duty to ascertain or inquire into (i) any statement, warranty or representation made in or in connection with any Loan Document, (ii) the contents of any certificate, report or other document delivered hereunder or in connection with any Loan Document, (iii) the performance or observance of any of the covenants, agreements or other terms or conditions set forth in any Loan Document or the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default, (iv) the validity, enforceability, effectiveness or genuineness of any Loan Document or any other agreement, instrument or document, (v) the creation, perfection or priority of Liens on the Collateral or the existence, value or sufficiency of the Collateral, (vi) the satisfaction of any condition set forth in Article 4 or elsewhere in any Loan Document, other than to confirm receipt of items expressly required to be delivered to the Administrative Agent or (vii) the properties, books or records of any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof.

If any Lender acquires knowledge of a Default or Event of Default, it shall promptly notify the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders thereof in writing. Each Lender agrees that, except with the written consent of the Administrative Agent, it will not take any enforcement action hereunder or under any other Loan Document, accelerate the Obligations under any Loan Document, or exercise any right that it might otherwise have under applicable law or otherwise to credit bid at foreclosure sales, UCC and/or PPSA sales, any sale under Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any similar provision under any other Debtor Relief Law or other similar Dispositions of Collateral. Notwithstanding the foregoing, however, a Lender may take action to preserve or enforce its rights against a Loan Party where a deadline or limitation period is applicable that would, absent such action, bar enforcement of the Obligations held by such Lender, including the filing of proofs of claim in a case under the Bankruptcy Code or under any other Debtor Relief Law.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein or in any of the other Loan Documents, the Loan Parties, the Administrative Agent and each Secured Party agrees that (i) no Secured Party shall have any right individually to realize upon any of the Collateral or to enforce the Loan Guaranty, it being understood and agreed that all powers, rights and remedies hereunder may be exercised solely by the Administrative Agent, on behalf of the Secured Parties in accordance with the terms hereof and all powers, rights and remedies under the other Loan Documents may be exercised solely by the Administrative Agent, and (ii) in the event of a foreclosure by the Administrative Agent on any of the Collateral pursuant to a public or private Disposition (including pursuant to Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any similar provision under any other Debtor Relief Law), (A) the Administrative Agent, as agent for and representative of the Secured Parties, shall be entitled, for the purpose of bidding and making settlement or payment of the purchase price for all or any portion of the Collateral sold at any such Disposition, to use and apply any of the Obligations as a credit on account of the purchase price for any Collateral payable by the Administrative Agent at such Disposition and (B) the Administrative Agent or any Lender may be the purchaser or licensor of any or all of such Collateral at any such Disposition.

No holder of Secured Hedging Obligations or Banking Services Obligations shall have any rights in connection with the management or release of any Collateral or of the obligations of any Loan Guarantor under this Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, no provider of any Banking Services shall have any voting or approval rights hereunder (or be deemed a Lender) solely by virtue of its status as the provider under such agreements or of such products or as the holder of Secured Hedging Obligations or Banking Services Obligations owing thereunder, nor shall the consent of any such provider or holder be required (other than in their capacities as Lenders, to the extent applicable) for any matter hereunder or under any of the other Loan Documents, including as to any matter relating to the Collateral or the release of Collateral or Guarantors.

Each of the Lenders hereby irrevocably authorizes (and by entering into a Hedge Agreement with respect to Secured Hedging Obligations and/or by entering into documentation in connection with Banking Services Obligations, each of the other Secured Parties hereby authorizes and shall be deemed to authorize) the Administrative Agent, on behalf of all Secured Parties to take any of the following actions upon the written instruction of the Required Lenders:

(a) consent to the Disposition of all or any portion of the Collateral free and clear of the Liens securing the Secured Obligations in connection with any such Disposition or other transfer pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including Section 363 thereof, or under any other Debtor Relief Law;

(b) credit bid all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, or purchase all or any portion of the Collateral, (in each case, either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) in connection with any Disposition of all or any portion of the Collateral pursuant to the applicable provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, including under Section 363 thereof, or under any other Debtor Relief Law;

(c) credit bid all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, or purchase all or any portion of the Collateral, (in each case, either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) in connection with any Disposition of all or any portion of the Collateral pursuant to the applicable provisions of the UCC and/or PPSA, including pursuant to Sections 9-610 or 9-620 of the UCC; and/or

(d) credit bid all or any portion of the Secured Obligations, or purchase all or any portion of the Collateral, (in each case, either directly or through one or more acquisition vehicles) in connection with any foreclosure or other Disposition conducted in accordance with applicable law following the occurrence of an Event of Default, including by power of sale, judicial action or otherwise;

it being understood that no Lender shall be required to fund any amounts in connection with any purchase of all or any portion of the Collateral by the Administrative Agent pursuant to the foregoing clauses (b), (c) or (d) without its prior written consent.

Each Lender and each other Secured Party agrees that the Administrative Agent is under no obligation to credit bid any part of the Secured Obligations or to purchase or retain or acquire any portion of the Collateral; provided that, in connection with any credit bid or purchase under clause (b), (c) or (d) of the preceding paragraph, the Secured Obligations owed to all of the Secured Parties (other than with respect to contingent or unliquidated liabilities as set forth in the next succeeding paragraph) shall be entitled to be, and shall be, credit bid by the Administrative Agent on a ratable basis.

With respect to each contingent or unliquidated claim that is a Secured Obligation, the Administrative Agent is hereby authorized, but is not required, to estimate the amount of any such claim for purposes of the credit bid or purchase so long as the fixing or liquidation of such claim would not unduly delay the ability of the Administrative Agent to credit bid the Secured Obligations or purchase the Collateral at such Disposition. In the event that the Administrative Agent, in its sole and absolute discretion, elects not to estimate any such contingent or unliquidated claim or any such claim cannot be estimated without unduly delaying the ability of the Administrative Agent to credit bid or purchase in accordance with the second preceding paragraph, then those of the contingent or unliquidated claims not so estimated shall be disregarded, shall not be credit bid, and shall not be entitled to any interest in the portion or the entirety of the Collateral purchased by means of such credit bid.

Each Secured Party whose Secured Obligations are credit bid under clauses (b), (c) or (d) of the third preceding paragraph shall be entitled to receive interests in the Collateral or other asset or assets acquired in connection with such credit bid (or in the Capital Stock of the acquisition vehicle or vehicles that are used to consummate such acquisition) on a ratable basis in accordance with the percentage obtained by dividing (x) the amount of the Secured Obligations of such Secured Party that were credit bid in such credit bid or Disposition, by (y) the aggregate amount of all Secured Obligations that were credit bid in such credit bid or Disposition.

In addition, in case of the pendency of any proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law or any other judicial proceeding relative to any Loan Party, each Secured Party agrees that the Administrative Agent (irrespective of whether the principal of any Loan or LC Exposure shall then be due and payable as herein expressed or by declaration or otherwise and irrespective of whether the Administrative Agent shall have made any demand on the Borrowers) shall be entitled and empowered, by intervention in such proceeding or otherwise:

(a) to file and prove a claim for the whole amount of the principal and interest owing and unpaid in respect of the Loans or LC Exposure and all other Obligations that are owing and unpaid and to file such other documents as may be necessary or advisable in order to have the claims of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Administrative Agent (including any claim for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Administrative Agent and their respective agents and counsel and all other amounts to the extent due to the Lenders and the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.11 and 9.03) allowed in such judicial proceeding;

(b) to collect and receive any monies or other property payable or deliverable on any such claims and to distribute the same; and

(c) to receive payments from any custodian, receiver, receiver and manager, assignee, trustee, liquidator, sequestrator or other similar official in any such judicial proceeding and, in the event that the Administrative Agent shall consent to the making of such payments directly to the Lenders and the Issuing

Banks, to pay to the Administrative Agent any amount due for the reasonable compensation, expenses, disbursements and advances of the Administrative Agent and its agents and counsel, and any other amount to the extent due to the Administrative Agent under Sections 2.11 and 9.03.

Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to authorize the Administrative Agent to authorize or consent to or accept or adopt on behalf of any Lender or any Issuing Bank any plan of reorganization, arrangement, adjustment or composition affecting the Obligations or the rights of any Lender or any Issuing Bank to authorize the Administrative Agent to vote in respect of the claim of any Lender or any Issuing Bank in any such proceeding.

The Administrative Agent shall be entitled to rely upon, and shall not incur any liability for relying upon, any notice, request, certificate, consent, statement, instrument, document or other writing (including any electronic message, Internet or intranet website posting or other distribution) believed by it to be genuine and to have been signed, sent or otherwise authenticated by the proper Person. The Administrative Agent also may rely upon any statement made to it orally or by telephone and believed by it to have been made by the proper Person, and shall not incur any liability for relying thereon. In determining compliance with any condition hereunder to the making of a Loan, or the issuance of a Letter of Credit, that by its terms must be fulfilled to the satisfaction of a Lender or the applicable Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent and the Issuing Bank may presume that such condition is satisfactory to such Lender unless the Administrative Agent or Issuing Bank shall have received notice to the contrary from such Lender or Issuing Bank prior to the making of such Loan or issuance of such Letter of Credit. The Administrative Agent and any Issuing Bank may consult with legal counsel (who may be counsel for the Borrowers), independent accountants and other experts selected by it, and shall not be liable for any action taken or not taken by it in accordance with the advice of any such counsel, accountants or experts.

The Administrative Agent shall not be deemed to have knowledge or notice of the occurrence of any Default or Event of Default hereunder unless the Administrative Agent has received written notice from a Lender or the Borrower Representative referring to this Agreement, describing such Default or Event of Default and stating that such notice is a “notice of default.” In the event that the Administrative Agent receives such a notice, the Administrative Agent shall give notice thereof to the Lenders. The Administrative Agent shall take such action with respect to such Default or Event of Default as shall be reasonably directed by, or with the consent of, the Required Lenders.

The Administrative Agent may perform any and all of its duties and exercise its rights and powers by or through any one or more sub-agents appointed by the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent may perform any and all its duties and exercise its rights and powers through their respective Related Parties. The exculpatory provisions of this Article 8 shall apply to any such sub-agent and to the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent and any such sub-agent, and shall apply to their respective activities in connection with the activities as the Administrative Agent.

The Administrative Agent may resign at any time by giving ten days prior written notice to the Lenders, the Issuing Banks and the Borrower Representative. If the Administrative Agent is a Defaulting Lender or an Affiliate of a Defaulting Lender, the Borrower Representative may, upon ten days’ notice, remove the Administrative Agent. Upon receipt of any such notice of resignation or removal, the Required Lenders shall have the right, with the consent of the Borrower Representative (not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed), to appoint a successor Administrative Agent which shall be a commercial bank with an office in the U.S. having combined capital and surplus in excess of $1,000,000,000 and who shall be a “U.S. person” and a “financial institution” within the meaning of Treasury Regulations Section 1.1441-1; provided that during the existence and continuation of an Event of Default under Section 7.01(a) or, with respect to any Borrower, Section 7.01(f) or (g), no consent of the Borrower Representative shall be required. If no successor shall have been so appointed as provided above and shall have accepted such appointment within 30 days after the retiring Administrative Agent gives notice of its resignation, then (a) in the case of a retirement, the retiring Administrative Agent may (but shall not be obligated to), on behalf of the Lenders and the Issuing Banks, appoint a successor Administrative Agent meeting the qualifications (including, for the avoidance of doubt, the Borrower Representative consent, if required) set forth above or (b) in the case of a removal, the Borrower Representative may, after consulting with the Required Lenders, appoint a successor Administrative Agent meeting the qualifications set forth above; provided that (x) in the case of a retirement, if such Administrative Agent shall notify the Borrower Representative, the Lenders and the Issuing Banks that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment or (y) in the case of a removal, the Borrower Representative notifies the Required Lenders that no qualifying Person has accepted such appointment, then, in each case, such resignation or removal shall nonetheless become effective in accordance with such notice and (i) the retiring or removed Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder and under the other Loan Documents and (ii) all payments and communications provided to be made to or through the Administrative Agent shall instead be made to each Lender and Issuing Bank directly (and each Lender and Issuing Bank will cooperate with the Borrower Representative to enable the Borrower Representative to take such actions), and all determinations provided to be made by the Administrative Agent shall instead be made by the Required Lenders, in each case, until such time as the Required Lenders or the Borrower Representative, as applicable, appoint a successor Administrative Agent, as provided for above in this Article 8. Upon the acceptance of its appointment as Administrative Agent hereunder by a successor, such successor shall succeed to and become vested with all the rights, powers, privileges and duties of the retiring Administrative Agent (other than any rights to indemnity payments owed to the retiring Administrative Agent), and the retiring Administrative Agent shall be discharged from its duties and obligations hereunder. The fees payable by the Borrowers to a successor Administrative Agent shall be the same as those payable to its predecessor unless otherwise agreed between the Borrowers and such successor. After the Administrative Agent's resignation hereunder, the provisions of this Article 8 and Section 9.03 shall continue in effect for the benefit of such retiring Administrative Agent, its sub-agents and their respective Related Parties in respect of any actions taken or omitted to be taken by any of them while it was acting as Administrative Agent.

Each Lender and each Issuing Bank acknowledges that it has, independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it has deemed appropriate, made its own credit analysis and decision to enter into this Agreement. Each Lender and each Issuing Bank also acknowledges that it will, independently and without reliance upon either Administrative Agent or any other Lender or any of their Related Parties and based on such documents and information as it shall from time to time deem appropriate, continue to make its own decisions in taking or not taking action under or based upon this Agreement, any other Loan Document or related agreement or any document furnished hereunder or thereunder. Except for notices, reports and other documents expressly required to be furnished to the Lenders and the Issuing Banks by the Administrative Agent herein, the Administrative Agent shall not have any duty or responsibility to provide any Lender or Issuing Bank with any credit or other information concerning the business, prospects, operations, property, financial and other condition or creditworthiness of any of the Loan Parties or any of their respective Affiliates which may come into the possession of the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties.

Anything herein to the contrary notwithstanding, the Lead Arranger shall not have any right, power, obligation, liability, responsibility or duty under this Agreement, except in its respective capacities, as applicable, as the Administrative Agent, an Issuing Bank or a Lender hereunder.

Each of the Lenders and the Issuing Banks irrevocably authorize and instruct the Administrative Agent to, and the Administrative Agent shall,

(a) release any Lien on any property granted to or held by the Administrative Agent under any Loan Document (i) upon the occurrence of the Termination Date, (ii) that is sold or to be sold or transferred as part of or in connection with any Disposition permitted under the Loan Documents to a Person that is not a Loan Party, (iii) that does not constitute (or ceases to constitute) Collateral, (iv) if the property subject to such Lien is owned by a Subsidiary Guarantor, upon the release of such Subsidiary Guarantor from its Loan Guaranty otherwise in accordance with the Loan Documents, (v) as required under clause (d) below or (vi) if approved, authorized or ratified in writing by the Required Lenders in accordance with Section 9.02;

(b) release any Subsidiary Guarantor from its obligations under the Loan Guaranty if such Person ceases to be a Subsidiary (or becomes an Excluded Subsidiary) as a result of a single transaction or related series of transactions permitted hereunder; and

(c) enter into subordination, intercreditor and/or similar agreements with respect to Indebtedness that is (i) required or permitted to be subordinated hereunder and/or (ii) secured by Liens, and which Indebtedness contemplates an intercreditor, subordination or collateral trust agreement.

Upon request by the Administrative Agent at any time, the Required Lenders will confirm in writing the Administrative Agent's authority to release or subordinate its interest in particular types or items of property, or to release any Loan Guarantor from its obligations under the Loan Guaranty pursuant to this Article 8 and Section 10.12 hereunder. In each case as specified in this Article 8, the Administrative Agent will (and each Lender hereby authorizes the Administrative Agent to), at the Borrowers' expense, execute and deliver to the applicable Loan Party such documents as such Loan Party may reasonably request to evidence the release of such item of Collateral from the assignment and security interest granted under the Collateral Documents or to subordinate its interest in such item, or to release such Loan Guarantor from its obligations under the Loan Guaranty, in each case in accordance with the terms of the Loan Documents and this Article 8.

The Administrative Agent is authorized to enter into any intercreditor agreement contemplated hereby with respect to Indebtedness that is (i) required or permitted to be subordinated hereunder and/or (ii) secured by Liens and which Indebtedness contemplates an intercreditor, subordination or collateral trust agreement (any such other intercreditor agreement, an "Additional Agreement"), and the parties hereto acknowledge that any Additional Agreement is binding upon them. Each Lender and Issuing Bank (a) hereby consents to the subordination of the Liens on the Collateral securing the Secured Obligations on the terms set forth in any Additional Agreement, (b) hereby agrees that it will be bound by and will take no actions contrary to the provisions of any Additional Agreement and (c) hereby authorizes and instructs the Administrative Agent to enter into any Additional Agreement and to subject the Liens on the Collateral securing the Secured Obligations to the provisions thereof. The foregoing provisions are intended as an inducement to the Secured Parties to extend credit to the Borrowers and such Secured Parties are intended third-party beneficiaries of such provisions and the provisions of any Additional Agreement.

To the extent the Administrative Agent or Issuing Bank (or in each case any Affiliate thereof) is not reimbursed and indemnified by the Borrowers, the Lenders will reimburse and indemnify the Administrative Agent and the Issuing Bank (and in each case any Affiliate thereof) in proportion to their respective Applicable Percentage for and against any and all liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, costs, expenses or disbursements of whatsoever kind or nature which may be imposed on, asserted against or incurred by the Administrative Agent (or any Affiliate thereof) in performing its duties hereunder or under any other Loan Document or in any way relating to or arising out of this Agreement or any other Loan Document in its (or any of its Affiliates') capacity as Administrative Agent; provided that no Lender shall be liable for any portion of such liabilities, obligations, losses, damages, penalties, claims, actions, judgments, suits, costs, expenses or disbursements resulting from the Administrative Agent's or the Issuing Bank's (or each such Affiliate's) gross negligence or willful misconduct (as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction in a final and non-appealable decision).

Whenever reference is made in the Loan Documents to any action by, consent, designation, specification, requirement or approval of, notice, request or other communication from, or other direction given or action to be undertaken or to be (or not to be) suffered or omitted by the Administrative Agent to any amendment, waiver or other modification of this Agreement to be executed (or not to be executed) by the Administrative Agent or to any election, decision, opinion, acceptance, use of judgment, expression of satisfaction or other exercise of discretion, rights or remedies to be made (or not to be made) by the Administrative Agent, it is understood that in all cases the Administrative Agent shall be acting, giving, withholding, suffering, omitting, making or otherwise undertaking and exercising the same (or shall not be undertaking and exercising the same) as directed in accordance with this Agreement by the Required Lenders. This provision is intended solely for the benefit of the Administrative Agent and its successors and permitted assigns and is not intended to and will not entitle the other parties hereto to any defense, claim or counterclaim under or in relation to any Loan Document, or confer any rights or benefits on any party hereto.

All such notices and other communications (i) sent to an e-mail address shall be deemed received upon the sender's receipt of an acknowledgement from the intended recipient (such as by the "return receipt requested" function, as available, return e-mail or other written acknowledgement); provided that if not given during the normal business hours of the recipient, such notice or communication shall be deemed to have been given at the opening of business on the next Business Day for the recipient, and (ii) posted to an Internet or Intranet website shall be deemed received upon the deemed receipt by the intended recipient at its e-mail address as described in the foregoing clause (b)(i) of notification that such notice or communication is available and identifying the website address therefor.

(c) Any party hereto may change its address or facsimile number for notices and other communications hereunder by notice to the other parties hereto.

(d) Each Loan Party hereby agrees that it will provide to the Administrative Agent all information, documents and other materials that it is obligated to furnish to the Administrative Agent or the Lenders pursuant to this Agreement and any other Loan Document, including all notices, requests, financial statements, financial and other reports, certificates and other information materials (the "Communications"), by transmitting them in an electronic medium in a format reasonably acceptable to the Administrative Agent at such e-mail address(es) provided to the Borrower Representative from time to time or in such other form as the Administrative Agent shall reasonably require. In addition, each Loan Party agrees to continue to provide the Communications to the Administrative Agent in the manner specified in this Agreement or any other Loan Document or in such other form as the Administrative Agent shall require. Each Loan Party further agrees that the Administrative Agent may make the Communications available to the Lenders by posting the Communications on Intralinks, SyndTrak or a substantially similar secure electronic transmission system (the “Platform”). The Platform is provided “as is” and “as available”. The Administrative Agent does not warrant the accuracy or completeness of the Communications, of the adequacy of the Platform and expressly disclaims liability for errors or omissions in any Communications for which the Administrative Agent has appropriately been instructed to transmit. No warranty of any kind, express, implied, or statutory, including, without limitation, any warranty of merchantability, fitness for a particular purpose, non-infringement of third-party rights of freedom from viruses or other code defects, is made by the Administrative Agent in connection with the Communications or the Platform. In no event shall the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties have any liability to the Loan Parties, any Lender or any other Person for damages of any kind, including direct or indirect, special, incidental or consequential damages, losses or expenses (whether in tort, contract or otherwise) arising out of any Loan Party’s or the Administrative Agent’s transmission of communications, through the Internet, except to the extent the liability of such Person is found in a final, non-appealable judgment by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted from the Administrative Agent’s or any of its Related Parties’ bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct or a material breach by the Administrative Agent or any of its Related Parties of the Loan Documents.

Section 9.02 Waivers; Amendments.

(a) No failure or delay by the Administrative Agent, any Issuing Bank or any Lender in exercising any right or power hereunder or under any other Loan Document shall operate as a waiver thereof, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any such right or power, or any abandonment or discontinuance of steps to enforce such a right or power, preclude any other or further exercise thereof or the exercise of any other right or power. The rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders hereunder and under any other Loan Document are cumulative and are not exclusive of any rights or remedies that they would otherwise have. No waiver of any provision of any Loan Document or consent to any departure by any Loan Party therefrom shall in any event be effective unless the same shall be permitted by this Section 9.02(b), and then such waiver or consent shall be effective only in the specific instance and for the purpose for which given. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to the extent permitted by law, the making of a Loan or issuance of a Letter of Credit shall not be construed as a waiver of any Default or Event of Default, regardless of whether the Administrative Agent, any Lender or Issuing Bank may have had notice or knowledge of such Default or Event of Default at the time.

(b) Neither this Agreement nor any other Loan Document nor any provision hereof or thereof may be waived, amended or modified, except (i) in the case of this Agreement, pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Borrowers and the Required Lenders (or the Administrative Agent with the consent of the Required Lenders) (with a fully executed copy delivered to the Administrative Agent, if they are not signatory thereto), (ii) in the case of any other Loan Document (other than any such waiver, amendment or modification to effectuate any modification thereto expressly contemplated by the terms of such other Loan Documents), pursuant to an agreement or agreements in writing entered into by the Administrative Agent and the Loan Party or Loan Parties that are parties thereto, with the consent of the Required Lenders or (iii) Section 5.14 may be waived or modified with the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent acting in its sole discretion; provided that, notwithstanding the foregoing:

(i) solely with the consent of each Lender directly and adversely affected thereby (but without the necessity of obtaining the consent of the Required Lenders), any such agreement may:

(A) increase any of the Commitments of such Lender; it being understood that no amendment, modification or waiver of, or consent to departure from, any condition precedent, representation, warranty, covenant, Default, Event of Default, mandatory prepayment or mandatory reduction of the Commitments shall constitute an increase of any Commitment of such Lender;

(B) reduce or forgive the principal amount of any Loan or any unreimbursed LC Disbursement;

(C) extend the scheduled final maturity of the Loans, unreimbursed LC Disbursement or postpone the date of any scheduled payment of interest, fees or LC Disbursement payable hereunder (in each case, other than extensions for administrative reasons agreed by the Administrative Agent);

(D) reduce the rate of interest (other than to waive any obligations of the Borrowers to pay interest at the default rate of interest under Section 2.12(c)) or the amount of any fees owed to such Lender; it being understood that any change in any ratio used in the calculation of any interest or fees due hereunder (including any component definition thereof) shall not constitute a reduction in any rate of interest or fees hereunder;

(E) extend the expiry date of any of such Lender's Commitments; it being understood that no amendment, modification or waiver of, or consent to departure from, any condition precedent, representation, warranty, covenant, Default, Event of Default, mandatory prepayment or mandatory reduction of any Commitments shall constitute an extension of any Commitment of any Lender; or

(F) change any of the provisions of this Section 9.02(b);

(G) change the Agreed Currency of any Loan; and

(ii) no such agreement shall:

(A) change the definitions of "Required Lenders" to reduce any of the voting percentages required to waive, amend or modify any rights thereunder or make any determination or grant any consent thereunder, without the prior written consent of each Lender (in the case of the definition of "Required Lenders");

(B) (x) release all or substantially all of the Collateral from the Lien granted pursuant to the Loan Documents (except as otherwise permitted herein or in the other Loan Documents, including pursuant to Article 8 or Section 10.12 hereof), without the prior written consent of each Lender or (y) contractually subordinate the Obligations hereunder or Liens on all or substantially all of the Collateral for the Obligations to any other Indebtedness or Lien without the consent of all Lenders; or

(C) release all or substantially all of the value of the Guarantees under the Loan Guaranty (except as otherwise permitted herein or in the other Loan Documents, including pursuant to Section 10.12 hereof), without the prior written consent of each Lender; or provided, further, that no such agreement shall amend, modify or otherwise affect the rights, protections, immunities or duties of the Administrative Agent hereunder without the prior written consent of the Administrative Agent. The Administrative Agent may also amend the Commitment Schedule to reflect assignments entered into pursuant to Section 9.05 and Commitment reductions or terminations pursuant to Section 2.08. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, no Defaulting Lender shall have any right to approve or disapprove any amendment, waiver or consent hereunder, except amendments, waivers and consents requiring the consent of all Lenders or all affected Lenders pursuant to Section 9.02(b)(i)(A) and (B) above which affects such Defaulting Lender disproportionately and adversely relative to other affected Lenders.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Section 9.02 or any other provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document, (i) guarantees, collateral security agreements, pledge agreements and related documents (if any) executed by the Loan Parties in connection with this Agreement may be in a form reasonably determined by the Administrative Agent and may be amended, supplemented and/or waived with the consent of the Administrative Agent at the request of the Borrower Representative without the input or need to obtain the consent of any other Lenders to (x) comply with Requirements of Law or advice of local counsel, (y) cure ambiguities, omissions or defects or (z) to cause such guarantees, collateral security agreements, pledge agreement or other document to be consistent with this Agreement and the other Loan Documents, and (ii) if the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative have jointly identified any ambiguity, mistake, defect, inconsistency, obvious error or any error or omission of a technical nature or any necessary or desirable technical change, in each case, in any provision of the Loan Documents, then the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative shall be permitted to amend such provision.

Section 9.03 Expenses; Indemnity; Damage Waiver.

(a) The Borrowers shall pay (i) all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Lead Arranger, the Administrative Agent and their respective Affiliates (but limited, in the case of legal fees and expenses, to the actual reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, disbursements and other charges of (w) one firm of outside counsel to the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates, (x) one firm of outside counsel appointed by the Administrative Agent to all other such Persons taken as a whole (y) one local counsel to the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates in the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and (z) if necessary, one local counsel in any relevant material jurisdiction to such Persons, taken as a whole) in connection with the distribution (including via the Internet or through a service such as Intralinks or SyndTrak) of the Revolving Facility, the preparation, execution, delivery and administration of the Loan Documents and related documentation, including in connection with any amendments, modifications or waivers of the provisions of any Loan Documents (whether or not the transactions contemplated thereby shall be consummated, but only to the extent such amendments, modifications or waivers were requested by the Borrowers to be prepared) and (ii) all reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the Administrative Agent, the Lead Arranger, the Issuing Banks or the Lenders and each of their respective Affiliates (but limited, in the case of legal fees and expenses, to the actual reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, disbursements and other charges of (x) one firm of outside counsel to the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates and (y) solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional counsel to all affected Persons, taken as a whole, and, if reasonably necessary, one local counsel in any relevant material jurisdiction to all such Persons, taken as a whole and, solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional local counsel to all affected Persons, taken as a whole) in connection with the enforcement, collection or protection of its rights in connection with the Loan Documents, including its rights under this Section 9.03, or in connection with the Loans made and/or Letters of Credit issued hereunder. Other than to the extent required to be paid on the Closing Date, all amounts due under this Section 9.03(a) shall be payable by the Borrowers within 5 Business Days after receipt of an invoice relating thereto, setting forth such expenses in reasonable detail and together with backup documentation supporting such reimbursement requests (or as otherwise agreed by the Borrower Representative); provided that, in each case, the payment of such fees and expenses shall be subject to the review and objection procedures set forth in the Financing Order.

(b) The Borrowers shall indemnify the Administrative Agent, each Issuing Bank and each Lender, and each Related Party of any of the foregoing Persons (each such Person being called an “Indemnitee”) against, and hold each Indemnitee harmless from, any and all losses, claims, damages, liabilities and related expenses (but limited, in the case of legal fees and expenses, to the actual reasonable and documented out-of-pocket fees, disbursements and other charges of (x) one counsel to the Administrative Agent and its Related Parties, (y) one counsel to all other Indemnities taken as a whole and (z) solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional counsel to all affected Indemnities, taken as a whole, and, if reasonably necessary, one local counsel in any relevant material jurisdiction to all Indemnities, taken as a whole and, solely in the case of an actual or potential conflict of interest, one additional local counsel to all affected Indemnities, taken as a whole), incurred by or asserted against any Indemnitee arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of (i) the execution or delivery of the Loan Documents or any agreement or instrument contemplated thereby, the performance by the parties hereto of their respective obligations thereunder or the consummation of the Transactions or any other transactions contemplated hereby or thereby, (ii) the use or the proposed use of the proceeds of the Loans, (iii) any actual or prospective claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding relating to any of the foregoing, whether based on contract, tort or any other theory and regardless of whether any Indemnitee is a party thereto (and regardless of whether such matter is initiated by a third party or by the Borrowers, any other Loan Party or any of their respective Affiliates) or (iv) any actual or alleged presence or Release or threat of Release of Hazardous Materials on, at, to or from any property currently or formerly owned or operated by any Loan Party or any Subsidiary, or any Environmental Liability; provided that such indemnity shall not, as to any Indemnitee, be available to the extent that such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses (A) are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction by final and nonappealable judgment to have resulted from the gross negligence, bad faith or willful misconduct of such Indemnitee or of any Affiliate of such Indemnitee or to the extent such judgment finds such losses, claims, damages, liabilities or related expenses to have resulted from such Indemnitee’s material breach of the Loan Documents (it being understood that with respect to the Administrative Agent, the foregoing proviso shall not apply to clause (iv) hereof) or (B) arise out of any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding brought by such Indemnitee (or its Related Parties) against another Indemnitee (or its Related Parties) (other than any claim, litigation, investigation or proceeding brought by or against the Administrative Agent or the Lead Arranger, acting in its capacity as the Administrative Agent or as an Arranger, as applicable) that does not involve any act or omission of Holdings, the Company or any of its Subsidiaries. Each Indemnitee shall be obligated to refund or return any and all amounts paid by the Borrowers pursuant to this Section 9.03(b) to such Indemnitee for any fees, expenses, or damages to the extent such Indemnitee is not entitled to payment of such amounts in accordance with the terms hereof. All amounts due under this Section 9.03(b) shall be payable by the Borrowers within five (5) Business Days (x) after written demand thereof, in the case of any indemnification obligations and (y) in the case of reimbursement of costs and expenses, after receipt of an invoice relating thereto, setting forth such expenses in reasonable detail and together with backup documentation supporting such reimbursement requests. This Section 9.03(b) shall not apply with respect to any Taxes (which shall be governed by Section 2.16), other than any Taxes that represent losses, claims or damages arising from any non-Tax claim.

Section 9.04 Waiver of Claim. To the extent permitted by applicable law, no party to this Agreement shall assert, and each hereby waives, any claim against any other party hereto or any Related Party thereof, on any theory of liability, for special, indirect, consequential or punitive damages (as opposed to direct or actual damages) arising out of, in connection with, or as a result of, this Agreement or any agreement or instrument contemplated hereby, the Transactions, any Loan or Letter of Credit or the use of the proceeds thereof, except, in the case of a claim by any Indemnitee against a Borrower, to the extent such damages would otherwise be subject to indemnification pursuant to the terms of Section 9.03.

Section 9.05 Successors and Assigns.

(a) The provisions of this Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, except that (i) except as provided under Section 6.07, the Borrowers may not assign or otherwise transfer any of their rights or obligations hereunder without the prior written consent of each Lender and the Administrative Agent (such consent of the Administrative Agent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) (and any attempted assignment or transfer by the Borrowers without such consent shall be null and void) and (ii) no Lender may assign or otherwise transfer its rights or obligations hereunder except in accordance with this Section 9.05 (any attempted assignment or transfer not complying with the terms of this Section 9.05 shall be null and void). Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, shall be construed to confer upon any Person (other than the parties hereto, their respective successors and assigns permitted hereby, Participants (to the extent provided in paragraph (c) of this Section 9.05) and, to the extent expressly contemplated hereby, the Related Parties of the Administrative Agent, the Lead Arranger, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders) any legal or equitable right, remedy or claim under or by reason of this Agreement.

(b) (i) Subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph (b)(ii) below, any Lender may assign to one or more Eligible Assignees all or a portion of its rights and obligations under this Agreement with the prior written consent (such consent not to be unreasonably withheld or delayed) of:

(A) the Administrative Agent; provided, that no consent of the Administrative Agent shall be required for an assignment to another Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund, subject to the provisions governing assignments thereto;

(B) any Issuing Bank in the case of the Revolving Credit Commitments or such Lender's obligations in respect of its LC Exposure; and

(C) the Swingline Lender; provided, that no consent of the Swingline Lender shall be required for an assignment to another Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund, subject to the provisions governing assignments thereto.

(ii) Assignments shall be subject to the following additional conditions:

(A) except in the case of an assignment to another Lender, an Affiliate of a Lender or an Approved Fund or an assignment of the entire remaining amount of the assigning Lender's Loans or commitments of any Class, the principal amount of Loans or commitments of the assigning Lender subject to each such assignment (determined as of the date the Assignment and Assumption with respect to such assignment is delivered to the Administrative Agent and determined on an aggregate basis in the event of concurrent assignments to Related Funds or by Related Funds (as defined below)) shall not be less than $5,000,000 in the case of the Revolving Facility, unless the Administrative Agent otherwise consent;

(B) each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement;

(C) the parties to each assignment shall execute and deliver to the Administrative Agent an Assignment and Assumption via an electronic settlement system

acceptable to the Administrative Agent (or, if previously agreed with the Administrative Agent, manually), and shall pay to the Administrative Agent a processing and recordation fee of $3,500 (which fee may be waived or reduced in the sole discretion of the Administrative Agent) in connection with all assignments other than an assignment by a Lender to one or more of its Affiliates; and

(D) the Eligible Assignee, if it shall not be a Lender, shall deliver on or prior to the effective date of such assignment, to the Administrative Agent (1) an Administrative Questionnaire, (2) any IRS forms required under Section 2.16, and (3) all documentation and other information required by regulatory authorities under applicable “know your customer” and anti-money laundering rules and regulations, including, without limitation, the USA PATRIOT Act and the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada).

(iii) Subject to acceptance and recording thereof pursuant to paragraph (b)(iv) of this Section 9.05, from and after the effective recordation specified in each Assignment and Assumption the Eligible Assignee thereunder shall be a party hereto and, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, have the rights and obligations of a Lender under this Agreement, and the assigning Lender thereunder shall, to the extent of the interest assigned by such Assignment and Assumption, be released from its obligations under this Agreement (and, in the case of an Assignment and Assumption covering all of the assigning Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement, such Lender shall cease to be a party hereto but shall continue to be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.14, 2.15, 2.16 and 9.03 with respect to facts and circumstances occurring on or prior to the effective date of such assignment and subject to its obligations thereunder and under Section 9.13). If any such assignment by a Lender holding a Promissory Note hereunder occurs after the issuance of any Promissory Note hereunder to such Lender, the assigning Lender shall, upon the effectiveness of such assignment or as promptly thereafter as practicable, surrender such Promissory Note to the Borrower Representative for cancellation, and thereupon the Borrower Representative shall issue and deliver a new Promissory Note(s), if so requested by the assignee and/or assigning Lender, to such assignee and/or to such assigning Lender, with appropriate insertions, to reflect the new commitments and/or outstanding Loans of the assignee and/or the assigning Lender. Each partial assignment shall be made as an assignment of a proportionate part of all the assigning Lender’s rights and obligations under this Agreement with respect to the Loans or the Commitments assigned (it being understood that assignments of separate Classes shall not be required to be made on a pro rata basis).

(iv) The Administrative Agent, acting solely for this purpose as non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, shall maintain at one of its offices a copy of each Assignment and Assumption delivered to it and a register for the recordation of the names and addresses of the Lenders and their respective successors and assigns, and the commitment of, and principal amount of and interest on the Loans and LC Disbursements owing to, each Lender or Issuing Bank pursuant to the terms hereof from time to time (the “Register”). Failure to make any such recordation, or any error in such recordation, shall not affect the amount of the Borrowers’ obligations in respect of such Loans and LC Disbursements. The entries in the Register shall be conclusive, absent manifest error, and the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and the Lenders shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Register pursuant to the terms hereof as a Lender hereunder for all purposes of this Agreement, notwithstanding notice to the contrary. The Register shall be available for inspection by the Borrowers and, with respect to itself, any Lender, at any reasonable time and from time to time upon reasonable prior written notice, provided that the information contained in the Register which is shared with each Lender (other than the Administrative Agent and its Affiliates) shall be limited to the entries with respect to such Lender including the Commitment of, or principal amount of and stated interest on the Loans owing to such Lender. The intention of this Section 9.05(b)(iv) is that the Loans be treated as registered for purposes of Section 5f.103-1(c) and proposed Section 1.163-5(b) of the United States Treasury Regulations and Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code, and this Section 9.05(b)(iv) shall be construed accordingly.

(v) Upon its receipt of a duly completed Assignment and Assumption executed by an assigning Lender and an Eligible Assignee, the Eligible Assignee's completed Administrative Questionnaire and tax certifications required by Section 9.05(b)(ii)(D)(2) (unless the assignee shall already be a Lender hereunder), the processing and recordation fee referred to in paragraph (b) of this Section 9.05, if applicable, and any written consent to such assignment required by paragraph (b) of this Section 9.05, the Administrative Agent shall promptly accept such Assignment and Assumption and record the information contained therein in the Register. No assignment shall be effective for purposes of this Agreement unless it has been recorded in the Register as provided in this paragraph.

(vi) By executing and delivering an Assignment and Assumption, the assigning Lender thereunder and the Eligible Assignee thereunder shall be deemed to confirm and agree with each other and the other parties hereto as follows: (A) such assigning Lender warrants that it is the legal and beneficial owner of the interest being assigned thereby free and clear of any adverse claim and that the amount of its commitments, and the outstanding balances of its Loans, in each case without giving effect to assignments thereof which have not become effective, are as set forth in such Assignment and Assumption; (B) except as set forth in clause (A) above, such assigning Lender makes no representation or warranty and assumes no responsibility with respect to any statements, warranties or representations made in or in connection with this Agreement, or the execution, legality, validity, enforceability, genuineness, sufficiency or value of this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto, or the financial condition of the Borrowers or any Subsidiary or the performance or observance by the Borrowers or any Subsidiary of any of its obligations under this Agreement, any other Loan Document or any other instrument or document furnished pursuant hereto; (C) such assignee represents and warrants that it is an Eligible Assignee, legally authorized to enter into such Assignment and Assumption; (D) such assignee confirms that it has received a copy of this Agreement, together with copies of the most recent financial statements referred to in Section 3.04(a) or delivered pursuant to Section 5.01(a) or (b), as applicable, and such other documents and information as it has deemed appropriate to make its own credit analysis and decision to enter into such Assignment and Assumption; (E) such assignee will independently and without reliance upon the Administrative Agent, such assigning Lender or any other Lender and based on such documents and information as it shall deem appropriate at the time, continue to make its own credit decisions in taking or not taking action under this Agreement; (F) such assignee appoints and authorizes the Administrative Agent to take such action as agent on its behalf and to exercise such powers under this Agreement as are delegated to the Administrative Agent, by the terms hereof, together with such powers as are reasonably incidental thereto; and (G) such assignee agrees that it will perform in accordance with their terms all the obligations which by the terms of this Agreement are required to be performed by it as a Lender.

(c) (i) Any Lender may, without the consent of the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks, the Swingline Lender or any other Lender, sell participations to one or more banks or other entities (other than to any natural person (or a holding company, investment vehicle or trust for, or owned and operated for the primary benefit of, a natural person), the Investors, Holdings, the Borrowers and their Subsidiaries or any of their respective Affiliates) (a "Participant") in all or a portion of such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement (including all or a portion of its commitments and the Loans owing to it); provided that (A) such Lender's obligations under this Agreement shall remain unchanged, (B) such Lender shall remain solely responsible to the other parties hereto for the performance of such obligations and (C) the Borrowers, the Administrative Agent and the other Lenders shall continue to deal solely and directly with such Lender in connection with such Lender's rights and obligations under this Agreement. Any agreement or instrument pursuant to which a Lender sells such a participation shall provide that such Lender shall retain the sole right to enforce this Agreement and to approve any amendment, modification or waiver of any provision of this Agreement; provided that such agreement or instrument may provide that such Lender will not, without the consent of the Participant, agree to any amendment, modification or waiver described in (x) clause (A) to the first proviso to Section 9.02(i)(b) that directly and adversely affects the Loans or commitments in which such Participant has an interest and (y) clauses (i)(B)(1), (2) or (3) to the first proviso to Section 9.02(b). Subject to paragraph (c)(ii) of this Section 9.05, the Borrowers agree that each Participant shall be entitled to the benefits of Sections 2.14, 2.15 and 2.16 (subject to the limitations and requirements of such Sections (it being understood and agreed that any documentation required to be delivered pursuant to Section 2.16(f) shall be delivered solely to the applicable participating Lender)) to the same extent as if it were a Lender and had acquired its interest by assignment pursuant to paragraph (b) of this Section 9.05, provided that such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.18 as though it were a Lender. To the extent permitted by law, each Participant also shall be entitled to the benefits of Section 9.09 as though it were a Lender; provided that such Participant agrees to be subject to Section 2.17(c) as though it were a Lender.

(ii) A Participant shall not be entitled to receive any greater payment under Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16 than the applicable Lender would have been entitled to receive with respect to the participation sold to such Participant.

Each Lender that sells a participation or grants any rights to an SPC shall, acting for this purpose as a non-fiduciary agent of the Borrowers, maintain at one of its offices a copy of a register complying with the requirements of Sections 163(f), 871(h) and 881(c)(2) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations issued thereunder for the recordation of the names and addresses of each Participant and each SPC (other than an SPC that is treated as a disregarded entity of its Granting Lender for U.S. federal income tax purposes) that has exercised its option pursuant to Section 9.05(e) and their respective successors and assigns, and the principal amount of and interest on each such Participant's and SPC's interest in such Lender's rights and/or obligations under this Agreement (the "Participant Register"); provided that no Lender shall have any obligation to disclose all or any portion of the Participant Register (including the identity of any Participant or SPC or any information relating to any Participant's or SPC's interest in any Commitment, Loan or any other obligation under any Loan Document) to any Person except (i) to the extent that such disclosure is necessary to establish that such Commitment, Loan or other obligation is in registered form under Section 5f.103-1(c) or proposed Section 1.163-5(b) (or any amended or successor version) of the Treasury Regulations and Sections 163(f), 871(h)(2) and 881(c)(2) of the Code, or is otherwise required thereunder or (ii) if compelled by order of the court or other legal process. The entries in the Participant Register shall be conclusive absent manifest error, and each Lender shall treat each Person whose name is recorded in the Participant Register as the owner of such participation or SPC interest for all purposes of this Agreement notwithstanding any notice to the contrary. For the avoidance of doubt, the Administrative Agent (in its capacity as Administrative Agent) shall have no responsibility for maintaining a Participant Register.

(d) Any Lender may at any time pledge or assign a security interest in all or any portion of its rights under this Agreement (other than to any natural person (or a holding company, investment vehicle or trust for, or owned and operated for the primary benefit of, a natural person)) to secure obligations of such Lender, including without limitation any pledge or assignment to secure obligations to a Federal Reserve Bank or other central bank having jurisdiction over such Lender, and this Section 9.05 shall not apply to any such pledge or assignment of a security interest; provided that no such pledge or assignment of a security interest shall release a Lender from any of its obligations hereunder or substitute any such pledgee or assignee for such Lender as a party hereto.

(e) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, any Lender (a "Granting Lender") may grant to a special purpose funding vehicle (an "SPC"), identified as such in writing from time SPC to time by the Granting Lender to the Administrative Agent and the Borrower Representative and as recorded in the Participant Register, the option to provide to the Borrowers all or any part of any Loan that such Granting Lender would otherwise be obligated to make to the Borrowers pursuant to this Agreement; provided that (i) nothing herein shall constitute a commitment by any SPC to make any Loan and (ii) if an SPC elects not to exercise such option or otherwise fails to provide all or any part of such Loan, the Granting Lender shall be obligated to make such Loan pursuant to the terms hereof. The making of a Loan by an SPC hereunder shall utilize the Revolving Credit Commitment of the Granting Lender to the same extent, and as if, such Loan were made by such Granting Lender. Each party hereto hereby agrees that (i) neither the grant to any SPC nor the exercise by any SPC of such option shall increase the costs or expenses or otherwise increase or change the obligations of the Borrowers under this Agreement (including its obligations under Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16) and no SPC shall be entitled to any greater amount under Section 2.14, 2.15 or 2.16 or any other provision of this Agreement or any other Loan Document that the Granting Lender would have been entitled to receive, (ii) no SPC shall be liable for any indemnity or similar payment obligation under this Agreement (all liability for which shall remain with the Granting Lender) and (iii) the Granting Lender shall for all purposes including approval of any amendment, waiver or other modification of any provision of the Loan Documents, remain the Lender of record hereunder.

Section 9.06 Survival. All covenants, agreements, representations and warranties made by the Loan Parties in the Loan Documents and in the certificates or other instruments delivered in connection with or pursuant to this Agreement or any other Loan Document shall be considered to have been relied upon by the other parties hereto and shall survive the execution and delivery of the Loan Documents and the making of any Loans and issuance of any Letter of Credit, regardless of any investigation made by any such other party or on its behalf and notwithstanding that the Administrative Agent, any Issuing Bank or any Lender may have had notice or knowledge of any Default or Event of Default or incorrect representation or warranty at the time any credit is extended hereunder, and shall continue in full force and effect until the Termination Date. The provisions of Sections 2.14, 2.15, 2.16, 9.03 and 9.13 and Article 8 shall survive and remain in full force and effect regardless of the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby, the repayment of the Loans, the expiration or termination of the Letters of Credit and the Revolving Credit Commitments, the occurrence of the Termination Date or the termination of this Agreement or any provision hereof but in each case, subject to the limitations set forth in this Agreement.

Section 9.07 Counterparts; Integration; Effectiveness. This Agreement may be executed in counterparts (and by different parties hereto on different counterparts), each of which shall constitute an original, but all of which when taken together shall constitute a single contract. Counterparts may be delivered via facsimile, electronic mail (including any electronic signature covered by the U.S. federal ESIGN Act of 2000, Uniform Electronic Transactions Act, the Electronic Signatures and Records Act or other applicable law, e.g., www.docusign.com) or other transmission method and any counterpart so delivered shall be deemed to have been duly and validly delivered and be valid and effective for all purposes. This Agreement, the other Loan Documents and the Fee Letters and any separate letter agreements with respect to fees payable to the Administrative Agent or the Lead Arranger constitutes the entire agreement among the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersede any and all previous agreements and understandings, oral or written, relating to the subject matter hereof. Except as provided in Section 4.01, this Agreement shall become effective when it shall have been executed by Holdings, the Borrowers, the Subsidiaries of the Borrowers party hereto and the Administrative Agent and when the Administrative Agent shall have received counterparts hereof which, when taken together, bear the signatures of each of the other parties hereto, and thereafter shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Delivery of an executed counterpart of a signature page of this Agreement by facsimile or by email as a “.pdf” or “.tif” attachment shall be effective as delivery of an original executed counterpart of this Agreement.

Section 9.08 Severability. To the extent permitted by law, any provision of any Loan Document held to be invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to such jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability without affecting the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions thereof; and the invalidity of a particular provision in a particular jurisdiction shall not invalidate such provision in any other jurisdiction.

Section 9.09 Right of Setoff. If an Event of Default shall have occurred and be continuing, upon the written consent of the Administrative Agent, each Issuing Bank and each Lender and each of its respective Affiliates is hereby authorized at any time and from time to time, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to set off and apply any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final) at any time held and other obligations at any time owing by the Administrative Agent, such Issuing Bank or such Lender or Affiliate (including by branches and agencies of the Administrative Agent, such Issuing Bank or such Lender, wherever located) to or for the credit or the account of the Borrowers or any Loan Guarantor against any of and all the Secured Obligations held by the Administrative Agent, such Issuing Bank or such Lender or Affiliate, irrespective of whether or not the Administrative Agent, such Issuing Bank or such Lender or Affiliate shall have made any demand under the Loan Documents and although such obligations may be unmaturing. Any applicable Lender, Issuing Bank or Affiliate shall promptly notify the Borrower Representative and the Administrative Agent of such set-off or application; provided that any failure to give or any delay in giving such notice shall not affect the validity of any such set-off or application under this Section. The rights of each Lender, each Issuing Bank, the Administrative Agent and Affiliate under this Section are in addition to other rights and remedies (including other rights of setoff) which such Lender, Issuing Bank, Administrative Agent or Affiliate may have.

Section 9.10 Governing Law; Jurisdiction; Consent to Service of Process.

(a) THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS) AND ANY CLAIM, CONTROVERSY OR DISPUTE ARISING UNDER OR RELATED TO THIS AGREEMENT AND THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS (OTHER THAN AS EXPRESSLY SET FORTH IN THE OTHER LOAN DOCUMENTS), WHETHER IN TORT, CONTRACT (AT LAW OR IN EQUITY) OR OTHERWISE, SHALL BE GOVERNED BY, AND CONSTRUED AND INTERPRETED IN ACCORDANCE WITH, THE LAWS OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK WITHOUT REGARD TO CONFLICT OF LAW PRINCIPLES THAT WOULD RESULT IN THE APPLICATION OF ANY LAW OTHER THAN THE LAW OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK.

(b) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY SUBMITS, FOR ITSELF AND ITS PROPERTY, TO THE EXCLUSIVE JURISDICTION OF ANY U.S. FEDERAL OR NEW YORK STATE COURT SITTING IN THE BOROUGH OF MANHATTAN, IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK (OR ANY APPELLATE COURT THEREFROM) OVER ANY SUIT, IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO ANY LOAN DOCUMENTS AND AGREES THAT ALL CLAIMS IN RESPECT OF ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING SHALL (EXCEPT AS PERMITTED BELOW) BE HEARD AND DETERMINED IN SUCH NEW YORK STATE OR, TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, FEDERAL COURT. THE PARTIES HERETO AGREE THAT SERVICE OF ANY PROCESS, SUMMONS, NOTICE OR DOCUMENT BY REGISTERED MAIL ADDRESSED TO SUCH PERSON SHALL BE EFFECTIVE SERVICE OF PROCESS AGAINST SUCH PERSON FOR ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING BROUGHT IN ANY SUCH COURT. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO AGREES THAT A FINAL JUDGMENT IN ANY SUCH ACTION OR PROCEEDING MAY BE ENFORCED IN OTHER JURISDICTIONS BY SUIT ON THE JUDGMENT OR IN ANY OTHER MANNER PROVIDED BY LAW. EACH PARTY HERETO AGREES THAT THE ADMINISTRATIVE AGENT, THE ISSUING BANKS AND THE LENDERS RETAIN THE RIGHT TO BRING PROCEEDINGS AGAINST ANY LOAN PARTY IN THE COURTS OF ANY OTHER JURISDICTION SOLELY IN CONNECTION WITH THE EXERCISE OF ANY RIGHTS UNDER ANY COLLATERAL DOCUMENT.

(c) EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT IT MAY LEGALLY AND EFFECTIVELY DO SO, ANY OBJECTION WHICH IT MAY NOW OR HEREAFTER HAVE TO THE LAYING OF VENUE OF ANY SUIT, ACTION OR PROCEEDING ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT IN ANY COURT REFERRED TO IN PARAGRAPH (b) OF THIS SECTION. EACH OF THE PARTIES HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, ANY CLAIM OR DEFENSE OF AN INCONVENIENT FORUM TO THE MAINTENANCE OF SUCH ACTION, SUIT OR PROCEEDING IN ANY SUCH COURT.

(d) TO THE EXTENT PERMITTED BY LAW, EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES PERSONAL SERVICE OF ANY AND ALL PROCESS UPON IT AND AGREES THAT ALL SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS MAY BE MADE BY REGISTERED MAIL (OR ANY SUBSTANTIALLY SIMILAR FORM OF MAIL) DIRECTED TO IT AT ITS ADDRESS FOR NOTICES AS PROVIDED FOR IN SECTION 9.01. EACH PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT HEREBY WAIVES ANY OBJECTION TO SUCH SERVICE OF PROCESS AND FURTHER IRREVOCABLY WAIVES AND AGREES NOT TO PLEAD OR CLAIM IN ANY ACTION OR PROCEEDING COMMENCED HEREUNDER OR UNDER ANY LOAN DOCUMENT THAT SERVICE OF PROCESS WAS INVALID AND INEFFECTIVE. NOTHING IN THIS AGREEMENT OR ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT WILL AFFECT THE RIGHT OF ANY PARTY TO THIS AGREEMENT TO SERVE PROCESS IN ANY OTHER MANNER PERMITTED BY LAW.

Section 9.11 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY HERETO HEREBY IRREVOCABLY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY SUIT, ACTION, PROCEEDING OR COUNTERCLAIM (WHETHER BASED ON CONTRACT, TORT OR ANY OTHER THEORY) DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT, ANY OTHER LOAN DOCUMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED HEREBY OR THEREBY. EACH PARTY HERETO (a) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (b) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HERETO HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION.

Section 9.12 Headings. Article and Section headings and the table of contents used herein are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and shall not affect the construction of, or be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

Section 9.13 Confidentiality. The Administrative Agent, each Lender and the Lead Arranger agree to maintain the confidentiality of the Confidential Information (as defined below), except that Confidential Information may be disclosed, subject to the acknowledgement and acceptance by the recipient thereof that such Confidential Information is being disseminated on a confidential basis (on substantially the terms set forth in this Section 9.13 or as is otherwise reasonably acceptable to the Borrower Representative), (a) to its and its Affiliates' directors (or equivalent managers), officers, members, partners, stockholders, co-investors, investors or prospective investors in a financing, separate account or commingled fund, legal counsel employees, independent auditors, other professionals, experts and advisors, including accountants, legal counsel and other advisors, or other agents that are retained by such Lender solely to assist with administration of the Loans in the ordinary course of business (collectively, the "Representatives") on a "need to know" basis solely in connection with the transactions completed hereby and who are informed of the confidential nature of such Confidential Information and are or have been advised of their obligation to keep such Confidential Information of this type confidential; provided that such Person shall be responsible for its Affiliates' and their Representatives' compliance with this paragraph, (b) upon the demand or request of any regulatory (including any self-regulatory body, such as the National Association of Insurance Commissioners), governmental or administrative authority that has jurisdiction over such Person or its Affiliates (in which case such Person shall (i) except with respect to any audit or examination conducted by bank accountants or any Governmental Authority exercising examination or regulatory authority, to the extent permitted by law, inform the Borrower Representative promptly in advance thereof and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any such information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment), (c) to the extent compelled by legal, judicial or administrative proceeding, in any such legal, judicial or administrative proceeding or otherwise as required by applicable Requirements of Law, rule or regulation (in which case such Person shall (i) to the extent permitted by law, inform the Borrower Representative promptly in advance thereof and (ii) use commercially reasonable efforts to ensure that any such information so disclosed is accorded confidential treatment), (d) to any other party to this Agreement, (e) to (i) any Eligible Assignee of or Participant in, or any prospective Eligible Assignee of or Participant in, any of its rights or obligations under this Agreement, (ii) any pledgee referred to in Section 9.05 or (iii) any actual or prospective, direct or indirect contractual counterparty (or its advisors) to any Derivative Transaction (including any credit default swap) or similar derivative product relating to the Loan Parties and their obligations, (f) with the prior written consent of the Borrower Representative, (g) for purposes of establishing a "due diligence" defense and (h) to the extent such Confidential Information (X) becomes publicly available other than as a result of a breach of this Section and from a source that is not, to the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as applicable, subject to any confidentiality obligations to any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof, by such Person, its Affiliates or their respective Representatives or (Y) becomes available to the Administrative Agent or any Lender on a non-confidential basis other than as a result of a breach of this Section from a source other than a Loan Party. For the purposes of this Section, "Confidential Information" means all information received relating to the Loan Parties and/or any of their subsidiaries and their respective businesses or the Transactions (including any information obtained by the Administrative Agent, any Issuing Bank, any Lender or any Arranger, or any of their respective Affiliates or Representatives, based on a review of the books and records relating to Holdings and/or any of its subsidiaries and their respective Affiliates from time to time, including prior to the date hereof) other than any such information that is or becomes publicly available to the Administrative Agent, any Arranger, any Issuing Bank or any Lender on a non-confidential basis and from a source that is not, to the Administrative Agent or such Lender, as applicable, subject to any confidentiality obligations to any Loan Party or any Affiliate thereof, prior to disclosure by any Loan Party.

Section 9.14 No Fiduciary Duty. Each of the Administrative Agent, the Lead Arranger, each Issuing Bank and each Lender and their respective Affiliates (collectively, solely for purposes of this paragraph, the "Lenders"), may have economic interests that conflict with those of the Loan Parties, their stockholders and/or their respective Affiliates. Each Loan Party agrees that nothing in the Loan Documents or otherwise will be deemed to create an advisory, fiduciary or agency relationship or fiduciary or other implied duty between any Lender, on the one hand, and any Loan Party, its respective stockholders or its respective Affiliates, on the other. The Loan Parties acknowledge and agree that: (i) the transactions contemplated by the Loan Documents (including the exercise of rights and remedies hereunder and thereunder) are arm's-length commercial transactions between the Lenders, on the one hand, and each Loan Party, on the other, and (ii) in connection therewith and with the process leading thereto, (x) no Lender has assumed an advisory or fiduciary responsibility in favor of any Loan Party, its respective stockholders or its respective Affiliates with respect to the transactions contemplated hereby (or the exercise of rights or remedies with respect thereto) or the process leading thereto (irrespective of whether any Lender has advised, is currently advising or will advise any Loan Party, its respective stockholders or its respective Affiliates on other matters) or any other obligation to any Loan Party except the obligations expressly set forth in the Loan Documents and (y) each Lender is acting solely as principal and not as the Administrative Agent or fiduciary of such Loan Party, its respective management, stockholders, creditors or any other Person. Each

Loan Party acknowledges and agrees that such Loan Party has consulted its own legal and financial advisors to the extent it deemed appropriate and that it is responsible for making its own independent judgment with respect to such transactions and the process leading thereto. Each Loan Party agrees that it will not claim that any Lender owes a fiduciary or similar duty to such Loan Party in connection with such transaction or the process leading thereto.

Section 9.15 Several Obligations; Violation of Law. The respective obligations of the Lenders hereunder are several and not joint and the failure of any Lender to make any Loan or perform any of its obligations hereunder shall not relieve any other Lender from any of its obligations hereunder.

Section 9.16 USA PATRIOT Act. Each Lender that is subject to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada) hereby notifies the Loan Parties that pursuant to the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada), it is required to obtain, verify and record information that identifies the Borrowers and each Loan Guarantor, which information includes the name and address of each Loan Party and other information that will allow such Lender to identify the Loan Parties in accordance with the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada). This notice is given in accordance with the requirements of the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada) and is effective as to the Administrative Agent and each Lender. The Borrowers and each Loan Party hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Administrative Agent shall be permitted to share any or all such information provided to the Administrative Agent pursuant to the USA PATRIOT Act and/or the Proceeds of Crime (Money Laundering) and Terrorist Financing Act (Canada) with the Lenders.

Section 9.17 Force Majeure. In no event shall the Administrative Agent be responsible or liable for any failure or delay in the performance of its obligations hereunder arising out of or caused by, directly or indirectly, forces beyond its control, including, without limitation, strikes, work stoppages, accidents, acts of war or terrorism, civil or military disturbances, nuclear or natural catastrophes or acts of God, and interruptions, loss or malfunctions of utilities, communications or computer (software and hardware) services; it being understood that the Administrative Agent shall use reasonable efforts which are consistent with accepted practices in the banking industry to resume performance as soon as practicable under the circumstances.

Section 9.18 Disclosure. Each Loan Party and each Lender hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Administrative Agent and/or its Affiliates from time to time may hold investments in, make other loans to or have other relationships with any of the Loan Parties and their respective Affiliates.

Section 9.19 Appointment for Perfection. Each Lender hereby appoints each other Lender and Issuing Bank as its agent for the purpose of perfecting Liens, for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders, in assets which, in accordance with Article 9 of the UCC, the equivalent provisions of the PPSA or any other applicable law can be perfected only by possession. Should any Lender or Issuing Bank (other than the Administrative Agent) obtain possession of any such Collateral, such Lender or Issuing Bank shall notify the Administrative Agent thereof; and, promptly upon the Administrative Agent's request therefor shall deliver such Collateral to the Administrative Agent or otherwise deal with such Collateral in accordance with the Administrative Agent's instructions.

Section 9.20 Interest Rate Limitation. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, if at any time the interest rate applicable to any Loan or Letter of Credit, together with all fees, charges and other amounts which are treated as interest on such Loan or Letter of Credit under applicable law (collectively, "Loan Charges"), shall exceed the maximum lawful rate or would result in the receipt of "interest" at a "criminal rate" (as such terms are construed under the Criminal Code (Canada)) (collectively, the “Maximum Rate”) which may be contracted for, charged, taken, received or reserved by the Lender or Issuing Bank holding such Loan or Letter of Credit in accordance with applicable law, the rate of interest payable in respect of such Loan or Letter of Credit hereunder, together with all Loan Charges payable in respect thereof, shall be limited to the Maximum Rate and, to the extent lawful, the interest and Loan Charges that would have been payable in respect of such Loan or Letter of Credit but were not payable as a result of the operation of this Section shall be cumulated and the interest and Loan Charges payable to such Lender in respect of other Loans or Letters of Credit or periods shall be increased (but not above the Maximum Rate therefor) until such cumulated amount, together with interest thereon at the Federal Funds Rate to the date of repayment, shall have been received by such Lender or Issuing Bank.

Section 9.21 Erroneous Payments.

(a) Each Lender hereby agrees that (i) if the Administrative Agent notifies such Lender that the Administrative Agent has determined in its sole discretion that any funds received by such Lender from the Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliates, in each case in connection with the Loan Documents, were erroneously or mistakenly transmitted to, or otherwise erroneously or mistakenly received by, such Lender (whether or not known to such Lender) (whether as a payment, prepayment or repayment of principal, interest, fees or otherwise; individually and collectively, an “Erroneous Payment”) and demands the return of such Erroneous Payment (or a portion thereof), such Lender shall promptly, but in no event later than five (5) Business Days thereafter, return to the Administrative Agent the amount of any such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) as to which such a demand was made, in same day funds (in the currency so received), together with interest thereon in respect of each day from and including the date such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) was received by such Lender to the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent in same day funds at the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation from time to time in effect and (ii) to the extent permitted by applicable law, such Lender shall not assert any right or claim to the Erroneous Payment, and hereby waives any claim, counterclaim, defense or right of set-off or recoupment with respect to any demand, claim or counterclaim by the Administrative Agent for the return of any Erroneous Payments received, including, without limitation, waiver of any defense based on “discharge for value” or any similar theory or doctrine. A notice of the Administrative Agent to any Lender under this clause (a) shall be conclusive, absent manifest error.

(b) Without limiting immediately preceding clause (a), each Lender hereby further agrees that if it receives a payment from the Administrative Agent (or any of its Affiliates) (x) that is in a different amount than, or on a different date from, that specified in a notice of payment sent by the Administrative Agent, (y) that was not preceded or accompanied by notice of payment, or (z) that such Lender otherwise becomes aware was transmitted, or received, in error or by mistake (in whole or in part), then in each case, if an error has been made each such Lender is deemed to have knowledge of such error at the time of receipt of such Erroneous Payment, and to the extent permitted by applicable law, such Lender shall not assert any right or claim to the Erroneous Payment, and hereby waives, any claim, counterclaim, defense or right of set-off or recoupment with respect to any demand, claim or counterclaim by the Administrative Agent for the return of any Erroneous Payments received, including without limitation waiver of any defense based on “discharge for value” or any similar theory or doctrine. Each Lender agrees that, in each such case, it shall promptly (and, in all events, within one Business Day of its knowledge (or deemed knowledge) of such error) notify the Administrative Agent of such occurrence and, upon demand from the Administrative Agent, it shall promptly, but in all events no later than one Business Day thereafter, return to the Administrative Agent the amount of any such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) as to which such a demand was made in same day funds (in the currency so received), together with interest thereon in respect of each day from and including the date such Erroneous Payment (or portion thereof) was received by such Lender to the date such amount is repaid to the Administrative Agent in same day funds at the greater of the Federal Funds Rate and a rate determined by the Administrative Agent in accordance with banking industry rules on interbank compensation from time to time in effect.

(c) The parties hereto agree that an Erroneous Payment shall not pay, prepay, repay, discharge or otherwise satisfy any Obligations owed by the Borrowers or any other Loan Party, except, in each case, to the extent such Erroneous Payment is, and solely with respect to the amount of such Erroneous Payment that is, comprised of funds received by the Administrative Agent or its Affiliates from or on behalf of the Borrowers or any other Loan Party or from the proceeds of Collateral.

(d) In addition to any rights and remedies of the Administrative Agent provided by law, Administrative Agent shall have the right, without prior notice to any Lender, any such notice being expressly waived by such Lender to the extent permitted by applicable law, with respect to any Erroneous Payment for which a demand has been made in accordance with this Section 9.21 and which has not been returned to the Administrative Agent, to set off and appropriate and apply against such amount any and all deposits (general or special, time or demand, provisional or final but excluding trust accounts), in any currency, and any other credits, indebtedness or claims, in any currency, in each case whether direct or indirect, absolute or contingent, matured or unmatured, at any time held or owing by Administrative Agent or any of its Affiliate, branch or agency thereof to or for the credit or the account of such Lender. Administrative Agent agrees promptly to notify the Lender after any such setoff and application made by Administrative Agent; provided that the failure to give such notice shall not affect the validity of such setoff and application.

(e) Each party's obligations under this Section 9.21 shall survive the resignation or replacement of the Administrative Agent, the termination of the Commitments or the repayment, satisfaction or discharge of all Obligations (or any portion thereof) under any Loan Document.

(f) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in any other Loan Document, no Loan Party nor any of their respective Affiliates shall have any additional obligations or liabilities directly or indirectly arising out of this Section 9.21 in respect of any Erroneous Payment (including the repayment or recovery of any amounts) and, for the avoidance of doubt, it is understood and agreed that if a Loan Party has paid principal, interest, fees or any other amounts owed pursuant to a Loan Document, nothing in this Section 9.21 shall require any such Loan Party to pay additional amounts that are duplicative of such previously paid amounts.

Section 9.22 Conflicts. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, in any other Loan Document, in the event of any conflict or inconsistency between this Agreement and any other Loan Document, the terms of this Agreement shall govern and control.

Section 9.23 Acknowledgement and Consent to Bail-In of Affected Financial Institutions. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any Loan Document or in any other agreement, arrangement or understanding among any such parties, each party hereto acknowledges that any liability of any Affected Financial Institution arising under any Loan Document, to the extent such liability is unsecured, may be subject to the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of the applicable Resolution Authority and agrees and consents to, and acknowledges and agrees to be bound by:

(a) the application of any Write-Down and Conversion Powers by the applicable Resolution Authority to any such liabilities arising hereunder which may be payable to it by any party hereto that is an Affected Financial Institution; and

(b) the effects of any Bail-In Action on any such liability, including, if applicable:

- (i) a reduction in full or in part or cancellation of any such liability;
- (ii) a conversion of all, or a portion of, such liability into shares or other instruments of ownership in such Affected Financial Institution, its parent undertaking, or a bridge institution that may be issued to it or otherwise conferred on it, and that such shares or other instruments of ownership will be accepted by it in lieu of any rights with respect to any such liability under this Agreement or any other Loan Document; or
- (iii) the variation of the terms of such liability in connection with the exercise of the Write-Down and Conversion Powers of the applicable Resolution Authority.

Section 9.24 Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, the Liens and security interests granted under the Collateral Documents to the Administrative Agent in any Collateral and the exercise of any right or remedy by the Administrative Agent with respect to any Collateral thereunder are subject to the provisions of the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement. In the event of any conflict between the terms of the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement and this Agreement with respect to such matters, the terms of the Term Loan Intercreditor Agreement shall govern and control.

Section 9.25 Borrower Representative. Each Borrower hereby irrevocably appoints Bamboo Purchaser, Inc. as the borrowing agent and attorney-in-fact for all Borrowers (the “Borrower Representative”) which appointment shall remain in full force and effect unless and until the Administrative Agent shall have received prior written notice signed by each Borrower that such appointment has been revoked and that another Borrower has been appointed Borrower Representative. Each Borrower hereby irrevocably appoints and authorizes the Borrower Representative (a) to provide the Administrative Agent with all notices with respect to Loans and Letters of Credit obtained for the benefit of any Borrower and all other notices and instructions under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents (and any notice or instruction provided by the Borrower Representative shall be deemed to be given by Borrowers hereunder and shall bind each Borrower), (b) to receive notices and instructions from the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders (and any notice or instruction provided by the Administrative Agent, any Issuing Bank and any Lender to the Borrower Representative in accordance with the terms hereof shall be deemed to have been given to each Borrower), and (c) to take such action as the Borrower Representative deems appropriate on its behalf to obtain Loans and Letters of Credit and to exercise such other powers as are reasonably incidental thereto to carry out the purposes of this Agreement. It is understood that the handling of the Loans, the Letters of Credit and Collateral in a combined fashion, as more fully set forth herein, is done solely as an accommodation to Borrowers in order to utilize the collective borrowing powers of Borrowers in the most efficient and economical manner and at their request, and that the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders shall not incur liability to any Borrower as a result hereof. Each Borrower expects to derive benefit, directly or indirectly, from the handling of the Loans, the Letters of Credit and the Collateral in a combined fashion since the successful operation of each Borrower is dependent on the continued successful performance of the integrated group. To induce the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders to do so, and in consideration thereof, each Borrower hereby jointly and severally agrees to indemnify each Lender and hold each Lender harmless against any and all liability, expense, loss or claim of damage or injury, made against the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders by any Borrower or by any third party whosoever, arising from or incurred by reason of (i) the handling of the Collateral of Borrowers as herein provided, or (ii) the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Banks and the Lenders relying on any instructions of the Borrower Representative, except that Borrowers will have no liability to the relevant person under this Section 9.25 with respect to any liability that has been finally determined by a court of competent jurisdiction to have resulted solely from the gross negligence or willful misconduct of such person, as the case may be.

Section 9.26 Banking Services. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or any other Loan Document, in connection with any distribution of payments or proceeds of Collateral, the Administrative Agent shall be entitled to assume no amounts are due or owing to any provider of Banking Services unless such provider of Banking Services has provided a written certification (setting forth a reasonably detailed calculation) to Administrative Agent as to the amounts that are due and owing to it and such written certification is received by the Administrative Agent a reasonable period of time prior to the making of such distribution. The Administrative Agent shall have no obligation to calculate the amount due and payable with respect to any Banking Services, but may rely upon the written certification of the amount due and payable from the applicable provider of Banking Services. In the absence of an updated certification, Administrative Agent shall be entitled to assume that the amount due and payable to the applicable provider of Banking Services is the amount last certified to the Administrative Agent by such provider of Banking Services as being due and payable (less any distributions made to such provider of Banking Services on account thereof).

Section 9.27 Judgment Currency.

(a) If, for the purposes of obtaining judgment in any court, it is necessary to convert a sum due to the Administrative Agent, the Issuing Bank or any Lender (herein a “Recipient”) in any currency (the “Original Judgment Currency”) into another currency (the “Other Currency”), the parties agree, to the fullest extent that they may effectively do so, that the rate of exchange used shall be that at which, in accordance with normal banking procedures, such Recipient could purchase the Original Currency with the Other Currency on the Business Day preceding the day on which final judgment is given or, if permitted by applicable law, on the day on which the judgment is paid or satisfied.

(b) The obligations of the Loan Parties in respect of any sum due in the Original Currency from it to any Recipient under any of the Loan Documents shall, notwithstanding any judgment in any Other Currency, be discharged only to the extent that on the Business Day following receipt by the Recipient of any sum adjudged to be so due in the Other Currency, the Recipient may, in accordance with normal banking procedures, purchase the Original Currency with such Other Currency. If the amount of the Original Currency so purchased is less than the sum originally due to the Recipient in the Original Currency, the Loan Parties agree, as a separate obligation and notwithstanding the judgment, to indemnify the Recipient, against any loss, and, if the amount of the Original Currency so purchased exceeds the sum originally due to the Recipient in the Original Currency, the Recipient shall remit such excess to the Loan Parties.

ARTICLE 10 LOAN GUARANTY

Section 10.01 Guaranty. Each Loan Guarantor hereby agrees that it is jointly and severally liable for, and, as primary obligor and not merely as surety, and absolutely and unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees to the Administrative Agent for the ratable benefit of the Secured Parties the full and prompt payment upon the failure of the Borrowers to do so, when and as the same shall become due, whether at stated maturity, upon acceleration or otherwise, and at all times thereafter, of the Secured Obligations (collectively, the “Guaranteed Obligations”). Each Loan Guarantor further agrees that the Guaranteed Obligations may be extended or renewed in whole or in part without notice to or further assent from it, and that it remains bound upon its guarantee notwithstanding any such extension or renewal. If any or all of the Guaranteed Obligations becomes due and payable hereunder, each Loan Guarantor, unconditionally and irrevocably, promises to pay such Guaranteed Obligations to the Administrative Agent and/or the other Secured Parties, on demand, together with any and all expenses which may be incurred by the Administrative Agent and the other Secured Parties in collecting any of the Guaranteed Obligations, to the extent reimbursable in accordance with Section 9.03. Each Loan Guarantor unconditionally and irrevocably guarantees the payment of any and all of the Guaranteed Obligations to the Secured Parties whether or not due or payable by the Borrowers upon the occurrence of any Event of Default, and in such event, irrevocably and unconditionally promises to pay such indebtedness to the Secured Parties, on demand, in the applicable Agreed Currency.

Each Qualified ECP Guarantor hereby jointly and severally absolutely, unconditionally and irrevocably undertakes to provide such funds or other support as may be needed from time to time by each other Loan Party to honor all of its obligations under this Loan Guaranty in respect of Hedging Obligations (provided, however, that each Qualified ECP Guarantor shall only be liable under this Section 10.01 for the maximum amount of such liability that can be hereby incurred without rendering its obligations under this Section 10.01, or otherwise under this Loan Guaranty, as it relates to such other Loan Party, voidable under applicable law relating to fraudulent conveyance or fraudulent transfer, and not for any greater amount). The obligations of each Qualified ECP Guarantor under this Section 10.01 shall remain in full force and effect until the termination of this Loan Guaranty in accordance with Section 10.12 hereof. Each Qualified ECP Guarantor intends that this Section 10.01 constitute, and this Section 10.01 shall be deemed to constitute, a “keepwell, support, or other agreement” for the benefit of each other Loan Party for all purposes of Section 1a(18)(A)(v)(II) of the Commodity Exchange Act.

Section 10.02 Guaranty of Payment. This Loan Guaranty is a guaranty of payment and not of collection. Each Loan Guarantor waives any right to require the Administrative Agent or any Lender to sue the Borrowers, any other Loan Guarantor, any other guarantor, or any other Person obligated for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations (each, an “Obligated Party”), or otherwise to enforce its rights in respect of any Collateral securing all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations. The Administrative Agent may enforce this Loan Guaranty upon the occurrence and during the continuance of an Event of Default.

Section 10.03 No Discharge or Diminishment of Loan Guaranty.

(a) Except as otherwise provided for herein, the obligations of each Loan Guarantor hereunder are unconditional, irrevocable and absolute and not subject to any reduction, limitation, impairment or termination for any reason (other than as set forth in Section 10.12), including: (i) any claim of waiver, release, extension, renewal, settlement, surrender, alteration, or compromise of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, by operation of law or otherwise; (ii) any change in the corporate existence, structure or ownership of the Borrowers or any other Guarantor or of other Person liable for any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (iii) any insolvency, bankruptcy, reorganization or other similar proceeding affecting any Obligated Party, or their assets or any resulting release or discharge of any obligation of any Obligated Party; (iv) the existence of any claim, setoff or other rights which any Loan Guarantor may have at any time against any Obligated Party, the Administrative Agent, any Lender or any other Person, whether in connection herewith or in any unrelated transactions; (v) any direction as to application of payments by the Borrowers or by any other party; (vi) any other continuing or other guaranty, undertaking or maximum liability of a Guarantor or of any other party as to the Guaranteed Obligations; (vii) any payment on or in reduction of any such other guaranty or undertaking; (viii) any dissolution, termination or increase, decrease or change in personnel by the Borrowers; or (ix) any payment made to any Secured Party on the Guaranteed Obligations which any such Secured Party repays to the Borrowers pursuant to court order in any bankruptcy, reorganization, arrangement, moratorium or other debtor relief proceeding under any Debtor Relief Law, and each Loan Guarantor waives any right to the deferral or modification of its obligations hereunder by reason of any such proceeding.

(b) Except for termination of a Loan Guarantor’s obligations hereunder or as expressly permitted by Section 10.12, the obligations of each Loan Guarantor hereunder are not subject to any defense or setoff, counterclaim, recoupment, or termination whatsoever by reason of the invalidity, illegality, or unenforceability of any of the Guaranteed Obligations or otherwise, or any provision of applicable law or regulation purporting to prohibit payment by any Obligated Party, of the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof.

(c) Further, the obligations of any Loan Guarantor hereunder are not discharged or impaired or otherwise affected by: (i) the failure of the Administrative Agent or any Secured Party to assert any claim or demand or to enforce any remedy with respect to all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations; (ii) any waiver or modification of or supplement to any provision of any agreement relating to the Guaranteed Obligations; (iii) any release, non-perfection, or invalidity of any indirect or direct security for the obligations of the Borrowers for all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or any obligations of any other guarantor or of other Person liable for any of the Guaranteed Obligations; (iv) any action or failure to act by the Administrative Agent or any Secured Party with respect to any Collateral securing any part of the Guaranteed Obligations; or (v) any default, failure or delay, willful or otherwise, in the payment or performance of any of the Guaranteed Obligations, or any other circumstance, act, omission or delay that might in any manner or to any extent vary the risk of such Loan Guarantor or that would otherwise operate as a discharge of any Loan Guarantor as a matter of law or equity (other than as set forth in Section 10.12).

Section 10.04 Defenses Waived. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, and except for termination of a Loan Guarantor's obligations hereunder or as expressly permitted by Section 10.12, each Loan Guarantor hereby waives any defense based on or arising out of any defense of the Borrowers or any other Loan Guarantor or arising out of the disability of any Borrower or any other Loan Guarantor or any other party or the unenforceability of all or any part of the Guaranteed Obligations or any part thereof from any cause, or the cessation from any cause of the liability of the Borrowers or any other Loan Guarantor. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, each Loan Guarantor irrevocably waives acceptance hereof, presentment, demand, protest and, to the fullest extent permitted by law, any notice not provided for herein, including notices of nonperformance, notices of protest, notices of dishonor, notices of acceptance of this Loan Guaranty, and notices of the existence, creation or incurring of new or additional Guaranteed Obligations, as well as any requirement that at any time any action be taken by any Person against any Obligated Party, or any other Person, including any right (except as shall be required by applicable statute and cannot be waived) to require any Secured Party to (i) proceed against any Borrower, any other guarantor or any other party, (ii) proceed against or exhaust any security held from any Borrower, any other Loan Guarantor or any other party or (iii) pursue any other remedy in any Secured Party's power whatsoever. The Administrative Agent may, at its election, foreclose on any Collateral held by it by one or more judicial or nonjudicial sales, whether or not every aspect of any such sale is commercially reasonable (to the extent permitted by applicable law), accept an assignment of any such Collateral in lieu of foreclosure or otherwise act or fail to act with respect to any Collateral securing all or a part of the Guaranteed Obligations, and the Administrative Agent may, at its election, compromise or adjust any part of the Guaranteed Obligations, make any other accommodation with any Obligated Party or exercise any other right or remedy available to it against any Obligated Party, or any security, without affecting or impairing in any way the liability of such Loan Guarantor under this Loan Guaranty except as otherwise provided in Section 10.12. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, each Loan Guarantor waives any defense arising out of any such election even though that election may operate, pursuant to applicable law, to impair or extinguish any right of reimbursement or subrogation or other right or remedy of any Loan Guarantor against any Obligated Party or any security.

Section 10.05 Authorization. The Loan Guarantors authorize the Secured Parties without notice or demand (except as shall be required by applicable statute and cannot be waived), and without affecting or impairing its liability hereunder (except as set forth in Section 10.12), from time to time to:

(a) change the manner, place or terms of payment of, and/or change or extend the time of payment of, renew, increase, accelerate or alter, any of the Guaranteed Obligations (including any increase or decrease in the principal amount thereof or the rate of interest or fees thereon), any security therefor, or any liability incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof, and this Loan Guaranty shall apply to the Guaranteed Obligations as so changed, extended, renewed or altered;

(b) take and hold security for the payment of the Guaranteed Obligations and sell, exchange, release, impair, surrender, realize upon or otherwise deal with in any manner and in any order any property by whomsoever at any time pledged or mortgaged to secure, or howsoever securing, the Guaranteed Obligations or any liabilities (including any of those hereunder) incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof or hereof, and/or any offset there against;

(c) exercise or refrain from exercising any rights against the Borrowers, any other Loan Party or others or otherwise act or refrain from acting;

(d) release or substitute any one or more endorsers, guarantors, the Borrowers, other Loan Parties or other obligors;

(e) settle or compromise any of the Guaranteed Obligations, any security therefor or any liability (including any of those hereunder) incurred directly or indirectly in respect thereof or hereof, and may subordinate the payment of all or any part thereof to the payment of any liability (whether due or not) of the Borrowers to its creditors other than the Secured Parties;

(f) apply any sums by whomsoever paid or howsoever realized to any liability or liabilities of the Borrowers to the Secured Parties regardless of what liability or liabilities of the Borrowers remain unpaid;

(g) consent to or waive any breach of, or any act, omission or default under, this Agreement, any other Loan Document, any Hedge Agreement or any of the instruments or agreements referred to herein or therein, or otherwise amend, modify or supplement this Agreement, any other Loan Document, any Hedge Agreement or any of such other instruments or agreements; and/or

(h) take any other action which would, under otherwise applicable principles of common law, give rise to a legal or equitable discharge of the Loan Guarantors from their respective liabilities under this Loan Guaranty.

Section 10.06 Rights of Subrogation. No Loan Guarantor will assert any right, claim or cause of action, including a claim of subrogation, contribution or indemnification that it has against any Loan Party in respect of this Loan Guaranty until the occurrence of the Termination Date.

Section 10.07 Reinstatement; Stay of Acceleration. If at any time any payment of any portion of the Guaranteed Obligations is rescinded or must otherwise be restored or returned upon the insolvency, bankruptcy, or reorganization of any Borrower or otherwise, each Loan Guarantor's obligations under this Loan Guaranty with respect to that payment shall be reinstated at such time as though the payment had not been made. If acceleration of the time for payment of any of the Guaranteed Obligations is stayed upon the insolvency, bankruptcy or reorganization of any Borrower, all such amounts otherwise subject to acceleration under the terms of any agreement relating to the Guaranteed Obligations shall nonetheless be payable by the other Loan Guarantors forthwith on demand by the Administrative Agent.

Section 10.08 Information. Each Loan Guarantor assumes all responsibility for being and keeping itself informed of the Borrowers' financial condition and assets, and of all other circumstances bearing upon the risk of nonpayment of the Guaranteed Obligations and the nature, scope and extent of the risks that each Loan Guarantor assumes and incurs under this Loan Guaranty, and agrees that none of the Administrative Agent, any Lender or any other Secured Party shall have any duty to advise any Loan Guarantor of information known to it regarding those circumstances or risks.

Section 10.09 Maximum Liability. It is the desire and intent of the Loan Guarantors and the Secured Parties that this Loan Guaranty shall be enforced against the Loan Guarantors to the fullest extent permissible under the laws and public policies applied in each jurisdiction in which enforcement is sought. The provisions of this Loan Guaranty are severable, and in any action or proceeding involving any state, federal or provincial corporate law, or any state, federal or foreign bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization or other law affecting the rights of creditors generally, if the obligations of any Loan Guarantor under this Loan Guaranty would otherwise be held or determined to be avoidable, invalid or unenforceable on account of the amount of such Loan Guarantor's liability under this Loan Guaranty, then, notwithstanding any other provision of this Loan Guaranty to the contrary, the amount of such liability shall, without any further action by the Loan Guarantors or the Secured Parties, be automatically limited and reduced to the highest amount that is valid and enforceable as determined in such action or proceeding (such highest amount determined hereunder being the relevant Loan Guarantor's "Maximum Liability"). Each Loan Guarantor agrees that the Guaranteed Obligations may at any time and from time to time exceed the Maximum Liability of each Loan Guarantor without impairing this Loan Guaranty or affecting the rights and remedies of the Secured Parties hereunder; provided that nothing in this sentence shall be construed to increase any Loan Guarantor's obligations hereunder beyond its Maximum Liability.

Section 10.10 Contribution. In the event any Loan Guarantor (a "Paying Guarantor") shall make any payment or payments under this Loan Guaranty or shall suffer any loss as a result of any realization upon any Collateral granted by it to secure its obligations under this Loan Guaranty, each other Loan Guarantor (each, a "Non-Paying Guarantor") shall contribute to such Paying Guarantor an amount equal to such Non-Paying Guarantor's "Guarantor Percentage" of such payment or payments made, or losses suffered, by such Paying Guarantor. For purposes of this Article 10, each Non-Paying Guarantor's "Guarantor Percentage" with respect to any such payment or loss by a Paying Guarantor shall be determined as of the date on which such payment or loss was made by reference to the ratio of (a) such Non-Paying Guarantor's Maximum Liability as of such date (without giving effect to any right to receive, or obligation to make, any contribution hereunder) or, if such Non-Paying Guarantor's Maximum Liability has not been determined, the aggregate amount of all monies received by such Non-Paying Guarantor from the Borrowers after the date hereof (whether by loan, capital infusion or by other means) to (b) the aggregate Maximum Liability of all Loan Guarantors hereunder (including such Paying Guarantor) as of such date (without giving effect to any right to receive, or obligation to make, any contribution hereunder), or to the extent that a Maximum Liability has not been determined for any Loan Guarantor, the aggregate amount of all monies received by such Loan Guarantors from the Borrowers after the date hereof (whether by loan, capital infusion or by other means). Nothing in this provision shall affect any Loan Guarantor's several liability for the entire amount of the Guaranteed Obligations (up to such Loan Guarantor's Maximum Liability). Each of the Loan Guarantors covenants and agrees that its right to receive any contribution under this Loan Guaranty from a Non-Paying Guarantor shall be subordinate and junior in right of payment to the Secured Obligations until the Termination Date. This provision is for the benefit of the Administrative Agent, the Lenders and the other Secured Parties and may be enforced by any one, or more, or all of them in accordance with the terms hereof.

Section 10.11 Liability Cumulative. The liability of each Loan Guarantor under this Article 10 is in addition to and shall be cumulative with all liabilities of such Loan Guarantor to the Administrative Agent and the Lenders under this Agreement and the other Loan Documents to which such Loan Guarantor is a party or in respect of any obligations or liabilities of the other Loan Guarantors, without any limitation as to amount, unless the instrument or agreement evidencing or creating such other liability specifically provides to the contrary.

Section 10.12 Release of Loan Guarantors. Notwithstanding anything in Section 9.02(b) to the contrary, a Subsidiary Guarantor (other than any Borrower) shall automatically be released from its obligations hereunder and its Loan Guaranty shall be automatically released (a) upon the consummation of any sale of any equity interests of such Subsidiary Guarantor to a Person that is not an Affiliate of the Borrowers pursuant to a transaction or related series of transactions permitted hereunder if as a result thereof such Subsidiary Guarantor shall cease to be a Subsidiary (or becomes an Excluded Subsidiary) or (b) upon the occurrence of the Termination Date. In connection with any such release, the Administrative Agent shall promptly execute and deliver to any Loan Guarantor, at such Loan Guarantor's expense, all documents that such Loan Guarantor shall reasonably request to evidence termination or release. Any execution and delivery of documents pursuant to the preceding sentence of this Section 10.12 shall be without recourse to or warranty by the Administrative Agent (other than as to the Administrative Agent's authority to execute and deliver such documents).

(ii) Prepetition Term Loan Obligations. The Borrower, certain of the other Debtors (in their respective capacities as guarantors of the Prepetition Term Loan Facility (as defined herein), collectively, the “Prepetition Term Loan Obligors”), Ares Capital Corporation, as administrative agent and collateral agent (in such capacities, the “Prepetition Term Loan Agent”, and together with the Prepetition ABL Agent, the “Prepetition Agents”) for its own benefit and the benefit of the lenders from time to time party thereto (the “Prepetition Term Loan Lenders”, collectively with the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the “Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties” and, together with the Prepetition ABL Secured Parties, the “Prepetition Secured Creditors”) are party to that certain Credit Agreement, dated as of November 5, 2021, among BFG Purchaser Parent, Inc., Bamboo Purchaser, Inc., and the other Loan Parties party thereto, (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, replaced, or otherwise modified from time to time prior to the filing of the Petitions, the “Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement”, and together with the other “Loan Documents” (as defined therein), the “Prepetition Term Loan Documents” (together with the Prepetition ABL Documents, the “Prepetition Credit Documents”), and the term loan facility thereunder, the “Prepetition Term Loan Facility” and, together with the Prepetition ABL Facility, the “Prepetition Loan Facilities”). As of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Term Loan Obligors were obligated under the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement to the Prepetition Term Loan Lenders in the aggregate outstanding principal amount of not less than $299,456,012.99, consisting of Term Loans A (as defined in the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement) in the aggregate outstanding principal amount of not less than $137,608,289.31 and Term Loans B (as defined in the Prepetition Term Loan Credit Agreement)

The Prepetition Term Loan Obligations are secured by (i) first priority security interests in and liens on the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement, and (ii) second priority security interests in and liens on the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral pursuant to the terms of the Intercreditor Agreement (the immediately forgoing liens and security interests, the “Prepetition Term Loan Liens” and, together with the Prepetition ABL Liens, the “Prepetition Liens”).

(iii) Intercreditor Agreement. That certain Intercreditor Agreement, dated as of November 5, 2021, entered into by and among the Prepetition ABL Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, and acknowledged and agreed to by Holdings, the Borrower, and the other Loan Parties party thereto (as amended, restated, amended and restated, supplemented, replaced, or otherwise modified from time to time, the “Intercreditor Agreement”) governs the respective priority rights of the Prepetition Secured Creditors’ interests in and liens on the Prepetition Collateral as it concerns the Prepetition ABL Priority Collateral and the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, as applicable.

(iv) Prepetition Obligations. Subject to paragraph 44 herein, each of the Debtors acknowledges that the Prepetition Secured Obligations owing to the Prepetition Secured Creditors, (a) constitute legal, valid, binding and non-avoidable obligations of the Debtors and their applicable affiliates, enforceable against them in accordance with their terms, and (b) no portion of the Prepetition Secured Obligations owing to the Prepetition Secured Creditors is subject to avoidance, recharacterization, reduction, set-off, offset, counterclaim, cross-claim, recoupment, defenses, disallowance, disgorgement, impairment, recovery, subordination (equitable or otherwise), or any other challenges pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law or regulation by any person or entity, including in any Successor Cases.

(v) Prepetition Liens. Subject to paragraph 44 herein, the Debtors acknowledge that, as of the Petition Date, the Prepetition Liens granted to the Prepetition Secured Creditors (a) constitute legal, valid, binding, enforceable, non-avoidable, and properly perfected security interests in and liens on the Prepetition Collateral, and were granted to, or for the benefit of, the Prepetition Secured Creditors for fair consideration and reasonably equivalent value, (b) are not subject to defense, counterclaim, recharacterization, subordination, avoidance, or recovery pursuant to the Bankruptcy Code or applicable non-bankruptcy law or regulation by any person or entity, and (c) are senior in priority over any and all other liens on the Prepetition Collateral; provided that the Prepetition Term Loan Liens may be subject to certain liens senior (solely to the extent any such liens were valid, non-avoidable, and senior in priority to the Prepetition Term Loan Liens as of the Petition Date and properly perfected prior to the Petition Date or perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition Term Loan Documents (the “Prepetition Term Loan Permitted Liens”); provided further that the Prepetition ABL Liens may be subject to certain liens senior (solely to the extent any such liens were valid, non-avoidable, and senior in priority to the Prepetition ABL Liens as of the Petition Date and properly perfected prior to the Petition Date or perfected subsequent to the Petition Date as permitted by section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code) or otherwise permitted by the Prepetition ABL Documents (the “Prepetition ABL Permitted Liens” and, together with the Prepetition Term Loan Permitted Liens, the “Prepetition Permitted Liens”).

(vi) No Challenges / Claims. Subject to an investigation by a Committee, if one is appointed, permitted pursuant to paragraph 32 and 44 herein, the Debtors’ estates have no valid Claims (as such term is defined in section 101(5) of the Bankruptcy Code), objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action against any of the Prepetition Secured Creditors or any of their respective affiliates, agents, attorneys, advisors, professionals, officers, directors, and employees with respect to the Prepetition Credit Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Prepetition Liens, or otherwise, whether arising at law or at equity, including, without limitation, any challenge, recharacterization, subordination, avoidance, recovery, disallowance, disgorgement, reduction, or other claims arising under or pursuant to sections 105, 502, 510, 541, 542 through 553, inclusive, or 558 of the Bankruptcy Code or applicable state law equivalents. The Prepetition Secured Obligations constitute allowed, secured claims within the meaning of sections 502 and 506 of the Bankruptcy Code. Subject to paragraph 44 herein, the Debtors have waived, discharged, and released any right to challenge any of the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the priority of the Debtors’ obligations thereunder, and the validity, extent, and priority of the Prepetition Liens.

(vii) Cash Collateral. Except as otherwise provided in the Prepetition Credit Documents, all of the Debtors’ cash, including, without limitation, the cash in their deposit accounts, wherever located, whether as original collateral or proceeds of other Prepetition Collateral, constitutes Cash Collateral within the meaning of section 363(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and is Prepetition Collateral of the Prepetition Secured Creditors, subject to the Lien Priority Annex.

(viii) No Control. None of the DIP Agent, the DIP Lenders, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent or the other Prepetition Secured Creditors, controls the Debtors or their operations, has authority to determine the manner in which any of the Debtors' operations are conducted or is a control person or "insider" (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors or any of their affiliates by virtue of any of the actions taken through the date of this Interim Order with respect to, in connection with, related to, or arising from this Interim Order, the DIP Facility, the DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, and/or the Prepetition Credit Documents.⁴

(ix) Release. Effective as of the date of entry of this Interim Order and subject to the rights of all parties-in-interest hereunder (including with respect to a Challenge (as defined herein)), other than the Debtors, as set forth in paragraph 44 herein, each of the Debtors, on their own behalf and on behalf of each of their past, present, and future predecessors, successors, heirs, subsidiaries, and assigns, and solely to the extent permitted under applicable law, hereby forever, unconditionally, permanently, and irrevocably releases, discharges, and acquits each of the following solely in their capacity as such: DIP Agent, the DIP Credit Parties, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the other Prepetition ABL Secured Parties, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the other Prepetition Term Loan Secured Parties, and each of their respective successors, assigns, affiliates, parents, subsidiaries, partners, controlling persons, representatives, agents, attorneys, advisors,

financial advisors, consultants, professionals, officers, directors, members, managers, shareholders, and employees, past, present and future, advisors, sub-fund advisors, and collateral managers, and each of their respective heirs, predecessors, successors, and assigns, in each case solely in their capacity as such (collectively, the “Released Parties”) of and from any and all claims, controversies, disputes, liabilities, obligations, demands, damages, expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys’ fees), actions, suits, controversies, proceedings, losses, damages, injuries, debts, liens, actions, judgments, and causes of action of any and every nature whatsoever, whether arising in law or otherwise, and whether known or unknown, matured or contingent, asserted, unasserted, suspected, unsuspected, accrued, unaccrued, pending, or threatened, arising under, in connection with, or relating to the DIP Obligations or DIP Loan Documents, the Prepetition Secured Obligations or the Prepetition Credit Documents, including, without limitation: (a) any so-called “lender liability” or equitable subordination claims or defenses; (b) Claims and causes of action arising under the Bankruptcy Code; and (c) any and all offsets, defenses, claims, counterclaims, set off rights, objections, challenges, causes of action, and/or choses in action of any kind or nature whatsoever, whether arising at law or in equity, including any recharacterization, recoupment, subordination, avoidance, or other claim or cause of action arising under or pursuant to section 105 or chapter 5 of the Bankruptcy Code or under any other similar provisions of applicable state, federal, or foreign law, including, without limitation, any right to assert any disgorgement or recovery, in each case, with respect to the extent, amount, validity, enforceability, priority, security, and perfection of any of the DIP Obligations, the DIP Loan Documents, the DIP Liens, the Prepetition Secured Obligations, the Prepetition Credit Documents, or the Prepetition Liens, and further waive and release any defense, right of counterclaim, right of setoff, or deduction to the payment of the DIP Obligations and the

Prepetition Secured Obligations that the Debtors now have or may claim to have against the Released Parties, arising under, in connection with, based upon, or released to any and all acts, omissions, conduct undertaken, or events occurring prior to entry of this Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in this paragraph F(ix) shall relieve the DIP Agent, the other DIP Lenders, or the Debtors of their obligations hereunder or under the DIP Obligations.

G. Findings Regarding the Postpetition Financing.

(i) Request for Postpetition Financing. The Debtors seek authority on an interim basis to: (a) enter into, and access and use the liquidity provided under, the DIP Facility on the terms described herein and in the DIP Loan Documents; and (b) use Cash Collateral on the terms described herein to administer the Chapter 11 Cases and fund operations. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors shall apply the proceeds of the DIP Collateral and the Prepetition Collateral in accordance with the DIP Loan Documents, the Lien Priority Annex and paragraph 17 of this Interim Order, including, without limitation, upon entry of the Final Order, the exchange and conversion on a cashless basis of the remaining outstanding Prepetition ABL Obligations into DIP Obligations.

(ii) Priming of Certain Prepetition Liens; Consent to Use of Cash Collateral.

For the avoidance of doubt, with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral, the DIP Liens shall not prime, and shall instead be subject and subordinate to the Prepetition Term Loan Liens solely with respect to the Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral; provided, however, that the Prepetition Term Loan Liens shall in all cases be subject and subordinate to the Carve Out, subject to paragraph 31(j). The Prepetition ABL Secured Parties have consented to the use of the Cash Collateral and to the subordination of the Prepetition ABL Liens to the DIP Liens and the Carve Out on the terms and conditions set forth in this Interim Order.

(iii) Immediate Need for Postpetition Financing and Use of Cash Collateral.

The Debtors' immediate need to use Cash Collateral and to obtain credit pursuant to the DIP Facility as provided for herein is necessary and critical in order to enable the Debtors to continue operations and to administer and preserve the value of their estates. The ability of the Debtors to finance their operations, to maintain business relationships with their vendors, suppliers, and customers, to pay their employees, to protect the value of their assets, and to otherwise finance their operations requires the availability of working capital from the DIP Facility and the use of Cash Collateral. Without the ability to access the DIP Facility or use Cash Collateral, the Debtors, their estates, their creditors, their equity holders, and the possibility for a successful reorganization or sale of all or substantially all of the Debtors' assets, would suffer immediate and irreparable harm. The Debtors do not have sufficient available sources of working capital and financing to operate their businesses or maintain their properties in the ordinary course of business without the DIP Facility and authorized use of Cash Collateral.

(iv) DIP Roll-Up Loan. Upon (i) entry of this Interim Order, without any further action by the Debtors or any other party, but subject to paragraph 44 herein, all cash, collections and proceeds of DIP Collateral (other than Prepetition Term Loan Priority Collateral) shall be used, on a dollar-for-dollar basis, to reduce the Prepetition Revolving Loans and result in a corresponding increase to availability under the DIP Facility (the "Creeping Roll-Up"), and (ii) entry of the Final Order granting such relief, but subject to paragraph 44 herein, all remaining outstanding Prepetition Revolving Loans shall automatically be deemed exchanged and converted on a cashless basis into and constitute DIP Obligations (the "Full Roll-Up" and, together with the Creeping Roll-Up, the "DIP Roll-Up Obligations"). All accrued and unpaid interest, expenses, fees, and other sums payable in respect of the outstanding Prepetition ABL Obligations through the entry of the Final Order including any amounts not previously paid pursuant to this Interim Order shall be paid in cash by the Loan Parties to the Administrative Agent on the date of entry of the Final Order. The Prepetition ABL Secured Parties would not otherwise consent to the use of their Cash Collateral, and the DIP Agent and the DIP Lenders would not be willing to provide the DIP Facility or extend credit to the Debtors thereunder, without the inclusion of (a) the Creeping Roll-Up, upon entry of this Interim Order, and (b) the Full Roll-Up, upon entry of the Final Order granting such relief. The DIP Roll-Up Obligations shall be authorized as compensation for, in consideration for, and solely on account of, the agreement of the Prepetition ABL Lenders to fund amounts under the DIP Facility and not as adequate protection for, or otherwise on account of, any Prepetition ABL Obligations. All accrued interest, expenses, fees and other sums constituting Prepetition ABL Obligations owing to the Prepetition ABL Lenders shall be paid in cash on the Closing Date, and all Banking Services Obligations and Secured Hedging Obligations (each as defined in the Prepetition ABL Credit Agreement) shall be deemed DIP Obligations upon entry of this Interim Order.

(v) No Credit Available on More Favorable Terms. Given their current financial condition, financing arrangements, and capital structure, the Debtors are unable to obtain financing from sources other than the DIP Credit Parties on terms more favorable than the DIP Facility. The Debtors are unable to obtain adequate unsecured credit allowable under section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code as an administrative expense. The Debtors are unable to obtain adequate credit: (a) having priority over that of administrative expenses of the kind specified in sections 503(b), 507(a), and 507(b) of the Bankruptcy Code; (b) secured by a lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is not otherwise subject to a lien; or (c) secured solely by a junior lien on property of the Debtors and their estates that is subject to a lien. Financing on a postpetition basis is not otherwise available under sections 364(c)(1), 364(c)(2), and 364(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code without granting the DIP Agent, for the benefit of the DIP Credit Parties, in each case, subject to the terms of this Interim Order: (x) perfected security interests in and liens on (each as provided herein) all of the Debtors' existing and after-acquired assets with the priorities and to the extent set forth herein; (y) superpriority claims and priming liens to the extent set forth herein; and (z) the other protections set forth in this Interim Order, and without incurring the Adequate Protection Superpriority Claims and Adequate Protection Liens (each as defined herein) described herein.

(vi) Adequacy of the Approved Budget.
