DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) AUTHORIZING THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC. TO ACT AS FOREIGN REPRESENTATIVE AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") state as follows in support of this motion (the "Motion"):[2]

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of an order, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit A: (a) authorizing, but not directing, THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC. ("TCP, INC.") to act as foreign representative on behalf of the Debtors' estates pursuant to section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) granting related relief.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

[2] A detailed description of the Debtors and their business, including the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Rudolph Morando, Co-Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtors, in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Motion have the meaning ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 1107(a), and 1505 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules 9013-1 and 9013-5 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

Appointment of Foreign Representative

7. As discussed in more detail in the First Day Declaration, the Debtors operate a portion of their brick-and-mortar retail business in Canada. Specifically, The Children's Place

(Canada) LP, its limited partner, TCP Investment Canada I Corp., and its general partner, TCP Investment Canada II Corp., are Canadian entities (together, the "Canadian Debtors") that operate approximately 56 retail locations across nine (9) Canadian provinces. The Children's Place (Canada), LP employs all of the Debtors' Canadian employees and holds almost all of the retail leases for the Debtors' Canadian operations. To protect the Debtors' assets and operations in Canada and ensure coordinated administration of the Debtors' estates, the Debtors intend to seek additional relief in Canada on behalf of the Debtors' estates via an ancillary proceeding (the "Canadian Proceeding") in the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) in Toronto, Canada (the "Canadian Court") pursuant to Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36 (as amended, the "CCAA"). Principally, the purpose of the Canadian Proceeding is to: (a) request that the Canadian Court recognize the Debtors' chapter 11 cases as a "foreign main proceeding" and TCP, INC. as a "foreign representative" under the applicable provisions of the CCAA; (b) request that the Canadian Court lend assistance to this Court in protecting the Debtors' assets, operations, and property in Canada, including by granting a stay of proceedings in respect of the Debtors and their assets and property in Canada that extends to the exercise of self-help remedies by landlords, utility providers, and other parties following the commencement of these chapter 11 cases; and (c) seek any other appropriate relief and protections from the Canadian Court that TCP, INC. deems just and proper in the furtherance of the protection of the Debtors' estates.

8. To commence the Canadian Proceeding, the Debtors require authority for a Debtor entity to act as the "foreign representative"[3] on behalf of the Debtors' estates (the "Foreign

[3] A "foreign representative" is defined in section 45(1) of the CCAA to mean "a person or body, including one appointed on an interim basis, who is authorized, in a foreign proceeding in respect of a debtor company, to (a) monitor the debtor company's business and financial affairs for the purpose of reorganization; or (b) act as a Representative"). Therefore, the Debtors request authority to appoint TCP, INC., the ultimate parent of the Canadian Debtors, as such Foreign Representative.

9. More specifically, section 46 of the CCAA provides in part:

> (1) Application for recognition of a foreign proceeding. — A foreign representative may apply to the court for recognition of the foreign proceeding in respect of which he or she is a foreign representative.
> (2) Documents that must accompany application. — . . . the application must be accompanied by . . . (b) a certified copy of the instrument, however designated, authorizing the foreign representative to act in that capacity or a certificate from the foreign court affirming the foreign representative's authority to act in that capacity . . .

CCAA, R.S.C., c. C-36, § 46 (1985) (Can.).

10. Accordingly, for TCP, INC. to seek recognition as the Foreign Representative in the Canadian Proceeding and thereby apply to have the Debtors' chapter 11 cases recognized by the Canadian Court, this Court must enter an order authorizing TCP, INC. to act as the Foreign Representative in the Canadian Proceeding. If the order is granted, TCP, INC. will be able to file a certified copy of the order with the Canadian Court as the instrument authorizing TCP, INC. to act as the Foreign Representative pursuant to sections 45 and 46 of the CCAA.

11. To protect the Debtors' assets, operations, and property in Canada pending entry of an order from this Court authorizing TCP, INC. to act as the Foreign Representative, TCP, INC., will seek an emergency stay of proceedings in Canada from the Canadian Court, in its capacity as the proposed Foreign Representative, contemporaneously with the filing of this Motion.

Basis for Relief Requested

12. Section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "[a] trustee or another entity (including an examiner) may be authorized by the court to act in a foreign country on behalf of an estate created under section 541. An entity authorized to act under this section may act in any way permitted by the applicable foreign law." 11 U.S.C. § 1505. Further, section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that "a debtor in possession shall have all the rights…and powers, and shall perform all the functions and duties…of a trustee serving in a case under this chapter." 11 U.S.C. § 1107(a).

13. The Debtors submit that sections 1505 and 1107 of the Bankruptcy Code confer upon TCP, INC., as a debtor in possession, sufficient rights, powers, and duties to act as the Foreign Representative of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Proceeding. To avoid any possible confusion or doubt regarding this authority and to comply with the requirements of section 46 of the CCAA, the Debtors seek entry of an order, pursuant to section 1505 of the Bankruptcy Code, explicitly authorizing TCP, INC. to act as the Foreign Representative of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Proceeding.

14. Authorizing TCP, INC. to act as the Foreign Representative on behalf of the Debtors' estates in the Canadian Proceeding will allow for coordination between these chapter 11 cases and the Canadian Proceeding and provide an effective mechanism to protect and maximize the value of the Debtors' assets and estates. Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their businesses and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

7. Information regarding the Debtors' history and business operations, capital structure and primary secured indebtedness, and the events leading up to the commencement of these chapter 11 cases can be found in the First Day Declaration, which is incorporated herein by reference.

(s) If these chapter 11 cases are converted to cases under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, contacting the Clerk's office within three (3) days of the Claims and Noticing Agent receiving notice of entry of the order converting the cases;

(t) Thirty (30) days prior to the close of these chapter 11 cases, to the extent practicable, requesting that the Debtors submit to the Court a proposed order dismissing the Claims and Noticing Agent and terminating its services in such capacity upon completion of its duties and responsibilities and upon the closing of these chapter 11 cases;

(u) Within seven (7) days of notice to the Claims and Noticing Agent of entry of an order closing these chapter 11 cases, providing to the Court the final version of the Claims Registers as of the date immediately before the close of the chapter 11 cases; and

(v) At the close of these chapter 11 cases, boxing and transporting all original documents, in proper format, as provided by the Clerk, to (i) the Philadelphia Federal Records Center, located at 14700 Townsend Road, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania 19154, or (ii) any other location requested by the Clerk.

13. The Claims Registers shall be open to the public for examination without charge during regular business hours and on a case-specific website maintained by Omni.

Professional Compensation

14. The Debtors propose to compensate Omni for the Claims and Noticing Services in accordance with the rate schedule attached to the Services Agreement (the "Rate Schedule"). The Debtors respectfully request that the undisputed fees and expenses incurred by the Claims and Noticing Agent in the performance of the Claims and Noticing Services be treated as administrative expenses of the Debtors' chapter 11 estates pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) and section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code and be paid in the ordinary course of business without further application to or order of the Court.

15. Omni agrees to maintain records of all services, including dates, categories of services, fees charged, and expenses incurred. Omni further agrees to serve monthly invoices on (a) the Debtors, (b) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey (the "U.S. Trustee"), (c) counsel for the Debtors, (d) counsel for any official committee appointed to monitor the expenses of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, and (g) any party in interest who specifically requests service of the monthly invoices. If any dispute arises relating to the Services Agreement or the monthly invoices, the parties shall meet and confer in an attempt to resolve the dispute. If a resolution is not achieved, the parties may seek resolution of the matter from the Court.

16. Prior to the Petition Date, the Debtors provided Omni a retainer in the amount of $50,000. Omni seeks to first apply the retainer to all prepetition invoices and, thereafter, to hold the retainer during these chapter 11 cases as security for the payment of fees and expenses incurred under the Services Agreement.

17. Additionally, under the terms of the Services Agreement, the Debtors have agreed to indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Omni and its affiliates, members, directors, officers, employees, consultants, subcontractors, and agents under certain circumstances specified in the Services Agreement, except in circumstances resulting solely from Omni's gross negligence, willful misconduct, bad faith, or actual fraud or as otherwise provided in the Services Agreement or any order of this Court. The Debtors believe that such an indemnification obligation is customary, reasonable, and necessary to retain the services of a claims and noticing agent in these chapter 11 cases.

Disinterestedness

18. Although the Debtors do not propose to employ Omni under section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code pursuant to this Application, Omni has nonetheless reviewed its electronic database to determine whether it has any relationships with the creditors and parties in interest provided by the Debtors, and the Debtors have been advised that, to the best of Omni's knowledge, information, and belief, subject to the Deutch Declaration, Omni has represented that it neither holds nor represents any interest materially adverse to the Debtors' estates in connection with any matter on which it would be employed.

19. Moreover, in connection with its retention as Claims and Noticing Agent, Omni represents in the Deutch Declaration, among other things, that:

(a) Omni is not a creditor of the Debtors;

(b) Omni is a "disinterested person," as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, with respect to the matters upon which it is to be engaged;

(c) Omni will not consider itself employed by the United States government and shall not seek any compensation from the United States government in its capacity as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases;

(d) by accepting employment in these chapter 11 cases, Omni waives any rights to receive compensation from the United States government in connection with these chapter 11 cases;

(e) in its capacity as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, Omni will not be an agent of the United States and will not act on behalf of the United States;

(f) Omni will not employ any past or present employees of the Debtors in connection with its work as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases;

(g) in its capacity as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, Omni will not intentionally misrepresent any fact to any person;

(h) Omni shall be under the supervision and control of the Clerk with respect to the receipt and recordation of claims and claim transfers;

(i) Omni will comply with all requests of the Clerk and the guidelines promulgated by the Judicial Conference of the United States for the implementation of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c); and

(j) none of the services provided by Omni as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases shall be at the expense of the Clerk.

20. Omni will supplement its disclosure to the Court if any facts or circumstances are discovered that would require such additional disclosure.

Basis for Relief Requested

I. Retention and Employment of Omni as Claims and Noticing Agent Is Permitted.

21. Bankruptcy Rule 2002 generally regulates what notices must be given to creditors and other parties in interest in bankruptcy cases. Fed. R. Bankr. P. 2002. Under Bankruptcy Rule 2002(f), the Court may direct that some person other than the Clerk give notice of the various matters described below. Moreover, section 156(c) of title 28 of the United States Code, which governs the staffing and expenses of a bankruptcy court, authorizes the Court to use "facilities" or "services" other than the Clerk for administration of bankruptcy cases. 28 U.S.C. § 156(c). Specifically, the statute states, in relevant part:

> Any court may utilize facilities or services, either on or off the court's premises, which pertain to the provision of notices, dockets, calendars, and other administrative information to parties in cases filed under the provisions of title 11, United States Code, where the costs of such facilities or services are paid for out of the assets of the estate and are not charged to the United States. The utilization of such facilities or services shall be subject to such conditions and limitations as the pertinent circuit council may prescribe.

28 U.S.C. § 156(c).

22. Due to the size of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors anticipate that many thousands of entities will need to be noticed. Accordingly, Bankruptcy Rule 2002 and section 156(c) of title 28 of the United States Code empower the Court to utilize outside agents and facilities for notice and claims purposes, provided that the Debtors' estates bear the cost of such services.

23. For the foregoing reasons, the Debtors believe that the retention of Omni as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases is necessary and in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, creditors, and all parties in interest. Furthermore, the fees and expenses that would be incurred by Omni under the proposed engagement would be administrative in nature and, therefore, should not be subject to standard fee application procedures of professionals.

24. By separate application, the Debtors intend to seek authorization to retain and employ Omni as the administrative agent in these chapter 11 cases, pursuant to section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, because the administration of these chapter 11 cases will require Omni to perform duties outside the scope of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) and the Claims and Noticing Agent Retention Protocol.

II. Relief Effective as of the Petition Date Is Appropriate.

25. Pursuant to the Debtors' request, Omni has agreed to serve as the Claims and Noticing Agent on and after the Petition Date with assurances that the Debtors would seek approval of its employment and retention effective as of the Petition Date, so that Omni may be compensated for its services prior to approval of this Application. Such relief is appropriate in light of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) and the Claims and Noticing Agent Retention Protocol and in order to relieve the Court and the Clerk's office of the heavy administrative burdens these chapter 11 cases stand to impose. The Debtors believe that no party in interest will be prejudiced by granting the employment effective as of the Petition Date, as provided in this Application, because Omni has provided and continues to provide valuable services to the Debtors' estates in the interim period. In light of the number of anticipated claimants and the complexity of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors submit that the appointment of a Claims and Noticing Agent is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates, their creditors, and all parties in interest.

Compliance with the Claims and Noticing Agent Retention Protocol

26. This Application complies with the Claims and Noticing Agent Retention Protocol, in that the Debtors have obtained and reviewed engagement proposals from at least two (2) other Court-approved claims and noticing agents to ensure selection through a competitive process. The Debtors and their counsel submit that Omni was selected as the claims and noticing agent after the review and competitive comparison of three (3) proposals. Moreover, the Debtors submit, based on all engagement proposals obtained and reviewed, that Omni's rates are competitive and reasonable given Omni's quality of services and expertise.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) Are Satisfied

27. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) empowers a court to grant relief within the first twenty-one (21) days after the Petition Date to the extent that "relief is needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(a). As set forth in this Application, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors' operations. The appointment of the Claims and Noticing Agent is vital to a smooth transition into chapter 11. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that they have satisfied the "immediate and irreparable harm" standard of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 to support the relief requested herein.

Request for Waiver of Stay

28. To the extent that the relief sought in this Application constitutes a use of property under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek a waiver of the fourteen-day stay under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h). Further, to the extent applicable, the Debtors request that the Court find that the provisions of Bankruptcy Rule 6003 are satisfied. As explained herein, the relief requested in this Application is immediately necessary so that the Claims and Noticing Agent can immediately commence work on time-sensitive matters and promptly devote resources to these chapter 11 cases.

Reservation of Rights

29. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Application or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Application is intended or should be construed as: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Application or any order granting the relief requested by this Application; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in this Application are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. If the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

No Prior Request

30. No prior request for the relief sought in this Application has been made to this Court or any other court.

Notice

31. The Debtors will provide notice of this Application to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions, as Prepetition Term Loan Agent; (e) counsel to Mithaq Capital SPC, as prepetition unsecured lender; (f) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (h) the Internal Revenue Service; (i) the Canada Revenue Agency; and (j) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request that the Court enter an order, in substantially the form submitted herewith, granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as is just and proper under the circumstances.

In re: THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC., et al., Debtors.[1]	Chapter 11 Case No. 26-22682 (SLM) (Joint Administration Requested)

The relief set forth on the following pages, numbered three (3) through ten (10), is ORDERED.

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtor's federal tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. The location of the Debtors' service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094.

Upon the Debtors' Application for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Appointment of Omni Agent Solutions, Inc. as Claims and Noticing Agent Effective as of the Petition Date and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Application")[2] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), for entry of an order (this "Order") authorizing the Debtors to appoint Omni Agent Solutions, Inc. ("Omni") as claims and noticing agent in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases (the "Claims and Noticing Agent") pursuant to section 156(c) of title 28 of the United States Code, section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court's General Order Governing Protocol for the Retention of Claims and Noticing Agents Under 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) Pending Adoption of Local Rule (the "Claims and Noticing Agent Retention Protocol"), and the terms of the Services Agreement, effective as of the Petition Date, all as more fully set forth in the Application; and upon the First Day Declaration, the Morando Declaration, and the Deutch Declaration; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Application and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11 of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Application in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that it may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Application was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Application and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"), if any; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Application and at the Hearing, if any, establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Application is GRANTED as set forth herein.

2. The terms of the Services Agreement are approved as provided herein subject to the terms of this Order.

3. Any objections to the entry of this Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

4. The Debtors are authorized pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) to retain Omni as Claims and Noticing Agent, effective as of the Petition Date, pursuant to the terms of the Services Agreement, in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, as modified by this Order, and Omni is authorized and directed to perform noticing services and to receive, maintain, record, and otherwise administer the proofs of claim filed in these chapter 11 cases, and all related tasks, all as described in the Application (collectively, the "Claims and Noticing Services").

5. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Application, the Morando Declaration, the Deutch Declaration, the Services Agreement, or this Order, any services Omni will provide relating to the Debtors' Schedules shall be limited to administrative and ministerial services. The Debtors shall remain responsible for the content and accuracy of their Schedules.

6. Omni shall serve as the custodian of Court records and shall be designated as the authorized repository for all proofs of claim filed in these chapter 11 cases and is authorized and directed to maintain official claims registers for each of the Debtors and to provide the Clerk with a certified duplicate thereof upon the request of the Clerk. The Clerk shall provide Omni with Electronic Case Filing ("ECF") credentials that allow the Claims and Noticing Agent to receive ECF notifications, file certificates, and/or affidavits of service. To the extent any government or nongovernment claimant files a proof of claim with the Court via CM/ECF or manually with the Clerk, as opposed to with Omni, such filings will be deemed timely if filed by the applicable bar date set by the Court.

7. Omni is authorized and directed to provide public access to every proof of claim unless otherwise ordered by the Court, to obtain a post office box or address for the receipt of proofs of claim, and to provide an electronic interface for filing proofs of claim.

8. Omni is authorized to take such other action to comply with all duties set forth in the Application.

9. Omni is authorized to provide noticing services in these chapter 11 cases to the U.S. Trustee.

10. Omni shall maintain records of all services performed, showing dates, categories of services, fees charged, and expenses incurred, and shall serve monthly invoices on (a) the Debtors, (b) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey (the "U.S. Trustee"), (c) counsel for the Debtors, (d) counsel for any official committee appointed to monitor the expenses of the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, and (g) any party in interest who specifically requests service of the monthly invoices.

11. Parties shall have ten (10) days from receipt of the invoice to review such invoice and raise any objections, either formally through the filing of an objection with the Court or informally through a writing served on Omni, to the fees and expenses being requested by Omni. If an objection is interposed, the parties shall meet and confer in an attempt to resolve any dispute which may arise relating to the Services Agreement or Omni's monthly invoices; provided that the parties may seek resolution of the matter from the Court if such efforts prove unsuccessful. If no objection has been raised, the Debtors are authorized to pay Omni the full amount of the requested fees and expenses upon expiration of the ten (10) day review without further order of the Court. If an objection has been raised, the Debtors may not pay the objected to amount pending agreement of the parties or entry of an order of this Court authorizing payment. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Services Agreement, no late charges shall accrue on any invoices.

12. Pursuant to section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, the fees and expenses of Omni under this Order shall be an administrative expense of the Debtors' estates. Omni may apply its retainer to all prepetition invoices, and, thereafter, Omni may hold the retainer under the Services Agreement during these chapter 11 cases as security for the payment of fees and expenses incurred under the Services Agreement. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Application, the Morando Declaration, the Deutch Declaration, the Services Agreement, or this Order, section II(g) of the Services Agreement concerning the replenishment of the retainer is null and void during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases.

13. The indemnification, contribution, and reimbursement provisions in the Services Agreement are approved, subject to the following modifications, applicable during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases:

a. Omni shall not be entitled to indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement pursuant to the Services Agreement unless such services and the indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement therefor are approved by this Court.

b. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Services Agreement, the Debtors shall have no obligation to indemnify Omni, or provide contribution or reimbursement to Omni, for any claim or expense that is either: (i) judicially determined (the determination having become final) to have arisen from Omni's gross negligence, willful misconduct, bad faith, self-dealing, or actual fraud; (ii) for a contractual dispute in which the Debtors allege the breach of Omni's contractual obligations under the Services Agreement, unless this Court determines that indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement would be permissible under In re United Artists Theatre Co., 315 F.3d 217 (3d Cir. 2003); or (iii) settled prior to a judicial determination under subsection (i) or (ii), but determined by this Court, after notice and a hearing, to be a claim or expense for which Omni should not receive indemnity, contribution, or reimbursement under the terms of the Services Agreement, as modified by this Order.

c. If, before the earlier of the entry of an order (a) confirming a chapter 11 plan in these chapter 11 cases (that order having become a final order no longer subject to appeal) or (b) closing these chapter 11 cases, Omni believes that it is entitled to the payment of any amounts by the Debtors on account of the Debtors' indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement obligations under the Services Agreement (as modified by this Order), including, without limitation, the advancement of defense costs, Omni must file an application therefor in this Court, and the Debtors may not pay any such amounts to Omni before the entry of an order by this Court approving the payment, and any such payment shall be subject to any financing order. This paragraph is intended only to specify the period of time under which this Court shall have jurisdiction over any request for fees and expenses by Omni for indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement, and is not intended to limit the duration of the Debtors' obligation to indemnify Omni. All parties in interest shall retain the right to object to any demand by Omni for indemnification, contribution, or reimbursement.

14. Omni shall comply with all requests of the Clerk and the guidelines promulgated by the Judicial Conference of the United States for the implementation of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c).

15. In the event Omni is unable to provide the Claims and Noticing Services, Omni shall immediately notify the Clerk and the Debtors' counsel and, upon approval of this Court, shall cause all original proofs of claim and computer information to be turned over to another claims and noticing agent with the advice and consent of the Clerk and the Debtors' counsel.

16. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Application, the Morando Declaration, the Deutch Declaration, this Order, or the Services Agreement, Omni shall provide at least thirty (30) days' prior written notice of any increases in its billing rates, subject to the parties in interest's right to object to any such increases.

17. The Debtors may submit a separate retention application, pursuant to section 327(a) of the Bankruptcy Code or any applicable law, for work that is to be performed by Omni but is not specifically authorized by this Order.

18. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Application, the Morando Declaration, the Deutch Declaration, this Order, or the Services Agreement, during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, if any advance payment is expected to exceed $7,500 as set forth in section II(d) of the Services Agreement, Omni shall receive pre-authorization from the Debtors or their counsel.

19. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Application, the Morando Declaration, the Deutch Declaration, this Order, or the Services Agreement, in the event that any of these chapter 11 cases convert to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code, the chapter 7 trustee appointed to such case or cases shall have no obligation to continue the engagement of Omni.

20. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Application, the Morando Declaration, the Deutch Declaration, this Order, or the Services Agreement, including section VII of the Services Agreement, the Court is not authorizing Omni to establish financial accounts with financial institutions on behalf of the Debtors.

21. Omni shall not cease providing claims processing services during these chapter 11 cases for any reason, including nonpayment, without an order of this Court, provided, however, that Omni may seek such relief on an expedited basis.

22. Nothing in this Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

23. In the event of any inconsistency between the Services Agreement, the Application, the Morando Declaration, the Deutch Declaration, and this Order, the terms of this Order shall govern.

24. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Order in accordance with the Application.

25. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

26. Notice of the Application as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Application, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules") are satisfied by such notice.

27. The Debtors shall serve by regular mail a copy of this Order and the Application on all parties required to receive such service pursuant to Local Rule 9013-5(f) within forty-eight (48) hours after entry of this Order.

28. Any party may move for modification of this Order in accordance with Local Rule 9013-5(e).

29. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in the Application, the Morando Declaration, the Deutch Declaration, this Order, or any term in the Services Agreement, this Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Order.

(b) The Companies understand that to assist or enable Omni to provide the Services, Omni will engage in communications with various persons acting on the Companies' behalf (each, a "Companies Party").[2] The Companies represent to Omni and agree that any and all requests, advice, information or direction which a Companies Party provides to or makes of Omni is expressly authorized by the Companies, that Omni may rely upon the accuracy and completeness of the information provided without any obligation to further verify it, and that the Companies shall be bound by any and all requests, advice, information or direction made.

(c) The Companies understand that Omni is not being retained to provide any legal or financial advice and that none of Omni's communications with a Companies Party or any other party constitutes legal or financial advice.

II. RATES

(a) The Companies agree to pay Omni for all fees, charges and costs for Services provided on their behalf in the amounts set forth in the schedule attached hereto as Exhibit "A"

[1] Upon the filing of one or more chapter 11 petitions, the term "Companies" shall thereafter mean and include each of the filing parties, in their individual capacities as debtors and debtors in possession, together with any other entities whose chapter 11 cases are jointly administered with the filing parties' case(s). Each of the Companies shall be jointly and severally liable for all fees and costs incurred hereunder.

[2] Unless otherwise agreed upon, a Companies Party includes the Companies' managers, general partners, officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives, counsel, consultants and/or any other party with whom the Companies authorize to engage in a communication with Omni.

(the "Rate Schedule"). In addition to the foregoing, Omni has agreed to provide the Companies with (i) a $20,000 discount on prepetition fees (contingent upon the filing of at least one of the Companies' chapter 11 cases), (ii) a twenty (20%) percent discount on hourly rates, and (iii) those additional terms and concessions annexed hereto and made a part hereof, as Exhibit "B".

(b) Omni may invoice the Companies monthly for the Services it provided during the preceding calendar month consistent with the applicable Rate Schedule. All invoices are due and payable upon receipt. Invoices must be submitted as a separate .pdf file to tcp@aspen360mail.com or mailed to The Children's Place Invoice Processing Center, P.O. Box 310, Broadway, New Jersey 08808. Each invoice must include The Children's Place representative's name, contact details, and purchase order number. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, in the event the Companies file one or more chapter 11 petitions, any payment made to Omni will be in accordance with applicable bankruptcy law and orders of the bankruptcy court.

(c) In the case of a dispute of any portion of an invoice, the Companies shall give written notice to Omni within thirty (30) days of receipt of the invoice as to the charges disputed and the basis thereof. The undisputed portion of the invoice will remain due and payable in accordance with Section II(b).

(d) Omni may require an advance or direct payment from the Companies of an reasonable and documented individual expense, or a group of related expenses, which are expected to exceed $7,500 (e.g., publication notice); provided that prior to incurring any such expense that will exceed $7,500, Omni shall receive pre-authorization from the Companies or their counsel (email being sufficient).

(e) The Companies shall pay or reimburse all taxes applicable to services performed under this Agreement and, specifically, taxes based on disbursements made on behalf of the Companies, notwithstanding how such taxes may be designated, levied, or based. This provision is intended to include sales, use, and excise taxes, among other taxes, but is not intended to include personal property taxes or taxes based on net income of Omni.

(f) The Companies shall pay to Omni all actual charges (including documented fees, costs and expenses as set forth in the then effective Rate Schedule) related to, arising out of, or resulting from, any error or omission made by the Companies including, without limitation, print or copy re-runs, supplies, long distance phone calls, travel expenses and overtime expenses. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or the Rate Schedule, the Companies shall have no obligation to pay or reimburse any cost or expense incurred by Omni (including postage, publication, printing, delivery, telephone, travel, and third-party or outsourced services) unless such cost or expense is consistent with the Rate Schedule and supported by documentation reasonably acceptable to the Companies.

(g) Upon execution of this Agreement, the Companies shall pay Omni a retainer of $50,000 (the "Retainer") so as to be received by Omni no later than two (2) business days prior to the commencement of any chapter 11 case filed by one or more of the Companies. Omni may use the Retainer against all reasonable and documented prepetition fees and expenses, which Retainer shall then be replenished as soon as reasonably practicable by the Companies to its original amount. At Omni's discretion, the Retainer may then be applied to the payment of the final invoice from Omni under and pursuant to this Agreement (the "Final Invoice"), or to any other invoice. Except with respect to the Final Invoice, upon notice from Omni to the Companies of the application of some or all of the Retainer, the Companies shall replenish the Retainer as soon as reasonably practicable to its original amount. Omni shall return to the Companies any amount of the Retainer that remains following application of the Retainer to the payments of unpaid fees and expenses hereunder.

(h) Payments to Omni for services rendered under the terms of this Agreement may be remitted using either or both of the following methods:

(i) Wire Transmission

(Omni's wire information will be included on each monthly invoice)

III. RETENTION

(a) The Agreement is effective immediately upon its execution by the parties; provided, however, that it shall be subject to, if and when applicable, the terms of any order entered approving the engagement of Omni by the Companies in the Companies' chapter 11 proceeding(s).

(b) If the Companies commence one or more chapter 11 cases pursuant to the Code, then as soon as is practicable, but in no event more than thirty (30) days after such case or cases are commenced, the Companies shall use commercially reasonable efforts to obtain bankruptcy court approval to retain Omni as their claims and noticing agent pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c), and as its administrative agent pursuant to section 327(a) of the Code for all Services that fall outside the scope of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c). The form and substance of any application concerning Omni's retention and any order setting forth its terms are subject to Omni's approval which shall not be unreasonably withheld. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, if the bankruptcy court does not enter an order approving Omni's retention pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156 (c) or section 327 of the Code, this Agreement will be terminated effective immediately.

IV. TERM

(a) Except as provided herein, the Agreement will remain in effect until terminated: (a) on a mutually agreed upon date as set forth in a writing executed by both parties; (b) on a date of no less than thirty (30) days from the date written notice is provided by one party to the other; (c) by the Companies for cause ("Cause") which, for purposes of this Agreement, shall mean that Omni has acted in bad faith, with gross negligence, or engaged in willful misconduct that results in material harm to the Companies' effort and ability to restructure in their chapter 11 cases; or (d)

by Omni upon the Companies' material breach of any term herein with advance written notice to the Companies. If Omni's engagement has been already approved by the bankruptcy court, then Omni shall continue to perform the Services until the entry of an order by the bankruptcy court, in a form and substance satisfactory to Omni, whose consent will not be unreasonably withheld, providing for the terms and conditions of its discharge, including date of termination.

(b) Upon its termination, Omni shall provide the Companies with all materials Omni is required to return to the Companies under the terms of this Agreement as well as all in-process deliverables in their then-current state of completion for Services which Omni provided prior to the effective date of the termination promptly after such termination; provided that Omni may withhold in-process deliverables (but not the Companies' Data, the claims register, or any other records required to be maintained or transferred under applicable law, court order, or clerk's office instructions) pending payment of undisputed sums then due and attributable to such Services, to the extent payment is not restricted by applicable bankruptcy law or court order. Omni shall coordinate with the Companies and, to the extent applicable, the clerk of the bankruptcy court, to maintain an orderly transfer of record keeping functions, shall provide the necessary staff and assistance required for an orderly transfer, and the Companies agree to pay all sums, at the rates set forth in the Rate Schedule, which may become due in connection therewith. Without limiting the foregoing, upon the Companies' written request made at any time during the term of this Agreement or within ninety (90) days after its termination, Omni shall deliver to the Companies and/or the Companies' retained professionals at the Companies' sole expense, at the rates set forth in the Rate Schedule, any or all of the Companies' Data and other non-proprietary data and records held by Omni pursuant to this Agreement, in the form requested by the Companies.

V. CONFIDENTIALITY

Omni and the Companies, on behalf of themselves and on behalf of each Companies Party, agree to keep confidential all non-public records, systems, procedures, software and other information received from the other party in connection with the Services provided under this Agreement, including, without limitation, financial information, customer information, inventions, trade secrets, business and product plans, source code, agreement terms and conditions, personally identifiable information, and any non-public information a reasonable person would understand to be confidential (collectively, "Confidential Information"). All information created in performance of the Services is the Companies' Confidential Information. The receiving party shall protect the disclosing party's Confidential Information using procedures no less restrictive than those used for its own confidential information of similar sensitivity (and in no event less than reasonable care). The receiving party agrees to keep confidential all Confidential Information, except if any of such information: (a) is then or thereafter becomes publicly available, other than by breach by the receiving party; (b) is already in the receiving party's possession or known to it and was received from a third party that, to the knowledge of the receiving party, does not have a duty of confidentiality to the disclosing party; (c) was independently developed without use of the disclosing party's Confidential Information; (d) is lawfully obtained from a third party who, to the knowledge of the receiving party, does not have a duty of confidentiality to the disclosing party; or (e) is subject to production or revelation pursuant to an order of any court, governmental agency or other regulatory body, arbitrator or subpoena, it may, to the extent legally permitted and upon not less than ten (10) calendar days written notice to the other party (or such shorter notice as is practicable) to allow the other party an opportunity to contest such disclosure, release only the required information. Omni shall use the Companies' Confidential Information solely to perform the Services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Companies may disclose this Agreement and its terms (i) to the bankruptcy court, the Office of the United States Trustee, any statutory committee, and other parties in interest in connection with Omni's retention or as otherwise required in the Companies' chapter 11 case(s), and (ii) to their legal, financial, and other professional advisors who are bound by confidentiality obligations. The obligations of confidentiality under this Section V shall survive for a period of two (2) years following the termination of this Agreement, provided that obligations with respect to trade secrets shall survive indefinitely.

VI. OMNI'S PROPERTY RIGHTS

(a) The parties understand and agree that any and all software programs or other materials furnished by Omni pursuant to this Agreement or used by Omni to provide the Services during the term of this Agreement ("Omni's Property") are Omni's sole and exclusive property. Without limiting the foregoing, Omnis Property includes data processing programs, specifications, applications, routines, documentation, ideas, concepts, know-how or techniques relating to data processing or Omni's performance of Services. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Omni's Property shall not include the Companies' Data, the Companies' Confidential Information, or any claims register, Schedules and SOFA, ballots, tabulations, notices, or other case records or deliverables prepared for the Companies, all of which shall be the property of the Companies (or, as applicable, the official records of the bankruptcy court). Omni reserves the right to make changes in operating procedure, operating systems, programming languages, general purpose library programs, application programs, time of accessibility, types of terminals and other equipment, and the Omni database serving the Companies, so long as any such changes do not materially interfere with ongoing Services provided to the Companies in connection with the Companies' pending bankruptcy cases.

(b) The Companies acknowledge and agree that regardless of any sums it has been charged or has paid to Omni, it obtains no rights or ownership whatsoever in any of Omni's Property and that their use by the Companies is limited to enabling Omni to provide the Services hereunder.

VII. BANK ACCOUNTS

At the written request of the Companies, Omni is authorized to establish account(s) with financial institutions in the name of and/or as agent for the Companies and to manage such account(s) solely in accordance with the Companies' written instructions and any applicable court order, including to facilitate distributions pursuant to a chapter 11 plan or otherwise. All funds held in such account(s) shall remain the property of the Companies (or their estates), shall be held in trust for the Companies, shall not be commingled with Omni's funds, and shall not be subject to any lien, setoff, or recoupment by Omni.

VIII. COMPANIES' DATA

(a) Without limiting any other provision of this Agreement, the Companies represent and warrant to Omni that when a Companies Party provides information to Omni (a) the Companies have all necessary authority to disclose it to Omni and that Omni is fully authorized to use it in connection with its performance of the Services; (b) that the information is materially accurate and complete to the best of the Companies' knowledge at the time of such communication(s); and (c) that Omni has no responsibility whatsoever to verify or otherwise independently confirm the accuracy or completeness of any information, programs, data or instructions it is provided including, without limitation, data it receives in connection with the preparation of the Companies' Schedules and SOFAs. The Companies agree that they shall be deemed to have reviewed and approved any and all Schedules and SOFAs which are filed on their behalf.

(b) Without limiting any other provision of this Agreement, the parties understand and agree that all data, storage media, programs or other materials which are furnished to Omni on their behalf, together with all data compiled or generated by Omni for the Companies in performing the Services (the "Companies' Data"), shall remain the sole property of the Companies, and that the Companies shall remain liable to Omni for all fees and expenses thereafter charged by Omni, at the rates set forth in the Rate Schedule, for maintaining, storing or disposing of any or all of it. Omni agrees that it will dispose of the Companies' Data in a manner requested by or acceptable to the Companies; provided, however, that if Omni has not provided Services to the Companies for a period of ninety (90) days and provides no less than thirty (30) days written notice, Omni may, subject to Section VIII(c), securely dispose of any or all of the Companies' Data in any commercially reasonable manner that renders it unrecoverable, at the Companies' sole expense, and shall certify such disposal in writing upon request. The Companies agree to use commercially reasonable efforts to initiate and maintain backup files that would allow the Companies to regenerate or duplicate all programs, data or information which is provided on their behalf to Omni.

(c) If Omni is retained pursuant to bankruptcy court order, disposal of any of the Companies' Data shall comply with any applicable court orders and rules or clerk's office instructions.

(d) Omni shall (i) use the Companies' Data, including any personal information contained therein, solely to perform the Services, and shall not sell, share, or otherwise disclose it except as required to perform the Services or by applicable law or court order; (ii) not use the Companies' Data to train, fine-tune, or improve any artificial intelligence or machine learning model; (iii) implement and maintain administrative, technical, and physical safeguards consistent with industry standards to protect the Companies' Data against unauthorized access, use, disclosure, alteration, or destruction, including encryption of personal information in transit and at rest; (iv) comply with all applicable data privacy and security laws, and with any order of the bankruptcy court regarding the redaction, sealing, or protection of personal information (including the names and addresses of individual creditors and employees); (v) notify the Companies in writing within twenty-four (24) hours after Omni becomes aware of any actual or reasonably suspected unauthorized access to, or acquisition, use, or disclosure of, the Companies' Data (a "Security Incident") and work with the Companies in a commercially reasonable manner on any investigation or remediation efforts.

IX. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES

Omni represents and warrants that (a) the Services will be performed in a professional and workmanlike manner by qualified personnel, consistent with industry standards for claims, noticing, and administrative agents; (b) Omni will comply with all applicable laws, rules, regulations, court orders, local rules, and clerk's office requirements in performing the Services; (c) Omni has no connection or interest that would preclude its retention under 28 U.S.C. § 156(c) or section 327(a) of the Code, and will promptly disclose any such connection or interest that arises during the term of this Agreement; and (d) Omni shall be responsible for the acts and omissions of its personnel and subcontractors. Except as expressly set forth in this Agreement, Omni makes no other representations or warranties, express or implied, including, without limitation, any express or implied warranty of merchantability, fitness or adequacy for a particular purpose or use, quality, productiveness, or capacity. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if the above disclaimer is not enforceable under applicable law, such disclaimer will be construed by limiting its enforceability to the maximum extent compatible with applicable law.

X. INDEMNIFICATION

(a) To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, the Companies shall indemnify and hold harmless Omni and its members, directors, officers, employees, representatives, affiliates, consultants, subcontractors and agents (each, an "Indemnified Party," and collectively, the "Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all losses, claims, damages, judgments, liabilities and expenses, whether direct or indirect (including, without limitation, counsel fees and expenses) (collectively, "Losses") resulting from, arising out of or related to Omni's performance hereunder. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Losses include any liabilities resulting from claims by any third parties against any Indemnified Party.

(b) Omni and the Companies shall provide notice to the other in writing promptly upon the assertion, threat or commencement of any claim, action, investigation or proceeding that either party becomes aware of with respect to the services provided under and pursuant to the Agreement.

(c) The Companies' indemnification of Omni hereunder shall exclude Losses resulting from Omni's actual fraud, bad faith, gross negligence or willful misconduct.

(d) The Companies' indemnification obligations hereunder shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

XI. LIMITATIONS OF LIABILITY

Except as expressly provided herein, Omni's liability to the Companies for any Losses, unless due to Omni's gross negligence or willful misconduct, shall be limited to the total amount paid by the Companies for the portion of the particular specific task or expense of the Service that gave rise to the alleged Loss. In no event shall Omni's liability to the Companies for any Losses arising out of this Agreement exceed the total amount actually paid to Omni for services provided under and pursuant to this Agreement. Moreover, in no event shall Omni be liable for any indirect, special, or consequential damages (such as loss of anticipated profits or other economic loss) in connection with or arising out of the services provided under and pursuant to this Agreement.

XII. GENERAL

(a) Each party acknowledges that authorized person(s) on its behalf have read Agreement, understands it, and agrees to be bound by its terms. Each party further agrees that it is the complete and exclusive statement of the agreement between the parties, which supersedes and merges all prior proposals, understandings, agreements, and communications between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof.

(b) If any provision of this Agreement shall be held to be invalid, illegal, or unenforceable, the validity, legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions shall in no way be affected or impaired thereby.

(c) This Agreement may be modified only by a writing duly executed by an authorized officer of The Children's Place, Inc. or the Companies' Chief Restructuring Officer, on behalf of the Companies, and an officer of Omni.

(d) This Agreement and the rights and duties hereunder shall not be assignable by the parties hereto except upon written consent of the other; provided, however, that either party may assign this Agreement to a wholly-owned subsidiary or affiliate or to an entity which has succeeded to all or substantially all of the business or assets of a party without the other party's consent, provided that the assigning party provides adequate assurance of performance by the proposed assignee.

(e) This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which will be deemed an original, but all of which shall constitute one and the same agreement. This Agreement will become effective when one or more counterparts have been signed by each of the parties and delivered to the other party, which delivery may be made by exchange of copies of the signature page by fax or email.

(f) Whenever performance by Omni of any of its obligations hereunder is materially prevented or impacted by reason of any act of God, government requirement, strike, lock-out or other industrial or transportation disturbance, fire, flood, epidemic, lack of materials, law, regulation or ordinance, act of terrorism, war or war condition, or by reason of any other matter beyond Omni's reasonable control, then such performance shall be excused, and this Agreement shall be deemed suspended during the continuation of such prevention and for a reasonable time thereafter; provided that Omni shall promptly notify the Companies of any such event, use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate its effects and resume performance (including by implementing its business continuity and disaster recovery plans), and shall not be entitled to fees for Services not performed. If any such event prevents Omni's performance of any material portion of the Services for more than fifteen (15) days, the Companies may, subject to any applicable order of the bankruptcy court, terminate this Agreement upon written notice without further liability other than payment of undisputed amounts for Services performed before termination.

(g) The Companies will use their commercially reasonable efforts to cooperate with Omni at the Companies' facilities if any portion of the Services require Omni's physical presence.

(h) Each party agrees that neither it nor any of its subsidiaries shall directly or indirectly solicit for employment, employ or otherwise retain as employees, consultants or otherwise, any employees of the other party during the term of this Agreement and for a period of six (6) months after termination thereof unless the other party provides prior written consent to such solicitation or retention; provided, however, that the foregoing provisions will not prevent either party from hiring or seeking to hire any such person who responds to general advertising or a general solicitation not targeted to the employees of the other party.

(i) The Companies and Omni are and shall be independent contractors of each other and no agency, partnership, joint venture, or employment relationship shall arise, directly or indirectly, as a result of this Agreement.

(j) The language used in this Agreement will be deemed to be the language chosen by the Companies and Omni to express their mutual intent, and no rule of strict construction will be applied against either party.

(k) In the event that any arbitration legal action, including an action for declaratory relief, is brought to enforce the performance or interpret the provisions of this Agreement, the parties agree that the prevailing party is entitled to be paid all of its reasonable attorneys' fees, court costs, and any other expense reasonably related thereto in the amount which may be set by the court or by an arbitrator, whether in the same action or in a separate action brought for the purpose of establishing such amount, in addition to any other relief to which the prevailing party may be entitled.

(l) The validity, enforceability and performance of this Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of New York.

(m) Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof shall be finally resolved by arbitration administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Commercial Arbitration Rules, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator may be entered in any court having jurisdiction. There shall be one arbitrator named in accordance with such rules. The arbitration shall be conducted in the English language in New York in accordance with the United States Arbitration Act. Notwithstanding the foregoing, during the pendency of any applicable chapter 11 case(s) of the Companies, any disputes related to this Agreement shall be decided by the bankruptcy court with jurisdiction over the chapter 11 case(s).

(n) Omni reserves the right to make changes in operating procedures, operating systems, programming languages, general purpose library programs, application programs, time periods of accessibility, types of terminals and other equipment, and the Omni database serving the Companies, so long as any such changes do not materially interfere with ongoing Services provided to the Companies in connection with the Companies' pending bankruptcy case(s).

(o) All headings used in this Agreement are for convenience of reference only, are not part of this Agreement and shall not affect the construction of, or be taken into consideration in interpreting, this Agreement.

(p) No failure or delay by either party in exercising any right under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver thereof, and no waiver shall be effective unless in writing and signed by the waiving party.

(q) In the event of any conflict between this Agreement and any order of the bankruptcy court approving Omni's retention, such order shall govern. In the event of any conflict between the body of this Agreement and Exhibit "B", Exhibit "B" shall govern, and in the event of any conflict between the Rate Schedule and either the body of this Agreement or Exhibit "B", the body of this Agreement or Exhibit "B", as applicable, shall govern.

(r) During the term of this Agreement and for one (1) year thereafter, Omni shall maintain, at its own expense, with insurers rated A- or better by A.M. Best: (i) professional liability (errors and omissions) insurance with limits of not less than $5,000,000 per claim; (ii) cyber liability and network security insurance with limits of not less than $5,000,000 per claim; (iii) commercial crime or fidelity insurance covering loss of funds held or disbursed on behalf of the Companies, including computer fraud and funds transfer fraud, with limits of not less than $1,000,000, naming the Companies as loss payee; and (iv) commercial general liability insurance with limits of not less than $1,000,000 per occurrence. Omni shall provide certificates of insurance upon request.

(s) Upon the Companies' written notice, Omni shall remove all usage of TCP's logo/trademarks from their websites and/or marketing materials as soon as reasonably possible.

XIII. NOTICING

EXHIBIT

"B"

Omni agrees to limit its fees and expenses to $200,000 (including pre-petition services) based on the anticipated case parameters set forth below (the "Cap"). Omni, the Companies, and their counsel agree to work together in good faith to determine when and if such parameters, scope of requested services, complexity of the engagement, or other assumptions underlying the Cap would require a modification to the amount of the Cap. Omni shall not be entitled to an increase in the Cap on account of any deviation from the assumptions set forth herein due to the actual case parameters, scope of services, or complexity of the engagement unless counsel to the Companies has provided its prior written consent (not to be unreasonably withheld in substance or timing, and email being sufficient) to Omni expanding or modifying its services to address such deviation. If the parameters stated above materially change, the parties will negotiate in good faith on the costs of services that are outside of the scope, and the timing of decisions will not be unreasonably delayed.

Anticipated Case Parameters

(1) bankruptcy case duration of 4 months;
(2) approximately 500 leased locations;
(3) approximately 10,000 current employees;
(4) the Companies will pursue a sale of substantially all of its assets within 45 days of the petition date followed by solicitation of a liquidating chapter 11 plan;
(5) the Companies' financial adviser will lead the preparation of bankruptcy schedules and statements;
(6) reduction of traditional postage and mailing fees/expenses via entry of court order authorizing electronic noticing (absent certain limited exceptions);
(7) estimated creditor matrix size of 50,000 (subject to refinement).

DECLARATION OF PAUL H. DEUTCH IN SUPPORT OF THE DEBTORS' APPLICATION FOR ENTRY OF AN ORDER (I) AUTHORIZING THE APPOINTMENT OF OMNI AGENT SOLUTIONS, INC. AS CLAIMS AND NOTICING AGENT EFFECTIVE AS OF THE PETITION DATE AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

I, Paul H. Deutch, under penalty of perjury, declare as follows:

1. I am the Executive Vice President of Omni Agent Solutions, Inc. ("Omni") whose offices are located in Woodland Hills, California, and New York, New York. I am authorized to submit this declaration (this "Declaration") on behalf of Omni in support of the Debtors' Application for Entry of an Order (I) Authorizing the Appointment of Omni Agent Solutions, Inc. as Claims and Noticing Agent Effective as of the Petition Date and (II) Granting Related Relief filed contemporaneously herewith (the "Application")[2] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (the "Debtors") for entry of an order authorizing the employment and retention of Omni as the Debtors' claims and noticing agent in the above-captioned chapter 11 cases effective as of November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date") pursuant to section 156(c) of title 28 of the United States Code and section 105(a) of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), and to approve the Standard Services Agreement, dated as of November 4, 2026 (the "Services Agreement"). 3. As administrative agent and custodian of the Court records pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c), Omni will perform at the request of the Clerk's office the noticing and claims-related services specified in the Application and Services Agreement. In addition, at the Debtors' request, Omni will perform such other noticing, claims, technical, administrative, and support services as specified in the Application, subject to 28 U.S.C. § 156(c).

4. Before filing these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors paid Omni a retainer of $50,000. Omni seeks to first apply the retainer to all prepetition invoices, thereafter, to have the retainer replenished to the original retainer amount, and thereafter, to hold the retainer during the chapter 11 cases as security for the payment of fees and expenses under the Services Agreement. Following termination of the Services Agreement, Omni will return to the Debtors any amount of

5. Omni will follow procedures that conform to applicable guidelines promulgated by the Clerk and the Judicial Conference, and as may be entered by this Court's order.

6. Omni represents the following:

(a) Omni, its members, and its employees are not and were not, within two years before the filing of these chapter 11 cases, creditors, equity security holders, insiders, or employees of the Debtors;

(b) Omni will not consider itself employed by the United States government and shall not seek any compensation from the United States government in its capacity as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases;

(c) by accepting employment in these chapter 11 cases, Omni waives any rights to receive compensation from the United States government in connection with these chapter 11 cases;

(d) in its capacity as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, Omni will not be an agent of the United States and will not act on behalf of the United States;

(e) Omni will not employ any past or present employees of the Debtors in connection with its work as the Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases;

(f) Omni is a "disinterested person," as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, with respect to the matters upon which it is to be engaged;

(g) in its capacity as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases, Omni will not intentionally misrepresent any fact to any person;

(h) Omni shall be under the supervision and control of the Clerk with respect to the receipt and recordation of claims and claim transfers;

(i) Omni will comply with all requests of the Clerk and the guidelines promulgated by the Judicial Conference of the United States for the implementation of 28 U.S.C. § 156(c); and

(j) none of the services provided by Omni as Claims and Noticing Agent in these chapter 11 cases shall be at the expense of the Clerk.

7. On March 16, 2026, certain funds and accounts managed by affiliates of Fortress Investment Group, LLC ("FIG") made a majority equity investment in Omni. FIG is a leading, highly diversified asset manager headquartered in New York and Dallas that invests across private equity, credit, real estate, and permanent capital strategies for institutional and private clients. FIG, through its investments, owns a majority of Ursa Acquisition Sub, LLC, which in turn wholly owns MMR Advisory Holdings, LLC, which in turn wholly owns Omni. Omni is independently operated by its management team and controlled by its board of directors (the "Board"). The Board has one member who is a representative of FIG.

8. I caused to be submitted for review by Omni's conflicts system the list of names of potential parties-in-interest in these chapter 11 cases (the "Potential Parties in Interest List"), annexed hereto as Schedule 1, which was provided by the Debtors and includes, among other parties, the Debtor, significant equity holders, the Debtors' largest unsecured creditors on a consolidated basis, and the bankruptcy judges sitting in this jurisdiction. In addition, Omni compared the Potential Parties in Interest List to an internal database that includes, among other entities, Omni's parent entities, as well as a list of FIG's active fund investments (in the form most recently provided to Omni by FIG's internal compliance department).

9. At this time, and as set forth in further detail herein, Omni is not aware of any connections that would present a disqualifying conflict of interest. Should Omni discover any new relevant facts or connections bearing on the matters described herein during the period of retention, Omni will use reasonable efforts to promptly file a supplemental declaration.

10. To the best of my knowledge and based solely upon information provided to me by the Debtors and the above-referenced search, and except as provided herein, neither Omni nor FIG have any connections to any entities or individuals listed on the Potential Parties in Interest List. Omni has and will continue to represent clients in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases. In addition, in matters unrelated to these chapter 11 cases, Omni and its personnel have and will continue to have relationships personally or in the ordinary course of business with certain vendors, professionals, financial institutions, and other parties in interest that may be involved in the Debtors' chapter 11 cases. Omni may also provide professional services to entities or persons that may be creditors or parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases, which services do not directly relate to, or have any direct connection with, these chapter 11 cases or the Debtors. To the best of my knowledge, such relationships are materially unrelated to these chapter 11 cases.

11. To the best of my knowledge, none of Omni's professionals are related to bankruptcy judges in the District of New Jersey or any attorney known by Omni to be employed in the Office of the United States Trustee serving the District of New Jersey.

12. To the best of my knowledge, none of Omni's professionals were partners of, or formerly employed within the last three years by, firms that are Potential Parties in Interest or that have filed a notice of appearance in these Chapter 11 Cases. The following firms are included on the Interested Party List: Berkeley Research Group, LLC, White & Case, Kelley Drye & Warren LLP, and Cole Schotz P.C. Upon information and belief, within the last three years Omni has served as claims and noticing agent and/or administrative agent on behalf of debtors or liquidating trusts who have also retained these firms.

13. In addition to the above-referenced search procedures, Omni and FIG have the following restrictions in place in order to preserve Omni's disinterestedness: (i) no FIG personnel work on Omni client matters or have access to Omni client information, client files or client personnel; (ii) no FIG personnel work in Omni's offices; (iii) Omni operates independently from FIG, including that it does not share any employees, officers or other management with FIG, has separate offices in separate buildings, and has separate IT systems; and (iv) no Omni officer or employee is a director, officer or employee of FIG.

14. Omni, FIG and their affiliates, along with their respective personnel in their individual capacities, regularly utilize the services of law firms, investment banking and advisory firms, accounting firms, and financial advisors. Such firms may appear in chapter 11 cases representing the Debtors or parties in interest. To the best of my knowledge, Omni does not currently utilize the services of any law firms, investment banking and advisory firms, accounting firms, or financial advisors who have been identified on the Potential Parties in Interest List or who have filed a notice of appearance in these Chapter 11 cases.

15. Omni is not a party to any agreement where it receives consideration in exchange for transferring information derived from Omni's role as an administrative agent in cases in this district or elsewhere to nonclient third parties. Omni does not have any contract or agreement with any party under which Omni would receive consideration in exchange for providing claims data.

16. Based on the foregoing, I believe that Omni is a "disinterested person" as that term is defined in section 101(14) of the Bankruptcy Code, as modified by section 1107(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, in that Omni and its personnel: (a) are not creditors, equity security holders, or insiders of the Debtors; (b) are not and were not, within two years before the date of filing of these chapter 11 cases, directors, officers, or employees of the Debtors; and (c) do not have an interest materially adverse to the interests of the Debtors' estates or any class of creditors or equity security holders, by reason of any direct or indirect relationship to, connection with, or interest in the Debtors.

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746, I declare under penalty of perjury under the laws of the United States of America that the foregoing is true and correct.

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) ESTABLISHING NOTIFICATION AND HEARING PROCEDURES ON CERTAIN TRANSFERS OF AND DECLARATIONS OF WORTHLESSNESS WITH RESPECT TO COMMON STOCK, AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") state as follows in support of this motion (the "Motion"):[2]

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B (respectively, the "Interim Order" and "Final Order"): (a) establishing notification and hearing procedures, substantially in the form of Exhibit 1 to the Interim Order and the Final Order (the "Procedures"), that must be complied with before certain transfers of and/or declarations of worthlessness with respect to Debtor THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC.'S existing classes of common stock or any Beneficial Ownership[3]

[2] A detailed description of the Debtors and their business, including the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Rudolph Morando, Co-Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtors, in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Motion have the meaning ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration.

[3] For purposes of this Motion and the Procedures: (i) a "Substantial Shareholder" is any entity or individual that has Beneficial Ownership of at least 1,000,668 shares of Common Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock for purposes of section 382 of the Tax Code as of the Petition Date); and (ii) "Beneficial Ownership" will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the Tax Code, and the Treasury Regulations thereunder (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)), and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual's family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). An "Option" to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

therein (any such record or Beneficial Ownership of common stock, collectively, the "Common Stock") in order to protect the potential value of the Debtors' U.S. federal net operating loss carryforwards (including any such carryforwards of any consolidated group of which any Debtor is or was a member) (the "NOLs"), carryforwards of disallowed business interest expense under section 163(j) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Tax Code"), and other tax benefits (collectively, the "Tax Attributes"); and (b) directing that any purchase, sale, other transfer of, or declaration of worthlessness with respect to Common Stock in violation of the procedures set forth herein shall be null and void ab initio; and (c) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 362, and 541 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 2002, 6003, and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules

9013-1, and 9013-5 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

Debtors' Tax Attributes

7. Debtor THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC. ("TCP") is the common parent of an affiliated group of corporations that files a consolidated U.S. federal income tax return (the "Tax Group"). Substantially all of the U.S. federal income Tax Attributes described below are attributable to TCP, which is the "old loss corporation" for purposes of section 382 of the Tax Code. The Debtors currently estimate that they possess the following certain Tax Attributes as of fiscal year end January 31, 2026, (a) U.S. federal NOL carryforwards of approximately $79.1 million, (b) carryforwards of research and development tax credits of approximately $2.5 million, (c) carryforwards of work opportunity tax credits of approximately $804,000, and (d) carryforwards of disallowed business interest expense of approximately $51 million. The Debtors expect to generate additional amounts of Tax Attributes in the 2026 taxable year. The Tax Attributes are valuable assets of the Debtors' estates. The Tax Code generally permits a corporation to carry forward its NOLs, disallowed business interest expense and certain other Tax Attributes to reduce taxable income, thereby reducing the corporation's tax liability in future periods. See 26 U.S.C. §§ 163(j) and 172.

8. Accordingly, absent any existing or intervening limitations and depending on future operating results, the Tax Attributes could significantly reduce the Debtors' U.S. federal income tax liability for current and future periods, including by offsetting any taxable income that may result from transactions consummated during these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, the value of the Tax Attributes will inure to the benefit of all of the Debtors' stakeholders.

I. Potential Limitations on Use of the Debtors' Tax Attributes

9. The Debtors' ability to utilize the Tax Attributes to reduce future tax liability is subject to certain potential statutory limitations. Section 382 of the Tax Code limits the amount of U.S. federal taxable income that can be offset by a corporation's NOL carryforwards, carryforwards of disallowed business interest expense, and certain other Tax Attributes once that corporation has undergone an "ownership change" within the meaning of section 382 of the Tax Code (an "Ownership Change"). Pursuant to section 382 of the Tax Code, an Ownership Change generally occurs when the percentage of a corporation's equity held by one or more of its "5-percent shareholders" (each, as that term is used in section 382 of the Tax Code, a "5-Percent Shareholder") increases by more than fifty (50) percentage points above the lowest percentage of the corporation's equity owned by that shareholder(s) at any time during the relevant testing period (usually three years). See id. § 382(g). An Ownership Change can also occur as a result of a "worthless stock deduction" claimed by any "50-percent shareholders." A fifty (50) percent shareholder is any person (or group of people that is treated as a single entity under applicable rules) that owned fifty (50) percent or more of a corporations stock "at any time during the 3-year period ending on the last day of the taxable year" with respect to which the worthless stock deduction is claimed. Tax Code § 382(g)(4)(D).

10. As of the Petition Date, there were 22,237,067 shares of Common Stock issued and outstanding and entitled to vote and only one person or group was known to the Company to beneficially own more than 5% of its Common Stock: Mithaq Capital SPC, which beneficially owned 13,593,236 shares, representing 61.1% of the class.

11. If an Ownership Change occurs, section 382 of the Tax Code limits the amount of a corporation's future taxable income that may be offset by its "pre-change losses," and section 383 of the Tax Code limits the amount of a corporation's future tax liability that may be offset by its "excess credits," in each case, to an annual amount based on the fair market value of all of the stock of the corporation prior to the Ownership Change multiplied by the long-term tax-exempt rate that applies to the month of the Ownership Change.[4] See Tax Code §§ 382(b) and 383(a). Pre-change losses and excess credits include the Debtors' Tax Attributes and any so-called "realized built-in losses" (as defined in section 382(h)(3) of the Tax Code).[5] Once a Tax Attribute

[4] The applicable long-term tax-exempt rate changes from month to month. For ownership changes occurring in November 2026, the applicable long-term tax-exempt rate is 4.18 percent. See Rev. Rul. 2026-21.

[5] The rules relating to potential limitations on the ability to offset taxable income with so-called realized built-in losses are highly complex and depend on, among other things, the extent (if any) of a debtor's "net unrealized built-in loss." A net unrealized built-in loss is equal to the excess of the aggregate adjusted basis of all of a is limited under section 382 or 383 of the Tax Code, its use may be limited forever.[6] Thus, certain transfers or worthless stock deductions with respect to the Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock effected before the effective date of the Debtors' consummation of the relevant chapter 11 proceedings may trigger an "ownership change" for Tax Code purposes, severely endangering the Debtors' ability to utilize the Tax Attributes, which would cause substantial damage to the Debtors' estates. Notably, the Debtors have limited the relief requested herein to the extent necessary to preserve estate value. Specifically, the proposed Interim Order and Final Order will affect only (a) holders of 4.5 percent or more of Beneficial Ownership with respect to any class (or series) of Common Stock, (b) parties who are interested in purchasing sufficient Common Stock to result in such party becoming a holder of 4.5 percent or more of Beneficial Ownership of any class (or series) of Common Stock, and (c) any "50 percent shareholder" seeking to claim a worthless stock deduction.

12. To maximize the use of the Tax Attributes and enhance recoveries for the Debtors' stakeholders, the Debtors seek limited relief that will enable them to closely monitor certain transfers of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock and certain worthless stock deductions with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock so as to be in a position to act expeditiously to prevent such transfers or worthlessness deductions, if necessary, with the purpose of preserving the Tax Attributes. By establishing and implementing such Procedures, the Debtors will be in a corporation's applicable assets over their fair market value (as determined for purposes of section 382 of the Tax Code) immediately prior to the ownership change. Tax Code § 382(h)(3)(A)(i). Once a net unrealized built-in loss is limited under section 382 or 383 of the Tax Code, its use is limited for 5 years.

6 Realized built-in losses that are deducted beginning after the expiration of a five-year "recognition period" are no longer subject to limitation, but any realized built-in losses that are deducted prior to the expiration of such period are limited forever.

position to object to "ownership changes" that threaten their ability to preserve the value of their Tax Attributes for the benefit of the estates.

II. Proposed Procedures for Transfers of or Declarations of Worthlessness with Respect to Common Stock.

13. The Procedures are the mechanism by which the Debtors propose that they will monitor and, if necessary, object to certain transfers of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock to ensure preservation of Tax Attributes. The Procedures, attached as Exhibit 1 to the Interim Order and Final Order, are detailed below:

a. Procedures for Transfers of Common Stock.

i. Any entity (as defined in section 101(15) of the Bankruptcy Code) that is a Substantial Shareholder must file with the Court, and serve upon the Disclosure Parties (defined below) a declaration of such status, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1A (each, a "Declaration of Status as a Substantial Shareholder"), on or before the later of (A) twenty (20) calendar days after the date of the Notice of Interim Order, or (B) ten (10) calendar days after becoming a Substantial Shareholder; provided, however, that no separate declaration is required if the entity's Substantial Shareholder status and Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock as of the Petition Date are disclosed in this Motion or another Court pleading filed by the Debtors; provided, further that, for the avoidance of doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any Substantial Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a Substantial Shareholder has been filed.

ii. "Disclosure Parties" means (a) the Debtors, 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094, Attn. Kenneth Li; (b) proposed co-counsel to the Debtors, (i) White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of Americas, New York, New York 10020, Attn: Gregory Pesce (gregory.pesce@whitecase.com) and (ii) Cole Schotz P.C., Court Plaza North, 25 Main Street, Hackensack, New Jersey 07601 Attn: Michael Sirota (msirota@coleschotz.com); (c) counsel to Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Prepetition ABL Agent, (i) Choate, Hall and Stewart LLP, Two International Place, Boston, Massachusetts, 02110, Attn.: Kevin J. Simard (ksimard@choate.com) and Michael E. Comerford (mcomerford@choate.com); and (ii) McCarter & English, LLP, Four Gateway Center, 100 Mulberry Street, Newark, New Jersey 07102, Attn.: Joseph Lubertazzi (jlubertazzi@McCarter.com) and Jeffrey Testa (jtesta@mccarter.com); (d) counsel to Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions, as Prepetition Term Loan Agent, (i) Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, One Federal Street, Boston, Massachusetts, 02110, Attn.: Sandra J. Vrejan (sandra.vrejan@morganlewis.com) and Christopher Carter (christopher.carter@morganlewis.com) and (ii) McGrail & Bensinger LLP, 888-C Eighth Avenue, #107, New York, New York, 10019, Attn: Ilana Volkov (ivolkov@mcgrailbensinger.com); and (e) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey, One Newark Center, Suite 2100, Newark, New Jersey 07102, Attn.: Fran B. Steele (fran.b.steele@usdoj.gov) and Aiden Murphy (aiden.murphy@usdoj.gov).

iii. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock that would result in an increase in the amount of Common Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual becoming a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Disclosure Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1B (each, a "Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock").

iv. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock that would result in a decrease in the amount of Common Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual ceasing to be a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Disclosure Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1C (each, a "Declaration of Intent to Transfer Common Stock," and together with a Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock a "Declaration of Proposed Transfer").

v. The Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties shall have twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Proposed Transfer to file with the Court and serve on such Substantial Shareholder or potential Substantial Shareholder an objection to any proposed transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock described in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer on the grounds that such transfer might adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes. If the Debtors or any of the other Disclosure Parties file an objection, such transaction will remain ineffective unless such objection is withdrawn, or such transaction is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court. If the Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties do not object within such twenty (20) day period, such transaction can proceed solely as set forth in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer. Further transactions within the scope of this paragraph must be the subject of additional notices in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, with an additional twenty (20) day waiting period for each Declaration of Proposed Transfer. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Proposed Transfer and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision as soon as is reasonably practicable to counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

vi. For purposes of these Procedures: (i) a "Substantial Shareholder" is any entity or individual that has Beneficial Ownership of at least 1,000,668 shares of Common Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock for purposes of section 382 of the Tax Code as of the Petition Date); and (ii) "Beneficial Ownership" will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the Tax Code, and the Treasury Regulations thereunder (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)), and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual's family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). An "Option" to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

b. Procedures for Declarations of Worthlessness of Common Stock

i. Any person or entity that currently is or becomes a 50-Percent Shareholder[7] must file with the Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a declaration of such status, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1D (each, a "Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder"), on or before the later of (i) twenty (20) calendar days after the date of the Notice of Interim Order and (ii) ten (10) calendar days after becoming a 50-Percent Shareholder; provided, however, that no separate declaration is required if the entity's 50-Percent Shareholder status and Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock as of the Petition Date are disclosed in this Motion or another Court pleading filed by the Debtors; provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any 50-Percent Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a [7] For purposes of the Procedures, a "50-Percent Shareholder" is any person or entity that, at any time since January 1, 2024, has owned Beneficial Ownership of 50 percent or more of the Common Stock (determined in accordance with section 382(g)(4)(D) of the Tax Code and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder).

50-Percent Shareholder has been filed.

ii. Prior to filing any federal or state tax return, or any amendment to such a return, or taking any other action that claims any deduction for worthlessness of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock for a taxable year ending before the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 protection, such 50-Percent Shareholder must file with the Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a declaration of intent to claim a worthless stock deduction (a "Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction"), substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1E.

(1) The Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties shall have twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction to file with the Court and serve on such 50-Percent Shareholder an objection to any proposed claim of worthlessness described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction on the grounds that such claim might adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes.

(2) If the Debtors or the other Disclosure Parties timely object, the filing of the tax return or amendment thereto with such claim will not be permitted unless approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court, unless such objection is withdrawn.

iii. If the Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties do not object within such twenty (20) day period, the filing of the return or amendment with such claim will be permitted solely as described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction. Additional returns and amendments within the scope of this section must be the subject of additional notices as set forth herein, with an additional twenty (20) day waiting period. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision as soon as is reasonably practicable to counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

c. Notice Procedures

i. No later than three (3) business days following entry of the Interim Order, the Debtors shall send the notice substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1F (the "Notice of Interim Order") to: (i) the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (ii) the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; (iii) the Internal Revenue Service; (iv) any official committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases; and (v) to the extent known, each holder of record of Common Stock and all banks, brokers, intermediaries, other nominees, or their mailing agents that hold Common Stock in "street name" for the beneficial holders (with instructions to serve down to the beneficial holders of Common Stock as applicable), and as outlined and in accordance with the noticing procedures from the Motion, submit a copy of the Notice of Interim Order (modified for publication) to The New York Times (national and international editions) and any other local or provincial publication that the Debtors deem appropriate (including, to the extent reasonably practicable, a French language publication), and post the Interim Order and the Procedures to the website established by the Debtors' claims and noticing agent for these chapter 11 cases https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. Additionally, no later than three (3) business days following entry of the Final Order, the Debtors shall serve a Notice of Interim Order modified to reflect that the Final Order has been entered (as modified, the "Notice of Final Order") on the same entities that received Notice of Interim Order.

ii. All registered and Nominee holders of Common Stock shall be required to provide the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, to any holder for whose benefit such registered or Nominee holder holds such Common Stock, down the chain of ownership for all such holders of Common Stock, as applicable.

iii. Any entity or individual, or broker or agent acting on such entity's or individual's behalf who sells Common Stock to another entity or individual, shall be required to serve a copy of the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, on such purchaser of such Common Stock, or any broker or agent acting on such purchaser's behalf.

iv. To the extent confidential information is required in any declaration described in the Procedures, such confidential information may be filed and served in redacted form; provided, however, that any such declarations served on the Debtors shall not be in redacted form. The Debtors shall keep all information provided in such declarations strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any person except: (i) to the extent necessary to respond to a petition or objection filed with the Court; (ii) to the extent otherwise required by law; or (iii) to the extent that the information contained therein is already public; provided, however, that the Debtors may disclose the contents thereof to their professional advisors, who shall keep all such notices strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any other person, subject to further Court order. To the extent confidential information is necessary to respond to an objection filed with the Court, such confidential information shall be filed under seal or in a redacted form.

v. The Debtors may waive in writing any and all restrictions, stays, and notification Procedures contained in the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable.

I. The Tax Attributes are Property of the Debtors' Estates and are Entitled to Court Protection.

14. Section 541 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that property of the estate comprises, among other things, "all legal or equitable interests of the debtor in property as of the commencement of the case." 11 U.S.C. § 541(a)(1). The Tax Attributes are property of the Debtors' estates. Prudential Lines Inc., 928 F.2d 565, 573 (2d Cir. 1991) ("We hold that the right to a carryforward attributable to its . . . NOL was property of [the debtor's] bankruptcy estate."), cert. denied, 502 U.S. 821 (1991); Off. Comm. of Unsecured Creditors v. Forman (In re Forman Enters., Inc.), 273 B.R. 408, 416 (Bankr. W.D. Pa. 2002) (finding that NOLs are property of the debtors' estates); Nisselson v. Drew Indus., Inc. (In re White Metal Rolling & Stamping Corp.), 222 B.R. 417, 424 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1998) (same). In Prudential Lines, the Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York enjoined a parent corporation from taking a worthless stock deduction with respect to its wholly owned debtor subsidiary on the grounds that doing so would destroy its debtor-subsidiary's NOLs. In issuing the injunction, the court held that a "debtor's potential ability to utilize [net operating losses] is property of [the] estate." 107 B.R. at 838.

15. Moreover, section 362(a)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code stays "any act [of a person or entity] to obtain possession of property of the estate or of property from the estate or to exercise control over property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 362(a)(3). Accordingly, any act of a holder of Common Stock that causes the termination or limits use of the NOLs violates the automatic stay. See, e.g., Prudential Lines, 928 F.2d at 574 (holding that causing the termination of or adversely affecting the value of a debtor's NOL violates the automatic stay); In re Phar-Mor, Inc., 152 B.R. 924, 927 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1993) ("the sale of stock is prohibited by § 362(a)(3) as an exercise of control over the NOL, which is property of the estate."); In re Grossman's, Inc., Case No. 97-695 (PJW) (Bankr. D. Del. Oct. 9, 1997) (noting that the debtors' net operating loss carry-forwards are property of the debtors' estates protected by the automatic stay provisions of the Bankruptcy Code). A bankruptcy court may also issue a permanent injunction to protect a debtor's NOLs pursuant to the court's equitable powers under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Prudential Lines, 928 F.2d at 574.

16. Accordingly, because the Debtors' Tax Attributes are property of their estates, this Court has authority under sections 362 and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to enforce the automatic stay by restricting the transfer of Common Stock of the Debtors and claims of worthless stock deductions thereto that would jeopardize the Debtors' ability to fully utilize these valuable assets.

II. The Procedures are Necessary and in the Best Interests of the Debtors, their Estates, and their Creditors.

17. Preserving the availability of the Debtors' Tax Attributes is crucial to avoid the potential incurrence of tax liability during these chapter 11 cases or future tax periods. Consequently, the Debtors believe that the Procedures should be established immediately to ensure that certain transfers of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock and declarations of worthlessness with respect to Common Stock are either precluded or closely monitored and made subject to the Court's approval.

18. The Debtors respectfully submit that the Procedures must be implemented as soon as possible. Even if a transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock or a claim of a worthless stock deduction with respect to Common Stock were to be null and void under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, or as a result of a final order of the Court that prohibited such transfer or deduction retroactively to the Petition Date, under U.S. federal income tax law, such transfer or deduction nevertheless may be regarded as having occurred for tax purposes, in which event the Debtors' estates could suffer an irrevocable loss of value. Accordingly, if such a transfer or deduction occurs that limits the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes under section 382 of the Tax Code, the Debtors' ability to realize the value of their Tax Attributes may be permanently diminished. The relief requested, therefore, is crucial to prevent an irrevocable diminution of the value of the Debtors' estates to the detriment of all of the Debtors' stakeholders.

19. It is in the best interests of the Debtors and their stakeholders to restrict transfers of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock and claims of worthless stock deductions with respect to Common Stock that could result in an Ownership Change before the effective date of any chapter 11 plan or any applicable Court order. These restrictions would permit the Debtors to utilize the Tax Attributes, if necessary, to offset gain or other income recognized in connection with the Debtors' ownership of their assets and operation of their business. For the foregoing reasons, the relief requested herein is necessary, appropriate, and in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and all other parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases.

III. The Requested Relief is Narrowly Tailored.

20. The requested relief does not bar all trading or declarations of worthlessness with respect to the Common Stock. The Debtors seek only to establish procedures enabling them to monitor certain transfers of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock and declarations of worthlessness with respect to Common Stock that pose a serious risk to the Debtors' ability to preserve and utilize their Tax Attributes, so as to preserve the Debtors' ability to seek substantive relief if it appears that a proposed transfer or declaration of worthlessness with respect to Common Stock would jeopardize the use of their Tax Attributes. Because of the Tax Attributes' importance to the Debtors' restructuring and future taxable periods, and thus to all parties in interest, implementation of the requested relief outweighs subjecting a limited number of transfers or declarations of worthlessness with respect to Common Stock to the procedures described above.

21. Moreover, the Debtors submit that the foregoing notice procedures satisfy due process and the strictures of Bankruptcy Rule 9014 by providing the counterparties with a notice and an opportunity to object and attend a hearing. See, e.g., In re Colo. Mountain Cellars, Inc., 226 B.R. 244, 246 (D. Colo. 1998) (noting that hearing is not required to satisfy Bankruptcy Rule 9014). Furthermore, the proposed notice procedures protect the due process rights of the parties in interest.

22. Courts in this district routinely approve relief similar to that requested herein. See, e.g., In re Multi-Color Corp., No. 26-10910 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 3, 2026) (order establishing notice and hearing procedures that must be satisfied before certain transfers of equity interests, or of any beneficial interest therein, could be deemed effective); In re Pretium Packaging, L.L.C., No. 26-10896 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 18, 2026) (same); In re STG Logistics, Inc., No. 26-10258 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026) (same); In re Del Monte Foods Corp. II Inc., No. 25-16984 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Aug. 5, 2025) (same); In re New Rite Aid, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 9, 2025) (same).

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) Are Satisfied

23. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) empowers a court to grant relief within the first twenty-one (21) days after the Petition Date to the extent that "relief is needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(a). As set forth in this Motion, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors' operations. Failure to receive the requested relief during the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture and cause immediate and irreparable harm. The requested relief is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of their operations, and maximize value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm," as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a), and the Court should grant the requested relief.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

24. To the extent that any aspect of the relief sought herein constitutes a use of property under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the fourteen-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

25. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended or should be construed as: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in this Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. If the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Final Hearing

26. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

No Prior Request

27. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this Court or any other court.

Notice

28. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions, as Prepetition Term Loan Agent; (e) counsel to Mithaq Capital SPC, as prepetition unsecured lender; (f) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (h) the Internal Revenue Service; (i) the Canada Revenue Agency; and (j) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request that the Court enter interim and final orders, in substantially the forms submitted herewith, granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as is just and proper under the circumstances.

Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

5. The Debtors' Tax Attributes are property of the Debtors' estates and are protected by section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. 7. Any transfer or declaration of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in violation of the Procedures, including but not limited to the notice requirements, shall be null and void ab initio.

8. In the case of any such transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in violation of the Procedures, including but not limited to the notice requirements, the person or entity making such transfer shall be required to take remedial actions specified by the Debtors, which may include the actions specified in IRS Private Letter Ruling 201010009 (Dec. 4, 2009), to appropriately reflect that such transfer is null and void ab initio.

9. In the case of any such declaration of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in violation of the Procedures, including the notice requirements, the person or entity making such declaration shall be required to file an amended tax return revoking such declaration and any related deduction to appropriately reflect that such declaration is void ab initio.

10. The transfer agent for the Common Stock is ordered and authorized to provide directly to Omni Agent Solution, Inc., the Debtors' claims and noticing agent the list of registered holders of the Common Stock within one (1) business day of entry of this Order.

notice to all parties that may be affected by the Procedures, whether known or unknown, and no further notice of the Procedures shall be necessary.

13. All registered and Nominee holders of Common Stock shall be required to provide the Notice of Interim Order to any holder for whose benefit such registered or Nominee holder holds such Common Stock.

14. To the extent that this Interim Order is inconsistent with any prior order or pleading with respect to the Motion in these chapter 11 cases, the terms of this Interim Order shall govern.

15. The requirements set forth in this Interim Order are in addition to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 3001(e) and 3002 and any other applicable law, and do not excuse compliance therewith.

16. The relief granted in this Interim Order is intended solely to permit the Debtors to protect, preserve, and maximize the value of their Tax Attributes; accordingly, nothing in this Interim Order or in the Motion shall, or shall be deemed to prejudice, impair or otherwise alter or affect the rights of any holders of Common Stock, including in connection with the treatment of such Common Stock under any chapter 11 plan or any applicable bankruptcy court order.

17. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

18. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) are satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise deemed waived.

19. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

20. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

21. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

22. The Debtors shall serve by email (if available) or by regular mail (if email is unavailable) a copy of this Interim Order and the Motion on all parties required to receive such service pursuant to Local Rule 9013-5(f).

23. Any party may move for modification of this Interim Order in accordance with Local Rule 9013-5(e).

24. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Interim Order.

Exhibit 1

Procedures for Transfers of and Declarations of Worthlessness with Respect to Common Stock

PROCEDURES FOR TRANSFERS OF AND DECLARATIONS OF WORTHLESSNESS WITH RESPECT TO COMMON STOCK

The following procedures apply to transfers of Common Stock:[1]

a. Any entity (as defined in section 101(15) of the Bankruptcy Code) that is a Substantial Shareholder (as defined herein) must file with the Court, and serve upon the Disclosure Parties (as defined below), a declaration of such status, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1A (each, a "Declaration of Status as a Substantial Shareholder"), on or before the later of (A) twenty (20) calendar days after the date of the Notice of Interim Order, or (B) ten (10) calendar days after becoming a Substantial Shareholder; provided, however, that no separate declaration is required if the entity's Substantial Shareholder status and Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock as of the Petition Date are disclosed in the Motion or another Court pleading filed by the Debtors; provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any Substantial Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a Substantial Shareholder has been filed.

b. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock that would result in an increase in the amount of Common Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual becoming a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Disclosure Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1B (each, a "Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock").

c. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock that would result in a decrease in the amount of Common Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual ceasing to be a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Disclosure Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1C (a "Declaration of Intent to Transfer Common Stock," and together with a Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock, a "Declaration of Proposed Transfer").

d. The Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties shall have twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Proposed Transfer to file with the Court and serve on such Substantial Shareholder or potential Substantial Shareholder an objection to any proposed transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock described in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer on the grounds that such transfer might adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes. If the Debtors or any of the other Disclosure Parties file an objection, such transaction will remain ineffective unless such objection is withdrawn, or such transaction is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court. If the Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties do not object within such twenty (20) day period, such transaction can proceed solely as set forth in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer. Further transactions within the scope of this paragraph must be the subject of additional notices in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, with an additional twenty (20) day waiting period for each Declaration of Proposed Transfer. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Proposed Transfer and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision as soon as is reasonably practicable to counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

e. For purposes of these Procedures (including, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to both transfers and declarations of worthlessness): (i) a "Substantial Shareholder" is any entity or individual person that has Beneficial Ownership of at least 1,000,668 shares of Common Stock (representing approximately 4.5 percent of all issued and outstanding shares of Common Stock for purposes of section 382 of the Tax Code as of the Petition Date); and (ii) "Beneficial Ownership" will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the Tax Code, and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)), and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual's family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). An "Option" to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

The following procedures apply for declarations of worthlessness of Common Stock:

a. Any person or entity that currently is or becomes a 50-Percent Shareholder[2] (as defined below) must file with the Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a declaration of such status, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as

[2] Based on 22,237,067 shares of Common Stock outstanding for purposes of section 382 of the Tax Code as of the Petition Date.

Exhibit 1D (each, a "Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder"), on or before the later of (i) twenty (20) calendar days after the date of the Notice of Interim Order and (ii) ten (10) calendar days after becoming a 50-Percent Shareholder; provided, however, that no separate declaration is required if the entity's 50-Percent Shareholder status and Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock as of the Petition Date are disclosed in the Motion or another Court pleading filed by the Debtors; provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any 50-Percent Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder has been filed. For purposes of the Procedures, a "50-Percent Shareholder" is any person or entity that, at any time since January 1, 2024, has owned Beneficial Ownership of 50 percent or more of the Common Stock (determined in accordance with section 382(g)(4)(D) of the Tax Code and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder).

b. Prior to filing any federal or state tax return, or any amendment to such a return, or taking any other action that claims any deduction for worthlessness of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock for a taxable year ending before the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 protection, such 50-Percent Shareholder must file with the Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a declaration of intent to claim a worthless stock deduction (a "Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction"), substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1E.

i. The Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties shall have twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction to file with the Court and serve on such 50-Percent Shareholder an objection to any proposed claim of worthlessness described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction on the grounds that such claim might adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes.

ii. If the Debtors or the other Disclosure Parties timely object, the filing of the tax return or amendment thereto with such claim will not be permitted unless approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court, unless such objection is withdrawn.

iii. If the Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties do not object within such twenty (20) day period, the filing of the return or amendment with such claim will be permitted solely as described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction. Additional returns and amendments within the scope of this section must be the subject of additional notices as set forth herein, with an additional twenty-day waiting period. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision as soon as is reasonably practicable to counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

Notice Procedures

The following notice procedures apply to these Procedures:

a. No later than three (3) business days following entry of the Interim Order, the Debtors shall send the notice substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1F (the "Notice of Interim Order") to: (i) the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (ii) the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; (iii) the Internal Revenue Service; (iv) any official committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases; and (v) to the extent known, each holder of record of Common Stock and all banks, brokers, intermediaries, other nominees, or their mailing agents that hold Common Stock in "street name" for the beneficial holders (with instructions to serve down to the beneficial holders of Common Stock as applicable), and as outlined and in accordance with the noticing procedures from the Motion, submit a copy of the Notice of Interim Order (modified for publication) to The New York Times (national and international editions) and any other local or provincial publication that the Debtors deem appropriate (including, to the extent reasonably practicable, a French language publication), and post the Interim Order and the Procedures to the website established by the Debtors' claims and noticing agent for these chapter 11 cases https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. Additionally, no later than three (3) business days following entry of the Final Order, the Debtors shall serve a Notice of Interim Order modified to reflect that the Final Order has been entered (as modified, the "Notice of Final Order") on the same entities that received Notice of Interim Order.

b. All registered and Nominee holders of Common Stock shall be required to provide the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, to any holder for whose benefit such registered or Nominee holder holds such Common Stock, down the chain of ownership for all such holders of Common Stock, as applicable.

c. Any entity or individual, or broker or agent acting on such entity's or individual's behalf, who sells Common Stock to another entity or individual, shall be required to serve a copy of the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, on such purchaser of such Common Stock, or any broker or agent acting on such purchaser's behalf.

d. To the extent confidential information is required in any declaration described in the Procedures, such confidential information may be filed and served in redacted form; provided, however, that any such declarations served on the Debtors shall not be in redacted form. The Debtors shall keep all information provided in such declarations strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any person except: (i) to the extent necessary to respond to a petition or objection filed with the Court; (ii) to the extent otherwise required by law; or (iii) to the extent that the information contained therein is already public; provided, however, that the Debtors may disclose the contents thereof to their professional advisors, who shall keep all such notices strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any other person, subject to further Court order. To the extent confidential information is necessary to respond to an objection filed with the Court, such confidential information shall be filed under seal or in a redacted form.

circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"); and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing, establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on a final basis as set forth herein.

2. Any objections to the entry of this Final Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

3. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Final Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

4. The Debtors' Tax Attributes are property of the Debtors' estates and are protected by section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. The Procedures, as set forth in Exhibit 1 (including Exhibits 1A through 1F) attached hereto, are hereby approved, on a final basis; provided, however, that any party in interest may file a motion and seek emergency relief from the Procedures based upon a showing of sufficient cause; provided further, that the Debtors' and the other Disclosure Parties' rights to oppose such relief are fully reserved and preserved.

6. Any transfer or declaration of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in violation of the Procedures, including but not limited to the notice requirements, shall be null and void ab initio.

7. In the case of any such transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in violation of the Procedures, including but not limited to the notice requirements, the person or entity making such transfer shall be required to take remedial actions specified by the Debtors, which may include the actions specified in IRS Private Letter Ruling 201010009 (Dec. 4, 2009), to appropriately reflect that such transfer is null and void ab initio.

8. In the case of any such declaration of worthlessness with respect to Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock in violation of the Procedures, including the notice requirements, the person or entity making such declaration shall be required to file an amended tax return revoking such declaration and any related deduction to appropriately reflect that such declaration is void ab initio.

9. The transfer agent for the Common Stock is ordered and authorized to provide directly to Omni Agent Solutions, Inc., the Debtors' claims and noticing agent the list of registered holders of the Common Stock within one (1) business day of entry of this Order.

10. The Debtors are authorized to prospectively or retrospectively waive any and all restrictions, stays, and notification procedures set forth in the Procedures.

11. The Debtors shall post the Procedures to the website established by Omni Agent Solutions, Inc. for these chapter 11 cases (https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP), such notice being reasonably calculated to provide notice to all parties that may be affected by the Procedures, whether known or unknown.

12. To the extent that this Final Order is inconsistent with any prior order or pleading with respect to the Motion in these chapter 11 cases, the terms of this Final Order shall govern.

13. The requirements set forth in this Final Order are in addition to the requirements of Bankruptcy Rules 3001(e) and 3002 and any other applicable law, and do not excuse compliance therewith.

14. The relief granted in this Final Order is intended solely to permit the Debtors to protect, preserve, and maximize the value of their Tax Attributes; accordingly, nothing in this Final Order or in the Motion shall, or shall be deemed to prejudice, impair or otherwise alter or affect the rights of any holders of Common Stock, including in connection with the treatment of any such Common Stock under the Debtors' chapter 11 plan or any applicable bankruptcy court order.

15. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Final Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Final Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

16. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Final Order in accordance with the Motion.

17. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

18. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

19. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Final Order.

Exhibit 1

Procedures for Transfers of and Declarations of Worthlessness with Respect to Common Stock

PROCEDURES FOR TRANSFERS OF AND DECLARATIONS OF WORTHLESSNESS WITH RESPECT TO COMMON STOCK

a. Any entity (as defined in section 101(15) of the Bankruptcy Code) that is a Substantial Shareholder (as defined herein) must file with the Court, and serve upon the Disclosure Parties (as defined below), a declaration of such status, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1A (each, a "Declaration of Status as a Substantial Shareholder"), on or before the later of (A) twenty (20) calendar days after the date of the Notice of Final Order, or (B) ten (10) calendar days after becoming a Substantial Shareholder; provided, however, that no separate declaration is required if the entity's Substantial Shareholder status and Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock as of the Petition Date are disclosed in the Motion or another Court pleading filed by the Debtors; provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any Substantial Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a Substantial Shareholder has been filed.

b. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock that would result in an increase in the amount of Common Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual becoming a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Disclosure Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1B (each, a "Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock").

c. Prior to effectuating any transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock that would result in a decrease in the amount of Common Stock of which a Substantial Shareholder has Beneficial Ownership or would result in an entity or individual ceasing to be a Substantial Shareholder, the parties to such transaction must file with the Court, and serve upon the Disclosure Parties, an advance written declaration of the intended transfer of Common Stock substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1C (a "Declaration of Intent to Transfer Common Stock," and together with a Declaration of Intent to Accumulate Common Stock, a "Declaration of Proposed Transfer").

d. The Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties shall have twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Proposed Transfer to file with the Court and serve on such Substantial Shareholder or potential Substantial Shareholder an objection to any proposed transfer of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock described in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer on the grounds that such transfer might adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes. If the Debtors or any of the other Disclosure Parties file an objection, such transaction will remain ineffective unless such objection is withdrawn, or such transaction is approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court. If the Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties do not object within such twenty (20) day period, such transaction can proceed solely as set forth in the Declaration of Proposed Transfer. Further transactions within the scope of this paragraph must be the subject of additional notices in accordance with the procedures set forth herein, with an additional twenty (20) day waiting period for each Declaration of Proposed Transfer. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Proposed Transfer and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision as soon as is reasonably practicable to counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

e. For purposes of these Procedures (including, for the avoidance of doubt, with respect to both transfers and declarations of worthlessness): (i) a "Substantial Shareholder" is any entity or individual person that has Beneficial Ownership of at least 4.5 percent of any individual class (or series) of Common Stock; and (ii) "Beneficial Ownership" will be determined in accordance with the applicable rules of sections 382 and 383 of the Tax Code, and the Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder (other than Treasury Regulations section 1.382-2T(h)(2)(i)(A)) and includes direct, indirect, and constructive ownership (e.g., (1) a holding company would be considered to beneficially own all equity securities owned by its subsidiaries, (2) a partner in a partnership would be considered to beneficially own its proportionate share of any equity securities owned by such partnership, (3) an individual and such individual's family members may be treated as one individual, (4) persons and entities acting in concert to make a coordinated acquisition of equity securities may be treated as a single entity, and (5) a holder would be considered to beneficially own equity securities that such holder has an Option (as defined herein) to acquire). An "Option" to acquire stock includes all interests described in Treasury Regulations section 1.382-4(d)(9), including any contingent purchase right, warrant, convertible debt, put, call, stock subject to risk of forfeiture, contract to acquire stock, or similar interest, regardless of whether it is contingent or otherwise not currently exercisable.

The following procedures apply for declarations of worthlessness of Common Stock:

a. Any person or entity that currently is or becomes a 50-Percent Shareholder[2] (as defined below) must file with the Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a declaration of such status, substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1D (each, a "Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder"), on or before the later of (i) twenty (20) calendar days after the date of the Notice of Final

Order and (ii) ten (10) calendar days after becoming a 50-Percent Shareholder; provided, however, that no separate declaration is required if the entity's 50-Percent Shareholder status and Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock as of the Petition Date are disclosed in the Motion or another Court pleading filed by the Debtors; provided, further, that, for the avoidance of doubt, the other procedures set forth herein shall apply to any 50-Percent Shareholder even if no Declaration of Status as a 50-Percent Shareholder has been filed. For purposes of the Procedures, a "50-Percent Shareholder" is any person or entity that, at any time since January 1, 2024, has owned Beneficial Ownership of 50 percent or more of the Common Stock (determined in accordance with section 382(g)(4)(D) of the Tax Code and the applicable Treasury Regulations thereunder).

b. Prior to filing any federal or state tax return, or any amendment to such a return, or taking any other action that claims any deduction for worthlessness of Beneficial Ownership of Common Stock for a taxable year ending before the Debtors' emergence from chapter 11 protection, such 50-Percent Shareholder must file with the Court and serve upon the Disclosure Parties a declaration of intent to claim a worthless stock deduction (a "Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction"), substantially in the form attached to the Procedures as Exhibit 1E.

i. The Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties shall have twenty (20) calendar days after receipt of a Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction to file with the Court and serve on such 50-Percent Shareholder an objection to any proposed claim of worthlessness described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction on the grounds that such claim might adversely affect the Debtors' ability to utilize their Tax Attributes.

ii. If the Debtors or the other Disclosure Parties timely object, the filing of the tax return or amendment thereto with such claim will not be permitted unless approved by a final and non-appealable order of the Court, unless such objection is withdrawn.

iii. If the Debtors and the other Disclosure Parties do not object within such twenty (20) day period, the filing of the return or amendment with such claim will be permitted solely as described in the Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction. Additional returns and amendments within the scope of this section must be the subject of additional notices as set forth herein, with an additional twenty-day waiting period. To the extent that the Debtors receive an appropriate Declaration of Intent to Claim a Worthless Stock Deduction and determine in their business judgment not to object, they shall provide notice of that decision as soon as is reasonably practicable to counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

Notice Procedures

The following notice procedures apply to these Procedures:

a. No later than three (3) business days following entry of the Interim Order, the Debtors shall send the notice substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1F (the "Notice of Interim Order") to: (i) the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (ii) the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission; (iii) the Internal Revenue Service; (iv) any official committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases; and (v) to the extent known, each holder of record of Common Stock and all banks, brokers, intermediaries, other nominees, or their mailing agents that hold Common Stock in "street name" for the beneficial holders (with instructions to serve down to the beneficial holders of Common Stock as applicable), and as outlined and in accordance with the noticing procedures from the Motion, submit a copy of the Notice of Interim Order (modified for publication) to The New York Times (national and international editions) and any other local or provincial publication that the Debtors deem appropriate (including, to the extent reasonably practicable, a French language publication), and post the Interim Order and the Procedures to the website established by the Debtors' claims and noticing agent for these chapter 11 cases at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. Additionally, no later than three (3) business days following entry of the Final Order, the Debtors shall serve a Notice of Interim Order modified to reflect that the Final Order has been entered (as modified, the "Notice of Final Order") on the same entities that received Notice of Interim Order.

b. All registered and Nominee holders of Common Stock shall be required to provide the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, to any holder for whose benefit such registered or Nominee holder holds such Common Stock, down the chain of ownership for all such holders of Common Stock, as applicable.

c. Any entity or individual, or broker or agent acting on such entity's or individual's behalf, who sells Common Stock to another entity or individual, shall be required to serve a copy of the Notice of Interim Order or Notice of Final Order, as applicable, on such purchaser of such Common Stock, or any broker or agent acting on such purchaser's behalf.

d. To the extent confidential information is required in any declaration described in the Procedures, such confidential information may be filed and served in redacted form; provided, however, that any such declarations served on the Debtors shall not be in redacted form. The Debtors shall keep all information provided in such declarations strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any person except: (i) to the extent necessary to respond to a petition or objection filed with the Court; (ii) to the extent otherwise required by law; or (iii) to the extent that the information contained therein is already public; provided, however, that the Debtors may disclose the contents thereof to their professional advisors, who shall keep all such notices strictly confidential and shall not disclose the contents thereof to any other person, subject to further Court order. To the extent confidential information is necessary to respond to an objection filed with the Court, such confidential information shall be filed under seal or in a redacted form.

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO (A) CONTINUE TO OPERATE THEIR CASH MANAGEMENT SYSTEM AND HONOR PREPETITION OBLIGATIONS RELATED THERETO, (B) MAINTAIN EXISTING BANK ACCOUNTS, (C) PERFORM INTERCOMPANY TRANSACTIONS IN THE ORDINARY COURSE, AND (D) MAINTAIN EXISTING BUSINESS FORMS; (II) GRANTING AN INTERIM EXTENSION AND FINAL WAIVER OF THE SECTION 345(B) DEPOSIT AND INVESTMENT REQUIREMENTS; AND (III) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") state as follows in support of this motion (the "Motion"):[2]

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B (respectively, the "Interim Order" and "Final Order"): (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (i) continue using their cash management system, (ii) honor certain prepetition obligations related thereto, and (iii) maintain existing debtor bank accounts, business forms, and books and records; (b) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (i) continue intercompany transactions and funding consistent with the Debtors' historical practices, (ii) granting administrative expense status to any such postpetition intercompany transactions between Debtors, and (iii) granting superpriority administrative expense status, junior only to any claims granted under a Financing Order (as defined herein), to any postpetition Intercompany Transactions whereby a Debtor extends credit to a Non-Debtor

[2] A detailed description of the Debtors and their business, including the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Rudolph Morando, Co-Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtors, in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Motion have the meaning ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration.

Subsidiary (as defined herein); (c) waiving the deposit and investment requirements set forth in section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the Debtors' TD Bank Accounts (as defined herein); and (d) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105, 345, 363, 364, and 503 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 2002, 6003, and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules 9013-1 and 9013-5 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

The Cash Management System

I. Overview.

7. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors use a complex centralized cash management system to collect receipts, pay invoices, fund payroll, and fund its operational expenses (the "Cash Management System"), a schematic of which is attached to the Interim Order and Final Order as Exhibit 1 (the "Cash Management System Schematic"). The Cash Management System connects collections from customers with disbursements that fund the Debtors' daily operations. It also enables the Debtors to facilitate cash forecasting and reporting, monitor collection and disbursement of funds, allocate working capital across its many local operations, control the Debtors' bank accounts, and maintain separate accounting for each Debtor in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

8. Given the economic and geographic scale of Debtors' business, any disruption to the Cash Management System would have an immediate adverse effect on the Debtors' operations, to the detriment of its estates and stakeholders. To minimize the disruption caused by the filing of these chapter 11 cases and to maximize the value of Debtors' estates, the Debtors request authority to continue using the Cash Management System in substantially the form in which it currently exists.

II. The Bank Accounts.

9. As of the Petition Date, the Cash Management System comprises approximately thirty-one (31) bank accounts (the "Bank Accounts"). Each of the Bank Accounts identified below is owned by a Debtor or a Non-Debtor Affiliate. Each Bank Account is held at one of four (4) depository banks in the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico (collectively, the "Cash Management Banks"). The Bank Accounts hold deposits denominated in United States Dollars (USD) or Canadian Dollars (CAD). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors hold approximately $2 million in total cash across the Bank Accounts.

10. The Cash Management Banks are FDIC-insured or insured by the equivalent governmental deposit scheme in the applicable local jurisdiction. A complete list of Bank Accounts is attached to the Interim Order and Final Order as Exhibit 2.

11. The Bank Accounts are listed below by function in the following categories (each, as defined herein): (a) Collection Accounts; (b) Concentration Accounts; (c) Operating Accounts; (d) Disbursement Accounts; (e) Other Bank Accounts; and (f) the Adequate Assurance Account.

Bank Accounts[3]	Description of the Bank Accounts

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. x2594 Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. x2388	The Debtors maintain four (4) Bank Accounts that collect funds from various sources (each, a "Collection Account"). All four (4) of the Collection Accounts are denominated in USD and are held at banks in the United States or Puerto Rico. Adequate Assurance Account The Children's Place, Inc. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. x2370	The Debtors utilize the Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. account ending in x2370 as the Adequate Assurance Account[4] in these chapter 11 cases.

[4] As defined in the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Approving the Debtors' Proposed Adequate Assurance of Payment for Future Utility Services, (II) Prohibiting Utility Providers from Altering, Refusing, or Discontinuing Services, (III) Approving the Debtors' Proposed Procedures for Resolving Adequate Assurance Requests, and (IV) Granting Related Relief, filed contemporaneously herewith.

III. Payment Processing Fees.

12. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors accept payment in several formats, in addition to accepting cash payments at their brick-and-mortar retail locations. To process payments from customers that are not made in cash, the Debtors utilize the payment processing services of several payment processors, including, among others, Adyen, PayPal (through Braintree), Venmo (through Adyen), Afterpay, and Comenity Capital Bank (with respect to the Debtors' private label credit card program) (collectively, the "Payment Processors," and the services provided by the Payment Processors, the "Payment Processing Services").

13. The Debtors are party to certain agreements with the Payment Processors, pursuant to which the Payment Processors charge the Debtors fees for the Payment Processing Services (the "Payment Processing Fees"). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $958,000 on account of unpaid Payment Processing Fees. Given that a substantial portion of payments the Debtors receive are not made in cash, the Payment Processing Services are critical to the Debtors' ability to generate revenue.

14. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts on account of the unpaid Payment Processing Fees as they become due and payable and to continue making such payments in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business.

IV. Transport Fees.

15. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur certain fees in connection with the transport of cash generated at the Debtors' brick-and-mortar retail locations (the "Transport Fees"). Garda, the Debtors' third-party armored car and security provider (in such capacity, the "Security Provider"), makes regularly scheduled cash pickups at many of the Debtors' retail stores and thereafter delivers the cash to nearby branches of the Cash Management Banks. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $160,000 on account of unpaid Transport Fees. The Security Provider is an essential component of the Debtors' Cash Management System—without it, the Debtors would not be able to safely transport cash to the Cash Management Banks on a regular basis.

16. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts on account of any unpaid Transport Fees as they become due and payable and to continue making such payments in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business.

V. Credit Card Program.

17. As part of the Cash Management System, the Debtors provide corporate purchasing cards administered by American Express to certain employees to pay for various travel, procurement, and store operating expenses in the ordinary course of business (the "Credit Card Program"). As of the Petition Date, there are active cards associated with the Credit Card Program (the "Corporate Cards"). Charges to the Corporate Cards are billed directly to the Debtors without any payment by or reimbursement from the cardholder. In the ordinary course of business the Debtors' current spending under the Credit Card Program varies on a day to day basis, and the Debtors believe amounts are outstanding under the Credit Card Program as of the Petition Date.

18. The Credit Card Program is integral to the Cash Management System and to the continued operation of the Debtors' business. Specifically, the Credit Card Program enables the Debtors' personnel to segregate spending on work-related expenses and make quick and efficient payments necessary to maintain the Debtors' ordinary course operations. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $64,767 on account of the Credit Card Program. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to continue the Credit Card Program and satisfy any valid obligations that arise in connection therewith in the ordinary course of business as they become due and payable.

VI. Bank Fees.

19. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur and pay, honor, or allow to be deducted from the appropriate Bank Accounts periodic service charges, costs, and other fees charged by the Cash Management Banks in connection with maintaining the Cash Management System (collectively, the "Bank Fees").

20. The Cash Management Banks assess gross service charges while providing earnings credits that are applied against those charges. The Bank Fees are incurred in the ordinary course of business, and the Debtors believe amounts are outstanding as of the Petition Date.

21. The Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay (or to permit the payment of) any Bank Fees in the ordinary course of business, regardless of whether any Bank Fees accrued before or after the Petition Date.

VII. Intercompany Transactions and Claims.

22. The Debtors and their Non-Debtor Subsidiaries operate as a single, integrated global enterprise under common management. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors engage in intercompany transfers (such transactions, the "Intercompany Transactions") with each other and with their direct and indirect wholly owned non-Debtor subsidiaries (the "Non-Debtor Subsidiaries"),[5] resulting in intercompany claims and investments (the "Intercompany Claims").

23. The Debtors' Intercompany Transactions reflect, among other things, the reimbursement of shared corporate and administrative expenses, including payroll, benefits, insurance, and other overhead costs, that are initially paid by a shared-services or corporate Debtor entity on behalf of an operating subsidiary and subsequently reimbursed in the ordinary course of business. In addition, from time to time, the Debtors receive and owe money to and from international non-Canadian Non-Debtor Subsidiaries.

[5] The Non-Debtor Subsidiaries do not include, and none of the Intercompany Transactions involve any payment or transfer to or for the benefit of, Mithaq Capital SPC or any of its affiliates (other than the Debtors and the Non-Debtor Subsidiaries), or any other insider (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors other than a direct or indirect subsidiary of the Debtors.

24. The Intercompany Transactions are an essential component of the Debtors' operations and Cash Management System. Any interruption of the Intercompany Transactions would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations and greatly harm the Debtors' estates and their stakeholders. Accordingly, the Debtors seek authority—and, to the extent applicable, relief from the automatic stay—to continue the Intercompany Transactions (including with respect to "netting" or setoffs) in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis, in a manner substantially consistent with the Debtors' past practice. In addition, the Debtors seek authority to grant superpriority administrative expense status to any postpetition Intercompany Transaction whereby a Debtor extends credit to a Non-Debtor Subsidiary, in accordance with the terms and conditions of any budget or cash flow forecasts approved pursuant to any interim or final order entered by the Court approving the Debtors' entry into any postpetition financing facility and/or authorizing the use of cash collateral (any "Financing Order"); provided, however, that no such superpriority administrative expense status shall become effective unless and until the Debtors have provided at least three (3) business days' prior written notice to the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, and no objection to such relief has been timely asserted. The Debtors will continue to track postpetition Intercompany Transactions consistent with historical practice and, in accordance with the terms and conditions of any budget or cash flow forecasts in connection with any Financing Order.

VIII. Compliance With the Bankruptcy Code and U.S. Trustee Guidelines.

A. Compliance with U.S. Trustee Guidelines and Section 345 of the Bankruptcy Code.

25. Section 345(a) of the Bankruptcy Code governs a debtor's cash deposits during a chapter 11 case and authorizes deposits of money of a debtor's estates, such as cash, as "will yield the maximum reasonable net return on such money, taking into account the safety of such deposit or investment." 11 U.S.C. § 345(a). To comply with section 345 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Region 3 Operating Guidelines and Reporting Requirements for Debtors in Possession and Trustees (the "U.S. Trustee Guidelines") for the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey (the "U.S. Trustee") generally require chapter 11 debtors to, among other things, deposit all estate funds into accounts with an Authorized Depository. Section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code requires a debtor's bank to post a bond unless a debtor's funds are "insured or guaranteed by the United States or by a department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States or backed by the full faith and credit of the United States." Id. § 345(b).

26. One of the Debtors' Cash Management Banks, TD Commercial Banking, is located in Canada and holds Bank Accounts used to support the Debtors' integrated Cash Management System for their Canadian operations (the "TD Bank Accounts"). TD Commercial Banking is an affiliate of TD Bank, N.A., which is listed as a U.S. Trustee Region 3 Authorized Depository, and is subject to regulation and oversight by the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (Canada) that is substantially similar to the regulation and oversight to which FDIC-insured U.S. depository institutions are subject, including with respect to capital adequacy and prudential supervision.

27. Absent relief from section 345(b), the Debtors would be required to close the TD Bank Accounts and transfer all funds held there to a newly opened account at a U.S. Trustee Region 3 Authorized Depository, which would disrupt the Debtors' Canadian operations without any corresponding benefit to the Debtors' estates or creditors.

28. Accordingly, the Debtors request (a) pursuant to the Interim Order, a forty-five (45) day extension to come into compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the TD Bank Accounts, without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek an additional extension, and (b) pursuant to the Final Order, a waiver of the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the TD Bank Accounts. Given the integrated nature of the Cash Management System and the comparable regulatory treatment of TD Commercial Banking described above, cause exists to grant this relief.

29. Separately, although the Debtors are requesting that they not be required to close any Bank Accounts, the Debtors may determine, in their reasonable business judgment, that opening new Bank Accounts and/or closing existing Bank Accounts in the ordinary course of business is in the best interest of their estates. While the Debtors do not currently have plans to open new Bank Accounts, the Debtors request authority to open any new Bank Accounts or close existing Bank Accounts as they may deem necessary and appropriate in their sole discretion.

B. Compliance with U.S. Trustee Guidelines as to Business Forms and Books and Records.

30. Additionally, in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors use preprinted business forms, including letterhead, and invoices (collectively, the "Business Forms"). To minimize expense and avoid confusion, the Debtors respectfully request authority to continue using their existing Business Forms, substantially in the forms existing immediately prior to the Petition Date and without reference to the Debtors' status as debtors in possession; provided, that once the Debtors' existing check stock is exhausted, the Debtors shall, when reordering checks, require the designation "Debtors in Possession" and the corresponding lead bankruptcy case number on all checks; provided, further, that, with respect to checks the Debtors or their agents produce electronically, the Debtors shall begin printing the "Debtors in Possession" legend and the corresponding lead case number on such items within fourteen (14) calendar days after entry of the Interim Order.

31. The Debtors maintain books and records that document their financial results and operating information (the "Books and Records"). Consistent with the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, the Debtors will maintain their Books and Records to the same extent as prior to the Petition Date and will distinguish between prepetition and postpetition activity.

32. In the ordinary course, the Debtors make and receive payments by wires, ACH transfers, direct deposits, credit card settlements, and other similar methods. Continuity of these payment channels is essential to the Debtors' ability to manage payroll, vendor disbursements, and credit card settlements. The Debtors respectfully request authority to continue using these customary payment methods in the ordinary course and consistent with prepetition practice.

Basis for Relief Requested

I. Maintaining the Existing Cash Management System Is Essential to Maximizing the Value of the Debtors' Estates.

33. The Cash Management System constitutes an ordinary course and essential business practice of the Debtors. The Cash Management System provides material benefits to the Debtors including, among other things, the ability to control corporate funds, ensure the availability of funds when necessary, and reduce costs and administrative expenses by facilitating the movement of funds and developing timely and accurate account balance information. Thus, to ensure the stable operation of the Debtors' business and realize the benefits of the Cash Management System, the Debtors should be allowed to continue using the Cash Management System and should not be required to open new bank accounts.

34. Under 28 U.S.C. § 586(a)(3) and the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, debtors in possession are required to, among other things: (a) close all existing bank accounts and open new debtor-in-possession accounts; (b) establish one debtor-in-possession bank account for all estate monies required for the payment of taxes, including payroll taxes; (c) maintain a separate debtor-in-possession account for cash collateral; and (d) obtain checks that bear the designation "Debtors in Possession" and reference the bankruptcy case number and type of account on such checks (collectively, the "Accounting Requirements"). The Accounting Requirements are intended to provide a clear line of demarcation between prepetition and postpetition transactions and operations and to prevent inadvertent payment of prepetition claims. Considering the breadth and complexity of the Debtors' international businesses and financial affairs and the sheer volume of collections, disbursements, and movement of funds through the Cash Management System on a daily basis, enforcement of the Accounting Requirements during these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the ordinary financial operations of the Debtors by imposing inefficiencies and unnecessary expenses.

35. Notwithstanding the Accounting Requirements, continuation of the Cash Management System is permitted pursuant to section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, which authorizes a debtor in possession to "use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing." 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(1). Bankruptcy courts regularly treat requests for authority to continue using existing cash management systems as a relatively "simple matter[.]" In re Baldwin United Corp., 79 B.R. 321, 327 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1987). In granting such relief, courts recognize that an integrated cash management system "allows efficient utilization of cash resources and recognizes the impracticalities of maintaining separate cash accounts for the many different purposes that require cash." In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 136 B.R. 930, 934 (Bankr. D. Del. 1992), aff'd in relevant part, 997 F.2d 1039, 1061 (3d Cir. 1993). In Columbia Gas, the Third Circuit emphasized that requiring a debtor to maintain separate accounts "would be a huge administrative burden and economically inefficient." Columbia Gas, 997 F.2d at 1061; see also Southmark Corp. v. Grosz (In re Southmark Corp.), 49 F.3d 1111, 1114 (5th Cir. 1995) (noting that the debtor's cash management system allowed it "to administer more efficiently and effectively its financial operations and assets").

36. Requiring the Debtors to adopt a new, segmented cash management system during these chapter 11 cases would be expensive, burdensome, and unnecessarily disruptive to the Debtors' operations. Importantly, the Cash Management System provides the Debtors with the ability to, among other things, quickly assess the location and amount of funds, which, in turn, allows management to track and control such funds, ensure cash availability, and reduce administrative costs through a centralized method of coordinating the collection and movement of funds. Any disruption of the Cash Management System could have a severe negative effect on the Debtors' restructuring efforts.

37. By contrast, maintaining the current Cash Management System will facilitate the Debtors' transition into chapter 11 by, among other things, minimizing delays in paying postpetition debts and eliminating administrative inefficiencies. Maintaining the current Cash Management System will also allow the Debtors' treasury and accounting employees to focus on their daily responsibilities as opposed to the non-accretive task of reconstructing the Cash Management System. Finally, the Debtors can distinguish between prepetition and postpetition obligations and payments without closing the Bank Accounts and opening new ones. With the protective measures put in place by the Debtors and their advisors, the benefits of continuing the Cash Management System decidedly outweigh the costs.

38. Parties in interest will not be harmed by the Debtors maintaining the Cash Management System, including maintenance of the Bank Accounts and the Intercompany Transactions, because the Debtors have implemented appropriate mechanisms to ensure that unauthorized payments will not be made on account of prepetition obligations. Specifically, with the assistance of their advisors, the Debtors have implemented internal control procedures that prohibit payments on account of prepetition debts without the prior approval of the Debtors' treasury department. In light of such protective measures, maintaining the Cash Management System is in the best interests of the Debtors' estates and stakeholders.

39. In addition, all Cash Management Banks where the Debtors maintain Bank Accounts have been or are in the process of being advised not to honor checks, drafts, or other requests for payment issued prior to the Petition Date, except as otherwise expressly permitted by an order of the Court and as directed by the Debtors. Therefore, the goals of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines can be satisfied, and the Debtors' creditors will be protected without closing the Bank Accounts.

40. As part of the requested relief, the Debtors also seek a waiver of the requirement to establish specific bank accounts for tax payments. The Debtors' tax obligations can be paid out of the Bank Accounts as they are in the ordinary course of business, and the U.S. Trustee can adequately monitor the flow of funds into, among, and out of the accounts, as set forth in the Accounting Requirements. Moreover, the creation of a new debtor-in-possession account designated solely for tax obligations would be unnecessary and inefficient.

41. For these reasons, the Debtors submit that cause exists to continue to allow the Debtors to use the existing Bank Accounts as described herein. The Debtors will work in good faith with the U.S. Trustee, however, to resolve any concerns regarding the continued use of these accounts on a postpetition basis.

42. Courts in this and other districts have regularly allowed debtors in large chapter 11 cases to maintain their existing cash management systems and such relief generally is non-controversial. See, e.g., LIV Golf New Jersey LLC, 26-20189 (MKB) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 8, 2026) (authorizing the debtors to continue using the cash management system maintained by the debtors prepetition on a final basis); In re Eddie Bauer LLC, No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 16, 2026); FreshRealm, Inc., 26-14656 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 2, 2026); In re STG Logistics, Inc., 26-10258 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026 (same); *In re Del Monte Foods Corp. June 6, 2023) (same).[6]

II. The Debtors Should be Authorized to Pay Prepetition Obligations Relating to the Cash Management System.

43. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits the Debtors, subject to Court approval, to pay prepetition obligations where a sound business purpose exists for doing so. See In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (noting section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides "broad flexibility" to authorize a debtor to honor prepetition claims where appropriate business justification exists).

44. Paying prepetition amounts associated with the Cash Management System, including Bank Fees, Payment Processing Fees, Transport Fees, and amounts outstanding under the Credit Card Program, including amounts associated with customer refunds, reflects sound business judgment. The Cash Management System enables the Debtors to quickly assess the location and amount of funds, track and control cash centrally, ensure liquidity, and reduce administrative costs through coordinated collections and disbursements, including the processing of customer refunds in the ordinary course of business. Given the size and complexity of the Debtors' operations, any disruption to the Cash Management System or these ordinary-course practices could impair the Debtors' restructuring efforts, disrupt the Debtors' operations and relationships with customers and other stakeholders, and impose needless costs on creditors and other stakeholders. By contrast, maintaining the Cash Management System and related ordinary-course practices will facilitate a smooth transition into chapter 11 by minimizing administrative inefficiencies and delays in paying postpetition obligations and allowing treasury and accounting personnel to focus on core responsibilities rather than building a new system.

45. Nonpayment of prepetition Bank Fees, Payment Processing Fees, or Transport Fees, or prepetition amounts related to the Credit Card Program, would cause immediate harm to the estates. If the Debtors do not pay prepetition Bank Fees, their banking relationships may be materially harmed, and management may be forced to devote time and resources to avoidable disputes with the Cash Management Banks. Moreover, the Cash Management Banks likely have rights of setoff with respect to unpaid Bank Fees. Absent payment of Payment Processing Fees, the Payment Processors may refuse to continue providing Payment Processing Services, which would significantly impair the Debtors' ability to accept non-cash payments and generate revenue. Absent payment of Transport Fees, the Debtors' ability to safely transport cash from their retail locations to the Cash Management Banks could be disrupted. Likewise, failure to pay prepetition amounts outstanding under the Credit Card Program would significantly disrupt employees' ability to perform ordinary-course duties.

46. Accordingly, authorizing the Debtors to continue operating the Cash Management System in the ordinary course and to pay prepetition Bank Fees, Payment Processing Fees, Transport Fees, and amounts outstanding under the Credit Card Program is a sound exercise of business judgment. The requested relief will preserve the Debtors' existing cash management practices, avoid unnecessary disruption to the Debtors' operations during these chapter 11 cases, maintain critical banking and payment relationships, and maximize value for the benefit of the Debtors' estates and all stakeholders.

III. The Court Should Authorize the Debtors to Continue Conducting Intercompany Transactions in the Ordinary Course, Grant Administrative Priority Status to Postpetition Intercompany Claims Including Debtor Loans, and Grant Superpriority Administrative Expense Status to Extensions of Credit to Non-Debtor Subsidiaries.

47. Section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code authorizes a debtor to "enter into transactions, including the sale or lease of property of the estate, in the ordinary course of business . . . and [] use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing." 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(1). Additionally, under section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code, "[a]fter notice and a hearing, there shall be allowed, administrative expenses . . . including the actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate . . ." 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(A).

48. The Debtors seek authority to enter into such Intercompany Transactions in the ordinary course of business. The Cash Management System relies on its ability to process Intercompany Transactions quickly and efficiently. The Debtors' funds move through the Cash Management System as described above. At any given time, there may be Intercompany Claims owed by one Debtor to another Debtor in the ordinary course as part of the Cash Management System. The Debtors track all fund transfers in their accounting system and can ascertain, trace, and account for all Intercompany Transactions previously described. The Debtors, moreover, will continue to maintain records of such Intercompany Transactions. If the Intercompany Transactions were to be discontinued, the Cash Management System and related administrative controls would be disrupted to the detriment of the Debtors and their estates.

49. Further, granting the Debtors relief to continue Intercompany Transactions between each other (and to honor any prepetition obligations with respect thereto) is warranted under the circumstances. If such Intercompany Transactions were to be discontinued, the Cash Management System and related administrative controls would be disrupted to the Debtors' and their estates' detriment.

50. The Debtors anticipate that postpetition Intercompany Transactions will be consistent with those made prepetition. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the Intercompany Transactions are in the best interest of the Debtors' estates and their creditors and, therefore, the Debtors should be permitted to continue such transactions and to honor their obligations with respect thereto.

51. Because the Debtors engage in the Intercompany Transactions on a regular basis and such transactions are common among similar enterprises, the Debtors respectfully submit that postpetition Intercompany Transactions arising in the ordinary course of business are authorized as a matter of law pursuant to section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code for which no additional relief is required. However, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors request authority to continue to enter into the Intercompany Transactions in the ordinary course of business and in accordance with the Interim Order and Final Order.[7]

[7] For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors request authority to set off mutual prepetition obligations and mutual postpetition obligations in connection with the Cash Management System solely to the extent consistent with the Debtors' past practices.

52. Because these transactions represent extensions of intercompany credit made in the ordinary course of the Debtors' operations that are an essential component of the Cash Management System, the Debtors request the authority to continue conducting the Intercompany Transactions in the ordinary course of business without need for further Court order and request that, pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, all postpetition payments (or other transfers of cash, whether to or from the Debtors) from a Debtor to another Debtor or from a Debtor to a Non-Debtor Subsidiary, on account of a postpetition Intercompany Transaction be accorded administrative expense status, subject and junior to any claims, including adequate protection claims, cash collateral and/or claims for postpetition financing, granted in connection with approving the use of such cash collateral and/or the Debtors' entry into any postpetition financing facilities or credit agreements. This relief will ensure that each entity receiving payments from a Debtor will continue to bear ultimate repayment responsibility for such ordinary course transactions, thereby reducing the risk that these transactions would jeopardize the recoveries available to each Debtor's respective creditors.

53. In addition, to the extent any postpetition Intercompany Transaction constitutes an extension of credit from a Debtor to a Non-Debtor Subsidiary, the Debtors request that any resulting Intercompany Claim in favor of such Debtor be accorded superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, subject and junior to any claims, including adequate protection claims, cash collateral claims, postpetition financing claims, and any carve-out granted pursuant to any Financing Order, and subject to prior notice to the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases. This relief will ensure that the Debtors' estates are protected to the fullest extent possible in connection with intercompany credit extended to Non-Debtor Subsidiaries in the ordinary course of business.

54. For the reasons set forth herein, continuing Intercompany Transactions is in the best interests of the Debtors, their estates, and parties in interest. Similar relief has been granted in other comparable multi-debtor chapter 11 cases in this district. See, e.g., In re FIHPNP LLC, No. 26-20876 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 29, 2026) (authorizing the continued performance of the intercompany transactions by the debtors on a final basis); LIV Golf New Jersey LLC, No. 26-20189 (MKB) (Bankr. D.N.J. IV. The Court Should Authorize the Debtors to Continue Using Existing Business Forms and Books and Records.

55. To avoid disruption of the Cash Management System and unnecessary expenses, the Debtors request authorization to continue to use the Business Forms and Books and Records substantially in the form existing immediately before the Petition Date, without reference to their status as debtors in possession.

56. The Debtors submit that parties in interest will not be prejudiced by this relief. Parties doing business with the Debtors likely will be aware of their status as debtors in possession and, thus, changing Business Forms is unnecessary and would be unduly burdensome. The Debtors further submit that once they have exhausted their existing stock of Business Forms, they shall ensure that any new Business Forms are clearly labeled "Debtors in Possession." With respect to any Business Forms that exist or are generated electronically, the Debtors shall ensure that such electronic Business Forms are clearly labeled "Debtors in Possession."

57. The Debtors should also be permitted to maintain their existing Books and Records rather than open a new set as required under the U.S. Trustee Guidelines. The Debtors use a sophisticated recordkeeping system that enables them to consolidate their Books and Records for financial reporting purposes while tracking operations and results of individual entities across their corporate structure. Continued use of the Debtors' current Books and Records, therefore, will maximize efficiency, reduce administrative strain on the Debtors in these chapter 11 cases, and preserve value for the Debtors' stakeholders.

V. Authorizing the Cash Management Banks to Continue to Maintain, Service, and Administer the Bank Accounts in the Ordinary Course of Business is Warranted.

58. As discussed above, strict implementation of the U.S. Trustee Guidelines would needlessly interrupt the Debtors' operations and impair the Debtors' efforts to preserve the value of their estates. Thus, the Debtors request that the Court authorize the Cash Management Banks to continue to maintain, service, and administer the Bank Accounts as accounts of the Debtors as debtors in possession, without interruption and in the ordinary course of business. In this regard, the Cash Management Banks should be authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks, ACH transfers and other instructions, and drafts payable through, drawn, or directed on such Bank Accounts after the Petition Date by holders, makers, or other parties entitled to issue instructions with respect thereto. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any check, draft, or other notification that the Debtors advise the Cash Management Banks to have been drawn, issued, or otherwise presented before the Petition Date may be honored by the Cash Management Banks only to the extent authorized by order of the Court.

59. The Debtors further request that the Court authorize the Cash Management Banks to accept and honor all representations from the Debtors as to which checks, drafts, wires, or ACH transfers should be honored or dishonored consistent with any order of the Court and governing law, whether such checks, drafts, wires, or ACH transfers are dated before or after the Petition Date. The Debtors also request that, to the extent a bank honors a prepetition check or other item drawn on any account either: (a) at the direction of the Debtors; (b) in a good-faith belief that the Court has authorized such prepetition check or item to be honored; or (c) as a result of a mistake made despite implementation of customary item handling procedures, such bank will not be deemed to be liable to the Debtors, their estates, or any other party on account of such prepetition check or other item honored postpetition. The Debtors submit that such relief is reasonable and appropriate because the Cash Management Banks are not in a position to independently verify or audit whether a particular item may be paid in accordance with a Court order or otherwise.

60. Moreover, the Debtors request that the Court authorize the Cash Management Banks to (a) continue to charge the Debtors the Bank Fees, as applicable, and (b) charge-back returned items to the Bank Accounts, whether such items are dated before, on, or subsequent to the Petition Date, in the ordinary course of business. The Debtors further request that the Court order that liens on any of the Bank Accounts granted to creditors will not have priority over the Bank Fees of the respective bank at which the Bank Account is located. Finally, the Debtors request that the Court authorize the Debtors to pay any Bank Fees, including prepetition amounts.

61. The relief requested herein is consistent with relief regularly granted by Courts in this and other districts. See, e.g., LIV Golf New Jersey LLC, 26-20189 (MKB) (Bankr. D.N.J.

Oct. 8, 2026) (authorizing cash management banks to continue to maintain, service, and administer debtors' bank accounts as accounts of the debtors as debtors in possession on a final basis); In re Eddie Bauer LLC, No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. VI. Cause Exists to Waive the U.S. Trustee Guidelines Regarding Authorized Depositories on an Interim and Final Basis.

62. As set forth above, the TD Bank Accounts are maintained at TD Commercial Banking, a Canadian financial institution, and section 345 of the Bankruptcy Code does not extend Authorized Depository status to non-U.S. financial institutions. The Debtors accordingly seek a waiver of the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the TD Bank Accounts.

63. Section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that, for deposits that are not "insured or guaranteed by the United States or by a department, agency, or instrumentality of the United States or backed by the full faith and credit of the United States," the estate must require from the depository institution a bond in favor of the United States, "unless the court for cause orders otherwise." 11 U.S.C. § 345(b).

64. Cause exists to waive the U.S. Trustee Guidelines' Authorized Depository requirement with respect to the TD Bank Accounts. The TD Bank Accounts form part of the Debtors' single, integrated Cash Management System, and TD Commercial Banking is an affiliate of TD Bank, N.A., a U.S. Trustee Region 3 Authorized Depository, that is subject to prudential regulation and oversight by the Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions (Canada) substantially similar to the oversight applicable to FDIC-insured U.S. depository institutions.

65. Accordingly, the Debtors request (a) pursuant to the Interim Order, a forty-five (45) day extension to come into compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the TD Bank Accounts, without prejudice to the Debtors' right to seek an additional extension, and (b) pursuant to the Final Order, a waiver of the requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the TD Bank Accounts.

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should Be Authorized

66. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts described in this Motion in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations, anticipated debtor-in-possession financing, and anticipated access to cash collateral. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to any authorized payment in respect of the relief requested herein. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently. Therefore, the Debtors request that the Court authorize all applicable financial institutions, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested in this Motion.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) Are Satisfied

67. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) empowers a court to grant relief within the first twenty-one (21) days after the Petition Date to the extent that "relief is needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(a). As set forth in this Motion, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors' operations. Failure to receive the requested relief during the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture and cause immediate and irreparable harm. The requested relief is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of their operations, and maximize value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm," as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a), and the Court should grant the requested relief.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

68. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the fourteen-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) for the reasons set forth herein.

Reservation of Rights

69. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended or should be construed as: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in this Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. If the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Final Hearing

70. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

No Prior Request

71. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this Court or any other court.

Notice

72. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions, as Prepetition Term Loan Agent; (e) counsel to Mithaq Capital SPC, as prepetition unsecured lender; (f) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (h) the Internal Revenue Service; (i) the Canada Revenue Agency; and (j) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request that the Court enter interim and final orders, in substantially the forms submitted herewith, granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as is just and proper under the circumstances.

3. Any objections to the entry of this Interim Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

4. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

5. The Debtors are authorized, subject to the terms set forth herein, but not directed, to: (a) maintain and continue using the Cash Management System maintained by the Debtors before the Petition Date, as described in the Motion and substantially as identified on Exhibit 1 attached hereto, and honor any prepetition obligations related to the use thereof, including Bank

Fees, Payment Processing Fees, Transport Fees, amounts outstanding under the Credit Card Program and amounts associated with customer refunds; (b) use, in their present form, all preprinted correspondence and Business Forms, including letterhead, without reference to the Debtors' status as debtors in possession and continue using, in their present form, the Books and Records; (c) continue to perform Intercompany Transactions in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, and in accordance with terms and conditions of any Financing Order; (d) maintain and continue all of their existing Bank Accounts, including, but not limited to, the Bank Accounts identified on Exhibit 2 attached hereto, in the names and with the account numbers existing immediately before the Petition Date, without the need to comply with any requirement under the U.S. Trustee Guidelines requiring the opening of separate debtor-in-possession accounts; (e) treat the Bank Accounts for all purposes as debtor-in-possession accounts; (f) deposit funds in and withdraw funds from the Bank Accounts in the ordinary course and by all means, including checks, wire transfers, direct deposits, ACH transfers, EFTs, credit card settlements and other electronic means; (g) pay the Bank Fees, including any prepetition amounts, and any ordinary-course Bank Fees incurred in connection with the Bank Accounts, and otherwise perform their obligations under the documents governing the Bank Accounts; (h) pay all outstanding prepetition and ordinary-course Payment Processing Fees and Transport Fees as they become due and payable; and (i) continue the Credit Card Program in the ordinary course of business on prepetition terms, including paying all associated fees and other amounts due on account thereof, and honor and pay any prepetition obligations under the Credit Card Program that become due in the ordinary monthly cycle after the Petition Date; provided that, in the case of each of (a) through (i), such action is taken in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practices.

6. Notwithstanding the foregoing, once the Debtors' existing stock of Business Forms including checks have been used, the Debtors shall, when reordering (or with respect to checks or other Business Forms the Debtors or their agents print themselves), require or print, as applicable, the designation "Debtors in Possession" and the corresponding bankruptcy case number on all items. Further, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall update any electronically produced checks to reflect their status as debtors in possession and to include the corresponding lead bankruptcy case number.

7. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue paying their tax obligations from the Bank Accounts in the ordinary course of business and shall not be required to establish a separate debtor-in-possession bank account solely for the payment of tax obligations.

8. The Cash Management Banks are authorized, but not directed, to continue to maintain, service and administer the Bank Accounts as accounts of the Debtors as debtors in possession, without interruption and in the ordinary course of business consistent with historical practices and the Cash Management System, and to receive, process, honor and pay, to the extent of available funds, any and all checks, drafts, wires, credit card payments, ACH transfers, EFTs and other electronic payments issued or drawn on the Bank Accounts after the Petition Date by the holders or makers thereof, as the case may be, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order; provided that, subject to paragraph nine (9) of this Order, the Debtors shall instruct or request any Cash Management Bank to pay or honor any check, draft or other payment issued on a Bank Account prior to the Petition Date but presented to such Cash Management Bank for payment after the Petition Date only to the extent authorized by an order of the Court.

9. The Cash Management Banks are authorized, but not directed, to debit the Bank Accounts in the ordinary course of business without further order of this Court for: (a) all checks drawn on the Debtors' accounts that were cashed at such Cash Management Bank's counters or exchanged for cashier's checks by the payees thereof prior to the Petition Date; (b) all checks or other items deposited in one of the Debtors' accounts with such Cash Management Bank prior to the Petition Date that have been dishonored or returned unpaid for any reason, together with any fees and costs in connection therewith, to the same extent the Debtors were responsible for such items prior to the Petition Date; and (c) all prepetition amounts outstanding as of the date hereof, if any, owed to any Cash Management Bank as Bank Fees.

10. Any existing deposit agreements between or among the Debtors, the Cash Management Banks and other parties shall continue to govern the postpetition cash management relationship between the Debtors and the Cash Management Banks, and all provisions of such agreements, including, without limitation, the termination and fee provisions, shall remain in full force and effect unless otherwise ordered by the Court, and either the Debtors or the Cash

Management Banks may, without further order of this Court, implement changes to the Cash Management System and procedures in the ordinary course of business pursuant to the terms of such existing deposit agreements, including, without limitation, the opening and closing of bank accounts; provided that any such changes implemented by the Debtors shall be subject to paragraph thirteen (13) of this Interim Order. For the avoidance of doubt, all deposit control agreements, blocked control agreements, and similar control agreements with respect to the Bank Accounts, including those in favor of the Prepetition ABL Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms and any Financing Order.

11. The Debtors shall have until forty-five (45) calendar days from the entry of this Interim Order, or such longer time as agreed with the U.S. Trustee, without prejudice to seeking an additional extension, to come into compliance with section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to the TD Bank Accounts or make such other arrangements as are agreed to by the U.S. Trustee or approved by the Court; provided that nothing herein shall prevent the Debtors or the U.S. Trustee from seeking further relief from the Court to the extent an agreement cannot be reached.

12. Notwithstanding the Debtors' use of the Cash Management System, the Debtors shall calculate quarterly fees payable under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) based on the disbursements of, or on behalf of, each Debtor regardless of which entity actually makes such disbursements.

13. Subject to the terms hereof and any Financing Order, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practices, to implement changes to the Cash Management System and procedures, including, without limitation, opening any new bank accounts or closing existing Bank Accounts and entering into ancillary agreements, including deposit account control agreements, related to the foregoing, as the Debtors may deem necessary and appropriate; provided, however, that the Debtors shall provide not less than two (2) business days' prior written notice thereof to counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to any statutory committees that may be appointed in these chapter 11 cases (email being sufficient). If an objection is filed with respect to such changes, the Debtors shall not implement such changes without (a) the consensual resolution of such objection or (b) further authorization of this Court. Any new bank account opened by the Debtors shall be established at an institution that is (a) a party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee for Region 3 or is willing to immediately execute a Uniform Depository Agreement, (b) bound by the terms of this Interim Order, and (c) to the extent required under any Financing Order, subject to a deposit or account control agreement in favor of the Prepetition ABL Agent (or such other party as any Financing Order requires). The opening or closing of a bank account shall be timely indicated on the Debtors' monthly operating reports. Any new debtor-in-possession bank account must bear the designation "Debtor-in-Possession" and designated as "Debtor-in-Possession" accounts with the lead case number. The Debtors shall provide notice within one (1) business day to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition ABL

Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and counsel to any statutory committees that may be appointed in these chapter 11 cases of the opening of a new bank account or closing of any existing bank accounts. The U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and counsel to any statutory committees that may be appointed in these chapter 11 cases shall have fourteen (14) calendar days from receipt of such notice to file any objection with regard to the opening or closing of a bank account, or such later date as may be extended by the Court or agreed to between such parties, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the prepetition agreements existing between the Debtors and the Cash Management Banks shall continue to govern the post-petition cash management relationship between the Debtors and the Cash Management Banks and all of the provisions of such agreements, including the termination, fee provisions, rights, benefits, collateral, and offset rights, and remedies afforded under such agreements shall remain in full force and effect absent further order of the Court or, with respect to any such agreement with the Cash Management Banks (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any rights the Cash Management Banks have to use funds from the Bank Accounts to remedy any overdraft of another Bank Account or other cash management obligations, whether prepetition or postpetition to the extent permitted under the applicable agreement), unless the Debtors and the Cash Management Bank(s) agree otherwise, and any other legal rights and remedies afforded to the Cash Management Banks under applicable law shall be preserved.

14. The relief granted in this Interim Order is extended to any new bank account opened by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practice after the date hereof, which account shall be deemed a "Bank Account," and to the bank at which such account is opened, which bank shall be deemed a "Cash Management Bank."

15. For Cash Management Banks at which the Debtors hold Bank Accounts that are party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee for Region 3, within five (5) calendar days of entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall (a) contact each Cash Management Bank, (b) provide each Cash Management Bank with each of the Debtors' employer identification numbers, and (c) identify each of the Bank Accounts held at such Banks as being held by a debtor in possession in a bankruptcy case, and request such Cash Management Banks to code the Bank Accounts as a "debtors in possession" account, and provide the lead case number.

16. For the Cash Management Banks at which the Debtors hold Bank Accounts that are not a party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee, the Debtors shall use their good faith efforts to cause the Cash Management Banks to execute a Uniform Depository Agreement in a form prescribed by the U.S. Trustee within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of this Interim Order. The Debtors' and U.S. Trustee's rights to seek further relief from this Court on notice in the event that the aforementioned Cash Management Banks are unwilling to execute a Uniform Depository Agreement in a form prescribed by the U.S. Trustee are fully preserved.

17. All banks maintaining any of the Bank Accounts that are provided with notice of this Interim Order shall not honor or pay any payments drawn on the Bank Accounts or otherwise issued before the Petition Date for which the Debtors specifically issue timely stop-payment orders in accordance with the documents governing such Bank Accounts.

18. The Cash Management Banks are authorized, without further order of this Court, to deduct or debit any applicable Bank Fees from the applicable Bank Accounts in the ordinary course of business consistent with historical practices, and the automatic stay is modified to the extent necessary to permit the Cash Management Banks to effectuate such debits.

19. The Cash Management Banks are authorized, without further order of this Court, to charge back to the appropriate accounts of the Debtors any amounts resulting from returned checks or other returned items, including returned items resulting from ACH transactions, wire transfers, EFTs or other electronic transfers of any kind, regardless of whether such returned items were deposited or transferred prepetition or postpetition and regardless of whether the returned items relate to prepetition or postpetition items or transfers.

20. Notwithstanding paragraph seventeen (17) or the other terms set forth herein, (i) any bank, including the Cash Management Banks, may rely upon the representations of the Debtors, without duty of inquiry, with respect to whether any check, draft, wire, payment order, or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to this or any other order of this Court, and such bank shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations by the Debtors, and (ii) no bank that honors a prepetition check or other item drawn on any account that is the subject of this Interim Order (a) at the direction of the Debtors, (b) in a good-faith belief that this Court has authorized such prepetition check or item to be honored and/or (c) as a result of a mistake made despite implementation of reasonable customary handling procedures shall be deemed to be nor shall be liable to the Debtors, their estates or any other party on account of such prepetition check or other item being honored postpetition or otherwise deemed to be in violation of this Interim Order including in connection with any stop-payment orders issued by the Debtors.

21. Any banks, including the Cash Management Banks, are further authorized to honor the Debtors' directions with respect to the opening and closing of any Bank Account and accept and hold, or invest, the Debtors' funds in accordance with the Debtors' instructions; provided that the Cash Management Banks shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations to the extent such reliance otherwise complies with applicable law.

22. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to honor their obligations with respect to Intercompany Transactions and to continue engaging in Intercompany Transactions, including with respect to netting or setoffs, in connection with the Cash Management System in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis in a manner substantially consistent with the Debtors' past practices and consistent with any Financing Order. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to set off mutual prepetition obligations and mutual postpetition obligations in connection with the Cash Management System solely to the extent consistent with the Debtors' past historical practices and any Financing Order.

23. The Debtors shall maintain accurate and detailed records of all transfers within the Cash Management System, including Intercompany Transactions and the payment of Intercompany Claims, so that all transfers and transactions may be readily traced, ascertained and recorded properly on the Debtors' Books and Records and on applicable intercompany accounts (if any) to the same extent as maintained prior to commencement of the chapter 11 cases, and distinguished between prepetition and postpetition transactions for purposes of determining administrative expense status. Upon the request of the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, or counsel to any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors shall make such records available to such parties.

24. During the period prior to entry of the Final Order, all postpetition payments or other transfers of cash from a Debtor to another Debtor on account of any postpetition Intercompany Transaction authorized hereunder that result in an Intercompany Claim are hereby accorded administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that any such administrative expense claim shall be subject and junior to any claims, including adequate protection claims, cash collateral and/or claims for postpetition financing, granted in connection with any Financing Order. To the extent any postpetition Intercompany Transaction authorized hereunder constitutes an extension of credit from a Debtor to a Non-Debtor Subsidiary, any resulting Intercompany Claim in favor of such Debtor is hereby accorded superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code upon three (3) business days' notice to the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases; provided that any such superpriority administrative expense claim shall be subject and junior to any claims, including adequate protection claims, cash collateral and/or claims for postpetition financing, granted in connection with any Financing Order, and any carve-out thereunder. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes any Intercompany Transaction with, or any payment or other transfer on account of any Intercompany Transaction, directly or indirectly (including through any Non-Debtor Subsidiary), to or for the benefit of, Mithaq Capital SPC or any of its affiliates (other than the Debtors and the Non-Debtor Subsidiaries) or any other insider (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors other than a direct or indirect subsidiary of the Debtors. For the avoidance of doubt, the relief granted in this Interim Order shall not constitute a finding as to the validity, priority, or status of any prepetition intercompany balance, and all parties reserve their rights to contest the validity, priority, or status of any such prepetition intercompany balance. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, nor any action taken by the Debtors pursuant to this Interim Order, shall be deemed a waiver of rights of any party-in-interest to dispute the amount of, basis for, validity or treatment of any Intercompany Transaction or any intercompany claim or the allocation of expenses or other costs.

25. The Debtors are further authorized, but not directed, to maintain the Credit Card Program administered by American Express, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, and the Debtors shall honor all prepetition and postpetition obligations arising in connection with the Credit Card Program and pay or reimburse any ordinary course amounts owed in connection therewith, including any fees, charges, refunds, chargebacks, reserves and other amounts due and owing from the Debtors to American Express in connection with the Credit Card Program.

American Express is authorized to receive or obtain payment for such obligations as provided under, and in the manner set forth in, the applicable agreement governing the Credit Card Program.

26. The Debtors are authorized to pay or permit the netting of all outstanding prepetition and ordinary-course Payment Processing Fees and Transport Fees that come due in the ordinary settlement cycle, all consistent with the Budget approved by the Court.

27. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order shall be construed to (a) create or perfect, in favor of any person or entity, any interest in cash of a Debtor that did not exist as of the Petition Date or (b) alter or impair the validity, priority, enforceability or perfection of any security interest, lien or setoff right, in favor of any person or entity, that existed as of the Petition Date.

28. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order, the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval or authorization to assume, adopt or reject any agreement, contract or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability or perfection of any lien on, security interest in or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's claims, causes of action or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens, whether contractual, common law, statutory or otherwise, that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order is not intended and shall not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

29. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks or effect postpetition fund transfer requests in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Interim Order.

30. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim

Order. To the extent any other order is entered by the Court directing any bank, including the Cash Management Banks, to honor checks, drafts, ACH transfers, or other electronic fund transfers or any other withdrawals made, drawn, or issued in payment of prepetition or postpetition claims, the obligation to honor such items shall be subject to this Interim Order.

31. Within two (2) calendar days after entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall serve a copy of this Interim Order on each applicable bank and financial institution that is directed to comply with the terms of this Interim Order.

32. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

33. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) are satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise deemed waived.

34. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

35. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

36. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of the Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

37. The Debtors shall by email (if available) or by regular mail (if email is unavailable) serve a copy of this Interim Order and the Motion on all parties required to receive such service pursuant to Local Rule 9013-5(f).

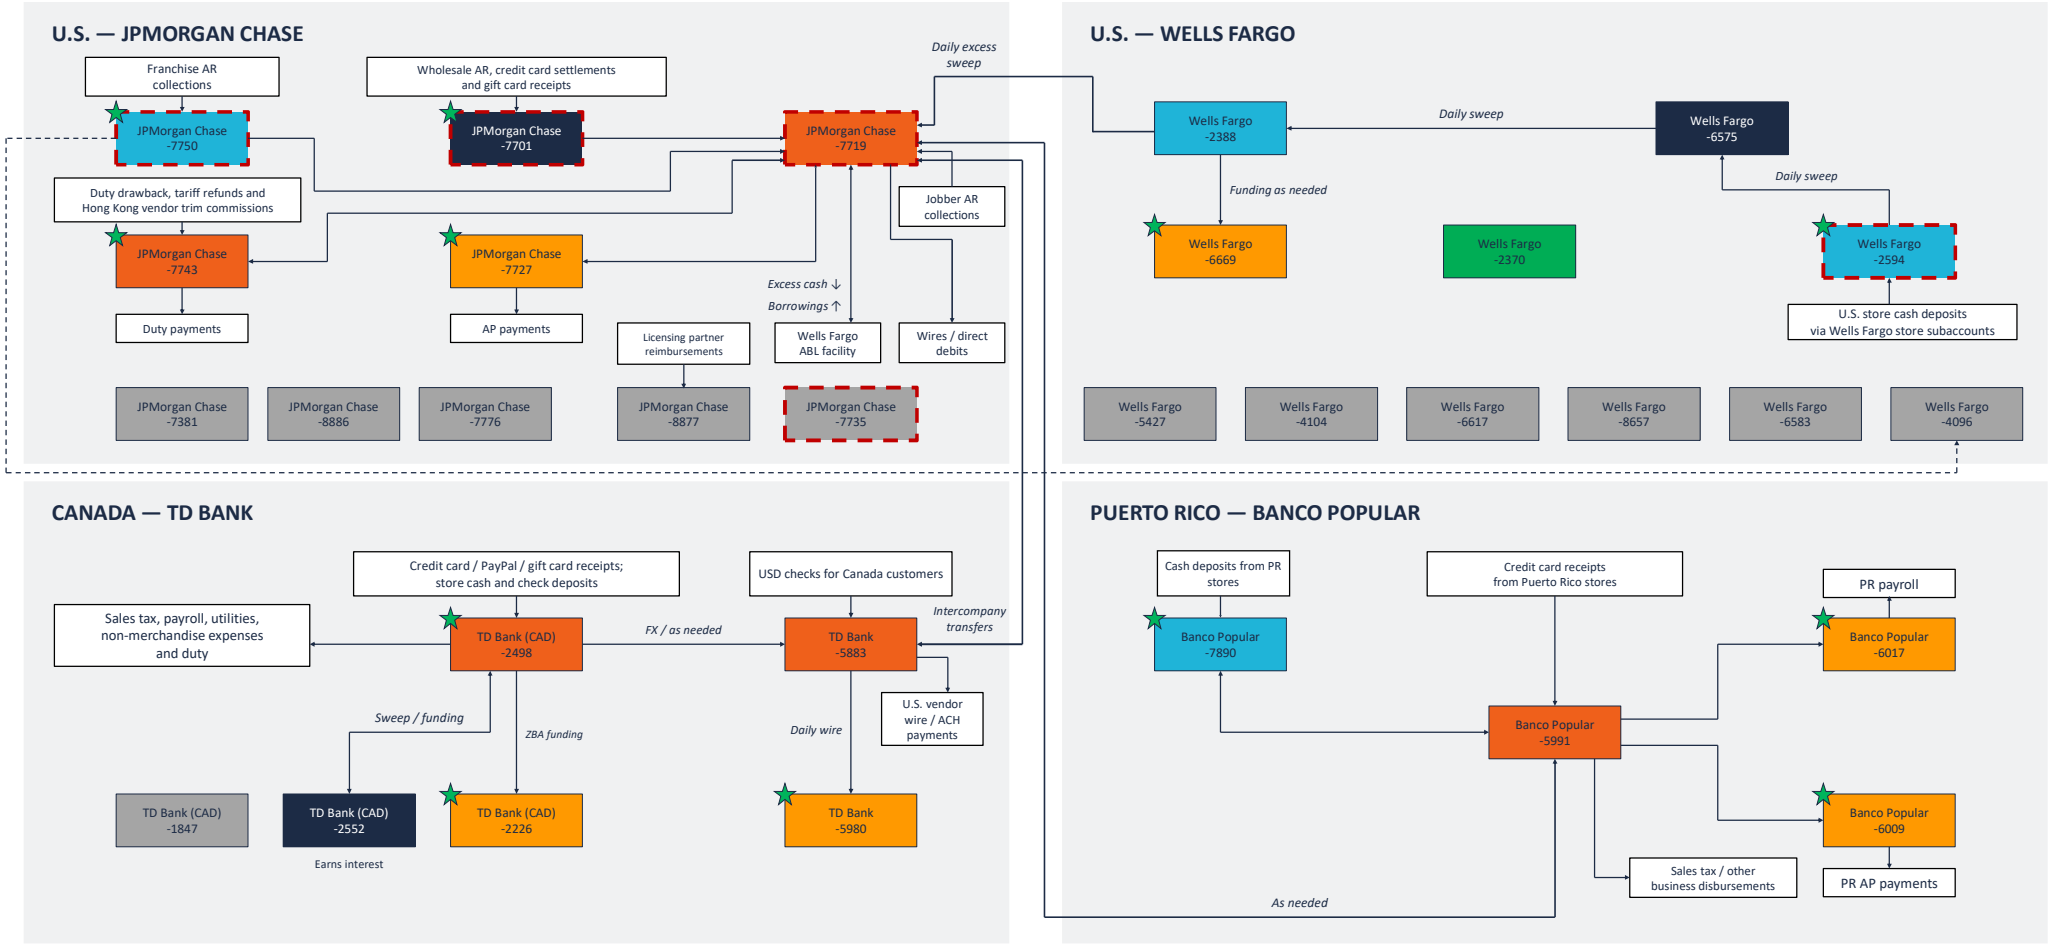
38. Any party may move for modification of this Interim Order in accordance with Local Rule 9013-5(e).

39. All Cash Management Banks with which any Debtor maintains Bank Accounts are authorized and directed to follow any instruction of any lender party to a blocked account or control agreement with respect to the disposition of any such accounts (and all deposits therein) maintained with such Bank following the exercise of any remedies of such lender, such as delivery of a shifting control notice, either (i) prior to the Petition Date (including, without limitation, the Shifting Control Notice, dated October 28, 2026 received by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., from Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.); or (ii) after the Petition Date in accordance with the documents and orders evidencing any postpetition financing facility including any interim or final Financing Order.



40. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Interim Order.

2 Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the Motion.

jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11 of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that it may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"), if any; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on a final basis as set forth herein.

2. Any objections to the entry of this Final Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

3. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Final Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

4. The Debtors are authorized, subject to the terms set forth herein, but not directed, to: (a) continue using the Cash Management System maintained by the Debtors before the Petition Date, as described in the Motion and substantially as identified on Exhibit 1 attached to the Interim Order, and honor any prepetition obligations related to the use thereof, including Bank Fees, Payment Processing Fees, Transport Fees, amounts outstanding under the Credit Card Program and amounts associated with customer refunds; (b) use, in their present form, all preprinted correspondence and Business Forms, including letterhead, without reference to the Debtors' status as debtors in possession and continue using, in their present form, the Books and Records; (c) continue to perform Intercompany Transactions in the ordinary course of business and consistent with past practice, and in accordance with terms and conditions of any Financing Order; (d) maintain all of their existing Bank Accounts, including, but not limited to, the Bank Accounts identified on Exhibit 2 attached to the Interim Order, in the names and with the account numbers existing immediately before the Petition Date, without the need to comply with any requirement under the U.S. Trustee Guidelines requiring the opening of separate debtor-in-possession accounts;

(e) treat the Bank Accounts for all purposes as debtor-in-possession accounts; (f) deposit funds in and withdraw funds from the Bank Accounts in the ordinary course and by all means, including checks, wire transfers, direct deposits, ACH transfers, EFTs, credit card settlements and other electronic means; (g) pay the Bank Fees, including any prepetition amounts, and any ordinary-course Bank Fees incurred in connection with the Bank Accounts, and otherwise perform their obligations under the documents governing the Bank Accounts; (h) pay all outstanding prepetition and ordinary-course Payment Processing Fees and Transport Fees as they become due and payable; and (i) continue the Credit Card Program in the ordinary course of business on prepetition terms, including paying all associated fees and other amounts due on account thereof, and honor and pay any prepetition obligations under the Credit Card Program that become due in the ordinary monthly cycle after the Petition Date; provided that, in the case of each (a) through (i), such action is taken in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practices.

5. Once the Debtors' existing stock of Business Forms including checks have been used, the Debtors shall, when reordering (or with respect to checks or other Business Forms the Debtors or their agents print themselves), require or print, as applicable, the designation "Debtors in Possession" and the corresponding bankruptcy case number on all items. With respect to electronically produced checks, the Debtors shall continue to reflect their status as debtors in possession and include the corresponding lead bankruptcy case number thereon.

6. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue paying their tax obligations from the Bank Accounts in the ordinary course of business and shall not be required to establish a separate debtor-in-possession bank account solely for the payment of tax obligations.

7. The Cash Management Banks are authorized, but not directed, to continue to maintain, service and administer the Bank Accounts as accounts of the Debtors as debtors in possession, without interruption and in the ordinary course of business consistent with historical practices and the Cash Management System, and to receive, process, honor and pay, to the extent of available funds, any and all checks, drafts, wires, credit card payments, ACH transfers, EFTs and other electronic payments issued or drawn on the Bank Accounts after the Petition Date by the holders or makers thereof, as the case may be, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Final Order; provided, subject to paragraph eight (8) of this Final Order, that the Debtors shall instruct or request any Cash Management Bank to pay or honor any check, draft or other payment issued on a Bank Account prior to the Petition Date but presented to such Cash Management Bank for payment after the Petition Date only to the extent authorized by an order of the Court.

8. The Cash Management Banks are authorized, but not directed, to debit the Bank Accounts in the ordinary course of business without further order of this Court for: (a) all checks drawn on the Debtors' accounts that were cashed at such Cash Management Bank's counters or exchanged for cashier's checks by the payees thereof prior to the Petition Date; (b) all checks or other items deposited in one of the Debtors' accounts with such Cash Management Bank prior to the Petition Date that have been dishonored or returned unpaid for any reason, together with any fees and costs in connection therewith, to the same extent the Debtors were responsible for such items prior to the Petition Date; and (c) all prepetition amounts outstanding as of the date hereof, if any, owed to any Cash Management Bank as Bank Fees.

9. Any existing deposit agreements between or among the Debtors, the Cash Management Banks and other parties shall continue to govern the postpetition cash management relationship between the Debtors and the Cash Management Banks, and all provisions of such agreements, including, without limitation, the termination and fee provisions, shall remain in full force and effect unless otherwise ordered by the Court, and either the Debtors or the Cash Management Banks may, without further order of this Court, implement changes to the Cash Management System and procedures in the ordinary course of business pursuant to the terms of such existing deposit agreements, including, without limitation, the opening and closing of bank accounts; provided that any such changes implemented by the Debtors shall be subject to paragraph twelve (12) of this Final Order. For the avoidance of doubt, all deposit account control agreements, blocked account agreements, and similar control agreements with respect to the Bank Accounts, including those in favor of the respective Prepetition Agents, shall continue in full force and effect in accordance with their terms and any Financing Order.

10. The requirements of section 345(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and the U.S. Trustee Guidelines are hereby waived with respect to the TD Bank Accounts.

11. Notwithstanding the Debtors' use of the Cash Management System, the Debtors shall calculate quarterly fees payable under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6) based on the disbursements of, or on behalf of, each Debtor regardless of which entity actually makes such disbursements.

12. Subject to the terms hereof and any Financing Order, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practices, to implement changes to the Cash Management System and procedures, including, without limitation, opening any new bank accounts or closing existing Bank Accounts and entering into ancillary agreements, including deposit account control agreements, related to the foregoing, as the Debtors may deem necessary and appropriate; provided, however, that the Debtors shall provide not less than two (2) business days' prior written notice thereof to counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, the U.S. Trustee, and counsel to any statutory committees that may be appointed in these chapter 11 cases (email being sufficient). If an objection is filed with respect to such changes, the Debtors shall not implement such changes without (a) the consensual resolution of such objection or (b) further authorization of this Court. Any new bank account opened by the Debtors shall be established at an institution that is (a) a party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee for Region 3 or is willing to immediately execute a Uniform Depository Agreement, (b) bound by the terms of this Final Order, and (c) to the extent required under any Financing Order, subject to a deposit account control agreement in favor of the Prepetition ABL Agent (or such other party as any Financing Order requires). The opening or closing of a bank account shall be timely indicated on the Debtors' monthly operating reports. Any new debtor-in-possession bank account must bear the designation "Debtor-in-Possession" and designated as "Debtor-in-Possession" accounts with the lead case number. The Debtors shall provide notice within one (1) business day to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and counsel to any statutory committees that may be appointed in these chapter 11 cases of the opening of a new bank account or closing of any existing bank accounts. The U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and counsel to any statutory committees that may be appointed in these chapter 11 cases shall have fourteen (14) calendar days from receipt of such notice to file any objection with regard to the opening or closing of a bank account, or such later date as may be extended by the Court or agreed to between such parties, as applicable. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the prepetition agreements existing between the Debtors and the Cash Management Banks shall continue to govern the post-petition cash management relationship between the Debtors and the Cash Management Banks and all of the provisions of such agreements, including the termination, fee provisions, rights, benefits, collateral, and offset rights, and remedies afforded under such agreements shall remain in full force and effect absent further order of the Court or, with respect to any such agreement with the Cash Management Banks (including, for the avoidance of doubt, any rights the Cash Management Banks have to use funds from the Bank Accounts to remedy any overdraft of another Bank Account or other cash management obligations, whether prepetition or postpetition to the extent permitted under the applicable agreement), unless the Debtors and the Cash Management Bank(s) agree otherwise, and any other legal rights and remedies afforded to the Cash Management Banks under applicable law shall be preserved.

13. The relief granted in this Final Order is extended to any new bank account opened by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business and consistent with historical practice after the date hereof, which account shall be deemed a "Bank Account," and to the bank at which such account is opened, which bank shall be deemed a "Cash Management Bank."

14. For Cash Management Banks at which the Debtors hold Bank Accounts that are party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee for Region 3, within five (5) calendar days of entry of this Final Order, the Debtors shall (a) contact each Cash Management Bank, (b) provide each Cash Management Bank with each of the Debtors' employer identification numbers, and (c) identify each of the Bank Accounts held at such Banks as being held by a debtor in possession in a bankruptcy case, and request such Cash Management Banks to code the Bank Accounts as a "debtors in possession" account, and provide the case number.

15. For the Cash Management Banks at which the Debtors hold Bank Accounts that are not a party to a Uniform Depository Agreement with the U.S. Trustee, the Debtors shall use their good faith efforts to cause the Cash Management Banks to execute a Uniform Depository Agreement in a form prescribed by the U.S. Trustee within thirty (30) calendar days of the date of this Final Order. The Debtors' and U.S. Trustee's rights to seek further relief from this Court on notice in the event that the aforementioned Cash Management Banks are unwilling to execute a Uniform Depository Agreement in a form prescribed by the U.S. Trustee are fully preserved.

16. All banks maintaining any of the Bank Accounts that are provided with notice of this Final Order shall not honor or pay any payments drawn on the Bank Accounts or otherwise issued before the Petition Date for which the Debtors specifically issue timely stop-payment orders in accordance with the documents governing such Bank Accounts.

17. The Cash Management Banks are authorized, without further order of this Court, to deduct or debit any applicable Bank Fees from the applicable Bank Accounts in the ordinary course of business consistent with historical practices, and the automatic stay is modified to the extent necessary to permit the Cash Management Banks to effectuate such debits.

18. The Cash Management Banks are authorized, without further order of this Court, to charge back to the appropriate accounts of the Debtors any amounts resulting from returned checks or other returned items, including returned items resulting from ACH transactions, wire transfers, EFTs or other electronic transfers of any kind, regardless of whether such returned items were deposited or transferred prepetition or postpetition and regardless of whether the returned items relate to prepetition or postpetition items or transfers.

19. Notwithstanding paragraph sixteen (16) or the other terms set forth herein, (i) any bank, including the Cash Management Banks, may rely upon the representations of the Debtors, without a duty of inquiry, with respect to whether any check, draft, wire, payment order, or other transfer drawn or issued by the Debtors prior to the Petition Date should be honored pursuant to this or any other order of this Court, and such bank shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations by the Debtors, and (ii) no bank that honors a prepetition check or other item drawn on any account that is the subject of this Final Order (a) at the direction of the Debtors, (b) in a good-faith belief that this Court has authorized such prepetition check or item to be honored and/or (c) as a result of a mistake made despite implementation of reasonable customary handling procedures shall be deemed to be nor shall be liable to the Debtors, their estates or any other party on account of such prepetition check or other item being honored postpetition or otherwise deemed to be in violation of this Final Order including in connection with any stop-payment orders issued by the Debtors.

20. Any banks, including the Cash Management Banks, are further authorized to honor the Debtors' directions with respect to the opening and closing of any Bank Account and accept and hold, or invest, the Debtors' funds in accordance with the Debtors' instructions; provided that the Cash Management Banks shall not have any liability to any party for relying on such representations to the extent such reliance otherwise complies with applicable law.

21. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to honor their obligations with respect to Intercompany Transactions and to continue engaging in Intercompany Transactions, including with respect to netting or setoffs, in connection with the Cash Management System in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis in a manner substantially consistent with the Debtors' past practices and consistent with any Financing Order. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to set off mutual prepetition obligations and mutual postpetition obligations in connection with the Cash Management System solely to the extent consistent with the Debtors' past historical practices and any Financing Order.

22. The Debtors shall maintain accurate and detailed records of all transfers within the Cash Management System, including Intercompany Transactions and the payment of Intercompany Claims, so that all transfers and transactions may be readily traced, ascertained and recorded properly on the Debtors' Books and Records and applicable intercompany accounts (if any) to the same extent as maintained prior to commencement of the chapter 11 cases, and distinguished between prepetition and postpetition transactions for purposes of determining administrative expense status. Upon the request of the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility or counsel to any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors shall make such records available to such parties.

23. All postpetition payments or other transfers of cash from a Debtor to another Debtor on account of any postpetition Intercompany Transaction authorized hereunder that result in an Intercompany Claim are hereby accorded administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that any such administrative expense claim shall be subject and junior to any claims, including adequate protection claims, cash collateral and/or claims for postpetition financing, granted in connection with any Financing Order. To the extent any postpetition Intercompany Transaction authorized hereunder constitutes an extension of credit from a Debtor to a Non-Debtor Subsidiary, any resulting Intercompany Claim in favor of such Debtor is hereby accorded superpriority administrative expense status pursuant to sections 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code upon three (3) business days' notice to the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases; provided that any such superpriority administrative expense claim shall be subject and junior to any claims, including adequate protection claims, cash collateral and/or claims for postpetition financing, granted in connection with any Financing Order, and any carve-out thereunder. Nothing in this Final Order authorizes any Intercompany Transaction with, or any payment or other transfer on account of any Intercompany Transaction, directly or indirectly (including through any Non-Debtor Subsidiary), to or for the benefit of, Mithaq Capital SPC or any of its affiliates (other than the Debtors and the Non-Debtor Subsidiaries) or any other insider (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors other than a direct or indirect subsidiary of the Debtors. For the avoidance of doubt, the relief granted in this Final Order shall not constitute a finding as to the validity, priority, or status of any prepetition intercompany balance, and all parties reserve their rights to contest the validity, priority, or status of any such prepetition intercompany balance. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Final Order, nor any action taken by the Debtors pursuant to this Final Order, shall be deemed a waiver of rights of any party-in-interest to dispute the amount of, basis for, validity or treatment of any Intercompany Transaction or any intercompany claim or the allocation of expenses or other costs.

24. The Debtors are further authorized, but not directed, to maintain the Credit Card Program administered by American Express, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, and the Debtors shall honor all prepetition and postpetition obligations arising in connection with the Credit Card Program and pay or reimburse any ordinary course amounts owed in connection therewith, including any fees, charges, refunds, chargebacks, reserves and other amounts due and owing from the Debtors to American Express in connection with the Credit Card Program. American Express is authorized to receive or obtain payment for such obligations as provided under, and in the manner set forth in, the applicable agreement governing the Credit Card Program.

25. The Debtors are authorized to pay or permit the netting of all outstanding prepetition and ordinary-course Payment Processing Fees and Transport Fees that come due in the ordinary settlement cycle, all consistent with the Budget approved by the Court.

26. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Final Order shall be construed to (a) create or perfect, in favor of any person or entity, any interest in cash of a Debtor that did not exist as of the Petition Date or (b) alter or impair the validity, priority, enforceability or perfection of any security interest, lien or setoff right, in favor of any person or entity, that existed as of the Petition Date.

27. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Final Order, the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion;

(e) a request, approval or authorization to assume, adopt or reject any agreement, contract or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability or perfection of any lien on, security interest in or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's claims, causes of action or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens, whether contractual, common law, statutory or otherwise, that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Final Order is not intended and shall not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

28. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks or effect postpetition fund transfer requests in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Final Order.

29. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Final Order. To the extent any other order is entered by the Court directing any bank, including the Cash Management Banks, to honor checks, drafts, ACH transfers, or other electronic funds transfers or any other withdrawals made, drawn, or issued in payment of prepetition or postpetition claims, the obligation to honor such items shall be subject to this Final Order.

30. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Final Order in accordance with the Motion.

31. Within two (2) calendar days after entry of this Final Order, the Debtors shall serve a copy of this Final Order on each applicable bank and financial institution that is directed to comply with the terms of this Final Order.

32. Nothing in this Final Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

33. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

34. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of the Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

35. All Cash Management Banks with which any Debtor maintains Bank Accounts are authorized and directed to follow any instruction of any lender party to a blocked account or control agreement with respect to the disposition of any such accounts (and all deposits therein) maintained with such Bank following the exercise of any remedies of such lender, such as delivery of a shifting control notice, either (i) prior to the Petition Date (including, without limitation, the Shifting Control Notice, dated October 28, 2026 received by JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., from Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.); or (ii) after the Petition Date in accordance with the documents and orders evidencing any postpetition financing facility including any interim or final Financing Order.

In re: THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC., et al., Debtors.[1]	Chapter 11 Case No. 26-22682 (SLM) (Joint Administration Requested)

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtor's tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. The location of the Debtors' service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094.

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) AUTHORIZING (A) PAYMENT OF PREPETITION WAGES, SALARIES AND OTHER COMPENSATION AND (B) CONTINUATION OF BENEFITS PROGRAMS, AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") state as follows in support of this motion (the "Motion"):[2]

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B (respectively, the "Interim Order" and "Final Order"): (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (i) pay prepetition wages, salaries, other compensation, and reimbursable expenses and (ii) continue the Employee Benefits Programs (as defined herein) in the ordinary course, including payment of certain prepetition obligations related thereto; and (b) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). The

[2] A detailed description of the Debtors and their business, including the facts and circumstances giving rise to the chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Rudolph Morando, Co-Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtors, in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration") filed contemporaneously herewith. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Motion have the meaning ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration.

Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 363(b), 363(c), 507(a), 541(b)(1), 541(d), and 1107 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules 2002-1, 9013-1, and 9013-5 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

The Debtors' Workforce

7. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors and their non-debtor affiliates (collectively, the "Company") employ approximately 7,210 individuals who work in either full-time or part-time positions (including executives, human resources, sales, customer service, marketing, accounting, finance, legal, administrative, and other personnel, the "Employees"), of which approximately 6,911 are employed by the Debtors. Approximately 6,162 of the Company's Employees are located in the United States (the "U.S. Employees") and approximately 1,048 of the Company's Employees are located abroad (the "Foreign Employees"), including approximately 749 in Canada (the "Canadian Employees"). The Company also employs approximately 13 temporary workers and independent contractors (together, the "Temporary Staff") across a number of corporate functions, including, among others, finance, design, marketing, and merchandising.

8. Through this Motion, the Debtors are seeking to pay certain amounts necessary to preserve their estates' value. The Employees are intimately familiar with the Debtors' business and perform a wide variety of services that are critical to the Debtors' ability to successfully operate and administer these chapter 11 cases. Payment of the Unpaid Employee Compensation (as defined below) and continuation of the Compensation and Benefits (as defined below) going forward will preserve Employee loyalty and prevent the Debtors from losing such Employees at this critical juncture. The Debtors are also requesting the authority, but not direction, to pay the Unpaid Temporary Staff Compensation (as defined below) in amounts that will not exceed the Priority Cap (as defined below) for any specific Temporary Staff (as defined below). Accordingly, the relief requested herein is warranted under the circumstances, and the Court should grant the Interim and Final Orders.

Compensation and Benefits

9. To minimize the personal hardship that the Employees would suffer and the attrition that likely would follow if prepetition employment-related obligations remain unpaid during the administration of these chapter 11 cases, the Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to: (a) pay and honor certain prepetition claims relating to, among other things, wages, salaries, other compensation, federal, state, provincial, and local withholding taxes and other amounts withheld (including garnishments and applicable shares of insurance premiums, 401(k) contributions and taxes), reimbursable expenses, non-insider severance, retirement plans, health insurance, life insurance, short- and long-term disability coverage, and certain other benefits that the Debtors have historically provided to eligible individuals (collectively, the "Compensation and Benefits"),[3] in each case in the ordinary course of business; and (b) continue to honor such obligations in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis, in the Debtors' discretion, on an interim and final basis, as detailed and summarized in the chart below. In addition, the Debtors seek to pay all costs incidental to the Compensation and Benefits.

10. Subject to the Court's authorization, the Debtors intend to continue to pay and honor the Employees' prepetition Compensation and Benefits in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis. The Debtors further request confirmation of their authority to modify, change, or discontinue any of the Compensation and Benefits and to implement new programs, policies, and benefits in each case in the ordinary course during these chapter 11 cases in the Debtors' sole discretion and without the need for further Court approval, subject to applicable law.

[3] The description of the Compensation and Benefits set forth in this Motion is provided on a summary basis. In the event of any inconsistency with the description in this Motion, the actual terms of the agreements, contracts, plans, programs, policies, and manuals governing the Compensation and Benefits will govern. The Debtors request authority to honor obligations related to Compensation and Benefits in the ordinary course of business consistent with prepetition practices, regardless of whether the Debtors inadvertently failed to include a particular benefit or aspect of compensation in the defined term "Compensation and Benefits." Any such omitted benefit or aspect of compensation is hereby included in the defined terms "Compensation and Benefits" as used herein and in the Interim and Final Orders.

11. The Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to make the following payments related to the prepetition amounts owed on account of the Compensation and Benefits, each of which is further described below:

12. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately $2.9 million in Compensation and Benefits will be accrued and unpaid, approximately all of which will come due between entry of the Interim Order and Final Order (the "Interim Period"). With the exception of Accrued PTO (as defined below), the Debtors do not believe that amounts owed to any single Employee on account of the prepetition Compensation and Benefits exceed the $17,150 statutory cap under sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Priority Cap"). With respect to Accrued PTO, the Debtors will only seek authority to pay amounts owed in excess of the Priority Cap (a) pursuant to the Final Order, (b) if an Employee is terminated or resigns during the Interim Period, and (c) if such Employee resides in a jurisdiction that requires the Debtors to pay out such Employee's Accrued PTO.

I. Compensation and Withholding Obligations

13. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur obligations with respect to their Employees on account of Employee Compensation, Temporary Staff Compensation, Withholding and Deduction Obligations, Payroll Deductions, Payroll Taxes, and Reimbursable Expenses (each as defined herein) (collectively, the "Compensation and Withholding Obligations"). The Debtors estimate that approximately $16.3 million per month was paid or withheld, as applicable, on account of the Compensation and Withholding Obligations for the 12-month period immediately preceding the Petition Date. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $1.4 million in accrued but unpaid Compensation and Withholding Obligations, approximately all of which is expected to come due during the Interim Period. Accordingly, the Debtors request the authority, but not direction, to pay the accrued but unpaid Compensation and Withholding Obligations and, solely with respect to the Employees, to continue paying the Compensation and Withholding Obligations in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

A. Employee Compensation

14. The Debtors incur obligations to their Employees for, among other things, wages, salaries, overtime, and other obligations described herein (collectively, excluding reimbursable expenses and paid leave, the "Employee Compensation"). U.S. and Canadian Employees are paid approximately one week in arrears on a biweekly pay cycle. Employees in international locations other than Canada are paid monthly for the full calendar month, on location-specific schedules. Because Employees are paid in arrears, certain Employees will be owed accrued but unpaid Employee Compensation as of the Petition Date. Employee Compensation may also be due and owing as of the Petition Date due to, among other things, pay discrepancies that, upon resolution, may reveal that additional amounts are owed to certain Employees (the "Unpaid Employee Compensation").

15. On average, the Debtors paid approximately $3.9 million per month prepetition on account of Employee Compensation. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $372,000 in Unpaid Employee Compensation, all of which is currently due or is expected to come due during the Interim Period.

16. Failure to pay the Unpaid Employee Compensation will create an immediate risk of widespread departures. The Debtors believe that paying the Unpaid Employee Compensation and continuing to pay the Employee Compensation to the Employees will reduce attrition and minimize disruption of the Debtors' business operations. Timely payment of the Employee Compensation and Unpaid Employee Compensation preserves and enhances the value of the Debtors' estates for their estates' benefit. Accordingly, the Debtors request the authority, but not direction, to pay the Unpaid Employee Compensation and to continue paying the Employee Compensation in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

B. Temporary Staff Compensation

17. Debtors utilize Temporary Staff and incur obligations for services rendered by the Temporary Staff, whether payable directly to such individuals or through staffing agencies, as applicable (the "Temporary Staff Compensation"). The Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to pay prepetition Temporary Staff Compensation and to continue paying Temporary Staff Compensation in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis.

18. On average, in the twelve months immediately preceding the Petition Date, the Debtors paid approximately $871,000 per month in Temporary Staff Compensation. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $838,600 in unpaid Temporary Staff Compensation (the "Unpaid Temporary Staff Compensation"), approximately all of which is due or is expected to come due during the Interim Period. Each payment that the Debtors seek to make to each individual Temporary Staff member will not exceed the Priority Cap.

C. Withholding and Deduction Obligations

19. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors incur obligations on account of Payroll Deductions and Payroll Taxes (each as defined below and collectively, the "Withholding and Deduction Obligations"). The Debtors accumulate, on average, approximately $3.6 million per month in Withholding and Deduction Obligations. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they have withheld or accrued, as applicable, approximately $142,000 on account of the Withholding and Deduction Obligations, all of which the Debtors must remit to the appropriate parties during the Interim Period. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Court authorize the Debtors to pay any prepetition claims arising from the Withholding and Deduction Obligations and to continue honoring the Withholding and Deduction Obligations solely for the Employees in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis and consistent with past practice.

1. Payroll Deductions

20. In the ordinary course of business and during each applicable payroll period, the Debtors routinely deduct certain amounts from Employees' paychecks. Such deductions may include, among other things, garnishments as well as other pre-tax and after-tax deductions payable pursuant to certain employee benefit plans, retirement plan contributions, insurance premiums, 401(k), and HSA and FSA contributions (collectively, the "Payroll Deductions"). The Debtors remit the Payroll Deductions to various third parties.

21. On average, in the twelve months immediately preceding the Petition Date, the Debtors remitted approximately $90,000 per month in Payroll Deductions. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they have deducted, but not yet remitted, approximately $3,500, all of which is expected to be remitted during the Interim Period. Accordingly, the Debtors request the authority to remit the Payroll Deductions they currently hold and to continue making the Payroll Deductions for the Employees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

2. Payroll Taxes

22. In addition to the Payroll Deductions, certain federal, state, and foreign laws (including the laws of Canada and the provinces therein) require the Debtors to withhold or deduct certain amounts from Employees' gross pay for, among other things, federal, state, local, and foreign (including federal and provincial) income taxes, Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan contributions, employment insurance premiums, as well as Social Security and Medicare taxes (collectively, the "Employee Payroll Taxes") and remit these amounts to the appropriate federal, state, local, or foreign taxing authorities (including Canadian taxing authorities). The Debtors must then match the Employee Payroll Taxes from their own funds and pay, based upon a percentage of gross payroll, additional amounts for, among other things, federal and state unemployment insurance and short-term disability insurance, Canada Pension Plan or Quebec Pension Plan contributions, employment insurance premiums, health taxes, and other foreign social insurance contributions (the "Employer Payroll Taxes" and together with the Employee Payroll Taxes, the "Payroll Taxes"). The Payroll Taxes are generally processed and forwarded to the appropriate federal, state, local, and foreign taxing authorities based on each authority's guidelines, rules, schedules, or regulations, as applicable. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors believe they have incurred approximately $139,000 in Payroll Taxes, all of which is due to be remitted or paid, as applicable, to the appropriate third party during the Interim Period.

23. With the exception of the Employer Payroll Taxes, any amounts held by the Debtors based on the Withholding and Deduction Obligations are held in trust by the Debtors and are not property of the Debtors' estates. The Debtors do not believe they need authorization to remit such payments to the appropriate third parties. Out of an abundance of caution, however, the Debtors seek the authority, but not direction, to remit any Withholding and Deduction Obligations the Debtors are holding to the appropriate third parties and to continue deducting or incurring, as applicable, and remitting the Withholding and Deduction Obligations for the Employees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

D. Reimbursable Expenses

24. Prior to the Petition Date and in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors reimbursed Employees for approved expenses incurred with Employees' personal funds on behalf of the Debtors in connection with performing their assigned duties (the "Reimbursable Expenses"). Reimbursable Expenses include mileage, transportation, and hotel expenses related to business travel; meals during overnight travel, up to $50 per day; expenses related to store coverage and acting assignments; visa and passport fees; seminar fees with approval; immunization costs; business telephone calls; and Global Entry program fees, in each case subject to the applicable expense policy. Employees submit expense reports through Concur, the Debtors' expense management platform, and each expense report is reviewed and approved by the Employee's manager for policy compliance. Once Reimbursable Expenses are approved, Employees receive funds directly to their designated bank account, generally within three to five business days. Corporate American Express card expenses follow a similar approval process, but payment is made directly to the Employee's American Express account.

25. Although the Debtors ask that Employees promptly submit reimbursement requests, submission delays occasionally occur, and Employees may submit reimbursement requests for prepetition expenses after the Petition Date. Employees incurred the Reimbursable Expenses as business expenses on the Debtors' behalf and with the understanding that such expenses would be reimbursed fully. The Debtors' inability to reimburse such expenses would result in lower Employee morale and significant financial hardship for the Employees, especially when the Reimbursable Expenses were incurred for the Debtors' benefit.

26. On average, in the 12 months immediately preceding the Petition Date, the Debtors paid approximately $164,175 per month in Reimbursable Expenses. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately $44,293 in Reimbursable Expenses have been incurred but remain unpaid, including expenses awaiting approval, including the Debtors' estimate of any Reimbursable Expenses incurred prepetition but not yet submitted for processing, all of which are expected to come due during the Interim Period (the "Unpaid Reimbursable Expenses"). Accordingly, the Debtors request the authority, but not direction, to pay the Unpaid Reimbursable Expenses and to continue paying the Reimbursable Expenses for the Employees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

II. Non-Insider Employee Bonus Programs

27. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors maintain bonus programs to drive performance among their Employees, including, but not limited to, an annual incentive bonus plan for non-insider Employees (the "Non-Insider Employee Bonus Programs"). These include: (a) a Store Leader Incentive Plan for store managers, associate store managers, and full-time and part-time leads, with monthly cash awards based on weekly sales goals and applicable payroll hour and eligibility requirements; (b) a District/Area Leader Incentive Plan with sales-based cash awards subject to applicable payroll hour and eligibility requirements; (c) a Google Customer Review

Incentive for eligible store managers, associate store managers, leads, and store associates, based on monthly customer-review point rankings within store volume groups; and (d) a peak holiday distribution center incentive providing hourly associates an additional $2 for each hour worked.

28. Payments under the Non-Insider Employee Bonus Programs (the "Non-Insider Employee Bonus Payments") for the store, district/area leader, and Google customer-review incentives are generally made in the last pay period of the calendar month following the performance period. October performance bonus amounts are scheduled to be sent to Human Resources in the second or third week of November. Distribution center incentive payments are made each pay period based on hours worked. With respect to the 2026 performance year, Non-Insider Employee Bonus Payments totaling $2.5 million were made in March 2026. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that a dollar amount of approximately $11,666 associated with the Non-Insider Employee Bonus Program has been incurred but remains unpaid. Maintaining the Non-Insider Employee Bonus Program is essential to maintaining Employee morale and loyalty, which is essential to preserving the value of the Debtors' estates and maintaining business operations. The Debtors request the authority, but not direction, to continue the Non-Insider Employee Bonus Programs for the Employees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

III. Employee Benefits Programs

A. Health Benefit Plans

29. The Debtors offer their Employees the opportunity to participate in a number of health benefit plans, including medical, dental, and vision plans, as well as certain health savings and flexible spending accounts (collectively, the "Health Benefit Plans"). Paying the prepetition amounts owed on account of the Health Benefit Plans and continuing the Health Benefit Plans for the Employees is essential to maintaining Employee morale and loyalty, which is essential to preserving the value of the Debtors' estates and maintaining business operations.

1. Health Insurance, Dental, and Vision Plans

30. The Debtors offer all eligible full-time U.S. Employees, other than those in Puerto Rico, the choice of three medical plan options through Aetna or, for Distribution Center Employees, Blue Cross Blue Shield Alabama, with prescription drug benefits administered by Optum Rx. The available medical plans include: (a) a PPO health plan featuring a $1,300 individual deductible; (b) an HSA Plus high-deductible plan featuring a $2,000 individual deductible and a health savings account; and (c) an HSA Value high-deductible plan featuring a $3,400 individual deductible and a health savings account (collectively, the "U.S. Health Insurance Plans"). Eligible full-time Employees in Puerto Rico have separate fully insured medical, dental, and vision coverage through Triple S (the "Puerto Rico Insurance Plans"). Through Cigna Dental, the Debtors offer all U.S. Employees one dental plan (the "U.S. Dental Plan") and through EyeMed Vision, the Debtors offer all U.S. Employees two vision plans (the "U.S. Vision Plans" and together with the U.S. Health Insurance Plans, the Puerto Rico Insurance Plans, and the U.S. Dental Plan, the "U.S. Medical Plans").

31. For each of the U.S. Medical Plans, U.S. Employees select their coverage option, or waive coverage, during the Debtors' open enrollment period. The U.S. Medical Plans are funded through contributions from both U.S. Employees (through regular Payroll Deductions) and the Debtors.

32. Debtor The Children's Place (Canada), LP sponsors group benefits for eligible full-time Canadian Employees through arrangements with Manulife Financial ("Manulife"), including medical, dental, and vision plans (the "Canadian Health Insurance Plans" and together with the U.S. Medical Plans, the "Medical Plans"). The Debtors estimate that 135 Canadian Employees participate in medical, dental, and vision coverage, with participation varying by benefit. To administer the Canadian Health Insurance Plans, Debtor The Children's Place (Canada), LP has contracted with Manulife. Extended health care coverage includes hospital care, prescription drugs, vision care, medical services and supplies, and professional services, subject to applicable benefit percentages, limits, and other plan terms. Dental coverage is subject to annual deductibles of $25 for individual coverage and $50 for family coverage, with a combined $1,500 annual maximum for specified categories of dental services.

33. On average, in the 12 months immediately preceding the Petition Date, the Debtors paid approximately $1.6 million per month on account of the Medical Plans. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $80,000 on account of the Medical Plans. Accordingly, the Debtors request the authority, but not direction, to pay any amounts owed on account of the Medical Plans and to continue the Medical Plans for the Employees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

2. Flexible Spending Accounts and Health Savings Accounts

34. The Debtors provide U.S. Employees with the opportunity to contribute to a health care flexible spending account (the "Health Care FSA"), a dependent care flexible spending account (the "Dependent Care FSA" and together with the Health Care FSA, the "FSAs"), each administered by Baker Tilly Vantagen, and a health savings account (the "HSA") administered by Fidelity Investments. The FSAs and HSA allow U.S. Employees to voluntarily set aside pre-tax funds to pay for eligible health and welfare expenses. The HSA is only available to U.S. Employees enrolled in one of the high-deductible U.S. Health Insurance Plans. The Health Care FSA is only available to U.S. Employees enrolled in the traditional PPO U.S. Health Insurance Plan. U.S. Employees enrolled in an HSA may also enroll in a limited purpose flexible spending account specifically for qualified dental, vision, and preventative care expenses. The Dependent Care FSA is available to all U.S. Employees.

35. For the 2026 calendar year, U.S. Employees could contribute up to $3,400 to their Health Care FSA, $7,500[5] to their Dependent Care FSA, and $8,750 to their HSA, depending on an Employee's familial status. Employee contributions to the FSAs and HSAs are pro-rated on a semi-monthly basis, and the Debtors automatically remit Employee contributions via Payroll Deductions. The Debtors request the authority, but not direction, to continue providing the FSAs and HSAs for the U.S. Employees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

3. COBRA

36. Pursuant to the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 ("COBRA"), former U.S. Employees of the Debtors (the "COBRA Participants") may continue coverage under the U.S. Health Insurance Plans, U.S. Dental Plan and U.S. Vision Plans (the "COBRA Benefits"). COBRA Participants are entitled by law to continue to receive COBRA Benefits for up to eighteen months, and in some instances up to 36 months, following termination of employment. The COBRA Benefits are administered through Baker Tilly Vantagen. There are currently 40 COBRA Participants, 31 of whom are responsible for paying all premium costs associated with the COBRA Benefits except with respect to a small monthly administrative fee the Debtors pay Baker Tilly Vantagen each month. The Debtors request authorization to pay all prepetition amounts on account of COBRA Benefits and to continue to offer COBRA Benefits, including to those U.S. Employees who may be terminated after the Petition Date, and honor all obligations related thereto in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

B. Life Insurance, Disability Benefits and Additional Benefits Programs

37. In addition to medical coverage, the Debtors also offer Employees life insurance, disability benefits, and other additional benefits described further below. Paying the prepetition amounts owed on account of these benefits and continuing these benefits for the Employees is essential to maintaining Employee morale and loyalty, which is essential to preserving the value of the Debtors' estates and maintaining business operations.

1. Life and AD&D Insurance and Disability Benefits

38. The Debtors provide life insurance (the "Basic Life Insurance") and accidental death and dismemberment insurance (the "Basic AD&D Insurance" and together with the Basic Life Insurance, the "U.S. Basic Life and AD&D Insurance") to all eligible full-time U.S. Employees through Lincoln Financial. The U.S. Basic Life and AD&D Insurance offers coverage at 1x a U.S. Employee's annual salary, increased to 1.5x annual salary for Employees at the director level and above. The Debtors offer the U.S. Basic Life and AD&D Insurance at no cost to U.S. Employees, and many U.S. Employees' long-term financial planning relies substantially, if not exclusively, on the benefits under the U.S. Basic Life and AD&D Insurance.[6]

39. The Debtors offer short-term disability (the "Short-Term Disability") and long-term disability (the "Long-Term Disability" and together with the Short-Term Disability, the "U.S. Disability") to all eligible full-time U.S. Employees through Lincoln Financial. The Short-Term

[6] In addition, U.S. Employees who wish to supplement the Basic Life and AD&D Insurance can purchase additional life and dismemberment insurance (the "Supplemental Life and AD&D Insurance") covering themselves and their dependents, also through Lincoln Financial. The Supplemental Life and AD&D Insurance is funded by participating U.S. Employees through after-tax Payroll Deductions.

Disability provides a weekly benefit equal to 60% of earnings, up to $2,307 for salaried U.S. Employees and up to $1,250 for hourly U.S. Employees. The Long-Term Disability provides a monthly benefit equal to 60% of earnings, up to $10,000 for salaried U.S. Employees, up to $5,000 for hourly U.S. Employees, and up to $20,000 for executive U.S. Employees. The Debtors provide company-paid Short-Term Disability coverage to eligible salaried U.S. Employees. Eligible hourly U.S. Employees may elect employee-paid Short-Term Disability coverage, and eligible salaried and hourly U.S. Employees may elect employee-paid Long-Term Disability coverage. Full-time Employees at the director level and above are also eligible for salary continuation.

40. The Debtors estimate annual costs of $1.7 million for the Lincoln Financial life, AD&D, disability, leave administration, statutory benefits, and salary continuation programs described above (collectively, the "Lincoln Benefits"), equivalent to approximately $143,719 per month. The Debtors estimate that approximately $136,200 will be outstanding on account of the Lincoln Benefits as of the Petition Date. The Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay any prepetition amounts owed on account of the Lincoln Benefits and to continue providing the Lincoln Benefits and paying related amounts for eligible Employees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

41. Debtor The Children's Place (Canada), LP sponsors group benefits for eligible full-time Canadian Employees through arrangements with Manulife, including short- and long-term disability, life insurance, and accidental death and dismemberment benefits (collectively, the "Manulife Benefits"). The Debtors estimate annual costs of approximately $305,000 for the Manulife Benefits and Canadian Health Insurance Plans, which are also administered by Manulife. Additionally, the Debtors estimate approximately $7,700 in costs or premiums expected to be outstanding on account of the Manulife Benefits and Canadian Health Insurance Plans as of the Petition Date. The Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay prepetition obligations associated with the Manulife Benefits, including related administration costs, and to continue the Manulife Benefits in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

2. Additional Benefits Programs

42. In addition to the benefit programs detailed herein, the Debtors offer their eligible Employees various other resources and benefits programs (collectively, the "Additional Benefits Programs"). These include commuter and transit benefits, fertility and childcare benefits, financial wellness benefits, pet insurance, and mental health support. The Debtors engage a number of providers for these services, including, among others, Nationwide, Allstate, MetLife, Trustmark, Voya, and Genomic Life.

43. On average, in the 12 months immediately preceding the Petition Date, the Debtors paid approximately $28,500 per month on account of the Additional Benefits Programs. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $5,000 on account of the Additional Benefits Programs. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay prepetition amounts owed on account of the Additional Benefits Programs and to continue providing the Additional Benefits Programs for the Employees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

C. Workers' Compensation Programs

44. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors maintain workers' compensation coverage for employment-related injuries, disabilities, and death (the "Workers' Compensation Program"). The Debtors have outstanding claims under the Workers' Compensation Program (the "Workers' Compensation Claims") and maintain reserves in connection with those claims.

45. As of the Petition Date, the Company estimates that its reserve balance associated with outstanding Workers' Compensation Claims is approximately $1.7 million. Of the obligations associated with those claims, the Debtors estimate that approximately $141,440 will become payable by the Debtors during the Interim Period. The reserve balance reflects estimated, not actual, claim liabilities.

46. Consistent with their prepetition practices, the Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to continue honoring their obligations on account of the Workers' Compensation Claims, including obligations relating to claims arising before the Petition Date, as such obligations become due in the ordinary course of business. Continuing to honor these obligations will help avoid financial hardship for affected Employees and former Employees and minimize disruption to the Debtors' business operations.

D. The 401(k), Canadian Retirement Plans, and Puerto Rico Retirement Plan

47. The Debtors offer eligible full-time and part-time U.S. Employees, excluding Employees in Puerto Rico, the opportunity to participate in the Debtors' 401(k) Plan (the "401(k) Plan") through Fidelity Investments ("Fidelity"). The 401(k) Plan provides for pre-tax salary deductions of a U.S. Employee's compensation and Roth after-tax contributions up to the limits set annually by the Internal Revenue Code. Each pay period, the Debtors deduct the U.S. Employees' 401(k) contributions from their paychecks (the "401(k) Deductions") and hold such amounts in trust until they are forwarded to Fidelity. The Debtors deduct an aggregate of approximately $659,229 each month from U.S. Employees' paychecks on account of the 401(k) Deductions. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe $22,000 on account of the 401(k) Deductions (the "Unremitted 401(k) Deductions"). Moreover, the Debtors believe that the 401(k) Deductions are not property of their estates, and, accordingly, the Debtors do not believe they need authority to remit such payments to the appropriate third parties. Nevertheless, the Debtors include this description out of an abundance of caution and seek authority to remit Unremitted 401(k) Deductions if any become due during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases.

48. After one year of service, the Debtors match eligible U.S. Employees' 401(k) contributions at 100% of contributions on the first 3% of eligible compensation and 50% of contributions on the next 2% of eligible compensation, for a maximum employer match of 4% of eligible compensation (the "401(k) Match Contributions"). The 401(k) Match Contributions are immediately vested, with no vesting schedule, and are funded each pay period. In the twelve months before the Petition Date, the Debtors' 401(k) Match Contributions each month averaged approximately $262,042 for the 401(k) Plan. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $8,735 on account of 401(k) Match Contributions (the "Unpaid 401(k) Match Contributions"), all of which will become payable during the Interim Period. Many U.S. Employees' retirement savings consist solely of the 401(k) Plan, and many U.S. Employees choose to participate in the 401(k) Plan because of the 401(k) Match Contributions. Paying the Unpaid 401(k) Match Contributions and continuing the 401(k) Plan and the 401(k) Match Contributions for the U.S. Employees are essential to maintaining Employee morale and loyalty, which is essential to preserving the value of the Debtors' estates and maintaining business operations.

49. The Debtors also offer eligible Canadian Employees the opportunity to participate in a registered retirement savings plan (the "RRSP") and a deferred profit sharing plan (the "DPSP" and, together with the RRSP, the "Canadian Retirement Plans"), administered by Manulife. Canadian Employees are eligible to participate in the RRSP after 90 days of service and in the DPSP after one year of service. After one year of service, eligible Canadian Employees receive employer matching contributions equal to 50% of their contributions, up to a maximum employer contribution of 2.5% of annual earnings. Employer contributions under the DPSP vest after two years of plan membership.

50. The Debtors also offer eligible Employees in Puerto Rico the opportunity to participate in The Children's Place 1165(e) Savings Plan (the "Puerto Rico Retirement Plan") through Empower. Employees are eligible to participate upon attaining age 21, completing one year of service, and working a minimum of 1,000 hours. Participating Employees may elect to contribute a portion of their compensation through pre-tax payroll deductions and direct the investment of those contributions. After one year of service, the Company makes matching contributions equal to 50% of participating Employees' contributions up to 5% of compensation. Employer matching contributions vest based on years of service, with 0% vested in the first year, 25% in the second year, 50% in the third year, 75% in the fourth year, and 100% in the fifth year.

51. Accordingly, the Debtors request the authority, but not direction, to (a) continue the 401(k) Plans, including the 401(k) Match Contributions, for the U.S. Employees in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis, (b) remit any Unremitted 401(k) Deductions collected in the ordinary course of business, (c) pay any Unpaid 401(k) Match Contributions in the ordinary course of business if any become due during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases, (d) continue the Canadian Retirement Plans in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice, including making applicable employer contributions, remitting Employee contributions, and paying related administration costs, and to pay or remit any accrued but unpaid prepetition obligations relating thereto as such obligations become due, and (e) continue the Puerto Rico Retirement Plan in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice, including making applicable employer contributions, remitting Employee contributions, and paying related administration costs, and to pay or remit any accrued but unpaid prepetition obligations relating thereto as such obligations become due.

E. Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plans

52. The Debtors maintain a nonqualified deferred compensation plan for participating employees, through which participants defer portions of their base salary and bonus compensation, and a separate nonqualified deferred compensation plan relating to board fees and board restricted stock unit grants (the "Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plans"). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they do not owe any amounts on account of the Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plans to participating Employees, former Employees, and board-plan participants. Distributions depend on participant elections that include specified payment years and payment events, with payments made in lump sums or installments, as applicable. The Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to pay postpetition amounts outstanding as they come due in the ordinary course of business in accordance with the terms of the Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plan, and to continue the Non-Qualified Deferred Compensation Plans in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.

F. Paid and Unpaid Leave

53. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors provide paid time off to their non-insider Employees (the "Paid Time Off"), some of which may have been earned before the Petition Date that remains unused or unpaid as of the Petition Date (the "Accrued PTO"). U.S. Employees receive 15, 20, 25, or 30 days of Paid Time Off based on level and years of service. For Canadian Employees, Paid Time Off includes vacation entitlements and associated vacation pay provided under the Debtors' applicable policies and applicable Canadian federal and provincial law. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately $662,123[7] in non-cash obligations associated with Accrued PTO has accrued. The Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay out Accrued PTO, if necessary, up to the Priority Cap, unless any departing Employee resides in a state or province that requires payout of Accrued PTO in excess of the Priority Cap.

54. In addition, the Debtors provide certain other forms of paid leave to Employees (together with the Paid Time Off, the "Paid Leave"), including, for example, paid holidays, leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act, and other paid leaves of absence for personal reasons, including those required by state law. For Canadian Employees, Paid Leave expressly includes statutory holiday pay and other statutorily required paid leave under applicable Canadian federal and provincial law. The Debtors also offer unpaid leave to Employees when circumstances require ("Unpaid Leave"). These other forms of Paid and Unpaid Leave do not involve incremental cash outlays beyond standard payroll obligations.

55. The Debtors believe that the continuation of Paid and Unpaid Leave for the Employees is essential to maintaining Employee morale and loyalty during these chapter 11 cases. With the exception of any Employees required to be paid their Accrued PTO upon resignation or termination, should that occur, the Debtors anticipate that their Employees will utilize the Paid and Unpaid Leave in the ordinary course of business, which will not create any cash flow requirements beyond the Debtors' regular payroll obligations.

G. Administrative Fees

56. As part of their administration of the Compensation and Benefits, the Debtors use certain third parties to administer the Compensation and Benefits programs, including those described in this Motion and others (collectively, the "Administrators"). The Debtors pay fees to the Administrators for their services (the "Administrator Fees"). Without the Administrators, the Debtors would not be able to implement the Compensation and Benefits in the ordinary course.

57. On average, in the 12 months immediately preceding the Petition Date, the Debtors paid approximately $533,259 per month in Administrator Fees. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $536,909 in the aggregate on account of accrued but unpaid fees to the Administrators (the "Unpaid Administrator Fees"), approximately all of which is currently payable or will become payable during the Interim Period. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Administrator Fees and to continue paying the Administrator Fees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

H. Payroll Fees

58. The Debtors use OneSource Virtual (the "Payroll Processor") for payroll processing services in the United States, Canada, and Puerto Rico. Payroll is processed and calculated in house, after which funds are wired to the Payroll Processor for tax disbursements and payment of employee net pay into the applicable accounts. The Debtors pay the Payroll Processor certain software and other administrative fees (the "Payroll Fees"). Failure to satisfy the Payroll Fees could lead to a delay in payroll processing and disbursement of Withholding and Deduction Obligations to the appropriate third parties. Any delay in payment of the Payroll Fees would be detrimental to the Debtors' continuing operations throughout these chapter 11 cases.

59. On average, in the 12 months immediately preceding the Petition Date, the Debtors paid approximately $17,344 per month on account of the Payroll Fees. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate they owe approximately $14,211 on account of accrued but unpaid Payroll

Fees (the "Unpaid Payroll Fees"), all of which is currently payable or will become payable during the Interim Period. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay all Unpaid Payroll Fees and to continue to honor the Payroll Fees in the ordinary course on a postpetition basis consistent with past practice.

Basis for Relief

I. Sufficient Cause Exists to Authorize the Debtors to Honor the Compensation and Benefits

A. Certain of the Compensation and Benefits Are Entitled to Priority Treatment

60. Sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code entitle certain of the Compensation and Benefits to priority treatment to the extent such payments do not exceed $17,150 for each individual as provided for under sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code. As priority claims, the Debtors are required to pay these claims in full to confirm a chapter 11 plan. See U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9)(B) (requiring payment of certain allowed unsecured claims, given priority under sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code, for (a) wages, salaries, or commissions, including vacation, severance, and sick leave pay earned by an individual and (b) contributions to an employee benefit plan). To the extent that an Employee receives no more than $17,150 on account of claims entitled to priority, the relief sought with respect to compensation only affects the timing of payments to Employees and does not have any material negative impact on recoveries for general unsecured creditors. To the extent the Debtors seek to pay outstanding prepetition amounts on account of the Compensation and Benefits in excess of the Priority Cap, the Debtors submit that the full payment of such obligations in the ordinary course is warranted under section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code and the doctrine of necessity. For the avoidance of doubt, for the payment of any prepetition amounts in excess of the Priority Cap, the Debtors request such relief solely pursuant to the Final Order, with the exception of any Accrued PTO which may be required to be paid during the Interim Period pursuant to applicable state or foreign law, including the laws of Canada and the provinces therein.

61. The Debtors submit that payment of the Compensation and Benefits at this time enhances value for the benefit of all interested parties because it will help ensure that the Employees, who are central to the Debtors' business operations, continue to provide their services at this critical juncture. The Debtors cannot operate their business without the Employees, and the Debtors' ability to administer their estates in these chapter 11 cases will be materially impaired to the detriment of all stakeholders without the Employees' continued, uninterrupted services.

62. Courts in this circuit have recognized that "[w]age priority has been a feature of the bankruptcy law since 1898." See, e.g., In re Garden Ridge Corp., No. 04-10324 (KJC), 2006 WL 521914, at *2 (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 2, 2006) (citation omitted). The purpose of this longstanding principle is to "alleviate hardship on workers . . . who may have no other source of income." Id. (citing COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 507.05[1]). Such payment priority extends to certain other "benefits that are considered akin to compensation, such as vacation, severance and sick leave pay." Id.

B. Payment of Certain Compensation and Benefits is Required by Law

63. The Debtors are seeking authority to pay the Withholding and Deduction Obligations to the appropriate third-party payees. These amounts principally represent Employee earnings that governments, Employees, and judicial authorities have designated for deduction from Employees' wages. Certain Withholding and Deduction Obligations, including contributions to the Medical Plans, the 401(k) Plans, and related amounts are not property of the Debtors' estates because the Debtors have withheld such amounts from Employees' wages on another party's behalf. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 541(b)(1), (d).

64. Furthermore, federal, state, provincial, and local laws require the Debtors to withhold certain tax payments from Employees' wages and to pay such amounts to the appropriate taxing authority. See 26 U.S.C. §§ 6672, 7501(a); see also City of Farrell v. Sharon Steel Corp., 41 F.3d 92, 95–97 (3d Cir. 1994) (finding that state law requiring a corporate debtor to withhold city income tax from its employees' wages created a trust relationship between debtor and the city for payment of withheld income taxes); In re DuCharmes & Co., 852 F.2d 194, 196 (6th Cir. 1988) (noting that individual officers of a company may be held personally liable for failure to pay trust fund taxes). Because the Withholding and Deduction Obligations may not be property of the Debtors' estates, the Debtors request authorization to transmit the Withholding and Deduction Obligations to the proper parties in the ordinary course of business. See In re Dameron, 155 F.3d 718, 721 (4th Cir. 1998).

C. Payment of the Compensation and Benefits is Proper Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 363(b) and the Doctrine of Necessity

65. Section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code expressly grants the Debtors the authority to "enter into transactions . . . in the ordinary course of business" and "use the property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing." 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(1). Therefore, the Debtors believe they are permitted to pay all postpetition amounts due pursuant to the Compensation and Benefits as such actions are in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business. Out of an abundance of caution, however, the Debtors seek entry of an order granting the relief requested herein to avoid any disruptions to their business operations.

66. The relief requested herein may be granted by the Court pursuant to sections 363(b) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that "[t]he [debtor], after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Under section 363(b), courts require only that the debtor "show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (internal citations omitted) (requiring that the debtor show a "sound business purpose" to justify its actions under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code); see also In re Phoenix Steel Corp., 82 B.R. 334, 335–36 (Bankr. D. Del. 1987). Moreover, "[w]here the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor's conduct." In re Johns-Manville Corp., 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986) (citation omitted); see also In re Tower Air, Inc., 416 F.3d 229, 238 (3d Cir. 2005) (stating that "[o]vercoming the presumptions of the business judgment rule on the merits is a near-Herculean task"). Thus, if a transaction satisfies the business judgment rule, it should be approved under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.

67. In addition, the Court may authorize payment of prepetition claims in appropriate circumstances under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a) codifies the inherent equitable powers of a bankruptcy court and empowers bankruptcy courts to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of the title." The Court may use its power under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to authorize payment of the Compensation and Benefits under the "necessity of payment" rule, commonly referred to as the "doctrine of necessity."

68. The United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit recognized the "necessity of payment" doctrine in In re Lehigh & New England Ry. Co., 657 F.2d 570, 581 (3d Cir. 1981). The Third Circuit held that a court could authorize the payment of prepetition claims if such payment was essential to the chapter 11 cases. Id. (stating a court may authorize payment of prepetition claims when there "is the possibility that the creditor will employ an immediate economic sanction, failing such payment").

69. The necessity of payment doctrine is designed to foster a debtor's rehabilitation, which courts have recognized is "the paramount policy and goal of Chapter 11." In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 176 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989); see also In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 824–26 (D. Del. 1999) (finding that payment of prepetition claims to certain trade vendors was "essential to the survival of the debtor during the chapter 11 reorganization" and that section 105(a) "provides a statutory basis for payment of [prepetition] claims" under the doctrine of necessity); In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 171 B.R. 189, 191–92 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (explaining that the doctrine of necessity is the standard in the Third Circuit for enabling a court to authorize the payment of prepetition claims prior to confirmation of a reorganization plan).

70. The doctrine of necessity is designed to facilitate a debtor's soft landing into chapter 11, which courts have recognized is "the paramount policy and goal of chapter 11." Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 176; see Just for Feet, 242 B.R. at 826 (finding that payment of prepetition claims to certain trade vendors was "essential to the survival of the debtor during the chapter 11 reorganization"); In re Quality Interiors, Inc., 127 B.R. 391, 396 (Bankr. N.D. Ohio 1991) ("[P]ayment by a debtor-in-possession of [prepetition] claims outside of a confirmed plan of reorganization is generally prohibited by the Bankruptcy Code," but "[a] general practice has developed . . . where bankruptcy courts permit the payment of certain [prepetition] claims, pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105, where the debtor will be unable to reorganize without such payment."); In re Eagle-Picher Indus., Inc., 124 B.R. 1021, 1023 (Bankr. S.D. Ohio 1991) (approving payment of prepetition unsecured claims of toolmakers as "necessary to avert a serious threat to the [c]hapter 11 process"); In re Chateaugay Corp., 80 B.R. 279, 285–86 (S.D.N.Y. 1987)

71. The relief requested in this Motion is warranted under this authority and the facts of these chapter 11 cases. The Employees are essential to the success of these chapter 11 cases. At this critical juncture, it is imperative that the Employees are fully engaged and motivated. The Employees provide the Debtors with services necessary to conduct their business and administer these chapter 11 cases. Absent timely payments sought herein, the Employees may become demoralized and seek alternative employment opportunities. Because a significant portion of the value of the Debtors is tied to the Employees, enterprise value may be materially impaired to the detriment of all stakeholders in the event of significant attrition thereof. As such, retaining the Employees will allow the Debtors to operate their business in these chapter 11 cases and maximize estate value to the benefit of all parties.

72. The importance of a debtor's employees to its operations has been repeatedly recognized by courts in this district, and those courts have granted relief similar to the relief requested herein. See, e.g., In re LIV Golf New Jersey LLC, No. 26-20189 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Sept. 10, 2026) (authorizing the debtors to pay prepetition wages, salaries, and other compensation, and reimbursable expenses and continue employee benefits programs); In re SIMAD Holdings Ltd., No. 26-16388 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 20, 2026) (same); In re FreshRealm, Inc., No. 26-14656 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 21, 2026) (same); In re STG Logistics, Inc., No. 26-10258 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 13, 2026) (same); In re Del Monte Foods Corp. II Inc., No. 25-16984 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Aug. 13, 2025) (same); In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. April 4, 2024) (same); In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. March 18, 2024) (same); In re Careismatic Brands, LLC, No. 24-10561 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb.

29, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 1, 2024) (same); In re WeWork Inc., No. 23-19865 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Dec. 6, 2023) (same).[8]

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should Be Authorized

73. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts described in this Motion in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations, anticipated debtor-in-possession financing, and anticipated access to cash collateral. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to any authorized payment in respect of the relief requested herein. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently. Therefore, the Debtors request that the Court authorize all applicable financial institutions, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested in this Motion.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) Are Satisfied

74. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) empowers a court to grant relief within the first twenty-one (21) days after the Petition Date to the extent that "relief is needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(a). As set forth in this Motion, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors' operations. Failure to receive the requested relief during the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture and cause immediate and irreparable harm. The requested relief is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of their operations, and maximize value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm," as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a), and the Court should grant the requested relief.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

75. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the fourteen-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) for the reasons set forth herein.

Reservation of Rights

76. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended or should be construed as: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in this Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. If the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Final Hearing

77. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

No Prior Request

78. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this Court or any other court.

Notice

79. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions, as Prepetition Term Loan Agent; (e) counsel to Mithaq Capital SPC, as prepetition unsecured lender; (f) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (h) the Internal Revenue Service; (i) the Canada Revenue Agency; and (j) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request that the Court enter interim and final orders, in substantially the forms submitted herewith, granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as is just and proper under the circumstances.

2. Any objections to the entry of this Interim Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

3. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on an interim basis, to continue, modify, and/or discontinue the Compensation and Benefits for the Employees in the ordinary course of business and in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition policies and practices, and to honor and pay any prepetition amounts related thereto, including the prepetition amounts owed on account of the Compensation and Benefits for the Employees and the Unpaid Temporary Staff Compensation, as and when such obligations are due, in their business judgment during these chapter 11 cases and without need for further Court approval, subject to applicable law and the terms of this Interim Order; provided that the Debtors shall not make any payments in excess of the amounts set forth in sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Priority Cap") to any individual without further order of this Court, with the exception of any Accrued PTO that may be required to be paid out upon termination or resignation of any Employee during the Interim Period pursuant to applicable law; provided further that (a) the Debtors shall seek court approval, on notice, of any modification or change that would implicate any portion of section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, and (b) nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors to make any payments to any Employee, including "insiders" (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors on account of any incentive and bonus programs, other than payments to non-insider Employees under the Non-Insider Employee Bonus Programs expressly authorized pursuant to paragraph 6 of this Interim Order, without further order of this Court and nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the payment of any amounts that violate, implicate or are otherwise subject to section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors shall provide seven (7) calendar days' notice of any material modifications to the Compensation and Benefits and any other programs described in the Motion to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to any statutory committees appointed in these cases.

5. The Interim Order does not implicitly or explicitly approve any bonus plan, incentive plan, severance plan, or other plan covered by section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on an interim basis, to continue the Non-Insider Employee Bonus Programs and to make Non-Insider Employee Bonus Payments to non-insider Employees as such payments become due in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis consistent with prepetition policies and practices, subject to the terms and limitations of this Interim Order, including paragraph 5 hereof. Nothing in this paragraph authorizes any payment to an insider (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) without further order of this Court.

7. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on an interim basis, to forward any unpaid amounts on account of Withholding and Deduction Obligations to the appropriate third-party recipients or taxing authorities in the ordinary course of business in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition policies and practices.

8. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on an interim basis, to pay in the ordinary course of business any costs and expenses incidental to payment of the Compensation and Benefits obligations, including the unpaid Payroll Fees and Administrator Fees, in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition policies and practices.

9. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed to create an administrative priority claim on account of the Compensation and Benefits.

10. Nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors to cash out Accrued PTO upon termination or resignation of an Employee in excess of the Priority Cap unless applicable nonbankruptcy law, including the laws of Canada and the provinces therein, requires such payment.

11. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

12. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on an interim basis, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Interim Order.

13. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

14. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

15. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) are satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise deemed waived.

16. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

17. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

18. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

19. The Debtors shall serve by email (if available) or by regular mail (if email is unavailable) a copy of this Interim Order and the Motion on all parties required to receive such service pursuant to Local Rule 9013-5(f).

20. Any party may move for modification of this Interim Order in accordance with Local Rule 9013-5(e).

21. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Interim Order.

Upon the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing (A) Payment of Prepetition Wages, Salaries and Other Compensation and (B) Continuation of Benefits Programs, and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Motion"),[2] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), for entry of a final order (this "Final Order") (a) authorizing the Debtors pay prepetition wages, salaries and other compensation and (b) granting related relief, all as more fully set forth in the Motion; and upon the First Day Declaration; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11 of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that it may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"), if any; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing, if any, establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the

[2] Capitalized terms used but not otherwise defined herein have the meaning ascribed to them in the Motion.

Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on a final basis as set forth herein.

2. Any objections to the entry of this Final Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

3. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Final Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on a final basis, to continue, modify, and/or discontinue the Compensation and Benefits for the Employees in the ordinary course of business and in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition policies and practices, and to honor and pay any prepetition amounts related thereto as and when such obligations are due, in their business judgment during these chapter 11 cases and without need for further Court approval, subject to applicable law and the terms of this Final Order, including, for the avoidance of doubt, any prepetition obligations relating to the Compensation and Benefits that exceed the priority amounts set forth in sections 507(a)(4) and 507(a)(5) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided that (a) the Debtors shall seek court approval, on notice, of any modification or change that would implicate any portion of section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors to make any payments to any Employee, including "insiders" (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) of the Debtors on account of the incentive and bonus programs, other than payments to non-insider Employees under the Non-Insider Employee Bonus Programs expressly authorized pursuant to paragraph 6 of this Final Order, without further order of this Court and nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the payment of any amounts that violate, implicate or are otherwise subject to section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors shall provide seven (7) calendar days' notice of any material modifications to the Compensation and Benefits and any other programs described in the Motion to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to any statutory committees appointed in these cases.

5. Nothing in the Motion or this Final Order shall constitute a determination by the Court as to whether any individual seeking payment pursuant to this Final Order is or is not an "insider" as that term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on a final basis, to continue the Non-Insider Employee Bonus Programs and to make Non-Insider Employee Bonus Payments to non-insider Employees as such payments become due in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis consistent with prepetition policies and practices, subject to the terms and limitations of this Final Order, including paragraph 4 hereof. Nothing in this paragraph authorizes any payment to an insider (as defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) without further order of this Court.

7. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay and honor all claims and obligations arising postpetition on account of Accrued PTO; provided that the Debtors shall not make any payment to, or on account of, any Accrued PTO to any individual in excess of the Priority Cap; provided further that the Debtors shall not make any Accrued PTO payments to any Insiders (as such term is defined by section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code) without further order of this Court. Nothing in the Motion or this Final Order shall constitute a determination by the Court as to whether any individual seeking payment pursuant to this Final Order is or is not an "Insider" (as such term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code). Nothing in this Final Order shall be construed as approving any transfer pursuant to section 503(c) of the Bankruptcy Code.

8. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on a final basis, to forward any unpaid amounts on account of Withholding and Deduction Obligations to the appropriate third-party recipients or taxing authorities in the ordinary course of business in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition policies and practices.

9. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on a final basis, to pay in the ordinary course of business any costs and expenses incidental to payment of the Compensation and Benefits obligations, including the unpaid Payroll Fees and Administrator Fees, in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition policies and practices.

10. Nothing contained herein is intended or should be construed to create an administrative priority claim on account of the Compensation and Benefits.

11. Nothing herein shall be deemed to authorize the Debtors to cash out Accrued PTO upon termination or resignation of an Employee in excess of the Priority Cap unless applicable nonbankruptcy law, including the laws of Canada or the provinces therein, requires such payment.

12. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Final Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Final Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

13. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on a final basis, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Final Order.

14. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Final Order.

16. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

17. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

18. The Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Final Order.

Proposed Co-Counsel to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtor's federal tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. The location of the Debtors' service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094.

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO MAINTAIN AND ADMINISTER THEIR EXISTING CUSTOMER PROGRAMS AND HONOR CERTAIN PREPETITION OBLIGATIONS RELATED THERETO AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") respectfully state the following in support of this motion (the "Motion"):[2]

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of orders, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B (respectively, the "Interim Order" and "Final Order"), (a) authorizing the Debtors to maintain and administer their customer-related programs as described in this Motion and honor certain prepetition obligations related thereto and (b) granting related relief. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.[3]

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on

[2] A detailed description of the Debtors and their businesses, including the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Rudolph Morando, Co-Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtors, in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this motion have the meanings ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration.

[3] As of the filing date, substantially all of the Customer Programs were continued in the ordinary course of business because it was impracticable to turn off those programs for two (2) days, including a weekend, while the relief requested in this Motion was pending. The Debtors believe that continuation of their Customer Programs is in the ordinary course of their business and does not require court approval; however, out of an abundance of caution, the Debtors are seeking the Court's approval to continue such programs on a go-forward basis.

June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 363, and 1108 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules 9013-1 and 9013-5 of the Local Bankruptcy Rules for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. Concurrent with the filing of this Motion, the Debtors filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

The Customer Programs[4]

7. As discussed in greater detail in the First Day Declaration, the Debtors' businesses can broadly be described as the design, sourcing, and retail sale of fashionable, high-quality apparel, accessories, and footwear predominantly at value prices across an omni-channel network.

8. The Debtors offer their customers certain incentives, discounts, and other accommodations to attract and maintain positive consumer relationships, the majority of which do not independently entail the expenditure of cash (the "Customer Programs"). The Customer Programs include (a) a loyalty program, (b) a third-party promotional subscription program, (c) a gift card program, (d) coupons and sales promotions, (e) a return and exchange program, and (f) a merchandise credit program.

9. The Debtors believe that their ability to continue the Customer Programs and to honor any obligations thereunder in the ordinary course of business is necessary to retain their reputation for reliability, comply with their legal obligations, meet competitive market pressures, and ensure customer satisfaction. Continuing the Customer Programs will allow the Debtors to maintain the goodwill of their current customers and partners, attract new customers and partners, and, ultimately, enhance their businesses' revenue and profitability to the benefit of all of the Debtors' stakeholders.[5] [4] Although this Motion is intended to be comprehensive, the Debtors may have inadvertently omitted certain Customer Programs (as defined herein). The Debtors request relief with respect to all Customer Programs, regardless of whether such Customer Program is specifically identified herein.

[5] All Customer Programs, including the Gift Card Program and the Return and Exchange Program for stores that are Closing Stores, as defined in the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Assume the Consulting Agreement; (II) Authorizing and Approving the Conduct of Store Closing Sales and the Related Sale Guidelines, with Such Sales to Be Free and Clear of All Liens, Claims, and Encumbrances; (III) Modifying Customer Programs at the Closing Stores; and (IV) Granting Related Relief (the "Store Closing Motion"), are subject to the Store Closing Motion.

10. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that there are approximately $39.5 million of prepetition obligations outstanding related to Customer Programs (as defined below), of which $17.4 million represent cash outlays and $22.1 million represent non-cash future obligations of performance by the Debtors. By this motion, the Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to maintain the Customer Programs (as defined below) in the ordinary course of business and to continue to honor all customer-related obligations, including paying any prepetition obligations associated therewith.

A. My Place Rewards Loyalty Program.

11. The Debtors maintain a customer loyalty program known as "My Place Rewards" (the "Loyalty Program"), which, together with the Debtors' private label credit card, anchors the Debtors' customer retention strategy. During the third quarter of fiscal year 2025, the Debtors revamped the Loyalty Program to introduce tiered memberships that allow members to earn, unlock, and level up benefits proportionate to engagement with the business. Customers earn points based on purchases and other promotional activities, which can be redeemed for coupons that discount future purchases over a twelve-month redemption period. Key benefits of the Loyalty Program include, among other things, (a) points, bonuses, and other incentives earned with every purchase, (b) members-only perks, including access to VIP events, early access to new collections, and expedited order processing, (c) family-centered benefits, such as birthday discounts, and (d) additional conveniences, such as complimentary gift-wrapping kits.

12. The Loyalty Program is also integrated with the Debtors' private label credit card, which is issued to customers for use exclusively at The Children's Place and Gymboree stores and online, with credit extended by a third-party financial institution on a non-recourse basis to the Debtors. As of the end of fiscal 2025, members of the Loyalty Program and/or the Debtors' private label credit card holders accounted for over eighty percent (80%) of the Debtors' total U.S. retail sales. Under applicable accounting guidance, the value of each point earned is recorded as deferred revenue, and the Debtors estimate that the related contract liability was approximately $11.7 million at the end of fiscal 2025, as compared to approximately $3.7 million at the end of fiscal 2024. During fiscal 2025 and fiscal 2024, the Debtors recognized net sales of $3.7 million and $1.7 million, respectively, related to the points-based customer loyalty program liability balances existing on February 1, 2025, and February 3, 2024, respectively.

13. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to continue to maintain and administer the Loyalty Program in the ordinary course of business, consistent with their prepetition practices, including permitting customers to earn and redeem points earned before or after the Petition Date. The Debtors also seek the authority, but not the direction, to honor prepetition obligations related to the Loyalty Program and continue to provide benefits under the Loyalty Program subject to the Loyalty Program's terms and conditions.

B. The Children's Place VIP Perks Program.

14. The Debtors offer a subscription-based customer program known as "The Children's Place VIP Perks" (the "Perks Program") through ebbo, a marketing services and customer loyalty platform. For a monthly subscription fee, the Perks Program allows participating customers to earn and redeem promotional cards for shopping with the Debtors or other third-party brands. The Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to continue the Perks Program and honor obligations related thereto, including obligations arising before the Petition Date, in the ordinary course of business and consistent with their prepetition practices.

C. Gift Card Program.

15. The Debtors maintain a program (the "Gift Card Program") pursuant to which their customers can purchase gift cards (the "Gift Cards") in store or online in amounts between $5 and $299. In 2026, the Debtors issued Gift Cards totaling approximately $9.6 million. The Gift Cards can be redeemed in-store or online for merchandise, at which time the Debtors record the associated revenue. Before their redemption, the Gift Cards are recorded as a liability. At the end of fiscal 2025, the Gift Card liability balance was $3.2 million, and the Debtors recognized net sales of $4.5 million related to the Gift Card liability balance. At the end of fiscal 2024, the Gift Card liability balance was $4.8 million, and the Debtors recognized net sales of $5.4 million related to the Gift Card liability balance.

16. The Debtors sell physical gift cards through Stored Value Solutions and digital gift cards through CashStar, Inc. (the "Gift Card Intermediaries"). The Gift Card Intermediaries provide the Debtors with gift cards and related gift card processing services. Upon gift card sale, the Debtors remit proceeds to the Gift Card Intermediaries net of fees. To maintain the goodwill of the Debtors' customer base and enable them to continue to purchase gift cards in the Debtors' stores, it is critical that the Debtors continue their business relationship with the Gift Card Intermediaries in the ordinary course of business.

17. The Debtors estimate that as of the Petition Date, approximately $17.4 million[6] in issued Gift Cards remain outstanding. Historically, customers redeem approximately $1.2 million in Gift Cards monthly. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authorization to: (a) honor all Gift Cards purchased before the Petition Date, (b) maintain the Gift Card Program and relationships with Gift Card Intermediaries on a postpetition basis, and (c) honor all customer obligations related thereto in the ordinary course of business.

D. Coupons and Sales Promotions.

18. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors conduct distributions of coupons and other discounts (the "Coupons"). The Debtors also occasionally conduct sales promotions both online and at selected stores (the "Sales Promotions"). The Sales Promotions consist of credits or discounts on certain merchandise or other promotions. The Sales Promotions can be presented by customers at the time they make a purchase. By this Motion, the Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to honor the Coupons and Sales Promotions. The Coupons and Sales Promotions are not redeemable for cash and thus do not require a cash outlay by the Debtors.

[6] When a customer elects to receive Merchandise Credit (as defined herein), the Debtors issue a Gift Card for the applicable amount. Accordingly, this amount includes both Gift Cards and Merchandise Credits.

E. Return and Exchange Program.

19. The Debtors seek to continue to honor their return and exchange program (the "Return and Exchange Program"). As is customary in the retail industry, and subject to certain exceptions, the Debtors allow their customers to return merchandise within forty-five days of purchase. Pursuant to the Return and Exchange Program, customers presenting a receipt are refunded the purchase price of a returned item, generally in the manner in which they purchased the item. For merchandise returned without a receipt, the Debtors do not process a return or exchange; all returns and exchanges require a printed, digital, or gift receipt and original price tags. If a customer returns merchandise with a receipt but the original payment method is unavailable, or returns a gift accompanied by a gift receipt, the Debtors issue a merchandise credit instead of a refund to the original form of payment.

20. Programs like the Return and Exchange Program are common in the retail industry, and similar programs are used by the Debtors' competitors. Maintaining the Return and Exchange Program is critical to maintaining the goodwill of the Debtors' customer base. Without the Return and Exchange Program, potential customers may be unwilling to shop at the Debtors' stores at all, which could lead to a decline in revenues, the ultimate cost of which would be borne by the Debtors' estates. Accordingly, the Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to continue honoring customer obligations in connection with the Return and Exchange Program in a manner consistent with their past practices.

F. Merchandise Credits.

21. In the ordinary course of business, when a customer returns merchandise and the original form of payment is not available for a refund, or returns a gift accompanied by a gift receipt, the Debtors issue the customer a merchandise credit (the "Merchandise Credit") instead of a cash or card refund. Merchandise Credits are generally issued immediately for in-store returns and within approximately two weeks for returns made by mail. Merchandise Credits are not redeemable for cash, except where required by applicable law, and cannot be replaced if lost, stolen, or used without the customer's permission.

22. If a customer elects to receive a Merchandise Credit, the Debtors issue a gift card for the applicable amount. The Debtors estimate that as of the Petition Date, approximately $17.4 million in issued Gift Cards[7] remain outstanding. The Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to continue to issue, maintain, and honor Merchandise Credits in the ordinary course of business, consistent with their historical practices, including honoring all Merchandise Credits issued to customers before the Petition Date.

Basis for Relief

I. Continuing to Honor the Customer Programs in the Ordinary Course Is Warranted Under Sections 105(a), 363(b), and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code.

23. Section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "the [debtor] may enter into transactions, including the sale or lease of property of the estate, in the ordinary course of business, without notice or a hearing." 11 U.S.C. § 363(c)(1). Given the continuation of the Debtors' prepetition Customer Programs is in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business, the Debtors do not believe that court approval is necessary to continue their Customer Programs but seek this relief out of an abundance of caution. Under the two-part test developed by the Third Circuit, a transaction is in the ordinary course of business if it satisfies the "horizontal" test, meaning that it is in the ordinary course if it is "of the sort commonly undertaken by companies in [the] industry," and the "vertical" test, meaning that it is "[within] the domain of transactions that a hypothetical creditor would reasonably expect to be undertaken in the circumstances." In re Roth Am., Inc., 975 F.2d 949, 953–54 (3d Cir. 1992) (citing cases).

24. The Debtors' continued maintenance of the Customer Programs and payment of prepetition obligations related thereto are ordinary course transactions contemplated by section 363(c) of the Bankruptcy Code. To the extent, however, that this Court finds such actions to be outside the ordinary course of the Debtors' business, the Debtors respectfully submit that they should be authorized to take such actions under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, as continuation of the Customer Programs also satisfies the "business judgment" standard.

25. Courts have recognized that it is appropriate to authorize the payment of prepetition obligations where necessary to protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business's going-concern value. See, e.g., In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 825–26 (D. Del. 1999); see also In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175–76 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989); Armstrong World Indus., Inc. v. James A. Phillips, Inc. (In re James A. Phillips, Inc.), 29 B.R. 391, 398 (S.D.N.Y. 1983). In so doing, these courts acknowledge that several legal theories rooted in sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code support the payment of prepetition claims.

26. This Court may also grant the requested relief pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, which permits a bankruptcy court, after notice and a hearing, to authorize a debtor to "use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11

U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). "In determining whether to authorize the use, sale or lease of property of the estate under this section, courts require the debtor to show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." Dai-Ichi Kangyo Bank, Ltd. v. Montgomery Ward Holding Corp. (In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp.), 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (collecting cases); see also Armstrong World, 29 B.R. at 397 (relying on section 363 to allow contractor to pay prepetition claims of suppliers who were potential lien claimants because the payments were necessary for general contractors to release funds owed to debtors); In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 175 (finding that a sound business justification existed to justify payment of certain prepetition wages); In re Phx. Steel Corp., 82 B.R. 334, 335–36 (Bankr. D. Del. 1987) (requiring the debtor to show a "good business reason" for a proposed transaction under section 363(b)).

27. Courts also authorize payment of prepetition claims in appropriate circumstances based on section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code codifies a bankruptcy court's inherent equitable powers to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Under section 105(a), courts may authorize pre-plan payments of prepetition obligations when essential to the continued operation of a debtor's businesses. See In re Just for Feet, 242 B.R. at 825–26.

28. Specifically, a court may use its power under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to authorize payment of prepetition obligations pursuant to the "necessity of payment" rule (also referred to as the "doctrine of necessity"). See, e.g., In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 176; In re Lehigh & New England Ry. Co., 657 F.2d 570, 581 (3d Cir. 1981) (stating that courts may authorize payment of prepetition claims when there "is the possibility that the creditor will employ an immediate economic sanction, failing such payment"); see also In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 171 B.R. 189, 191–92 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (noting that, in the Third Circuit, debtors may pay prepetition claims that are essential to the continued operation of the business). The justification for the necessity of payment rule – the rehabilitation of a debtor in reorganization cases – is "the paramount policy and goal of Chapter 11." In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. at 176; see also Just for Feet, 242 B.R. at 826 (finding that payment of prepetition claims to certain trade vendors was "essential to the survival of the debtor during the chapter 11 reorganization"); 2 COLLIER ON BANKRUPTCY ¶ 105.02[4][a] (16th ed. 2013) (discussing cases in which courts have relied on the "doctrine of necessity" or the "necessity of payment" rule to pay prepetition claims outside of a plan). Accordingly, this Court has authority to authorize the Debtors to continue the Customer Programs pursuant to sections 363(b) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

29. A bankruptcy court's use of its equitable powers to "authorize the payment of prepetition debt when such payment is needed to facilitate the rehabilitation of the debtor is not a novel concept." In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 175–76 (citing Miltenberger v. Logansport, C. & S.W. Ry. Co., 106 U.S. 286 (1882)). Indeed, at least one court has recognized that there are instances when a debtor's fiduciary duty can "only be fulfilled by the preplan satisfaction of a prepetition claim." In re CoServ, 273 B.R. at 497. Here, the Court can authorize the Debtors to continue the Customer Programs and satisfy prepetition obligations related thereto pursuant to sections 363(b) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' failure to honor their Customer Programs may disrupt the Debtors' business and profitability postpetition and negatively impact the Debtors and their estates. There can be no doubt that the Customer Programs are critical to preserve the value of the Debtors' estates.

30. As set forth in the First Day Declaration and the Bidding Procedures Motion, the Company is undertaking an ongoing marketing process with the goal of continuing their prepetition marketing efforts and ultimately entering into a definitive asset purchase agreement.

31. Moreover, continuing to administer the Customer Programs without interruption during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases is critical to preserve the value of the Debtors' estates and maintain loyal customers. The Debtors believe that the benefit of continued customer satisfaction and loyalty during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases resulting from the Debtors obtaining court approval to honor the Customer Programs will far exceed any associated cost. In fact, the Debtors believe that the costs of the Customer Programs are, in the aggregate, more than offset by the revenue and continued goodwill that they generate. Customers expect and rely on the Customer Programs and may not continue supporting the Debtors' business if the Customer Programs are discontinued. It is incontrovertible that support from the Debtors' customers is essential for go-forward operations. The substantial benefit conferred on the Debtors' estates by the Customer Programs warrants the Court granting authority to the Debtors to honor the Customer Programs and any of the Debtors' obligations related thereto in the ordinary course of business.

32. Where, as here, retaining the loyalty and patronage of customers is critical to successful chapter 11 cases, courts in this district and others have granted relief similar to that requested here. See, e.g., In re Del Monte Foods Corporation II Inc., No. 25-16984 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 3, 2025) (authorizing the debtors to honor customer-related obligations in the ordinary course of business and to honor any prepetition obligations related thereto); In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 10, 2024) (same); In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 1, 2024) (same); In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 16, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 18, 2023) (same); In re Cyxtera Techs., Inc., No. 23-14853 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 29, 2023) (same); In re David's Bridal, LLC, No. 23-13131 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 18, 2023) (same); In re L'Occitane, Inc., No. 21-10632 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 25, 2021) (same); In re

SLT Holdco, Inc., No. 20-18368 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 29, 2020) (same); In re RTW Retailwinds, Inc., No. 20-18445 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Aug. 11, 2020) (same); In re Modell's Sporting Goods, Inc., No. 20-14179 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 25, 2020) (same).[8]

33. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the substantial benefit conferred on the Debtors' estates by the Customer Programs warrants the authority to honor the Customer Programs and any customer obligations relating thereto, whether arising prepetition or postpetition, and respectfully request the authority to continue their Customer Programs and honor prepetition commitments related thereto.

II. Continuing the Customer Programs and Honoring the Customer Obligations is in the Best Interests of the Debtors' Businesses and Their Estates.

34. Continuing to administer the Customer Programs without interruption during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases will help to preserve the Debtors' valuable customer and partner relationships and goodwill as well as to maintain business and drive additional business, which will inure to the benefit of all of the Debtors' stakeholders and their estates. If the Debtors are unable to continue the Customer Programs postpetition or pay amounts due and fulfill obligations owing on account of the Customer Programs, the Debtors risk alienating certain partners and customer constituencies (who might then initiate business relationships with the Debtors' competitors). Importantly, the Debtors' competitors maintain programs similar to the Customer Programs, meaning that customers have a ready audience willing to meet their needs and take business away from the Debtors at this crucial time.

35. Accordingly, given the importance of the Debtors' customers to their business, the Debtors submit that they have shown cause sufficient to warrant the authority to honor the [8] Because of the voluminous nature of the orders cited herein, such orders are not attached to this Motion. Copies of these orders are available upon request made to the Debtors' proposed counsel.

Customer Programs and to honor any customer obligations relating thereto as they deem appropriate in their business judgment and respectfully request that the relief sought herein be approved on the terms set forth in the proposed Interim and Final Orders.

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should Be Authorized

36. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts described in this Motion in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations, debtor-in-possession financing, and anticipated access to cash collateral. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to any authorized payment in respect of the relief requested herein. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently. Therefore, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court authorize all applicable financial institutions, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested in this Motion.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(b) Are Satisfied

37. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) empowers a court to grant relief within the first twenty-one (21) days after the Petition Date to the extent that "relief is needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(a). As set forth in this Motion, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors' operations. Failure to receive the requested relief during the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture and cause immediate and irreparable harm. The requested relief is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of their operations, and maximize value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm" as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a), and the Court should grant the requested relief.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

38. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the fourteen-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) for the reasons set forth herein.

Reservation of Rights

39. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended or should be construed as: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in this Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. If the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Final Hearing

40. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

No Prior Request

41. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this Court or any other court.

Notice

42. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions, as Prepetition Term Loan Agent; (e) counsel to Mithaq Capital SPC, as prepetition unsecured lender; (f) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (h) the Internal Revenue Service; (i) the Canada Revenue Agency; and (j) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors respectfully request that the Court enter the Interim Order and Final Order, substantially in the forms submitted herewith, granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as is just and proper.

3. Any objections to the entry of this Interim Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

4. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to continue to administer the Customer Programs (including, but not limited to, those discussed in the Motion) currently in effect and honor any undisputed prepetition obligations related to the Customer Programs, in each case in the ordinary course of business, consistent with prepetition practices, and to modify, replace, or terminate any Customer Program in the ordinary course of business.

5. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

6. Nothing contained in the Motion or this Interim Order, and no action taken pursuant to the relief requested or granted (including any payment made in accordance with this Interim Order), is intended as or shall be construed or deemed to be: (a) an admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's right to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim or otherwise of a type specified or defined in the Motion or this Interim Order; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission as to the validity, priority, enforceability or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; or (g) a waiver or limitation of any claims, causes of action or other rights of the Debtors or any other party in interest against any person or entity under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law.

7. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein.

8. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) are satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise deemed waived.

9. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

10. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion and the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

11. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

12. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted in this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

13. To the extent any provision of this Interim Order conflicts with the Interim Store Closing Order, and solely to the extent of such conflict, the Interim Store Closing Order shall control.

14. Any party may move for modification of this Interim Order in accordance with Local Rule 9013-5(e).

15. The Debtors are authorized and empowered to take all actions necessary to implement the relief granted in this Interim Order.

16. The Debtors shall serve by email (if available) or by regular mail (if email is unavailable) a copy of this Interim Order and the Motion on all parties required to receive such service pursuant to Local Rule 9013-5(f).

17. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.

Proposed Co-Counsel to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

In re: THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC., et al., Debtors.[1]	Chapter 11 Case No. 26-22682 (SLM) (Joint Administration Requested)

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtors' tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. The location of the debtors' service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094.

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) AUTHORIZING THE PAYMENT OF CERTAIN TAXES AND FEES AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") state as follows in support of this motion (the "Motion"):[2]

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B (respectively, the "Interim Order" and "Final Order"): (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (i) negotiate, remit, and pay (or use tax credits to offset) Taxes and Fees (as defined herein) in the ordinary course of business that are payable or become payable during these chapter 11 cases (including any obligations subsequently determined upon Audit (as defined herein), Assessment (as defined herein), or otherwise to be owed for periods prior to, including, or following the Petition Date, without regard to whether such obligations accrued or arose before, on, or after the Petition Date, and (ii) undertake the Tax Planning Activities (as defined herein); and (b) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

[2] A detailed description of the Debtors and their business, including the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Rudolph Morando, Co-Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtors, in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Motion have the meaning ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 363(b), 507(a)(8), 541(d), 1107(a), and 1108 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules 9013-1 and 9013-5 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

Taxes and Fees Overview

7. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors collect, withhold, and incur various taxes and fees as a result of their operations in the United States and Canada, including, among others, income and franchise taxes, sales and use taxes, goods and services taxes ("GST"), value-added taxes and related fees ("VAT"), excise taxes, customs and import duties, property taxes, non-employee withholding taxes, and fees to various third party tax service providers (collectively, the "Taxes and Fees").[3] The Debtors pay or remit, as applicable, Taxes and Fees to various governmental authorities (each, an "Authority," and collectively, the "Authorities") on a periodic basis (monthly, quarterly, semi-annually, annually, or as otherwise applicable) depending on the nature and incurrence of the particular Taxes and Fees and as required by applicable laws and regulations. A schedule identifying various Authorities is attached hereto as Exhibit C.[4] The

[3] This Motion does not seek relief with respect to the Debtors' collection and remittance of employee-related taxes and withholdings, which are instead addressed in the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to (A) Pay Prepetition Wages, Salaries, Other Compensation, and Reimbursable Expenses to Employees and Temporary Staff and (B) Continue Employee Benefits Programs and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Wages Motion"), filed contemporaneously herewith.

[4] Although Exhibit C is intended to be comprehensive, the Debtors may have inadvertently omitted Authorities. The Debtors request relief with respect to Taxes and Fees payable to all Authorities, regardless of whether such Authority is specifically identified in Exhibit C.

Debtors generally, but not exclusively, pay and remit Taxes and Fees via electronic transfers, through an Authority's online portals, or by a third-party servicer. From time to time, the Debtors may also receive tax credits for overpayments or refunds with respect to Taxes and Fees. The Debtors generally use these credits in the ordinary course of business to offset against future Taxes and Fees or cause the amount of such credits to be refunded to the Debtors.[5]

8. Additionally, the Debtors are subject to, or may become subject to, routine audit investigations on account of tax returns and/or tax obligations in respect of prior years (each, an "Audit," and collectively, the "Audits") during these chapter 11 cases, including as a result of any voluntary disclosures or similar procedural mechanisms, if applicable. Audits may result in additional prepetition Taxes and Fees being assessed against the Debtors (such additional Taxes and Fees, "Assessments").[6] As of the Petition Date, the Debtors are subject to ongoing Audits in California, New Jersey, Texas, West Virginia, and Canada and recently completed Audits in Georgia and Wisconsin, with identified outstanding balances (pending the Debtors' review of the auditors' findings and, in certain cases, the auditors' final determination of penalties and interest) totaling approximately $1,360,805 in the aggregate, exclusive of amounts in two ongoing Audits for which the auditors have not yet quantified a potential liability. Additionally, the Debtors have received the results of an abandoned and unclaimed property audit, with a final assessed amount of $121,718 coming due in December of 2026. The Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to pay or remit tax obligations on account of any Assessments as they arise in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business, including as a result of any resolutions of issues addressed in an Audit.

[5] As previously disclosed in THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC.'s Annual Report on Form 10-K, certain tax receivables were sold to third parties prior to the Petition Date and, accordingly, do not constitute property of the Debtors' estates.

[6] Nothing in this Motion, or any related order, constitutes or should be construed as an admission of liability by the Debtors with respect to any Audit or Assessment. The Debtors expressly reserve all rights with respect to any Audit and the right to contest any Assessments claimed to be due as a result of any Audit.

9. The Debtors seek authority to pay and remit all prepetition and postpetition obligations on account of Taxes and Fees (including any obligations subsequently determined upon Audit, Assessment, or otherwise to be owed), including: (a) Taxes and Fees that accrue or are incurred postpetition; (b) Taxes and Fees that have accrued or were incurred prepetition but were not paid prepetition or were paid in an amount less than actually owed; (c) payments made prepetition by the Debtors that were lost or otherwise not received in full by any of the Authorities; and (d) Taxes and Fees incurred for prepetition periods that become due and payable after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, including as a result of Audits or Assessments. In addition, for the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors seek authority to pay Taxes and Fees for so-called "straddle" periods (i.e., periods that include the Petition Date).[7]

10. In addition, the Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to: (a) settle some or all of the prepetition Taxes and Fees for less than their face amount without further notice or hearing; (b) file amended tax returns, including for prepetition periods, and pay any Taxes and Fees in connection therewith; and (c) post collateral or a letter of credit in connection with any dispute related to an Audit or Assessment.

11. Finally, subject to the Final Order, the Debtors seek authority to undertake certain typical activities related to tax planning, and to pay Taxes and Fees related thereto, in each case with respect to any Debtor and any direct or indirect subsidiary of a Debtor (whether or not a Debtor, each a "Company Entity") including: (a) converting Company Entities from one form to another (e.g., converting an entity from a corporation to a limited liability company) via conversion, merger, or otherwise ("Entity Conversions"); (b) making, revoking, amending, or changing any tax election, including with respect to the tax classification of any Company Entity ("Entity Classification Elections"); (c) changing the position of any Company Entity within the Debtors' corporate structure, including by forming, dissolving, liquidating, or cancelling any Company Entity ("Entity Movements"); and (d) modifying or resolving intercompany claims and contributing, distributing, transferring, or otherwise moving assets, liabilities, or equity interests among Company Entities ("Asset and Liability Movements" and, together with the Entity Conversions, Entity Classification Elections, and Entity Movements, the "Tax Planning Activities"), in the case of each of clauses (a) through (d), solely to the extent that such Tax Planning Activities (i) will not alter the substantive rights of any of the Debtors' creditors or equity holders in these chapter 11 cases and (ii) are not anticipated to impose material adverse tax consequences upon any of the Debtors' creditors or equity holders, in each case as reasonably determined by the Debtors and without regard to intercompany obligations or equity interests.

[7] The Debtors reserve their rights with respect to the proper characterization of any "straddle" Taxes and Fees and to seek reimbursement of any portion of any payment made that ultimately is not entitled to administrative or priority treatment.

12. The Debtors estimate that approximately $$13,568,899 in Taxes and Fees is outstanding as of the Petition Date, approximately $13,568,899 of which will come due between entry of the Interim Order and the Final Order (the "Interim Period").[8]

[8] The Debtors cannot predict the amounts of any potential Assessments that may result from Audits, if any. Accordingly, the Debtors' estimate of outstanding Taxes and Fees as of the Petition Date does not include any amounts relating to potential Assessments.

Category	Description	Approximate Amount Accrued and Unpaid as of Petition Date[9]	Approximate Amount Due in Interim Period
Income and Franchise Taxes	Income, withholding, franchise, and similar taxes incurred based on the jurisdictions in which the Debtors do business, generally payable to federal, state, and local Authorities in the United States and outside of the United States on an annual basis.[10]	$16,000	$16,000
Sales and Use Taxes	Sales taxes, use taxes, goods and services taxes, value-added taxes, and related taxes and fees payable to the Authorities in various jurisdictions in connection with goods and services sold or used, assessed based on the value of such goods and services, generally payable on a monthly and quarterly basis.	$3,994,659[11]	$3,994,659
Customs and Import Duties	The Debtors remit taxes to Authorities imposed for importing goods from outside of the United States.	$9,400,000	$9,400,000
Property Taxes	Taxes related to real and personal property holdings, generally payable on an annual basis.	$52,539	$52,539
Withholding Taxes	Taxes that are required by applicable law to be deducted or withheld from the payment of income on account of the recipient of the income and remitted to the relevant Authorities, payable on an annual and quarterly basis.	$37,398	$37,398

9 In certain cases, the approximate amount of Taxes and Fees is based on current exchange rates and may be subject to change based on fluctuations in exchange rates.

10 This category includes, without limitation, a gross receipts tax paid in Delaware and a business and occupation tax paid in Washington.

11 This figure includes approximately $298,036 in prepayments for Sales and Use Taxes coming due in November. Additionally, this figure accounts for approximately $24,000 in CAD, which has been converted to $16,981.80 USD.

12 The amounts set forth above are good-faith estimates based on the Debtors' books and records as of the date hereof and remain subject to revision, including with respect to categories for which amounts are still being

I. Income and Franchise Taxes.

13. The Debtors incur and are required to pay the relevant Authorities various U.S. federal, state, local, and non-U.S. income, franchise, and other business taxes, as applicable (collectively, the "Income and Franchise Taxes") in the jurisdictions where the Debtors operate. The Debtors generally remit Income and Franchise Taxes on a quarterly and annual basis each year in accordance with the statutory requirements of each applicable jurisdiction. In certain jurisdictions, customers or contract counterparties are required to withhold and remit Income and Franchise Taxes to the relevant Authority on behalf of the Debtors. In addition, in some jurisdictions, the Debtors remit to the relevant Authorities estimated amounts with respect to Income and Franchise Taxes, occasionally resulting in tax credits or overpayments that may be refunded to the Debtors in certain circumstances. In the 12 months ending September 30, 2026, the Debtors remitted approximately $254,622 in Income and Franchise Taxes to the applicable Authorities.

14. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $16,000 to the applicable Authorities on account of prepetition Income and Franchise Taxes, of which approximately $16,000 is or will become due and payable during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to satisfy any amounts owed on account of such Income and Franchise Taxes that are due and owing as of the Petition Date or may become due and owing in the ordinary course of business during their chapter 11 cases.

II. Sales and Use Taxes, GST, and VAT.

15. The Debtors operate internationally, having stores in the United States and Canada. In connection with those operations, the Debtors incur, collect, or remit to the Authorities sales and use taxes, GST, and VAT in connection with the sale, purchase, and use of goods and services, and the value added to such goods and services (including interest and penalties on any late payments, collectively, the "Sales and Use Taxes"). Sales and Use Taxes are general consumption taxes that the Debtors incur either when purchasing goods and services from vendors or when selling goods and services to customers. Sales and Use Taxes are usually set by the relevant Authorities as a percentage of the retail prices of goods and services purchased. In some jurisdictions, the Debtors remit to the relevant Authorities estimated amounts with respect to Sales and Use Taxes, resulting in tax credits or overpayments that may be refunded to the Debtors in certain circumstances. Additionally, when the Debtors incur Sales and Use Taxes at the point of purchase, vendors often include the applicable Sales and Use Taxes on the invoices payable by the Debtors, and the Debtors do not separately remit such amounts to the Authorities. The Debtors generally remit Sales and Use Taxes on a monthly and quarterly basis through the applicable Authority's online portal.

16. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they have incurred or collected approximately $3,994,659 in Sales and Use Taxes that have not been remitted to the relevant Authorities, of which approximately $ 3,994,659 is or will become due and payable during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to satisfy any amounts owed on account of such Sales and Use Taxes that are due and owing as of the Petition Date or may become due and owing in the ordinary course of business during their chapter 11 cases.

III. Customs and Import Duties

17. The Debtors are required to pay both import duties and customs duties in the ordinary course of operating the Debtors' business (the "Customs and Import Duties"). For example, the Debtors incur Customs and Import Duties when they import inventory from another jurisdiction. The Debtors generally pay Customs and Import Duties as they accrue. In 2025, the Debtors paid approximately $92.6 million in aggregate Customs and Import Duties to the applicable Authorities. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate[13] they have incurred, but have not remitted, approximately $9,400,000 in Customs and Import Duties. The Debtors request authority, but not direction, to satisfy any amounts owed on account of such Customs and Import Duties that may become due and owing in the ordinary course of business during their chapter 11 cases.

IV. Property Taxes.

18. State and local laws in the jurisdictions where the Debtors operate generally grant Authorities the power to levy property taxes against the Debtors' real and personal property, and the Debtors pay property taxes in such jurisdictions on account of such real and personal property located in such jurisdictions (collectively, the "Property Taxes").[14] To avoid the imposition of statutory liens on their personal property, the Debtors generally pay the Property Taxes in the ordinary course of business on an annual basis, depending on the specific Taxes or Fees.

19. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they have incurred approximately $52,539 in Property Taxes that have not been remitted to the relevant Authorities, of which approximately $52,539 is or will become due and payable during the Interim Period. Additionally, the Debtors expect approximately $1.2 million in Property Taxes relating to real and personal property in Alabama and Texas for the 2026 tax year to become due by December 31, 2026. Consistent with their typical practice, the Debtors anticipate paying this amount in mid-December [13] Amounts payable on account of Customs and Import Duties are particularly difficult to estimate due to variability in the timing and volume of imports and applicable duty and tariff rates.

[14] The Debtors indirectly pay taxes on account of real property pursuant to the terms of the respective leases with the Debtors' landlords. The Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to honor any real estate taxes as they become due and owing in the ordinary course of business during the chapter 11 cases, if any.

to avoid penalties. The Debtors request authority to satisfy any amounts owed on account of such Property Taxes that are due and owing as of the Petition Date or may become due and owing in the ordinary course of business during their chapter 11 cases.

V. Withholding Taxes.

20. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors are required by applicable law to deduct or withhold certain taxes from payments of income to payees, including two members of the board of directors for Debtor THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC., and to remit those amounts to the relevant Authorities on account of the recipient of the income (collectively, the "Withholding Taxes").[15] For the avoidance of doubt, Withholding Taxes consist solely of amounts payable to the Authorities. The Debtors remit Withholding Taxes to the relevant Authorities,[16] which can become due within days of payment, quarterly, or after notice is provided depending on the Authority.

21. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that approximately $37,398 in Withholding Taxes will have accrued and remain unpaid to Authorities in various jurisdictions, of which approximately $37,398 is or will become due and payable during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority to satisfy any amounts owed on account of such Withholding Taxes that are due and owing as of the Petition Date or may become due and owing in the ordinary course of business during their chapter 11 cases.

[15] The Withholding Taxes are imposed on payments to non-employee payees, including pursuant to sections 1441 and 1442 of the Internal Revenue Code and comparable non-U.S. withholding regimes. As set forth above, this Motion does not seek relief with respect to the Debtors' collection and remittance of employee-related taxes and withholdings, which are addressed in the Wages Motion.

[16] These Authorities include the Internal Revenue Service, the Canada Revenue Agency, and the other authorities identified in Exhibit C.

VI. Tax Service Providers.

22. The Debtors, in the ordinary course of business, use various third-party tax service providers, including Ryan LLC and FandlGagnon, LLC (collectively, the "Tax Service Providers"), to facilitate payment of certain Taxes and Fees. Such services include, among others, calculating Sales and Use Taxes and remitting taxes to the Authorities on the Debtors' behalf.

23. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $68,303 in prepetition amounts to the Tax Service Providers, of which approximately $68,303 is or will become due and payable during the Interim Period. The Debtors believe that continuing the services of the Tax Service Providers is necessary to ensure the Debtors' compliance with the taxing requirements of various Authorities. Additionally, the services of the Tax Service Providers reduce the risk of having to pay reinstatement fees, penalties, or interest on missed payments. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to continue paying and to satisfy any fees or amounts owed on account of services provided by such Tax Service Providers that are due and owing as of the Petition Date or that may become due and owing in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis consistent with prepetition practices.

I. Certain Taxes and Fees May Not Be Property of the Debtors' Estates.

24. Section 541(d) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that "[p]roperty in which the debtor holds, as of the commencement of the case, only legal title and not an equitable interest . . . becomes property of the estate under subsection (a)(1) or (2) of this section only to the extent of the debtors' legal title to such property, but not to the extent of any equitable interest in such property that the debtor does not hold." 11 U.S.C. § 541(d). Certain Taxes and Fees are collected or withheld by the Debtors on behalf of the applicable Authorities and are held in trust by the Debtors. See, e.g., 26 U.S.C. § 7501 (stating that certain taxes and fees are held in trust); Begier v. Internal Revenue Serv., 496 U.S. 53, 57–60 (1990) (holding that certain taxes are property held by the debtor in trust for another and, as such, do not constitute property of the estate); In re Net Pay Sols., Inc., 822 F.3d 144, 149 (3d Cir. 2016) (same); In re FirstPay, Inc., 773 F.3d 583, 590 (4th Cir. 2014) (same); In re DuCharmes & Co., 852 F.2d 194, 196 (6th Cir. 1988) (per curiam) (same); In re Shank, 792 F.2d 829, 833 (9th Cir. 1986) (holding that a sales tax required by state law to be collected by sellers from their customers is a "trust fund sales tax" and "not released by a bankruptcy discharge"); DeChiaro v. N.Y. State Tax Comm'n, 760 F.2d 432, 435–36 (2d Cir. 1985) (same); In re Calabrese, 689 F.3d 312, 321 (3d Cir. 2012) (same); In re Rosenow, 715 F.2d 277, 279–82 (7th Cir. 1983) (same); In re Waite, 698 F.2d 1177, 1178 (11th Cir. 1983) (same). For example, all U.S. federal tax withheld is considered to be held in a "special fund in trust for the United States." Begier, 496 U.S. at 60 (quoting 26 U.S.C. § 7501). Because the Debtors may not have an equitable interest in funds held on account of such "trust fund" Taxes and Fees, the Debtors should be permitted to pay those funds to the applicable Authorities as they become due.[17]

II. Certain Taxes and Fees May Be Priority Claims Entitled to Priority Treatment Under the Bankruptcy Code.

25. Claims on account of certain Taxes and Fees may be priority claims entitled to payment before general unsecured claims. See 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(8) (describing taxes entitled to priority treatment). Courts have authorized early payment of priority claims when such early payment is intended to prevent some harm or to procure some benefit for the estate. See, e.g., In re Lehigh & New Eng. Ry. Co., 657 F.2d 570, 572 (3d Cir. 1981) (holding courts may authorize payment of prepetition claims under the "necessity of payment doctrine" when there "is the possibility that the creditor will employ an immediate economic sanction, failing such payment"); In re Equalnet Commc'ns Corp., 258 B.R. 368, 370 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2000) (asserting that the court may authorize pre-plan payment of priority claims because it is clear these claims need to be paid during the ordinary course of business).

26. Moreover, to the extent that such amounts are entitled to priority treatment under the Bankruptcy Code, the respective Authorities may attempt to assess interest and penalties if such amounts are not paid. See 11 U.S.C. § 507(a)(8)(G) (granting eighth priority status to "a penalty related to a claim of a kind specified in this paragraph and in compensation for actual pecuniary loss"). Claims entitled to priority status pursuant to section 507(a)(8) of the Bankruptcy Code must be paid in full under a confirmable plan pursuant to section 1129(a)(9)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code. Therefore, payment of certain Taxes and Fees at this time only affects the timing of the payment for the amounts at issue and will not unduly prejudice the rights and recoveries of junior creditors. See In re Equalnet, 258 B.R. at 369 ("[C]ertain types of claims enjoy a priority status in addition to being sometimes critical to the ongoing nature of the business. For instance . . . certain tax claims are both priority claims in whole or in part. The need to pay these claims in an ordinary course of business time-frame is simple common sense."). Payment of such Taxes and Fees likely will give Authorities no more than that to which they otherwise would be entitled under a chapter 11 plan and will save the Debtors the potential interest expense, legal expense, and penalties that might otherwise accrue on such Taxes and Fees during these chapter 11 cases. For the avoidance of doubt, the Debtors are not seeking to make any payments pursuant to this Motion for tax periods that would be older than those entitled to priority treatment.

27. Some of the Taxes and Fees may be entitled to secured status with respect to the property that the Debtors own. As secured claims, these Taxes and Fees would be entitled to priority treatment if and when the Debtors sell the property that these Taxes and Fees are recorded against or when the Debtors confirm a plan of reorganization. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 506(a); 1129(a)(9)(C); 1129(b)(2)(A) (requiring that any plan of reorganization "crammed down" over a class of secured creditors pay those creditors in full or allow those creditors to retain their liens). Moreover, such secured claims could accrue interest if not timely paid. As with priority tax claims, payment of secured tax claims only affects the timing of payments and will not unduly prejudice the rights and recoveries of other creditors of the Debtors.

III. Payment of Taxes and Fees and Undertaking the Tax Planning Activities as Provided Herein Is a Sound Exercise of the Debtors' Business Judgment.

28. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits a bankruptcy court, after notice and a hearing, to authorize a debtor to "use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). "In determining whether to authorize the use, sale or lease of property of the estate under this section, courts require the debtor to show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." Dai-Ichi Kangyo Bank, Ltd. v. Montgomery Ward Holding Corp. (In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp.), 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (collecting cases); see also Armstrong World Indus., Inc. v. James A. Phillips, Inc. (In re James A. Phillips, Inc.), 29 B.R. 391, 397 (S.D.N.Y. 1983) (relying on section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code to allow a contractor to pay prepetition claims of suppliers who were potential lien claimants because the payments were necessary for general contractors to release funds owed to debtors); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175–76 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) (finding that a sound business justification existed to justify payment of certain prepetition wages); In re Filene's Basement, LLC, No. 2966, 2014 WL 1713416, at *24 (Bankr. D. Del. Apr. 29, 2014) (explaining that a debtor's business judgment for section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code will be presumed reasonable if the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for their decision) (citations omitted). In addition, under section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor in possession has, among other things, the "implied duty of the debtor in possession to 'protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business' going-concern value." In re CEI Roofing, Inc., 315 B.R. 50, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2004) (quoting In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002)).

29. The Debtors' timely payment of Taxes and Fees is critical to their continued and uninterrupted operations. If certain Taxes and Fees remain unpaid, the Authorities may seek to recover such amounts directly from the Debtors' directors, officers, or employees, thereby distracting such key personnel from the administration of these chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., Schmehl v. Helton, 662 S.E.2d 697, 707 (W. Va. 2008) (noting that corporate officers may be held responsible for payment of certain corporate taxes); In re Am. Motor Club, Inc., 139 B.R. 578, 581–83 (Bankr. E.D.N.Y. 1992) (citing United States v. Energy Res. Co., 495 U.S. 545 (1990)) (stating "[i]f the employer fails to pay over the trust fund taxes, the IRS may collect an equivalent amount directly from officers or employees of the employer who are responsible for collecting the tax" and finding the director personally liable for unpaid taxes). Any collection action on account of such amounts, and any potential ensuing liability, would distract the Debtors and their personnel to the detriment of all parties in interest. The dedicated and active participation of the Debtors' officers and employees is integral to the Debtors' continued operations and essential to the orderly administration, and ultimately the success, of these chapter 11 cases.[18] [18] Nothing herein is a concession that the Debtors' officers, directors, or employees would have personal liability for unpaid taxes. However, the intent of such collection efforts, even if ultimately unwarranted, would be a critical distraction. In addition, such individuals may be entitled to indemnification by the Debtors' estates which would be an unnecessary cost to incur.

30. Finally, the Debtors' failure to timely pay Taxes and Fees may result in increased tax liability for the Debtors if interest and penalties accrue on unpaid Taxes and Fees, which amounts may also be entitled to priority treatment. Such a result would be contrary to the best interests of the Debtors' estates and all stakeholders. The Debtors' failure to pay the prepetition Taxes and Fees as they come due may, therefore, ultimately increase the amount of priority claims held by the Authorities against the Debtors' estates, to the detriment of the Debtors' general unsecured creditors and other non-priority creditors. See 11 U.S.C. §§ 507(a)(8)(C); 507(a)(8)(G).

31. For the foregoing reasons, the Court should authorize the Debtors under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code to pay all prepetition and postpetition obligations on account of Taxes and Fees, including any Assessments, and undertake Tax Planning Activities. Courts in this district regularly approve relief similar to that requested herein. See, e.g., In re LIV Golf New Jersey LLC, No. 26-20189 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 7, 2026) (authorizing the debtors to pay prepetition taxes and fees in the ordinary course of business and to conduct tax planning activities); In re FreshRealm, Inc., No. 26-14656 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 21, 2026) (same); In re STG Logistics, Inc., No. 26-10258 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026) (same); In re Del Monte Foods Corp. II Inc., No. 25-16984 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Aug. 5, 2025) (same); In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 4, 2024) (same); In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 18, 2024) (same); In re Careismatic Brands, LLC, No. 24-10561 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 1, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Dec. 20, 2023) (same); In re WeWork Inc., No. 23-19865 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Dec. 6, 2023) (same).[19]

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should Be Authorized

32. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts described in this Motion in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations, anticipated debtor-in-possession financing, and anticipated access to cash collateral. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to any authorized payment in respect of the relief requested herein. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently. Therefore, the Debtors request that the Court authorize all applicable financial institutions, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested in this Motion.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) Are Satisfied

33. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) empowers a court to grant relief within the first twenty-one (21) days after the Petition Date to the extent that "relief is needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(a). As set forth in this Motion, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors' operations. Failure to receive the requested relief during the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture and cause immediate and irreparable harm. The requested relief is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of their operations, and maximize value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm," as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a), and the Court should grant the requested relief.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

34. To the extent that any aspect of the relief sought herein constitutes a use of property under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the fourteen-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

35. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended or should be construed as: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in this Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. If the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Final Hearing

36. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

No Prior Request

37. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this Court or any other court.

Notice

38. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions, as Prepetition Term Loan Agent; (e) counsel to Mithaq Capital SPC, as prepetition unsecured lender; (f) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (h) the Internal Revenue Service; (i) the Canada Revenue Agency; and (j) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request that the Court enter interim and final orders, in substantially the forms submitted herewith, granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as is just and proper under the circumstances.

INTERIM ORDER (I) AUTHORIZING THE PAYMENT OF CERTAIN TAXES AND FEES AND (II) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

The relief set forth on the following pages, numbered three (3) through eleven (11), is ORDERED.

If no objections are filed to the Motion, the Court may enter an order approving the relief requested in the Motion on a final basis without further notice or hearing.

3. Any objections to the entry of this Interim Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

4. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

5. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to: (a) negotiate, pay, and remit (or use tax credits to offset), or otherwise satisfy Taxes and Fees (including corresponding Assessments) that arose or accrued prior to the Petition Date and that will become due and owing in the ordinary course of business during the Interim Period in accordance with applicable law; and (b) negotiate, pay, and remit (or use tax credits to offset) Taxes and Fees that arise or accrue in the ordinary course of business during the Interim Period on a postpetition basis including, for the avoidance of doubt, posting collateral or a letter of credit in connection with any dispute related to the Audits or Assessments or paying any Taxes and Fees arising as a result of the Audits or Assessments; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Motion, in the event the Debtors make a payment with respect to any Taxes and Fees for the prepetition portion of any "straddle" period amount, and this Court subsequently determines such amount was not entitled to priority or administrative treatment under section 507(a)(8) or 503(b)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors may (but shall not be required to) seek an order from the Court requiring a return of such amounts, and the payment of such amount shall, upon order of the Court, be refunded to the Debtors.

6. The Debtors shall: (a) provide any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases with information regarding any and all Audits or Assessments, as well as any disputes related thereto, commenced during the course of the chapter 11 cases; (b) consult with any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases before settling and/or paying Taxes and Fees in excess of $2.0 million arising as a result of the Audits or Assessments; and (c) provide any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases with five (5) business days' notice prior to entering into settlements of claims for Taxes and Fees in excess of $5.0 million.

7. The Debtors are further authorized to settle some or all of the prepetition Taxes and Fees for less than their face amount without further notice or hearing; provided that the Debtors shall provide five (5) business days' notice to counsel to any parties entitled to notice under any applicable Financing Order, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the U.S. Trustee, and any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases prior to entering into settlements of claims for Taxes and Fees in excess of $2.0 million; provided, further, that the Debtors shall obtain any prior written consent required under any applicable Financing Order in accordance with the terms thereof. Nothing herein shall modify, alter, or waive any notice, consent, or other requirement under any applicable Financing Order.

8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Motion, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to file amended tax returns, including for prepetition periods, and pay any Taxes and Fees in connection therewith.

9. The Debtors shall maintain a matrix or schedule of payments made pursuant to this Interim Order, including the following information: (a) the names of the payee; (b) the nature, date, and amount of the payment; (c) the category or type of payment as characterized in the Motion; and (d) the Debtor or Debtors that made the payment. The Debtors shall provide a copy of such matrix or schedule to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent and the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any parties entitled to receive such matrix or schedule under any applicable Financing Order, and the advisors to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases within seven (7) days of the end of each calendar month beginning upon entry of this Interim Order and ending upon entry of an order confirming a plan or dismissing or converting these chapter 11 cases.

10. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein or any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained in this Interim Order shall create any rights in favor of, or enhance the status of any claim held by, any of the Authorities.

11. To the extent that the Debtors have overpaid any Taxes and Fees, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to seek a refund or credit.

12. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to undertake the Tax Planning Activities, as more fully described in the Motion, and solely to the extent that such Tax Planning Activities (a) will not alter the substantive rights of any of the Debtors' creditors or equity holders in these chapter 11 cases and (b) are not anticipated to impose material adverse tax consequences upon any of the Debtors' creditors or equity holders, in each case as reasonably determined by the Debtors and without regard to intercompany obligations or equity interests; provided, however, that the Debtors will give the U.S. Trustee and the advisors to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases five (5) business days' notice before effectuating any such Tax Planning Activity, during which time the U.S. Trustee or any such statutory committee may object to such Tax Planning Activities and request a hearing before the Court.

13. The Debtors' rights to contest the validity or priority of any Taxes and Fees on any grounds they deem appropriate are reserved and extend to the payment of Taxes and Fees relating to Audits that have been completed, are in progress, or arise from prepetition periods.

14. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

15. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Interim Order.

16. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

17. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

18. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) are satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise deemed waived.

19. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

20. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

21. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

22. The Debtors shall serve a copy of this Interim Order and the Motion on all parties required to receive such service pursuant to Local Rule 9013-5(f).

23. Any party may move for modification of this Interim Order in accordance with Local Rule 9013-5(e).

24. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Interim Order.

Upon the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Payment of Certain Taxes and Fees and (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Motion"),[2] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), for entry of a final order (this "Final Order") (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to (i) negotiate, remit, and pay (or use tax credits to offset) Taxes and Fees in the ordinary course of business that are payable or become payable during these chapter 11 cases (including any obligations subsequently determined upon Audit, Assessment, or otherwise to be owed for periods prior to the Petition Date), without regard to whether such obligations accrued or arose before or after the Petition Date, and (ii) undertake the Tax Planning Activities (b) granting related relief, all as more fully set forth in the Motion; and upon the First Day Declaration; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11 of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that it may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"), if any; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing, if any, establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on a final basis as set forth herein.

2. Any objections to the entry of this Final Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

3. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Final Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to: (a) negotiate, pay, and remit (or use tax credits to offset), or otherwise satisfy Taxes and Fees (including corresponding Assessments) that arose or accrued prior to the Petition Date and that will become due and owing in the ordinary course of business during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases at such time when Taxes and Fees are payable in accordance with applicable law; and (b) negotiate, pay, and remit (or use tax credits to offset) Taxes and Fees that arise or accrue in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis including, for the avoidance of doubt, posting collateral or a letter of credit in connection with any dispute related to the Audits or Assessments or paying any Taxes and Fees arising as a result of the Audits or Assessments; provided that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Motion, in the event the Debtors make a payment with respect to any Taxes and Fees for the prepetition portion of any "straddle" period amount, and this Court subsequently determines such amount was not entitled to priority or administrative treatment under section 507(a)(8) or 503(b)(1)(B) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Debtors may (but shall not be required to) seek an order from the Court requiring a return of such amounts, and the payment of such amount shall, upon order of the Court, be refunded to the Debtors; provided, further, that, with respect to the use of tax credits to offset any Taxes and Fees, the Debtors shall comply with any applicable notice and consent requirements under any applicable Financing Order, including obtaining any prior written consent required thereunder in accordance with the terms thereof.

5. The Debtors shall: (a) provide any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases with information regarding any and all Audits or Assessments, as well as any disputes related thereto, commenced during the course of the chapter 11 cases; (b) consult with any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases before settling and/or paying Taxes and Fees in excess of $2.0 million arising as a result of the Audits or Assessments; and (c) provide any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases with five (5) business days' notice prior to entering into settlements of claims for Taxes and Fees in excess of $5.0 million.

25. The Debtors are further authorized to settle some or all of the prepetition Taxes and Fees for less than their face amount without further notice or hearing; provided that the Debtors shall provide five (5) business days' notice to counsel to any parties entitled to notice under any applicable Financing Order, the Prepetition ABL Agent, the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, the U.S. Trustee, and any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases prior to entering into settlements of claims for Taxes and Fees in excess of $2.0 million; provided, further, that the Debtors shall obtain any prior written consent required under any applicable Financing Order in accordance with the terms thereof. Nothing herein shall modify, alter, or waive any notice, consent, or other requirement under any applicable Financing Order.

6. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein or in the Motion, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to file amended tax returns, including for prepetition periods, and pay any Taxes and Fees in connection therewith.

7. The Debtors shall maintain a matrix or schedule of payments made pursuant to this Final Order, including the following information: (a) the names of the payee; (b) the nature, date, and amount of the payment; (c) the category or type of payment as characterized in the Motion; and (d) the Debtor or Debtors that made the payment. The Debtors shall provide a copy of such matrix or schedule to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to any parties entitled to receive such matrix or schedule under any applicable Financing Order, and the advisors to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases within seven (7) days of the end of each calendar month beginning upon entry of this Final Order and ending upon entry of an order confirming a plan or dismissing or converting these chapter 11 cases.

8. Notwithstanding the relief granted herein or any actions taken hereunder, nothing contained in this Final Order shall create any rights in favor of, or enhance the status of any claim held by, any of the Authorities.

9. Nothing in this Final Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

10. To the extent that the Debtors have overpaid any Taxes and Fees, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to seek a refund or credit.

11. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to undertake the Tax Planning Activities, as more fully described in the Motion, and solely to the extent that such Tax Planning Activities (a) will not alter the substantive rights of any of the Debtors' creditors or equity holders in these chapter 11 cases and (b) are not anticipated to impose material adverse tax consequences upon any of the Debtors' creditors or equity holders, in each case as reasonably determined by the Debtors and without regard to intercompany obligations or equity interests; provided, however, that the Debtors will give the U.S. Trustee and the advisors to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases five (5) business days' notice before effectuating any such Tax Planning Activity, during which time the U.S. Trustee or any such statutory committee may object to such Tax Planning Activities and request a hearing before the Court.

12. The Debtors' rights to contest the validity or priority of any Taxes and Fees on any grounds they deem appropriate are reserved and extend to the payment of Taxes and Fees relating to Audits that have been completed, are in progress, or arise from prepetition periods.

13. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Final Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Final Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

14. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Final Order.

15. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Final Order.

16. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Final Order in accordance with the Motion.

17. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

18. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

19. The Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Final Order.

The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 361, 363, 364, 503, 1107, 1108, and 1112 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 2002, 4001(c), 6003, and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules 9013-1 and 9013-5 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each of the Debtors filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases, and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

The Insurance Policies and Related Payment Obligations

7. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors maintain approximately fifty-one (51) insurance policies (all insurance policies maintained by or on behalf of, issued to, or providing coverage to any of the Debtors, including policies providing coverage for prior periods and all related binders, endorsements, amendments, supplements, renewals, extensions, and replacements, together with any new insurance policies obtained by the Debtors in the ordinary course of business, are referred to herein collectively as the "Insurance Policies," whether or not identified on Exhibit C hereto). A non-exhaustive schedule of the Insurance Policies is attached as Exhibit C.[3] The Insurance Policies administered by various third-party insurance carriers (the "Insurance

[3] The descriptions of the Insurance Policies set forth in this Motion and Exhibit C constitute summaries only. The actual terms of the Insurance Policies and related agreements will govern in the event of any inconsistency with Carriers"). The Insurance Policies provide coverage for, among other things, losses related to the Debtors' real and personal property, professional and general liability, crime liability, cyber liability, directors' and officers' liability, fiduciary liability, automobile liability, workers' compensation, and employer and employment practices liability. In addition, certain of the Insurance Policies provide layers of excess liability coverage. The Debtors have selected policy specifications and insured limits that they believe to be appropriate given the relative risk of loss, the cost of the coverage, and industry practice. In the opinion of the Debtors' management, they maintain adequate insurance with limits and coverages that they believe to be commercially reasonable.

8. The Debtors' ability to maintain, renew, supplement, and modify the Insurance Policies as needed, enter into new insurance policies, and satisfy corresponding premium payments, including pursuant to the Premium Financing Agreements (as defined below), in the ordinary course of business is essential to preserving the value of the Debtors' business, properties, and assets. Moreover, in many instances, insurance coverage is required by statutes, rules, regulations, and contracts that govern the Debtors' commercial activities, including the Bankruptcy Code and the Region 3 Operating Guidelines for Chapter 11 Cases (the "U.S. Trustee Guidelines") published by the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey (the "U.S. Trustee"), which require, among other things, that a debtor maintain adequate coverage given the circumstances of its chapter 11 case. See 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(4)(C); U.S. Trustee those descriptions. The Debtors request relief with respect to all Insurance Policies and related obligations described in this Motion, regardless of whether any particular Insurance Policy or Insurance Carrier is specifically identified in this Motion or Exhibit C. Neither the omission of an Insurance Policy or Insurance Carrier from Exhibit C nor the number of policies identified therein limits the scope of the relief requested.

Guidelines § 3. It is therefore critical that the Debtors maintain appropriate insurance coverage at all times.

9. For these reasons, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to (a) maintain the Insurance Policies and honor all prepetition and postpetition obligations arising thereunder or in connection therewith, including pursuant to the Premium Financing Agreements (as defined below), (b) pay Broker Fees (as defined below), and (c) renew, supplement, modify, extend, replace, finance, or purchase insurance coverage and renew, modify, replace, or enter into related premium financing agreements in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practices and procedures to ensure uninterrupted coverage, in each case subject to the proposed orders.

I. Insurance Premiums.

10. The Insurance Policies generally are one year in length and renew annually, with most of the policies renewing in March, April or July of each calendar year.

11. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, there is approximately $1,279,932 in outstanding premium obligations ("Premiums") due on account of the Insurance Policies, including remaining scheduled installments, approximately $564,774 of which the Debtors expect will come due between the entry of the Interim Order and the Final Order (the "Interim Period"). These amounts include Premiums payable pursuant to the Premium Financing Agreements (defined and described below).

12. With respect to the Insurance Policies, the Debtors pay certain Premiums in advance and others in installments, including under existing premium financing agreements (the "Premium Financing Agreements") with FIRST Insurance Funding, a division of Lake Forest Bank & Trust Company, N.A. ("First Insurance"). The Debtors finance certain of their cyber, property, and bundled casualty, directors' and officers', crime, and umbrella policies through First Insurance. Under the terms of the Premium Financing Agreements, the Debtors make an initial down payment on the total Premiums due for the financed Insurance Policies and thereafter make monthly payments. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they will owe approximately $990,451.71 to First Insurance. During the Interim Period, the scheduled installments payable under the Premium Financing Agreements are $76,146.79 for cyber coverage, $169,671.51 for property coverage and $194,227.95 for bundled coverage. These installments total $440,046.25 and are included in, not additional to, the Interim Period premium estimate above.

13. The Premium Financing Agreements provide First Insurance with security interests in the financed Insurance Policies, related unearned Premiums, and other specified sums that may become payable thereunder. In the Debtors' business judgment, maintaining this financing will preserve insurance coverage and avoid the cost and disruption of obtaining replacement financing or paying financed Premiums in advance. Accordingly, the Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to continue honoring all prepetition and postpetition obligations under the Premium Financing Agreements, continue the grant of security interests thereunder in the specified policy-related collateral, and renew, modify, replace, or enter into new premium financing agreements in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practices and procedures, subject to the proposed orders.

II. Deductibles.

14. Pursuant to certain of the Insurance Policies, the Debtors are required to pay various deductibles (the "Deductibles") depending upon the type of claim and Insurance Policy involved. Generally, if a claim is made against an Insurance Policy that is subject to a Deductible, the applicable Insurance Carrier administers the claims, makes payments for the entire claim, and then invoices the Debtors for the Deductible. As a result, the Insurance Carriers may have prepetition claims against the Debtors. The Debtors risk losing their Insurance Policies if they fail to pay Deductibles, which would not only greatly increase the risk related to the Debtors' operations but may cause the Debtors to violate state laws requiring them to have such policies. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, there is approximately $2.2 million in open claims, with a maximum of approximately $1.48 million in corresponding Deductibles that could come due during the Interim Period. The Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to satisfy any prepetition amounts that may be due and owing on account of the Deductibles and to continue honoring all payment obligations under the Deductibles in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practice on a postpetition basis.

Insurance Brokers and Broker Fees

15. The Debtors obtain their Insurance Policies through their insurance brokers, Alliant Insurance Services, Inc. and Jones DesLauriers Insurance Management (the "Insurance Brokers"). The Insurance Brokers, among other things, (a) assist the Debtors in obtaining comprehensive insurance for their operations in a cost-effective manner, (b) advise the Debtors on the negotiation of the Insurance Policies, enabling the Debtors to obtain the Insurance Policies on advantageous terms and rates, and (c) provide ongoing support throughout the applicable policy periods for the Insurance Policies.

16. In exchange for these services, the Debtors pay fees to the Insurance Brokers (the "Broker Fees"). The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, they will owe approximately $62,500 in Broker Fees, all of which will come due during the Interim Period. The Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to pay any prepetition Broker Fees and to continue honoring all Broker Fees as they come due in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practice on a postpetition basis.

The Surety Bonds and Related Payment Obligations

17. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors are required to maintain various surety bonds (each, a "Surety Bond" and, collectively, the "Surety Bonds") that allow the Debtors to conduct core aspects of their business, guarantee their ability to perform certain actions, and secure their performance obligations (the "Surety Bond Program"). As of the Petition Date, the Debtors maintain approximately eight (8) Surety Bonds in an aggregate amount of approximately $18,747,786.41. The Surety Bonds primarily guarantee the Debtors' performance with respect to certain state tax and financial obligations, Canadian customs and utility obligations, and U.S. customs importer and drawback obligations.

18. For example, the Debtors must maintain bonds to assure the United States Customs and Border Protection ("U.S. Customs") that they will be able to pay any applicable duties, taxes, and fees that arise on account of the Debtors' import activity. See 19 U.S.C. § 1623; 19 C.F.R. pt. 113 (2026). Failure to provide, maintain, or timely replace the Surety Bonds may result in violations of federal law. In addition, in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors often post utility bonds to guarantee their obligations to certain utility providers that service the Debtors' brick-and-mortar retail footprint. Failure to post such utility surety bonds could jeopardize the Debtors' relationship with certain of their utility providers, which would be detrimental to these chapter 11 cases. A schedule of the Surety Bonds that the Debtors currently maintain is attached hereto as Exhibit D.[4]

[4] The descriptions of the Surety Bonds set forth in this Motion and in Exhibit D constitute a summary only. The actual terms of the Surety Bonds and related agreements will govern in the event of any inconsistency with the description in this Motion. Furthermore, the Debtors request relief with respect to all Surety Bonds, regardless

19. The Debtors estimate that, as of the Petition Date, there is approximately $3,654 due on account of the Surety Bond Program. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to maintain the existing Surety Bond Program, including, without limitation, to: (a) pay all outstanding prepetition and postpetition amounts owed on account of the Surety Bond Program as they become due, including premiums, fees, expenses, reimbursement obligations, and indemnity obligations; (b) maintain, renew, supplement, extend, replace, cancel, or modify the Surety Bonds and obtain new surety bonds as needed; and (c) provide, replenish, replace, or increase cash collateral supporting the Surety Standby Letters of Credit and other insurance- and surety-related letters of credit and otherwise satisfy related collateral, reimbursement, and indemnity requirements, in each case in the ordinary course of business, consistent with prepetition practice, and subject to applicable financing and cash collateral orders and approved budgets, including permitted variances. This relief does not grant unspecified new liens or priorities.

The Surety Standby Letters of Credit and Other Related Letters of Credit

20. The issuance of a surety bond shifts the risk of the Debtors' nonperformance or nonpayment from the Debtors to a surety. Unlike an insurance policy, if a surety incurs a loss on a surety bond, it is generally entitled to recover the full amount of that loss from the principal (i.e., the Debtors). Here, however, the Surety Bonds are supported by fully cash-collateralized standby letters of credits (the "Surety Standby Letters of Credit") with Wells Fargo Bank, National Association as the fronting bank and the Debtors' surety providers, Atlantic Specialty Insurance Company and Fidelity & Deposit Co. of Maryland (the "Surety Providers"), as the beneficiaries. Any draw by the surety with respect to a surety loss would be satisfied from the cash collateral backing the Surety Standby Letters of Credit, rather than giving rise to a reimbursement claim against the Debtors. The Surety Standby Letters of Credit serve as a backstop to the approximately $18,747,786.41 in total outstanding Surety Bonds.

21. The Debtors are responsible for any charges and fees associated with the Surety Standby Letters of Credit. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors do not owe any amounts on account of the Surety Standby Letters of Credit. However, out of an abundance of caution and to ensure uninterrupted coverage under the Surety Bond Program, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts on account of the Surety Standby Letters of Credit in cash as they become due and payable and continue making such payments in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business.

Basis for Relief

I. The Bankruptcy Code and U.S. Trustee Guidelines Require the Debtors to Maintain Insurance Coverage and Satisfy Their Insurance Obligations.

22. The Insurance Policies, Surety Bond Program, and Surety Standby Letters of Credit provide a comprehensive range of protection for the Debtors' business, properties, and assets, and in some cases, are required by the regulations, laws, and contracts that govern the Debtors' commercial activities. Therefore, it is essential that the Debtors' Insurance Policies continue in full force and effect during the course of these chapter 11 cases. Section 1112(b)(4)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code provides that "failure to maintain appropriate insurance that poses a risk to the estate or to the public" is "cause" for mandatory conversion or dismissal of a chapter 11 case. 11 U.S.C. § 1112(b)(4)(C). In addition, U.S. Trustee Guidelines require a debtor in possession to maintain certain types of insurance following the Petition Date and pay all insurance premiums as they come due. See U.S. Trustee Guidelines § 3. Accordingly, continuation of the Insurance Policies and Surety Bond Program, together with the related credit support, is essential during these chapter 11 cases.

23. To ensure that the Debtors comply with section 1112(b)(4)(C) of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable state and federal regulations, and the U.S. Trustee Guidelines, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to honor all prepetition and postpetition obligations arising under or in connection with the Insurance Policies, including pursuant to the Premium Financing Agreements, the Surety Bond Program, the Surety Standby Letters of Credit, including all amounts due in connection with Premiums, Deductibles, Broker Fees, and related fees and expenses, and, if necessary, to supplement, extend, renew, or replace their Insurance Policies, Surety Bonds, and the related Surety Standby Letters of Credit, in each case in the Debtors' business judgment and without further order of the Court.

II. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Honor Their Obligations Under the Insurance Policies, Including Pursuant to the Premium Financing Agreements, the Surety Bond Program, and the Surety Standby Letters of Credit, and to Continue, Renew, and Modify Such Arrangements in the Ordinary Course of Business.

24. The Debtors believe that they have authority to pay postpetition obligations arising under or in connection with the Insurance Policies, including pursuant to the Premium Financing Agreements, the Surety Bond Program, the Surety Standby Letters of Credit, and to renew, amend, supplement, extend, replace, finance, purchase, or enter into new insurance policies, premium financing agreements, surety bonds, and related letters of credit in the ordinary course of business during these chapter 11 cases. See 11 U.S.C. § 363(c) ("[T]he trustee may enter into transactions, including the sale or lease of property of the estate, in the ordinary course of business, without notice or a hearing, and may use property of the estate in the ordinary course of business without notice or a hearing."). Out of an abundance of caution, however, the Debtors seek express authority to honor the related prepetition obligations and satisfy the collateral, reimbursement, and indemnity requirements described herein, and to continue these arrangements to the extent such payments or actions are not deemed to be in the ordinary course of business.

25. Several courts, including those in the Third Circuit, have recognized that it is appropriate to authorize the payment of prepetition obligations where necessary to protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business's going-concern value. See, e.g., In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 825–26 (D. Del. 1999); see also In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989); Armstrong World Indus., Inc. v. James A. Phillips, Inc. (In re James A. Phillips, Inc.), 29 B.R. 391, 398 (S.D.N.Y. 1983).

26. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits a bankruptcy court, after notice and a hearing, to authorize a debtor to "use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). "In determining whether to authorize the use, sale or lease of property of the estate under this section, courts require the debtor to show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." Dai Ichi Kangyo Bank, Ltd. v. Montgomery Ward Holding Corp. (In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp.), 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999); see also In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 175 (noting that section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code provides "broad flexibility" to authorize a debtor to honor prepetition claims where supported by an appropriate business justification); In re James A. Phillips, Inc., 29 B.R. at 398 (affirming bankruptcy court order authorizing payments by debtor in possession to prepetition creditors because payments were essential to the debtor in possession's survival). Moreover, "[w]here the debtor articulates a reasonable basis for its business decisions (as distinct from a decision made arbitrarily or capriciously), courts will generally not entertain objections to the debtor's conduct." See Committee of Asbestos-Related Litigants and/or Creditors v. Johns-Manville Corp. (In re Johns-Manville Corp.), 60 B.R. 612, 616 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1986); see also Stanziale v. Nachtomi (In re Tower Air, Inc.), 416 F.3d 229, 238 (3d Cir. 2005) ("Overcoming the presumptions of the business judgment rule on the merits is a near-Herculean task."). In addition, under section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor in possession has, among other things, the "implied duty of the debtor-in-possession to 'protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business' going-concern value." In re CEI Roofing, Inc., 315 B.R. 50, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2004) (quoting In re CoServ, 273 B.R. at 497).

27. To the extent necessary, courts also authorize payment of prepetition claims based on section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, which codifies a bankruptcy court's inherent equitable powers to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions" of the Bankruptcy Code, pursuant to the doctrine of necessity. 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts may authorize pre-plan payments of prepetition obligations when essential to the continued operation of a debtor's business. See In re Just for Feet, 242 B.R. at 825–26. A bankruptcy court's use of its equitable powers to "authorize the payment of pre-petition debt when such payment is needed to facilitate the rehabilitation of the debtor is not a novel concept." See In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 175–76 (citing Miltenberger v. Logansport, C. & S.W. Ry. Co., 106 U.S. 286 (1882)).

28. The sound business judgment standard under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code is satisfied here. The nature of the Debtors' business and these chapter 11 cases renders it essential for the Debtors to maintain their Insurance Policies, the Surety Bond Program, and the Surety Standby Letters of Credit on an ongoing and uninterrupted basis. The non-payment of any Premiums, Deductibles, Broker Fees, or related fees or obligations under the Insurance Policies, Premium Financing Agreements, the Surety Bonds, or the Surety Standby Letters of Credit could result in one or more of the Insurance Carriers, Surety Providers, or the Surety Letter of Credit issuer terminating or declining to renew the Insurance Policies or Surety Bonds, or refusing to enter into new insurance policies or surety bonds with the Debtors.

29. Any interruption in coverage or related premium financing would expose the Debtors to multiple risks, including potential (a) direct liability for claims otherwise covered by the Insurance Policies; (b) material costs and other losses otherwise reimbursable; (c) inability to obtain comparable insurance, financing, or surety coverage on equally favorable terms; (d) higher costs to reinstate lapsed Insurance Policies or obtain replacement insurance coverage, financing, surety bonds, or related letters of credit, including the need to pay replacement premiums in advance; and (e) regulatory exposure where insurance or surety coverage is required to continue operations. Addressing any such disruption would divert the Debtors' and their advisors' limited time and resources from these chapter 11 cases.

30. Furthermore, the Debtors may not have the relevant experience and expertise needed to bring these services in-house. If the Debtors fail to make timely payments to the Insurance Brokers, the Debtors may lose access to their valuable services, disrupting management to the detriment of all stakeholders. The continued retention of the Insurance Brokers will allow the Debtors and their employees to focus on their core operational matters for the benefit of all parties in interest.

31. Here, the Debtors seek to continue, renew, modify, supplement, and extend their existing Insurance Policies, Surety Bond Program, and Surety Standby Letters of Credit, purchase new insurance policies and surety coverage, obtain new insurance- and surety-related letters of credit, and execute related agreements, including renewals, modifications, replacements, and new premium financing agreements, as needed in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practice. The Debtors believe that failure to timely honor any outstanding prepetition obligations could negatively affect their ability to obtain such amendments, supplements, extensions, financing, or new policies and coverage. Continuation of these arrangements, including payment of premium financing installments and satisfaction of associated collateral, reimbursement, and indemnity obligations, is essential to preserving the value of the Debtors' assets and minimizing exposure to risk during these chapter 11 cases. Therefore, the Debtors should be authorized, but not directed, to make such payments and continue, renew, supplement, purchase, finance, or enter into these arrangements in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practice.

32. Courts in this district have granted relief similar to the relief requested herein under sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re LIV Golf New Jersey LLC, No. 26-20189 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 8, 2026) (authorizing debtors to continue their insurance policies and pay their broker fees on a final basis); In re SIMAD Holdings Ltd., No. 26-16388 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 20, 2026) (same); In re FreshRealm, Inc., No. 26-14656 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 21, 2026) (same); In re Eddie Bauer LLC, No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026) (same); In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 4, 2024) (same); In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 18, 2024) (same).[5]

[5] Because of the voluminous nature of the orders cited herein, such orders have not been attached to this Motion. Copies of these orders are available upon request made to the Debtors' proposed counsel.

III. To the Extent this Court Determines that the Surety Bonds or the Surety Standby Letters of Credit Are Secured Extensions of Credit, Relief Is Appropriate Under Section 364 of the Bankruptcy Code.

33. Payment of prepetition premiums and amounts owing in connection with the Surety Bonds, and Surety Standby Letters of Credit is necessary and appropriate. The Debtors request authority under sections 105(a), 363, and 364 of the Bankruptcy Code to continue these arrangements, including ordinary-course collateral payments, replenishments, replacements, and increases under existing arrangements, and related reimbursement and indemnity payments. See, e.g., In re Ames Dept. Stores, Inc., 115 B.R. 34, 38 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1990); In re Simasko Prod. Co., 47 B.R. 444, 448–49 (D. Colo. 1985) (authorizing an interim financing agreement where the debtor's business judgment indicated financing was necessary and reasonable for the benefit of the estate). To satisfy the requirements of section 364(c) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor need only demonstrate "by a good faith effort that credit was not available" to the debtor on an unsecured or administrative expense basis. In re Snowshoe Co., 789 F.2d 1085, 1088 (4th Cir. 1986).

34. Continuing to honor obligations in connection with the Surety Bond Program and Surety Standby Letters of Credit is necessary to maintain the Debtors' operations and a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. The Surety Bonds secure customs, utility, and state tax or financial guarantee obligations, and the related letters of credit support current surety coverage, a legacy customs-bond tail, and workers' compensation coverage. The Debtors request authority to maintain this credit support and satisfy related collateral, reimbursement, and indemnity requirements in the ordinary course of business, subject to applicable financing and cash collateral orders.

35. The Debtors therefore request authority, but not direction, to maintain, renew, supplement, modify, extend, replace, and obtain insurance- and surety-related letters of credit, including the Surety Standby Letters of Credit, and to satisfy all associated prepetition and postpetition obligations as they become due in the ordinary course of business, including reimbursement and indemnity obligations and providing, replenishing, replacing, or increasing cash collateral under existing arrangements.

IV. The Debtors Should Be Authorized to Continue Honoring Their Premium Financing Agreements.

36. The Court should also authorize the Debtors to continue honoring their obligations under the Premium Financing Agreements. As described above, the Premium Financing Agreements provide for security interests in the financed Insurance Policies, related unearned Premiums, and other sums that may become payable thereunder. Continued installment payments preserve this financing and the underlying coverage while providing periodic payments to First Insurance on account of its interests in the policy-related collateral. Section 361 of the Bankruptcy Code contemplates adequate protection to the extent of a diminution in value of a secured creditor's interest. See 11 U.S.C. § 361; TIFCO, Inc. v. U.S. Repeating Arms Co. (In re U.S. Repeating Arms Co.), 67 B.R. 990, 994–95, 1000 (Bankr. D. Conn. 1986); In re Waverly Textile Processing, Inc., 214 B.R. 476, 480 (Bankr. E.D. Va. 1997). The Debtors request authority to continue making payments and to continue the grant of the security interests provided for in the Premium Financing Agreements, subject to the reservations of rights and financing-order limitations in the proposed orders.

37. If the Debtors are unable to continue making installment payments under the Premium Financing Agreements, First Insurance could seek relief from the automatic stay to cancel the financed Insurance Policies or seek adequate protection. The Debtors could then be required to obtain replacement coverage on an expedited basis and at significant expense, including payment of Premiums in advance. Even absent cancellation, interruption of payments could adversely affect the Debtors' ability to finance future premiums on favorable terms.

Accordingly, the Debtors submit that continuing the scheduled financing payments under the Premium Financing Agreements, and renewing, modifying, replacing, or entering into new premium financing agreements in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practices and procedures, is in the best interests of their estates.

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should Be Authorized

38. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts described in this Motion in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations, anticipated debtor-in-possession financing, and anticipated access to cash collateral. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to any authorized payment in respect of the relief requested herein. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently. Therefore, the Debtors request that the Court authorize all applicable financial institutions, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested in this Motion.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) Are Satisfied

39. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) empowers a court to grant relief within the first twenty-one (21) days after the Petition Date to the extent that "relief is needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(a). As set forth in this Motion, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors' operations. Failure to receive the requested relief during the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture and cause immediate and irreparable harm. The requested relief is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of their operations, and maximize value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm," as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a), and the Court should grant the requested relief.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

40. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the fourteen-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) for the reasons set forth herein.

Reservation of Rights

41. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to: (a) maintain, continue, renew, amend, supplement, extend, replace, or cancel the existing Surety Bond Program in the ordinary course of business, including the Surety Bonds identified on Exhibit D to the Motion and any related agreements; (b) purchase new surety bonds and execute related agreements in the ordinary course of business; (c) pay prepetition or postpetition premiums, fees, and related expenses of the Surety Bond Program as such amounts become due in the ordinary course of business; and (d) replace Surety Providers or other parties as necessary, if the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, that doing so is in the best interests of their estates.

6. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on a final basis, to: (a) maintain, continue, renew, amend, supplement, extend, and/or cancel the existing Surety Standby Letters of Credit in the ordinary course of business; (b) pay any prepetition or postpetition obligations related to the Surety Standby Letters of Credit and any related expenses in cash, including, but not limited to, any amounts owed to the fronting banks under the Surety Standby Letters of Credit and to any other related parties as such amounts come due in the ordinary course of business; and (c) replace the Surety Standby Letters of Credit as necessary, if the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, that doing so is in the best interest of their estates.

7. The Debtors shall serve a copy of the Motion and this Final Order on each Insurance Carrier listed on Exhibit C to the Motion within two (2) business days after the date this Final Order is entered.

8. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to make payments in cash on account of any postpetition audits related to the Insurance Policies or the Surety Bonds in the ordinary course of business.

9. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay any prepetition or postpetition obligations on account of the Deductibles in the ordinary course of business and consistent with prepetition practice.

10. To the extent that any Insurance Policies, Premium Financing Agreements, Surety Bonds, Surety Standby Letters of Credit, or related obligations, contracts, or agreements are deemed executory contracts within the meaning of section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, neither this Final Order nor any payments made in accordance herewith shall constitute postpetition assumption of any such agreement pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code.

11. To the extent the Debtors become aware of additional Insurance Policies, Surety Bonds, Surety Standby Letters of Credit or Premium Financing Agreements that have not previously been disclosed, or renew or enter into any such arrangements, the Debtors shall disclose these policies and programs to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the respective Prepetition Agents, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases as soon as practicable, but no later than two (2) business days after discovery, entry into, or renewal of such arrangements.

12. To the extent reasonably practicable, the Debtors will provide notice of any material changes to their Insurance Policies or programs to the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and counsel to any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases at least ten (10) business days before such changes are made; provided, however that any party entitled to receive such notice pursuant to this paragraph may waive the ten (10) business day notice period provided for herein.

13. The Debtors shall provide the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases with monthly reports setting forth all payments under this Final Order. Each report shall be delivered within fourteen (14) calendar days after the end of the month reported.

14. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Final Order is intended as or shall be deemed to be: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Final Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Final Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

15. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on a final basis, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Final Order.

16. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Final Order.

17. Nothing in this Final Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

18. Within two (2) business days of the entry of this Final Order, the Debtors shall serve a copy of this Final Order on each applicable bank and financial institution that is directed to comply with the terms of this Final Order.

19. The contents of the Motion satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a).

20. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Final Order in accordance with the Motion.

21. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

22. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

23. The Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation and enforcement of this Final Order.

Proposed Co-Counsel to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtor's tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. The location of the Debtors' service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094.

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) APPROVING THE DEBTORS' PROPOSED ADEQUATE ASSURANCE OF PAYMENT FOR FUTURE UTILITY SERVICES, (II) PROHIBITING UTILITY PROVIDERS FROM ALTERING, REFUSING, OR DISCONTINUING SERVICES, (III) APPROVING THE DEBTORS' PROPOSED PROCEDURES FOR RESOLVING ADEQUATE ASSURANCE REQUESTS, AND (IV) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") state as follows in support of this motion (the "Motion"):[2]

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B (respectively, the "Interim Order" and "Final Order"): (a) approving the Debtors' proposed adequate assurance of payment for future utility services; (b) prohibiting utility providers from altering, refusing, or discontinuing services; (c) approving the Debtors' proposed procedures for resolving Adequate Assurance Requests (as defined herein); and (d) granting related relief. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of

[2] A detailed description of the Debtors and their business, including the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Rudolph Morando, Co-Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtors, in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Motion have the meaning ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration.

Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a) and 366 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 2002, 6003, and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules 9013-1 and 9013-5 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

The Utility Services and Utility Providers

7. In connection with the operation of their retail stores, distribution facilities, and corporate offices, the Debtors obtain electricity, telecommunications, internet, and other similar services (collectively, the "Utility Services") from a number of utility providers (each, a "Utility Provider," and collectively, the "Utility Providers").[3] A nonexclusive list of the Utility Providers and their affiliates that provide Utility Services to the Debtors as of the Petition Date (the "Utility Providers List") is attached hereto as Exhibit C.[4] The Debtors typically make payments for Utility Services through direct debit facilitated by a third-party utility management company.

8. Uninterrupted Utility Services are essential to the Debtors' ongoing business operations and the overall success of these chapter 11 cases. The Debtors maintain their corporate headquarters in Secaucus in addition to operating 512 stores across the United States and Canada. Each of these locations requires Utility Services to operate. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors obtain Utility Services from approximately 383 Utility Providers across approximately 781 active

[3] The Debtors pay many of the Utility Providers indirectly pursuant to the terms of the Debtors' real property leases. In such instances, Utility Services are billed directly to the Debtors' landlords and passed through to the Debtors as part of the Debtors' rent or operating expense payments. While the relief the Debtors seek in this Motion does not allocate any specific amounts toward Utility Providers that indirectly supply Utility Services through the Debtors' landlords, the Debtors, out of an abundance of caution, request authority to continue paying such Utility Services indirectly through their landlords in the ordinary course of business.

[4] The descriptions of the Utility Services set forth in this Motion constitute a summary only. The actual terms of the Utility Services and related agreements will govern in the event of any inconsistency with the description set forth in this Motion. Although Exhibit C is intended to be comprehensive, the Debtors may have inadvertently omitted one or more Utility Providers. By this Motion, the Debtors request relief applicable to all Utility Providers, regardless of whether such Utility Provider is specifically identified on Exhibit C. Additionally, the inclusion of an entity on, or the exclusion of an entity from, the Utility Providers List is not an admission that such entity is, or is not, a "utility" within the meaning of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors reserve all rights with respect to any such determination.

utility accounts. Should any Utility Provider refuse or discontinue service, even for a brief period, the Debtors' business operations would be severely disrupted, and such disruption would jeopardize the Debtors' ability to successfully maximize value in these chapter 11 cases.

9. The Debtors use a third-party utility management company, ENGIE Insight Services, Inc. d/b/a ENGIE Impact, to audit and process payment of utility invoices on the Debtors' behalf, whether billed directly by a Utility Provider or separately metered and billed by a Landlord. To the best of the Debtors' knowledge, there are no defaults or arrearages with respect to the undisputed invoices for prepetition Utility Services. In the aggregate, the Debtors pay approximately $669,575.50[5] each month for Utility Services, generally calculated as the historical average payment for the one-year period ending August 2026. The Debtors do not anticipate this monthly average will change materially during the initial thirty (30) days following the commencement of these chapter 11 cases.

I. Proposed Adequate Assurance of Payment

10. The Debtors intend to pay postpetition obligations owed to the Utility Providers in the ordinary course of business and in a timely manner. The Debtors' cash-on-hand, cash generated in the ordinary course of business, and the proceeds of the Debtors' debtor-in-possession financing and the use of cash collateral, in each case in accordance with the approved budget thereunder, will provide sufficient liquidity to pay the Debtors' Utility Services obligations in accordance with the Debtors' prepetition practice during the pendency of their chapter 11 cases.

11. Nonetheless, to provide additional assurance of payment, the Debtors propose to deposit approximately $302,128.73 (the "Adequate Assurance Deposit") into a segregated non-interest-bearing bank account (the "Adequate Assurance Account") for the benefit of the Utility

[5] This figure includes $35,906.54 in unconverted CAD.

Providers within twenty (20) calendar days of the Petition Date. The amount of the Adequate Assurance Deposit attributable to a given Utility Provider is equal to (a) approximately one-half of the Debtors' average monthly cost of such Utility Provider's Utility Services, generally calculated as the historical average payment for the one-year period ending August 2026, less (b) the amount of any security deposit held by such Utility Provider as of the Petition Date.[6]

12. The Adequate Assurance Deposit will be held in the Adequate Assurance Account at Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. for the benefit of each Utility Provider until it reverts to the Debtors after (a) the Debtors terminate the applicable Utility Services, if there are no outstanding disputes related to postpetition payments due, or (b) at the conclusion of these chapter 11 cases, if not applied earlier, subject to the Debtors' right to terminate or discontinue the applicable Utility Services. The Adequate Assurance Deposit may be applied to any postpetition defaults in payment to the applicable Utility Providers. The Utility Providers' interests in the Adequate Assurance Deposit will be senior to any lien thereon solely to the extent of unpaid postpetition charges for Utility Services.

13. The Adequate Assurance Deposit, in conjunction with the Debtors' cash flow from operations and ability to pay for future Utility Services in accordance with their prepetition practice (collectively, the "Proposed Adequate Assurance"), provides adequate assurance of payment as required by section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code.

[6] As of the Petition Date, the Debtors' records reflect approximately $131,701.03, including $750 in unconverted CAD, in aggregate security deposits held by Utility Providers across the Debtors' locations in the United States and Canada, which will be netted against the Adequate Assurance Deposit calculation on a Utility Provider-by-Utility Provider basis as set forth herein.

II. The Adequate Assurance Procedures

14. The Debtors request that the Court approve the procedures for requesting different or additional adequate assurance of future payment (each an "Adequate Assurance Request") set forth in the proposed Interim Order and Final Order (the "Adequate Assurance Procedures"). Any Utility Provider that is not satisfied with the Proposed Adequate Assurance may make an Adequate Assurance Request pursuant to the Adequate Assurance Procedures.

15. The Adequate Assurance Procedures provide a streamlined process for a Utility Provider to address potential concerns with respect to the Proposed Adequate Assurance, while simultaneously allowing the Debtors to continue their business operations uninterrupted. More specifically, the Adequate Assurance Procedures permit a Utility Provider to object to the Proposed Adequate Assurance by filing and serving an Adequate Assurance Request upon certain notice parties. The Debtors, in their discretion, may then resolve any Adequate Assurance Request by mutual agreement with the applicable Utility Provider and without further order of the Court. If the Debtors determine that the Adequate Assurance Request cannot be resolved by mutual agreement, the Debtors may seek Court resolution of the Adequate Assurance Request.

16. Unless and until a Utility Provider timely files an objection or serves an Adequate Assurance Request, such Utility Provider shall be (a) deemed to have received adequate assurance of payment "satisfactory" to such Utility Provider in compliance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code and (b) forbidden from discontinuing, altering, or refusing services to, or discriminating against, the Debtors on account of any unpaid prepetition charges, or requiring additional assurance of payment other than the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

III. Modification to the Utility Providers List

17. The Debtors have made an extensive and good-faith effort to identify all Utility Providers and include them on the Utility Providers List. To the extent the Debtors identify new or additional Utility Providers or discontinue services from existing Utility Providers, the Debtors seek authority, in their sole discretion, to amend the Utility Providers List to add or remove any Utility Provider.

18. For any Utility Provider that is subsequently added to the Utility Providers List (a "Subsequently Identified Utility Provider"), the Debtors will serve such Subsequently Identified Utility Provider with a copy of the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable, including the Adequate Assurance Procedures. The Debtors request the authority to increase the Adequate Assurance Deposit by an amount equal to approximately one-half of the Debtors' monthly average cost of services from any such Subsequently Identified Utility Provider. The Debtors also request that the terms of the Interim Order or Final Order, as applicable, and the Adequate Assurance Procedures apply to any Subsequently Identified Utility Provider to the same extent as if the Utility Provider was listed on the original Utility Providers List.

19. Upon the discontinuation of any Utility Services and the subsequent removal of any Utility Provider from the Utility Providers List, the Debtors request the authority, in their discretion and without further order of the Court, to reduce the Adequate Assurance Deposit by an amount equal to approximately one-half of the Debtors' monthly average cost of services from such Utility Provider or any other amount attributable to such Utility Provider; provided that for any Utility Provider for which the Adequate Assurance Deposit is reduced, the Debtors shall have provided such Utility Provider with fourteen (14) days' notice of such reduction.

IV. Prohibitions on Altering, Refusing, or Discontinuing Service

20. Uninterrupted Utility Services are essential to the Debtors' ongoing business operations and overall success of these chapter 11 cases. Should any Utility Provider refuse or discontinue service, even for a brief period, the Debtors' business operations could be severely disrupted. Discontinuation of Utility Services would essentially shut down operations, and any significant disruption of operations could put these chapter 11 cases in jeopardy.

21. If the Debtors and the Utility Provider are unable to reach a consensual resolution within twenty-one (21) days of receipt of an Adequate Assurance Request, or if a Utility Provider was omitted from the Utility Providers List and wishes to dispute that they received adequate assurance of future payment as required by section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code as provided by the Interim Order, the Debtors will request a hearing before the Court at the next regularly scheduled omnibus hearing to determine the adequacy of assurance of payment with respect to that particular Utility Provider (a "Determination Hearing") pursuant to section 366(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

22. The Debtors request that, pending the entry of the Interim Order and Final Order and the resolution of any Adequate Assurance Request, objection, or Determination Hearing, the Utility Providers, including any Subsequently Identified Utility Provider, are prohibited from (a) discriminating against the Debtors, (b) altering, refusing, or discontinuing service to the Debtors, or (c) requiring payment of a deposit or receipt of any other security for continued service other than the Adequate Assurance Deposit as a result of these chapter 11 cases or any unpaid prepetition invoice.

Basis for Relief Requested

23. Section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code protects a debtor against the immediate termination or alteration of utility services after the petition date and requires the debtor to provide "adequate assurance" of payment for postpetition services in a form "satisfactory" to the utility company within thirty (30) days of the petition date or the utility company may alter, refuse, or discontinue service. 11 U.S.C. § 366(a), (c)(2). Section 366(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides a non-exhaustive list of examples of what constitutes "assurance of payment," and can be in the form of a cash deposit, letter of credit, certificate of deposit, surety bond, prepayment, or other mutually agreed form of security. Id. § 366(c)(1). Although assurance of payment must be "adequate," it need not constitute an absolute guarantee of the debtors' ability to pay. See In re Great Atl. & Pac. Tea Co., No. 11-cv-1338, 2011 WL 5546954, at *5 (S.D.N.Y. Nov. 14, 2011) (explaining that "[c]ourts will approve an amount that is adequate enough to insure against unreasonable risk of nonpayment, but are not required to give the equivalent of a guaranty of payment in full"); In re Caldor, Inc.—NY, 199 B.R. 1, 3 (S.D.N.Y. 1996) ("Section 366(b) requires . . . 'adequate assurance' of payment. The statute does not require an 'absolute guarantee of payment.'") (citation modified), aff'd sub nom. Va. Elec. & Power Co. v. Caldor, Inc.—NY, 117 F.3d 646 (2d Cir. 1997).

24. When considering whether a given assurance of payment is "adequate," courts should examine the totality of the circumstances to make an informed decision as to whether the Utility Provider will be subject to an unreasonable risk of nonpayment. See In re Keydata Corp., 12 B.R. 156, 158 (B.A.P. 1st Cir. 1981) ("The phrase 'adequate assurance of payment' is not defined in the Code. Its meaning depends upon the facts and circumstances of each case"); In re Adelphia Bus. Sols., Inc., 280 B.R. 63, 87 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 2002) ("That, the Court believes, is the key to the analysis—to look at the totality of the circumstances to see the extent to which utilities are subjected to unreasonable risk of payment."). In determining the level of adequate assurance, however, "a bankruptcy court must 'focus upon the need of the utility for assurance, and . . . require that the debtor supply no more than that, since the debtor almost perforce has a conflicting need to conserve scarce financial resources.'" Va. Elec. & Power Co., 117 F.3d at 650 (quoting In re Penn Jersey Corp., 72 B.R. 981, 985 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1987)); see also In re Penn Cent. Transp. Co., 467 F.2d 100, 103–04 (3d Cir. 1972) (affirming the court's ruling that no utility deposits were necessary where such deposits likely would "jeopardize the continuing operation of the [debtor] merely to give further security to suppliers who already are reasonably protected"). Accordingly, demands by a Utility Provider for a guarantee should be refused when the Debtors' specific circumstances already afford adequate assurance of payment.

25. Here, the Utility Providers are adequately assured against any risk of nonpayment for future services, especially in light of the Debtors' historical practice of timely satisfying such obligations in the ordinary course. The Adequate Assurance Deposit and the Debtors' ongoing ability to meet obligations as they come due in the ordinary course provide assurance that the Debtors will pay their future obligations to the Utility Providers. Moreover, terminating the Utility Services could render the Debtors unable to operate their business to the detriment of all stakeholders. In re Monroe Well Serv., Inc., 83 B.R. 317, 321, 322 (Bankr. E.D. Pa. 1988) (debtors noting that without utility service they "would have to cease operations" and the court finding that section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code "was intended to limit the leverage held by utility companies, not increase it").

26. Courts are permitted to fashion reasonable procedures, such as the Adequate Assurance Procedures proposed herein, to implement the protections afforded under section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., In re Cir. City Stores, Inc., No. 08-35653, 2009 WL 484553, at *5 (Bankr. E.D. Va. Jan. 14, 2009) (stating that "the plain language of § 366 of the Bankruptcy Code allows the Court to adopt the Procedures set forth in the Utility Order"). Such procedures are important because, without them, the Debtors "could be forced to address numerous requests by utility companies in an unorganized manner at a critical period in their efforts to reorganize." Id.

27. Moreover, notwithstanding a determination that the Proposed Adequate Assurance constitutes sufficient adequate assurance, any rights the Utility Providers believe they have under sections 366(b) and (c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code are wholly preserved under the Adequate Assurance Procedures. The Utility Providers still may choose, in accordance with the Adequate Assurance Procedures, to request modification of the Proposed Adequate Assurance. The Adequate Assurance Procedures, however, avoid a "haphazard and chaotic process whereby each [U]tility [Provider] could make extortionate, last-minute demands for adequate assurance which the Debtors would be pressured to pay under the threat of losing critical [U]tility [S]ervice[s]." See In re Circuit City Stores, Inc., 2009 WL 484553, at *6.

28. Because the Adequate Assurance Procedures are reasonable and accord with the purposes of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Court should grant the relief requested herein. Indeed, similar procedures have been approved by courts in this district. See, e.g., In re FIHPNP LLC, No. 26-20876 (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 29, 2026) (approving an adequate assurance deposit equal to approximately half of the debtors' monthly utility expenses on a final basis); In re LIV Golf New Jersey LLC, No. 26-20189 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 7, 2026) (same); In re SIMAD Holdings Ltd., No. 26-16388 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 20, 2026) (same); In re FreshRealm, Inc., No. 26-14656 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 21, 2026) (same); In re Eddie Bauer LLC, No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 3, 2026) (same); In re STG Logistics, Inc., No. 26-10258 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026) (same); In re Del Monte Foods Corp. II Inc., No. 25-16984 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Aug. 13, 2025) (same); In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 4, 2024) (same); In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 18, 2024) (same).[7]

29. Further, the Court possesses the power, under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). The Adequate Assurance Procedures and the Proposed Adequate Assurance are necessary and appropriate to carry out the provisions of the Bankruptcy Code, particularly section 366 thereof. Accordingly, the Court should exercise its powers under sections 366 and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code and approve both the Adequate Assurance Procedures and the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

Processing of Checks and Electronic Fund Transfers Should Be Authorized

30. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts described in this Motion in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations, anticipated debtor-in-possession financing, and anticipated access to cash collateral. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to any authorized payment in respect of the relief requested herein. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently. Therefore, the Debtors request that the Court authorize all applicable financial institutions, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested in this Motion.

The Requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) Are Satisfied

31. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) empowers a court to grant relief within the first twenty-one (21) days after the Petition Date to the extent that "relief is needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(a). As set forth in this Motion, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors' operations. Failure to receive the requested relief during the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture and cause immediate and irreparable harm. The requested relief is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of their operations, and maximize value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm," as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a), and the Court should grant the requested relief.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and 6004(h)

32. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the fourteen-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) for the reasons set forth herein.

Reservation of Rights

33. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended or should be construed as: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in this Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. If the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Final Hearing

34. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

No Prior Request

35. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this Court or any other court.

Notice

36. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions, as Prepetition Term Loan Agent; (e) counsel to Mithaq Capital SPC, as prepetition unsecured lender; (f) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (h) the Internal Revenue Service; (i) the Canada Revenue Agency; and (j) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request that the Court enter interim and final orders, in substantially the forms submitted herewith, granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as is just and proper under the circumstances.

To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

5. Subject to the Adequate Assurance Procedures for resolving Adequate Assurance Requests, the Adequate Assurance Deposit, together with the Debtors' ability to pay for future Utility Services in the ordinary course of business, shall constitute adequate assurance of future payment as required by section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code without prejudice to the rights of Subsequently Identified Utility Providers to seek relief in the future pursuant to section 366(c)(3)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

6. The following Adequate Assurance Procedures are hereby approved on an interim basis:

a. The Debtors will serve a copy of the Motion and this Interim Order to each Utility Provider within two (2) business days after entry of this Interim Order by the Court. The Debtors will cause the Motion and this Interim Order to be provided in the English and French languages for any Utility Provider with an address in the Province of Québec.

b. Within twenty (20) calendar days of the Petition Date, the Debtors will deposit the Adequate Assurance Deposit of approximately $302,128.73, calculated in the manner set forth in paragraph 11 of the Motion, in the Adequate Assurance Account.

c. Subject to the terms of this Interim Order, each Utility Provider shall be entitled to the funds in the Adequate Assurance Account in the amount set forth for such Utility Provider in the column labeled "Proposed Adequate Assurance" on the Utility Providers List, attached to the Motion as Exhibit C.

d. If an amount relating to Utility Services provided postpetition by any Utility Provider is unpaid, and remains unpaid beyond any applicable grace period, such Utility Provider may request a disbursement from the Adequate Assurance Account up to the amount applicable to each such Utility Provider by giving notice to the Notice Parties. The Debtors shall honor such request within ten (10) business days after the date the request is received by the Debtors, subject to the ability of the Debtors and any such requesting Utility Provider to resolve any dispute regarding such request without further order of the Court. To the extent any Utility Provider receives a disbursement from the Adequate Assurance Account, the Debtors shall replenish the Adequate Assurance Account in the amount disbursed.

e. Each Utility Provider, if any, holding an existing deposit is permitted to maintain its existing deposit in addition to its right to funds, if any, in the Adequate Assurance Account. Such Utility Provider may not, absent a separate order granting relief from section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, apply such existing deposit to any prepetition amount owed.

f. The Debtors may reduce or remove a Utility Provider's portion of the Adequate Assurance Deposit with the consent of such Utility Provider at any time during the chapter 11 cases.

g. The portion of the Adequate Assurance Deposit attributable to each Utility Provider shall be returned to the Debtors (or their successor in interest), as applicable, automatically, without further order of the Court, on the earlier of (i) the Debtors reconciling and paying the Utility Provider's final invoice in accordance with applicable nonbankruptcy law following the Debtors' termination of Utility Services from such Utility Provider or (ii) the effective date of any chapter 11 plan confirmed in these chapter 11 cases if there are no outstanding disputes related to postpetition payment.

h. Any Utility Provider desiring additional assurances of payment in the form of deposits, prepayments, or otherwise must serve a request for additional assurance (an "Adequate Assurance Request") within thirty (30) calendar days of the Petition Date. Any Utility Provider that objects to the Debtors' Proposed Adequate Assurance must serve an Adequate Assurance Request on the Notice Parties.

i. Any Adequate Assurance Request must: (i) be in writing; (ii) identify the location(s) for which the Utility Services are provided and the account number(s) for such location(s); (iii) summarize the Debtors' payment history relevant to the affected account(s), including any security deposits; (iv) provide evidence that the Debtors have a direct obligation to the Utility Provider; (v) certify that the Utility Provider does not already hold a deposit equal to or greater than two (2) weeks of Utility Services; and (vi) explain why the Utility Provider believes the Proposed Adequate Assurance is not sufficient adequate assurance of future payment.

j. Unless a Utility Provider files and serves an Adequate Assurance Request, the Utility Provider shall be (i) deemed to have received "satisfactory" adequate assurance of payment in compliance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code and (ii) forbidden from discontinuing, altering, or refusing Utility Services to, or discriminating against, the Debtors on account of any unpaid prepetition charges, or requiring additional assurance of payment other than the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

k. Upon the Debtors' receipt of an Adequate Assurance Request, the Debtors will have twenty-one (21) calendar days from the receipt of such Adequate Assurance Request (the "Resolution Period") to negotiate with the Utility Provider to resolve the Utility Provider's Adequate Assurance Request. The Debtors and the Utility Provider may, without notice to any party in interest or further order of the Court, extend the Resolution Period by such additional period as they shall mutually agree.

l. The Debtors may, subject to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of any applicable Financing Order, including any applicable consultation, notice, and consent requirements thereunder, without further order from the Court, resolve any Adequate Assurance Request by mutual agreement with the applicable Utility Provider, and the Debtors may, in connection with any such agreement, provide a Utility Provider with additional adequate assurance of payment, including, but not limited to, cash deposits, prepayments, or other forms of security if the Debtors believe that such adequate assurance is reasonable; provided that no Utility Provider shall be granted a lien on or security interest in any property of the Debtors' estates absent further order of the Court; provided, however, that the Debtors shall maintain a summary ledger of agreements with Utility Providers and their respective terms, and such summary ledger and agreement, if any, shall be made available to the U.S. Trustee, any parties entitled to receive such materials under any applicable Financing Order, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases, upon request.

m. If the Debtors and the Utility Provider are unable to reach a consensual resolution within the Resolution Period, or if a Utility Provider was omitted from the Utility Providers List and wishes to dispute that they received adequate assurance of future payment as required by section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code as provided by this Interim Order, the Debtors will request a hearing before the Court at the next regularly-scheduled omnibus hearing to determine the adequacy of assurance of payment with respect to that particular Utility Provider (a "Determination Hearing") pursuant to section 366(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

n. At all times prior to resolution of such dispute at a Determination Hearing and the entry of any Court order as a result thereof, the relevant Utility Provider shall be prohibited from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service to the Debtors on account of: (i) unpaid charges for prepetition services; (ii) a pending Adequate Assurance Request; or (iii) any objections filed in response to the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

7. The Utility Providers, and any utility service providers paid directly by any of the Landlords, are prohibited from requiring additional adequate assurance of payment other than pursuant to the Adequate Assurance Procedures. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, nothing in this Interim Order affects the rights and obligations of the Debtors and their Landlords under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to nonresidential real property leases.

8. Absent further order of the Court, all Utility Providers, and any utility service providers paid directly by any of the Landlords, are prohibited from altering, refusing, or discontinuing services on account of any unpaid prepetition charges, the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, or any perceived inadequacy of the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

9. The Debtors are authorized to cause the Adequate Assurance Deposit to be held in the Adequate Assurance Account during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases.

10. The Debtors are authorized to establish, fund, and replenish the Adequate Assurance Account.

11. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to add or remove such parties from the Utility Providers List; provided, however, that the Debtors shall provide notice of any such addition or removal to the Notice Parties; provided, further, that, if a Utility Provider is removed from the Utility Providers List, the Debtors shall provide the applicable Utility Provider with fourteen (14) calendar days' notice thereof and the opportunity to respond to such removal. To the extent that there is any dispute as to the postpetition amounts owed to a Utility Provider or such Utility Provider's removal, such Utility Provider shall not be removed from the Utility Providers List, and no funds shall be removed from the Adequate Assurance Deposit on account of such Utility Provider, until such dispute has been resolved. To the extent the Debtors and the Utility Provider are unable to reach a consensual resolution within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Debtors' receipt of notice of such dispute, the Debtors shall request a hearing before this Court at the next omnibus hearing date or such other date that the Debtors and the Utility Provider may agree.

12. The inclusion of any entity in, as well as any omission of any entity from, the Utility Providers List shall not be deemed an admission by the Debtors that such entity is, or is not, a utility within the meaning of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors reserve all rights and defenses with respect thereto.

13. For any Subsequently Identified Utility Provider, the Debtors shall serve such Utility Provider a copy of this Interim Order, including the Adequate Assurance Procedures within two (2) business days of such Subsequently Identified Utility Provider being identified, and provide such Utility Provider fourteen (14) calendar days' notice to object to the inclusion of such Utility Provider on the Utility Providers List. If an objection is received, to the extent the Debtors and the Utility Provider are unable to reach a consensual resolution within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Debtors' receipt of such objection, the Debtors shall request a hearing before this Court at the next omnibus hearing date or such other date that the Debtors and the Utility Provider may agree. The Debtors shall increase the Adequate Assurance Deposit by an amount equal to approximately one-half of the Debtors' monthly average cost of services from the Subsequently Identified Utility Provider as soon as reasonably practicable but not later than five (5) calendar days after such Subsequently Identified Utility Provider is identified and shall promptly notify the Notice Parties of any such increase. The terms of this Interim Order and the Adequate Assurance Procedures shall apply to any Subsequently Identified Utility Provider to the same extent as if the Utility Provider was listed on the original Utility Providers List. The Debtors shall supplement Exhibit C to the Motion with the names of any Subsequently Identified Utility Provider and file the same with the Court and serve on the Subsequently Identified Utility Provider, counsel to any parties entitled to notice under any applicable Financing Order, the U.S. Trustee, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

14. The relief granted herein is for all Utility Providers providing Utility Services to the Debtors and is not limited to those parties or entities listed on the Utility Providers List.

15. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in their discretion to make payments on account of Utility Services in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.

16. Absent further order of the Court, any third party that pays directly for Utility Services for the benefit of the Debtors pursuant to a nonresidential real property lease, and has been provided notice of the relief provided by this Interim Order, must continue paying for such Utility Services in the ordinary course of business and may not cease, reduce, delay, or otherwise interfere with the payment or delivery of such Utility Services, regardless of any nonpayment, deferral, or waiver of rent, or any defaults with respect to the applicable lease; provided that a third party may cease payments on account of Utility Services following the effective date of any rejection of the applicable lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, if any.

17. Upon the Debtors' termination of any Utility Services, the Debtors shall, without further order of the Court, promptly reduce the portion of the Adequate Assurance Deposit attributable to the applicable Utility Provider in an amount not exceeding the lesser of (i) the estimated two-week utility expense for such Utility Services or (ii) the amount of such Adequate Assurance Deposit then attributable to the applicable Utility Provider (a) with the affected Utility Provider's consent, or (b) after providing fourteen (14) calendar days' prior notice to such Utility Provider and receiving no objection. Any objection shall be resolved by this Court. Any amount released from the Adequate Assurance Account shall be promptly transferred to an account of the Debtors subject to the liens of the Prepetition Agents and any other liens provided for under any applicable Financing Order, in accordance with the terms of such Financing Order and the Cash Management Order. If there are no outstanding disputes, then upon the effective date of a plan in these chapter 11 cases, the Adequate Assurance Deposit shall be returned to the Debtors, less any amount owed on account of unpaid, postpetition Utility Services on the date upon which the Debtors' chapter 11 plan of reorganization becomes effective.

18. The Debtors' service of the Motion upon entities listed on the Utility Providers List shall not constitute an admission or concession that any such entity is a "utility" within the meaning of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors reserve all rights and defenses with respect thereto.

19. The Utility Providers' interests in the Adequate Assurance Deposit shall be senior to any lien thereon solely to the extent of unpaid postpetition charges for Utility Services that may be applied against the Adequate Assurance Deposit in accordance with this Interim Order. The liens and claims of the Prepetition Secured Parties and any other parties entitled thereto under any applicable Financing Order shall attach to any portion of the Adequate Assurance Deposit returned or released to the Debtors, with the same validity, priority, and extent provided in such Financing Order.

20. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

21. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Interim Order.

22. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

23. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

24. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) are satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise deemed waived.

25. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

26. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

27. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

28. The Debtors shall serve by email (if available) or by regular mail (if email is unavailable) a copy of this Interim Order and the Motion on all parties required to receive such service pursuant to Local Rule 9013-5(f).

29. Any party may move for modification of this Interim Order in accordance with Local Rule 9013-5(e).

30. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.

The relief set forth on the following pages, numbered three (3) through fifteen (15), is ORDERED.

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtor's tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. Upon the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Approving the Debtors' Proposed Adequate Assurance of Payment for Future Utility Services, (II) Prohibiting Utility Providers from Altering, Refusing, or Discontinuing Services, (III) Approving the Debtors' Proposed Procedures for Resolving Adequate Assurance Requests, and (IV) Granting Related Relief (the "Motion")[2] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), for entry of a final order (this "Final Order") (a) approving the Debtors' proposed adequate assurance of payment for future Utility Services, (b) prohibiting Utility Providers from altering, refusing, or discontinuing services, (c) approving the Debtors' proposed procedures for resolving Adequate Assurance Requests, and (d) granting related relief, all as more fully set forth in the Motion; and upon the First Day Declaration; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11 of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that it may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"), if any; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing, if any, establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on a final basis as set forth herein.

2. Any objections to the entry of this Final Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

3. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Final Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

4. Subject to the Adequate Assurance Procedures for resolving Adequate Assurance Requests, the Adequate Assurance Deposit, together with the Debtors' ability to pay for future

Utility Services in the ordinary course of business, shall constitute adequate assurance of future payment as required by section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code without prejudice to the rights of Subsequently Identified Utility Providers to seek relief in the future pursuant to section 366(c)(3)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code.

5. The following Adequate Assurance Procedures are hereby approved on a final basis:

a. The Debtors will serve a copy of this Final Order to each Utility Provider within two (2) business days after entry of this Final Order by the Court. The Debtors will cause the Motion and this Interim Order to be provided in the English and French languages for any Utility Provider with an address in the Province of Québec.

b. Within twenty (20) calendar days of the Petition Date, the Debtors deposited the Adequate Assurance Deposit of approximately $302,128.73, calculated in the manner set forth in paragraph 11 of the Motion, in the Adequate Assurance Account.

c. Subject to the terms of this Final Order, each Utility Provider shall be entitled to the funds in the Adequate Assurance Account in the amount set forth for such Utility Provider in the column labeled "Proposed Adequate Assurance" on the Utility Providers List, attached to the Motion as Exhibit C.

d. If an amount relating to Utility Services provided postpetition by any Utility Provider is unpaid, and remains unpaid beyond any applicable grace period, such Utility Provider may request a disbursement from the Adequate Assurance Account up to the amount applicable to each such Utility Provider by giving notice to (i) proposed co-counsel to the Debtors, (a) White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020, Attn: Gregory F. Pesce (gregory.pesce@whitecase.com), Andrew F. The Debtors shall honor such request within ten (10) business days after the date the request is received by the Debtors, subject to the ability of the Debtors and any such requesting Utility Provider to resolve any dispute regarding such request without further order of the Court. To the extent any Utility Provider receives a disbursement from the Adequate Assurance Account, the Debtors shall replenish the Adequate Assurance Account in the amount disbursed.

e. Each Utility Provider, if any, holding an existing deposit is permitted to maintain its existing deposit in addition to its right to funds, if any, in the Adequate Assurance Account. Such Utility Provider may not, absent a separate order granting relief from section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code, apply such existing deposit to any prepetition amount owed.

f. The Debtors may reduce or remove a Utility Provider's portion of the Adequate Assurance Deposit with the consent of such Utility Provider at any time during the chapter 11 cases.

g. The portion of the Adequate Assurance Deposit attributable to each Utility Provider shall be returned to the Debtors (or their successor in interest), as applicable, automatically, without further order of the Court, on the earlier of (i) the Debtors reconciling and paying the Utility Provider's final invoice in accordance with applicable nonbankruptcy law following the Debtors' termination of Utility Services from such Utility Provider or (ii) the effective date of any chapter 11 plan confirmed in these chapter 11 cases if there are no outstanding disputes related to postpetition payment.

h. Any Utility Provider desiring additional assurances of payment in the form of deposits, prepayments, or otherwise must serve a request for additional assurance (an "Adequate Assurance Request") within thirty (30) calendar days of the Petition Date. Any Utility Provider that objects to the Debtors' Proposed Adequate Assurance must serve an Adequate Assurance Request on the Notice Parties.

i. Any Adequate Assurance Request must: (i) be in writing; (ii) identify the location(s) for which the Utility Services are provided and the account number(s) for such location(s); (iii) summarize the Debtors' payment history relevant to the affected account(s), including any security deposits; (iv) provide evidence that the Debtors have a direct obligation to the Utility Provider; (v) certify that the Utility Provider does not already hold a deposit equal to or greater than two (2) weeks of Utility Services; and (vi) explain why the Utility Provider believes the Proposed Adequate Assurance is not sufficient adequate assurance of future payment.

j. Unless a Utility Provider files and serves an Adequate Assurance Request, the Utility Provider shall be (i) deemed to have received "satisfactory" adequate assurance of payment in compliance with section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code and (ii) forbidden from discontinuing, altering, or refusing Utility Services to, or discriminating against, the Debtors on account of any unpaid prepetition charges, or requiring additional assurance of payment other than the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

k. Upon the Debtors' receipt of an Adequate Assurance Request, the Debtors will have twenty-one (21) calendar days from the receipt of such Adequate Assurance Request (the "Resolution Period") to negotiate with the Utility Provider to resolve the Utility Provider's Adequate Assurance Request. The Debtors and the Utility Provider may, without notice to any party in interest or further order of the Court, extend the Resolution Period by such additional period as they shall mutually agree.

l. The Debtors may, subject to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of any applicable Financing Order, including any applicable consultation, notice, and consent requirements thereunder, without further order from the Court, resolve any Adequate Assurance Request by mutual agreement with the applicable Utility Provider, and the Debtors may, in connection with any such agreement, provide a Utility Provider with additional adequate assurance of payment, including, but not limited to, cash deposits, prepayments, or other forms of security if the Debtors believe that such adequate assurance is reasonable; provided that no Utility Provider shall be granted a lien on or security interest in any property of the Debtors' estates absent further order of the Court; provided, however, that the Debtors shall maintain a summary ledger of agreements with Utility Providers and their respective terms, and such summary ledger and agreement, if any, shall be made available to the U.S. Trustee, any parties entitled to receive such materials under any applicable Financing Order, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases, upon request.

m. If the Debtors and the Utility Provider are unable to reach a consensual resolution within the Resolution Period, or if a Utility Provider was omitted from the Utility Providers List and wishes to dispute that they received adequate assurance of future payment as required by section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code as provided by this Final Order, the Debtors will request a hearing before the Court at the next regularly-scheduled omnibus hearing to determine the adequacy of assurance of payment with respect to that particular Utility Provider (a "Determination Hearing") pursuant to section 366(c)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code.

n. At all times prior to resolution of such dispute at a Determination Hearing and the entry of any Court order as a result thereof, the relevant Utility Provider shall be prohibited from altering, refusing, or discontinuing service to the Debtors on account of: (i) unpaid charges for prepetition services; (ii) a pending Adequate Assurance Request; or (iii) any objections filed in response to the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

6. The Utility Providers, and any utility service providers paid directly by any of the Debtors' landlords, are prohibited from requiring additional adequate assurance of payment other than pursuant to the Adequate Assurance Procedures. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Final Order, nothing in this Final Order affects the rights and obligations of the Debtors and their Landlords under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to nonresidential real property leases.

7. Absent further order of the Court, all Utility Providers, and any utility service providers paid directly by any of the Debtors' landlords, are prohibited from altering, refusing, or discontinuing services on account of any unpaid prepetition charges, the commencement of these chapter 11 cases, or any perceived inadequacy of the Proposed Adequate Assurance.

8. The Debtors are authorized to cause the Adequate Assurance Deposit to be held in the Adequate Assurance Account during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases.

9. Notwithstanding paragraph 3 of this Final Order, the Debtors are authorized to establish, fund, and replenish the Adequate Assurance Account.

10. The inclusion of any entity in, as well as any omission of any entity from, the Utility Providers List shall not be deemed an admission by the Debtors that such entity is, or is not, a utility within the meaning of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors reserve all rights and defenses with respect thereto.

11. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to add or remove such parties from the Utility Providers List; provided, however, that the Debtors shall provide notice of any such addition or removal to the Notice Parties; provided, further, that, if a Utility Provider is removed from the Utility Providers List, the Debtors shall provide the applicable Utility Provider with fourteen (14) calendar days' notice thereof and the opportunity to respond to such removal. To the extent that there is any dispute as to the postpetition amounts owed to a Utility Provider or such Utility Provider's removal, such Utility Provider shall not be removed from the Utility Providers List, and no funds shall be removed from the Adequate Assurance Deposit on account of such Utility Provider, until such dispute has been resolved. To the extent the Debtors and the Utility Provider are unable to reach a consensual resolution within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Debtors' receipt of notice of such dispute, the Debtors shall request a hearing before this Court at the next omnibus hearing date or such other date that the Debtors and the Utility Provider may agree.

12. For any Subsequently Identified Utility Provider, the Debtors shall serve such Utility Provider a copy of this Final Order, including the Adequate Assurance Procedures within two (2) business days of such Subsequently Identified Utility Provider being identified, and provide such Utility Provider fourteen (14) calendar days' notice to object to the inclusion of such Utility Provider on the Utility Providers List. If an objection is received, to the extent the Debtors and the Utility Provider are unable to reach a consensual resolution within fourteen (14) calendar days of the Debtors' receipt of such objection, the Debtors shall request a hearing before this Court at the next omnibus hearing date or such other date that the Debtors and the Utility Provider may agree. The Debtors shall increase the Adequate Assurance Deposit by an amount equal to approximately one-half of the Debtors' monthly average cost of services from the Subsequently Identified Utility Provider as soon as reasonably practicable but not later than five (5) calendar days after such Subsequently Identified Utility Provider is identified and shall promptly notify the Notice Parties of any such increase. The terms of this Final Order and the Adequate Assurance Procedures shall apply to any Subsequently Identified Utility Provider to the same extent as if the Utility Provider was listed on the original Utility Providers List. The Debtors shall supplement Exhibit C to the Motion with the names of any Subsequently Identified Utility Provider and file the same with the Court and serve on the Subsequently Identified Utility Provider, counsel to any parties entitled to notice under any applicable Financing Order, the U.S. Trustee, and any statutory committee(s) appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

13. The relief granted herein is for all Utility Providers providing Utility Services to the Debtors and is not limited to those parties or entities listed on the Utility Providers List.

14. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in their discretion to make payments on account of Utility Services in the ordinary course of business on a postpetition basis.

15. Absent further order of the Court, any third party that pays directly for Utility Services for the benefit of the Debtors pursuant to a nonresidential real property lease, and has been provided notice of the relief provided by this Final Order, must continue paying for such Utility Services in the ordinary course of business and may not cease, reduce, delay, or otherwise interfere with the payment or delivery of such Utility Services, regardless of any nonpayment, deferral, or waiver of rent, or any defaults with respect to the applicable lease; provided that a third party may cease payments on account of Utility Services following the effective date of any rejection of the applicable lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, if any.

16. Upon the Debtors' termination of any Utility Services, the Debtors shall be, without further order of the Court, promptly reduce the portion of the Adequate Assurance Deposit attributable to the applicable Utility Provider in an amount not exceeding the lesser of (a) the estimated two-week utility expense for such Utility Services or (b) the amount of such Adequate Assurance Deposit then attributable to the applicable Utility Provider (i) with the affected Utility Provider's consent, or (ii) after providing fourteen (14) calendar days' prior notice to such Utility Provider and receiving no objection. Any objection shall be resolved by this Court. Any amount released from the Adequate Assurance Account shall be promptly transferred to an account of the Debtors subject to the liens of the Prepetition Agents and any other liens provided for under any applicable Financing Order, in accordance with the terms of such Financing Order and the Cash Management Order. If there are no outstanding disputes, then upon the effective date of a plan in these chapter 11 cases, the Adequate Assurance Deposit shall be returned to the Debtors, less any amount owed on account of unpaid, postpetition Utility Services on the date upon which the Debtors' chapter 11 plan of reorganization becomes effective.

17. The Debtors' service of the Motion upon entities listed on the Utility Providers List shall not constitute an admission or concession that any such entity is a "utility" within the meaning of section 366 of the Bankruptcy Code, and the Debtors reserve all rights and defenses with respect thereto.

18. The Utility Providers' interests in the Adequate Assurance Deposit shall be senior to any lien thereon solely to the extent of unpaid postpetition charges for Utility Services that may be applied against the Adequate Assurance Deposit in accordance with this Final Order. The liens and claims of the Prepetition Secured Parties and any other parties entitled thereto under any applicable Financing Order shall attach to any portion of the Adequate Assurance Deposit returned or released to the Debtors, with the same validity, priority, and extent provided in such Financing Order.

19. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Final Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Final Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

20. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on a final basis, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Final Order.

21. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Final Order.

22. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Final Order in accordance with the Motion.

23. Nothing in this Final Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

24. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

25. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

26. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Final Order.

Proposed Co-Counsel to the Debtors and Debtors in Possession

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
DISTRICT OF NEW JERSEY

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtor's tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. The location of the Debtors' service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094.

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO PAY PREPETITION CLAIMS OF CERTAIN CRITICAL VENDORS, FOREIGN VENDORS, 503(B)(9) CLAIMANTS, AND LIEN CLAIMANTS; (II) GRANTING ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE PRIORITY TO UNDISPUTED OBLIGATIONS ON ACCOUNT OF OUTSTANDING ORDERS; AND (III) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

TO THE HONORABLE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY JUDGE:

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B (respectively, the "Interim Order" and "Final Order"): (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to pay, in the ordinary course of business, prepetition amounts owing on account of Critical Vendor Claims, Foreign Vendor Claims, 503(b)(9) Claims, and Lien Claims (each as defined herein); (b) authorizing the Debtors to, in exchange for payment of their prepetition claims as contemplated herein, require the applicable claimants to provide favorable trade terms for the postpetition procurement of goods and services; (c) granting administrative expense priority to undisputed and unsatisfied obligations on account of goods ordered by or services provided to the Debtors prior to the date hereof that will not be delivered until after the Petition Date (as defined herein) and authorizing the Debtors to satisfy such obligations in the ordinary course of business; and (d) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

[2] A detailed description of the Debtors and their business, including the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Rudolph Morando, Co-Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtors, in Support of the Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Motion have the meaning ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration.

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.). This is a core proceeding pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court entering a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105(a), 363, 503, 1107(a), and 1108 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 6003 and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules 2002-1, 9013-1, and 9013-5 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated.

Overview of the Debtors' Vendors

7. In the course of operating their specialty retail business, the Debtors transacted with a network of vendors, service providers, and independent contractors—both domestic and located outside the United States, including Canada—that supplied merchandise sourcing, manufacturing, and quality inspection services; store-facing operational, technology, and infrastructure support; and transportation, customs clearance, and warehousing services for the Debtors' retail merchandise, packaging materials, and other inventory destined for the Debtors' distribution centers and retail stores. The Debtors seek authority to pay the Critical Vendor Claims, Foreign Vendor Claims, 503(b)(9) Claims, and Lien Claims (collectively, the "Trade Claims," and the holders thereof, the "Trade Claimants") described herein to the extent the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, that such payment is necessary to avoid disruption to their operations, prevent the loss of goods or services essential to their business, or prevent Trade Claimants from exercising remedies against the Debtors' assets in circumstances where the automatic stay cannot practically be enforced or the cost of attempting to do so would exceed the amounts owed.

Preserving the Debtors' ongoing operations and assets for the benefit of their estates and stakeholders is the purpose of the relief requested.

8. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that there is approximately $10,000,000 of unpaid prepetition Critical Vendor Claims and Lien Claims, approximately all of which are due or will come due between the entry of the Interim Order and the Final Order (the "Interim Period"), in the respective amounts set forth in the table in paragraph eleven (11) below.

9. Critical Vendors (as defined herein) provide specialized goods and services that are necessary to the Debtors' day-to-day retail operations, and many are sole- or limited-source providers for which replacement on comparable terms would be difficult or impossible to obtain on short notice. Foreign Vendors (as defined herein) are uniquely situated from all other creditors in that Foreign Vendors without ties to the United States may ignore the automatic stay and take actions against the Debtors or their properties abroad, which would have a significant disruptive impact. Similarly, Lien Claimants (as defined herein) may assert possessory liens on the Debtors' goods or equipment in their possession (notwithstanding the automatic stay) in an attempt to secure payment of their prepetition claims. Any delays or material changes in the delivery of such goods and services as a result of the Debtors' nonpayment of the Trade Claims would materially harm the Debtors and their key stakeholders and would impede a smooth transition into these chapter 11 cases.

10. Simply put, the Debtors must have access to merchandise in order to effectuate their business model. In addition, the Debtors rely on certain crucial services that keep their store locations in working order, and in most cases finding replacement vendors for such services would be difficult, if not impossible. What's more, even where alternative vendors may exist, the time and costs associated with switching from one vendor to another could damage the Debtors' business and cause customers to look elsewhere for the types of products that the Debtors sell. Accordingly, the Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay certain outstanding prepetition Trade Claims to the extent the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, that such payment is beneficial to the Debtors' estates.

11. The following table summarizes the categories of prepetition Trade Claims and the relief requested pursuant to this Motion. The dollar amounts shown for Critical Vendor Claims and Lien Claims are the respective estimated amounts for those categories of Trade Claims. No aggregate estimate or separate dollar allocation is sought for Foreign Vendor Claims and 503(b)(9) Claims, as any such payment shall be subject to the terms and conditions of any interim or final order entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral (each, a "Financing Order"), including any budget thereunder. The estimated allocations between Critical Vendor Claims and Lien Claims are not separate category limits. Subject in all respects to any Financing Order and any budget thereunder, the Debtors seek authority to apply amounts not required for Lien Claims to Critical Vendor Claims, and vice versa, without further order of the Court, provided that aggregate payments remain within the applicable combined amount permitted thereunder. This flexibility is not intended to modify any Financing Order or budget thereunder, or increase the aggregate amount available. Final authority is inclusive of, and not in addition to, payments made under the Interim Order. No claim may be paid more than once because it falls within more than one Trade Claim category:

Category	Description of Goods/Services Provided	Requested Relief on an Interim Basis	Requested Relief on a Final Basis

I. The Critical Vendor Claims.

12. The Debtors operate in the highly competitive specialty retail industry, and their ability to continue generating revenue and maximize the value of their estates during these chapter 11 cases depends on their ability to sell merchandise through their stores and digital storefronts. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors engage a limited number of vendors that provide critical performance marketing services on which the Debtors depend to market their products, reach customers, drive customer traffic, and generate sales (collectively, the "Critical Vendors," and the claims held by such vendors in respect of those performance marketing services, the "Critical Vendor Claims"). Without these services, the Debtors would face significant disruptions in their ability to attract customers and generate sales, impairing their ability to monetize inventory and preserve value during the sale and store closing processes and causing immediate and irreparable harm to their business and estates. The Debtors, therefore, must be able to maintain these critical performance marketing services, and timely payment of the Critical Vendor Claims is fundamental to minimizing disruption to their operations and maximizing the value of their estates during these chapter 11 cases.

13. As of the Petition Date, the Debtors estimate that they owe approximately $3,500,000 on account of Critical Vendor Claims, all of which is due or will become due during the Interim Period. The Debtors request authority, but not direction, to pay all outstanding prepetition amounts incurred on account of the Critical Vendor Claims and to continue to make all payments on a postpetition basis in the ordinary course of business, in each case to the extent that the Debtors determine, in their business judgment, that such payment is beneficial to the Debtors' estates.

II. Identifying the Critical Vendors and Critical Vendor Claims.

14. In light of the foregoing, the Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, reviewed their books and records, consulted operations and purchasing personnel, reviewed contracts and supply agreements, and analyzed applicable laws, regulations, and historical practices to identify those vendors that are critical to the continued and uninterrupted operation of the Debtors' business. The loss of any of these Critical Vendors would materially harm the Debtors' business by, among other things, reducing their enterprise value and ultimately impairing their ability to effectively administer these chapter 11 cases. At the same time, the Debtors are mindful that paying all prepetition amounts owed to all vendors would create an unsustainable liquidity shortage and impair the Debtors' ability to successfully navigate these chapter 11 cases. Accordingly, the Debtors examined each of their vendor relationships with, among other things, the following criteria in mind, in order to identify which vendors should be eligible to receive payments under the critical vendor program:

- whether certain specifications or contract requirements directly or indirectly prevent the Debtors from obtaining goods or services from alternative sources;
- whether a vendor is a sole-source, limited-source, or high-volume supplier of goods or services critical to the Debtors' business operations;

- whether the services provided by the vendor are so vital, or the vendor's operations are so commingled with the Debtors' business, that even the briefest disruption would cause significant harm to the Debtors' operations;

- whether an agreement exists by which the Debtors could compel a vendor to continue performing on prepetition terms;

- whether alternative vendors are available that can provide requisite volumes of similar goods or services on equal (or better) terms and, if so, whether the Debtors would be able to continue operating while transitioning business thereto;

- the degree to which replacement costs (including pricing, transition expenses, professional fees, and lost sales or future revenue) exceed the amount of a vendor's prepetition claim;

- the likelihood that a temporary break in the vendor's relationship with the Debtors could be remedied through the use of the tools available in these chapter 11 cases;

- whether the failure to pay all or part of a particular vendor's claim could cause the vendor to hold goods owned by the Debtors, or to refuse to provide critical services on a postpetition basis; and

- whether the failure to pay a particular vendor could cause an inability to properly service the Debtors' customers and result in substantial revenue loss.

15. In addition to these factors, the Debtors and their advisors examined the health of each vendor relationship, the vendor's familiarity with the chapter 11 process, and the extent to which each vendor's prepetition claims could be satisfied elsewhere in the chapter 11 process. Ultimately, the Debtors' selection process balanced the need to ensure that these chapter 11 cases do not disrupt or negatively impact their operations and, relatedly, their customers, while limiting the expenditure of estate resources. Paying the targeted prepetition claims of the Critical Vendors benefits the Debtors' estates, both monetarily and operationally, by preserving liquidity and enabling the Debtors to operate effectively during these chapter 11 cases.

III. Foreign Vendor Claims.

16. In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors transact with foreign vendors and individual independent contractors located in various jurisdictions (collectively, the "Foreign Vendors").[3] The Foreign Vendors supplied goods and services in connection with the Debtors' retail business, consisting mostly of overseas apparel, footwear, and accessories manufacturing and sourcing; quality assurance and inspection services; packaging and labeling; sourcing agent and buying office services; and customs compliance and trade documentation support, and certain Foreign Vendors are individuals who provided on-site quality control, production oversight, and consulting services on an independent-contractor basis. In determining whether to pay a particular Foreign Vendor Claim, the Debtors will consider the jurisdiction in which the vendor is located, the nature and value of the Debtors' assets located in that jurisdiction, and the vendor's ability and likelihood to pursue remedies against those assets under local law.

17. While the Debtors do not expect to maintain relationships with all Foreign Vendors during the course of these chapter 11 cases, if a potential going-concern purchaser of the Debtors' assets pursuant to the Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving the Bidding Procedures and Stalking Horse Bid Protections, (II) Scheduling Certain Dates and Deadlines with Respect Thereto, (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof, (IV) Establishing Notice and Procedures for the Assumption and Assignment of Contracts and Leases, (V) Authorizing the Assumption and Assignment of Assumed Contracts, (VI) Authorizing the Sale of Assets, and (VII) Granting Related Relief, filed contemporaneously herewith, requires certain unique "The Children's Place" or "Gymboree" merchandise supplied by a Foreign Vendor in connection with a going-concern sale, the Debtors may determine, in their reasonable business judgment, that payment of the applicable Foreign Vendor Claim is necessary to preserve access to that merchandise and facilitate a value-maximizing sale, subject in all respects to any Financing Order and any budget thereunder. In that scenario, the Debtors seek authority to address the risk that certain Foreign Vendors may sever their business relationships with the Debtors and otherwise take actions that disrupt the Debtors' business operations, administration of these chapter 11 cases, or property abroad. Suppliers and vendors located in foreign countries are often unfamiliar with the chapter 11 process, frequently react skeptically to various debtor protections, and may consider themselves beyond the jurisdiction of the Court.

[3] The term "Foreign Vendors" shall not include foreign vendors, independent contractors, service providers, or other non-governmental entities that are known to have assets within the United States that would be subject to the jurisdiction of the Court and that would otherwise be available to satisfy a judgment entered by the Court if such entities were to violate the automatic stay provisions of section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code or take any action contrary to an order of the Court. In addition, the term "Foreign Vendors" shall not include any non-Debtor affiliate of the Debtors.

18. Accordingly, if certain amounts outstanding on account of prepetition goods delivered and services rendered by the Foreign Vendors (the "Foreign Vendor Claims") are not paid, the Foreign Vendors may take action against the Debtors despite the automatic stay provisions of section 362(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. Although the automatic stay applies to protect the Debtors' assets wherever they are located in the world, attempting to enforce the Bankruptcy Code in foreign countries is often a fruitless exercise. In the absence of enforcement of the automatic stay, the Foreign Vendors could initiate a lawsuit in a foreign court and obtain a judgment against the Debtors to collect prepetition amounts owed to them or seek to attach or seize foreign assets of the Debtors even prior to obtaining a judgment. It would be unduly time-consuming and burdensome for the Debtors to seek to enforce an order of the Court in a Foreign Vendor's country in many instances, thereby compounding the loss and disruption in services.

19. In light of the above, the Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to pay all or part of particular Foreign Vendor Claims on a case-by-case basis in the reasonable exercise of their business judgment to the extent necessary to preserve estate value. Any payment will be subject to, and in compliance with, any Financing Order, the related financing and cash collateral documentation, and any budget thereunder. No aggregate dollar estimate or separate monetary allocation is sought for Foreign Vendor Claims, and the requested authority neither earmarks funds nor represents that funds are available or committed for such claims. Before making any payment on account of a Foreign Vendor Claim, the Debtors shall provide at least five (5) business days' advance written notice to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, identifying the proposed payee, amount, and basis for payment and its compliance with any Financing Order and any budget thereunder. If either notice recipient objects within that period, the Debtors shall not make the disputed payment absent further order of the Court.

IV. The 503(b)(9) Claims.

20. A portion of the Trade Claims may include claims entitled to priority pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, which grants administrative expense priority to claims for certain inventory, goods, and/or materials received by the Debtors within the twenty (20) days immediately preceding the Petition Date. 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9). In the ordinary course of business, the Debtors may have received inventory and other goods from certain vendors within this twenty-day period (collectively, the "503(b)(9) Claimants"), thereby giving rise to prepetition claims of the 503(b)(9) Claimants (the "503(b)(9) Claims").

21. Many of the Debtors' relationships with the 503(b)(9) Claimants are not governed by long-term contracts or supply agreements. Rather, the Debtors obtain goods from such claimants on an order-by-order basis. As a result, to the extent there are 503(b)(9) Claims, a 503(b)(9) Claimant may refuse to supply new orders if the Debtors do not timely pay the 503(b)(9) Claims. Such refusal would negatively affect the Debtors' estates and would be highly disruptive to the Debtors' chapter 11 process, including any going-concern sale. 503(b)(9) Claimants, if not timely paid, could also demand payment in cash on delivery, which could put unnecessary strain on the Debtors' liquidity. Addressing these demands would be both time-consuming and value-destructive, especially since 503(b)(9) Claims are already expected to be paid in full as administrative expenses.

22. In light of the above, the Debtors seek authorization, but not direction, to pay all or part of particular 503(b)(9) Claims on a case-by-case basis in the reasonable exercise of their business judgment to the extent necessary to preserve estate value. Any payment will be subject to, and in compliance with, any Financing Order, the related financing and cash collateral documentation, and any budget thereunder. No aggregate dollar estimate or separate monetary allocation is sought for 503(b)(9) Claims, and the requested authority neither earmarks funds nor represents that funds are available or committed for such claims. Before making any payment on account of a 503(b)(9) Claim, the Debtors shall provide at least five (5) business days' advance written notice to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, identifying the proposed payee, amount, and basis for payment and its compliance with any Financing Order and any budget thereunder. If either notice recipient objects within that period, the Debtors shall not make the disputed payment absent further order of the Court. Importantly, the Debtors do not seek to accelerate or modify existing payment terms with respect to the 503(b)(9) Claims. Any payments the Debtors elect to make pursuant to this authority will be made as such claims come due in the ordinary course of business, provided that such claimants make commercially reasonable efforts to maintain or restore Customary Trade Terms (as defined herein).

V. Lien Claims.

23. The Debtors regularly transact business with a number of third parties—including commercial common carriers, air and ocean freight forwarders and consolidators, customs brokers, warehousers, and other third-party logistics providers—that transported, cleared through customs, and stored the Debtors' retail merchandise, packaging materials, and other inventory as such property moved from overseas manufacturing and sourcing locations to the Debtors' distribution centers and retail stores (collectively, the "Lien Claimants"). Certain Lien Claimants may remain in possession of such property on account of shipments and storage arrangements that were unpaid as of the Petition Date. Under applicable non-bankruptcy law, the Lien Claimants have, or may in the future assert, shipper's, warehouse, possessory, or other similar liens against the Debtors' property in their possession and, if unpaid, may refuse to release such property, may continue to accrue storage, demurrage, and related charges against it, and may ultimately seek to sell it to satisfy their claims.

24. Under the laws of most states and certain foreign laws, these parties will, in certain circumstances, have a lien on property in their possession that secures the charges or expenses incurred in connection with the transportation or storage of goods or the supply of labor (the "Lien Claims").[4] Thus, if the Lien Claims are not satisfied, the Lien Claimants may refuse to release the Debtors' property, thereby disrupting the Debtors' operations and, ultimately, harming the Debtors' estates.

25. To the extent any Lien Claimant has perfected a lien on any of the Debtors' property or, in the Debtors' judgment, could assert and perfect a lien on any such property, it is imperative that the Debtors be authorized to pay such Lien Claimants, regardless of whether their claims arose prior to or after the Petition Date. Such payment will secure the release of any such lien and the Debtors' continued uninterrupted access to the goods and services provided by the Lien Claimants. As a specialty retailer, the Debtors' ability to generate revenue depends on a consistent and uninterrupted flow of merchandise from their sourcing locations through their distribution centers to their retail stores and digital storefronts; any disruption in that flow—even a brief one—would directly impair the Debtors' ability to stock their stores and serve their customers. Moreover, the value of the assets in the possession of the Lien Claimants generally exceeds the value of their respective prepetition claims. The refusal of Lien Claimants to deliver or return the Debtors' goods as a result of not being paid would severely disrupt the Debtors' administration of these chapter 11 cases and could potentially cost the Debtors a substantial amount of value for the Debtors' estates. The Debtors' ability to maintain access to goods and services is critical to the continued viability of the Debtors' business operations and administration of these chapter 11 cases.

[4] For example, section 7-307 of the Uniform Commercial Code provides, in pertinent part, that a "carrier has a lien on the goods covered by a bill of lading or on the proceeds thereof in its possession for charges after the date of the carrier's receipt of the goods for storage or transportation (including demurrage and terminal charges) and for expenses necessary for preservation of the goods incident to their transportation or reasonably incurred in their sale pursuant to law." See U.C.C. § 7-307(a) (2005).

26. In light of the above, the Debtors seek entry of the Interim Order and Final Order granting them authorization to make payments, but not direction, in their sole discretion and business judgment, on account of the Lien Claims estimated at approximately $6,500,000, all of which is due or will become due during the Interim Period and is requested to be made available upon entry of the Interim Order, subject to the allocation flexibility described herein and, in all respects, any Financing Order and any budget thereunder.

VI. The Outstanding Orders.

27. Prior to the Petition Date and in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors may have ordered goods that will not be delivered until after the Petition Date (the "Outstanding Orders"). In the mistaken belief that they would be general unsecured creditors of the Debtors' estates with respect to such goods, certain suppliers may refuse to ship or transport such goods (or may recall such shipments) with respect to such Outstanding Orders unless the Debtors issue substitute purchase orders postpetition—potentially disrupting the Debtors' ongoing business operations and requiring the Debtors to expend substantial time and effort in issuing such substitute orders. As set forth in greater detail below, because the Outstanding Orders are likely characterized as administrative expenses of the Debtors' estates, the Debtors request that the Court confirm the administrative expense priority of all undisputed obligations of the Debtors arising from the acceptance of goods subject to the Outstanding Orders pursuant to section 503(b) of the Bankruptcy Code and authorize the Debtors to pay amounts due on account of Outstanding Orders in the ordinary course of business.

I. The Court Should Grant the Relief Requested in this Motion Pursuant to Sections 105(a), 363(b), and 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code.

28. Courts have recognized that it is appropriate to authorize the payment of prepetition obligations, including payments to critical vendors and lien claimants, where necessary to protect and preserve the estate. See, e.g., Czyzewski v. Jevic Holding Corp., 580 U.S. 451, 468 (2017) (noting that courts "have approved . . . 'critical vendor' orders that allow payment of essential suppliers' prepetition invoices"); In re Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 826 (D. Del. 1999) (finding that payment of prepetition claims to certain trade vendors was "essential to the survival of the debtor during the chapter 11 reorganization"); In re Ionosphere Clubs, Inc., 98 B.R. 174, 175 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1989) ("The ability of a Bankruptcy Court to authorize the payment of pre-petition debt when such payment is needed to facilitate the rehabilitation of the debtor is not a novel concept."); In re James A. Phillips, Inc., 29 B.R. 391, 398 (S.D.N.Y. 1983). In so doing, these courts acknowledge that several legal theories rooted in sections 105(a), 363(b), and 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code support the payment of prepetition claims.

29. Section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code permits a bankruptcy court, after notice and a hearing, to authorize a debtor to "use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). "In determining whether to authorize the use, sale or lease of property of the estate under this section, courts require the debtor to show that a sound business purpose justifies such actions." In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. 147, 153 (D. Del. 1999) (collecting cases); see also In re Diocese of Camden, 653 B.R. 722, 741 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2023) ("In evaluating whether a sound business purpose justifies the use, sale or lease of property under Section 363(b), courts consider a variety of factors, which essentially represent a 'business judgment test.'" (quoting In re Montgomery Ward Holding Corp., 242 B.R. at 153)); In re James A. Phillips, 29 B.R. at 397 (relying on section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code to allow a contractor to pay prepetition claims of suppliers who were potential lien claimants because the payments were necessary for general contractors to release funds owed to debtors); In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 175 (finding that a sound business justification existed to justify payment of certain prepetition wages); In re Phx. Steel Corp., 82 B.R. 334, 335–36 (Bankr. D. Del. 1987) (requiring the debtor to show a "good business reason" for a proposed transaction under section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code). In addition, under section 1107(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, a debtor in possession has, among other things, an implied duty to "protect and preserve the estate, including an operating business' going-concern value." In re CEI Roofing, Inc., 315 B.R. 50, 59 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2004) (quoting In re CoServ, L.L.C., 273 B.R. 487, 497 (Bankr. N.D. Tex. 2002)).

30. Courts also authorize payment of prepetition claims in appropriate circumstances based on section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, which codifies the Court's inherent equitable powers to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code, courts may authorize pre-plan payments of prepetition obligations when essential to the continued operation of a debtor's business. See In re Just for Feet, 242 B.R. at 824–25. Specifically, the Court may use its equitable power under section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code to authorize payment of prepetition obligations pursuant to the "necessity of payment" rule (also referred to as the "doctrine of necessity"). In re Ionosphere Clubs, 98 B.R. at 176.

31. Indeed, the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit recognized the "necessity of payment" doctrine in In re Lehigh & New Eng. Ry. Co., 657 F.2d 570, 581 (3d Cir. 1981). The Third Circuit held that a court could authorize the payment of prepetition claims if such payment was essential to the continued operation of the debtor. Id. (stating courts may authorize payment of prepetition claims when there "is the possibility that the creditor will employ an immediate economic sanction, failing such payment"); see also In re Penn Cent. Transp. Co., 467 F.2d 100, 102 n.1 (3d Cir. 1972) (noting that the necessity of payment doctrine permits "immediate payment of claims of creditors where those creditors will not supply services or material essential to the conduct of the business until their pre-reorganization claims shall have been paid"); In re Just for Feet, 242 B.R. at 824–25 (noting that, in the Third Circuit, debtors may pay prepetition claims that are essential to continued operation of business); In re Columbia Gas Sys., Inc., 171 B.R. 189, 191–92 (Bankr. D. Del. 1994) (same); In re Motor Coach Indus. Int'l, Inc., No. 08-12136-BLS, 2009 WL 330993, at *2 n.5 (D. Del. Feb. 10, 2009) (describing the doctrine of necessity as "a general rubric for the proposition that a court can authorize the payment of prepetition claims if such payment is essential to the continued operation of the debtor"). At least one court has recognized that there are instances when a debtor's fiduciary duty can "only be fulfilled by the preplan satisfaction of a prepetition claim." In re CoServ, 273 B.R. at 497.

32. The Debtors have a sound business purpose for the relief requested herein. The authority to honor unpaid, prepetition Trade Claims in the initial days of these chapter 11 cases, without disrupting the Debtors' operations, will facilitate the Debtors' continued operations and allow the Debtors to efficiently administer these chapter 11 cases.

33. The resulting harm to the Debtors' estates far outweighs the costs associated with paying the Debtors' prepetition obligations to the Trade Claimants. As discussed, if the Debtors do not pay Trade Claims, Trade Claimants may simply refuse to do business with the Debtors unless and until they receive payment on account of their prepetition claims, or take other precipitous actions against the Debtors based on the incorrect belief they are not bound by the automatic stay. As a result, the Debtors would be unable to procure necessary services that support the core functions of their business, potentially causing the Debtors to fail or delay providing services to their customers, or harm their going-concern sale efforts. Thus, the Debtors' other creditors will be no worse off, and likely fare better, if the Debtors are empowered to negotiate such payments to achieve a smooth transition into chapter 11 with minimal disruption to their operations. As such, the Debtors believe the relief sought in this Motion will not burden the Debtors but will help them maximize the value of their estates, and that for the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors submit that it is appropriate for the Court to authorize the Debtors to satisfy the Trade Claims.

34. Courts in this district have granted relief similar to the relief requested herein in other chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re LIV Golf New Jersey LLC, 26-20189 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 8, 2026) (authorizing payment of certain prepetition foreign vendor claims and lien claims on a final basis); In re Eddie Bauer LLC, No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 3, 2026) (authorizing payment of certain prepetition trade claims on a final basis); In re Multi-Color Corp., No. 26-10910 (MB) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 3, 2026) (same); In re STG Logistics, Inc., No. 26-10258 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026) (same); In re Del Monte Foods Corp. II, No. 25-16984 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jul. 3, 2025) (authorizing payment of prepetition trade claims); In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 1, 2024) (same); In re Invitae

Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 16, 2024) (same); In re Careismatic Brands, LLC, No. 24-10561 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 24, 2024) (same); In re WeWork Inc., No. 23-19865 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 8, 2023) (same).[5]

II. The Court Should Authorize the Payment of Claims Entitled to Priority Pursuant to Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code.

35. Section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code provides administrative priority for "the value of any goods received by the debtor within twenty days before the date of commencement of a case under this title in which the goods have been sold to the debtor in the ordinary course of such debtor's business." 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(9). Any 503(b)(9) Claim must be paid in full for the Debtors to confirm a chapter 11 plan. See 11 U.S.C. § 1129(a)(9)(A). Consequently, payment of such claims now only provides such parties with what they would be entitled to receive under a chapter 11 plan. Moreover, the timing of such payments lies squarely within the Court's discretion. See In re Glob. Home Prods., LLC, No. 06-10340 (KG), 2006 WL 3791955, at *3 (Bankr. D. Del. Dec. 21, 2006) (agreeing with parties that "the timing of the payment of that administrative expense claim is left to the discretion of the Court"). Here, if the Debtors do not make payment on 503(b)(9) Claims on a case-by-case basis and subject to any budget pursuant to any Financing Order at the outset of these chapter 11 cases—which permits payment before plan confirmation without modifying existing contractual payment terms—the Debtors could be denied access to the goods necessary to maintain the Debtors' operations and maximize the value of the Debtors' estates, which could negatively impact their going-concern sale efforts. Moreover, the Bankruptcy Code does not prohibit a debtor from paying such claims prior to confirmation. As administrative claims incurred in the ordinary course of business, the Debtors believe they may pay such claims in accordance with their reasonable business judgment pursuant to section 363(c)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code. See, e.g., Transcript of Hearing held on October 31, 2006, at 49, In re Dura Auto. Sys., Inc., No. 06-11202 (KJC) (Bankr. D. Del. Nov. 6, 2006) ("THE COURT: I think arguably the debtor could pay its 503(b)(9) claimants without court approval."). Again, the timing of such payments lies squarely within the Court's discretion. See In re Glob. Home Prods., LLC, 2006 WL 3791955, at *3.

36. For these reasons, courts in this district have regularly authorized the payment of claims arising under section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code in the ordinary course of business. In re Eddie Bauer LLC, No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 3, 2026) (authorizing payment of 503(b)(9) claims on a final basis); In re Multi-Color Corp., No. 26-10910 (MB) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 3, 2026) (same); In re STG Logistics, Inc., No. 26-10258 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026) (same); In re Del Monte Foods Corp. II, No. 25-16984 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jul. 3, 2025) (authorizing payment of 503(b)(9) claims on an interim basis); In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 1, 2024) (same); In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 16, 2024) (same); In re Careismatic Brands, LLC, No. 24-10561 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 24, 2024) (same); In re WeWork Inc., No. 23-19865 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 8, 2023) (same).

III. The Court Should Authorize the Payment of Lien Claims.

37. Certain Lien Claimants may be entitled under applicable non-bankruptcy law to assert certain possessory liens on the Debtors' goods or equipment in their possession (notwithstanding the automatic stay under section 362 of the Bankruptcy Code) in an attempt to secure payment of their prepetition claims. Under section 362(b)(3) of the Bankruptcy Code, the act of perfecting such liens, to the extent consistent with section 546(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, is expressly excluded from the automatic stay.[6] 11 U.S.C. § 362(b)(3). As a result, the Debtors anticipate that certain Lien Claimants may assert or perfect liens, refuse to turn over goods in their possession, or stop performing their ongoing obligations. Even absent a valid lien, to the extent that certain Lien Claimants have possession of the Debtors' goods and materials, mere possession or retention would disrupt the Debtors' operations.

38. Additionally, pursuant to section 363(e) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Lien Claimants may be entitled to adequate protection of a valid possessory lien to the extent that the Debtors use or sell the estate property against which a Lien Claim is asserted. Given that the value of such property will generally far exceed the value of the related Lien Claim, creditors will not be harmed—and, in fact, will be benefited—by the satisfaction of certain amounts owed to the Lien Claimants. Those payments will facilitate the use and/or sale of estate property against which liens may otherwise be asserted, helping to preserve the going-concern value of the Debtors' business and enabling the Debtors to smoothly transition into chapter 11.

39. For these reasons, courts in this district have authorized the payment of prepetition lien claims under similar circumstances in recent chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re LIV Golf New Jersey LLC, 26-20189 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 8, 2026) (authorizing payment of certain lienholder claims on a final basis); In re FreshRealm, Inc., No. 26-14656 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 2, 2026) (same); In re Eddie Bauer LLC, No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 3, 2026) (same); In re STG Logistics, Inc., No. 26-10258 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026) (same); In re Del Monte Foods Corp. II, No. 25-16984 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Aug. 13, 2025) (same); In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 18, 2024) (same); In re Thrasio

[6] See 11 U.S.C. § 546(b)(1)(A) (providing that a debtor's lien avoidance powers "are subject to any generally applicable law that . . . permits perfection of an interest in property to be effective against an entity that acquires rights in such property before the date of perfection").

Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 1, 2024) (same); In re Careismatic Brands, LLC, No. 24-10561 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 24, 2024) (same). Accordingly, for the reasons set forth herein, the Debtors submit that it is appropriate for the Court to authorize the Debtors to satisfy the Lien Claims.

IV. Customary Trade Terms Condition.

40. Subject to the Court's approval, the Debtors intend to pay the Trade Claims only to the extent necessary to preserve the value of their estates. To that end, in return for paying a portion of the Trade Claims, the Debtors propose that they be authorized to require the Trade Claimants to provide favorable trade terms for the postpetition procurement of their goods and services.

41. The Debtors seek authority, but not direction, to condition payment of the Trade Claims upon each Trade Claimant's written agreement (including in writing, at the Debtors' discretion) to continue—or resume—supplying such products and services to the Debtors in accordance with trade terms (including credit limits, discounts, pricing, timing of payments, availability, and other terms) that are at least as favorable to the Debtors as those in place during the twelve (12) months prior to the Petition Date, or as otherwise agreed to by the Debtors in their discretion and reasonable business judgment (the "Customary Trade Terms"), and, additionally, to support (and not take any action adverse to) the Debtors' restructuring process (including any proposed sale or chapter 11 plan proposed in these cases). The Debtors reserve the right to require additional favorable trade terms with any Trade Claimant as a condition to payment of any Trade Claim. The Debtors also seek authorization to require, at their discretion, that the Customary Trade Terms be commemorated in writing, including by email or through a trade agreement, as a condition to payment, the form of which is attached to the Interim Order as Exhibit 1 the (the "Form Trade Agreement").

42. Courts in this district have granted relief similar to the relief requested herein in other chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re Eddie Bauer LLC, No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026) (approving customary trade terms and form of trade agreement on an interim basis); In re New Rite Aid, LLC, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 7, 2025) (same); In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 4, 2024) (approving customary trade terms and form of trade agreement on an interim basis); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Oct. 18, 2023) (same). Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the Court approve the Customary Trade Terms and the Form Trade Agreement and should authorize the Debtors to condition payment of Trade Claims upon a Trade Claimant's written agreement to the Customary Trade Terms in the ordinary course of business.

V. The Court Should Confirm that Outstanding Orders are Administrative Expense Priority Claims and that Payment of Such Claims is Authorized.

43. Pursuant to section 503(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, obligations that arise in connection with the postpetition delivery of goods and services, including goods ordered prepetition, are administrative expense priority claims because they benefit the estate postpetition. See 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(A) (providing that the "actual [and] necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate" are administrative expenses); see also In re John Clay & Co., 43 B.R. 797, 809–10 (Bankr. D. Utah 1984) (holding that goods ordered prepetition but delivered postpetition are entitled to administrative priority). Thus, granting the relief sought herein with respect to the Outstanding Orders will not afford such claimants any greater priority than they otherwise would have absent such relief and will not prejudice any other party-in-interest.

44. Absent such relief, however, the Debtors may be required to expend substantial time and effort reissuing the Outstanding Orders to provide certain suppliers with assurance of such administrative priority. The attendant disruption and delay to the continuous and timely flow of critical inventory and merchandise and other goods to the Debtors would force the Debtors to potentially halt operations, disrupt the Debtors' business, and lead to a loss of revenue, all to the detriment of the Debtors and their creditors.

45. Courts in this district have granted relief similar to the relief requested herein in other chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re Eddie Bauer LLC, No. 26-11422 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 10, 2026) (granting administrative expense priority to undisputed obligations on account of outstanding orders on an interim basis); In re Multi-Color Corp., No. 26-10910 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 2, 2026) (same); In re Pretium Packaging L.L.C., No. 26-10896 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 30, 2026) (same); STG Logistics, Inc., No. 26-10258 (MEH) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 14, 2026) (same); In re Thrasio Holdings, Inc., No. 24-11840 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. Apr. 4, 2024) (granting administrative expense priority to undisputed obligations on account of outstanding orders on a final basis); In re Invitae Corp., No. 24-11362 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Mar. 18, 2024) (same); In re Careismatic Brands, LLC, No. 24-10561 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. Feb. 29, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Dec. 20, 2023) (same). Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the Court should confirm the administrative expense priority status of the Outstanding Orders and should authorize the Debtors to pay the Outstanding Orders in the ordinary course of business.

46. The Debtors have sufficient funds to pay the amounts described in this Motion in the ordinary course of business by virtue of expected cash flows from ongoing business operations, anticipated debtor-in-possession financing, and anticipated access to cash collateral. In addition, under the Debtors' existing cash management system, the Debtors can readily identify checks or wire transfer requests as relating to any authorized payment in respect of the relief requested herein. Accordingly, the Debtors believe that checks or wire transfer requests, other than those relating to authorized payments, will not be honored inadvertently. Therefore, the Debtors request that the Court authorize all applicable financial institutions, when requested by the Debtors, to receive, process, honor, and pay any and all checks or wire transfer requests in respect of the relief requested in this Motion.

47. Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) empowers a court to grant relief within the first twenty-one (21) days after the Petition Date to the extent that "relief is needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm." Fed. R. Bankr. P. 6003(a). As set forth in this Motion, an immediate and orderly transition into chapter 11 is critical to the viability of the Debtors' operations. Failure to receive the requested relief during the first twenty-one (21) days of these chapter 11 cases would severely disrupt the Debtors' operations at this critical juncture and cause immediate and irreparable harm. The requested relief is necessary for the Debtors to operate their business in the ordinary course, preserve the ongoing value of their operations, and maximize value of their estates for the benefit of all stakeholders. The Debtors have demonstrated that the requested relief is "needed to avoid immediate and irreparable harm," as contemplated by Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a), and the Court should grant the requested relief.

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and 6004(h)

48. To implement the foregoing successfully, the Debtors seek a waiver of the notice requirements under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and the fourteen-day stay of an order authorizing the use, sale, or lease of property under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h) for the reasons set forth herein.

Reservation of Rights

49. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended or should be construed as: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in this Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. If the Court grants the relief sought herein, any payment made pursuant to the Court's order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

Final Hearing

50. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

No Prior Request

51. No prior request for the relief sought in this Motion has been made to this Court or any other court.

Notice

52. The Debtors will provide notice of this Motion to the following parties or their respective counsel: (a) the U.S. Trustee for the District of New Jersey; (b) the holders of the thirty (30) largest unsecured claims against the Debtors (on a consolidated basis); (c) Wells Fargo Bank, National Association, as Prepetition ABL Agent; (d) Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions, as Prepetition Term Loan Agent; (e) Mithaq Capital SPC, as prepetition unsecured lender; (f) the office of the attorney general for each of the states in which the Debtors operate; (g) the United States Attorney's Office for the District of New Jersey; (h) the Internal Revenue Service; and (i) any party that has requested notice pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 2002. The Debtors submit that, in light of the nature of the relief requested, no other or further notice need be given.

WHEREFORE, the Debtors request that the Court enter Interim and Final Orders, in substantially the forms submitted herewith, granting the relief requested herein and such other relief as is just and proper under the circumstances.

If no objections are filed to the Motion, the Court may enter an order approving the relief requested in the Motion on a final basis without further notice or hearing.

3. Any objections to the entry of this Interim Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

4. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Interim Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

5. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in their discretion in the ordinary course of business and the reasonable exercise of their business judgment, consistent with prepetition practices to honor, pay all or part of, and otherwise satisfy and discharge, on a case-by-case basis, the Trade Claims, subject, in the case of Foreign Vendor Claims and 503(b)(9) Claims, to paragraph six (6) below; provided that, as a condition to payment of any Lien Claim, the Debtors may require that the applicable Lien Claimant release any lien securing such Lien

Claim and, to the extent such lien has been perfected, take all actions reasonably necessary to evidence the release of such lien. Subject in all respects to any Financing Order and any budget thereunder, the estimated allocations between Critical Vendor Claims and Lien Claims do not constitute separate category limits. To the extent permitted by any Financing Order and any budget thereunder, the Debtors may apply amounts not required for Lien Claims to Critical Vendor Claims, and vice versa, without further order of the Court, provided that aggregate payments remain within the applicable combined amount permitted thereunder. Nothing herein modifies any Financing Order or any budget thereunder or increases the aggregate amount available. No claim may be paid more than once because it falls within more than one Trade Claim category.

6. Notwithstanding the general authorization to pay Trade Claims in this Interim Order, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay particular Foreign Vendor Claims and 503(b)(9) Claims on a case-by-case basis to preserve estate value, subject to any Financing Order, Financing Order documentation, and any budget thereunder. Before making any Foreign Vendor Claim payment or 503(b)(9) Claim Payment, the Debtors shall provide at least five (5) business days' advance written notice to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, identifying the proposed payee, amount, and basis for payment and its compliance with any Financing Order and any budget thereunder. If no written objection to such notice is filed with the Court and served on the Debtors within five (5) business days, the proposed Foreign Vendor Claim payment or 503(b)(9) Payment shall be deemed authorized under this Interim Order without further order of the Court and paid.

7. All undisputed obligations related to the Outstanding Orders are granted administrative expense priority in accordance with section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that the Debtors may terminate any outstanding orders prior to delivery, and any canceled orders are not afforded administrative priority.

8. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay all undisputed amounts relating to the Outstanding Orders in the ordinary course of business consistent with the parties' customary practices in effect prior to the Petition Date.

9. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to condition the payment of any Trade Claim upon the applicable Trade Claimant's written agreement (e-mail being sufficient) (a) to continue or recommence providing goods and/or services to the Debtors in accordance with the Customary Trade Terms at least as favorable to the Debtors as those in place during the twelve months prior to the Petition Date, or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors in their reasonable business judgment, (b) that such Trade Claimants shall not cancel any contract or agreement pursuant to which they provide goods or services to the Debtors, and (c) to support (and not take any action adverse to) the Debtors' restructuring process (including any proposed sale or chapter 11 plan proposed in these cases). The Debtors reserve the right to require additional favorable terms with any Trade Claimant as a condition to payment of any Trade Claim.

10. The Form Trade Agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, is approved in its entirety, and the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to negotiate, modify, or amend the Form Trade Agreement in their reasonable business judgment.

11. If any party accepts payment hereunder and does not continue supplying goods or services to the Debtors in accordance with trade terms at least as favorable to the Debtors as the Customary Trade Terms, then: (a) any payment on account of a prepetition claim received by such party shall be deemed, in the Debtors' sole discretion, an improper postpetition transfer and, therefore, immediately recoverable by the Debtors in cash upon written request by the Debtors; (b) upon recovery by the Debtors, any prepetition claim of such party shall be reinstated as if the payment had not been made; and (c) if there exists an outstanding postpetition balance due from the Debtors to such party, the Debtors may elect to recharacterize and apply any payment made pursuant to the relief requested by the Motion to such outstanding postpetition balance and such supplier or vendor will be required to repay to the Debtors such paid amounts that exceed the postpetition obligations then outstanding without the right of any setoffs, claims, provisions for payment of claims, or otherwise.

12. Nothing in this Interim Order shall prejudice the Debtors' right to request authority to pay additional amounts owed on account of Trade Claims, which right is expressly and fully reserved and preserved.

13. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, on an interim basis, to permit the setoff of any prepetition cash deposits held by a Trade Claimant against prepetition obligations. Solely for the purposes of determining compliance with the amounts set forth in the Motion, any payment of prepetition claims to a Trade Claimant by the Debtors shall be reduced by the amount of any prepetition deposit released to the Debtors in connection with such prepetition cash deposits.

14. Any Trade Claimant that accepts payment from the Debtors on account of all or a portion of such party's claim pursuant to this Interim Order shall be deemed to (a) agree to the terms and provisions of this Interim Order and (b) have waived, to the extent so paid, Trade Claims of any type, kind, or priority (including any reclamation claim and any lien or security interest asserted on account of such claims), against the Debtors, their assets, and properties, and the assets and properties of their estates. No Trade Claimant shall be granted a lien on or security interest in any property of the Debtors' estates on account of any Trade Claim absent further order of the Court. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, prior to making any payment pursuant to this Interim Order, the Debtors shall provide such Trade Claimant with a copy of this Interim Order (unless previously provided to such Trade Claimant).

15. Nothing herein shall impair or prejudice the Debtors' ability to contest, in their discretion, the extent, perfection, priority, validity, or amounts of any claims held by any Trade Claimant. The Debtors do not concede that any claims satisfied pursuant to this Interim Order are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve all rights to contest the extent, validity, or perfection, or to seek the avoidance of all such liens or the priority, of such claims.

16. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Interim Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Interim Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Nothing contained in this Interim Order shall be deemed to increase, reclassify, elevate to an administrative expense status, or otherwise affect any claim on account of such claim not being paid.

17. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Interim Order.

18. Nothing herein shall impair or prejudice the rights of the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, which are expressly reserved, to object to any payment made pursuant to this Interim Order to an insider (as such term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code), or an affiliate of an insider to the Debtors. To the extent the Debtors intend to make a payment to an insider or an affiliate of an insider of the Debtors, the Debtors shall, to the extent reasonably practical, provide three (3) calendar days' advance notice to, and opportunity to object by the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the respective Prepetition Agents, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases; provided that if any party objects to the payment, the Debtors shall not make such payment without further order of the Court.

19. The Debtors shall maintain a matrix/schedule of amounts directly or indirectly paid, subject to the terms and conditions of this Interim Order, including the following information: (a) the names of the payee; (b) the amount of the payment; (c) the category or type of payment; (d) the total amount of the claim; (e) the date of payment; and (f) whether the payee has agreed in writing to the Customary Trade Terms. Upon entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors shall provide a copy of such matrix/schedule to (a) the U.S. Trustee, (b) counsel to any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases, (c) Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, (d) Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, and

(e) Wollmuth Maher & Deutsch LLP, counsel to Mithaq Capital SPC within fifteen (15) calendar days of the end of each calendar month beginning upon entry of this Interim Order.

20. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

21. Nothing in this Interim Order authorizes the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

22. The requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a) are satisfied by the contents of the Motion or otherwise deemed waived.

23. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

24. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Interim Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

25. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

26. The Debtors shall serve by email (if available) or by regular mail (if email is unavailable) a copy of this Interim Order and the Motion on all parties required to receive such service pursuant to Local Rule 9013-5(f).

27. Any party may move for modification of this Interim Order in accordance with Local Rule 9013-5(e).

28. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order.

Form Trade Agreement

TRADE CLAIMANT LETTER AGREEMENT

NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PROVISION HEREIN, THE DEBTORS AND VENDOR ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT THIS TRADE CLAIMANT LETTER AGREEMENT IS NOT AND SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO BE AN OFFER WITH RESPECT TO ANY SECURITIES OR SOLICITATION OF VOTES FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF A PLAN OF REORGANIZATION FOR PURPOSES OF SECTIONS 1125 AND 1126 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE OR OTHERWISE. ANY SUCH OFFER OR SOLICITATION WILL BE MADE ONLY IN COMPLIANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS AND PROVISIONS OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE.

1. This Trade Claimant Letter Agreement (the "Letter Agreement"), dated as of [●], is by and between THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC. and certain of its affiliates (collectively, the "Debtors" or the "Company") and [●] ("Vendor" and, together with the Company, the "Parties").

2. As Vendor is aware, the Debtors filed voluntary petitions under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Bankruptcy Court") on November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date").

3. The Company is continuing to work with its vendors during the chapter 11 cases and intends to pay vendors in full in the ordinary course for goods and services provided on or after the filing date; however, the Bankruptcy Code prohibits the Company from paying amounts owed on account of goods received and services rendered prior to the filing date without specific approval by the Bankruptcy Court. Pursuant to the attached order (the "Order") entered by the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors have received authority to pay a limited amount of claims of certain vendors that qualify as "Trade Claimants," subject to such vendors' agreement in writing to be bound by certain terms. Specifically, the Order requires that prior to receiving a Trade Claimant's payment, a vendor must agree to continue providing goods and services to the Company in accordance with trade terms (including credit limits, pricing, timing of payments, availability, and other terms) that are at least as favorable to the Company as those in place during the twelve (12) months prior to the chapter 11 filing (the "Customary Trade Terms"), and, additionally, to support (and not take any action adverse to) the Debtors' restructuring process (including any proposed sale or chapter 11 plan proposed in the chapter 11 cases).

4. Any party that accepts payment from the Company on account of a Trade Claimant's claim is deemed to have agreed to the terms and provisions of the Order (subject to the modifications provided herein), including the Company's ability to recover any payment made on account of a prepetition claim in the event the Vendor does not continue supplying goods or services to the Company in accordance with Customary Trade Terms.

5. As Vendor is aware, debtor [●] and Vendor are party to a distribution agreement dated [●] (as subsequently amended, the "Prepetition Agreement"). Typically, vendors that are party to an agreement that existed prior to the filing, like the Prepetition Agreement, are not entitled to treatment as a Trade Claimant because the "automatic stay" provided under the Bankruptcy Code prevents such parties from refusing to perform due to the Company's inability to pay prepetition amounts.

6. Nevertheless, given the importance of the Company's relationship with Vendor and without waiving any rights to assert the applicability of the automatic stay, the Debtors have agreed to designate Vendor as a Trade Claimant pursuant to the Order for a portion of Vendor's prepetition claim, subject to Vendor's written agreement to the terms outlined in this Letter Agreement (the "Terms") which modify, in part, the terms of the Prepetition Agreement. Upon execution of this Letter Agreement, the Debtors shall issue (i) postpetition payments of $[●] owed to Vendor for billed postpetition balances due on account of goods shipped from the Petition Date through [●] within ten (10) business days of the Parties' execution of this Letter Agreement, (ii) postpetition payments of amounts owed to Vendor for shipments after [●], if any, on the first Friday that falls on or after fifteen (15) days after receiving an invoice in accordance with the Prepetition Agreement, and (iii) the amounts owed to Vendor, pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the amount of [●] (the "Payment"), no later than five (5) business days after the Debtors consummate a sale of all or substantially all of the Debtors' assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, or such other date as is mutually agreed upon by the Debtors and Vendor in writing. In the event that the Company fails to make a postpetition payment in accordance with this paragraph, Vendor's rights to request shorter credit terms are preserved.

7. Additionally, the Parties stipulate that the remaining prepetition amount on account of accounts receivable under the Prepetition Agreement after the Payment is $[●] (the "Agreed Prepetition Amount"). The Parties stipulate that the Agreed Prepetition Amount shall constitute an allowed prepetition general unsecured claim under section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to prepetition amounts due on account of accounts receivable under the Prepetition Agreement, the full amount of which shall be allowed against each Debtor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Vendor reserves all rights to assert other claims under the Prepetition Agreement, if any, and Debtors reserve any and all rights to challenge any such claims. The parties further agree that if the Company "assumes" the Prepetition Agreement and/or "assumes and assigns" the Prepetition Agreement to any purchaser under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Agreed Prepetition Amount will be the total amount necessary to "cure" all "defaults" and "actual pecuniary losses" under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code or section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code related to prepetition amounts due on account of accounts receivable under the Prepetition Agreement. Subject to the terms hereof, Vendor waives all rights to challenge or object to such amount related to accounts receivable under the Prepetition Agreement in connection with assumption or assumption and assignment of the Prepetition Agreement pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; provided, however, Vendor reserves its rights with respect to any other amounts unrelated to accounts receivable that may be required to "cure" all defaults under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code or section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Debtors reserve any and all rights to challenge any such claims.

8. In exchange for the terms set forth above, Vendor agrees:

i. to provide goods and services to the Company on Customary Trade Terms, as modified herein, and, additionally, to support (and not take any action adverse to) the Debtors' restructuring process and chapter 11 cases (including, without limitation, any proposed actions involving the Debtors' operations, employees, or compensation arrangements, or any proposed sale of some or substantially all of the Debtors' assets);

ii. solely to the extent that the Bankruptcy Court enters an order approving a disclosure statement and solicitation materials as containing, among other things, "adequate information" as required by section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to a chapter 11 plan that treats Vendor's claim in a manner that is at least equivalent to similarly situated trade vendors, (a) to vote or cause to be voted its claims to accept any such chapter 11 plan by delivering its duly executed and completed ballot or ballots, as applicable, accepting such plan on a timely basis following the commencement of the solicitation of the plan and its actual receipt of the solicitation materials and ballot and not change or withdraw such vote (or cause or direct such vote to be changed or withdrawn), and (b) to the extent it is permitted to elect whether to opt out of the releases set forth in any such chapter 11 plan, to provide, and to not opt-out of, the releases in such plan;

iii. not to separately seek payment from the Company on account of any prepetition claim (including, without limitation, any reclamation claim or any claim (other than the Payment) pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code) outside the terms of this Letter Agreement;

iv. not to file or otherwise assert against the Company, its assets, or any other person or entity, including the Company's customers, or any of their respective assets or property (real or personal), any lien, regardless of the statute or other legal authority upon which the lien is asserted, related in any way to any remaining prepetition amounts allegedly owed to Vendor by the Company arising from prepetition agreements or transactions;

v. to the extent Vendor has taken steps to file or assert such a lien prior to entering into this Letter Agreement, to promptly take all necessary actions to remove such liens; and

vi. to provide at least equal priority to the needs of the Company in comparison to Vendor's other customers when Vendor recommences shipment of goods specified under the Prepetition Agreement.

9. To the extent applicable, nothing in this Letter Agreement shall require Vendor to take any action, or to refrain from taking any action, to the extent that doing so would be inconsistent with Vendor's fiduciary obligations as a member of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors under applicable law.

10. This Letter Agreement is not and shall not be deemed to be a solicitation for votes on a chapter 11 plan. The votes of the holders of claims against the Debtors will not be solicited until such holders who are entitled to vote have received the chapter 11 plan, the disclosure statement, and related solicitation materials, including the ballots. In addition, this Letter Agreement does not constitute an offer to issue or sell securities to any person or entity, or the solicitation of an offer to acquire or buy securities, in any jurisdiction where such offer or solicitation would be unlawful.

11. This Letter Agreement is not and shall not be deemed to constitute a promise of "assumption" of the Prepetition Agreement under the Bankruptcy Code. The Prepetition Agreement remains subject to assumption or rejection based on the final determination by the Company and/or any applicable purchaser in a sale and approval by the Bankruptcy Court.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the parties hereto have caused this Agreement to be executed by their respective duly authorized officers as of the date first above written.

FINAL ORDER (I) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO PAY PREPETITION CLAIMS OF CERTAIN CRITICAL VENDORS, FOREIGN VENDORS, 503(B)(9) CLAIMANTS, AND LIEN CLAIMANTS; (II) GRANTING ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE PRIORITY TO UNDISPUTED OBLIGATIONS ON ACCOUNT OF OUTSTANDING ORDERS; AND (III) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

The relief set forth on the following pages, numbered three (3) through twelve (12), is ORDERED.

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtor's tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. The location of the Debtors' service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094.

Upon the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Pay Prepetition Claims of Certain Critical Vendors, Foreign Vendors, 503(b)(9) Claimants, and Lien Claimants; (II) Granting Administrative Expense Priority to Undisputed Obligations on Account of Outstanding Orders; and (III) Granting Related Relief (the "Motion"),[2] of the above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors"), for entry of a final order (this "Final Order") (a) authorizing the Debtors to pay, in the ordinary course of business, prepetition amounts owing on account of (i) Critical Vendor Claims, (ii) Foreign Vendor Claims, (iii) 503(b)(9) Claims, and (iv) Lien Claims; (b) authorizing the Debtors to, in exchange for payment of their prepetition claims as contemplated herein, require the applicable claimants to provide Customary Trade Terms for the postpetition procurement of goods and services; (c) granting administrative expense priority to undisputed and unsatisfied obligations on account of goods ordered by or services provided to the Debtors prior to the date hereof that will not be delivered until after the Petition Date and authorizing the Debtors to satisfy such obligations in the ordinary course of business; and (d) granting related relief, all as more fully set forth in the Motion; and upon the First Day Declaration; and the Court having jurisdiction to consider the Motion and the relief requested therein pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11 of the United States District Court for the District of New Jersey, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.); and this Court having found that venue of this proceeding and the Motion in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409; and this Court having found that it may enter a final order consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution; and this Court having found that the Debtors' notice of the Motion was appropriate under the circumstances and no other notice need be provided; and this Court having reviewed the Motion and having heard the statements in support of the relief requested therein at a hearing before this Court (the "Hearing"), if any; and this Court having determined that the legal and factual bases set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing, if any, establish just cause for the relief granted herein; and upon all of the proceedings had before the Court and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on a final basis as set forth herein.

2. Any objections to the entry of this Final Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

3. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order, any payment made or to be made by the Debtors pursuant to the authority granted herein, and any relief or authorization granted herein, shall be subject to, and in compliance with, any interim or final order (each, a "Financing Order") entered by the Court authorizing the Debtors to obtain postpetition financing and/or use cash collateral, including compliance with any budget (as defined in any Financing Order) in connection therewith and any other terms and conditions thereof. Nothing herein is intended to modify, alter, or waive, in any way, any terms, provisions, requirements, or restrictions of any Financing Order. To the extent there is any inconsistency between the terms of any Financing Order and the terms of this Final Order, or any action taken or proposed to be taken hereunder, the terms of any Financing Order and any budget thereunder shall control.

4. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, in their discretion in the ordinary course of business and the reasonable exercise of their business judgment, consistent with prepetition practices to honor, pay all or part of, and otherwise satisfy and discharge, on a case-by-case basis, the Trade Claims, subject, in the case of Foreign Vendor Claims and 503(b)(9) Claims, to paragraph five (5) below, without further order of the Court; provided that, as a condition to payment of any Lien Claim, the Debtors may require that the applicable Lien Claimant release any lien securing such Lien Claim and, to the extent such lien has been perfected, take all actions reasonably necessary to evidence the release of such lien. Subject in all respects to any Financing Order and any budget thereunder, the estimated allocations between Critical Vendor Claims and Lien Claims do not constitute separate category limits. To the extent permitted any Financing Order and any budget thereunder, the Debtors may apply amounts not required for Lien Claims to Critical Vendor Claims, and vice versa, without further order of the Court, provided that aggregate payments remain within the applicable combined amount permitted thereunder. Nothing herein modifies any Financing Order or any budget thereunder or increases the aggregate amount available. No claim may be paid more than once because it falls within more than one Trade Claim category.

5. Notwithstanding the general authorization to pay Trade Claims in this Final Order, the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay particular Foreign Vendor Claims and 503(b)(9) Claims on a case-by-case basis to preserve estate value, subject to any Financing Order, Financing Order documentation, and any budget thereunder. Before making any Foreign Vendor Claim payment or 503(b)(9) Claim Payment, the Debtors shall provide at least five (5) business days' advance written notice to the U.S. Trustee and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, identifying the proposed payee, amount, and basis for payment and its compliance with any Financing Order and any budget thereunder. If no written objection to such notice is filed with the Court and served on the Debtors within five (5) business days, the proposed Foreign Vendor Claim payment or 503(b)(9) Payment shall be deemed authorized under this Final Order without further order of the Court and paid.

6. All undisputed obligations related to the Outstanding Orders are granted administrative expense priority in accordance with section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Bankruptcy Code; provided, however, that the Debtors may terminate any outstanding orders prior to delivery, and any canceled orders are not afforded administrative priority.

7. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to pay all undisputed amounts relating to the Outstanding Orders in the ordinary course of business consistent with the parties' customary practices in effect prior to the Petition Date.

8. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to condition the payment of any Trade Claim upon the applicable Trade Claimant's written agreement (e-mail being sufficient) (a) to continue or recommence providing goods and/or services to the Debtors in accordance with the Customary Trade Terms at least as favorable to the Debtors as those in place during the twelve months prior to the Petition Date, or as otherwise agreed by the Debtors in their reasonable business judgment, (b) that such Trade Claimants shall not cancel any contract or agreement pursuant to which they provide goods or services to the Debtors, and (c) to support (and not take any action adverse to) the Debtors' restructuring process (including any proposed sale or chapter 11 plan proposed in these cases). The Debtors reserve the right to require additional favorable terms with any Trade Claimant as a condition to payment of any Trade Claim.

9. The Form Trade Agreement, substantially in the form attached hereto as Exhibit 1, is approved in its entirety, and the Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to negotiate, modify, or amend the Form Trade Agreement in their reasonable business judgment.

10. If any party accepts payment hereunder and does not continue supplying goods or services to the Debtors in accordance with trade terms at least as favorable to the Debtors as the Customary Trade Terms, then: (a) any payment on account of a prepetition claim received by such party shall be deemed, in the Debtors' sole discretion, an improper postpetition transfer and, therefore, immediately recoverable by the Debtors in cash upon written request by the Debtors; (b) upon recovery by the Debtors, any prepetition claim of such party shall be reinstated as if the payment had not been made; and (c) if there exists an outstanding postpetition balance due from the Debtors to such party, the Debtors may elect to recharacterize and apply any payment made pursuant to the relief requested by the Motion to such outstanding postpetition balance and such supplier or vendor will be required to repay to the Debtors such paid amounts that exceed the postpetition obligations then outstanding without the right of any setoffs, claims, provisions for payment of claims, or otherwise.

11. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to permit the setoff of any prepetition cash deposits held by a Trade Claimant against prepetition obligations. Solely for the purposes of determining compliance with the amounts set forth in the Motion, any payment of prepetition claims to a Trade Claimant by the Debtors shall be reduced by the amount of any prepetition deposit released to the Debtors in connection with such prepetition cash deposits.

12. Nothing in this Final Order shall prejudice the Debtors' right to request authority to pay additional amounts owed on account of Trade Claims, which right is expressly and fully reserved and preserved.

13. Any Trade Claimant that accepts payment from the Debtors on account of all or a portion of such party's claim pursuant to this Final Order shall be deemed to (a) agree to the terms and provisions of this Final Order and (b) have waived, to the extent so paid, Trade Claims of any type, kind, or priority (including any reclamation claim and any lien or security interest asserted on account of such claims), against the Debtors, their assets, and properties, and the assets and properties of their estates. No Trade Claimant shall be granted a lien on or security interest in any property of the Debtors' estates on account of any Trade Claim absent further order of the Court. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, prior to making any payment pursuant to this Final Order, the Debtors shall provide such Trade Claimant with a copy of this Final Order (unless previously provided to such Trade Claimant).

14. Nothing herein shall impair or prejudice the Debtors' ability to contest, in their sole discretion, the extent, perfection, priority, validity, or amounts of any claims held by any Trade Claimant. The Debtors do not concede that any claims satisfied pursuant to this Final Order are valid, and the Debtors expressly reserve all rights to contest the extent, validity, or perfection, or to seek the avoidance of all such liens or the priority, of such claims.

15. Notwithstanding the relief granted in this Final Order and any actions taken pursuant to such relief, nothing in this Final Order shall be deemed: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Final Order or the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion; (e) a request, approval, or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code (or otherwise affect the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code); (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors', or any other party in interest's, claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; (h) a concession by the Debtors that any liens (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) that may be satisfied pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion are valid, and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; or (i) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Any payment made pursuant to this Final Order is not intended and should not be construed as an admission as to the validity of any particular claim or a waiver of the Debtors' rights to subsequently dispute such claim.

16. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein and to the extent authorized by this Final Order.

17. Nothing herein shall impair or prejudice the rights of the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases, which are expressly reserved, to object to any payment made pursuant to this Final Order to an insider (as such term is defined in section 101(31) of the Bankruptcy Code), or an affiliate of an insider to the Debtors. To the extent the Debtors intend to make a payment to an insider or an affiliate of an insider of the Debtors, the Debtors shall, to the extent reasonably practical, provide three (3) calendar days' advance notice to, and opportunity to object by the U.S. Trustee, counsel to the respective Prepetition Agents, counsel to any agent under a postpetition financing facility, and counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these chapter 11 cases; provided that if any party objects to the payment, the Debtors shall not make such payment without further order of the Court.

18. The Debtors shall maintain a matrix/schedule of amounts directly or indirectly paid, subject to the terms and conditions of this Final Order, including the following information: (a) the names of the payee; (b) the amount of the payment; (c) the category or type of payment; (d) the total amount of the claim; (e) the date of payment; and (f) whether the payee has agreed in writing to the Customary Trade Terms. The Debtors shall provide a copy of such matrix/schedule to (a) the U.S. Trustee, (b) counsel to any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases, (c) Choate, Hall & Stewart LLP, counsel to the Prepetition ABL Agent, (d) Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, counsel to the Prepetition Term Loan Agent, and (e) Wollmuth Maher & Deutsch LLP, counsel to Mithaq Capital SPC as of fourteen (14) calendar days after entry of this Final Order, and as of the last day of each calendar month thereafter. Each such report shall be delivered within seven (7) calendar days after the relevant measurement date.

19. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Final Order.

20. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Final Order in accordance with the Motion.

21. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Final Order shall be effective and enforceable immediately upon entry hereof.

22. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

23. This Court retains jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Final Order.

Exhibit 1

NOTWITHSTANDING ANY PROVISION HEREIN, THE DEBTORS AND VENDOR ACKNOWLEDGE AND AGREE THAT THIS TRADE CLAIMANT LETTER AGREEMENT IS NOT AND SHALL NOT BE DEEMED TO BE AN OFFER WITH RESPECT TO ANY SECURITIES OR SOLICITATION OF VOTES FOR THE ACCEPTANCE OF A PLAN OF REORGANIZATION FOR PURPOSES OF SECTIONS 1125 AND 1126 OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE OR OTHERWISE. ANY SUCH OFFER OR SOLICITATION WILL BE MADE ONLY IN COMPLIANCE WITH ALL APPLICABLE SECURITIES LAWS AND PROVISIONS OF THE BANKRUPTCY CODE.

1. This Trade Claimant Letter Agreement (the "Letter Agreement"), dated as of [●], is by and between THE CHILDREN'S PLACE, INC. and certain of its affiliates (collectively, the "Debtors" or the "Company") and [●] ("Vendor" and, together with the Company, the "Parties").

2. As Vendor is aware, the Debtors filed voluntary petitions under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code (the "Bankruptcy Code") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Bankruptcy Court") on November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date").

3. The Company is continuing to work with its vendors during the chapter 11 cases and intends to pay vendors in full in the ordinary course for goods and services provided on or after the filing date; however, the Bankruptcy Code prohibits the Company from paying amounts owed on account of goods received and services rendered prior to the filing date without specific approval by the Bankruptcy Court. Pursuant to the attached order (the "Order") entered by the Bankruptcy Court, the Debtors have received authority to pay a limited amount of claims of certain vendors that qualify as "Trade Claimants," subject to such vendors' agreement in writing to be bound by certain terms. Specifically, the Order requires that prior to receiving a Trade Claimant's payment, a vendor must agree to continue providing goods and services to the Company in accordance with trade terms (including credit limits, pricing, timing of payments, availability, and other terms) that are at least as favorable to the Company as those in place during the twelve (12) months prior to the chapter 11 filing (the "Customary Trade Terms"), and, additionally, to support (and not take any action adverse to) the Debtors' restructuring process (including any proposed sale or chapter 11 plan proposed in the chapter 11 cases).

4. Any party that accepts payment from the Company on account of a Trade Claimant's claim is deemed to have agreed to the terms and provisions of the Order (subject to the modifications provided herein), including the Company's ability to recover any payment made on account of a prepetition claim in the event the Vendor does not continue supplying goods or services to the Company in accordance with Customary Trade Terms.

5. As Vendor is aware, debtor [●] and Vendor are party to a distribution agreement dated [●] (as subsequently amended, the "Prepetition Agreement"). Typically, vendors that are party to an agreement that existed prior to the filing, like the Prepetition Agreement, are not entitled to treatment as a Trade Claimant because the "automatic stay" provided under the Bankruptcy Code prevents such parties from refusing to perform due to the Company's inability to pay prepetition amounts.

6. Nevertheless, given the importance of the Company's relationship with Vendor and without waiving any rights to assert the applicability of the automatic stay, the Debtors have agreed to designate Vendor as a Trade Claimant pursuant to the Order for a portion of Vendor's prepetition claim, subject to Vendor's written agreement to the terms outlined in this Letter Agreement (the "Terms") which modify, in part, the terms of the Prepetition Agreement. Upon execution of this Letter Agreement, the Debtors shall issue (i) postpetition payments of $[●] owed to Vendor for billed postpetition balances due on account of goods shipped from the Petition Date through [●] within ten (10) business days of the Parties' execution of this Letter Agreement, (ii) postpetition payments of amounts owed to Vendor for shipments after [●], if any, on the first Friday that falls on or after fifteen (15) days after receiving an invoice in accordance with the Prepetition Agreement, and (iii) the amounts owed to Vendor, pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code, in the amount of [●] (the "Payment"), no later than five (5) business days after the Debtors consummate a sale of all or substantially all of the Debtors' assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code, or such other date as is mutually agreed upon by the Debtors and Vendor in writing. In the event that the Company fails to make a postpetition payment in accordance with this paragraph, Vendor's rights to request shorter credit terms are preserved.

7. Additionally, the Parties stipulate that the remaining prepetition amount on account of accounts receivable under the Prepetition Agreement after the Payment is $[●] (the "Agreed Prepetition Amount"). The Parties stipulate that the Agreed Prepetition Amount shall constitute an allowed prepetition general unsecured claim under section 502 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to prepetition amounts due on account of accounts receivable under the Prepetition Agreement, the full amount of which shall be allowed against each Debtor. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Vendor reserves all rights to assert other claims under the Prepetition Agreement, if any, and Debtors reserve any and all rights to challenge any such claims. The parties further agree that if the Company "assumes" the Prepetition Agreement and/or "assumes and assigns" the Prepetition Agreement to any purchaser under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code, the Agreed Prepetition Amount will be the total amount necessary to "cure" all "defaults" and "actual pecuniary losses" under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code or section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code related to prepetition amounts due on account of accounts receivable under the Prepetition Agreement. Subject to the terms hereof, Vendor waives all rights to challenge or object to such amount related to accounts receivable under the Prepetition Agreement in connection with assumption or assumption and assignment of the Prepetition Agreement pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise; provided, however, Vendor reserves its rights with respect to any other amounts unrelated to accounts receivable that may be required to "cure" all defaults under section 365(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code or section 1123 of the Bankruptcy Code and Debtors reserve any and all rights to challenge any such claims.

8. In exchange for the terms set forth above, Vendor agrees:

i. to provide goods and services to the Company on Customary Trade Terms, as modified herein, and, additionally, to support (and not take any action adverse to) the Debtors' restructuring process and chapter 11 cases (including, without limitation, any proposed actions involving the Debtors' operations, employees, or compensation arrangements, or any proposed sale of some or substantially all of the Debtors' assets);

ii. solely to the extent that the Bankruptcy Court enters an order approving a disclosure statement and solicitation materials as containing, among other things, "adequate information" as required by section 1125 of the Bankruptcy Code with respect to a chapter 11 plan that treats Vendor's claim in a manner that is at least equivalent to similarly situated trade vendors, (a) to vote or cause to be voted its claims to accept any such chapter 11 plan by delivering its duly executed and completed ballot or ballots, as applicable, accepting such plan on a timely basis following the commencement of the solicitation of the plan and its actual receipt of the solicitation materials and ballot and not change or withdraw such vote (or cause or direct such vote to be changed or withdrawn), and (b) to the extent it is permitted to elect whether to opt out of the releases set forth in any such chapter 11 plan, to provide, and to not opt-out of, the releases in such plan;

iii. not to separately seek payment from the Company on account of any prepetition claim (including, without limitation, any reclamation claim or any claim (other than the Payment) pursuant to section 503(b)(9) of the Bankruptcy Code) outside the terms of this Letter Agreement;

iv. not to file or otherwise assert against the Company, its assets, or any other person or entity, including the Company's customers, or any of their respective assets or property (real or personal), any lien, regardless of the statute or other legal authority upon which the lien is asserted, related in any way to any remaining prepetition amounts allegedly owed to Vendor by the Company arising from prepetition agreements or transactions;

v. to the extent Vendor has taken steps to file or assert such a lien prior to entering into this Letter Agreement, to promptly take all necessary actions to remove such liens; and

vi. to provide at least equal priority to the needs of the Company in comparison to Vendor's other customers when Vendor recommences shipment of goods specified under the Prepetition Agreement.

9. To the extent applicable, nothing in this Letter Agreement shall require Vendor to take any action, or to refrain from taking any action, to the extent that doing so would be inconsistent with Vendor's fiduciary obligations as a member of the Official Committee of Unsecured Creditors under applicable law.

10. This Letter Agreement is not and shall not be deemed to be a solicitation for votes on a chapter 11 plan. The votes of the holders of claims against the Debtors will not be solicited until such holders who are entitled to vote have received the chapter 11 plan, the disclosure statement, and related solicitation materials, including the ballots. In addition, this Letter Agreement does not constitute an offer to issue or sell securities to any person or entity, or the solicitation of an offer to acquire or buy securities, in any jurisdiction where such offer or solicitation would be unlawful.

11. This Letter Agreement is not and shall not be deemed to constitute a promise of "assumption" of the Prepetition Agreement under the Bankruptcy Code. The Prepetition Agreement remains subject to assumption or rejection based on the final determination by the Company and/or any applicable purchaser in a sale and approval by the Bankruptcy Court.

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtor's federal tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. The location of the Debtors' service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094.

DEBTORS' MOTION FOR ENTRY OF INTERIM AND FINAL ORDERS (I) AUTHORIZING THE DEBTORS TO ASSUME THE CONSULTING AGREEMENT; (II) AUTHORIZING AND APPROVING THE CONDUCT OF STORE CLOSING SALES AND THE RELATED SALE GUIDELINES, WITH SUCH SALES TO BE FREE AND CLEAR OF ALL LIENS, CLAIMS, AND ENCUMBRANCES; (III) MODIFYING CUSTOMER PROGRAMS AT THE CLOSING STORES; AND (IV) GRANTING RELATED RELIEF

The above-captioned debtors and debtors in possession (collectively, the "Debtors") state the following in support of this motion (this "Motion"):[2]

Relief Requested

1. The Debtors seek entry of interim and final orders, substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and Exhibit B (respectively, the "Interim Order" and "Final Order"): (a) authorizing, but not directing, the Debtors to assume and perform under that certain Consulting Agreement, dated as of November 3, 2026, made by and among The Children's Place, Inc., collectively with its subsidiaries other than TCP Brands, LLC and GYM-IPCO, LLC (collectively, the "Merchant"), on the one hand, and Tiger Capital Group, LLC ("Tiger Capital"), SB360 Capital Partners, LLC ("SB360"), and GA Retail Solutions, LLC ("GA") (each a "Consultant Party" and collectively, the "Consultant" and, together with the Merchant, each a "Party" and collectively, the "Parties"), on the other hand (as may be amended and supplemented from time to time), a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 1 to the Interim and Final Orders (the "Consulting Agreement"); (b) authorizing and approving the conduct of store closing sales pursuant to the Consulting Agreement and in accordance with the terms of the U.S. sale guidelines attached as Exhibit D-1 to the Consulting Agreement (the "U.S. Sale Guidelines") and the Canadian sale guidelines attached as

[2] A detailed description of the Debtors and their businesses, including the facts and circumstances giving rise to the Debtors' chapter 11 cases, is set forth in the Declaration of Rudolph Morando, Co-Chief Restructuring Officer of the Debtors, in Support of Debtors' Chapter 11 Petitions and First Day Motions (the "First Day Declaration"), filed contemporaneously herewith. Capitalized terms used but not defined in this Motion have the meanings ascribed to them in the First Day Declaration or Consulting Agreement, as applicable.

Exhibit D-2 to the Consulting Agreement (the "Canadian Sale Guidelines," and together with the U.S. Sale Guidelines, the "Sale Guidelines") at the Merchant's retail stores in the United States and Canada (the stores located in the U.S. under the Consulting Agreement, the "U.S. Closing Stores," and the stores located in Canada under the Consulting Agreement, the "Canadian Closing Stores," and together, the "Closing Stores"), which store closing sales shall include the sale of inventory currently held at the Debtors' distribution center, warehouses, and storage facilities included in the Sale thereunder (the "Warehouses"), sales made through the Merchant's e-commerce site (the "E-Commerce Platform") and through certain wholesale marketplaces, with sales of Store Closure Assets (as defined herein) made free and clear of all liens, claims, and encumbrances, or other interests (collectively, "Encumbrances") because one or more of the standards set force in section 363(f)(1)–(5) of the Bankruptcy Code have been satisfied and all such Encumbrances will attach to the proceeds from such sales with the same validity and priority and to the same extent and in the same amount that any such Encumbrances had immediately prior to the sale (collectively, the "Sales" or "Store Closings"); (c) approving modifications to certain customer programs at the Closing Stores, including programs related to the acceptance of gift cards; and (d) granting related relief. In addition, the Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing on this Motion within twenty-five (25) days after the Petition Date (as defined herein).

Jurisdiction and Venue

2. The United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey (the "Court") has jurisdiction over this matter pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 157 and 1334 and the Standing Order of Reference to the Bankruptcy Court Under Title 11, entered July 23, 1984, and amended on June 6, 2025 (Bumb, C.J.). The Debtors confirm their consent to the Court's entry of a final order in connection with this Motion to the extent that it is later determined that the Court, absent consent of the parties, cannot enter final orders or judgments in connection herewith consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

3. Venue is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.

4. The bases for the relief requested herein are sections 105, 363, 365, and 554 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101–1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code"), rules 2002(a), 6003, and 6004 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the "Bankruptcy Rules"), and rules 9013-2 and 9013-5 of the Local Rules of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of New Jersey, dated August 1, 2025 (the "Bankruptcy Local Rules").

Background

5. Founded in 1969 and headquartered in Secaucus, New Jersey, the Debtors own and operate a specialty retailer of children's apparel, accessories, and footwear, operating under The Children's Place and Gymboree brands. The Debtors design and source products through third-party manufacturers and sell them at value prices for babies, toddlers, and children. The Debtors reach customers through two digital storefronts, retail stores in North America, and wholesale marketplaces, including Amazon, a key customer acquisition channel. Internationally, various franchise and wholesale partners distribute the Debtors' products in thirteen countries, generating product sales and royalty revenue for the Debtors.

6. On November 8, 2026 (the "Petition Date"), each Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors have also filed a motion requesting procedural consolidation and joint administration of these chapter 11 cases pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 1015(b). The Debtors are operating their business and managing their properties as debtors in possession pursuant to sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Bankruptcy Code. No request for the appointment of a trustee or examiner has been made in these chapter 11 cases and no official committees have been appointed or designated

I. The Store Closings.

7. As further described in the First Day Declaration, the Debtors have recently faced a challenging commercial environment. Specifically, the Debtors have faced significant headwinds in the last few years, including declining customer demand in the value-oriented children's apparel segment, persistent cost inflation, elevated tariffs on imported goods, and intensified competitive and promotional pressure from both traditional retailers and e-commerce entrants. These pressures have driven a sustained decline in net sales and profitability.

8. Prior to the Petition Date, with the help of its investment banker Cascadia, the Debtors ran an extensive sales process that explored several value-maximizing transactions.[3] This process continues and the Debtors are in advanced discussions with various parties regarding a variety of transaction structures, including various transactions involving the Debtors' intellectual property, retail footprint, and real estate assets (or a combination of the foregoing), however, the Debtors, in their business judgment, decided in late October that initiating store closing sales in early November – to limit expenses and to capture the full extent of the holiday season – was in the best interest of the estates. On November 3, 2026, the Debtors executed the Consulting Agreement with the Consultant with the support of their prepetition secured lenders so that they could begin store closing sales at all of their remaining store locations, while maintaining the flexibility under the Consulting Agreement to pivot to a going-concern sale for some or all of the stores and related assets if a viable bidder emerges. Subject to a three-day prior notice period to Consultant, the Debtors may pause or discontinue Store Closings at such stores that become subject to such a sale pursuant to the terms of the Consulting Agreement. Store Closings commenced on November 6, 2026 and are expected to continue throughout these chapter 11 cases absent a going-concern sale of some or all of the Company's remaining stores and assets. Pursuant to the terms of the Consulting Agreement, the Consultant is currently liquidating any remaining Debtor-owned inventory and will liquidate furniture, fixtures, and equipment ("FF&E") at the Closing Stores. The proceeds and eventual labor cost savings from these Store Closings are expected to provide the Debtors with much needed liquidity and will help fund the administrative costs and creditor recoveries in these chapter 11 cases.

[3] This marketing process and the contemplated post-petition sales process is described in further detail in the First Day Declaration and Debtors' Motion for Entry of an Order (I) Approving the Bidding Procedures and Stalking Horse Bid Protections, (II) Scheduling Certain Dates and Deadlines with Respect Thereto, (III) Approving the Form and Manner of Notice Thereof, (IV) Establishing Notice and Procedures for the Assumption and Assignment of Contracts and Leases, (V) Authorizing the Assumption and Assignment of Assumed Contracts, (VI) Authorizing the Sale of Assets, and (VII) Granting Related Relief filed concurrently herewith.

9. The Debtors propose to pursue Sales in Canada as well. Debtor The Children's Place, Inc., in its capacity as proposed foreign representative, will shortly commence an ancillary proceeding in Canada (the "Canadian Proceedings") on behalf of the Debtors' estates under Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the "CCAA") before the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) (the "Canadian Court") to seek recognition of these chapter 11 cases as a "foreign main proceeding" under the applicable provisions of the CCAA in order to, among other things, (a) protect the Debtors' assets and operations in Canada and obtain a stay of proceedings with respect to landlords and other creditors that may have remedies in connection with the Debtors' chapter 11 filing, and (b) support a potential going-concern sale. The Debtors will also seek recognition of the Interim Order and the Final Order by the Canadian Court in the Canadian Proceedings pursuant to section 49 of the CCAA.

II. The Consultant.

10. The Debtors retained the Consultant pursuant to the Consulting Agreement to conduct the Store Closings and Sales. The Consultant has significant expertise and experience in this capacity in both in- and out-of-court store closing sales for businesses, merchandise, furniture, fixtures and equipment, and store operations that are substantially similar to those of the Debtors.

11. The Debtors hired the Consultant after careful consideration of available alternatives and in consultation with their advisors and restructuring committee. Based on their limited liquidity and lack of actionable going concern bids obtained through the prepetition marketing process, the Debtors concluded in their business judgment that (a) the services of the Consultant are necessary (i) for a seamless and efficient large-scale closing process, as contemplated by this Motion and the Consulting Agreement, and (ii) to maximize the value of the saleable inventory located in the Closing Stores and the Warehouses (as defined in the Consulting Agreement, the "Merchandise") and the associated FF&E (Merchandise and FF&E, collectively, the "Store Closure Assets"), and (b) the Consultant is qualified and capable of performing the required tasks set forth in the Consulting Agreement in a value-maximizing manner. The Consultant should be allowed to continue its work as described herein uninterrupted in the efficient, controlled manner contemplated in the Consulting Agreement that will maximize value for the Debtors' estates.

12. Assumption of the Consulting Agreement will allow the Debtors to continue the Store Closings across their lease portfolio which is critical for the Debtors to efficiently administer their estates during the pendency of these chapter 11 cases.

III. The Consulting Agreement.

13. Pursuant to the Consulting Agreement, the Consultant will serve as an independent consultant to the Debtors in connection with the sale of the Store Closure Assets.[4] The chart below summarizes the material terms of the Consulting Agreement.[5]

TERM	CONSULTING AGREEMENT
Services Provided by Consultant	2.1 Merchant hereby retains Consultant and Consultant hereby agrees to serve as an independent consultant to Merchant to conduct the Sale and provide the other services, in each case as set forth herein. With respect to the Sale, Consultant shall serve as Merchant's sole and exclusive consultant relative thereto throughout the Sale Term, it being understood, for the avoidance of doubt, that the foregoing shall not preclude Merchant and its affiliates from selling any merchandise, furniture, fixtures (trade or other) and/or equipment through Amazon independently from Consultant prior to the Bankruptcy Case filing (or following the filing of the Bankruptcy Case, (a) with the consent of the [Prepetition Agents] (it being understood and agreed that such consent shall be deemed to have been given if the [Prepetition Agents] have not affirmatively rejected such terms within 48 hours of receipt of such terms) or (b) in the event that the board of directors of The Children's Place, Inc. determines in good faith after consultation with outside counsel that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with their fiduciary duties under applicable law), and provided that such exclusivity is consistent with Merchant's obligations under its other contracts in effect as of the date hereof, including (i) the Distribution and License Agreement between The Children's Place Services Company, LLC ("TCPSC") and Children's Apparel Network Ltd. dated November 19, 2025 (as amended) and (ii) the Authorization Letter between TCPSC and Network 360 Global, Inc. dated October 31, 2025 (and all related agreements thereunder). Following the filing of the Bankruptcy Case, Consultant shall not sell any merchandise, furniture, fixtures (trade or other) and/or equipment through Amazon without first obtaining the prior written consent of the [Prepetition Agents] (as defined herein) to the economic terms of such sale (it being understood and agreed that such consent shall be deemed to have been given if the [Prepetition Agents] have not affirmatively rejected such terms within 48 hours of receipt of such terms). 2.2 On the terms and conditions set forth herein, commencing as of the Sale Commencement Date, Consultant shall provide Merchant with the following Services with respect to the conduct of the Sale, using commercially reasonable efforts to maximize the Gross Proceeds and complying at all times with the Sale Guidelines, applicable law, court orders and, in each case, subject to any further directions with respect to the Sale given by Merchant at any time until the end of the Sale Term:

[4] The Consultant has informed the Debtors that it has syndicated the Consulting Agreement to Hilco Merchant Resources, LLC and Gordon Brothers Retail Partners, LLC pursuant to section 12.6 of the Consulting Agreement, such that the term "Consultant Party" shall be deemed to apply to each such party and the term "Consultant" shall be deemed to include such party.

[5] The following summary chart is for the convenience of the Court and parties in interest. To the extent there is any conflict between this summary and the Consulting Agreement, the Consulting Agreement shall govern in all respects. Capitalized terms used but not defined in the following summary shall have the meaning ascribed to them in the Consulting Agreement.

	(a) provide qualified, full-time Supervisors to assist Merchant in conducting the Sale as further described in Section 2.3 below; (b) oversee the Sale of the Merchandise from the Stores and the Warehouses, which for the avoidance of doubt shall, to the extent requested by Merchant, include the effectuation of the Sale through e-commerce channels in accordance with Section 16 hereof; (c) recommend and implement appropriate advertising to effectively sell the Merchandise during the Sale Term, consistent with the applicable sale theme agreed to with Merchant; (d) recommend appropriate pricing, display and discounting of Merchandise, as well as recommend appropriate staffing levels for the Stores (including Store Employees), in each case subject to Merchant's prior approval; (e) assist Merchant in connection with loss prevention, as appropriate; (f) determine the applicable permits and governmental approvals necessary to conduct the Sale, and work with Merchant to obtain each in a timely and orderly fashion and prepare or cause to be prepared all forms necessary to assist in Merchant's securing any applicable permits and governmental approvals necessary to conduct the Sale, the costs and expenses of which shall be paid by Merchant within the Consultant Expense Budget or a supplemental budget approved by Merchant in advance; (g) maintain the confidentiality of all non-public information regarding Merchant received by Consultant or any representative thereof under or in connection with this Agreement (all of which is agreed to constitute "Confidential Information" for purposes of the Applicable Confidentiality Agreement (as defined below)) in accordance with the provisions of the applicable confidentiality agreements, dated October 6, 2026 with GA Retail Solutions, LLC, October 7, 2026 with Tiger Capital Group, LLC and October 8, 2026 with SB360 Capital Partners, LLC, each signed by The Children's Place, Inc. on the one hand, and the applicable Consultant Party on the other hand (each, an "Applicable Confidentiality Agreement"), each of which shall survive this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Consultant shall use Merchant's and customer data solely for the Services, maintain reasonable security safeguards, promptly notify Merchant of unauthorized access or disclosure, and return Merchant's data and customer data on request or conclusion of the Sale, subject to confidential archival retention required by law or for reconciliation, and shall comply with all applicable privacy laws in respect of any personal information of Merchant's customers or employees; provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Consultant shall not, to the extent practicable under the circumstances and permitted under applicable laws, have access to customer personal identifiable information; and (h) provide, for no additional consideration, such other related services deemed necessary or prudent by Merchant and Consultant, acting reasonably, under the circumstances giving rise to the Sale. 2.3 In connection with the Sale, Consultant shall directly retain and engage the Supervisors. Each Supervisor shall be an independent contractor engaged by Consultant and not be and shall not be deemed to be an employee or agent of Merchant in any manner whatsoever; and it is understood and agreed that no Supervisor shall have or be deemed to have any relationship with Merchant by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise which creates any liability or responsibility on behalf of Merchant for any Supervisor. In consideration of Consultant's engagement of the Supervisors, Merchant shall pay Consultant, as a Sale Expense, the budgeted amounts for Supervisors' services, out-of-pocket travel costs and deferred compensation based on the results of the Sale (collectively, the "Supervisor Costs"), which amount shall not exceed the amount budgeted therefor in the Consultant Expense Budget without the prior written consent of Merchant.

Term of Sale	1.7 "Sale Term" shall mean, with respect to each Store, Warehouse and the E-Commerce Platform, the period of time beginning with the Sale Commencement Date and ending on such Store, E-Commerce Platform or Warehouse's Sale Termination Date. 1.8 "Sale Termination Date" shall mean February 28, 2027, unless (i) an earlier date is notified by Merchant to Consultant or (ii) such date is extended by agreement among Merchant, Consultant and the [Prepetition Agents] (it being understood that any additional Sale Expenses beyond the Consultant Expense Budget arising from an extension of the Sale Term shall be subject to mutual agreement).
Expenses of Consultant	3.1 In connection with the Sale, Merchant shall be responsible for the payment of all expenses incurred in operating the Stores, the E-Commerce Platform and the Warehouses and conducting the Sale, including all Sale Expenses (to the extent included in the Consultant Expense Budget), subject to Section 15. All Sale Expenses shall be set forth on the Consultant Expense Budget which may only be amended with mutual agreement of Consultant and Merchant. Any Sale Expenses incurred by Consultant in excess of the Consultant Expense Budget without the prior written consent of Merchant shall be the sole responsibility of Consultant. Consultant shall not be entitled to any reimbursement from Merchant of any costs or expenses incurred under or in connection with this Agreement that is not included in the Consultant Expense Budget (which such reimbursements shall be limited to the amounts set forth in the Consultant Expense Budget). 3.2 As an advance against Sale Expenses and to secure payment of the same, upon execution of this Agreement, Merchant shall pay Consultant a deposit towards the Consultant Expense Budget in the amount of $3,140,000 (the "Deposit"), which shall be applied against Sale Expenses, the FF&E Fee, the FF&E Expenses or the Base Fee (as defined below) at the end of the Sale Term with respect to all Stores, Warehouses and the E-Commerce Platform and to the extent not expended shall be returned to the Merchant as part of the Final Reconciliation or such other time that Merchant and Consultant mutually agree.
Compensation for Consultant	4.1 Consultant shall be entitled to a base fee equal to two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the Gross Proceeds generated from the sale of the Merchandise through the Stores and Warehouses (including to the extent any such channels are agreed by Merchant, the e-commerce channels operated by Consultant but excluding for the avoidance of doubt Amazon or any other e-commerce channels operated independently from Consultant) during the Sale (the "Base Fee"); provided, however that notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in no event shall Consultant be entitled to earn any Base Fee with respect to merchandise, furniture, fixtures (trade or other) and/or equipment that is sold through Amazon (whether sold through Consultant's efforts or otherwise) pursuant to purchase orders placed before the filing of the Bankruptcy Case (and the same shall be deemed not to be "Merchandise"). The Base Fee due to Consultant shall be paid weekly from the proceeds of the Sale after it is earned as provided below. For the avoidance of doubt, no Base Fee is payable on assets that do not constitute Merchandise or which are otherwise withdrawn from the Sale or are otherwise sales outside the Stores or the Warehouses (or to the extent any such channels are agreed by Merchant, the e-commerce channels operated by Consultant), and any disposition or sale of (or fees or consideration for the disposition or sale of) accounts receivable, intellectual property or real estate (or the provision of real estate services), if any, would require a separate written agreement with Merchant.

Conduct of Sale; Other Sale Matters	2.6 With respect to the Stores, Warehouses and (solely after November 7, 2026) E-Commerce Platform, Consultant may advertise the Sale as a "going out of business", "store closing", "everything must go", "sale on everything", or similar themed sale; provided, that prior to November 7, 2026, Consultant may only advertise the Sale as conducted through the E-Commerce Platform as an "inventory blowout" or similar themed sale and not for the avoidance of doubt as a "going out of business", "store closing", "everything must go", "sale on everything", or similar themed sale. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or in the Sale Guidelines, all advertising and signage (including interior and exterior signage, banners and sign walkers, and any signage, including any signage relating to "store closing", "everything must go", "inventory blowout" or similarly themed sales) relating to the Sale (including through the E-Commerce Platform) shall be subject to the reasonable approval in advance of Merchant. 14.1 Consultant shall sell the furnishings, trade fixtures, equipment and improvements to real property owned by Merchant that are located in the Stores, the corporate and other offices of Merchant, and (solely after January 31, 2027) the Warehouses (collectively, "FF&E") for Merchant's benefit, for a commission equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the gross proceeds (net of applicable sales and other taxes from the sale of such FF&E (the "FF&E Fee"), plus reimbursement of Consultant's actual, reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the sale of such assets (the "FF&E Expenses"), pursuant to a budget established by mutual agreement between Merchant and Consultant, provided that Consultant shall not sell any FF&E necessary for the operation of the E-Commerce Platform or located at the Owned Distribution Center or at any corporate office until Merchant provides its written approval, and shall ensure that FF&E sales with respect to all Stores and Warehouses and the E-Commerce Platform are effected in a manner that is not disruptive to the execution of the Sale. If requested in writing by Merchant, Consultant shall cease any and all FF&E sales as promptly as practicable and in any event within three days.
Insurance Obligations	11.1 Merchant shall maintain throughout the Sale Term liability insurance policies (including, but not limited to, product liability, comprehensive public liability insurance and auto liability insurance), consistent with its existing coverage, covering injuries to persons and property in or in connection with Merchant's operation of the Stores and the Warehouses and with respect to the E-Commerce Platform (as applicable), and shall cause Consultant to be an additional insured with respect to all applicable policies. Merchant shall be responsible for the payment of all deductibles, self-insurance and other amounts payable in connection with any claim asserted under such policies, except for any claims arising directly from the negligence, willful misconduct or unlawful acts of Consultant or its employees, representatives, agents or Supervisors or Temporary Employees. 11.2 Consultant shall maintain throughout the Sale Term liability insurance policies (including, but not limited to, product liability, comprehensive public liability insurance and auto liability insurance) covering injuries to persons and property in or in connection with Consultant's provision of services at the Stores, and shall cause Merchant to be an additional insured with respect to applicable policies.

Indemnification by Consultant	9.1 Consultant shall indemnify and hold harmless Merchant and its affiliates and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and independent contractors (collectively, "Merchant Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all claims, causes of action, demands, penalties, losses, liability, damage or other obligations, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (collectively, "Losses"), resulting from or arising out of: (i) Consultant's material breach of or failure to comply with any of its agreements, covenants, representations or warranties contained herein or in any written agreement entered into in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; (ii) any claims by any party engaged by Consultant as an employee or independent contractor (including Supervisors) arising out of such engagement (including any payroll claims, wage claims, claims for taxes or other amounts required to be withheld, or unemployment compensation claims, or claims for harassment or any other unlawful, tortious or otherwise actionable treatment); (iii) any harassment or any other unlawful, tortious or otherwise actionable treatment of any employees, contractors, customers or representatives of any Merchant Indemnified Party by Consultant or any of its affiliates, or any of their respective representatives, including any Supervisor ("Harassment Claims"); (iv) any consumer warranty or products liability claims relating to Additional Goods; (v) any amounts related to sales taxes for Additional Goods; and (vi) the fraud, gross negligence (including omissions) or willful misconduct of Consultant or any Supervisor, or any of their respective affiliates, or their or their respective affiliates' officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives under or in connection with this Agreement or otherwise in connection with the Sale. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9.1, Consultant does not indemnify or hold harmless any Merchant Indemnified Party from or against any Loss resulting from or related to or which otherwise arise out of or in connection with the fraud, gross negligence (including omissions) or willful misconduct of Merchant or any of its affiliates, or its or their respective affiliates' officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives or Merchant's breach of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Losses" shall exclude (x) punitive or exemplary damages, (y) any damages that are speculative or whose existence or amount cannot be established with reasonable certainty and (z) any indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages (including lost profits) except to the extent reasonably foreseeable as a natural probable consequence of the matter giving rise to the applicable claim, except in case of clause (x) and clause (z) to the extent paid by the applicable indemnified Party in connection with a third party claim.
Indemnification by Merchant	10.4 Merchant shall indemnify and hold harmless Consultant and its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and independent contractors (collectively, "Consultant Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Losses resulting from or arising out of: (i) Merchant's material breach of or failure to comply with any of its agreements, covenants, representations or warranties contained herein or in any written agreement entered into in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; (ii) except in respect of Additional Goods, any failure by Merchant to pay when due any sales taxes to the proper taxing authorities, to properly file with any taxing authorities any reports or documents required by applicable law to be filed in respect thereof, or to pay any amounts due pursuant to Section 10.1 hereof; (iii) any claims by any party engaged by Merchant as an employee or independent contractor (including Store Employees) arising out of such engagement (including any payroll claims, wage claims, claims for taxes or other amounts required to be withheld, unemployment compensation claims or claims by employees arising under workers' compensation or the WARN Act), other than (A) Harassment Claims or (B) claims arising from (1) the fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct of Consultant or any of its affiliates or any of their representatives (including for the avoidance of doubt any Supervisor or Temporary Employee) or (2) Consultant's breach of this Agreement; (iv) any liability or other claims, including, without limitation, any consumer warranty or products liability claims asserted by customers against Consultant or any Consultant Indemnified Party with respect to the Merchandise or FF&E, except claims arising from (A) the fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct of Consultant or any of its affiliates or any of their representatives or (B) Consultant's breach of this Agreement; (v) any harassment or any other unlawful, tortious, or otherwise actionable treatment of any employees, contractors, customers or representatives of any Consultant Indemnified Party by Merchant or any of its affiliates, or any of their respective representatives; (vi) the fraud, gross negligence (including omissions) or willful misconduct of Merchant or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives under or in connection with this Agreement or otherwise in connection with the Sale; and (vii) any liability or other claims arising out of liens, claims, interests and encumbrances asserted against the Merchandise or FF&E by any third parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10.4, Merchant does not indemnify and hold harmless any Consultant Indemnified Party from or against any Loss resulting from or related to or which otherwise arise out of or in connection with the fraud, gross negligence (including omissions) or willful misconduct of Consultant or any Supervisor, or any of their respective affiliates, or their or their respective affiliates' officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives or Consultant's breach of this Agreement.

Additional Goods	13.1 After the Sale Commencement Date, upon the express prior written consent of Merchant with respect to each applicable Store, Consultant may deliver, at Consultant's sole cost and expense, to any Store certain items of merchandise (the "Additional Goods") of like kind and quality to the Merchandise in the Stores to be sold during the Sale. Merchant acknowledges that Consultant may discuss acquiring Additional Goods for the Sale with existing vendors of Merchant as well as Consultant's sources. 13.2 Consultant and Merchant intend that the transactions relating to the Additional Goods are, and shall be, construed as, a true consignment from Consultant to the Merchant in all respects and not a consignment for security purposes. Subject solely to Consultant's obligations to pay to the Merchant the Additional Goods Fee (as defined below), at all times and for all purposes the Additional Goods and their proceeds shall be the exclusive property of the Consultant, and no other person or entity shall have any claim against any of the Additional Goods or the Additional Goods Proceeds, including the Lenders other than as to the Additional Goods Fee payable to Merchant. The Merchant acknowledges that the Additional Goods shall be consigned to the Merchant as a true consignment under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. The Lenders shall not be granted any liens on the Additional Goods or the Additional Goods Proceeds (other than the Additional Goods Fee payable to Merchant) in any financing or cash collateral order entered by the Bankruptcy Court. 13.3 Consultant shall utilize distinct SKUs or other means to distinguish the Additional Goods from Merchandise at the Stores. The process shall be mutually acceptable to the Parties. Merchant shall collect all actual proceeds from sales of Additional Goods ("Additional Goods Proceeds") and distribute those proceeds to Consultant, less a fee to Merchant equal to six and one-half percent (6.5%) of Additional Goods Proceeds (the "Additional Goods Fee"), and less the applicable sales taxes from sales of Additional Goods, as part of the weekly reconciliation hereunder. Merchant shall collect applicable sales taxes from sales of Additional Goods at the point of sale and Merchant shall have full responsibility for the payment of such sales taxes to the appropriate taxing authorities in accordance with the applicable law, as well as in preparing and processing all reporting forms, certificates, reports and other documentation required in connection with the payment of such taxes. 13.4 Subject to Merchant's consent, Consultant may make arrangements for the purchase of Additional Goods from Consultant's suppliers of goods as well as Merchant's existing suppliers of goods in a manner that is not disruptive to the Sale or Merchant's business relationships with such persons. To assist Consultant in that regard, from and after the date of this Agreement and solely on a non-binding basis without any liability to Merchant in connection therewith, Merchant shall, if requested by Consultant in writing, use Merchant's commercially reasonable efforts to assist Consultant with its efforts to negotiate orders with Merchant's suppliers for goods that Consultant is interested in purchasing as Additional Goods. 13.5 Immediately following the Sale Termination Date, Consultant shall remove, at its sole cost and expense, the remaining Additional Goods, if any, from the Stores. As part of the Final Reconciliation, Consultant and Merchant shall jointly prepare a final reconciliation of the sale of Additional Goods, consisting of a summary of Additional Goods Proceeds and any sales taxes paid in respect thereto. During the Sale, and until the Final Reconciliation is complete and all obligations under this Agreement have been satisfied, Merchant and Consultant shall have reasonable access to review and audit each other's records with respect to Additional Goods Proceeds and sales taxes related thereto. The Parties shall cooperate in good faith to resolve any disputes regarding such reconciliation. Upon completion of the Final Reconciliation, the Parties shall pay any remaining amounts necessary to give effect to the Additional Goods Fee under Section 13.3. 13.6. Consultant shall use its reasonable best efforts to ensure that sales of Additional Goods do not cannibalize sales of Merchandise.

IV. The Sale Guidelines.

14. The Debtors also seek approval of the Sale Guidelines attached to the Consulting Agreement, which are streamlined procedures to sell the Store Closure Assets. The U.S. Sale Guidelines are substantially similar to sale guidelines approved in other retail bankruptcies in this district. The Debtors also seek approval of the Sale Guidelines to provide newspapers, other traditional advertising media, digital marketplaces, and other digital marketing and advertising platforms in which the Sales may be advertised with comfort that the Debtors are conducting the Sales in compliance with applicable law and with the Court's approval. The Debtors seek interim approval of the Sale Guidelines to allow the continuation and commencement of the Sales at the Closing Stores.

15. The U.S. Sale Guidelines are substantially similar to liquidation sale guidelines that have been approved by this Court and others across the country. The Canadian Sale Guidelines are similar to the U.S. Sale Guidelines, but they have been tailored for relief customary in Canada.

Consistent with the Consulting Agreement, the Canadian Sale Guidelines and the orders of the Canadian Court will govern the Sales at the Canadian Closing Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada upon their approval by the Canadian Court in connection with the recognition of the Interim Order and the Final Order in the Canadian Proceedings.

16. The U.S. Sale Guidelines contain many standard terms. For example, during the Sales, conspicuous signs will be posted in each of the affected stores to the effect that all sales are "final." The Debtors will keep store premises and surrounding areas clear and orderly, consistent with past practices.

17. After discussions with the Consultant and their advisors, the Debtors believe that the Sale Guidelines will provide the best and most efficient means of selling the Store Closure Assets in order to maximize their value to the estates.

V. Liquidation Sale Laws and Dispute Resolution Procedures.

18. Certain jurisdictions in which the Debtors operate stores have or may have licensing or other requirements governing the conduct of store closing, liquidation, or other inventory clearance sales, including, without limitation, state, provincial, and local laws, statutes, rules, regulations, and ordinances (collectively, the "Liquidation Sale Laws"). The Liquidation Sale Laws may establish licensing, permitting, or bonding requirements, waiting periods, time limits, bulk sale restrictions, and augmentation limitations that would otherwise apply to the Store Closings. Such requirements would hamper the Consultant's ability to sell the Store Closure Assets in an efficient manner necessary to maximize value. Subject to the Court's approval, the Debtors intend to conduct the Store Closings in accordance with the Sale Guidelines, and to the extent such guidelines conflict with the Liquidation Sale Laws, the Sale Guidelines shall control.

19. To resolve any disputes that may arise between the Debtors and any Governmental Units (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) due to the U.S. Sale Guidelines and the alleged applicability of any Liquidation Sale Laws in an orderly fashion, the Debtors request that the Court authorize the Debtors to implement the following dispute resolution procedures (the "Dispute Resolution Procedures"), as set forth in the Interim and Final Orders (provided that, subject to recognition of the Interim Order and the Final Order by the Canadian Court, the Dispute Resolution Procedures shall not apply with respect to the conduct of the Sales of the Store Closure Assets in Canadian Closing Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada, the Canadian Sale Guidelines or the Debtors' property in Canada, and any such disputes shall be resolved by the Canadian Court):

i. Provided that the Sales are conducted in accordance with the Interim Order, any Final Order, and the U.S. Sale Guidelines, the Debtors, the Consultant, and the Debtors' landlords shall be deemed to be in compliance with any requirements of all county, provincial, parish, or municipal or other local government (hereinafter referred to as "Local") and state Liquidation Sale Laws establishing licensing or permitting requirements, waiting periods or time limits, or bulk sale restrictions that would otherwise apply to the Sales and sales of the Store Closure Assets of any state or local Governmental Unit (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code); provided, that the term "Liquidation Sale Laws" shall be deemed not to include any public health or safety laws (collectively, the "Safety Laws"), and the Debtors and the Consultant shall continue to be required to comply, as applicable, with such Safety Laws and laws of general applicability, including, without limitation, Safety Laws, criminal, tax (including, but not limited to the collection of Sales Taxes), labor, employment, environmental, antitrust, fair competition, traffic and consumer protection laws, including consumer laws regulating deceptive practices and false advertising, consumer protection, the sale of gift certificates, layaway programs, return of goods, express or implied warranties of goods, and "weights and measure" regulation and monitoring (collectively "General Laws"), subject to any applicable provision of the Bankruptcy Code and federal law, and nothing in the Interim Order or Final Order shall be deemed to bar Governmental Units (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) or public officials from enforcing Safety Laws or General Laws.

ii. Within five business days after entry of the Interim Order, the Debtors will serve by first-class mail copies of the Interim Order, the proposed Final Order, the Consulting Agreement, and the U.S. Sale Guidelines on the following: (a) the Attorney General's office for each state where the Sales are being held; (b) the county consumer protection agency or similar agency for each county where the Sales are being held; (c) the division of consumer protection for each state where the Sales are being held; and (d) the landlords for the Closing Stores iii. To the extent that there is a dispute arising from or relating to the Sales, the Order, the Consulting Agreement, or the U.S. Sale Guidelines, which dispute relates to any Liquidation Sale Laws (a "Reserved Dispute"), the Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to resolve the Reserved Dispute. Any time within ten (10) days following entry of the Interim Order, any Governmental Unit may assert that a Reserved Dispute exists by sending a notice (the "Dispute Notice") explaining the nature of the dispute to: (a) proposed co-counsel to the Debtors, (i) White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020, Attn. Gregory F. Pesce (gregory.pesce@whitecase.com), Andrew F. O'Neill (aoneill@whitecase.com), Amanda Parra Criste (aparracriste@whitecase.com), and Varoon Sachdev (varoon.sachdev@whitecase.com) and (ii) Cole Schotz P.C., Court Plaza North, 25 Main Street, Hackensack, New Jersey 07601, Attn. Michael D. Sirota (msirota@coleschotz.com), Warren A. Usatine (wusatine@coleschotz.com), Seth Van Aalten (svanaalten@coleschotz.com), Justin R. Alberto (jalberto@coleschotz.com), and Daniel J. Harris (dharris@coleschotz.com); and (b) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey, One Newark Center, Suite 2100, Newark, New Jersey 07102, Attn. Fran B. Steele (fran.b.steele@usdoj.gov) and Aiden Murphy (aiden.murphy@usdoj.gov), and the Debtors shall advise the Consultant thereof forthwith. If the Debtors and the Governmental Unit are unable to resolve the Reserved Dispute within fifteen days after service of the notice, the Governmental Unit may file a motion with the Court requesting that the Court resolve the Reserved Dispute (a "Dispute Resolution Motion").

(other than the Canadian Closing Stores) as of the date of service (collectively, the "Dispute Notice Parties").

iv. In the event that a Dispute Resolution Motion is filed, nothing in the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, shall preclude the Debtors, a landlord, or any other interested party from asserting that (a) the provisions of any Liquidation Sale Laws are preempted by the Bankruptcy Code, or (b) neither the terms of the Interim Order or the Final Order nor the conduct of the Debtors pursuant to the Interim Order or the Final Order violates such Liquidation Sale Laws. Filing a Dispute Resolution Motion as set forth herein shall not be deemed to affect the finality of the Interim Order or the Final Order, or to limit or interfere with the Debtors' or the Consultant's ability to conduct, or to continue to conduct, the Sales pursuant to the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, absent further order of the Court. Upon the entry of the Interim or Final Order, the Debtors and the Consultant shall be authorized to conduct the Sales pursuant to the terms of the Interim Order or the Final Order, the Consulting Agreement, and the U.S. Sale Guidelines (as may be modified by any "Side Letters" (as defined in the U.S. Sale Guidelines, an agreement between the Merchant, or the Consultant with the Debtors' direction, and affected landlords of any Store, which do not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors or their estates)) and to take all actions reasonably related thereto or arising in connection therewith. Any Governmental Unit will be entitled to assert any jurisdictional, procedural, or substantive arguments it wishes with respect to the requirements of its Liquidation Sale Laws or the lack of any preemption of such Liquidation Sale Laws by the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in the Interim Order or the Final Order will constitute a ruling with respect to any issues to be raised in any Dispute Resolution Motion.

v. If a dispute arises between the Debtors or Consultant and a Governmental Unit as to whether a particular law is a Liquidation Sale Law, and subject to any provisions contained in the Interim Order or the Final Order related to the Liquidation Sale Laws, then any party to that dispute may utilize the provisions of subparagraphs (iii) and (iv) above by serving a notice to the other party and proceeding thereunder in accordance with those paragraphs. Any determination with respect to whether a particular law is a Liquidation Sale Law shall be made de novo.

20. Accordingly, the Debtors request a waiver of compliance with the applicable Liquidation Sale Laws to the extent any such Liquidation Sale Laws conflict with the U.S. Sale Guidelines, subject to the dispute resolution process set forth above.

VI. Fast Pay Laws.

21. Many U.S. states in which the Debtors operate have laws and regulations that require the Debtors to pay an employee substantially contemporaneously with his or her termination (the "Fast Pay Laws" and together with the Liquidation Sale Laws, the "Applicable State Laws"). These laws often require payment to occur immediately or within a period of only a few days from the date such employee is terminated. Under ordinary circumstances, the Debtors' payroll department is able to coordinate delivery of final checks to coincide with an employee's final day of work where required by applicable law. This process requires the Debtors' payroll department to calculate individual payments upon termination, prepare each termination payment check, obtain authorization for each such check, and then prepare each such check for mailing.

22. The nature of the Store Closings contemplated by this Motion will result in numerous associate and store manager employees being terminated during the Store Closings. Given the number of employees who will be terminated during the Store Closings, the process of delivering final payroll to affected employees will likely take several days following the applicable terminations, making compliance with the Fast Pay Laws burdensome to the Debtors' estates, if not impossible. To be clear, the Debtors intend to pay their terminated employees as expeditiously as possible and under normal payment procedures; however, the Debtors' payroll systems may simply be unable to process the payroll information associated with these terminations in a manner that will be compliant with the Fast Pay Laws. Accordingly, the Debtors request a waiver of compliance with the applicable Fast Pay Laws to the extent the Debtors' payroll systems or operations limit their ability to comply with the same.

VII. Lease Restrictions.

23. The Debtors also request a waiver of any contractual restrictions that could otherwise inhibit or prevent the Debtors from maximizing value of their estates through the Store Closings and Sales. In certain cases, the contemplated Store Closings and Sales may be inconsistent with certain provisions of leases, subleases, or other documents with respect to the premises in which the Debtors operate, including (without limitation) reciprocal easement agreements, agreements containing covenants, conditions, and restrictions (including, without limitation, "go dark" provisions and landlord recapture rights), or other similar documents or provisions. Such restrictions would also hamper the Debtors' ability to maximize value in selling their inventory.

24. The Debtors also request that any entity, including, without limitation, utilities, landlords, shopping center managers and personnel, creditors, and all persons acting for or on their behalf be enjoined from interfering with or otherwise impeding the Store Closings and Sales. The Debtors further request that any such entities be enjoined from instituting any action against the Debtors in any court (other than in this Court or the Canadian Court, as applicable) or before any administrative body that in any way directly or indirectly interferes with, obstructs, or otherwise impedes the Store Closings, the Sales or the advertising and promotion (including through the posting of signs) of the Sales.

25. The Debtors intend to address any landlord concerns expeditiously. In order to efficiently and effectively address any such issues, the Debtors request authority to enter binding Side Letters modifying the applicable Sale Guidelines with affected landlords, with the Consultant's participation or consent to the extent required by those guidelines.

VIII. Abandonment.

26. The Debtors request that the Court authorize the abandonment of certain owned FF&E remaining in the Closing Stores. The Debtors intend to sell any marketable owned FF&E present in the Closing Stores or otherwise transfer valuable FF&E to the Debtors' other store locations. In their business judgment, however, the Debtors may determine that the cost associated with holding, transferring, or selling such property exceeds the proceeds that they will realize from its sale or that such property may not be saleable at all. In such cases, retaining the property would be burdensome to the estates, and the property would be of inconsequential value. Accordingly, the debtors submit that abandonment of such property, if any, is in the best interests of their estates and request that the Court authorize the Debtors to do so where they determine in their business judgment that abandonment will maximize the value of their estates.

IX. Customer Programs.

27. To properly effectuate the Sales and Store Closings, the Debtors seek to modify certain of their customer programs, solely with respect to the Closing Stores (collectively, the "Closing Store Customer Policies"). For the avoidance of doubt, all customer programs will continue at any non-Closing Stores, to the extent that certain Closing Stores become non-Closing Stores, subject to approval of the relief sought in the Customer Programs Motion.[6] Accordingly, the following Closing Store Customer Policies will be clearly posted for customers at cash registers and online at the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent's website at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP for the duration of the Store Closings.

- My Place Rewards Program. The Debtors will continue to honor rewards on account of the Debtors' My Place Rewards Program for 21 days from the date of the Interim Order. After such 21-day period, the Debtors will discontinue the My Place Rewards Program with respect to the Closing Stores, so that customers will no longer earn rewards points on account of purchases at Closing Stores nor will such Closing Stores honor My Place Rewards points.

- Returns and Exchanges. Merchandise sold in the Sales, on or after November 6, 2026, will be sold on a "final" basis, and returns of such items will not be accepted at any of the Debtors' retail locations. Returns of Merchandise purchased in the period between October 23, 2026, and November 6, 2026 may be allowed subject to the Debtors' return policies at the time of sale.

- Gift Cards. The Debtors will continue to accept validly-issued gift cards at Closing Stores for 21 days from the date of the Interim Order. Following such 21-day period, the Debtors will no longer accept gift cards at such Closing Stores. Notwithstanding any policy or law to the contrary, the gift cards and related customer programs are not redeemable for cash at any time.

I. The Court Should Authorize the Assumption of the Consulting Agreement.

28. Section 365(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in pertinent part, that a debtor in possession, "subject to the court's approval, may assume or reject any executory contract or [unexpired] lease of the debtor." 11 U.S.C. § 365(a). The standard governing bankruptcy court approval of a debtor's decision to assume or reject an executory contract or unexpired lease is whether the debtor's reasonable business judgment supports assumption or rejection. In re Nickels Midway Pier, LLC, 341 B.R. 486, 493 (Bankr. D.N.J. 2006) (finding that "a bankruptcy court should defer to a debtor's decision that rejection of a contract would be advantageous unless the decision is so unreasonable that it could not be based on sound business judgment."); see also In re HQ Glob. Holdings, Inc., 290 B.R. 507, 511 (Bankr. D. Del. 2003) (finding that debtor's decision to assume or reject an executory contract is governed by the business judgment standard and it can only be overturned if the decision was a product of bad faith, whim or caprice).

[6] Contemporaneously herewith, the Debtors filed the Debtors' Motion for Entry of Interim and Final Orders (I) Authorizing the Debtors to Maintain and Administer Their Customer Programs and Honor Certain Prepetition Obligations Related Thereto And (II) Granting Related Relief (the "Customer Programs Motion").

29. To satisfy the business judgment test, the Debtors must demonstrate that assumption of the Consulting Agreement would benefit the estate. See In re Network Access Sols., Corp., 330 B.R. 67, 75 (Bankr. D. Del. 2005) ("The standard for approving the assumption of an executory contract is the business judgment rule." (citation omitted)). "A debtor's decision to reject [or assume] an executory contract must be summarily affirmed unless it is the product of 'bad faith, or whim or caprice.'" In re Trans World Airlines, Inc., 261 B.R. 103, 121 (Bankr. D. Del. 2001). Here, the Debtors have exercised their business judgment in determining to assume the Consulting Agreement. The Debtors believe that the terms set forth in the Consulting Agreement are fair, reasonable, and the best mechanism to maximize value through the Sales. Moreover, the Consultant has extensive expertise in conducting liquidation sales and will be able to oversee and implement the Sales in an efficient and cost-effective manner.

30. Courts hearing chapter 11 cases filed by retailers in this district have routinely approved the assumption and/or approval of similar consulting agreements. See, e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 10, 2025) (authorizing assumption of consulting agreement); In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 5, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 29, 2024) (same);

In re DirectBuy Home Improvement, Inc., No. 23-19159 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 9, 2023) (same); In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 7, 2023) (same).[7]

31. The Debtors submit that they have exercised reasonable business judgment in engaging the Consultant to conduct the Store Closings and Sales. Given the number of stores and the Consultant's in-depth knowledge and expertise, the Consultant is best positioned to conduct the Store Closings efficiently and effectively. If the Consulting Agreement is not assumed on a final basis, the Store Closings and Sales would lose the benefit of the Consultant's ongoing work and might be delayed or suspended entirely, leading to loss of additional liquidity and increased administrative expense. Accordingly, the Debtors request that the Court authorize their assumption of the Consulting Agreement.

II. The Debtors Have a Valid Business Justification for the Sales.

32. Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, which governs asset sales outside of a debtor's ordinary course of business, provides that "the trustee, after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). When selling assets outside of the ordinary course of business, a debtor must articulate a valid business justification to obtain court approval. See, e.g., Myers v. Martin (In re Martin), 91 F.3d 389, 395 (3d Cir. 1996) (citation omitted); In re Abbotts Dairies, Inc., 788 F.2d 143, 147-48 (3d Cir. 1986) (implicitly adopting the "sound business judgment" test of Lionel Corp., and requiring good faith); Comm. of Equity Sec. Holders v. Lionel Corp. (In re Lionel Corp.), 722 F.2d 1063, 1070-71 (2d Cir. 1983); In re Delaware & Hudson Ry. Co., 124 B.R. 169, 175-76 (D. Del. 1991) (concluding that the Third Circuit adopted the "sound business judgment" test in the Abbotts Dairies decision). When a debtor demonstrates a valid business justification for a decision, a strong presumption arises "that in making [the] business decision the directors of a corporation acted on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that the action taken was in the best interests of the company." Official Comm. of Subordinated Bondholders v. Integrated Res., Inc. (In re Integrated Res., Inc.), 147 B.R. 650, 656 (S.D.N.Y. 1990) (holding that the Delaware business judgment rule has "vitality by analogy" in chapter 11, especially where the debtor is a Delaware corporation).

33. In this district, store closing or liquidation sales are a routine occurrence in chapter 11 cases involving retail debtors, and courts have approved such sales. See, e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 10, 2025); In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 5, 2024); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 29, 2024); In re DirectBuy Home Improvement, Inc., No. 23-19159 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 9, 2023); In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 7, 2023).[8]

34. Sufficient business justification exists to approve the proposed Sales under section 363(b)(1). The Debtors, with the assistance of their advisors, have determined that the Sales represent the best alternative at this time to maximize recoveries to the Debtors' estates with respect to the Store Closure Assets and provide the Debtors with much-needed liquidity while maintaining optionality for a going-concern sale, if the proposed bidding process yields an actionable offer. Many of the Closing Stores fail to generate positive cash flow and therefore are a significant drain on liquidity. The Debtors will therefore realize an immediate benefit by liquidating the Store Closure Assets and terminating operations at the Closing Stores. Further, uninterrupted and orderly Sales will allow the Debtors to timely reject leases associated with the

Closing Stores and, therefore, avoid the accrual of unnecessary administrative expenses for rent and related costs for postpetition operations. There are meaningful amounts of Merchandise, in the aggregate, that will be monetized most efficiently and quickly through an orderly process to monetize the Store Closure Assets conducted by the Consultant.

III. The Court Should Approve the Sale Guidelines.

35. The Court may authorize the Debtors to consummate the Sales in accordance with the Sale Guidelines pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. Section 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that, "[t]he [debtor], after notice and a hearing, may use, sell, or lease, other than in the ordinary course of business, property of the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 363(b)(1). Further, section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code provides, in relevant part, that, "[t]he court may issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a).

36. As discussed herein, pursuant to section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code, for the purpose of conducting the Store Closings, the Debtors need only to show a legitimate business justification for the proposed action. See, e.g., Martin, 91 F.3d at 395 (citation omitted). Section 105(a) codifies a bankruptcy court's inherent equitable powers to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). Under section 105(a), courts may authorize any action that is essential to the continued operation of a debtor's businesses. See Just for Feet, Inc., 242 B.R. 821, 825-26 (D. Del. 1999) (authorizing the use of estate property when "necessary for the debtors' survival during chapter 11").

37. Instituting the Sale Guidelines represents a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment because the Sale Guidelines will aid the Consultant's efficient and effective sale of the Merchandise and is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors' estates and is justified under sections 105(a) and 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Debtors' decision to hire the Consultant and commence the Sales at the Closing Stores was informed in part by the Sale Guidelines being effective.

38. Courts in this district have routinely approved sale guidelines in chapter 11 cases and have granted retail debtors authority to implement such procedures. See, e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 10, 2025) (authorizing the debtors, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(b), to conduct store closing sales in accordance with court-approved sale guidelines); In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 5, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 29, 2024) (same); In re DirectBuy Home Improvement, Inc., No. 23-19159 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 9, 2023) (same); In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 7, 2023) (same).[9] As such, the Court should authorize the Store Closings and approve the Sale Guidelines as a reasonable exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

IV. The Court Should Approve the Sale of the Store Closure Assets Free and Clear of all Liens, Encumbrances, and Other Interests Under Section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

39. The Debtors request approval to sell the Store Closure Assets on a final "as is" basis, free and clear of any and all Encumbrances in accordance with section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code. A debtor in possession may sell property under sections 363(b) and 363(f) "free and clear of any interest in such property of an entity other than the estate" if any one of the following conditions is satisfied: (a) applicable non-bankruptcy law permits sale of such property free and clear of such interest; (b) such entity consents; (c) such interest is a lien and the price at which such property is to be sold is greater than the aggregate value of all liens on such property;

(d) such interest is in bona fide dispute; or (e) such entity could be compelled, in a legal or equitable proceeding, to accept a money satisfaction of such interest. 11 U.S.C. § 363(f); see also In re Trans World Airlines, Inc., 322 F.3d 283, 290 (3d Cir. 2003) ("[U]nder § 363(f), . . . a sale free and clear of any [interest in property] can occur if any one of five conditions has been satisfied."). Such requirements are disjunctive, meaning that the Debtors need satisfy only one requirement to sell assets free and clear of Encumbrances. Accordingly, the Debtors' "authority to sell free and clear is broad." In re Trans World Airlines, Inc., No. 01-0056 (PJW), 2001 WL 1820325, at *3 (Bankr. D. Del. Mar. 27, 2001), aff'd, 322 F.3d 283 (3d Cir. 2003).

40. The Debtors' prepetition secured lenders, who hold liens on the Store Closure Assets, support the Sales, and the Debtors anticipate that any other holders of such liens (the "Store Closure Asset Lienholders") will consent to the Sales because they provide the most effective, efficient, and time-sensitive approach to realizing proceeds for, among other things, the repayment of amounts due to such parties. Even without such support, all liens on the Store Closure Assets sold under the Sales would attach to all of the proceeds of such sales with the same force, effect, and priority as such liens currently have on these assets, subject to the rights and defenses, if any, of the Debtors and of any party-in-interest with respect thereto. Further, the Store Closure Asset Lienholders can be compelled to take a money satisfaction of such interest and have received sufficient notice and have been given sufficient opportunity to object to the relief requested.

41. Accordingly, the Debtors submit that the sale of the Store Closure Assets satisfies the statutory requirements of section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code.

V. The Court Should Waive Compliance with Applicable State Laws and Approve the Dispute Resolution Procedures.

42. The Debtors' ability to conduct the Sales in accordance with the U.S. Sale Guidelines and without complying with Applicable State Laws is critical to the Sales' success.

Although the Debtors intend to comply with state and local health and safety laws and consumer protection laws in conducting the Sales, many Liquidation Sale Laws require special and cumbersome licenses, waiting periods, time limits, and other procedures for store closing, liquidation, or similar sales. Additionally, compliance with Fast Pay Laws would require the Debtors to pay terminated employees within a time frame that may be difficult, if not impossible, given the facts and circumstances of these chapter 11 cases.

43. To eliminate the time, delay, expense, and value loss associated with the administrative procedures necessary to comply with the Applicable State Laws, while still adequately protecting the broad and varied interests of both landlords and applicable governmental agencies charged with enforcing any Liquidation Sale Laws that may apply to the Store Closings, the Interim Order and Final Order provide that the Sale Guidelines will supersede only those laws that would inhibit the value-maximizing disposition of Store Closure Assets without creating undue health and safety risks to the jurisdictions in which the Stores operate or to employees assisting in the Store Closings.

44. The Debtors submit that there is strong support for granting them the authority to not comply with the Liquidation Sale Laws, subject to the Sale Guidelines. First, it is generally accepted that many state statutes and regulations provide that, if a liquidation or bankruptcy sale is court-authorized, a company need not comply with the Liquidation Sale Laws. See, e.g., Ga. Code Ann. § 10-1-393(b)(24)(C)(iv) (exempting from the provisions of the chapter sales conducted pursuant to any court order); 815 ILCS 350/3 (same); La. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 51:43(1) (same); N.Y. Gen. Bus. Law § 584(a) (same); Or. Rev. Stat. Ann. § 646A.100(2)(b) ("'Going out of business sale' does not include a sale conducted by a bankruptcy trustee."); Tex. Bus. & Com. Code Ann. § 17.91(3) (exempting from subchapter sales conducted pursuant to court order).

Second, bankruptcy courts have consistently recognized, with limited exception, that federal bankruptcy law preempts state and local laws that contravene the underlying policies of the Bankruptcy Code. See Belculfine v. Aloe (In re Shenango Grp., Inc.), 186 B.R. 623, 628 (Bankr. W.D. Pa. 1995) ("Trustees and debtors-in-possession have unique fiduciary and legal obligations pursuant to the bankruptcy code. . . . [A] state statute . . . cannot place burdens on [a debtor] where the result would contradict the priorities established by the federal bankruptcy code."), aff'd, 112 F.3d 633 (3d Cir. 1997). Third, this Court will be able to supervise the Store Closings because the Debtors and their assets are subject to this Court's exclusive jurisdiction. See 28 U.S.C. § 1334. As such, creditors and the public interest are adequately protected by notice of this Motion and the ongoing jurisdiction and supervision of the Court.

45. While courts in some jurisdictions have found that preemption of state law is not appropriate if the laws deal with public health and safety, see Baker & Drake, Inc. v. Pub. Serv. Comm'n of Nev. (In re Baker & Drake, Inc.), 35 F.3d 1348, 1353–54 (9th Cir. 1994) (holding that the Bankruptcy Code did not preempt state law prohibiting taxicab leasing that was promulgated in part as public safety measure), preemption is appropriate where, as is the case here, the only state laws involved concern economic regulation rather than the protection of public health and safety. See In re Baker & Drake. Inc., 35 F.3d at 1353 (finding that "federal bankruptcy preemption is more likely . . . where a state statute is concerned with economic regulation rather than with protecting the public health and safety").

46. Under the circumstances of these chapter 11 cases, enforcing the strict requirements of the Liquidation Sale Laws and Fast Pay Laws would undermine the fundamental purpose of section 363(b) of the Bankruptcy Code by placing constraints on the Debtors' ability to maximize the value of estate assets for the benefit of creditors. Accordingly, authorizing the Sales without the delays and burdens associated with obtaining various state and local licenses, observing state and local waiting periods, time limits, or Fast Pay Laws, and/or satisfying any additional requirements with respect to advertising, sales, and similar items is necessary and appropriate. The Debtors do not seek a general waiver of all state and local law requirements; rather, they only seek a waiver of those requirements that apply specifically to retail liquidation sales. Moreover, the Debtors will comply with applicable public health and safety laws, and applicable tax, labor, employment, environmental, and consumer protection laws, including consumer laws regulating deceptive practices and false advertising. However, compliance with Fast Pay Laws may be burdensome or impossible given the number of employees who will be terminated during the Store Closings and accordingly a waiver of compliance with the applicable Fast Pay Laws, to the extent the Debtors' payroll systems limit their ability to comply with the same, is appropriate and should therefore be approved. Finally, the Dispute Resolution Procedures provide an ordered means for resolving any disputes arising between the Debtors and any Governmental Units and should therefore be approved.

47. Courts in this district have recognized that the Bankruptcy Code preempts certain state laws and have granted relief similar to the relief requested herein. See, e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 10, 2025) (authorizing debtors to conduct store closing sales under the terms of the order and finding that "no further approval, license, or permit of any Governmental Unit shall be required"); In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 5, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 29, 2024) (same); In re DirectBuy Home Improvement, Inc., No. 23-19159 (SLM)

(Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 9, 2023) (same); In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 7, 2023) (same).[10]

48. Courts have also granted similar relief from Fast Pay Laws in other bankruptcy cases under similar circumstances. See, e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 10, 2025) (granting relief from federal, state, or local laws including "any fast pay laws" in connection with store closing sales); In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 5, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 29, 2024) (same); In re DirectBuy Home Improvement, Inc., No. 23-19159 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Dec. 22, 2023); (same) In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 7, 2023) (same); In re RTW Retailwinds, Inc., No. 20-18445 (JKS) (Bankr. D.N.J. Aug. 8, 2020) (granting relief from "any state or local law requiring that the Debtors pay an employee substantially contemporaneously with his or her termination").[11]

VI. The Court Should Waive Compliance with Restrictions in the Debtors' Leases.

49. Certain of the Debtors' leases governing the premises of the stores subject to the Store Closings may contain provisions purporting to restrict or prohibit the Debtors from conducting store closing, liquidation, or similar sales. Such provisions have been held to be unenforceable in chapter 11 cases as they constitute an impermissible restraint on a debtor's ability to properly administer its reorganization case and maximize the value of its assets under section 363 of the Bankruptcy Code. See In re Ames Dep't Stores, Inc., 136 B.R. 357, 359 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1992) (deciding that enforcement of such lease restrictions would "contravene overriding federal policy requiring [the debtor] to maximize estate assets. . ."); In re R.H. Macy and Co., Inc.,

170 B.R. 69, 73–74 (Bankr. S.D.N.Y. 1994) (holding that the lessor could not recover damages for breach of a covenant to remain open throughout the lease term, because the debtor had a duty to maximize the value to the estate and the debtor fulfilled this obligation by holding a store closing sale and closing the store); In re Tobago Bay Trading Co., 112 B.R. 463, 467–68 (Bankr. N.D. Ga. 1990) (finding that a debtor's efforts to reorganize would be significantly impaired to the detriment of creditors if lease provisions prohibiting a debtor from liquidating its inventory were enforced); In re Lisbon Shops, Inc., 24 B.R. 693, 695 (Bankr. E.D. Mo. 1982) (holding restrictive lease provision unenforceable in chapter 11 case where the debtor sought to conduct a liquidation sale).

50. Courts in this district have entered orders overriding restrictive lease provisions affecting store liquidation sales in chapter 11 cases. See, e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 10, 2025) (ordering that restrictive lease provisions shall not be enforceable in conjunction with store closings); In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 5, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 29, 2024) (same); In re DirectBuy Home Improvement, Inc., No. 23-19159 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 9, 2023) (same); In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 7, 2023) (same).[12]

51. Thus, to the extent that such provisions or restrictions exist in any of the leases of the stores subject to the Store Closings, the Debtors request that the Court authorize the Debtors and the Consultant to conduct any liquidation sales without interference by any landlords or other persons affected, directly or indirectly, by the liquidation sales.

VII. The Court Should Approve the Abandonment of Certain Property in Connection with the Sales.

52. After notice and a hearing, a debtor "may abandon any property of the estate that is burdensome to the estate or that is of inconsequential value and benefit to the estate." 11 U.S.C. § 554(a); see also Hanover Ins. Co. v. Tyco Indus., Inc., 500 F.2d 654, 657 (3d Cir. 1974) (stating that a trustee "may abandon his claim to any asset, including a cause of action, he deems less valuable than the cost of asserting that claim").

53. The Debtors are seeking to sell all FF&E remaining in the Closing Stores. However, the Debtors may determine that the costs associated with holding, transferring, or selling certain property or FF&E exceed the proceeds that will be realized upon its sale, or that such property is not sellable at all. In such event, the property is of inconsequential value and benefit to the estates and/or may be burdensome to retain. To maximize the value of the Debtors' assets and to minimize the costs to the estates, the Debtors request authority to abandon any of their remaining FF&E, or other property, located at any of the Closing Stores without incurring liability to any person, or entity. The Debtors further request that the landlord of each Closing Store with any abandoned FF&E, or other property, be authorized to dispose of such property without liability to any third parties.

54. Courts in this district have granted the abandonment of certain property following chapter 11 liquidation sales for retail debtors. See, e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 10, 2025) (permitting abandonment of property, according to the sale procedures, without any debtor or consultant liability related thereto); In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 5, 2024) (same); In re Rite Aid Corp., No. 23-18993 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. Jan. 29, 2024) (same); In re DirectBuy Home Improvement, Inc., No. 23-

19159 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 9, 2023) (same); In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 7, 2023) (same).[13]

VIII. The Proposed Modifications to the Debtors' Customer Programs are Appropriate.

55. Prepetition claims, such as gift card obligations, cannot ordinarily be paid without Court authority. However, the Court may authorize payment of prepetition claims in appropriate circumstances, pursuant to section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. As previously discussed, section 105(a) codifies the Court's inherent equitable powers to "issue any order, process, or judgment that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of this title." This "doctrine of necessity" functions in a chapter 11 case as a mechanism by which the bankruptcy court can exercise its equitable power to allow for modifications of customer programs not explicitly authorized by the Bankruptcy Code and further supports the relief requested herein. See In re Lehigh & New Eng. Ry., 657 F.2d 570, 581 (3d Cir. 1981) (holding that a court may authorize payment of prepetition claims if such payment is essential to debtor's continued operation); Just for Feet, 242 B.R. at 824–25 (holding that section 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code "provides a statutory basis for payment of prepetition claims" under the doctrine of necessity).

56. Accordingly, the Court has authority to authorize the Debtors to modify the Closing Store Customer Policies pursuant to sections 363(b) and 105(a) of the Bankruptcy Code. The Store Closings necessitate that the Closing Store Customer Policies must be modified to provide finality and support efficient Store Closings. While the Debtors' customer programs are value-maximizing in the ordinary course of the Debtors' business because they drive repeat business and brand loyalty, stores that are going out of business are substantially less likely to benefit from such customer goodwill. Accordingly, the Debtors' business judgment is that value will be maximized by restricting certain customer programs in connection with the Store Closings, including requiring non-refundable cash purchases. On the other hand, the grace period between entry of the Interim Order and the date after which certain customer programs shall be modified pursuant to the Closing Store Customer Policies affords customers ample opportunity to use any gift cards, gift certificates, or My Place Rewards benefits at the Closing Stores (namely for the first 21 days following entry of the Interim Order). Modifying the customer programs pursuant to the Closing Store Customer Policies is therefore appropriate and a reasonable exercise of the Debtors' business judgment. The Debtors submit that the notice provided through this Motion is adequate and proper under the circumstances. Similar relief has been granted in recent retail bankruptcy cases. See, e.g., In re New Rite Aid, LLC, No. 25-14861 (MBK) (Bankr. D.N.J. July 10, 2025) (approving a notice period of thirty days after the Interim Order prior to suspending the customer programs); In re Sam Ash Music Corp., No. 24-14727 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. June 5, 2024) (approving a notice period of thirty days after the Final Order); In re DirectBuy Home Improvement, Inc., No. 23-19159 (SLM) (Bankr. D.N.J. Nov. 9, 2023) (approving a notice period of twenty-one days after the Final Order); In re Bed Bath & Beyond Inc., No. 23-13359 (VFP) (Bankr. D.N.J. April 25, 2023) (approving a notice period of fourteen days from the Interim Order to use gift certificates, gift cards, and loyalty certificates); In re David's Bridal, LLC, No. 23-13131 (CMG) (Bankr. D.N.J. May 18, 2023) (approving a notice period of thirty days after the Interim Order).[14]

Waiver of Bankruptcy Rules 6004(a) and 6004(h)

57. The Debtors request that the Court enter an order providing that notice of the relief requested herein satisfies Bankruptcy Rule 6004(a) and that the Debtors have established cause to exclude such relief from the fourteen-day stay period under Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h).

Reservation of Rights

58. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in this Motion or any actions taken pursuant to any order granting the relief requested by this Motion is intended or should be construed as: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, or validity of any particular claim against the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's rights to dispute any particular claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication, admission, or finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim, other priority claim, or otherwise of a type specified or defined in this Motion or any order granting the relief requested by this Motion; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease (with the exception of the Consulting Agreement) pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise affecting the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien (contractual, common law, statutory, or otherwise) on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates and the rights of all parties in interest are expressly reserved to contest the extent, validity, or perfection or seek avoidance of all such liens; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' or any other party in interest's claims, causes of action, or other rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; or (h) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim.

Final Hearing

59. The Debtors request that the Court schedule a final hearing approximately twenty-five (25) days after the commencement of these chapter 11 cases to consider entry of the Final Order approving the relief requested herein.

No Prior Request

Modification of Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(2)

61. The Debtors request that the Court, for cause, modify the service requirements set forth in Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(2) to limit service of this Motion only to the core service list and affected creditors. In light of the breadth and complexity of the Debtors' business, serving the Motion on all creditors, even those that are unaffected by the relief sought herein, would cause unnecessary confusion and expense to the detriment of all stakeholders. Accordingly, sufficient cause exists under Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(2) to modify the service requirements for this Motion.

Notice

62. The relief set forth on the following pages, numbered three (3) through twenty-eight (28), is ORDERED.

[1] A complete list of each of the Debtors, including each Debtor's federal tax identification number, in these chapter 11 cases may be obtained on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP. The location of the Debtors' service address for purposes of these chapter 11 cases is 500 Plaza Drive, Secaucus, New Jersey 07094.

upon all of the proceedings had before this Court; and after due deliberation and sufficient cause appearing therefor, IT IS HEREBY FOUND AND DETERMINED THAT:

A. The Debtors have advanced sound business reasons for assuming the Consulting Agreement and adopting the Sale Guidelines, on an interim basis subject to the Final Hearing, as set forth in the Motion and at the Hearing, and assuming the Consulting Agreement is a reasonable exercise of the Debtors' business judgment and in the best interest of the Debtors and their estates.

B. The Consulting Agreement, a copy of which is attached to this Interim Order as Exhibit 1, was negotiated, proposed, and entered into by the Consultant and the Debtors without collusion, in good faith and from arm's length bargaining positions.

C. The assumption of the Consulting Agreement on an interim basis is a sound exercise of the Debtors' business judgment.

D. The U.S. Sale Guidelines and the Canadian Sale Guidelines, which are included as Exhibit D-1 and Exhibit D-2, respectively, to the Consulting Agreement attached hereto, are reasonable and appropriate, and the conduct of the Sales in accordance with the Sale Guidelines will provide an efficient means for the Debtors to dispose of the Store Closure Assets and are in the best interest of the Debtors' estates.

E. The relief set forth herein is necessary to avoid immediate and irreparable harm to the Debtors and their estates, and the Debtors have demonstrated good, sufficient and sound business purposes and justifications for the relief approved herein.

G. The Debtors have represented that they intend to neither sell nor lease personally identifiable information pursuant to the relief requested in the Motion, although the Consultant will be authorized to distribute e-mails and promotional materials to the Debtors' customers consistent with the Debtors' existing policies on the use of consumer information.

H. The entry of this Interim Order is in the best interests of the Debtors and their estates, creditors, and interest holders and all other parties in interest herein; and now therefore it is hereby ORDERED THAT:

1. The Motion is GRANTED on an interim basis as set forth herein.

If no objections are filed to the Motion, the Court may enter an order approving the relief requested in the Motion on a final basis without further notice or hearing.

3. Any objections to the entry of this Interim Order, to the extent not withdrawn or settled, are overruled.

4. To the extent of any conflict between this Interim Order, the Sale Guidelines, and the Consulting Agreement, the terms of this Interim Order shall control over all other documents, and the Sale Guidelines shall control over the Consulting Agreement; provided, however, that solely with respect to the Canadian Closing Stores, the Warehouses located in Canada, and the Debtors' property in Canada, to the extent of any conflict between the Consulting Agreement or this Interim Order, on the one hand, and the Canadian Recognition Order (as defined in the Consulting Agreement), any other order of the Canadian Court or the Canadian Sale Guidelines, on the other hand, the orders of the Canadian Court and the Canadian Sale Guidelines shall govern and the Canadian Sale Guidelines shall control over the Consulting Agreement.

I. Authority to Assume the Consulting Agreement.

5. The Debtors are authorized to assume and perform under the Consulting Agreement pursuant to sections 363 and 365 of the Bankruptcy Code, including making payments required by the Consulting Agreement to the Consultant, including with respect to reasonable and documented costs and expenses incurred by the Consultant pursuant to the Consulting Agreement and fees due to the Consultant, without further order of the Court and without any need for the Consultant to file any request for payment with the Court or to provide notice to any party other than those required by the Consulting Agreement. All such payments of fees and reimbursement of expenses shall be free and clear of any and all Encumbrances.

6. Subject to the restrictions set forth in this Interim Order, the Sale Guidelines, and any Side Letters, the Debtors and the Consultant are hereby authorized to take all actions as may be necessary or desirable to implement the Consulting Agreement and the Sales, and each of the transactions contemplated by the Consulting Agreement, and any actions taken by the Debtors and the Consultant necessary or desirable to implement the Consulting Agreement and/or the Sales prior to the date of this Interim Order, are hereby approved and ratified.

7. The Consulting Agreement and related documents may be modified, amended or supplemented by the parties thereto in accordance with the terms thereof without further order of this Court, so long as any such modifications are in a writing signed by the Debtors and the Consultant (e-mail acknowledgement among parties or counsel being acceptable), and only if not materially adverse to the Debtors or estates; provided that the Debtors shall provide five calendar days' advance notice of any contemplated material modification(s) (which may be via email) to the U.S. Trustee and, counsel to any statutory committees appointed in these chapter 11 cases.

8. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, the Debtors' indemnification obligations remain subject to all limitations and exclusions in sections 9.1 and 10.4 of the Consulting Agreement, including the exclusion of Losses arising out of or in connection with fraud, gross negligence (including omissions), or willful misconduct of the Consultant, any Supervisor, or their specified affiliates and related persons, or the Consultant's breach of the Consulting Agreement. The Debtors and their estates shall not indemnify the Consultant for damages arising from the Consultant's fraud, willful misconduct, or gross negligence.

9. The Consultant shall not be liable for sales taxes except as expressly provided in the Consulting Agreement and the payment of any and all sales taxes is the responsibility of the Debtors. The Debtors are directed to remit all taxes arising from the Sales to the applicable Governmental Units as and when due, provided that in the case of a bona fide dispute the Debtors are only directed to pay such taxes upon the resolution of the dispute, if and to the extent that the dispute is decided in favor of the applicable Governmental Unit. For the avoidance of doubt, sales taxes collected and held in trust by the Debtors shall not be used to pay any creditor or any other party, other than the applicable Governmental Unit for which the sales taxes are collected. The Consultant shall report the collection of sales taxes as and to the extent provided in the Consulting Agreement. This Interim Order does not enjoin, suspend, or restrain the assessment, levy, or collection of any tax under state law, and does not constitute a declaratory judgment with respect to any party's liability for taxes under state law.

10. The failure to include any provisions of the Consulting Agreement in this Interim Order shall not diminish or impair the effectiveness of such provisions, it being the intent of the Court that such provisions of the Consulting Agreement be, and hereby are, authorized and approved.

II. Authority to Engage in Sales and Conduct Store Closings.

11. The Debtors are authorized, pursuant to sections 105(a) and 363(b)(1) of the Bankruptcy Code, to immediately continue the Sales at the Closing Stores in accordance with this Interim Order, the Sale Guidelines, and the Consulting Agreement, as may be modified by any Side Letters between the Debtors, or the Consultant acting at the Debtors' direction, and the affected landlords, in consultation with the Consultant and with the Consultant's consent to the extent required by the applicable Sale Guidelines, provided that such Side Letters do not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors or their estates.

12. The Sale Guidelines are approved in their entirety on an interim basis.

13. All entities that are presently in possession of some or all of the Store Closure Assets in which the Debtors hold an interest that are or may be subject to the Consulting Agreement or this Interim Order hereby are directed to surrender possession of such Store Closure Assets to the Debtors or the Consultant.

14. Neither the Debtors nor the Consultant nor any of their officers, employees, or agents shall be required to obtain the approval of any third party, including (without limitation) any Governmental Unit (as defined under section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) or landlord, to conduct the Sales and Store Closings and to take the related actions authorized herein, including pausing or discontinuing a Store Closing in their business judgment. Nothing in this paragraph dispenses with any notice, consent, approval, or other condition required by the Consulting Agreement, including the conditions applicable to pausing or discontinuing Store Closings.

III. Conduct of the Sales.

15. The Debtors and Consultant are hereby authorized to take such actions as may be necessary and appropriate to implement the Consulting Agreement and to conduct the Sales and Store Closings without necessity of further order of this Court as provided in the Consulting Agreement and the Sale Guidelines (subject to any Side Letters), including, but not limited to, advertising the sale as a "store closing sale," "sale on everything," "everything must go," "going-out-of-business," or similar themes, and to utilize signs, exterior banners, signwalkers, A-frames, and street signage as contemplated by the Sale Guidelines. Exterior banners at enclosed mall locations shall be limited to entrances not requiring entry into the enclosed mall common area, as provided in the Sale Guidelines. All advertising and signage, including E-Commerce Platform advertising, are subject to the Debtors' reasonable advance approval.

16. In accordance with the Consulting Agreement, the Consultant is authorized to supplement the Merchandise in the Closing Stores with Additional Goods pursuant to section 13 of the Consulting Agreement, and any other relevant provisions therein or in the Sale Guidelines.

17. All transactions relating to the Additional Goods are, shall be construed as, and are acknowledged by the Debtors to be a true consignment from Consultant to the Debtors under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code in effect (the "UCC"), and not a consignment for security purposes, as provided in section 13.2 of the Consulting Agreement. Entry of this Order constitutes notice of such consignment to all persons and entities holding security interests against the Debtors in lieu of the Consultant filing a Form UCC-1 Financing Statement (provided, however, that the Consultant is hereby authorized to do so). Subject only to the Consultant's obligation to pay the Debtors the Additional Goods Fee, Additional Goods and their proceeds remain the Consultant's exclusive property, and no other person or entity shall have a claim against or interest in them. The Debtors shall collect the actual proceeds from Additional Goods sales (the "Additional Goods Proceeds"), hold them in trust (less the amounts in (a) and (b) below) for the benefit of the Consultant, and, as part of each weekly reconciliation, distribute them to the Consultant less (a) the Merchant's fee of 6.5% of Additional Goods Proceeds (the "Additional Goods Fee") and (b) applicable sales taxes, which the Debtors shall collect and remit in accordance with section 13.3 of the Consulting Agreement. Reconciliation, audit access, and final payments remain subject to sections 5 and 13.5 of the Consulting Agreement.

18. Except as expressly provided in the Consulting Agreement and the Sale Guidelines, the sale of the Store Closure Assets shall be conducted by the Debtors and the Consultant notwithstanding any restrictive provision of any lease, sublease, restrictive covenant, or other agreement affecting or purporting to restrict (a) the conduct of the Store Closings or the Sales (including the sale of the Store Closure Assets), (b) the rejection of leases, (c) the abandonment of assets, or (d) "going dark." Such provisions shall not be enforceable in conjunction with the Store Closings or the Sales. Breach of any such provisions in these chapter 11 cases in connection with the Store Closings or the Sales shall not constitute a default under the applicable instrument; provided that the Store Closings and Sales are conducted in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order, any Side Letter, and the Sale Guidelines. The Debtors, with the Consultant's participation or consent to the extent required by the applicable Sale Guidelines, or the Consultant acting at the Debtors' direction, and the affected landlords, are authorized to enter into Side Letters between themselves modifying the Sale Guidelines without further order of the Court, provided that such Side Letters do not have a material adverse effect on the Debtors or their estates, and such Side Letters shall be binding as among the Debtors, the Consultant, and any such landlords, provided that nothing in such Side Letters contravenes the provisions of this Interim Order. In the event of any conflict between the Sale Guidelines, the Consulting Agreement, and any Side Letter, the terms of such Side Letter shall control.

19. Copies of any Side Letters will be provided by the Debtors to counsel to any statutory committee appointed in these Cases (attorneys' eyes only) and to the U.S. Trustee as soon as reasonably practicable, but not longer than two (2) business days after execution.

20. Except as expressly provided for herein or in the Sale Guidelines, no person or entity, including, but not limited to, any landlord, licensor, service providers, utilities, or creditors, shall take any action to directly or indirectly prevent, interfere with, or otherwise hinder consummation of the Sales or the sale of Store Closure Assets, or the advertising and promotion (including the posting of signs and exterior banners or the use of sign-walkers) of such sales, and all such parties and persons of every nature and description, including, but not limited to, any landlord, licensor, service providers, utilities, and creditors and all those acting for or on behalf of such parties, are prohibited and enjoined from (a) interfering in any way with, obstructing, or otherwise impeding, the conduct of the Store Closings, and/or (b) instituting any action or proceeding in any court (other than in the Court or Canadian Court, as applicable) or administrative body seeking an order or judgment against, among others, the Debtors, the Consultant, or the landlords at the closing locations that might in any way directly or indirectly obstruct or otherwise interfere with or adversely affect the conduct of the Sales or sale of the Store Closure Assets or other liquidation sales at the closing locations and/or seek to recover damages for breach(es) of covenants or provisions in any lease, sublease, license, or contract based upon any relief authorized herein.

21. In accordance with and subject to the terms and conditions of the Consulting Agreement, the Consultant shall have the right to use the Closing Stores and all related Closing Store services, furniture, fixtures, equipment and other assets of the Debtors for the purpose of conducting the Sales, free of any interference from any entity or person, subject to compliance with the Sale Guidelines (as modified by any Side Letters) and this Interim Order.

22. Pursuant to section 363(f) of the Bankruptcy Code, the Consultant, on behalf of the Debtors, is authorized to sell the Store Closure Assets on behalf of the Debtors and all sales of Store Closure Assets, whether by the Consultant or the Debtors, shall be free and clear of any and all Encumbrances; provided, however, that any such Encumbrances shall attach to the proceeds of the Sale of the Store Closure Assets with the same validity, in the same amount, with the same priority as, and to the same extent that any such Encumbrances have with respect to the Store Closure Assets, subject to any claims and defenses that the Debtors may possess with respect thereto and subject to the Consultant's fees and expenses (as provided in the Consulting Agreement).

23. The Debtors and/or the Consultant (as the case may be) are authorized and empowered to transfer Store Closure Assets among, and into, the Closing Stores in accordance with the Sale Guidelines, as applicable. The Consultant is authorized to sell the Debtors' FF&E and abandon FF&E and items incidental thereto, in each case, as provided for and in accordance with the terms of the Consulting Agreement and the Sale Guidelines. Any abandonment of property by the Debtors will be in accordance with the Rejection Procedures.

24. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order, the Debtors and/or the Consultant shall not sell or abandon any property that the Debtors know is not owned by the Debtors (except in accordance with the Sale Guidelines); provided that the Debtors will use their best efforts to notify the owners or lessors of such property of the location at which it may be retrieved; provided, further, that the Debtors may abandon property owned by the landlord at the applicable Closing Store.

25. The Debtors assert that the Sales are consistent with the Debtors' privacy policies, and, as such, are authorized to conduct the Sales on an interim basis without the appointment of a consumer privacy ombudsman. However, nothing contained in this Interim Order shall prejudice parties in interest, including the U.S. Trustee and any statutory committees appointed in these cases, from seeking the appointment of a consumer privacy ombudsman at a later date in connection with any proposed Sales.

26. Nothing herein shall limit the Debtors' right to pause or discontinue a Sale at a Closing Store, pursuant to the provisions of the Consulting Agreement.

27. The Sales and Store Closings may be advertised in all newspapers and other digital and traditional advertising media. All landlords and all governmental units, are directed to accept this Interim Order as binding authority so as to authorize the Debtors and the Consultant to conduct the Sales and Store Closings pursuant to the Consulting Agreement, including, without limitation, to conduct and advertise the sale of the Store Closure Assets in the manner contemplated by and in accordance with this Interim Order, the Sale Guidelines, and the Consulting Agreement, notwithstanding any restrictions in any applicable leases or applicable laws.

IV. Closing Store Customer Policies.

28. The Debtors will continue to honor rewards on account of the Debtors' My Place Rewards Program for 21 days from the date of this Interim Order, after which the Debtors will discontinue the My Place Rewards Program with respect to the Closing Stores and customers will no longer earn rewards on account of purchases at Closing Stores nor will such Closing Stores honor My Place Rewards points.

29. The Debtors will continue to accept the Debtors' validly-issued gift cards at Closing Stores for 21 days from the date of this Interim Order, after which the Debtors will no longer accept gift cards at such Closing Stores. Notwithstanding any policy or state law to the contrary, the gift cards and related Customer Programs shall not be redeemable for cash at any time.

30. Merchandise sold in the Sales, on or after November 6, 2026, will be sold on a "final" basis, and returns of such items will not be accepted at any of the Debtors' retail locations. Returns of Merchandise purchased in the period between October 23, 2026, and November 6, 2026 may be allowed subject to the Debtors' return policies at the time of sale.

31. The Debtors shall post notice of changes to the customer policies at cash registers and on the website of the Debtors' proposed claims and noticing agent's website at https://omniagentsolutions.com/TCP.

V. Dispute Resolution Procedures with Governmental Units.

32. Nothing in this Interim Order, the Consulting Agreement, the Sale Guidelines, or any Side Letter releases, nullifies, or enjoins the enforcement of any liability to a Governmental Unit under environmental laws or regulations (or any associated liabilities for penalties, damages, cost recovery, or injunctive relief) to which any entity would be subject as the owner, lessor, lessee, or operator of the property after the date of entry of this Interim Order. Nothing contained in this Interim Order, the Consulting Agreement, the Sale Guidelines, or any Side Letter shall in any way diminish the obligation of any entity, including the Debtors, to comply with environmental laws consistent with their rights and obligations as debtors in possession under the Bankruptcy Code. The Store Closings and the Sales shall not be exempt from laws of general applicability, including, without limitation, public health and safety, criminal, tax, (including, but not limited to, the collection of Sales Taxes), labor, employment, environmental, antitrust, fair competition, traffic and consumer protection laws, including consumer laws regulating deceptive practices and false advertising, consumer protections, express or implied warranties of goods, and "weights and measures" regulation and monitoring (collectively, "General Laws"). Nothing in this Interim Order, the Consulting Agreement, the Sale Guidelines, or any Side Letter shall alter or affect obligations to comply with all applicable federal or provincial safety laws and regulations.

Nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed to bar any Governmental Unit (as such term is defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) from enforcing General Laws in the applicable non-bankruptcy forum, subject to the Debtors' rights to assert in the applicable forum that any such laws are not in fact General Laws or that such enforcement is impermissible under the Bankruptcy Code or this Interim Order. Notwithstanding any other provision in this Interim Order, no party waives any rights to argue any position with respect to whether the conduct was in compliance with this Interim Order and/or any applicable law, or that enforcement of such applicable law is preempted by the Bankruptcy Code or the CCAA, as applicable. Nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed to have made any rulings on any such issues.

33. To the extent that the sale of Store Closure Assets is subject to any Liquidation Sale Laws, including any federal, state, provincial, or local statute, ordinance, rule, or licensing requirement directed at regulating "going out of business," "store closing," or similar inventory liquidation sales, or bulk sale laws, laws restricting safe, professional and non-deceptive, customary advertising such as signs, banners, signage, and use of sign-walkers solely in connection with the sale of the Store Closure Assets, including ordinances establishing license or permit requirements, waiting periods, time limits, or bulk sale restrictions that would otherwise apply solely to the sale of the Store Closure Assets, the dispute resolution procedures set forth in section V in this Interim Order shall apply, and the Dispute Resolution Procedures shall control over any Side Letters (provided that, subject to recognition of this Interim Order by the Canadian Court, the Dispute Resolution Procedures shall not apply with respect to the conduct of the Sales of the Store Closure Assets in Canadian Closing Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada, the Canadian Sale Guidelines, or the Debtors' property in Canada, and that any such disputes shall be resolved by the Canadian Court). Additionally:

i. Provided that the Sales are conducted in accordance with this Interim Order, any Final Order, and the Sale Guidelines, the Debtors, the Consultant, and the Debtors' landlords shall be deemed to be in compliance with any requirements of all county, parish, or municipal or other local government (hereinafter referred to as "Local") and state Liquidation Sale Laws establishing licensing or permitting requirements, waiting periods or time limits, or bulk sale restrictions that would otherwise apply to the Sales and sales of the Store Closure Assets of any state or local Governmental Unit (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code); provided, that the term "Liquidation Sale Laws" shall be deemed not to include any public health or safety laws of any state (collectively, the "Safety Laws"), and the Debtors and the Consultant shall continue to be required to comply, as applicable, with such Safety Laws and laws of general applicability, including, without limitation, Safety Laws, criminal, tax (including, but not limited to the collection of Sales Taxes), labor, employment, environmental, antitrust, fair competition, traffic and consumer protection laws, including consumer laws regulating deceptive practices and false advertising, consumer protection, the sale of gift certificates, layaway programs, return of goods, express or implied warranties of goods, and "weights and measures" regulation and monitoring (collectively "General Laws"), subject to any applicable provision of the Bankruptcy Code and federal law, and nothing in this Interim Order shall be deemed to bar Governmental Units (as defined in section 101(27) of the Bankruptcy Code) or public officials from enforcing Safety Laws or General Laws.

ii. Within five business days after entry of this Interim Order, the Debtors will serve by first-class mail, copies of this Interim Order, the proposed Final Order, the Consulting Agreement, and the U.S. Sale Guidelines on the following: (a) the Attorney General's office for each state where the Sales are being held; (b) the county consumer protection agency or similar agency for each county where the Sales are being held; (c) the division of consumer protection for each state where the Sales are being held; and (d) the landlords for the Closing Stores iii. To the extent that there is a dispute arising from or relating to the Sales, this Interim Order, the Consulting Agreement, or the U.S. Sale Guidelines, which dispute relates to any Liquidation Sale Laws (a "Reserved Dispute"), the Court shall retain exclusive jurisdiction to resolve the Reserved Dispute. Any time within ten (10) days following entry of this Interim Order, any Governmental Unit may assert that a Reserved Dispute exists by sending a notice (the "Dispute Notice") explaining the nature of the dispute to: (a) proposed co-counsel to the Debtors, (i) White & Case LLP, 1221 Avenue of the Americas, New York, New York 10020, Attn. Gregory F. Pesce (gregory.pesce@whitecase.com), Andrew F. Michael D. Sirota (msirota@coleschotz.com), Warren A. Usatine (wusatine@coleschotz.com), Seth Van Aalten (svanaalten@coleschotz.com), Justin R. Alberto (jalberto@coleschotz.com), and Daniel J. Harris (dharris@coleschotz.com); and (b) the Office of the United States Trustee for the District of New Jersey, One Newark Center, Suite 2100, Newark, New Jersey 07102, Attn. Fran B. Steele (fran.b.steele@usdoj.gov) and Aiden Murphy (aiden.murphy@usdoj.gov). If the Debtors and the Governmental Unit are unable to resolve the Reserved Dispute within fifteen days after service of the notice, the Governmental Unit may file a motion with the Court requesting that the Court resolve the Reserved Dispute (a "Dispute Resolution Motion").

iv. In the event that a Dispute Resolution Motion is filed, nothing in the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, shall preclude the Debtors, a landlord, or any other interested party from asserting (a) that the provisions of any Liquidation Sale Laws are preempted by the Bankruptcy Code, or (b) that neither the terms of the Interim Order or the Final Order nor the conduct of the Debtors pursuant to the Interim Order or the Final Order, violates such Liquidation Sale Laws. Filing a Dispute Resolution Motion as set forth herein shall not be deemed to affect the finality of the Interim Order or the Final Order, or to limit or interfere with the Debtors' or the Consultant's ability to conduct, or to continue to conduct, the Sales pursuant to the Interim Order or the Final Order, as applicable, absent further order of the Court. Upon the entry of the Interim or the Final Order, the Debtors and the Consultant shall be authorized to conduct the Sales pursuant to the terms of the Interim Order or the Final Order, the Consulting Agreement, and the U.S. Sale Guidelines (as may be modified by any Side Letters) and to take all actions reasonably related thereto or arising in connection therewith. Any Governmental Unit will be entitled to assert any jurisdictional, procedural, or substantive arguments it wishes with respect to the requirements of its Liquidation Sale Laws or the lack of any preemption of such Liquidation Sale Laws by the Bankruptcy Code. Nothing in the Interim Order or the Final Order will constitute a ruling with respect to any issues to be raised in any Dispute Resolution Motion.

v. If, at any time, a dispute arises among the Debtors and/or the Consultant, on the one hand and a Governmental Unit, on the other hand, as to whether a particular law is a Liquidation Sale Law, and subject to any provisions contained in the Interim Order or the Final Order related to the Liquidation Sale Laws, then any party to that dispute may utilize the provisions of subparagraphs (iii) and (iv) above by serving a notice to the other party and proceeding thereunder in accordance with those paragraphs. Any determination with respect to whether a particular law is a Liquidation Sale Law shall be made de novo.

34. Subject to the foregoing, every federal, state, provincial, or local agency, departmental, or Governmental Unit with regulatory authority over the Sales and all newspapers and other advertising media in which the Sales are advertised shall consider this Interim Order as binding authority that no further approval, license, or permit of any Governmental Unit shall be required, nor shall the Debtors or the Consultant be required to post any bond, to conduct the Sales.

35. Provided that the Sales are conducted in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order, the Consulting Agreement, and the Sale Guidelines (as may be modified by Side Letters) and in light of the provisions in the laws that exempt court-ordered sales from their provisions, the Debtors and Consultant shall be presumed to be in compliance with any Liquidation Sale Laws and are authorized to conduct the Sales in accordance with the terms of this Interim Order and the Sale Guidelines (as may be modified by Side Letters) without the necessity of further showing compliance with any such Liquidation Sale Laws, subject to the dispute resolution provisions set forth in this section V of this Interim Order.

VI. Other Provisions.

36. To the extent the Debtors are subject to any state Fast Pay Laws in connection with the Store Closings, the Debtors shall be presumed to be in compliance with such laws to the extent, in applicable states, such payroll payments are made by the Debtors' next regularly scheduled payroll and consistent with, and subject to, any previous orders of this Court regarding payment of the same.

37. Not later than seven days prior to the objection deadline related to entry of an order approving the Motion on a final basis, each member comprising the Consultant shall file a declaration disclosing connections to the Debtors, their creditors, and other parties in interest in these chapter 11 cases, and the Debtors shall serve the same on the U.S. Trustee, counsel to any statutory committees appointed in these cases, and all parties who have filed requests for service under Bankruptcy Rule 2002, by e-mail, or if the e-mail address is not available to the Debtors, then by first class mail.

38. To the extent the Consultant seeks to contract with additional parties as additional consultants (each an "Additional Consultant"), and subject to relevant provisions in the Consulting Agreement such as § 12.6, such Additional Consultant shall promptly file a declaration disclosing the information set forth in paragraph 37 of this Interim Order and, upon being contracted with, be subject to the provisions of this Interim Order or the Final Order and the Consulting Agreement.

39. The Consultant acts as an independent consultant and contractor, not as a partner or joint venturer of the Debtors. Nothing herein limits its obligations or liabilities under the Consulting Agreement, including sections 6.3, 9.1, 10.4, 12.6, and 12.9, or applicable Sale Guidelines, or excuses fraud, gross negligence, willful misconduct, breach, or other liability allocated to it thereunder. The Consultant shall not solely by reason of the engagement be deemed an employer or joint, successor, related, or common employer of the Debtors' Store Employees or assume the Debtors' employment liabilities; this does not affect its responsibilities for its own Supervisors or other engaged persons. Each Consultant Party remains jointly and severally liable for all Consultant obligations and liabilities under the Consulting Agreement.

40. Consistent with sections 5.1 and 15.1 of the Consulting Agreement, the Debtors shall include all of the Consultant's fees and expenses (as estimated by the parties) in any budget presented and approved in connection with any debtor-in-possession financing or use of cash collateral. The Additional Goods Proceeds remain subject to the provisions of the Consulting Agreement and Paragraph 17 hereof. For the avoidance of doubt, (i) the Debtors shall not seek to amend any financing order or budget in any manner that caps or limits any amounts due under the Consulting Agreement and (ii) nothing in this Interim Order or any financing order or budget shall (a) inhibit the Debtors' ability to pay the Consultant amounts due under the Consulting Agreement or (b) deem Additional Goods or Additional Goods Proceeds (net of the Additional Goods Fee and applicable sales taxes) to be property of the Debtors' estates.

41. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Interim Order or any other order, in the event the Debtors (i) fail to timely pay any amount due to the Consultant that is not subject to dispute under the Consulting Agreement, this Interim Order, or any other order, or (ii) or seek approval of a budget that does not provide for the timely payment in full of all such amounts (in either case, a "Payment Default"), the automatic stay is hereby modified so that two (2) business days after providing notice to the Debtors, Prepetition Agents, any agent to a postpetition financing facility, and any committee of any such Payment Default the Consultant may, at its election, (a) suspend the provision of services to the Debtors under the Consulting Agreement until the Debtors have paid all outstanding amounts due or (b) terminate the Consulting Agreement pursuant to its terms and, in either case, shall have no further obligation to provide services under the Consulting Agreement during any such period of suspension or after termination, as applicable. The Consultant shall have no liability for any claims arising from the suspension or termination of services pursuant to this paragraph 41.

42. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary herein, nothing contained in the Motion or any actions taken pursuant to this Interim Order granting the relief requested by the Motion is intended as or should be construed or deemed to be: (a) an implication or admission as to the amount of, basis for, priority of, or validity of any particular claim against a Debtor entity under the Bankruptcy Code or other applicable nonbankruptcy law; (b) a waiver of the Debtors' rights to dispute any claim on any grounds; (c) a promise or requirement to pay any particular claim; (d) an implication or admission that any particular claim is of a type specified or defined in the Motion or any order granting the relief requested by the Motion or a finding that any particular claim is an administrative expense claim or other priority claim; (e) a request or authorization to assume, adopt, or reject any agreement, contract, or lease (with the exception of the Consulting Agreement) pursuant to section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code or otherwise affecting the Debtors' rights under section 365 of the Bankruptcy Code; (f) an admission by the Debtors as to the validity, priority, enforceability, or perfection of any lien on, security interest in, or other encumbrance on property of the Debtors' estates; (g) a waiver or limitation of the Debtors' rights under the Bankruptcy Code or any other applicable law; or (h) a waiver of the obligation of any party in interest to file a proof of claim. Nothing contained in this Interim Order shall be deemed to increase, reclassify, elevate to an administrative expense status, or otherwise affect any claim on account of such claim not being paid.

43. On a confidential, professionals'-eyes-only basis and upon written request (including email) by the U.S. Trustee (whose request has been made), Prepetition Agents, any agent to a postpetition financing facility, any statutory committee, or Canadian Information Officer, the Debtors shall provide existing monthly periodic reports prepared by the Debtors, their professionals, or Consultant concerning the Sales and Store Closings; no additional or new reporting must be prepared for that purpose. Within thirty calendar days after completion of all Store Closings and Sales, the Debtors shall file (a) a summary identifying all Store Closings, gross Store Closing Sale revenue, and total Consultant fees and expense reimbursements under the Consulting Agreement, and (b) a report detailing calculation and payment of each Consultant fee and expense reimbursement, served on the U.S. Trustee, statutory committees, and requesting parties. The U.S. Trustee may object solely to reasonableness of the Consultant fee and expense reimbursement, and must do so, if at all, within twenty calendar days after filing; unresolved objections shall be coordinated for the next omnibus hearing or another agreed hearing. The Consultant's information and cooperation obligations under section 15.2 of the Consulting Agreement remain unaffected.

44. Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, the Debtors shall deliver to the Prepetition Agents and any agent to a postpetition financing facility, promptly after delivery to the Debtors, copies of all reports, statements, and reconciliations delivered to the Debtors pursuant to the Consulting Agreement and the Consultant shall promptly respond to reasonable requests of the Prepetition Agents and any agent to a postpetition financing facility for additional information related to the Sales and Store Closings, solely to the extent such information is in the Consultant's possession or reasonably obtainable by the Consultant.

45. Nothing herein prevents the Consultant or its affiliates, individually or with others, from proposing additional services or bidding on Debtor assets outside the Consulting Agreement ("Additional Assets") in a future process. Any such services, guarantee, acquisition, or transaction requires a separate Court order and, where required, a separate written agreement with the Debtors.

All rights of the U.S. Trustee and other parties to object are reserved. No fee or other entitlement for excluded assets or services is created hereby.

46. The Debtors are authorized, but not directed, to issue postpetition checks, or to effect postpetition fund transfer requests, in replacement of any checks or fund transfer requests that are dishonored as a consequence of these chapter 11 cases with respect to prepetition amounts owed in connection with the relief granted herein.

47. The banks and financial institutions on which checks were drawn or electronic payment requests made in payment of the prepetition obligations approved herein are authorized to receive, process, honor, and pay all such checks and electronic payment requests when presented for payment, and all such banks and financial institutions are authorized to rely on the Debtors' designation of any particular check or electronic payment request as approved by this Interim Order.

48. Nothing in this Interim Order directs the Debtors to accelerate any payments not otherwise due.

49. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 2002(a)(2), to the extent applicable, the Debtors may limit service of the Motion only to the core service list and affected creditors. Notice of the Motion as provided therein shall be deemed good and sufficient notice of such Motion, and the requirements of the Bankruptcy Rules and the Bankruptcy Local Rules are satisfied by such notice.

50. The contents of the Motion satisfy the requirements of Bankruptcy Rule 6003(a).

51. Notwithstanding Bankruptcy Rule 6004(h), to the extent applicable, the terms and conditions of this Interim Order are immediately effective and enforceable upon its entry.

52. The Debtors are authorized to take all actions necessary to effectuate the relief granted pursuant to this Interim Order in accordance with the Motion.

53. The Debtors shall serve by e-mail (if available) or by regular mail (if e-mail is unavailable) a copy of this Interim Order and the Motion on all parties required to receive such service pursuant to Bankruptcy Local Rule 9013-5(f) within two business days after the entry of this Interim Order.

54. Any party may move for modification of this Interim Order in accordance with Bankruptcy Local Rule 9013-5(e).

55. This Court retains exclusive jurisdiction with respect to all matters arising from or related to the implementation, interpretation, and enforcement of this Interim Order or the Consulting Agreement, including, but not limited to: (a) any claim or issue relating to any efforts by any party or person to prohibit, restrict or in any way limit banner and sign-walker advertising, including with respect to any allegations that such advertising is not being conducted in a safe, professional, and non-deceptive manner; (b) any claim of the Debtors, the landlords and/or the Consultant for protection from interference with the Store Closings or Sales; (c) any other disputes related to the Store Closings or Sales; and (d) protecting the Debtors and/or the Consultant against any assertions of any Encumbrances; provided that applicable orders of the Canadian Court govern with respect to, and the Canadian Court retains jurisdiction over, the conduct of the Sales at the Canadian Closing Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada, the Canadian Sale Guidelines, and disputes relating to the Debtors' property in Canada, including landlord disputes. No person shall take action contrary to the relief granted herein pending resolution by the competent Court, subject to the governmental-enforcement reservations herein. Requests for resolution shall be heard on an expedited basis as appropriate.

With respect to the Sale, Consultant shall serve as Merchant's sole and exclusive consultant relative thereto throughout the Sale Term, it being understood, for the avoidance of doubt, that the foregoing shall not preclude Merchant and its affiliates from selling any merchandise, furniture, fixtures (trade or other) and/or equipment through Amazon independently from Consultant prior to the Bankruptcy Case filing (or following the filing of the Bankruptcy Case, (a) with the consent of the Lenders (it being understood and agreed that such consent shall be deemed to have been given if the Lenders have not affirmatively rejected such terms within 48 hours of receipt of such terms) or (b) in the event that the board of directors of The Children's Place, Inc. determines in good faith after consultation with outside counsel that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with their fiduciary duties under applicable law), and provided that such exclusivity is consistent with Merchant's obligations under its other contracts in effect as of the date hereof, including (i) the Distribution and License Agreement between The Children's Place Services Company, LLC ("TCPSC") and Children's Apparel Network Ltd. dated November 19, 2025 (as amended) and (ii) the Authorization Letter between TCPSC and Network 360 Global, Inc. dated October 31, 2025 (and all related agreements thereunder). Following the filing of the Bankruptcy Case, Consultant shall not sell any merchandise, furniture, fixtures (trade or other) and/or equipment through Amazon without first obtaining the prior written consent of the Lenders (the "Lender Consent") to the economic terms of such sale (it being understood and agreed that such consent shall be deemed to have been given if the Lenders have not affirmatively rejected such terms within 48 hours of receipt of such terms).

2.2 On the terms and conditions set forth herein, commencing as of the Sale Commencement Date, Consultant shall provide Merchant with the following Services with respect to the conduct of the Sale, using commercially reasonable efforts to maximize the Gross Proceeds and complying at all times with the Sale Guidelines, applicable law, court orders and, in each case, subject to any further directions with respect to the Sale given by Merchant at any time until the end of the Sale Term:

(a) provide qualified, full-time Supervisors to assist Merchant in conducting the Sale as further described in Section 2.3 below;

(b) oversee the Sale of the Merchandise from the Stores and the Warehouses, which for the avoidance of doubt shall, to the extent requested by Merchant, include the effectuation of the Sale through e-commerce channels in accordance with Section 16 hereof;

(c) recommend and implement appropriate advertising to effectively sell the Merchandise during the Sale Term, consistent with the applicable sale theme agreed to with Merchant;

(d) recommend appropriate pricing, display and discounting of Merchandise, as well as recommend appropriate staffing levels for the Stores (including Store Employees), in each case subject to Merchant's prior approval;

(e) assist Merchant in connection with loss prevention, as appropriate;

(f) determine the applicable permits and governmental approvals necessary to conduct the Sale, and work with Merchant to obtain each in a timely and orderly fashion and prepare or cause to be prepared all forms necessary to assist in Merchant's securing any applicable permits and governmental approvals necessary to conduct the Sale, the costs and expenses of which shall be paid by Merchant within the Consultant Expense Budget or a supplemental budget approved by Merchant in advance;

(g) maintain the confidentiality of all non-public information regarding Merchant received by Consultant or any representative thereof under or in connection with this Agreement (all of which is agreed to constitute "Confidential Information" for purposes of the Applicable Confidentiality Agreement (as defined below)) in accordance with the provisions of the applicable confidentiality agreements, dated October 6, 2026 with GA Retail Solutions, LLC, October 7, 2026 with Tiger Capital Group, LLC and October 8, 2026 with SB360 Capital Partners, LLC, each signed by The Children's Place, Inc. on the one hand, and the applicable Consultant Party on the other hand (each, an "Applicable Confidentiality Agreement"), each of which shall survive this Agreement. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Consultant shall use Merchant's and customer data solely for the Services, maintain reasonable security safeguards, promptly notify Merchant of unauthorized access or disclosure, and return Merchant's data and customer data on request or conclusion of the Sale, subject to confidential archival retention required by law or for reconciliation, and shall comply with all applicable privacy laws in respect of any personal information of Merchant's customers or employees; provided that, notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, Consultant shall not, to the extent practicable under the circumstances and permitted under applicable laws, have access to customer personal identifiable information; and

(h) provide, for no additional consideration, such other related services deemed necessary or prudent by Merchant and Consultant, acting reasonably, under the circumstances giving rise to the Sale.

2.3 In connection with the Sale, Consultant shall directly retain and engage the Supervisors. Each Supervisor shall be an independent contractor engaged by Consultant and not be and shall not be deemed to be an employee or agent of Merchant in any manner whatsoever; and it is understood and agreed that no Supervisor shall have or be deemed to have any relationship with Merchant by virtue of this Agreement or otherwise which creates any liability or responsibility on behalf of Merchant for any Supervisor. In consideration of Consultant's engagement of the Supervisors, Merchant shall pay Consultant, as a Sale Expense, the budgeted amounts for Supervisors' services, out-of-pocket travel costs and deferred compensation based on the results of the Sale (collectively, the "Supervisor Costs"), which amount shall not exceed the amount budgeted therefor in the Consultant Expense Budget without the prior written consent of Merchant.

2.4 Title to all Merchandise shall remain with Merchant at all times during the Sale Term until such Merchandise is sold by or on behalf of Merchant. All sales of Merchandise shall be made on behalf of Merchant.

2.5 Merchant may upon three (3) days' notice notify Consultant (a) following either (x) the receipt of written consent of Wells Fargo Bank, National Association and Crystal Financial LLC d/b/a SLR Credit Solutions (together, the "Lenders"), or (y) the board of directors of The Children's Place, Inc. having determined in good faith after consultation with outside counsel that the failure to do so would be inconsistent with their fiduciary duties under applicable law, that one or more Stores, Warehouses or the E-Commerce Platform shall no longer be included in the Sale, in which case such location shall no longer be identified as a Store, Warehouse or E-Commerce Platform, respectively, subject to the Sale hereunder, and as from the date of such designation, for the avoidance of doubt, Consultant shall not be entitled to make any sales with respect to, or to any consideration in respect of any sales made at or with respect to such location (and shall not thereafter be required or permitted to effect any sales at or with respect to such location unless and until Merchant notifies Consultant in writing that such location is once again in-scope) and/or (b) that any specific assets at one or more Stores or Warehouses shall no longer be included in the Sale (and/or should not be included in any FF&E sale), in which case (i) such asset(s) at such location(s) shall no longer be identified as Merchandise or otherwise for sale pursuant to this Agreement, (ii) as from the date of such designation, for the avoidance of doubt, Consultant shall not be entitled to sell, or to any consideration in respect of any sales of, such assets (and shall not thereafter be required or permitted to effect any sales of such assets unless and until Merchant notifies Consultant in writing that such asset is once again in-scope), and (iii) Merchant and Consultant shall in good faith discuss an appropriate reduction in the Consultant Expense Budget in connection with any exclusion referred to in clause (i) and/or clause (ii). With effect from such notice from Merchant until such location or asset is no longer deemed part of the Sale in accordance with the preceding sentence, Consultant shall not for the avoidance of doubt seek to accelerate sales of such assets or at such locations (and to the extent practicable shall try to terminate all such sales prior to such third day), or increase or implement any new discounts or sale offerings at the affected location or with respect to the affected assets as compared to the discounts and sale offerings which were in place immediately prior to Merchant's notice. Merchant shall pay Consultant the Sale Expenses, the FF&E Fee, the FF&E Expenses and the Base Fee with regard to sales that occur prior to the date of such withdrawal.

2.6 With respect to the Stores, Warehouses and (solely after November 7, 2026) E-Commerce Platform, Consultant may advertise the Sale as a "going out of business", "store closing", "everything must go", "sale on everything", or similar themed sale; provided, that prior to November 7, 2026, Consultant may only advertise the Sale as conducted through the E-Commerce Platform as an "inventory blowout" or similar themed sale and not for the avoidance of doubt as a "going out of business", "store closing", "everything must go", "sale on everything", or similar themed sale. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Agreement or in the Sale Guidelines, all advertising and signage (including interior and exterior signage, banners and sign walkers, and any signage, including any signage relating to "store closing", "everything must go", "inventory blowout" or similarly themed sales) relating to the Sale (including through the E-Commerce Platform) shall be subject to the reasonable approval in advance of Merchant.

3. EXPENSES

3.1 In connection with the Sale, Merchant shall be responsible for the payment of all expenses incurred in operating the Stores, the E-Commerce Platform and the Warehouses and conducting the Sale, including all Sale Expenses (to the extent included in the Consultant Expense Budget), subject to Section 15. All Sale Expenses shall be set forth on the Consultant Expense Budget which may only be amended with mutual agreement of Consultant and Merchant. Any Sale Expenses incurred by Consultant in excess of the Consultant Expense Budget without the prior written consent of Merchant shall be the sole responsibility of Consultant. Consultant shall not be entitled to any reimbursement from Merchant of any costs or expenses incurred under or in connection with this Agreement that is not included in the Consultant Expense Budget (which such reimbursements shall be limited to the amounts set forth in the Consultant Expense Budget).

3.2 As an advance against Sale Expenses and to secure payment of the same, upon execution of this Agreement, Merchant shall pay Consultant a deposit towards the Consultant Expense Budget in the amount of $3,140,000 (the "Deposit"), which shall be applied against Sale Expenses, the FF&E Fee, the FF&E Expenses or the Base Fee (as defined below) at the end of the Sale Term with respect to all Stores, Warehouses and the E-Commerce Platform and to the extent not expended shall be returned to the Merchant as part of the Final Reconciliation or such other time that Merchant and Consultant mutually agree.

4. CONSULTANT'S FEES

4.1 Consultant shall be entitled to a base fee equal to two and one-half percent (2.5%) of the Gross Proceeds generated from the sale of the Merchandise through the Stores and Warehouses (including to the extent any such channels are agreed by Merchant, the e-commerce channels operated by Consultant but excluding for the avoidance of doubt Amazon or any other e-commerce channels operated independently from Consultant) during the Sale (the "Base Fee"); provided, however that notwithstanding the foregoing or anything in this Agreement to the contrary, in no event shall Consultant be entitled to earn any Base Fee with respect to merchandise, furniture, fixtures (trade or other) and/or equipment that is sold through Amazon (whether sold through Consultant's efforts or otherwise) pursuant to purchase orders placed before the filing of the Bankruptcy Case (and the same shall be deemed not to be "Merchandise"). The Base Fee due to Consultant shall be paid weekly from the proceeds of the Sale after it is earned as provided below. For the avoidance of doubt, no Base Fee is payable on assets that do not constitute Merchandise or which are otherwise withdrawn from the Sale or are otherwise sales outside the Stores or the Warehouses (or to the extent any such channels are agreed by Merchant, the e-commerce channels operated by Consultant), and any disposition or sale of (or fees or consideration for the disposition or sale of) accounts receivable, intellectual property or real estate (or the provision of real estate services), if any, would require a separate written agreement with Merchant.

5. INVOICES; RECONCILIATION

5.1 Consultant shall submit invoices to Merchant on a weekly basis setting forth any actual, reasonable and documented Sale Expenses and FF&E Expenses it has incurred and the applicable portion of the Base Fee, the FF&E Fee and the Additional Goods Fee (as defined below) that have been earned during the prior one-week period, together with invoices and statements supporting such amounts. Within two business days of the submission of such invoices and supporting documents, any amount of such invoices not disputed by Merchant shall be paid in full by Merchant to Consultant or, in case of the Additional Goods Fee, by Consultant to Merchant. The Merchant shall include Sale Expenses, FF&E Expenses, and the Base Fee in the budget approved in any financing or cash collateral order entered by the Bankruptcy Court; provided that no such amount shall be in contravention of the terms of this Agreement or in excess of the Consultant Expense Budget.

5.2 Within thirty (30) days following the Sale Termination Date, the Parties shall complete a final reconciliation of the Gross Proceeds from the Sale, the expenses incurred and the fee payable to Consultant (the "Final Reconciliation") and pay any amounts due hereunder.

6. STORE EMPLOYEES

6.1 Following consultation with Consultant regarding appropriate staffing levels for the Stores, Merchant shall select and use commercially reasonable efforts to seek to retain an appropriate number of Store Employees during the Sale Term to meet such staffing levels.

6.2 Subject to Section 9.1 hereof, Consultant shall have no liability to the Store Employees (or any of Merchant's former employees) with respect to severance pay, termination pay, vacation pay, pay in lieu of reasonable notice of termination, or any other expenses or liability arising from Merchant's employment of such Store Employees prior to, during, and subsequent to the Sale.

6.3 At Merchant's request, in the event that any Store Employees terminate their employment or services during the Sale Term, Consultant agrees to use commercially reasonable efforts to assist Merchant supplementing or replacing such Store Employees as mutually deemed necessary by the Parties with temporary employees (the "Temporary Employees"). Merchant shall be responsible for any wages payable with respect to such Temporary Employees during the Sale Term (following approval by Merchant of the engagement and compensation of such Temporary Employee), and to the extent such wages are payable by Consultant they shall be deemed Sale Expenses.

7. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF CONSULTANT

7.1 Consultant hereby represents, warrants and covenants in favor of Merchant as follows:

(a) Each Consultant Party has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder, and Consultant has taken all necessary action required to authorize the execution, performance and delivery of this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) This Agreement has been duly and validly executed by Consultant and is a valid and binding obligation of Consultant enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject only to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and the availability of equitable remedies.

(c) No action or proceeding has been instituted or, to Consultant's knowledge, threatened, affecting the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated herein.

(d) Consultant will comply with and act in accordance with any and all applicable federal, state, provincial, municipal and local laws, rules and regulations and other legal obligations of all governmental authorities and the terms/restrictions of the underlying Store leases, except as otherwise allowed pursuant to any Bankruptcy Court order or, with respect to the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada, the Canadian Sale Guidelines or any order of the Canadian Court.

8. REPRESENTATIONS AND WARRANTIES OF MERCHANT

(a) Merchant has full power and authority to execute and deliver this Agreement and to perform its obligations hereunder, and Merchant shall have taken all necessary action required to authorize its execution, performance and delivery of this Agreement and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) This Agreement shall be a valid and binding obligation of Merchant enforceable in accordance with its terms, subject only to any applicable bankruptcy, insolvency or similar laws affecting the rights of creditors generally and the availability of equitable remedies.

(c) To the best of Merchant's knowledge, no action or proceeding has been instituted or threatened that affects the consummation of this Agreement or the transactions contemplated herein.

(d) Merchant will own on the Sale Commencement Date, and will own at all times during the Sale Term until they are sold, good and marketable title to all of the Merchandise, which Merchandise when sold shall be sold free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances of any nature with any such liens, claims and encumbrances to attach to the Gross Proceeds subject to the Base Fee, FF&E Fee and Sale Expenses.

(e) To the best of Merchant's knowledge: (i) Merchant has maintained its pricing files with respect to the Merchandise in the ordinary course of business, and prices charged to the public for such Merchandise are the same in all material respects as set forth in such pricing files for the periods indicated therein; and (ii) all pricing files as of the Sale Commencement Date relative to the Merchandise have been or upon request will be made available to Consultant.

(f) To the best of Merchant's knowledge, all Merchandise is in compliance with all applicable federal, provincial, state, municipal or local product safety laws, rules, and standards in all material respects.

(g) Throughout the Sale Term, Merchant will use commercially reasonable efforts to provide that Consultant shall have the right to the unencumbered use and occupancy of, and peaceful and quiet possession of, each of the Stores, the Merchandise, and the utilities and other services provided at the Stores. Merchant shall, throughout the Sale Term, use commercially reasonable efforts to maintain in good working order, condition and repair all cash registers, heating systems, air conditioning systems, elevators, escalators, and all other mechanical devices necessary for the conduct of the Sale at the Stores.

9. AFFIRMATIVE DUTIES OF CONSULTANT

9.1 Consultant shall indemnify and hold harmless Merchant and its affiliates and its and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and independent contractors (collectively, "Merchant Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all claims, causes of action, demands, penalties, losses, liability, damage or other obligations, including, without limitation, reasonable attorneys' fees and expenses (collectively, "Losses"), resulting from or arising out of: (i) Consultant's material breach of or failure to comply with any of its agreements, covenants, representations or warranties contained herein or in any written agreement entered into in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; (ii) any claims by any party engaged by Consultant as an employee or independent contractor (including Supervisors) arising out of such engagement (including any payroll claims, wage claims, claims for taxes or other amounts required to be withheld, or unemployment compensation claims, or claims for harassment or any other unlawful, tortious or otherwise actionable treatment); (iii) any harassment or any other unlawful, tortious or otherwise actionable treatment of any employees, contractors, customers or representatives of any Merchant Indemnified Party by Consultant or any of its affiliates, or any of their respective representatives, including any Supervisor ("Harassment Claims"); (iv) any consumer warranty or products liability claims relating to Additional Goods; (v) any amounts related to sales taxes for Additional Goods; and (vi) the fraud, gross negligence (including omissions) or willful misconduct of Consultant or any Supervisor, or any of their respective affiliates, or their or their respective affiliates' officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives under or in connection with this Agreement or otherwise in connection with the Sale. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 9.1, Consultant does not indemnify or hold harmless any Merchant Indemnified Party from or against any Loss resulting from or related to or which otherwise arise out of or in connection with the fraud, gross negligence (including omissions) or willful misconduct of Merchant or any of its affiliates, or its or their respective affiliates' officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives or Merchant's breach of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, "Losses" shall exclude (x) punitive or exemplary damages, (y) any damages that are speculative or whose existence or amount cannot be established with reasonable certainty and (z) any indirect, incidental, special or consequential damages (including lost profits) except to the extent reasonably foreseeable as a natural probable consequence of the matter giving rise to the applicable claim, except in case of clause (x) and clause (z) to the extent paid by the applicable indemnified Party in connection with a third party claim.

9.2 Consultant shall comply with applicable federal, provincial, state, municipal and local laws, rules and regulations in connection with the Sale and otherwise in connection with this Agreement, except as otherwise allowed pursuant to any Bankruptcy Court order or, with respect to the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada, the Canadian Sale Guidelines or any order of the Canadian Court.

9.3 Consultant shall conduct the Sale in accordance with the terms of this Agreement, the Sale Guidelines, the Order (as defined below), and with respect to the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada, the Canadian Recognition Order (as defined below).

9.4 Consultant will not take any disciplinary action against any employee of Merchant or any of its affiliates, including any Store Employee.

9.5 Consultant shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Supervisors, Temporary Employees and all other representatives and agents of Consultant to cooperate with Merchant and its agents in connection with the Sale during the Sale Term.

10. AFFIRMATIVE DUTIES OF MERCHANT

10.1 Merchant shall be solely liable for, and shall pay when due, all Sale Expenses (solely up to an amount not to exceed the Consultant Expense Budget) as well as (in each case excluding Sale Expenses) all other taxes, costs, expenses, accounts payable and other liabilities relating to the Sale, the Stores, Store Employees and Merchant's business operations during the Sale, including all occupancy expenses, excluding, in each case, any such matters (a) for which Consultant is required to indemnify Merchant pursuant to Section 9, (b) for which the taxes, costs, expenses, accounts payable or other liabilities are specifically otherwise allocated to Consultant pursuant to this Agreement or (c) which otherwise arise out of or in connection with the fraud, gross negligence (including omissions) or willful misconduct of Consultant or any Supervisor, or any of their respective affiliates, or their or their respective affiliates' officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives or Consultant's breach of this Agreement.

10.2 Merchant shall prepare and process all reporting forms, certificates, reports and other documentation required in connection with the payment of all applicable taxes for the Stores to the appropriate taxing authorities. Merchant shall collect all sales taxes from sales of Merchandise and Additional Goods, and shall pay the same to the appropriate taxing authorities in accordance with the applicable law.

10.3 Merchant shall use commercially reasonable efforts to cause all Store Employees and all other representatives and agents of Merchant to cooperate with Consultant and its agents in connection with the Sale during the Sale Term.

10.4 Merchant shall indemnify and hold harmless Consultant and its affiliates and their respective officers, directors, employees, agents, representatives and independent contractors (collectively, "Consultant Indemnified Parties") from and against any and all Losses resulting from or arising out of: (i) Merchant's material breach of or failure to comply with any of its agreements, covenants, representations or warranties contained herein or in any written agreement entered into in connection with this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby; (ii) except in respect of Additional Goods, any failure by Merchant to pay when due any sales taxes to the proper taxing authorities, to properly file with any taxing authorities any reports or documents required by applicable law to be filed in respect thereof, or to pay any amounts due pursuant to Section 10.1 hereof; (iii) any claims by any party engaged by Merchant as an employee or independent contractor (including Store Employees) arising out of such engagement (including any payroll claims, wage claims, claims for taxes or other amounts required to be withheld, unemployment compensation claims or claims by employees arising under workers' compensation or the WARN Act), other than (A) Harassment Claims or (B) claims arising from (1) the fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct of Consultant or any of its affiliates or any of their representatives (including for the avoidance of doubt any Supervisor or Temporary Employee) or (2) Consultant's breach of this Agreement; (iv) any liability or other claims, including, without limitation, any consumer warranty or products liability claims asserted by customers against Consultant or any Consultant Indemnified Party with respect to the Merchandise or FF&E, except claims arising from (A) the fraud, gross negligence or willful misconduct of Consultant or any of its affiliates or any of their representatives or (B)

Consultant's breach of this Agreement; (v) any harassment or any other unlawful, tortious, or otherwise actionable treatment of any employees, contractors, customers or representatives of any Consultant Indemnified Party by Merchant or any of its affiliates, or any of their respective representatives; (vi) the fraud, gross negligence (including omissions) or willful misconduct of Merchant or any of its officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives under or in connection with this Agreement or otherwise in connection with the Sale; and (vii) any liability or other claims arising out of liens, claims, interests and encumbrances asserted against the Merchandise or FF&E by any third parties. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this Section 10.4, Merchant does not indemnify and hold harmless any Consultant Indemnified Party from or against any Loss resulting from or related to or which otherwise arise out of or in connection with the fraud, gross negligence (including omissions) or willful misconduct of Consultant or any Supervisor, or any of their respective affiliates, or their or their respective affiliates' officers, directors, employees, agents or representatives or Consultant's breach of this Agreement.

10.5 In connection with the Sale during the applicable Sale Term, Consultant shall utilize Merchant's trade name in Consultant's Sale-related advertising and on Consultant's website. The Sale of Merchandise shall be conducted utilizing the Merchant's trade names in a manner consistent with past practice; provided further that advertisements may be made in the manner specified in this Agreement in accordance with this Agreement. Except for the limited permission expressly provided in this Section 10.5, no right, title or interest in Merchant's trade names, trademarks, logos or trade dress is granted to Consultant, and all goodwill arising from their permitted use shall inure solely to the benefit of Merchant or the applicable owner. Upon expiration of the applicable Sale Term or earlier termination of this Agreement, Consultant shall cease such use and promptly remove the applicable materials from its website and other advertising channels.

11. INSURANCE

11.1 Merchant shall maintain throughout the Sale Term liability insurance policies (including, but not limited to, product liability, comprehensive public liability insurance and auto liability insurance), consistent with its existing coverage, covering injuries to persons and property in or in connection with Merchant's operation of the Stores and the Warehouses and with respect to the E-Commerce Platform (as applicable), and shall cause Consultant to be an additional insured with respect to all applicable policies. Merchant shall be responsible for the payment of all deductibles, self-insurance and other amounts payable in connection with any claim asserted under such policies, except for any claims arising directly from the negligence, willful misconduct or unlawful acts of Consultant or its employees, representatives, agents or Supervisors or Temporary Employees.

11.2 Consultant shall maintain throughout the Sale Term liability insurance policies (including, but not limited to, product liability, comprehensive public liability insurance and auto liability insurance) covering injuries to persons and property in or in connection with Consultant's provision of services at the Stores, and shall cause Merchant to be an additional insured with respect to applicable policies.

12.2 This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted in accordance with the internal laws of the State of Delaware without reference to any conflict of laws provisions to the extent they would have the effect of applying the laws of any other jurisdiction. Any action of any kind whatsoever, including a counterclaim, cross-claim, or defense, regardless of the legal theory under which any liability or obligation may be sought to be imposed, whether sounding in contract or in tort or under statute, or whether at law or in equity, or otherwise under any legal or equitable theory, that may be based upon, arising out of, or related to this Agreement, the negotiation, execution, or performance of this Agreement, or the transactions contemplated hereby and any questions concerning the construction, interpretation, validity, and enforceability of this Agreement (each, an "Agreement Dispute") brought by any other Party or its successors or assigns will be brought and determined only in (a) the Bankruptcy Court and any federal court to which an appeal from the Bankruptcy Court may be validly taken or (b) if the Bankruptcy Court is unwilling or unable to hear such action, in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware (or if such court lacks jurisdiction, any other state or federal court sitting in the State of Delaware) (the courts referred to in clause (a) and clause (b), the "Chosen Courts"). Each of the Parties irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Chosen Courts for itself and with respect to its property, generally and unconditionally, with regard to any Agreement Dispute. No Party will commence any Agreement Dispute except in the Chosen Courts, other than actions in any court of competent jurisdiction to enforce any order rendered by any Chosen Courts, and no Party will file a motion to dismiss any Agreement Dispute filed in a Chosen Court on any jurisdictional or venue-related grounds, including the doctrine of forum non-conveniens. Venue would be proper in any of the Chosen Courts, and each Party hereby irrevocably waives any objection that any Chosen Court is an improper or inconvenient forum for any Agreement Dispute. Each of the Parties irrevocably and unconditionally consents to service of process in the manner provided for notices in Section 12.1. Nothing in this Agreement will affect the right of any Party to serve process in any other manner permitted by law.

12.3 ANY AGREEMENT DISPUTE IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES AND THEREFORE EACH PARTY HEREBY WAIVES, TO THE FULLEST EXTENT PERMITTED BY APPLICABLE LAW, ANY RIGHT IT MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN ANY AGREEMENT DISPUTE. ANY AGREEMENT DISPUTE WILL BE DECIDED BY COURT TRIAL WITHOUT A JURY AND THE PARTIES MAY FILE AN ORIGINAL COUNTERPART OF A COPY OF THIS AGREEMENT WITH ANY COURT AS WRITTEN EVIDENCE OF THE CONSENT OF THE PARTIES TO THE IRREVOCABLE WAIVER OF THEIR RIGHT TO TRIAL BY JURY. EACH PARTY (I) CERTIFIES THAT NO REPRESENTATIVE OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF ANY AGREEMENT DISPUTE, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER AND (II) ACKNOWLEDGES THAT IT AND THE OTHER PARTIES HAVE BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE MUTUAL WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 12.3.

12.4 Whenever possible, each provision of this Agreement will be interpreted in such manner as to be effective and valid under applicable law, but if any provision of this Agreement is held to be prohibited by, or invalid, under applicable law in any jurisdiction, such provision will be ineffective only to the extent of such prohibition or invalidity in such jurisdiction, without invalidating the remainder of such provision or the remaining provisions of this Agreement or in any other jurisdiction. Upon such determination that any provision is prohibited by, or invalid, under applicable law, the Parties shall negotiate in good faith to modify this Agreement so as to effect the original intent of the Parties as closely as possible in an acceptable manner to the end that the transactions contemplated hereby are fulfilled to the fullest extent possible. If the Parties are unable to agree on such a modification, the court or other authority making such determination of prohibition or invalidity will have the power to reduce the scope, duration, area, or applicability of the provision, to delete specific words or phrases, or to replace the prohibited or invalid provision with a provision that is valid and enforceable and that comes closest to expressing the intention of the prohibited or invalid provision.

12.5 This Agreement, together with the Applicable Confidentiality Agreements, constitute the entire agreement between the Parties with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior negotiations and understandings, and can only be modified by a writing signed by Merchant and Consultant. The Parties have participated jointly in the negotiation and drafting of this Agreement; consequently, in the event an ambiguity or question of intent or interpretation arises, this Agreement shall be construed as jointly drafted by the Parties and no presumption or burden of proof shall arise favoring or disfavoring any Party by virtue of the authorship of any provision of this Agreement.

12.6 Consultant may not assign this Agreement without the express prior written consent of Merchant. This Agreement shall inure to the benefit of, and be binding upon, the Parties and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Consultant shall have the right to syndicate its rights under this Agreement but in any event shall remain responsible to Merchant for all acts and omissions of any third party that Consultant syndicates its rights to (and the actions and omissions of such third parties for the avoidance of doubt shall be attributed to Consultant for purposes of Section 9.1 and the carveouts to Merchant's obligations pursuant to Section 10.4), and for the performance in accordance with this Agreement of the portion of the Services that are syndicated. Unless Merchant provides prior written consent, Consultant may syndicate rights only to firms with a similar reputation and standing in the applicable market as Consultant possesses in the United States.

12.7 This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which when so executed shall be deemed to be an original and such counterparts, together, shall constitute one and the same instrument. Delivery by electronic mail of this Agreement or an executed counterpart hereof shall be deemed a good and valid execution and delivery hereof or thereof.

12.8 Nothing contained herein shall be deemed to create any relationship between Consultant and Merchant other than that of an independent contractor. It is stipulated that the Parties are not partners or joint venturers.

12.9 Each of the Consultant Parties shall be jointly and severally liable for all obligations and liabilities of Consultant under this Agreement. Merchant may enforce any such obligation or liability against any one or more Consultant Parties without first seeking recovery from any other Consultant Party.

12.10 With respect to Merchant, The Children's Place, Inc. is authorized to act on behalf of each of its subsidiaries in all matters under this Agreement, including giving and receiving notices, consents, approvals and other communications. Any action taken or notice or other communication given or received by The Children's Place, Inc. on behalf of any subsidiary under this Agreement shall be deemed taken, given or received on behalf of such subsidiary and shall be binding upon it.

12.11 In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between (i) this Agreement and the US Sale Guidelines, as may be approved, modified or amended by the Bankruptcy Court, the US Sale Guidelines shall govern with respect to the Stores located in the United States (the "US Stores"), and (ii) this Agreement and the Canadian Sale Guidelines, as may be approved, modified or amended by the Canadian Court, the Canadian Sale Guidelines shall govern with respect to the Stores located in Canada (the "Canada Stores") and the Warehouses located in Canada.

13. ADDITIONAL GOODS

13.1 After the Sale Commencement Date, upon the express prior written consent of Merchant with respect to each applicable Store, Consultant may deliver, at Consultant's sole cost and expense, to any Store certain items of merchandise (the "Additional Goods") of like kind and quality to the Merchandise in the Stores to be sold during the Sale. Merchant acknowledges that Consultant may discuss acquiring Additional Goods for the Sale with existing vendors of Merchant as well as Consultant's sources.

13.2 Consultant and Merchant intend that the transactions relating to the Additional Goods are, and shall be, construed as, a true consignment from Consultant to the Merchant in all respects and not a consignment for security purposes. Subject solely to Consultant's obligations to pay to the Merchant the Additional Goods Fee (as defined below), at all times and for all purposes the Additional Goods and their proceeds shall be the exclusive property of the Consultant, and no other person or entity shall have any claim against any of the Additional Goods or the Additional Goods Proceeds, including the Lenders other than as as to the Additional Goods Fee payable to Merchant. The Merchant acknowledges that the Additional Goods shall be consigned to the Merchant as a true consignment under Article 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code. The Lenders shall not be granted any liens on the Additional Goods or the Additional Goods Proceeds (other than the Additional Goods Fee payable to Merchant) in any financing or cash collateral order entered by the Bankruptcy Court.

13.3 Consultant shall utilize distinct SKUs or other means to distinguish the Additional Goods from Merchandise at the Stores. The process shall be mutually acceptable to the Parties. Merchant shall collect all actual proceeds from sales of Additional Goods ("Additional Goods Proceeds") and distribute those proceeds to Consultant, less a fee to Merchant equal to six and one-half percent (6.5%) of Additional Goods Proceeds (the "Additional Goods Fee"), and less the applicable sales taxes from sales of Additional Goods, as part of the weekly reconciliation hereunder. Merchant shall collect applicable sales taxes from sales of Additional Goods at the point of sale and Merchant shall have full responsibility for the payment of such sales taxes to the appropriate taxing authorities in accordance with the applicable law, as well as in preparing and processing all reporting forms, certificates, reports and other documentation required in connection with the payment of such taxes.

13.4 Subject to Merchant's consent, Consultant may make arrangements for the purchase of Additional Goods from Consultant's suppliers of goods as well as Merchant's existing suppliers of goods in a manner that is not disruptive to the Sale or Merchant's business relationships with such persons. To assist Consultant in that regard, from and after the date of this Agreement and solely on a non-binding basis without any liability to Merchant in connection therewith, Merchant shall, if requested by Consultant in writing, use Merchant's commercially reasonable efforts to assist Consultant with its efforts to negotiate orders with Merchant's suppliers for goods that Consultant is interested in purchasing as Additional Goods.

13.5 Immediately following the Sale Termination Date, Consultant shall remove, at its sole cost and expense, the remaining Additional Goods, if any, from the Stores. As part of the Final Reconciliation, Consultant and Merchant shall jointly prepare a final reconciliation of the sale of Additional Goods, consisting of a summary of Additional Goods Proceeds and any sales taxes paid in respect thereto. During the Sale, and until the Final Reconciliation is complete and all obligations under this Agreement have been satisfied, Merchant and Consultant shall have reasonable access to review and audit each other's records with respect to Additional Goods Proceeds and sales taxes related thereto. The Parties shall cooperate in good faith to resolve any disputes regarding such reconciliation. Upon completion of the Final Reconciliation, the Parties shall pay any remaining amounts necessary to give effect to the Additional Goods Fee under Section 13.3.

14. FIXTURES

14.1 Consultant shall sell the furnishings, trade fixtures, equipment and improvements to real property owned by Merchant that are located in the Stores, the corporate and other offices of Merchant, and (solely after January 31, 2027) the Warehouses (collectively, "FF&E") for Merchant's benefit, for a commission equal to fifteen percent (15%) of the gross proceeds (net of applicable sales and other taxes) from the sale of such FF&E (the "FF&E Fee"), plus reimbursement of Consultant's actual, reasonable and documented out-of-pocket expenses incurred in connection with the sale of such assets (the "FF&E Expenses"), pursuant to a budget established by mutual agreement between Merchant and Consultant, provided that Consultant shall not sell any FF&E necessary for the operation of the E-Commerce Platform or located at the Owned Distribution Center or at any corporate office until Merchant provides its written approval, and shall ensure that FF&E sales with respect to all Stores and Warehouses and the E-Commerce Platform are effected in a manner that is not disruptive to the execution of the Sale. If requested in writing by Merchant, Consultant shall cease any and all FF&E sales as promptly as practicable and in any event within three days.

15. BANKRUPTCY

15.1 In the event that Merchant seeks relief under chapter 11 of title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101-1532 (the "Bankruptcy Code" and the case commenced thereby, a "Bankruptcy Case"), Merchant shall promptly seek United States Bankruptcy Court for District of New Jersey ("Bankruptcy Court") authority and approval (as applicable) to, among other things, (a) assume this Agreement and (b) conduct the Sale pursuant to the Sale Guidelines under sections 363 and 365 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (and not pursuant to sections 327, 328, 330, or 331 thereof). Such authority and approval will be sought pursuant to one or more interim and final orders (collectively, the "Order") with terms acceptable to both Merchant and Consultant that provide for, among other things, the following relief: (i) assumption of this Agreement; (ii) the payment of all fees and reimbursement of expenses hereunder to Consultant without further order of the Bankruptcy Court or the Canadian Court, free and clear of all liens, claims and encumbrances, on a weekly basis and otherwise in accordance with this Agreement; (iii) approval of the Sale Guidelines; (iv) approval of the transactions contemplated hereby, including the Sale pursuant to the Sale Guidelines and, in respect of the US Stores, without the necessity of complying with state and local rules, laws, ordinances and regulations, including, without limitation, permitting and licensing requirements, that could otherwise govern the Sale (it being acknowledged that the Sale at the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada shall be conducted in accordance with applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws and regulations, except as otherwise provided in the Canadian Sale Guidelines or ordered by the Canadian Court); (v) authorizing the Sale notwithstanding restrictions in leases, reciprocal easement agreements or other contracts that purport to restrict the Sale or the necessity of obtaining any third party consents; (vi) authorizing the sale of Additional Goods on the terms herein; (vii) inclusion of Consultant's fees and expenses in the budget approved in any financing order entered by the Bankruptcy Court; and (vii) authorizing Merchant to take all further actions as are necessary or appropriate to carry out the terms and conditions of this Agreement. In the event of a Bankruptcy Case filing and subject to Section 15.2, and notwithstanding Section 12.2, the Bankruptcy Court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to resolve any issues arising in connection with this Agreement, including any legal action, suit or proceeding arising after the commencement of a Bankruptcy Case, and each Party hereby waives any defenses or objections based on lack of jurisdiction, improper venue, and/or forum non conveniens. From and after entry of the Order, if applicable, Consultant shall conduct the Sale in accordance with the terms of the Agreement, the Order, the Canadian Recognition Order (in respect of the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada) and the Sale Guidelines in all material respects. In the event Merchant commences a Bankruptcy Case and the Order is not entered by the Bankruptcy Court or does not include all material terms and conditions contained herein, (x) Merchant shall reimburse Consultant for any actual, reasonable and documented Sale Expenses actually incurred in connection with the Sale through and including the day immediately after denial of such motion by the Bankruptcy Court and (y) Consultant may, in its sole discretion, elect to apply the Deposit and/or to terminate this Agreement.

15.2 In the event of a Bankruptcy Case, Merchant shall, as soon as reasonably practicable following entry of each interim and final Order, as applicable, seek an order (the "Canadian Recognition Order") of the Ontario Superior Court of Justice (Commercial List) or such other court of competent jurisdiction (the "Canadian Court") in the proceedings commenced in respect of Merchant under Part IV of the Companies' Creditors Arrangement Act, R.S.C. 1985, c. C-36, as amended (the "CCAA" and such proceedings, the "Recognition Proceedings") recognizing and giving full force and effect to the Order in Canada pursuant to section 49 of the CCAA. Consultant acknowledges and agrees that: (i) the Sale at the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada following the commencement of the Recognition Proceedings shall be subject to the Canadian Recognition Order, and Consultant shall conduct the Sale at the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada in accordance with the Canadian Recognition Order and the Canadian Sale Guidelines as approved by the Canadian Court; (ii) in the event of any conflict between this Agreement or the Order, on the one hand, and the Canadian Recognition Order or any other order of the Canadian Court, on the other hand, the orders of the Canadian Court shall govern solely with respect to the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada and the property of Merchant in Canada; (iii) notwithstanding Section 15.1 and Section 12.2, the Canadian Court shall have jurisdiction to resolve any dispute relating to the conduct of the Sale at the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada, the Canadian Sale Guidelines or the property of Merchant in Canada, including any dispute with landlords of the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada; and (iv) Consultant shall cooperate with Merchant and any information officer appointed by the Canadian Court in the Recognition Proceedings (the "Information Officer"), including by providing such information as the Information Officer may reasonably require to report to the Canadian Court, and shall use commercially reasonable efforts to assist Merchant in resolving any objections to the relief sought in the Recognition Proceedings. In the event the Canadian Recognition Order is not granted by the Canadian Court or does not include all material terms and conditions contained herein, (x) Merchant shall reimburse Consultant for any actual, reasonable and documented Sale Expenses incurred in connection with the Sale at the Canada Stores and the Warehouses located in Canada through and including the day immediately after denial of such relief by the Canadian Court and (y) Consultant may, in its sole discretion, elect to terminate this Agreement solely with respect to the Canada Stores, the Warehouses located in Canada and the Sale in Canada, and this Agreement shall otherwise remain in full force and effect.

16. E-COMMERCE PLATFORM

16.1 Consultant shall have the right to use Merchant's e-commerce site and related sales platform ("E-Commerce Platform") in connection with the Sale to fulfill customer orders made during the Sale Term and otherwise promote, subject to Merchant's approval rights herein, the Sale (in Consultant's capacity as Consultant hereunder) and Merchant shall use commercially reasonable efforts to continue to seek to provide for the operation and maintenance of the E-Commerce Platform in the ordinary course of business and seek to provide Consultant with reasonable assistance with respect to the functionality of the E-Commerce Platform, fulfillment of orders, and promotion of the Sale. Consultant shall use commercially reasonable efforts to notify Merchant of its intention to stop using the E-Commerce Platform as soon as possible. Upon discontinuing the use of the E-Commerce Platform as a sales platform to fulfill customer orders, Merchant, at its option, shall either (a) host the E-Commerce Platform, at no cost or expense to Consultant, for the limited purposes of advertising and promoting the Sale at the Stores, periodically updating such advertising and promotions, and maintaining and updating the Store locator function or (b) shall cooperate with Consultant to allow Consultant to transition and host the E-Commerce Platform, at no cost or expense to Consultant, for the limited purposes of advertising and promoting the Sale at the Stores, periodically updating such advertising and promotions, and maintaining and updating the Store locator function. US Sale Guidelines

US SALE GUIDELINES

The following procedures shall apply to the sales of Merchandise and FF&E at the Stores, Warehouses and corporate offices in the US.

1. The Sale will be conducted during normal business hours or such hours as otherwise permitted by the applicable unexpired lease.

2. The Sale will be conducted in accordance with applicable state and local "Blue Laws," and thus, where such a law is applicable, no Sale will be conducted on Sunday unless the Merchant has been operating such stores on Sundays.

3. On "shopping center" property, neither the Merchant nor the Consultant shall distribute handbills, leaflets, or other written materials to customers outside of any stores' premises, unless permitted by the applicable lease or if distribution is customary in the "shopping center" in which such store is located; provided that the Merchant and the Consultant may solicit customers in the stores themselves. On "shopping center" property, neither the Merchant nor the Consultant shall use any flashing lights or amplified sound to advertise the Sale or solicit customers, except as permitted under the applicable lease or agreed in writing by the landlord.

4. Subject to Section 14.1 of the Consulting Agreement, the Merchant and the Consultant shall have the right to use and sell the FF&E. The Merchant and the Consultant may advertise the sale of the FF&E in a manner consistent with these Sale Guidelines. The purchasers of any FF&E sold during the Sale shall be permitted to remove the FF&E either through the back or alternative shipping areas at any time, or through other areas after Store business hours; provided, however, that the foregoing shall not apply to de minimis FF&E sales made whereby the item can be carried out of a Store in a shopping bag.

5. Subject to Section 2.6 of the Consulting Agreement, (a) the Merchant and the Consultant may, but are not required to, advertise the Sale as "store closing," "sale on everything/everything on sale," "everything must go," "going out of business," or similarly themed Sale and (b) the Merchant and the Consultant may also have a "countdown to closing" sign prominently displayed in a manner consistent with these Sale Guidelines.

6. Subject to Section 2.6 of the Consulting Agreement, the Merchant and the Consultant shall be permitted to utilize sign walkers, displays, hanging signs, and interior banners in connection with the Sale; provided that such sign walkers, displays, hanging signs, and interior banners shall be professionally produced and hung in a professional manner. Neither the Merchant nor the Consultant shall use neon or day-glo on their sign walkers, displays, hanging signs, or interior banners if prohibited by the applicable lease or applicable law. Furthermore, with respect to enclosed mall locations, no exterior signs or signs in common areas of a mall shall be used unless otherwise expressly permitted in these Sale Guidelines. In addition, the Merchant and the Consultant shall be permitted to utilize exterior banners at (a) non-enclosed mall stores and (b) enclosed mall stores to the extent the entrance to the applicable Store does not require entry into the enclosed mall common area; provided, however, that such banners shall be located or hung so as to make clear that the Sale is being conducted only at the affected Store and shall not be wider than the storefront of the Store. In addition, the Merchant shall be permitted to utilize sign walkers in a safe and professional manner. Nothing contained in these Sale Guidelines shall be construed to create or impose upon the Merchant or the Consultant any additional restrictions not contained in the applicable lease agreement.

7. Neither the Merchant nor the Consultant shall make any alterations to the storefront, roof, or exterior walls of any stores or shopping centers, or to interior or exterior store lighting, except as authorized by the applicable lease. The hanging of in-Store signage shall not constitute an alteration to a Store.

8. Affected landlords will have the ability to negotiate with the Merchant, or at the Merchant's direction, the Consultant, modifications to the Sale Guidelines. The Merchant and the landlord of any Store are authorized to enter into agreements ("Side Letters") without further order of the Bankruptcy Court, provided, that Side Letters do not have a material adverse effect on the Merchant or their estates.

9. To the extent relevant, and as set forth in more detail in the Consulting Agreement, conspicuous signs will be posted in each of the affected stores to the effect that all Sale are "final."

10. The Merchant will keep store premises and surrounding areas clear and orderly, consistent with past practices.

11. An unexpired nonresidential real property lease will not be deemed rejected by reason of the Sale or the adoption of these Sale Guidelines.

12. The rights of landlords against the Merchant for any damages to a store shall be reserved in accordance with the provisions of the applicable lease.

13. If and to the extent that the landlord of any Store contends that the Merchant or the Consultant are in breach of or default under these Sale Guidelines, such landlord shall provide at least five days' written notice, served by email or overnight delivery, on:

CANADIAN SALE GUIDELINES

The following procedures (the "Canadian Sale Guidelines") shall apply to the sales (the "Sales") of any merchandise, inventory, furniture, fixtures and equipment at The Children's Place (Canada), LP retail store locations in Canada set forth in Exhibit A to the Consulting Agreement (as defined below), as may be amended from time to time in accordance with the Consulting Agreement (individually, a "Store" and collectively, the "Stores").

Terms capitalized but not defined in these Canadian Sale Guidelines have the respective meanings ascribed to them in the Debtors' motion for entry of the U.S. Store Closing Order (as defined herein).

1. Except as otherwise expressly set out herein, and subject to (i) any Interim Order and Final Order of the Bankruptcy Court made in cases commenced by the Debtors under the Bankruptcy Code authorizing, among other things, the Debtors to assume that certain Consulting Agreement dated as of November 3, 2026 (as amended from time to time, the "Consulting Agreement"), by and among The Children's Place, Inc. and certain of its subsidiaries, and The Children's Place (Canada), LP (collectively, and as applicable, the "Merchant") and Tiger Capital Group, LLC, SB360 Capital Partners, LLC, and GA Retail Solutions, LLC (collectively, the "Consultant") and the transactions contemplated thereunder, to the extent each is recognized and given full force and effect in Canada, subject to the terms of such Orders, pursuant to section 49 of the CCAA (collectively, the Interim Order and the Final Order, as applicable, the "U.S. Store Closing Order", and any such recognition proceedings under the CCAA, the "Recognition Proceedings"), (ii) any further Order of the Canadian Court or recognition of a further Order of the Bankruptcy Court by the Canadian Court, as applicable, or (iii) any subsequent written agreement or Side Letter between the Merchant and its applicable landlord(s) (individually, a "Landlord" and, collectively, the "Landlords") and approved by the Consultant, the Sales shall be conducted in accordance with the terms of the applicable leases or other occupancy agreements for each of the affected Stores (individually, a "Lease" and, collectively, the "Leases"). However, nothing contained herein shall be construed so as to create or impose upon the Merchant or the Consultant any additional restrictions not contained in the applicable Lease.

2. The Sales shall be conducted so that each of the Stores remain open during their normal hours of operation provided for in the respective Leases for the Stores until the earlier of (i) the applicable Sale Termination Date (as defined below) and (ii) the effective time on which such Lease is rejected in accordance with any Assumption and Rejection Procedures Order of the Bankruptcy Court recognized by the Canadian Court (the "Assumption and Rejection Procedures Order") or otherwise terminated. The Sales at the Stores shall end on the applicable premises vacate date for each Store pursuant to the Consulting Agreement, which shall be no later than February 28, 2027 (which may be adjusted pursuant to the terms of the Consulting Agreement), (such date, or such other date as determined in accordance with any U.S. Store Closing Order or any Order of the Canadian Court in the Recognition Proceedings, the "Sale Termination Date"). Rent payable under the respective Leases shall be paid by the Merchant as required pursuant to chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code or, in respect of any individual Store, as may otherwise be agreed by the Merchant and the applicable Landlord.

3. The Sales shall be conducted in accordance with applicable federal, provincial and municipal laws and regulations, unless otherwise set out herein or otherwise ordered by the Canadian Court in the Recognition Proceedings.

4. All display and hanging signs used by the Consultant in connection with the Sales shall be professionally produced and all hanging signs shall be hung in a professional manner. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Leases, all advertising and signage (including interior and exterior signage, banners and sign walkers, and any signage relating to "store closing", "everything must go", "inventory blowout" or similarly themed sales) relating to the Sale (including through any e-commerce channel) shall not be used without Merchant's prior approval. Forthwith upon request from a Landlord, the Landlord's counsel, the Merchant or any information officer appointed in the Recognition Proceedings (the "Information Officer") or their respective counsel, or the Consultant or its counsel shall provide the proposed signage packages along with proposed dimensions by email to the applicable Landlords or to their counsel of record and the applicable Landlord shall notify the Consultant of any requirement for such signage to otherwise comply with the terms of the Lease and/or these Canadian Sale Guidelines and where the provisions of the Lease conflict with these Canadian Sale Guidelines, these Canadian Sale Guidelines shall govern. The Consultant shall not use neon or day-glow signs or any handwritten signage (save that handwritten "you pay" or "topper" signs may be used). If a Landlord is concerned with "Store Closing" signs being placed in the front window of a Store or with the number or size of the signs in the front window, the Merchant, the Consultant and the Landlord will work together to resolve the dispute. Furthermore, with respect to enclosed mall Store locations without a separate entrance from the exterior of the enclosed mall, no exterior signs or signs in common areas of a mall shall be used unless explicitly permitted by the applicable Lease and shall otherwise be subject to all applicable laws. In addition, the Consultant shall be permitted to utilize exterior banners/signs at stand alone or strip mall Stores or enclosed mall Store locations with a separate entrance from the exterior of the enclosed mall (subject to Merchant's approval in advance); provided, however, that: (i) no signage in any other common areas of a mall shall be used unless explicitly permitted by the applicable Lease; and (ii) where such banners are not explicitly permitted by the applicable Lease and the applicable Landlord requests in writing that banners are not to be used, no banners shall be used absent further Order of the Canadian Court, which may be sought on an expedited basis on notice to the service list in the Recognition Proceedings (the "Service List"). Any banners used shall be located or hung so as to make clear that the Sales are being conducted only at the affected Store and shall not be wider than the premises occupied by the affected Store. All exterior banners shall be professionally hung and to the extent that there is any damage to the facade of the premises of a Store as a result of the hanging or removal of the exterior banner, such damage shall be professionally repaired at the expense of the Consultant.

5. Subject to Merchant's express prior written consent with respect to each applicable Store, the Consultant shall be entitled to include additional merchandise in the Sales; provided that each of the following is satisfied: (i) the additional merchandise is owned by the Debtors, is currently in the possession of, or in the control of, the Debtors (including in any distribution centre used by the Debtors), or is ordered by or on behalf of the Debtors from an existing supplier, including merchandise currently in transit to the Debtors (including to any distribution centre used by the Debtors) or a Store; and (ii) the additional merchandise is of the type and quality typically sold in the Stores and is consistent with any restriction on the usage of the Stores as set out in the applicable Leases.

6. The Consultant shall not distribute handbills, leaflets or other written materials to customers outside of any of the Stores on a Landlord's property, unless explicitly permitted by Merchant and by the applicable Lease or if distribution is customary in the shopping centre in which the Store is located. Otherwise, the Consultant may solicit customers in the Stores themselves. The Consultant shall not use any giant balloons, flashing lights or amplified sound to advertise the Sales or solicit customers, except as explicitly permitted by Merchant or permitted under the applicable Lease or agreed to by the applicable Landlord, and no advertising trucks shall be used on Landlord property or mall ring roads, except as explicitly permitted under the applicable Lease or otherwise agreed to by such Landlord.

7. As used in these Canadian Sale Guidelines, the "FF&E Removal Period" shall mean the period between (i) the end of the Sales in the applicable Store, and (ii) the effective time of the rejection of the applicable Lease pursuant to the Assumption and Rejection Procedures Order; provided that the expiry of the FF&E Removal Period shall be no later than the Sale Termination Date. At the conclusion of the Sales and FF&E Removal Period, if any, in each Store, the Consultant shall arrange that the premises for each Store are in "broom-swept" and clean condition, and shall arrange that the Stores are in the same condition as on the commencement of the Sales, ordinary wear and tear excepted. No property of any Landlord of a Store shall be removed or sold during the Sales. No permanent fixtures (other than FF&E (as defined below) for clarity) may be removed without the applicable Landlord's written consent unless otherwise provided by the applicable Lease and in accordance with the U.S. Store Closing Order or any Orders of the Canadian Court in the Recognition Proceedings. In addition to the foregoing, unless otherwise agreed with the applicable Landlord, any trade fixtures or personal property left in a Store after the conclusion of the Sales and the applicable FF&E Removal Period, if any, in respect of which the applicable Lease has been rejected by the Merchant shall be deemed abandoned, with the applicable Landlord having the right to dispose of the same as the Landlord chooses, without any liability whatsoever on the part of such Landlord. Nothing in this paragraph shall derogate from or expand upon the Consultant's obligations under the Consulting Agreement.
